9-3-1981

Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter

Recommended Citation
http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter/489

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marshall Publications at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986 by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.
MU faculty and staff achievements, activities.

H. KEITH SPEARS, assistant professor of speech, addressed the Pochahontas County Rotary Club in Marlinton July 20 on "Potential Effects of a New Public Radio Station on a Community Precious Without Radio Service."

DR. JOHN W. FOSTER, assistant professor of microbiology, has a paper, "Genetic mapping of the pchb locus in Salmonella typhimurium," appearing in the November, 1981, issue of the Journal of Bacteriology. Elizabeth Holley, graduate student, is the coauthor. Foster also spent seven days at the University of Utah, visiting J. Donald Van Alen and Baldemoro Olivera. At the university on Aug. 5, he presented a talk, "Biochemistry and Genetics of NAD metabolism in Salmonella typhimurium."

DR. BARBARA B. BROWN, associate professor of English, has been notified that her article on "Bernard Shaw's 'Unreasonable Man'" has been accepted for inclusion in a Modern Drama, published at the University of Toronto. Her review of Alan Paton's "Towards the Mountain" appeared in the September 1981 issue of the New York Times Review of Books.

ROBERT J. LAWSON, Community College continuing education director, conducted a poetry and oral interpretation workshop at the Senior Citizens Center on Aug. 14.

NICHOLAS J. BARANETSKY, assistant professor of medicine, has received $49,700 for a three-year study of "The Effects of Certain Growth Hormones and Prolactin Secretion" under the Veterans Administration Merit Review Research Program.

ANTHONY J. BOWDLER, professor of medicine, has received $82,900 from the VA Merit Review Research Program to fund a three-year study of "Chemical Augmentation of Erythrocyte Resistance to Hemolysis."

DR. ROBERT B. BELSHE, associate professor of medicine, and DR. JACK M. BERNESTEIN, assistant professor of medicine, have received $76,600 from the VA Merit Review Research Program for a two- and a half-year study of "Glycoproteins of Respiratory Syncytial Virus: Purification and Immunochemistry."

DR. ALLEN S. STERN, assistant professor of education, attended the National Conference of the American Diesel, Safety Education Association in Cagigal, 10-13 in Albuquerque, N.M., and participated in a workshop conducted by the NHTSA on seat belts and child restraint.

DR. MAURICE A. MUFSON, professor and Medicine Department chairman, and DR. DONALD E. MELNICK, assistant professor of authors of an article, "A Model for Medical Care in Underserved Areas," appeared in the July 1, 1981, Journal of Medical Education. The article concerns Medicaid and the federal aid's outreach program.

Ph.D. degree received

Doctorate earned

Edythe W. Taylor, assistant professor of education, has completed the requirements for the Doctor of Education degree in educational administration at the University, according to MU Provost Olen E. Jones. Jr. Martino's dissertation was entitled "The Sedimentary Geology of the Lake Titicaca Basin and its Forelands in Southern New Jersey."

Tuesday deadline for Thursday publication

That's right, today isn't Friday. It's Thursday. Effective with this issue, the University News Letter will appear in the campus mail boxes on Thursday.

The change in the publication schedule will result in more timely information for readers—especially concerning weekend activities. In order to make this change, however, the deadline for submitting material for the News Letter also has been revised.

The new deadline will be TUESDAYS at 10 a.m. Material for the News Letter may be sent to Judith Casto, University Relations, Old Main 102.

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS• NEWS BUREAU• MARSHALL UNIVERSITY• HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA 25701

September 3, 1981

Fall faculty meeting scheduled on Sept. 15

There will be a faculty meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 4 p.m. in Old Main Auditorium.

The agenda is as follows:

1. President Hayes will provide a budget update.
2. Dr. Tom Bishop will provide information relative to the United Fund Drive.
3. Nominations will be called for to fill a vacancy on the Faculty Senate Committee.
4. Recommendation of the Committee for inclusion to the Faculty Senate Committee. The proposed change is in Article IX-4.B and would read as follows:

Membership. The Committee shall consist of one member elected by the faculty of each undergraduate college, two elected by the faculty at large, and that number of student members which shall equal the number of undergraduate colleges, appointed by the student government.

