

7-31-1981

Marshall University News Letter, July 31, 1981

Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter

Recommended Citation

Office of University Relations, "Marshall University News Letter, July 31, 1981" (1981). Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986. Paper 505.

http://mds.marshall.edu/oldmu_news_letter/505

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marshall Publications at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marshall University News Letter 1972-1986 by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.

Kinzer elected to head association

John K. Kinzer Jr., manager, Coal Taxes for Ashland Coal, Inc., division of Ashland Oil, Inc., has been elected president of the Marshall University Alumni Association for 1981-82.

A Huntington resident, Kinzer earned his B.B.A. degree from Marshall in 1962 and previously served as vice president and treasurer of the alumni board. He received his M.B.A. from West Virginia University in 1975 and became a certified public accountant in 1979.

Kinzer is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the West Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants' Committee on State Taxation Executive Committee, Ohio Valley Accountants Association, and Huntington Chapter Certified Public Accountants. He also is a member of Cammack Children's Center Board and is member and treasurer of St. John's Episcopal Church.

President Kinzer is married to the former Betty Sue Haden, a 1967 Marshall graduate. They have three children.

ROTARY AIDS MARSHALL STUDENTS

The Marshall University student loan fund received a substantial boost recently when the Huntington Rotary Club presented Dr. Bernard Queen, executive director of the Marshall Foundation, a $2,000 check for use in the loan program. The money will be matched by the federal government on a 9-to-1 basis under the National Direct Student Loan Program, generating a total of $20,000 to assist MU students, Queen said. Pictured from left are Carter Wild, vice chairman of the Rotary's Student Loan Committee; Dr. Joseph S. LaCascia, MU Economics Department chairman and chairman of the Rotary committee; Dr. Queen and Rotary President Larry E. Hite. (Marshall University photo by Rick Haye)

Other officers elected to one-year terms were: Richard K. Barton (A.B. '48), first vice president; Mary Drucilla Ramsey Moehling (B.S. '69, M.B.A. '78), second vice president; June Hope Aeiker Deal (A.S. '48), secretary, and Marc A. Sprouse (B.B.A. '70, M.B.A. '75), treasurer.

Barton is Huntington city manager. His wife, the former Jackie Daniels, attended Marshall 1959-60. Mrs. Moehling is a staff accountant with Callaway, Trainer & Wright in Huntington. She and her husband, Fred, are parents of two daughters.

Mrs. Deal is senior laboratory technician with American Electric Power Service Corp. in Huntington. She and her husband, Dewey Deal Jr., have one son. Sprouse is a vice president of Huntington Trust & Savings Bank. His wife, the former Susan McAllister, graduated from Marshall in 1971. They have two children.

Officers are elected by and from the board. Members of the board of directors are elected through balloting of active members of the Alumni Association. Each year 10 board members are elected to three-year terms. The board members serve on committees to design, implement and direct Association activities.

At-large directors for 1981-84 will be: Herbert William "Bill" Chad-dock (A.B. '55), of Charleston, vice president of communications, Columbia Gas Transmission Corp.; Michael R. Kiger (B.B.A. '68) of Tridelphia, W.Va., account manager, IBM Corp.; Martha Jeanne Hill Merical (B.A. '75) of Charleston, attorney, U.S. District Courts, and Paul R. Skaff Jr. (B.B.A. '74) of Charleston, administrative manager, State of West Virginia Employment & Training Division.

Cabell-Wayne directors elected for three year terms were: Barton; Frank B. Cummings Jr. (A.B. '69, M.A. '76), manager, corporate training, Ashland Oil, Inc.; Kenneth L. Gainer (B.B.A. '64), real estate broker, Gainer, Kirtley & Co.; William Allen Heaberlin (B.A. '68, M.A. '71), president, Media Promotion Enterprises, Huntington; Everett N. Roush III (who attended Marshall 1952-55), dentist with West Virginia Dental Services, and Suzanne Showen Walton (A.B. '69, M.A. '77), teacher at Gallaher Elementary School, Huntington.

Appointed to fill unexpired terms were: Douglas R. Hardman (B.E.S. '70, M.B.A. '76), manager of engineering services, J.H. Fletcher & Co., Huntington; David N. Harris (B.B.A. '71), personnel manager, Huntington Alloys, Inc., and Joseph W. Hunnicutt III (B.B.S. '57), president, Summerlee Coal Processing, Inc.

To serve one-year terms as appointees will be: Jean Atkinson Hamilton (M.A. '73), business manager, Hamilton Chevrolet, Chesapeake, Ohio; William Donald "Don" Morris (B.S. '39), retired manager, Marshall Memorial Student Center, and Charles Everett "Chuck" Romine Jr. (B.B.A. '58), agency manager, State Farm Insurance Co., Huntington.

