FACULTY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
Recommendation

SR-90-91-(123)275 (FDC)

That the Senate direct the By-Laws Committee to delay its discussion to merge the functions of the Research Committee and those of the Faculty Development Committee until the latter has had time to study its charge.

BACKGROUND/RATIONALE: As a new committee, Faculty Development is just beginning to grapple with the scope of its work. Our first task is to educate ourselves--along with other interested faculty members and administrators--about the strategies that are effective in promoting faculty development. Support for faculty research is one such strategy, but we are not yet sure how faculty research fits into the larger context of faculty development.