Faculty members are to make announcements or receive consideration for other agenda items, should contact Sam Clagg, Chairman University Council.

Benedum Foundation awards grant

The Combined Residency/Practice Program is an innovative approach to graduate medical education conceived by Dr. David K. Heydinger, the school's associate dean for academic and clinical affairs.

Offered in Family Practice, Internal Medicine, Obstetrics/Gynecology, Pediatrics, Psychiatry, it is a six or five year program, depending on the specialty selected, which consists of alternating periods of residency and practice.

Located in Pittsburgh, the Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation was established in 1959 at the request of Michael L. Benedum, co-founder of the Benedum-Trees Oil Company, and is dedicated to his philosophy of helping people "to help themselves" with special emphasis on increasing the educational opportunity being the first step toward self-help. Paul R. Jenkins serves as executive vice president for the Foundation.

The Combined Residency/Practice Program is an innovative approach to graduate medical education conceived by Dr. David K. Heydinger, the school's associate dean for academic and clinical affairs.

The Combined Residency/Practice Program is an innovative approach to graduate medical education conceived by Dr. David K. Heydinger, the school's associate dean for academic and clinical affairs.

The Combined Residency/Practice Program is an innovative approach to graduate medical education conceived by Dr. David K. Heydinger, the school's associate dean for academic and clinical affairs.
Dr. Frary assumes associate dean post

Dr. Paul E. Frary, a former faculty member at Westminster College on New Wilmington, Pa., has accepted the post of associate dean of the Marshall University College of Business, according to Dr. Sara A. Anderson, College of Business dean.

Frary, who assumed the post in August, served eight years as chairman of Westminster’s Economics and Business Department, where he had been an associate professor since 1974.

As associate dean, Frary will have various administrative duties, including assisting with student advising and promotion, recruitment of faculty and staff, and planning a new program development and general planning.

“Dr. Frary brings to Marshall a wide variety of professional experiences,” Dr. Anderson said. “I am most pleased to have him join the College of Business as our administrative staff and believe that he will contribute a great deal to the future of our program.”

Frary, who will hold the rank of professor of management, may assume some teaching responsibilities in the spring, Dr. Anderson said. He also has taught at the Polytechnic of Central London, University of Arkansas and Southwestern College, Winfield, Kan.

He earned his undergraduate degree from Baker University, Baldwin, Kan., his master’s degree from Emporia State College and his doctorate from the University of Arkansas. Frary also studied at the University of Missouri.

Wide variety of classes offered this fall by CC

The Continuing Education Division of Marshall University’s Community College will offer 20 non-credit classes this fall ranging from “Opportunities for Senior Citizens” and “Teen Health” to “Business Law” and “Challenge of Being Single.”

Students may register for the classes either by calling the Continuing Education Office, 696-5431, in advance or at the first class session, according to Robert L. Lawson, continuing education director.

