11-21-1975

Marshall University News Letter, November 21, 1975

Office of Informational Services

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter

Recommended Citation
http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter/220

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marshall Publications at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986 by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.
‘Pride Is Herd’ celebration begins

Marshall University is planning a celebration in support of the Thundering Herd football team this weekend as the 1975 season comes to a close. President Robert B. Hayes announced.

“We’re proud of our team and we want to let them know it,” the Marshall president said. “As far as we’re concerned, the 1976 football season starts this Saturday and we want every fan to be on hand in Fairfield Stadium to help us get it off to a successful start.”

Kickoff time for the contest between the Thundering Herd and the Ohio University Bobcats is 11 a.m.

“Pride Is Herd” weekend will feature a rally this evening, a Saturday morning march from the campus to the stadium, and valuable flying Frisbees inside the stadium.

Not only students, but the Marshall faculty and the entire community are being urged to unite in support of the team as the 1975 season closes, Hayes said.

Activities will get under way with a pep rally at 6:30 p.m. today on the Memorial Student Center plaza and the first 800 arrivals will receive free Thundering Herd hats. The most enthusiastic cheering group will be presented a copy of Artist Charles Ripper’s Thundering Herd print, valued at $100.

Yellow Rose Express will play for a student dance beginning tonight at 9 o’clock in the Student Center’s Multi-Purpose Room, following the rally.

Students, faculty and fans from the community are asked to take part in the Saturday morning march to Fairfield Stadium. The parade will assemble behind the Big Green Marching Band at 9:45 a.m. on 18th St., near Gullickson Hall.

A hot breakfast, open to the public at $1.10, will be served in the Twin Towers Cafeteria, starting at 8 a.m. The menu will feature juice, cereals, eggs, blueberry pancakes, ham, hash brown potatoes, doughnuts, toast and beverages.

Inside the stadium, awards will be given to the most spirited cheering groups. A fusillade of Frisbees will be flung into the crowd. Twelve of them will be specially marked and prizes will go to those who catch them. The prizes include a $100 bond, a portable television set and free textbooks for the spring semester.

On campus, all offices are being asked to prepare original signs boosting the weekend celebration and Marshall students and employees are being asked to wear green clothing.

Other events will include a Saturday morning matress race at the stadium. Free bumper stickers are being distributed at the Student Center’s main desk.

Saturday also will be Parents Day and a reception will be held in the Student Center starting at 9 a.m. Parents of all Marshall students have been offered a “package” which includes the reception, refreshments, a football program for fathers and flowers for mothers, as well as reserved seating for the game.

‘Last of Mrs. Lincoln’ set by MU Theatre

Marshall University Theatre will continue the celebration of its 50th season and the American Bicentennial with its second major production of the year. “The Last of Mrs. Lincoln,” Wednesday through Saturday, Dec. 3-6, at 8 p.m. in Old Main Auditorium.

The play, written by historical writer James Prideaux and directed by Dr. William G. Kearns of the Department of Speech, concerns Mrs. Lincoln’s search for financial security after her husband’s assassination and the conflict between her and her son, Robert, the eldest of four children.

Tickets, all of which are reserved at $2 each will be available weekdays from noon to 4 p.m. beginning Monday, Nov. 24 in Old Main 118. Telephone reservations will be accepted during the same hours at 696-2306. Any remaining tickets will be available at the door an hour prior to performances. MU students may reserve free tickets by presenting valid activity cards.

Saturday Mail Room procedures clarified

Mail Room personnel will work each Saturday from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., according to Richard Vass, director of finance. Incoming letter mail will be picked up from the downtown post office by Marshall personnel at 9 a.m. on Saturday and will be placed in the mail boxes at about 10:30 a.m. Only letter mail will be processed on Saturdays.

An earlier announcement had given the indication personnel would be available in the Mail Room until noon on Saturdays. This is incorrect.

Holiday schedule

Marshall University will be closed Thursday and Friday, Nov. 27-28, in observance of Thanksgiving. All university offices will reopen Monday, Dec. 1.

The News Letter will not be published Friday, Nov. 28. It will be published again on Friday, Dec. 5. Deadline for submitting materials for that issue is noon Wednesday, Dec. 3.
Faculty and staff achievements, activities...

