

9-7-1979

Marshall University News Letter, September 7, 1979

Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu\_news\_letter

---

Recommended Citation

Office of University Relations, "Marshall University News Letter, September 7, 1979" (1979). Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986. Paper 27.

http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu\_news\_letter/27

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marshall Publications at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986 by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.

Sculpture, concert highlight Celebration '79

A sculpture dedication, a "pops" concert, and a showcase of mini-performances by Tri-State arts groups will highlight Celebration '79, a celebration of performing and visual arts, this weekend.

"A cooperative effort by 18 area arts organizations, Celebration '79 is designed as a launching point for the Tri-State's 1979-80 cultural season," said Dr. Michael E. Cerveris, Marshall University Institute for the Arts director and event coordinator.

Celebration '79 opens at noon Saturday on Huntington Center Plaza with the dedication of "Continuous Ascent," a sculpture by John Rietta, in front of the new Cabell County Public Library building.

At 2 p.m., the scene of Celebration '79 shifts to the Ritter Park Amphitheater for a free, public "pops" concert by the Wheeling Symphony Orchestra. Displays by various area cultural groups, including information on their upcoming programs, will be on exhibit at the amphitheater entrance.

The concert is a gift to area residents from the Marshall Artists Series, the Institute, individual donors through the MU Foundation, the Huntington Park Board and the West Virginia Arts and Humanities Commission, according to Mrs. Nancy Hindsley, MU cultural events coordinator and Artists Series director.

With "A Tribute to Arthur Fiedler" as its theme, the program will include a medley of Barry Manilow tunes and a performance of the "1812 Overture" complete with sound effects by a rifle team from National Guard Company B, 2nd Battalion, 19th Special Forces (Airborne).

On Sunday at 2 p.m. at the 10th Street entrance to Ritter Park, representatives from various groups will display their talents in a series of mini-performances with Dr. William Denman, MU associate professor of speech, as the master of ceremonies.

Performances are scheduled by the Musical Arts Guild; Marshall University Theater; MU Brass Ensemble with Dr. John Mead, associate professor of music, director; the Huntington Galleries Theater Association; Huntington Endowment for the Arts Children's Theater; Performing Arts Guild of Ashland, Ky., and a woodwind quintet from the Huntington Chamber Orchestra.

In addition to these performing groups, the Huntington Galleries and the Tri-State Arts Association will have visual arts exhibits.

Also taking part in the two days of activities will be: Wayne County Arts Council, MU Art Department, Opera Lovers Everywhere (OLE), Marshall Artists Series, MU Cinema Arts Society, Paramount Arts Center of Ashland, Ashland Area Art Gallery, WMUL-TV and the West Virginia Educational Broadcasting Authority.

Defensive driving sessions set

Effective March, 1981, anyone wishing to drive a state car will have to present a card certifying completion of a Defensive Driving Course before taking the wheel of a state car.

Marshall University is offering free defensive driving classes to its employees again this fall in Harris Hall Room 444. The sessions will be held as follows:

Sept. 19, 21, 26, 28	10 a.m.-noon
Oct. 9, 11, 16, 18	4-6 p.m.
Nov. 13, 20	5-9 p.m.

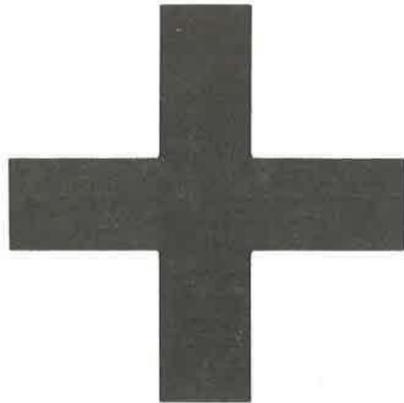

Course you wish to enroll in (check one):

- September
 October
 November

Dr. Allan Stern, assistant professor of Occupational Adult and Safety Education, said participants must attend one of the four two-hour sessions in September or October or the two four-hour sessions in November. There will be no classes in December.

Those wishing to enroll may send the following coupon to Dr. Stern in the OAS department in Harris Hall.

Name: _____
 Department: _____
 Telephone: _____

SPEND a few minutes...

SAVE somebody's life...

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Marshall University Wednesday and Thursday, September 12th and 13th, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room, Memorial Student Center. This presents us with the opportunity to help save lives without leaving the campus. Your gift of blood today may save the life of a friend or loved one tomorrow. . .

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY

News Letter

September 7, 1979

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • NEWS BUREAU • MARSHALL UNIVERSITY • HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA 25701

Dr. George Harbold announces retirement

Dr. George J. Harbold, "dean" of the academic deans at Marshall University, has announced that he plans to retire next June 30. He has served as dean of the College of Liberal Arts since 1971 and is the university's senior dean in point of service. He will observe his 62nd birthday on March 21.

