EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
Recommendation

SR-89-90-98 (EC) - REVISED

To approve the following addition to the Constitution (Article VI, Section 19) specifying the function and composition of the Faculty Development Committee: (the concept of a Faculty Development Committee was approved by the Faculty Senate on May 25, 1989 and by the general faculty by paper ballot, September 21, 1989.)

Section 19. Faculty Development Committee

A. Powers and Functions. The Faculty Development Committee shall be concerned with the promotion and coordination of faculty development activities. It shall develop comprehensive policy, make program recommendations, and provide program oversight in the area of faculty development. It may assist and advise appropriate administrators in establishing programs such as videoconferences, workshops, seminars and speakers to enhance instructional and research skills as well as curricular organizational and leadership development. It shall aid the appropriate administrators in the search for funds and develop policies for the administration of available funds. It shall determine the allocation of funds for all faculty development programs (e.g. the Queen Endowment for Faculty Development), not specifically assigned to other units of the University. It shall establish or oversee subcommittees involved in selection of faculty development awards for teaching and service and shall create or encourage faculty exchange programs with other institutions.

B. Membership. Committee membership shall be consistent with that of all regular standing committees. Ex officio non-voting members shall be the Dean of the Graduate School and the Assistant Provost.