DRS. JOHN W. HOGAN and THOMAS BAUSERMAN, professors of mathematics, DR. W. THURMON WHITLEY, associate professor of mathematics, and MRS. WILMA Y. WHITLEY, mathematics specialist, attended the Ohio Section meeting of the Mathematics Association of America held at Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio, Nov. 7-8.

DR. ROBERT F. MADDUX, associate professor of history, attended the annual meeting of the Southern Historical Association in Washington, D.C., Nov. 13-15.

DR. DON RAY, instructor in psychology, is co-author of "Development of Behavioral Arousal and Inhibition in the Swiss-Webster Mouse" which has been published in the Bulletin of the Psychonomic Society.

DR. PAUL D. STEWART, Graduate School dean, and DRS. SIMON D. PERRY, HAROLD E. NEELY, RICHARD H. ROSSWURM, CLAIR W. MATZ and TROY M. STEWART of the Department of Political Science attended the annual meeting of the Southern Political Science Association in Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 6-8. Perry chaired a panel on comparative military policy and Rosswurm presented a workshop paper, "The Burger Court on Interrogations and Confessions: An Interim Assessment."

DR. RICHARD O. COMFORT, professor of sociology and anthropology, participated in the Tri-Council Commissioner Conference, Boy Scouts of America, Nov. 7-9, at the Cabell County 4-H Camp. He led the interdenominational worship service Nov. 9. He is chairman of the LAWACA District Committee for the Tri-State Area Council.

DR. DAVID PATTERSON, chairman of the Department of Criminal Justice, was elected vice chairman of the newly-formed West Virginia Criminal Justice Educators Association when that group organized at Institute, W.Va., on Nov. 7.

DR. EUGENE Q. HOAK, professor of speech, served as supervisor for the Tri-State Arts Association's sidewalk art show during October. Twenty-six of his works were among the more than 500 on display. Hoak also has entries in Cabell Huntington Hospital's continuing art show which runs through February. In March, he is to be a participant in the Jury Show at the Huntington Galleries, and in December he is to give two lectures at the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church on "Christmas in the Fine Arts."

Sixteen faculty members, three graduate assistants and 25 students represented the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at the annual convention of the West Virginia Association of Physical Education, Health and Recreation held at Cedar Lakes near Ripley, Nov. 6-8. Faculty members and their respective titles for the convention are: OLIVE B. HAGER, president; DONALD LAWSON, vice president, Women's Sports; JACK COOK, vice president, Men's Sports; PATRICIA EISENMAN and COLSTON PIT, chairpersons for programs; RON CROSBIE, program presenter and facilities coordinator; DOROTHY HICKS, BETTY ROBERTS and ROBERT CASE, committee coordinators; DON WILLIAMS, parliamentarian, and ROBERT BARNETT, historian. Elected to offices in the state association are OLIVE B. HAGER, president; ROBERT BARNETT, vice president, physical education, and ROBERT CASE, chairman.

Absences excused...

Excused absences have been approved by the respective colleges for the following students on the dates listed:

NOV. 14 - Thundering Herd football squad.

Americans, British plan 'war of words'

Two hundred years ago the British were coming and the colonists rose up in arms. Now the British are coming and the Americans are prepared to do battle—with words, not arms.

The occasion for this friendly "war of words" is the appearance in Huntington this weekend of two British debaters who currently are touring the nation under the sponsorship of the Committee on International Discussion and Debate of the Speech Communication Association.

The Bunker Hill of semantics is scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday in Smith Hall 154. Following the "word war" the British guests will be honored at a reception in Memorial Student Center. Both events are open to the public at no admission charge. On the front line for the British will be Patrick Roche and John C. W. Williams, both graduates of the university college of Oxford University.

Coming forth for the Americans will be Dr. William N. Denman, Marshall assistant professor of speech, and Steve Roberts, an MU sophomore.

Marshall's IE team wins trophy in Ohio

The Marshall University IE team has its first sweepstakes trophy of the year and its first national finals qualifier as a result of competition this past weekend in Ohio.

