CONTENT AND SCOPE OF COLLECTION

The Robert Gilchrist family papers consist primarily of correspondence from three major, related families--the Andersons, the Wilsons, and the Gilchrists. Included among the correspondence are newsclippings, diaries, journals and scrapbook. Several books are part of the collection pertaining to Lebanon, Ohio and the Little Miami Railroad.

The material contained in the Anderson family papers is correspondence of Isaac Anderson and his children. There are several folders of Joseph Anderson's letters to his wife, Jane Gilchrist Anderson, and Joseph's personal business documents.

The Wilson family papers are concentrated on Joseph Wilson's and Mary Wilson Gilchrist's legal actions concerning the administration of Robert Gilchrist's Estate.

The majority of the collection is material from Gilchrist family members. Aside from the Robert Gilchrist Estate Papers, a significant collection of Robert Wilds Gilchrist's papers exist pertaining to his educational and political endeavors.

ROBERT GILCHRIST, 1780-1812

The following biography is extracted from James Parks Gilchrist's notebook containing; "A short history of the ancestry of JPG and Euphemia A. Gilchrist also of their brothers and sisters and their family." (See Bx 5, Fd 6)

My father, Robert Gilchrist was born in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, February 23, 1780. His father emigrated from Scotland before the year 1775. Was married twice. My father and his sister, Sarah, was his last wife's children.

Father was raised on a farm and was married to my mother, Mary Wilson, on December 1800. Moved to Ohio in 1802 and lived on the was in a Conestoga wagon--was the first five-horse team that had cross the Allengheny Mountains. Had to cut trees in many places to get over the road and past through Pittsburgh on their was and some purchases there that they would need... After leaving Pittsburgh they passed through Chillicothe and Lebanon (they were just laying out the lots for the town) to Dayton. They stopped on the Miami River three miles north of Dayton where mother, father, and family was located. They had come out short before then. They remained through some two years, but the milk sickness was so bad there my father bought a 1/2 section of land all in the woods, which is now in the southern section of Montgomery County 2 1/2 miles north of Springborough [?] was all Hamilton County. This farm is now owned and occupied by ____Mitchell (1885). Three children were all born there except their oldest, Nancy, was born in Pennsylvania. They built a double hinged? log house and had about 70 acres cleared when father was called into the service of the United States as captain of a company in the War of 1812. Left the ____ at Dayton, Ohio on June and at the Battle of Brownstone, 15th day of August 1812, was taken prisoner and tomahawked on the spot by the Indians.

My mother, Mary Wilson, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania in 1777. They were married in that county on September 10, 1800. They had seven children.

My mother remained on the farm until 1817 when she bought the house standing on the Southeast corner of Warren [?] and Mechanic Street in Lebanon and moved into it.

She had a small amount of money over the price she paid ($2500.00) for the house that she used in making some other purchases with and selling the same at a profit. With that surplus and her small rent from the farm [end of sentence in notebook.]

An account of the Battle of Brownstown in the Michian Territory during the War of 1812 and the circumstances leading to Robert Gilchrist's death occurs in Robert Breckinridge McAfee's 1816 reprinted edition of HISTORY OF THE LATE WAR IN THE WESTERN COUNTRY (Ann Arbor: University Microfilms, 1966), p. 73-74.

ISAAC ANDERSON, 1758-1839

The following biography is extracted from James Parks Gilchrist's notebook containing; "A short history of the ancestry of JPG and Euphemia A. Gilchrist also of their brothers and sisters and their family." (See Bx 5, Fd 6)

Father, Isaac Anderson, was born Donegal County, Ireland on the 16th day of September 1758. At the age of 12 years, his parents both died.

He studied mathematics and surveying made himself master of the. At the age of 16 he determined to seek his fortune in America. At that time a colony of Great Britain. He sailed from Donegal and landed in Philadelphia in the early part of the year 1774. During his passage, he kept up his studies by learning navigation under the tuition of the Captain. He had several brothers and sisters here that had come to this country before him. They settled in Virginia where a number their descendents are now living. He stopped in Philadelphia until the spring of 1776 when the war with G. Britain broke out. He shouldered his rifle and knapsack and insold himself in Col. Morgan's rifle regiment and continued in service of his country to the end of the war. For a further history of his life and the battles, you will find in McBriges PIONEER BIOGRAPHY not first published in 1869.

