THE FRESHMAN CLASS

This year's freshman class includes 760 students, enrolling in Marshall from 12 different states in addition to the District of Columbia. Of these, 438 are enrolled in Teachers' college; 25 made averages of "B" or better to be listed on the Dean's list. The College of Arts and Sciences listed 438 students for the second semester Fifty-eight of the first semester class attained the average necessary for listing on the honor roll. Almost half of the freshman students live in the city of Huntington, 333 others live in other parts of the state, and 73 come from other states. The men in the class have the edge over the co-eds as far as numbers go: 403 men, 347 women.
