

6-19-1981

Marshall University News Letter, June 19, 1981

Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu\_news\_letter

---

Recommended Citation

Office of University Relations, "Marshall University News Letter, June 19, 1981" (1981). Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986. Paper 508.

http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu\_news\_letter/508

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marshall Publications at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986 by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.

President Hayes receives management award

The National Management Association's Gold Knight of Management award was presented to Marshall University President Robert B. Hayes at a meeting of the organization's Tri-State Chapter last week.

The award, which may be given annually to an outstanding manager in each of the association's 16 regions, was presented by Bob Jacobs of Parkersburg, president of the NMA West Virginia Council. This was only the third time the award has been presented by the West Virginia Council.

Prior to the award presentation, Hayes was principal speaker for the Tri-State Chapter's "Top Management Night" program. A native of Clarksburg and president of Marshall since 1974, Hayes discussed "Management for Change." He described some of the changes which have been implemented at Marshall which resulted in the university receiving a citation from the American Association of State Colleges and Universities last month as one of the nation's 12 most outstanding state-supported schools in the area of innovation and change.

The Gold Knight of Management award recognizes "a person with an outstanding reputation for leadership who has participated in a program of public understanding of management and the free enterprise system."

Faculty and staff achievements, activities. . .

DR. ROBERT P. ALEXANDER, professor and Management Department chairman, conducted a seminar on "How to Get the Most From Every Hour" for 75 people at the combined Governor's Conference on Tourism and West Virginia Restaurant and Licensed Beverage Association meeting. It was held April 27 at Canaan Valley State Park. Alexander also spoke on motivation at the Barboursville Kiwanis Club meeting April 20.

DR. WILLIAM SCHMITT, assistant professor of family practice, will present "Comparative Roles of Medical Education of the United States and Eastern European Countries" at a science colloquium July 17-23. It is sponsored by the University of Illinois, Institute for Russian

Medical School Graduate Honored

Marshall University School of Medicine Dean Robert W. Coon, left, congratulates recent graduate Stephen C. Smith after presenting him with the 1980-81 Upjohn Achievement Award. The award consists of a recognition plaque and $150 from the Upjohn Company, a major pharmaceutical firm, and will be presented annually to the graduating senior selected by the school's faculty as having the potential to be the best all-around physician. Dr. Smith will begin residency training July 1 at University Hospital, Madison, Wisc. (Marshall University photo by Chip Ellis) and Eastern European Studies. Schmitt will be guest speaker and conference and panel discussant.

DR. JOAN F. GILLILAND, assistant professor of English, is the author of "Cymbeline as Folk Tale" published in The Bulletin of the West Virginia Association of College English Teachers, 6 (Spring 1981), 13-18. She is book review editor of BWVACET. She recently served as recorder at a session on "Consulting about Sexist Language" at the Conference on College Composition and Communications in Dallas, Texas, and attended the Southeastern Renaissance Conference in Atlanta, Ga. Dr. Gilliland has been named to the membership committee of the Carolinas Symposium on British Studies. She read a paper on John Bunyan and Louisa May Alcott, "The Little Women's Progress," at the Seventh Annual Conference on the Literary Aspects of Children's Literature in Savannah, Ga., May 15-16.

DR. WILLIAM SCHNEIDERMAN, DR. MARC A. LINDBERG, DR. DONALD RAY and DR. STEPHEN P. MEWALDT, all assistant professors of psychology, and DR. DONALD CHEZIK, professor of psychology, attended the 53rd annual meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association April 30-May 2 in Detroit, Mich. Schneiderman and William Webb, psychology research assistant, read a paper on "Turning High Self-Monitors into Lows" Lindberg, Ray, Chezik and Alvin Beggs, a former psychology graduate student now at Ohio University, read a paper on "The Garcia Effect: A Test of Three Theories."

DAN O'HANLON, assistant professor of legal assisting, spoke on "Reforming the Municipal Court" at the Barboursville Rotary Club meeting April 29.

DIANE FORNARI, Community College reading instructor, was named "Volunteer of the Year" by Friends of WPBY-TV. During her year as a member of the organization, she has served as assistant banquet coordinator for the 1980 annual meeting, co-chairman for two membership drives, and chairman of the public relations subcommittee. She also co-produces "Just Among Friends," the volunteers, television series.

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY

News Letter

June 19, 1981

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS • NEWS BUREAU • MARSHALL UNIVERSITY • HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA 25701

Outside funding means extra services

Nearly $148,000 in federal, state and private grants for summer projects has been received by the Marshall University College of Education, according to Dean Philip J. Rusche.