Euphemia Morehead was born in Cumberland Co., now Franklin, Pennsylvania, Sept. 23, 1770. She had a number of brothers, William, Joseph, and Fergus. Their descendents are numerous and reside in Indiana Co., Penn. Father Isaac Anderson and mother Euphemia Morehead were married in Westmoreland Co., Penn. on the 14th day of November 1788.

They moved to Ohio, then a territory and located in Cincinnati in 1787 where they kept a public house and store on the south side of Front Street between Main and Walnut, called the "Green Tree". In 1812 they moved to their farm six miles south of Hamilton on the Big Miami River where they remained until their death. Father died December 18, 1839 in the 82 year of his age. Mother died Aug. 26, 1851 in her 81 year of age.

They had seven children; Robert, Jane, Margaret, Fergus, Susan, Isaac, and Euphemia the second.

JOSEPH ANDERSON, 1804-1874

Joseph Anderson was born in Cincinnati on July 10, 1804. When he was eight (1812), his parents, Isaac Anderson and Euphemia Morehead Anderson, moved to a farm near Hamilton, Ohio. Very little was recorded about his education and early childhood. In 1829 he married Jane Gilchrist and was in the merchant business with his brother William. They moved to Liberty, Indiana and were in business there for several years. Many letters he wrote his wife were concerning buying trips made to Philadelphia and New York to stock his dry goods store. In 1832 James Parks Gilchrist became his partner after he purchased William Anderson's interest in the store. Joseph served as a representative from Liberty to the Indiana Legislature from 1838-39 and some letters from Indianapolis to his wife contain some political comments. Gilchrist and Anderson Co. moved to Lebanon in 1839 and established their store there.

Joseph died in Lebanon, December 19, 1874 at 70 years of age. Jane Gilchrist Anderson died December 11, 1882 at 77 years of age. They had no children

JAMES PARKS GILCHRIST 1812-1887

The following biography appears in the History of Warren County, Ohio (Chicago, W. H. Beers and Co., 1882), p. 740-741.

James Parks Gilchrist, merchant, Lebanon; was born in Montgomery Co., Ohio, Nov. 28, 1812; his father, Robert Gilchrist, was born near Harrisburg, Dauphin Co., Penn., in 1780, and, in 1802, emigrated to Ohio, settling on Stillwater in Montgomery County. [Robert] was married, in 1800, to Miss Mary Wilson, daughter of James and Nancy Wilson, who was born in Cumberland Co., Penn., Aug. 25, 1777, and died in Lebanon, Ohio, April 6, 1867, aged 90 years. Her father was born in Pennsylvania and was descended from a family who emigrated to America from Ireland, seven children were the result of the above union, and other them, two boys and one girl--Robert W., J. Parks, and Jane are the only survivors. [Robert] lived in Montgomery County until May, 1812, when he volunteered under Col. Van Horne, in Hull's army, and was killed in the battle of Brownstown Aug. 12, 1812, just a few days before Hull's cowardly surrender; his father, our subject's grandfather, Robert was born in Scotland, and emigrated to America with his wife and two brothers in the latter part of the eighteenth century. He was twice married, having by his first wife two sons and seven daughters, and by his second wife, Sarah McGuire, one boy and one girl.