Marshall Provost Olen E. Jones Jr. said the search process to select a successor will be started immediately. "Dean of the College of Liberal Arts is a key position at Marshall and we want to conduct an orderly, unhurried search to identify the best possible applicant for the job," Jones said.

Dr. Paul D. Stewart, associate provost and dean of the Graduate School, will serve as chairman of the search committee, which also will include eight representatives elected by faculty in the College of Liberal Arts, a student and a representative of the College of Science Jones said.

"We appreciate Dean Harbold's consideration in giving us this early notice of his plans to retire following the current academic year," Jones said. "That means we should be able to select a qualified successor well in advance of the 1980-81 term."

Jones added, "Both as a person and as a dean, George Harbold has earned the admiration of his colleagues at Marshall over a long period of time. We respect him greatly and appreciate very much the work he has done as the chief officer of Marshall's largest academic unit. He will be missed."

Harbold has a total of 18 years of service at Marshall, having first joined the faculty in 1947 as a speech instructor. He has been with the university continuously since 1966 and was professor of speech and chairman of the Speech Department from 1966 until his appointment as dean in 1971. He worked with the U.S. Navy from 1956 to 1966, first in voice communications research at the School of Aviation Medicine in Pensacola, Fla., and later in audiology as head of the Bio-Acoustics Division at Point Mugu, Calif.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Harbold was graduated from high school in Lake Worth, Fla. He earned his B.A. degree in 1942 and his M.A. degree in 1947, both from the University of Florida, and his Ph.D. from Ohio State University in 1955. He served in the U.S. Army Air Force from 1942 to 1945.

He is married to the former Winifred Callaway and they are the parents of two children, Jim Harbold of Oxnard, Calif., and Donna Jo Clark of Boulder, Colo.

International Dinner Sunday

An International Reception will be held 2-4 p.m. Sunday in the special dining room and patio at the Memorial Student Center. Faculty, staff and students are invited to join the international students and their families for a welcome to new foreign students.

Emeritus Club to meet

All newly-retired faculty members are urged to attend the next meeting of the Emeritus Club to be held at 12:15 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 19, in the Uptowner Inn.

Dr. Ralph Taylor will be the speaker.

Party Sept. 14

President and Mrs. Robert B. Hayes cordially invite all current and former faculty and staff members and their guests to the Annual Faculty-Staff Party for an evening of visiting with friends, a light buffet and music by The Gentleman III on Friday, Sept. 14, from 8 to 11 p.m. in Memorial Student Center's Multi-Purpose Room.

Regents summer Actions reviewed

Below is a summary of the major actions of the West Virginia Board of Regents during the months of June, July and August:

1. The Board approved one new policy bulletin (PB 52) and the revisions of two older ones (PB36 and PB17).

-PB 52 (Policy Regarding Employee Relations Procedures) outlines a grievance procedure for non-teaching personnel.

-The revision of PB36 (Policy Regarding Academic Freedom and Responsibility, Appointment, Promotion, Tenure and Termination of Employment of Professional Personnel) was prompted by the passage of House Bill 817. Time did not allow a review of the entire document. For this reason the ad hoc PB36 committee, in recommending approval of its draft, included the proviso that it would continue to study the total policy to determine what additional modifications should be recommended to the Board. Faculty are being urged to submit suggestions through their Faculty Advisory Council representatives.

-The draft revision of PB17 (Policy Regarding the Transferability of Credits and Grades at the Undergraduate level) represented the work of several groups, including the Board's Academic Affairs Advisory Committee, the Advisory Council of Faculty and the Council of Public College Presidents.

2. Final touches are being applied to the Profile of Progress by the Board's Long-Range Plan Committee, and the committee will seek the approval of the draft from the full Board at its September meeting. The Committee will recommend that there be opportunity for annual updates to institutional mission statements within the planning period, which extends to 1985-86.

3. Board of Regents officers for 1979-80 are as follows: Mr. Russell L. Isaacs, president; Mrs. Sue S. Farnsworth, vice president; and Reverend Paul J. Gilmer secretary.

4. MARSHALL UNIVERSITY received Board approval of the following:

-a new program in Occupational Home Economics Teacher Education;

-a Middle Childhood Education program designed to prepare teachers for students in middle childhood education, which normally includes students of ages ten through fourteen years,

-A joint Doctor of Philosophy in Biomedical Sciences between Marshall University and West Virginia University.

The next issue of the NEWS LETTER will contain a summary of the activities of the Board's Advisory Council of Faculty during the summer months.