The grants were awarded through the West Virginia Department of Education and its bureaus of Learning Systems and Vocational, Technical and Adult Education. "These recent grants—12 in all—bring our total outside funding to more than a half-million dollars this year," Dr. Rusche said. "We also have $1 million in grant proposals pending for the upcoming academic year," he added.

"These funds mean that we can provide extra services in a wide variety of programs involving the departments of Home Economics, Physical Education, Special Education, Counseling/Rehabilitation, Occupational, Adult and Safety Education and the college's Bureau of Educational Field Services," Rusche said.

Ranging from nearly $3,000 to $30,000, the grants are for curriculum and course development models, inservice and preservice programs for teachers and professional development of faculty members.

"Our level of outside funding, I think, is of tremendous credit to the faculty, which has developed an excellent reputation in providing meaningful service to the region," Rusche said.

College of Education faculty members working with funded summer projects include: Dr. Daryll D. Bauer Jr., associate professor of education; Dr. Charles I. Jones, professor of occupational, adult and safety education and department chairman; Dr. Robert S. Angel, assistant professor of education, Margaret A. Zelinko, assistant professor of occupational, adult and safety education;

Dr. John E. Smith, assistant professor of counseling and rehabilitation; Dr. Martha D. Blankenship, professor of home economics; Dr. Clifford D. Schneider, assistant professor of occupational, adult and safety education; Dr. Billy Ray Dunn, associate professor of occupational,

(continued on page 2)

AWARD PRESENTED TO MARSHALL

Marshall University alumnus Marvin Stone, center, chats with Allan W. Ostar, left, president of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), and Congressman Douglas D. Barnard Jr. of Georgia, during a recent reception in the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. Stone, editor of U.S. News & World Report, represented Marshall President Robert B. Hayes in ceremonies during which Marshall was presented an AASCU citation as one of the nation's dozen top state colleges and universities in the area of innovation and change. Congressman Barnard accepted the award in behalf of Augusta (Ga.) College.

Campus to see 3,500 summer visitors

Before the fall semester begins, Marshall University will have been home away from home to more than 3,500 guests—paying guests—who will be attending various camps, conferences and academic programs headquartered on campus.

Twin Towers East has been set aside for housing special guest groups, according to Melanie Glover, facilities coordinator for the Vice President for Administration's Office. "In fact, the staff there is calling the residence hall 'The Huntington Hilton,'" Mrs. Glover said.

These visitors to campus are in addition to the 650 students who will be living in the residence halls during summer school, according to Ray Welty, assistant director of housing. "The money derived from renting housing

(continued on page 2)

JULY 3 HOLIDAY

The next News Letter will appear Monday, July 6, since the university will be closed Friday, July 3, in observance of the Fourth of July holiday weekend. The News Letter is published every second Friday during summer school and has a deadline of 10 a.m. on the Wednesday preceding publication.

Report of academic planning/standards

The Academic Planning and Standards Committee met April 30 and approved the following:

1. Received an information, the College of Liberal Arts Curriculum Committee passed a resolution that "Geography 101 be included in natural and physical science requirements" for students in college of Liberal Arts.
2. Election of officers was completed. The results were: Chairman, Bruce Ardinger, and Secretary, Sarah N. Denman.
3. Three grade appeal recommendations were accepted and approved.

Campus facilities scheduling already under way for '82-'83

(continued from page 1)

and, in some cases, providing board will be used for residence hall operating expenses," Welty said.

Since Commencement, the following groups have been housed on campus: West Virginia Library Commission workshop, 100; Search, Seizure and Interrogation workshop, 10; Marshall Mathematics Competition, 25; Mid-Atlantic Gala Youth Day, 100; state Social Studies Fair, 650; Fred Miller Drill Team 175; basketball tryouts, 25; Parenting of Exceptional Children workshop, 40; Assessing Vocational Needs: Placement and Follow-up workshop, 15; Disciples Heritage Tour, 30; Nutrition workshop, 5; West Virginia Board of Architects examination, 10, and UCA Camp Cheerleaders, 180.

