MU faculty and staff achievements, activities.

Dr. Robert Gerke, professor of English, is the author of "Futility and Sloth in the Clerk’s Tale and the Wife of Bath’s Tale" to be published in Proceedings of the Patristic, Medieval and Renaissance Conference, Vol. 5. The series is sponsored by the Augustinian Historical Institute. The article had its inception in a Faculty Summer Research Grant in 1973.

Charles F. Gruber, assistant professor of social studies, spoke at the mission study group at First United Methodist Church March 8. He provided an overview of Latin America, and described how Latin American and U.S. citizens perceive each other and their cultural interactions.

Dr. Frank Binder, associate professor of biological sciences, and Dr. Alan Johnson, associate professor of geology, presented "Regulation of L-Phenylalanine Transport by the Haustorial Mycorrhizal Transmembrane Protein" at the annual meeting of the American Society for Microbiology March 16 in Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Clair W. Matz, associate professor of political science, and Dr. Claire Horton, associate professor of sociology, attended the World Conference Series in International Studies, held at the University of Delaware Press.

Woodward was on counseling and criminal co-presenter associate professors of geography; Dr. Charles B. Smith, associate professor of political science; Dr. Claire Horton, associate professor of sociology, and Dr. Donald C. Kincaid, associate professor of modern languages, and Dr. Ramchandra Akkinhal, and Dr. Joseph LaCascia, both professors of economics.

Dr. David R. Woodward, professor of history, is the author of "Lloyd and the Generals," to be published by the University of Delaware Press.

The workshop emphasized training in new teaching techniques and recent developments in international topics. Attending were:

Charles Gruber, assistant professor; Dr. Mahlon Brown, professor, and Dr. Frank Ridder, associate professor, all of social studies; Dr. Michael Galgano, professor; Dr. Charles Bias, associate professor, and Dr. David Woodward, professor, all of history; Dr. Howard Adkins and Dr. Gerald M. Willard, both associate professors of geography; Dr. Clair Matz, associate professor of political science; Dr. Claire Horton, associate professor of sociology, and Dr. Donald C. Kincaid, associate professor of modern languages, and Dr. Ramchandra Akkinhal, and Dr. Joseph LaCascia, both professors of economics.

The series is sponsored by the Augustinian Historical Institute. The article had its inception in a Faculty Summer Research Grant in 1973.

Charles F. Gruber, assistant professor of social studies, spoke at the mission study group at First United Methodist Church March 8. He provided an overview of Latin America, and described how Latin American and U.S. citizens perceive each other and their cultural interactions.

Dr. Frank Binder, associate professor of biological sciences, and Dr. Alan Johnson, associate professor of geology, presented "Regulation of L-Phenylalanine Transport by the Haustorial Mycorrhizal Transmembrane Protein" at the annual meeting of the American Society for Microbiology March 16 in Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Clair W. Matz, associate professor of political science, and Dr. Claire Horton, associate professor of sociology, attended the World Conference Series in International Studies, held at the University of Delaware Press.

Woodward was on counseling and criminal co-presenter associate professors of geography; Dr. Charles B. Smith, associate professor of political science; Dr. Claire Horton, associate professor of sociology, and Dr. Donald C. Kincaid, associate professor of modern languages, and Dr. Ramchandra Akkinhal, and Dr. Joseph LaCascia, both professors of economics.

Dr. David R. Woodward, professor of history, is the author of "Lloyd and the Generals," to be published by the University of Delaware Press.
Academy Planning and Standards Committee met March 31 and took action on the following items of business:

The minutes of the meeting were approved with the following corrections:
1. Grade appeal procedure (Discussion No. 5, Item 2) - "Appeal within 15 work days after initial appeal." 2. Remove parenthetical on same page
3. Delete sentence at bottom of the page (amendment)
4. Discussion No. 4 (add sentence) - We were concerned there no staggered terms for members of the Honors Program (P.E.P.).