The team finished third among 19 schools and Ken Steele earned the right to compete in two contests in national finals next spring as a final outcome of the 20th Century I.E. Tournament at Bowling Green, Ohio. Marshall finished third behind last year's national champion, Ohio University, and the national runnerup, Eastern Michigan University. In finishing third, MU finished ahead of Ohio State, the University of Michigan, Toledo University, Wright State University and Wayne State University.

Ken Steele reached the final round of competition in poetry and prose. He finished first in the poetry and sixth in prose. The performances qualified him for the national finals in IE to be held in California in late April.
ANNOUNCEMENTS...

'Seminar on Synaesthetic Education' set Monday

Marshall University's departments of Art and Curriculum and Foundations will sponsor a Seminar on Synaesthetic Education Monday, Nov. 24, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and continuing throughout the day. The seminar is funded by the Marshall Foundation.

Two outstanding educator/artists, Dr. Larry Bakke and Prof. James Ridlon, will present concurrent sessions in the morning and afternoon and will join forces for an evening session which will be followed by an exhibition of Ridlon's art and a reception for both men.

Marshall students and faculty are invited to attend the day sessions. The evening session is open to the public at no admission charge.

The schedule:
9:30 to 11 a.m., "Synaesthetic Education" by Bakke in Old Main Auditorium and "Art and the Humanities" by Ridlon in the Multi-Purpose Room of Memorial Student Center; 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., "Synaesthetic Documontage Film Festival" in the Multi-Purpose Room; 1 to 2:30 p.m., "Art and the Aesthetics" by Bakke in Smith Hall Auditorium; 1:30 to 3 p.m., "Synaesthetic Education Process" by Ridlon in the Multi-Purpose Room; 7 p.m., "Synaesthetic Lecture and Presentation," Bakke and Ridlon, Multi-Purpose Room, and 8:30 p.m., Ridlon exhibition, Alumni Lounge, Memorial Student Center.

'LONDON SPECIAL' TOUR SET

Marshall University students, faculty, staff and alumni have an opportunity to begin the Bicentennial year in merry England by joining "The London Special," a nine-day tour sponsored by the Office of Student Activities.

The tour leaves Washington, D.C., on Jan. 5 via Air France for London for seven days and nights of English hospitality. A total of $407 buys the round trip tickets from Washington, hotel room for two, continental breakfasts, buses, taxes, tips and gratuities.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting Nancy P. Hindsley, coordinator of student activities, at 696-6770.

FACULTY RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY

Marshall University faculty who teach primarily undergraduate students and who have taught collegiate science or mathematics for at least five years and who show their projects can improve their competence as teachers applying their subject to societal problems may apply for National Science Foundation research grants until Feb. 6, 1976. Additional information may be obtained at the Graduate School Office, Old Main 127.

CHRISTMAS ITEMS DISCOUNTED

Marshall University employees can receive a 40 per cent discount on all cash purchases of Christmas gift wraps, boxed cards, bows, ribbons and other items of the season in the Textbook Department, Lower Level, Marshall University Bookstore, according to Joseph L. Vance, bookstore manager.

CONCERTS TONIGHT, MONDAY

Four Marshall University senior music majors will present concerts tonight and Monday in Smith Recital Hall.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, Cheryl Mayner, a Huntington soprano, will present a joint concert with David Waybright, Huntington trumpetist.

At 8 p.m. Monday, Soprano Cynthia Shoemaker of Huntington will give a concert with euphenium player Dan Ross of South Webster, Ohio.

Both concerts are open to the public without admission charge. Receptions in the Smith Hall Lounge will follow each event.

ART FACULTY PRESENT EXHIBITION

Faculty members of Marshall University's Department of Art are presenting an exhibition at the Huntington Galleries through Nov. 30 that consists of painting, drawing, ceramics and crafts in a variety of styles.

MU artists represented are June Kilgore, Earline Allen, Frederick Burkett, Carol Demiray, Alice Ertresvaag, Robert Hutton, George Bobby Jones, David Wells and Michael Cornfeld.

A&S faculty to meet

Faculty members of the College of Arts and Sciences are to meet at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 25, in Smith Hall 154 to elect three nominees for the Search Committee for Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. George J. Harbold, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, announced.

Dean Harbold said nominations will be accepted from the floor but the final three nominees will be selected by secret ballot.

President Hayes then is to pick one of the three nominees to represent the College of Arts and Sciences on the search committee.