LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

Vol V No. 1 May 1953

Mrs. Robert Emerson, President
250 Roland Park Drive

Miss Jeanne Goodman, Editor
1140 Sixth Street

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our program child was produced without pain, and its fourteen mothers are extremely proud of it. Like all children, it will probably need correction, but, inasmuch as it was so well-conceived, we hope it will mature without too many deviations from the pattern.

Table with 3 columns: Month, Meeting Type, Topic. Rows include May 18 (General meeting: School Aid Formula), June (Unit meetings: Local Educational Problems), July (Unit meetings: Streets, Transportation, and Public Utilities), August (Unit Meetings: Recreation and Housing), September (General meeting: Political Organization and Elections), October (Unit meetings: City Manager Form of Government), November (Unit meetings: Detailed study of this subject), December (Unit meetings: United Nations), January (General meeting: U. N. to synchronize with Un. N. Week), February (Unit meetings: Congressional budgetary procedures), March (Unit meetings: Report on redistricting of precincts), and Annual meeting: Constitutional Modernization.

SCHOOL FORMULA

The League of Women Voters of Huntington shall hold a public meeting on Monday, May 18, 1953, at 8:00 P. M. in the Common Pleas Court Room of the Cabell County Court House.

The Honorable Glenn Jackson of Logan, Chairman of the W. Va. State Finance Committee, and the Honorable J. C. McKown of Wayne, Chairman of the Senate Education Committee, will discuss the legislative history and implications of the newly adopted formula for state aid to public education in W. Va. Following the formal discussion the speakers will receive questions from the floor. These speakers were chosen because of their intimate knowledge concerning this legislation.

You, the members of the Huntington League, are sponsoring this program in an effort to better acquaint the citizens of Cabell County with the pertinent facts of the School Formula. COME.....BRING A FRIEND!

NOTE: There shall be a business meeting of the membership preceding this program meeting at 7:30 P.M. Mrs. Thomas W. Harvey, Jr. will report on the State Convention.

ITEMS OF STATE

The State Convention of the League of Women Voters of W. Va. was held in Parkersburg on May 8 and 9th. Mrs. Robert Emerson, Mrs. Thomas W. Harvey, Mrs. A. E. Wulfman and Miss Jeanne Goodman were the attending delegates. Mrs. Harvey was elected State Treasurer.
