Marshall College
Huntington, W. Va.

HISTORY

"Marshall Academy" was established in 1837, shortly after the death of Chief Justice John Marshall, of the Supreme Court of the United States, in whose honor the school was named. It was organized as a private institution. In 1856 the work of the Academy was enlarged and reorganized and the name changed to Marshall College.

None of the records of the school during the time it was an academy are preserved. They were lost in Civil War times. But little information concerning the early days of the institution is now at hand. From the year 1867 to the present time we have a fairly satisfactory record.

At the close of the Civil War a number of the leading citizens in the southwestern part of the new state of West Virginia succeeded in having the legislature take it over as a "State Normal School." Though "Normal" in name, it was wholly academic in organization and in fact, and such it remained with varying fortunes, save a little teaching of pedagogy, school management, etc., until 1897, when a practice school of one grade was organized. This, however, the State refused to support and, accordingly, it was abandoned after two years of unappreciated effort, and the school went on again as an academic institution.

In January, 1902, the Department of Education was organized and a practice school for teachers was opened. In February, 1920, by action of the State Board of Education, it became a State Teachers College, conferring its first degrees in June, 1921. In December, 1922, the scope of the work was further expanded by authorization for granting the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Under authority of the State Board of Education a further expansion of the institution was effected in June, 1924. At that time the College of Arts and Sciences was formally organized. With the College of Arts and Sciences are affiliated the two-year course in engineering, the pre-medical and the pre-law courses.

THE PURPOSE OF MARSHALL COLLEGE

The institution has had a lengthy career of honorable service. As an academy it took high rank. As a teacher training school its service was extended over a still larger portion of the state. Whether in its academic or professional work, it has always maintained a high standard of social ideals, and those ideals have become crystallized in the best type of a state-wide citizenship.

The fundamental purpose of the institution is to render the best possible service to the people of the state whose creation it is. Rapidly increasing demands upon it have led to substantial expansions in the college. No influence of increasing numbers of students, added courses of study, or greater projects will be allowed to obscure the basic idea of the development of strong, clean, efficient men and women, the type of citizens who stand as a sheet anchor of orderly and beneficent government.

COLLEGE MORALE

In college life morale is important. Listlessness and loafing are educational sins. Intense interest and hard work are essential to success. A dominant purpose tends to develop a strong personality which is itself one of the desiderata of a general education. Marshall College will do its utmost to help students find themselves, to assist them in the formation of all helpful habits and to encourage them in their work. It does not invite the attendance of students who may come without a serious purpose.

Social activities and diversions of all kinds should be limited during school sessions. The College makes proper provision for agreeable and wholesome social life, but it cannot tolerate the continued presence of any to whom a high life purpose and the advantages of a clean and wholesome social life do not appeal. The great majority of the students enrolling here are young men and women of clean living and high thinking, and the college is under obligation to protect them from the damaging influences of moral or intellectual laggards.

LOCATION

The institution is located in Huntington, a city of eighty thousand population. It is easily accessible by the four trunk line railways of the state, the Ohio Valley Electric lines, the Midland Trail and other motor roads.

Huntington is an ideal location for a college. It is a city of beautiful and hospitable homes. It is an art and civic center of note, and nowhere can a better community spirit be found. It has a large number of fine churches and fine theatres. Its numerous and varied industries also furnish abundant laboratory facilities for all social and commercial studies.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

The college is located in the heart of the city, convenient to railroad stations, the shopping district and theatre center. It has a campus of twenty-five acres. It has five main buildings, namely, the Administration Building and Woman's Hall, Northcott Science Hall, the Physical Education Building, Music Hall and Champ Clarke Cottage. Three neat and pleasant buildings of a temporary character were erected in 1924 for the use of the training school. The Home Economics Club and four sororities also occupy houses on the campus. Other buildings are in prospect and pending their construction, private houses are rented in order to accommodate the increasing number of students who wish to avail themselves of the facilities offered by the institution.

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

(For specific requirements see under Teachers College and under College of Arts and Sciences.)

Admission to Marshall College may be obtained in three ways: by certificate of graduation from an accredited* secondary (high) school, by a properly certified transfer from a standard university, college or normal school, and by examination.

An applicant for admission by certificate should file certificate signed by an authorized official of the school from which he comes, at least ten days before the opening of the semester. Blanks for this purpose should be obtained from the registrar of the college.

A student entering from another college must present a certificate of credits and a letter of honorable dismissal from that college before his registration can be completed. All certificates and transcripts when filed for credit become the property of the college.

Regular students, those taking not less than 12 semester hours of work, cannot complete their registration, nor are they eligible to participate in any school activities, until their secondary credits have been received and certified by the registrar.