The minutes of March 17, 1981 were approved with the following corrections:
1. Discussion No. 4 - Add ZOB 226 with same change as ZOB 225
2. Discussion No. 3 - Add of the first year students at the end of sentence one.
3. Discussion No. 3 - change word "substituted" to "eliminated" consensus committee.
4. Discussion No. 3 - change word "hospital" to "read clinical"
5. Discussion No. 5 - Add "and 4th semester," to the end of sentence one, paragraph three.

The early admission of public school students was addressed. Admissions wanted to hear the policy in action. A motion was made to maintain the present admission policy. This motion was seconded and approved 8-0.

The Proficiency Exam Program (P.E.P.) was presented to the committee for approval. The question was raised concerning whether the University would use both P.E.P. or CLEP. Professor Morton indicated that Admissions would like to use both.

The committee agreed to get samples of P.E.P. exams from Jim Haralson and 30 CLEP exams for the faculty members to review those exams. Deans would bring recommendations or decisions back to this committee sometime in the Fall of the Singh slide.

Any questions or suggestions about the above may be addressed to Giovanna Morton, chairperson, or James Joy, acting secretary.

The Academic Planning and Standards Committee has asked the Academic Planning Committee to provide the faculty with the new version of the Grade Appeal Procedure. The steps outlined are the same as those previously employed.

1. There is a time frame for the various appeal levels.
2. The academic appeals committee must be from a different college than the college in which the course is offered.
3. The Academic Planning and Standards Committee informs the student and faculty person of the results of its committee decision.
4. The Academic Planning and Standards Committee shall provide for an appropriate change to be entered in the student's transcript.
5. The Academic Planning and Standards Committee shall provide for an appropriate change at the University level.

The following Grade Appeal Procedure will become official unless the Academic Planning and Standards Committee or University Committee members fail to satisfy warrants a faculty meeting on the matter. If you have concerns, please make them known before April 30.

1. The student should first have a discussion with the course instructor to determine whether the grade recorded in the Registrar's Office is correct. The initial appeal must be within 60 days of mailing of grade from the Registrar's Office.
2. If the procedure in Step 1 does not have a mutually satisfactory result, either party may appeal in writing to the Dean of the College in which the course was offered within 15 work days of the initial appeal. The Dean will attempt to bring it to a mutually satisfactory solution.
3. Should the problem not be resolved at the Departmental level, either party may appeal in writing to the Dean of the College in which the course was offered within 15 work days of the Departmental level.
4. Should the problem not be resolved at the College level either party may appeal in writing to the Dean of the College to the Chairperson of the Academic Planning and Standards Committee who will appoint a Review Committee as a special subcommittee of the Academic Planning and Standards Committee.

a. Two members of the Academic Planning and Standards Committee, one of whom will serve as chairperson. (No faculty member of the academic department or the Academic Planning and Standards Committee shall serve, or be directly involved in a grade appeal may serve on this committee.)
   b. The academic dean from a different college than the college in which the course was offered;
   c. The Dean of the Student Conduct.

The cost for the Grade Appeal Procedure will be $10.

The registration fee will be $30 through Friday, April 22, in Old Main Auditorium. Students will then be given the opportunity to register through other facilities, drop-in basis.

"Grease" starts this week

"Grease," the Marshall University Speech and Music department's spring musical, opens a five-day run at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 22, at Old Main Auditorium.

Performances are scheduled nightly through Saturday, April 25, and at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 26. Reserved seat tickets at $3.50 will be available at the Old Main Theatre Box Office. Hotel Old Main 107. Tickets for faculty and staff may be purchased at a special $2.50 per ticket price through 4 p.m. Wednesday, April 22. In order to receive the discount, tickets must be paid for and picked up by that time.

Box office hours are from noon to 4 p.m. weekdays. Tickets may be purchased by credit card, Visa, MasterCard, or cash at the box office, ext. 2306. Any tickets not sold in advance will be available at the door prior to each performance.

