FACULTY SENATE
Recommendation
(from the Senate Floor)

SR-91-92-48 (SF)

WHEREAS, the Marshall University academic sector is organized into colleges, divisions, and departments; and

WHEREAS, each academic department is allocated an annual budget to support that unit; and

WHEREAS, academic units, in a professional manner, deliberately allocate their budgets to various needs, including faculty travel; and

WHEREAS, the Freeze Committee is charged with "conserving" university funds to the degree that they are dictating department budget expenditures, especially in travel funds;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that henceforth the department's budget, once allocated at the college level, shall be expended in a prudent manner with only the approval of the departmental chair and the college dean,

AND that no university committee, including the Freeze Committee, shall have jurisdiction over a department's budget spending decisions.