The following groups are scheduled throughout the summer:

June 7-27, Kaleidoscope Dance Residency, 20; June 15-19, Volleyball Camp, 50; June 16-July 24, Orientation, 25; June 17-21, Watch Tower Convention, 130; June 17-Aug. 4, Upward Bound counselors, 6;

June 18-20, River City Summer Scene, 10; June 19-20 AAU Junior Olympics; June 21- Aug. 1, Upward Bound students, 60; June 22-26, Nutrition workshop, 10; June 23-26, USCA Camp Cheerleaders, 125; June 24-27, YMCA, 150; June 26-27, Athletic Track Congress; July 5-10, Womens Basketball Camp, 50; July 7-9, Nurse Examination, 30; July 12-17, Softball Camp, 50; July 13-17, OAS workshop, 10; July 16-17, River City Summer Scene, 10;

July 18-21, Golden Eagle Cheerleaders, 125; July 25-Aug. 1, Autism workshop, 50; July 24-29, Boy Scout Troup, 30; July 25-26, Boy Scout Troup, 30; July 26-31, Football Camp, 100; July 27-31, OAS workshop, 10; July 31-Aug. 3, USCA Cheerleaders, 100; Aug. 3-7, OAS workshop, 10; Aug. 7-8, W.Va. Federation of Women's Clubs, 100; Aug. 9-14, Soccer Camp, 50; Aug. 13-14, River City Summer Scene, 10; Aug. 13-16, Hall of Fame-Track and Field Meet, 650; Aug. 17-21, United Teenage Pageant, 100, and Aug. 24-28, CPA Conference, 30.

Also the officers with the state Department of Corrections who are working with the Cabell County Sheriff's Department in operating the county jail are staying on campus, according to Welty.

"Right now we are working on scheduling facilities for next summer," Mrs. Glover said. Any department or group interested in holding activities on campus may contact either the Housing Office, ext. 6765, or her office, ext. 3122.

4. The curriculum sub-committee presented the following course additions, deletions or changes for approval:

Psy. 532, Addition, "Sex Therapy" - 3 cr.
Phil. 200, Addition, "Intro. to Philosophy Ancient Period" - 3 cr.
Phil. 311, Deletion, "Ancient and Medieval Western Philosophy" - 3 cr.
Hst. 202, Addition, "History of Medicine" - 3 cr.
Soc./Ant. 283/284, Addition, "Special Topics" - 3 cr.
Phil. 490/491, Change title from "Seminar" to "Special Topics"
Hst. 222, Change "American Military Experience" number 401 - 3 cr.
Soc. 314, Delete, "Social Disorganization" - 3 cr.
All of the above courses were approved 8-0.

BOT/BSC 418/518, Change in title, content, description from "Mycology and Plant Pathology" to "Mycology"
BIG 642, Addition, "Biochemical Techniques" - 3 cr.
MCB 642, Crosslist, BSC 442/542 - "Advanced Microbiology" - MCB 642 for Biomedical Science Program only.
All of the above were approved 7-0.

CM 610, Addition, "Appalachian Culture and Geography" - 3 cr.
CM 615, Addition, "Health Care Administration" - 3 cr.
CM 620, Addition, "Community Diagnosis and Treatment" - 4 cr.
CM 625, Addition, "Health Care Research Methods" - 3 cr.
CM 630, Addition, "Educational Skills" - 3 cr.
CM 635, Addition, "Epidemiology" - 3 cr.
CM 636, Addition, "Health Statistics" - 3 cr.
CM 640, Addition, "Practice Materials" - 2 cr.
CM 645, Addition, "Community Health Care Monitoring" - 2 cr.
CM 650, Addition, "Community and National Health Economics" - 2 cr.
CM 681, Addition, "Master's Thesis in Community Health" 6 cr.
The above courses were approved with request that the Medical College review the title of 630 and the function of 636. Vote 7-0.

Soc. 612, Deletion, "Social Movements" - 3 cr.
Soc./Ant 413/513, Change, Combine content with Soc. 612, 3 cr. and change title of "Collective Behavior" to "Collective Behavior and Social Movements"
Greek 550-551, Change, Greek 590-591
Latin 550-551, Change, Latin 590-591
History 431-531, Addition, "The United States, 1877-1933" - 3 cr.
Soc 442-542, Change, Title of "Metropolitan Communities" to "Urban Sociology" - 3 cr.
Soc 332, Change, "Rural-Urban Communities" - 3 cr. change number and title to Soc. 432/532 and "Rural Sociology"
All of the above were approved 8-0.

Psy 300, Addition, "Paranormal Phenomena" - 3 cr.
MCB 621, Addition, "Microbial Physiology" - 4 cr.
Both courses were approved 7-0.

Any questions or comments should be made to Giovanna Morton, chairman, or Sarah Denman, secretary.

Dean Rusche credits faculty

(continued from page 1)

adult and safety education; Dr. Clara C. Reese, assistant professor of occupational, adult and safety education;

Dr. Grace Bennett, professor of home economics and department chairman; Dr. Ronald L. Crosbie, assistant professor of health, physical education and recreation; Dr. Barbara Guyer, assistant professor of education; Dr. Edward G. Necco, associate professor of education; Edwina Pendarvis, assistant professor of education, and Dr. Ermel Stepp Jr., associate professor of education.

