PHYSICAL FACILITIES AND PLANNING COMMITTEE
Recommendation

SR-90-91-(99)251 (PFPC)

That Section 7 of the "Policy for Assignment of Auxiliary Space" be amended as follows:

Delete the following material in Section 7:

The following priorities should be used in assignment of office and support space:

1. office space for active full-time faculty
2. office space for part-time faculty
3. office space for teaching assistants
4. department support activities, i. e., computer rooms, copy rooms
5. graduate assistants
6. occasional faculty emeritus when space permits

Add the following as Section 8:

The following guidelines should be used in assignment of department office and support space:

1. Office space for active full-time faculty is the top priority.
2. Space for activities of special importance to the department.
3. The following three items are considered of secondary importance; however, the ranking of each depends upon the nature of the department and its activities.
 - A) storage space for equipment, supplies, and other support facilities
 - B) office space for part-time faculty
 - C) office space for teaching assistants
4. Non teaching graduate assistants.
5. Occasional faculty emeritus when space permits.

RATIONALE: The previous policy did not recognize that different departments may have unique space needs.
