FPC MINUTES OF
27 JANUARY 1989

Motion #1: Background. On the issue of faculty developing forms to evaluate administrators, one FPC member asked, "Why doesn't the President do it, they're his administrators?" Since the development of a faculty evaluation system is being done by faculty, FPC members saw little need for spending faculty time to do the administrative "instrument" too.

Thus ... Dr. Radig moved that we recommend to the President that either he, or the Provost, develop a procedure to evaluate administrators and return that evaluative tool to us in draft form for approval (or disapproval). Prof. Stanley seconded and the motion passed unanimously.
