EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

SR-01-02-21 (EC)

Recommends that the following revisions be made to the Faculty Senate Constitution to make the language reflect verbiage used presently within the university community. These changes will become effective with Senate approval.

Note: Current language to be revised is shown ~~strikethrough~~ and new language is in bold.

1. RATIONALE: To define the term "academic unit" in the Bylaws for ease of future revision.

FROM:

Article III—Membership and Election

Section 1. The Senate shall consist of one (1) senator for each academic unit, unless otherwise specified, plus one (1) senator for each thirteen (13) full-time faculty members, plus one (1) additional member if the number of full-time faculty in a unit exceeds a multiple of thirteen by seven (7) or more. The term "academic unit" is defined in the Bylaws as ~~the Lewis College of Business, the Community & Technical College, the College of Education & Human Services, Fine Arts, Liberal Arts, Nursing & Health Professions, Science, the Schools of Medicine and the W. Page Pitt School of Journalism & Mass Communications, the Graduate School of Information Technology and Engineering, and the Marshall University Libraries.~~ Individual constituency numbers for calculating representation shall be based upon the number of full-time faculty presented every second year to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate in the fall semester preceding Senate elections. Census information will be provided by the Office of Institutional Research and Planning in collaboration with the Provost and the Vice President for Health Services. In addition, South Charleston faculty will elect two (2) at-large senators.
