11-30-1979

Marshall University News Letter, November 30, 1979

Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter

Recommended Citation
http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter/30

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marshall Publications at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986 by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.
More faculty and staff achievements activities and the Irish radical feminist Anna Doyle Wheeler attended the South Atlantic Modern Language Association Conference on Nov. 1-3 in Atlanta.

(Continued from page 3)

DR. KAREN SIMPKINS, assistant professor of sociology/anthropology, spoke to the Cabell County Medical Auxiliary on Nov. 14 at the Holiday Inn Convention Center. She discussed the Year of the Child with special reference to women.

Four associate professors in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department contributed to the Fall/Winter edition of the West Virginia Journal of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Safety. DR. MARY MARYSHALL served as editor for the edition which included articles by DR. ROBERT L. CASE, "Progress = Patience or Perseverance?"; DR. PATRICIA A. EISENEMAN, "Zen Versus Gym," and DR. C. ROBERT BARNETT, "The Middle Years," all in Logan, W.Va., During the 1920s. The latter was co-authored with Andrew Williamson, former graduate student.

Relaxation seminar scheduled on Wednesday

Jerry Teplitz, author of "How To Relax and Enjoy," will conduct a free, public seminar on relaxation for Marshall University at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, in Memorial Student Center's Multi-Purpose Room.

Teplitz will demonstrate various relaxation techniques, including hatha yoga, meditation and shiatsu massage—techniques used to acquire the hands.

"It will be an audience participation program," MU Student Activities Coordinator Don E. Roberton said, "with Teplitz showing how to use relaxation techniques to ease headaches, to cure insomnia and to help ease examination tension.

"Generally, he will be showing the audience relaxation methods to free people from physical and emotional worries," Roberton explained.

A graduate of Hunter College and Northwestern University Law School, Teplitz formerly was an attorney with the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. A Master Teacher of hatha yoga, he earned this title at the Temple of Kriya Yoga, where he also studied shiatsu and meditation.

Post held since 1970

(Continued from page 1)

High School from 1937 until 1943. She served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy WAVES from 1943 to 1946, and joined the Marshall accounting office in 1947.

She worked with V.G. Bryan & Son Public Accountants and was manager of the National Steel Products Co. from 1954 to 1963, when she returned to Marshall as an accountant. She has headed the accounting department since 1975, as well as holding various offices.

Miss Childers is active in the Huntington Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants and in the Pilot Club of Huntington, having served as organization as president for two terms, as well as holding other offices.

DR. ROBERT D. OLSON, professor of speech, was elected to the nominations committee of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association at the association convention Nov. 15-19 in Atlantic City.

DR. CHARLES WOODFORD, associate professor of speech; DR. RUTH GARETT, professor of speech; DR. PAUL McGUIRE and DR. ROBERT CHILK, assistant professor of speech, also attended the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association conference. Woodford also presented a poster session discussion on Audiology in the Public Schools.

DR. DON WILLIAMS, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, spoke on "Developmental Grouping in the Middle School," at the West Virginia College Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance Association conference held in Morgantown on Nov. 16. The following day he discussed "Coaching Certification" at the West Virginia Health, Physical Education and Recreation conference.

MRS. OLIVE HAGER, assistant professor of health, physical education and recreation, spoke on the topic "Programmatic Needs for the Middle School" at the Nov. 16 meeting of the West Virginia College Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance Association (WVCHPERD), of which she is a member. At the West Virginia Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation (WVAHPER) conference on Nov. 17, she discussed "Preparing Teachers for the Middle School Concept in Physical Education."

DR. PATRICIA EISENEMAN, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, spoke on "Weight Training Program for Women" and "Women in Sport: Future Research Directions," at the WVCHPERD conference in Morgantown on Nov. 16-17.

DR. C. ROBERT BARNETT, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, and Lynbeth Barnett, second-year assistant for the West Virginia Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation (WVAHPER) conference on Nov. 17, she discussed "Preparing Teachers for the Middle School Concept in Physical Education."

DR. DON WILLIAMS, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, spoke on "Women in Sport: Future Research Directions," at the WVCHPERD conference on Nov. 17. He also spoke on "Women in Sport: The Physical Education Profession," presented "Baseball Economics" at the WVCHPERD conference on Nov. 17 in Morgantown. He also spoke on "Women in Sport: The Professional Perspective," presented "Baseball Economics" at the WVCHPERD conference on Nov. 17 at the Lakeview Inn in Morgantown.

