Of Dr. Booth, Ex-President R. F. Hays said :

“With ample opportunity to know the qualifications of Dr. John T. Booth, he is a gentleman of intelligence and character; of great merit in his profession and in other respects.”

Major General George Crook, U. S. Army, said :

“A member of my late command, John T. Booth M. D. Cincinnati is thoroughly qualified, mentally and morally, for any position.”

Of Dr. Booth, the Mayor, officially, said :

“His reputation as a physician is first class; his character as a citizen unimpeachable.

During the war with Spain, Dr. Booth, as Asst. Surgeon U. S. Army, had charge of the largest military hospital ward in the world.

Later assigned as Major - Surgeon - of the 40th U.S. Vol. Infantry.