[James Parks] came to Warren County in 1817, with his mother and seven children, and settled in Lebanon, which has since been his home; his education has amounted to a very few weeks' attendance at a private school in Lebanon. In 1827, he commenced clerking in the store of William Lytle, where he remained until May, 1830, when he went to Cincinnati and engaged in the dry goods store of Brown & O'Brien; he next clerked in a store in Rossbille, Ohio, and, in January, 1832, he went to Liberty, Ind., with a stock of goods furnished by J. & W. Anderson, which he was to sell for half profits. In this he proved successful, and, in 1833, purchased William Anderson's interest and conducted the store under the firm name of Gilchrist & Anderson until 1839, when they returned to Lebanon and opened the dry goods store in which he has since continued. His firm has been variously known under the name of Anderson & Gilchrist, Gilchrist & Gray, Gilchrist & Benham and now as J. P. Gilchrist & Co., he having associated with himself his son, Joseph Anderson Gilchrist and his Nephew, La France Coryell. Mr. Gilchrist was married, on the 12th day of April, 1837, to Miss Euphemia Anderson, of Butler Co., Ohio.

Euphemia Anderson's father, Isaac Anderson, was born in Donegal Co., Ireland, Sept. 16, 1758 and emigrated to America previous the Revolutionary war, during which struggle for independence he served for seven years, enlisting as a private and being promoted to a Lieutenancy. He was severely wounded in the head at the battle of Germantown, causing the loss of one eye; he subsequently served in the Indian war, in which he was taken prisoner by the savages in the neighborhood of Lawrenceburg, on the Ohio River. His captors took up their line of march for Montreal, Canada, camping one night on the Big Miami River. The country around their camp pleased Mr. Anderson so much that he resolved, if he ever escaped, to locate there, which he finally did. Some time after their arrival at Montreal, he and a comrade scaled the walls of their prison and escaped, walking the whole distance to Philadelphia and suffering untold privations on the way and subsisting on roots, frogs and anything they could find. On Nov. 14, 1778, Mr. Anderson was married to Miss Euphemia Moorehead, who was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania.

[James Parks'] marriage to Miss Euphemia Anderson had the following children: Mary W., born Oct. 18, 1812, died Nov. 2, 1866; Robert, born April 19, 1846, died Dec. 6, 1871; Isaac, born March 28, 1848, died April 28, 1850; James Parks, born Sept. 1, 1850, died June 29, 1854; and Joseph A., born April 4, 1854. From 1867 to 1880, Mr. Gilchrist carried on an extensive business in Columbus, Ohio, in company with C. P. Gray and Andrew Dobbie. He has, for upward of twenty-five years, been a member of the Presbyterian Church. In politics, when a young man he espoused the Whig cause, and became one of the Republican party on its organization. During the civil war, he was an earnest supporter of the Union cause and assisted in raising men for and the organization of the 12th and 35th Regiments of O. V. I., in this country; he was also a member of the Christian and Sanitary Commissions at Lebanon.

ROBERT WILDS GILCHRIST, 1880-1957

Robert Wilds Gilchrist was born to Joseph Anderson Gilchrist and Emma Katherine Probasco Gilchrist on November 9, 1880 in Lebanon, Ohio. He attended Lebanon Public Schools from 1888-1897 and then went to school in Lawrenceville, New Jersey at Lawrenceville School during 1897-1899. He completed his education at Princeton University from 1901-1903.

Robert Wilds Gilchrist was active in many civic and political concerns of Lebanon and Warren County, Ohio. In fact, just a year after graduation from Princeton, 1904, he was President of Warren County Republican League. This organization was responsible for encouraging community involvement and interests in national politics.

Robert Wilds Gilchrist married Edna Tichenor Curry on October 3, 1905. In 1906 they had a daughter, Katherine Probasco Gilchrist.

In 1918, Gilchrist became assistant to Custodian Palmer of the Alien Property Commission.

Aside from Gilchrist's Political Interests, he was an insurance agent and in the real estate business.

In 1925 he was first elected to the Lebanon Village Council. In 1934 he had served for 8 years and was Chairman of Street Committee and a member of Council's Police Committee.

He was appointed in 1927 to the District Deputy of the Grand Exalted Ruler of the B.P. O. of Elks.

Robert W. Gilchrist ran for Republican Representative to the General Assembly in the 1938 primary but lost.

In 1939 he was elected to another two year term on the Lebanon City Council. In 1941 he resigned from Street Committee since he was one of the candidates under consideration for the Commissioner's job.

Robert Wilds Gilchrist died in 1957.