Frank Aldred

Personnel Personals

Proud of a family member's accomplishment? Is there a new baby at your house? Is there something you'd like to share with your colleagues? The News Letter's "Personnel Personals" is another channel open to you. Send your information to Judith Casto, University Relations, Old Main 112.

Graphics exhibit Under way in library

An exhibit of graphics from the 16th to 20th centuries opened Tuesday at Marshall University's James E. Morrow Library.

Ten original prints from the Carnegie Corporation's "Art Reference Set," presented to Marshall in 1940, are on display in the second floor lounge area of the library through Sept. 28, according to Lisle Brown, MU special collections curator.

The artists whose works are represented include: Millet, Whistler, Rembrandt, Goya, Alberti, Rouault and Van Leyden. Various graphic art forms also are represented among the prints hung, including engraving, etching, aquatint, mezzotint, woodcut and lithography, Brown said.

Designed as a teaching aid, the "Art Reference Set" contains 1,800 photographic reproductions of the world's greatest art and architecture, plus 28 original examples of graphic art. Marshall was one of 51 institutions to receive the set, Brown said.

"We recently rediscovered the 'Art Reference Set' and felt that some of the works should be shared again with art enthusiasts," Brown added.

The exhibit may be seen Monday through Thursday, from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m., Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 1 to 10 p.m.

NEWCOMERS

New to the campus are:

BELINDA LEE HARPER, secretary, Occupational, Adult and Safety Education Department; DENISE GAIL CLARK, animal caretaker, School of Medicine's Animal Resources Division; MELANIE A. GRIFFIS, management intern, Vice President for Administration's Office; RICHARD P. KISER, clerk, Shipping/Receiving Department, and DENVER R. COOPER, building mechanic, Plant Operations.

TERRY LEE KERNS, advisor, student newspaper, School of Journalism; GERALDINE BURNETTE, typing clerk, Regents B.A.; EDWARD C. HILES, grounds service worker, School of Medicine; DEBORAH GALE CROUSE, secretary, Community College; DEAN ROBERT SPENCER, building mechanic, Mechanical Shop; LINDA G. WILLS, secretary, vaccine study, School of Medicine;

ROBERT H. BLAKE JR., plumbing maintenance worker, Buildings and Grounds; KATHERINE A. BUMGARDNER, library clerk II, Health Science Libraries; LINDA MILLS HENNIG, Continuing Education developer, School of Nursing; DONALD RAY WILKES, program coordinator, small business management, Community College; KIM CRESSEY-VENEZIANO, lab med tech II, Pharmacology, Department;

SHERRI L. MILLER, night watchperson, Security Department; BETTY C. LAWHORN, night watchperson, Security Department; MICHAEL D. BAILEY, police officer, Security Department; MARCIA ANDREWS, R.D. South Hall, Residence Life department; GARY E. WEIS, secretary I, Music Department; STEVEN M. LAWTON, laboratory manager, Biological Sciences.

Welcome to Marshall!

Pearson acting director

Mrs. Ruth Pearson, assistant professor of nursing, has been appointed acting director of the School of Nursing's Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree program, according to Dr. Virginia O. Allen, School of Nursing dean.

A member of the faculty since 1977, Mrs. Pearson holds a Master of Science degree from Ohio State University.

Faculty, staff achievements

DR. C. ROBERT BARNETT, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, and Lysbeth Arner Barnett, a graduate student in the M.B.A. degree program, co-authored an article, "To Sweat or Not to Sweat," which appeared in the August issue of "River Cities Monthly."

DR. WALLIN S. McCARDELL, assistant professor of journalism, attended the national convention of the Association for Education in Journalism held at the University of Houston, Aug. 5-8.

DR. JABIR A. ABBAS, professor of political science; DR. ELAINE BAKER, associate professor of psychology, DR. HOWARD A. SLAATTE, professor of philosophy; DR. WILLIAM P. SULLIVAN, professor of English, and DR. KENNETH T. SLACK, libraries director, attended a five-day seminar on the "American Economy," held Aug. 12-17 at Bethany College's Leadership Center. The seminar was designed for faculty members in areas other than economics or business administration. Approximately 50 educators, representing some 29 disciplines, from 18 West Virginia institutions of high education attended.

DR. WARREN W. WOODEN, associate professor of English, is the author of a review of Alan C. Dessen's "Elizabethan Drama and the Viewer's Eye" in the current issue of "The Southern Humanities Review," 13, 3 (Summer, 1979), pp. 248-249.

C. BOSWORTH JOHNSON, associate professor of journalism, was commended publicly by Gov. John D. Rockefeller IV for his role in developing the state's emergency control center. Rockefeller, at the dedication of the $400,000 installation, said he had requested Johnson "to do his own analysis of our needs related to the emergency broadcast system. He did so and did a fine job for me."

