THE SENIOR CLASS

The class of 1940 is the largest senior class in the history of the college, comprising 90 students in the College of Arts and Sciences and 219 in the Teachers' college. Sixty-five of these students were mentioned on the honor roll for their academic record during the first semester of the year. Only 125 men are seniors this year, while 184 co-eds are closing their college career. Seventeen students come from 5 different states of the United States, while one senior comes from Frankfurt am Main, Germany. Huntington sends 158 seniors to graduation in June, while 133 seniros will return to their homes in other parts of the state after graduation.