Indian educator to be available

Surinder Singh, dean of the faculty of arts and sciences and chairman of the political science department at Punjabi University, Patila, India, will be available to the University community from Jim Haralson and 30 CLEP exams for the faculty members to review those exams. Deans would bring recommendations or decisions back to this committee sometime in the Fall of the Singh slide.

Any questions or suggestions about the above may be addressed to Giovanna Morton, chairperson, or James Joy, acting secretary.

Grumman Community Achievement awards will be presented to the Marion Community Association at the annual awards banquet at 7 p.m. Saturday, April 25, in the Memorial Student Center. The social hour begins at 6 p.m.

The Acquisition and Standards Committee will award the following grants: 1. Grade appeal procedure will be given to Faculty to elect board member Another elective option is being added for consideration to those before the faculty meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday, April 5. The legislative session recently closed for applications for the Board of Regents. Elected members are one faculty, one student and one from the institution classified staff. The institutional president appoints one administrative representative. The following seven lay citizen members serve terms of four years each.

Of these seven citizen members, no more than four may be of the same political party. The administrative officer, faculty member, student member and classified staff member shall serve for a term of one year. All members shall be eligible to succeed themselves for no more than one additional term.

This is the about extent of information hastily provided just prior to the deadline for this publication. More details might be available by the time of the faculty meeting.

Sam Clapp, Chairman
University Council

82 percent of respondents would use campus day care

Women's Center Director Patricia Matters reported that of the 35 responses, 29 respondents responding concerning the need for day care at Marshall University, 93 persons, or 82 percent, said they would use day care facilities.

The Clinical Laboratory of the 114 persons responding to a questionnaire concerning the need for day care at Marshall University, 93 persons, or 82 percent, said they would use day care facilities.

Of those 114 persons responding to a questionnaire concerning the need for day care at Marshall University, 93 persons, or 82 percent, said they would use day care facilities.

The fee on the day of the run will be $10. Any tickets not sold in advance will be available at the door prior to each performance.

A. Student member of the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee.
B. The report of the action of the special subcommittee will be sent to the Academic Planning and Standards Committee which may hold further hearings. Academic Planning and Standards Committee and Academic Planning and Standards Committee will inform the student and faculty person of the results of the committee decision. If after the appeal process has been completed, it is concluded that the grade assigned to the student is incorrect, Academic Planning and Standards Committee will provide for an appropriate change to the student's transcript in accordance with standard university procedure.

This procedure will be effective from the date of adoption by the faculty.

PEK "Rabbit Run" set

The Marshall University Chapel of Phi Epsilon Kappa, physical education fraternity, will sponsor the "Rabbit Run," a five kilometer competition, on Saturday, April 25, at the MU track.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 9:30 a.m. with the run starting at 10 a.m. Dressing facilities and showers will be available.

The registration fee will be $4 through Friday, April 24. The fee on the day of the run will be $5. The first 60 people to enter the "Rabbit Run" will receive special "Rabbit Run" T-shirts.

Trophies will be awarded to the male and female overall first place finishers and plaques will be presented to the male and female first place winners in each division.

Additional information and registration forms may be obtained from Professor John Carter, Physical Education and Recreation Department at ext. 6490.

Excused absences...

Absences have been excused by the respective deans for the following:
April 3—Pty. Betz Lambie members.
April 8—1-11—Women's softball team.

NEW COMERS

New to the campus are:

1. ELLIS WILLIAM BURKE, building maintenance repairman, Carpenter Shop; JAMES DAUGLAS MCKENNY, locksmith assistant, Key Shop; BETTY LOU KEPLER, secretary, J. D. Institute for the Arts; HERBERT J. KARLET, director of auditors, President's Office; BRADY D. BURGER, inventory control supervisor, Administrative Services; JAMES H. CUMMINGS, medical nurse; B. RAE JOHNSON, practice vaccine study, School of Medicine; LINDA KAY WALLS, Special Services counselor, Student Affairs; CHERYL A. SOWARDS, offset press operator, Graphic Services.

Welcome to Marshall!