This fall schedule includes:
- Environmental Relations in Business, 6:30-9 p.m. on Tuesdays, Sept. 17 to Nov. 19, Burt Hall 276, instructor, J. Scott, $40 fee.
- Beginning Painting, 7-9 p.m. Mondays, Sept. 16 to Nov. 19, Corbly Hall 270, instructor, J. Scott, $30 fee.
- Opportunities for Senior Citizens, 1-3 p.m., Mondays, Sept. 28 to Nov. 16, Senior Citizen’s Center, 720 10th Ave., Carollton Becker, coordinator, $5 fee.
- Beginning Photography, 7-9 p.m. Wednesdays, Sept. 18 to Nov. 21, Smith Hall 255, instructor, L. Couch, $35 fee.
- Designing Your Own Garden, 10-12 p.m. Tuesdays, Sept. 17 to Nov. 19, Willard Hall 407, instructor, B. Stewart, $40 fee.
- Interior Design, 7-9 p.m. Wednesdays, Sept. 18 to Nov. 21, Smith Hall 609, instructor, S. Owens, $30 fee.
- Opportunities for Families, 7-9 p.m. Tuesdays, Sept. 17 to Nov. 19, Corbly Hall 270, instructor, J. Scott, $30 fee.
- Opportunities for Senior Citizens, 1-3 p.m., Mondays, Sept. 28 to Nov. 16, Senior Citizen’s Center, 720 10th Ave., Carollton Becker, coordinator, $5 fee.
- Intermediate Photography, 7-9 p.m. Tuesdays, Sept. 17 to Nov. 19, Smith Hall 609, instructor, S. Owens, $30 fee.
- Opportunities for Senior Citizens, 1-3 p.m., Mondays, Sept. 28 to Nov. 16, Senior Citizen’s Center, 720 10th Ave., Carollton Becker, coordinator, $5 fee.
- Intermediate Photography, 7-9 p.m. Tuesdays, Sept. 17 to Nov. 19, Smith Hall 609, instructor, S. Owens, $30 fee.
- Opportunities for Senior Citizens, 1-3 p.m., Mondays, Sept. 28 to Nov. 16, Senior Citizen’s Center, 720 10th Ave., Carollton Becker, coordinator, $5 fee.
- Intermediate Photography, 7-9 p.m. Tuesdays, Sept. 17 to Nov. 19, Smith Hall 609, instructor, S. Owens, $30 fee.
- Opportunities for Senior Citizens, 1-3 p.m., Mondays, Sept. 28 to Nov. 16, Senior Citizen’s Center, 720 10th Ave., Carollton Becker, coordinator, $5 fee.

Faculty/staff need to renew stickers for campus parking

WARNING... Your parking sticker may not be valid if you need to renew your permit before the end of the semester. Parking permits issued last year became invalid.

Facility and staff members wishing to renew permits for the 1981-82 academic year may do so in one of three ways:
- At the Traffic and Parking Office, Old Main 7-B, according to Dr. D. Lyle, Traffic and Parking Division coordinator.
- Permits will be issued today (Sept. 3) until 7 p.m. and Thursday, Sept. 19, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.
- The $40 parking fee may be paid in two equal six-month installments one when the permit is issued and the other on or before March 1, 1982.
- The make and model of vehicle and license number must be provided before a permit will be issued. Employees with two vehicles may request two decals for the $40 fee, however only one vehicle may be parked on campus at any given time.

Don E. Robertson is named assistant dean for student life

Don E. Robertson, formerly student activities and organizations coordinator, assumed the post of assistant dean of student life on Aug. 1, according to Associate Dean for Student Affairs Mary-Ann Thomas.

Robertson joined Marshall’s Student Affairs Division staff in 1978, succeeds Ann Zanzig in the position. Ms. Zanzig resigned to become dean of students at Edgewood College, Wisconsin.

Robertson earned his B.S. degree in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and his M.S. degree in college student personnel at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

Announcements...

Marshall University administrative offices will be closed Monday, Sept. 7, in observance of the Labor Day holiday.

The James E. Morrow Library will close at 5 p.m. Friday, Sept. 7. Please refer to the library’s schedule the following hours:
- Monday through Thursday, 7-4:30 a.m. to 11 p.m.
- Friday, 7-4:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Sunday, 1-5 p.m.

SAVE RECEIPTS

Save those MU Bookstore register receipts for every $10 worth of bookstore items purchased.

Children’s College registration to continue through Sept. 17

Marshall University’s Children’s College will reopen its doors on Monday, Sept. 12, offering a variety of classes ranging from Microbiology to Greek Mythology, according to Robert L. Lawson, MU Community College continuing education director.

Six classes will be offered to students in the fourth through sixth grades. They are: The Art of Drawing, Science of Chemistry, Drama-Storytelling, Conversational Spanish, and Creative Writing.

