New Resources Required: None

Statement of Non-Duplication: N/A

Action Requested: Change in required courses/credits

Department: Modern Languages

Curriculum: Number of hours: 12 hrs beyond 101 – 102; required courses 203 and 204. Optional, any two of the following – 305/306 Introduction to Composition & Conversation; 315/316 Advanced Grammar & Composition; 323/324 Advanced Grammar & Oral Communication; or any 300 level course and one of the two following courses taught in English, 240 Society & Life or 304 Literary Masterpieces in Translation.

New Resources Required: None

Statement of Non-Duplication: N/A

Action Requested: We would like the existing "concentrations" in Interpersonal, Organizational and Public Communications to be areas of emphasis.

Department: Communication Studies

Curriculum: No change in the curriculum is involved in this request. All course requirements will remain exactly as listed in the 2001-2003 catalog.

New Resources Required: None

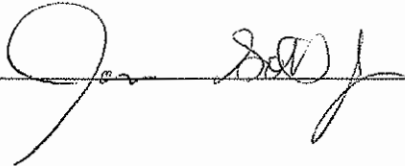

Statement of Non-Duplication: This field of study does not duplicate any other current program at the University.

Rationale: This proposal would not change any curricular requirements, but would let the student's diploma and transcript identify the student as receiving a degree in the area of emphasis in "Communication Studies." We would also be able to better track enrollment patterns.
