Spring 3-2012

Welcome from the New SLPKC Chairs

Sherry L. Early PhD
Marshall University, earlys@marshall.edu

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/le_st_faculty
Part of the Education Commons, and the Leadership Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
WELCOME FROM THE NEW SLPKC CHAIRS

Just in case you missed it last time, meet the incoming 2012-2013 co-chairs of the SLPKC on the following two pages!

Spotlight on Sherry Early

Greetings! Please allow me to introduce myself as one of your co-chair elects for the Student Leadership Programs knowledge community (SLP KC). I am both honored and humbled to have been elected to this position and I look forward to serving the SLP KC to the best of my ability. To share a bit about myself, I have been a member of the leadership within the SLP KC for the past three years as the conference team leader. Those responsibilities have included collaborating with the coordinators of the pre-convention workshop, sponsored programs, mentoring program, graduate support network, community/graduate fair, and open meeting. I have enjoyed this immensely and it served as a catalyst for running for the co-chair position.

Luckily, Jan and Melissa have been phenomenal leaders, friends, and role models as co-chairs of the SLP KC. Their hard work, dedication, and expertise have helped the KC progress immensely and Mike and I hope to keep the momentum going. As a full-time doctoral student at Bowling Green State University I am thrilled to serve in this capacity while pursuing my doctorate. As someone who is passionate about leadership, this is a dream come true. My leadership experiences have included serving as the academic advisor and director for an interdisciplinary minor in leadership and civic engagement, LeaderShape cluster facilitator, many presentations/workshops on leadership, a member of the multi-institutional study of leadership (MSL) summit team, research on residential leadership, and as a student my dissertation has a leadership focus. I hope to cultivate wonderful relationships with each of you and look forward to your contributions as leaders in this KC.