DR. ROBERT CASE, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, presented "Women and Sex Role Stereotypes," at the WVCHPERD conference held Nov. 18 at the Lakeview Inn in Morgantown.

DR. ROBERT CASE, associate professor of health, physical education and recreation, and Lyneth Barnett, second-year assistant for the West Virginia Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation (WVAHPER) conference on Nov. 17, she discussed "Preparing Teachers for the Middle School Concept in Physical Education."

Dr. Walter R. Wilkinson, left, representing the American Society of Women Accountants, and Mrs. Virginia Wilkin, donated the initial gift to establish an endowment to be known as the Huntington College Foundation. The money was earmarked as the initial gift to establish an endowment to be known as the Huntington College Foundation. The funds will be invested and proceeds will be used to support visits and lectures by outstanding speakers in the health care field.
Thomas Hoving speaker for Forum event Tuesday

Best-seller author and former director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Thomas Hoving will speak Nov. 13 in Marshall's Old Main Auditorium as part of the Marshall Artists Series' Forum programming.

"Tutankhamun: The Untold Story" will be Hoving's lecture topic and is the title of his current best-seller which will be discussed in his Nov. 13 evening, Nov. 13. This lecture is presented by the local ABWA chapter.

Mrs. Bishop lives in Huntington and has one grown son, Edward Lee Lovely.

Faculty help sought by Plott

Dr. John C. Plott, associate professor of philosophy, is seeking faculty members who would be interested in teaching with him for a course this spring, "Violence, Nonviolence and the Philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi" (Philosophy 421-521).

The basic textbook will be one by Arne Naess; however, the course will be open-ended with an emphasis on research and "possible action in terms of relevant present-day problems, as well as involvement in the philosophy of history," Plott said.

The course will be taught on Thursdays at 6:30 p.m. Interested faculty members may contact Plott at the Philosophy Department, extension 677.

Sigma Xi lecture set

"Remote Sensing by Satellite" will be discussed by Dr. Frederick Doyle, U.S. Geological Survey Centennial Lecturer, at Marshall University at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 3, in Science Hall Room 211.

Doyle's appearance is sponsored by the Marshall Club of Sigma Xi Society. The lecture is free and open to the public according to Dr. Kenneth Guyer, associate professor of biochemistry, who serves as program chairman for the club.

ERROR

The exam schedule for the Fall semester, published with the course schedules, is incorrect, according to MU. President Robert B. Haynie. As the chapter's Woman of the Year, Mrs. Bishop represented the chapter at the ABWA National Convention held in late October in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Bishop lives in Huntington and has one grown son, Edward Lee Lovely.

Columbia Society of Fellows offers humanities fellowships

The Columbia Society of Fellows in the Humanities, which he founded in 1967 through a donation, will appoint two Senior Fellows in the humanities for the academic year 1980-81. The award is made to scholars of particular accomplishment and promise who have held the doctorate and who have been teaching as full-time faculty for at least five years, and who have at least one significant publication to their credit.

Senior Fellows for 1980-81 will receive a stipend for the 12-month year of $19,500 plus regular faculty benefits. The names must be submitted by the chairman of the department. Nominations and supporting materials must be received no later than Jan. 15, 1980.

Further information is available in the office of the College of Liberal Arts.

Exchange program

Dr. Ralph Oberly, associate professor of physics and physical science and department chairman, and Dr. N. Bennett East, associate professor of speech, will discuss the United States-United Kingdom Faculty Exchange Program at a special meeting of the Marshall Council of International Education (MCIE). The meeting is scheduled for 3:15 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 6, at the Campus Christian Center. Refreshments will be served. The meeting is open to anyone interested in the program.

Excused absences.

Absences have been excused by the respective college deans for the following:

NOV. 1-7: Wanda Wilson, Leslie Snider, Anthony Bunnah, Nancy Marchtich, Cindy Auld and Kim Wooden.

NOV. 16-18: Varsity wrestling team.

Student directories

Copies of the 1979 MU Student Directory are available in the Student Government Office, Memorial Student Center Room 2W29, and may be picked up between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday through Friday.