Recommendation #2

Whereas, The Chief Justice is the single item produced by the University that most accurately and concisely portrays the activities of students, faculty and staff over the longest span of time, thereby providing historical continuity in an otherwise temporary society;

Whereas, The Publications Committee supports the continued publication of the Chief Justice without sacrificing its quality or size; and

Whereas, The Chief Justice has received an increase in allocation from student fees totalling $.55 since 1958 while student activity fees have increased from $17.50 to $148.00 in the same period of time;

Resolved, That the Publications Committee recommends that the Chief Justice be allowed to apply for another increase in allocation from student fees in the fall semester, 1988, in order to maintain its present size and content (passed unanimously by the committee).
