STUDENT CONDUCT & WELFARE COMMITTEE
Recommendation

SR-90-91-(127)279 (SCW)

To approve the following revision for the Code of Conduct Procedures Manual:

E. Sanctioning Process

Current: "When a student is determined to be in violation of University regulations either by a Judicial Board or the Coordinator, one or more of the sanctions described below may be imposed. In cases not involving a hearing, the student shall be allowed a limited period of time to sign and return the letter of sanction to the Office of the Coordinator of Judicial Affairs accepting the sanction or requesting a hearing."

Proposed Change: "When a student is determined to be in violation of University regulations either by a Judicial Board or the Coordinator or his/her designee, one or more of the sanctions described below may be imposed. In cases not involving a hearing, the student shall be allowed a limited period of time to consider the charge(s) and recommended sanction(s) and register an appeal through the appropriate channel as specified in the letter of charges."

DISCUSSION: It was the feeling of the committee that the proposed change would allow the student a reasonable time to consider the charge(s) and sanction(s) in order to register an appeal if one is desired.
