Faculty Senate Recommendation
May 25, 1989

RECOMMENDATION # 1

Recognizing the significant problems concerning intolerance on the basis of race, gender, religion, ethnicity, physical handicaps, sexual orientation, economic situation, and political views that exist on the Marshall University Campus, the Faculty Senate hereby creates an indefinite ad hoc committee, composed of nine full-time faculty to examine the extent of the problems and to make specific recommendations directly to the Senate. The Committee members shall represent the diversity of the faculty. Representatives of minority groups, one of whom shall be elected chair by the committee, shall comprise the majority of the committee. The present membership with one additional member to be appointed by the President of the Senate will be retained through the 1989-90 academic year.