For junior high students (grades seven through nine), there will be nine classes to select from. These include: Creek Mythology, Space Exploration, Teenage Dating and Parental Pressure, Theatrical Arts, Conversational French, Computer Science, Archaeology, and The History and Development of Games-Sports-Trivia.

Each student may take as many as three classes which will be offered between 9 a.m. and noon on Saturday, beginning Sept. 17 and continuing through Nov. 21. Registration fee is $50. For families with more than one child enrolled in the program, the fee will be reduced to $40.

Registration is already under way and will continue until Sept. 17, according to Lawson.

Registration materials and additional information may be obtained by calling Lawson at the Community College Continuing Education Office, 5431.

NEWCOMERS

New to the campus are:
- MAXINE YAROLIN, key punch operator, Computer Center; DABRINE GRIEUTER, laboratory technician, Biochemistry Department; ROBIN A. KEITH, library clerk, Morrow Library; MARY CATHERINE HINKLE, police officer, Security.
- KAREN NANCE, clerk, Registrar’s Office; SCOTT R. MYERS, graduate assistant, Chemistry.
- MARCELLA WHITEHURST, clerk, Computer Center; KARI M. HERBERGER, cashier, General Store; SANDRA M. HANGA, assistant to the dean; CAROLYN B. CRAWFORD, secretary, Children’s College; JANICE L. CRAWFORD, secretary, Children’s College; ELLEN C. SUTTER, assistant athletic trainer, Athletic Department.

Previously, faculty and staff will receive a $1 discount off of their new purchase totaling more than $1, according to Warren S. Myers, MU auxiliary enterprises director.

“Of course, you will have to turn in the sales slips to get the discount,” Myers said, “but you can continue to collect another $10 worth of receipts to use another time.”

WHITE HOUSE FELLOWS

Young faculty members or recent graduates of Marshall are eligible for a White House Fellowship, according to Dr. Paul D. Stewart, Graduate School dean.

Nominees should be 25 years old or over, 35, said, although diverse backgrounds, ranging from a physician to a policeman, have been accepted. For additional information or to nominate someone, see the White House Fellows brochure in the Graduate School Office.

BOWLING LEAGUE

Faculty/staff Tuesday night bowling league is being organized at Memorial Student Center. Anyone interested in joining the league should call the Graduate School office at 6:30 p.m. at the center bowling lanes. Additional information may be obtained by calling Berni Elliott, recreation supervisor, 6667.

SQUARE DANCE CLASS

The Marshall University River City Tumblers will conduct a square dancing class for interested faculty and staff beginning Tuesday, Sept. 17, at 7 p.m. in the University Women’s Gym. Ralph Rood will be the instructor. Additional information may be obtained by calling Charles L. Jones, 2380; Ray Nissen, 6455 or Larry Hottinger, 6680.

NEH NOMINEES DUE SEPT. 23

Despite gloomy predictions of National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) funding, the Graduate School office has received an announcement for the 1982 Summer Stipend Program which offers $2,500 for a two-month period. Marshall is eligible to nominate three persons, two who received terminal degrees no earlier than 1974 and one who received the degree prior to then.

Research must be in a humanities area. “Marshall has been most successful in securing NEH funding in the past, and it is hoped that we will have successful applicants this year,” Graduate School Dean Paul D. Stewart said. Recommendations for Marshall nominees must be received by the Graduate School by Wednesday, Sept. 23. Information and forms are available at the Graduate School Office.

CAMPUS JOB OPENINGS...

The Personnel Office has posted the following campus employment opportunities:
- Registration Clerk, Registrar’s Office, pay grade 3, deadling Sept. 4.
- Secretary III, College of Liberal Arts, pay grade 4, deadline Sept. 4.
- Police Officer, Campus Operations, pay grade 8, deadline Sept. 4.
- Payroll Manager, Financial Affairs, pay grade 12, deadline Sept. 4.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Personnel Office, ext. 6455.