Dr. Tarter to head biological sciences

Dr. Donald C. Tarter, Marshall University professor of biological sciences, will become chairman of that department, effective July 1, according to MU Provost Olen E. Jones, Jr.

Tarter will succeed Dr. Harold E. Ward, who is retiring after 31 years of teaching at Marshall and who has headed the department since 1965.

"Highly respected on campus by both faculty and students, Dr. Ward has been a strong administrator and excellent teacher. His presence will be missed on this campus," Dr. Jones said. "Dr. Tarter, an equally dedicated educator and capable leader, was recommended by his depart-

Vermont U honors Coon

Dr. Robert W. Coon, dean of the Marshall University School of Medicine, was awarded the honorary Doctor of Science degree during recent commencement ceremonies at the University of Vermont.

Coon, who also serves as vice president for health sciences at Marshall, worked with the University of Vermont College of Medicine from 1955 to 1973. In 1974 he was awarded the Distinguished Service Award of the Vermont State Medical Society.

MU President Robert B. Hayes applauded the University of Vermont action in honoring Coon.

"A lot of us shared the dream of a medical school for Marshall University," Hayes said, "but dreaming is not enough. We were fortunate to acquire the experience, the organizational skills, the practicality and the willingness to work with others that Bob Coon brought to the job. His presence was a key factor in the rapid development of Marshall's School of Medicine. I'm sure the same qualities which have served Marshall so well were equally important to the University of Vermont."

Court fee to be assessed public, but not MU players

As of June 1, members of the general public using the Marshall University tennis courts are being assessed an hourly fee, according to Dr. Robert L. Case, MU Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department chairman.

Marshall students, faculty and staff with valid ID cards will not be assessed, Dr. Case said.

"The courts are in such demand now that it has become difficult for Marshall students, faculty and staff to find an hour to play," he said. "Naturally, when the university is in session, class, athletic and intramural play will take precedence over recreational play," Case added.

The hourly fees are as follows: Weekdays, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., $2.50; weekdays, 4 p.m. to 10 p.m., $3.50, and weekends and holidays, $3.50.

Case added that in order to offer the greatest usage of all MU tennis courts, daily reservations will be accepted weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The telephone number for reservations is ext. 6477.

ment colleagues and the dean of his college for the chairmanship," he added.

MU College of Science Dean E.S. Hanrahan said, "I am confident that Dr. Tarter will have the full support of the faculty and will provide the Biological Sciences Department with strong leadership. It may be significant that he was recruited for the faculty by Dr. Ward himself, who over the years has made significant contributions to Marshall and the sciences," Dr. Hanrahan said.

A member of Marshall's faculty since 1969, Dr. Tarter earned the B. S. degree from Georgetown (Ky.) College, an M.A.T. degree from Miami University of Ohio, and the Ph.D. degree from the University of Louisville.

He is a member of the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources Technical Resource Advisor Council, and also serves on the board of directors of Family Care Outpatient Center, a nonprofit ambulatory care clinic and teaching affiliate of the MU School of Medicine.

A Wayne County native, Ward earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Marshall University and his doctorate from Ohio State University. He has been active in the National Science Teachers Association, the West Virginia Education Association and the Association of Higher Education.

Masonic endowment trust provides awards to 112 students

One hundred and twelve scholarships have been awarded to students from West Virginia by Marshall University for the 1981-82 academic year with funds from the Masonic Scholarship Endowment Trust of West Virginia, MU Student Affairs Dean Nell Bailey announced today.

In 1968, the West Virginia Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons established an endowment "to provide scholarship aid to needy West Virginia students of intellectual and moral promise who wish to attend our state universities," setting a goal of $1.5 million to be realized through annual assessment of members and other contributions.

Each year since, the interest from the trust fund has been divided equally between Marshall and West Virginia universities, Dr. Bailey said. "This year Marshall's share of the interest amounted to more than $53,000, making it possible for us to give scholarships ranging from $400 to $500 to 112 students with 3.5 grade point averages," she said.

"The interest realized from the endowment is the single largest private source of scholarship aid Marshall has," Dr. Bailey noted. "The people of West Virginia really owe a debt of gratitude to the West Virginia Grand Lodge as there are literally hundreds of graduates from the state universities who have benefitted from this commitment to education made more than a decade ago," she added.

Exchange teaching opportunities

The U. S. Department of Education has announced teaching exchange opportunities and seminars in foreign countries in 1982-83. The opportunities seem to be for public school teachers or collegiate instructors of such persons. For further information contact Paul D. Stewart, Graduate School Office.