Credit Union savings plan

Have you budgeted that 12½ per cent raise? Have you considered saving by opening a savings account with the Marshall Federal Credit Union's payroll deduction plan? The Credit Union services are open to all MU employees. The office, located in Old Main 17B, is open from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday.

MU faculty and staff achievements, activities. . .

DR. WILLIAM SCHNEIDERMAN, assistant professor of psychology, has been appointed to the board of directors of Family Service, Inc., a United Way agency.

DON E. ROBERTSON, student activities and organizations coordinator, has been elected president of the West Virginia Association of Student Personnel Administrators for 1981-82. He also has been selected to represent the Great Lakes Region (Kentucky, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan and Pennsylvania) on the National Residence Life Committees of the National Entertainment and Campus Activities Association.

DR. RICHARD O. COMFORT, professor of sociology/anthropology, attended a Conference on Aging at West Virginia University June 7-10. Among the sessions he attended was a course on "Counseling Older People." Speakers for the conference included Maggie Kuhn, Gray Panthers director. He also served as a contest judge for the Northeast Kentucky Community Development Association. In the contest communities were judged on accomplishments by residents in such areas as building community centers, recreational programs and community clean-up projects.

DAN O'HANLON, legal assisting program coordinator, recently reappointed as Municipal Judge for a four-year term, conducted an inservice training session for EMT, paramedics and ambulance drivers on the legal liability of their work on July 14. On July 23, he was the luncheon speaker for the Huntington Lions Club. O'Hanlon also serves as chairman of the West Virginia State Bar Association's Committee on Legal Assistants.

DR. JAMES E. DOUGLASS, professor of chemistry and department chairman, attended the 27th National Organic Chemistry Symposium at Vanderbilt University on June 22-25.

DR. ROBERT P. ALEXANDER, professor of management and department chairman, spoke before the Civitan Club at the UpTowner Inn on July 10. He discussed "The First Nine Days."

JEANNE M. DeVOS, associate in science in nursing degree program director, has been named coordinator for a statewide forum on issues affecting nursing at the two-year degree level. The forums, a joint project of the Liaison Committee of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges and the National League for Nursing, have been funded by a grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek, Mich.

BABB ON SCIENCE CAMP FACULTY

Dr. Daniel P. Babb, right, associate professor of chemistry, was a visiting lecturer at the National Youth Science Camp held each summer since 1963 when it was conceived as part of the West Virginia Centennial Celebration. Babb, who lectured on "Flourine Compounds in Everyday Life," is shown talking with one of West Virginia's delegates to the camp, Betsy Atkins of Huntington. Coordinator for the camp is the Governor's Office of Economic and Community Development.

CAMPUS JOB OPENINGS. . .

The Personnel Office has posted the following campus employment openings:

Parking Attendant, Traffic and Parking, (9-month position), pay grade 2, deadline Aug. 3.

Animal Caretaker II, Medical School, pay grade 3, deadline Aug. 3.

Accounting Clerk II, Accounting, pay grade 3, deadline Aug. 3.

Activities Supervisor, Intramurals, (9-month position), pay grade 8, deadline Aug. 3.

Police Officer III, Public Safety, pay grade 8, deadline Aug. 3.

Admissions Counselor, Admissions, pay grade 9, deadline Aug. 21.

Institutional Research Coordinator, pay grade 13, deadline Aug. 21.

Secretary II, Accounting, pay grade 4, deadline Aug. 3.

Student Activities and Recognized Organizations, Student Life, (10-month position), pay grade 11, deadline Aug. 7.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Personnel Office, ext. 6455.

NEWCOMERS

New to the campus are:

MAUDIE B. KARICKHOFF, project assistant, Home Economics Department; ROBERTA JEAN CHENOWETH, administrative assistant, OAS Department; ROSEMARY GUM, secretary III, Student Life, and SUSAN M. LEWIS, keypunch operator, Accounting.

Welcome to Marshall!

Personnel personals. . .

Don and Jeannie Robertson became the parents of their first child, a daughter, Emily Susan, born July 2 and weighing 6 lbs. and 9½ oz. Don, a member of Student Affairs Division, is coordinator of Student Activities and Organizations.

Proud of a family member's accomplishment? Is there a new baby at your house? Is there something you'd like to share with your colleagues? The News Letter's "Personnel Personals" is another channel open to you. Send your information to Judith Casto, University Relations, Old Main 102.