CURRICULUM COMMITTEE
RECOMMENDATION

SR-04-05-(16) 73 CC

Recommends approval of the listed COURSE DELETIONS for the COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS:

CJ 412 Community Relations 3 hours
Rationale: None provided.
Course being added: CJ 406

LAT 240 Latin Prose Composition 3 hours
Rationale: We are deleting LAT 240 and we are replacing it with a series of one-credit hour Latin prose composition courses that are directly connected to our prose literature courses. We are making this change first because we feel that LAT 240 is taught too early in our curriculum. Generally it comes very soon after students have completed elementary and intermediate Latin, at a time when their grammatical knowledge is fresh. On the other hand, a review of Latin grammar is most beneficial to students who are advancing further into translation/literature courses. By connecting prose composition with these latter courses, we hope to keep the basics of the language alive as students delve into its literary intricacies.
Courses being added: LAT 320, 321, 322, 323
