MOTIONS FROM FACULTY SENATE

#1 A special committee shall be created to study the issues related to the staff and funding of summer school. The committee shall be composed of one faculty representative from each college or school to be named by the Senate President, three representatives from the Dean's Council, one from the Office of Academic Affairs, and the Vice President of Financial Affairs. The Chairman of the committee will be designated by the Senate President from the faculty representatives on the committee. The committee will report to the Faculty Senate no later than March 1, 1988. It will deal with all aspects of summer school.