DR. ALLAN STERN, assistant professor of occupational, adult and safety education, was one of some 400 traffic safety education teachers nationwide who attended the 23rd annual conference of the American Driver and Traffic Safety Education Association (ADTSEA) held in Charlotte, N.C. on Aug. 12-16. The conference theme was "Turning the Corner." The program included speakers from government, business, research and education.

DR. THOMAS BISHOP, associate professor of marketing, has had an article published in Vo., 30, No. 8, of the West Virginia Bankers Magazine. The article is entitled "Bank Marketing in West Virginia: A Survey Report," and appears on pages 2, 16, 18 and 20.

DR. JOSEPH S. LA CASCIA, Department of Economics chairman, participated in a symposium entitled "Regulation and the Future Economic Environment: Air to Ground," which was co-sponsored by Washington and Lee University and the C&P Telephone Co. on Aug. 21-24 in Warrenton, Va.

DR. FRANK BINDER, associate professor of biological sciences, presented a paper entitled "Physiology and Nutrition of the Biotrophic Mycoparasites" as part of a symposium on mycoparasitism sponsored by the American Phytopathological Society and the Ninth International Congress of Plant Pathology held August 9 in Washington, D.C.

HARRIET W. TUCKER attended the group piano conference at Bowling Green State University in August. Mrs. Tucker is Group Piano Chairman for the West Virginia Music Teachers Association and teaches class piano as a part-time faculty member of the Music Department.

DR. LEONARD J. DEUTSCH, associate professor of English, was the author of an article entitled "Cajun Culture—An Interview," which appeared in MELUS (Multi-Ethnic Literature of the U.S.) in the Spring 1979 edition. Dr. Deutsch, who is on sabbatical leave researching a biography of Dr. Rudolph Fisher, also wrote an article entitled "The Streets of Harlem: The Short Stories of Rudolph Fisher" which appeared in the June 1979 edition of Phylon. Another piece,

"The Unpublished Manuscripts of Rudolph Fisher," has been accepted for publication by Obsidian. Dr. Fisher was a prominent physician and the author of The Harlem Renaissance.

DR. WILLIAM SCHNEIDERMAN of the psychology faculty has had an article accepted for publication in the Journal of Personality and Social Psychology. It is entitled "A Personality Dimension of Consistency Versus Variability Without the Use of Self Reports or Rating."

DR. DONALD C. TARTER, professor of biological sciences, is the senior author of a paper accepted for publication in the Sept.-Oct. issue of Entomological News. The paper is entitled "Caddisflies of the Cranberry Glades in West Virginia." The co-author is Paul Hill, a former graduate student in the department.

OPPORTUNITIES

Dr. Paul D. Stewart, dean of the Graduate School, said information is available in his office concerning a Science Faculty Professional Development Program sponsored by the NSF. The program permits selected participants to spend from three to 12 months affiliated with an academic or non-academic institution while pursuing research or study.

Applicants must have at least five years of teaching experience. Compensation will be at 1979-80 salary rates. For more information contact the Graduate School office.

Dr. Stewart also announced that faculty are urged to nominate seniors or have seniors contact him to be considered for a Danforth Fellowship for 1980-81. Contact should be made by Sept. 20, Stewart said.

Outstanding students, primarily in the arts and sciences disciplines, who aspire to the doctorate to engage in college teaching are the persons being sought. Recent graduates who have not entered graduate school also are eligible.

Applications are being taken from students wishing to apply for Rhodes Scholarships for graduate study at Oxford University in England, beginning in September 1980. Rhodes Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis to 32 outstanding students from the United States who have demonstrated academic ability and leadership potential. The scholarship provides for a subsistence allowance in addition to payment of tuition and fees.

The deadline for application is Oct. 31. Interested applicants may obtain applications and further details by contacting Dr. E. S. Hanrahan, College of Science, Old Main Room 119, telephone 696-2372.

Taggart performs Mozart

Pianist James Taggart will present a four-part lecture-recital series entitled "The Piano Sonatas of Mozart" at 5 p.m. on four Sundays during September on WMUL-TV.

Dr. Taggart's first lecture-recital series, on Haydn, also were televised over WMUL.

The first will be on Sept. 9 and will consist of four sonatas: Ed Major, K. 282; C Major, K. 309, and Bb Major, K. 570. The second part will be four sonatas presented on Sept. 16. They are C Major, K. 545; F Major, K. 547 a and b; A Major, K. 331, and A Minor, K. 310.

The third will be Sept. 23 and will consist of three sonatas: D Major, K. 311; F Major, K. 332, and F Major, K. 533/494. The fourth part will be three sonatas presented on Sept. 30. They are Bb Major, K. 333; Fantasia (K. 475) and Sonata (K. 457) in C Minor.