Only those students who present certificates from accredited schools will be admitted without examination. Entrance examinations will be offered at the beginning of each semester. No student will be permitted to take an entrance examination in any subject for which he has college credit. Examinations for advanced standing must be taken within one month after the opening of the semester. All candidates for examinations, entrance or advanced standing, must notify the registrar at least four days before the examinations are to be given.

No college credit will be allowed for work done in normal training high school or summer schools. No student shall be classified above freshman rank until the entrance requirements have been fully satisfied and twenty-five additional semester hours have been earned.

Mature persons may be admitted as unclassified students without fulfilling the entrance requirements as specified herein, provided they give evidence of serious purpose and are qualified to pursue the course for which they register.

*Accredited schools are standard four-year high schools as classified by the Department of Education of West Virginia, or accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

ASSIGNMENTS AND CREDITS

1. A student who enters at the beginning of a semester may be assigned as much as sixteen semester hours, but not more, except by special permission of his Dean.

2. If a student enters late, the maximum assignment of sixteen semester hours must be cut one semester hour (two semester hours for a summer term) for each week that he is late; and to receive credit for eighteen weeks work in any subject assigned, he must pass, satisfactorily, an examination on all the work covered by the class up to the time of his entering. In laboratory subjects all "make up" work must be done hour for hour in the laboratory.

3. A student who leaves school without giving notice of good cause therefor is allowed no credit for work done that semester or term. If it is necessary for a student to leave school before the end of the semester or term, he should see each of his teachers about his work, make a statement of the reason for his going, and satisfy the conditions for getting credit for what has been done.

4. A regular student at Marshall College who fails to make at least nine hours credit in any semester is not eligible for enrollment the succeeding semester.

5. Eight hours is the maximum credit that will be allowed for work done during any school year by a teacher in service, regardless of whether the work is done by correspondence, in extension class, or in residence.

GRADING SYSTEM

The series of grades employed for rating students' work is the following:

A—Honor grade; given for ability and performance of exceptionally high order; among a representative group of college students work of quality A will generally be found in from 3 to 10 cases out of a hundred.

B—Excellent; given for ability and performance distinctly better than average in quality; among a typical group of college students work of quality B will be generally found in from 15 to 20 cases out of a hundred.

C—Good; given for ability and performance of medium or average quality; among a typical group of college students work of quality C will generally be found in from 40 to 50 cases out of a hundred.

D—Lowest passing grade; given for ability and performance of quality fair to poor; among a typical group of college students work of quality D will generally be found in 15 to 20 cases out of a hundred.

F—Failure; among a typical group of college students work of quality F will generally be found in 3 to 10 cases out of a hundred.

I—Incomplete; signifies that student was unable, on account of illness, to perform some of the last exercises of the class work, and that student may be able to earn grade higher than D by completing the work of the course; I automatically changes to F if work is not completed within one semester.

W—Withdrawn from course; can be used only in case student has been officially dropped from course on notice from Dean to registrar or instructor; no such drop notice issued for students in school later than four weeks after mid-semester.

For statistical purposes the numerical equivalents of the several grades are as follows: A, 3 points for each hour of credit; B, 2 points for each hour of credit; C, 1 point for each hour credit; D, F, I, no points. Candidates for graduation must have at least as many points as hours to their credit.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Students who have completed not less than ninety hours of college work are classified as Seniors.

Students who have completed not less than fifty-eight hours and not more than eighty-nine hours of college work are classified as Juniors.

Students who have completed not less than twenty-six hours and not more than fifty-seven hours of college work are classified as Sophomores.

Students who have completed the high school or secondary course and not more than twenty-five hours of college work are classified as Freshmen.

DIVISIONS OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

THE SEMESTER

The work for regular students who are in school for the full year is organized on the semester or half-year plan. The first semester opens in the early part of September and continues eighteen weeks; the second semester opens immediately after the close of the first semester and continues eighteen weeks.

THE SUMMER SESSION

The summer term opens on the Monday following the close of the second semester of the regular year.

Classes are not organized for fewer than ten students.

The faculty is composed of the regular teaching staff and a number of exceptional men and women secured from other colleges and universities.

Several grades in the training school and one or two rural schools are operated during the summer term in order to give Normal students and teachers the advantage of observation work and practice teaching.

STUDENT EXPENSES

BOARD

Young ladies who are not living at home or with relatives are required to room and board in one of the college homes. The young men secure rooms in places approved by the faculty committee. A dining room and cafeteria are available for the young men. Board and room will average about $7.00 a week.

BOOKS

The cost of books varies from $10.00 to -15.00 a session.

Total for semester, for young women.....	$135.00
Total for semester, for young men.....	$151.00

COST

It is the aim of the College to hold all living expenses down to the lowest reasonable minimum. Wholesome food is provided, but fancy food cannot be furnished at the prices charged. The institution buys at wholesale and manages its service carefully, but it returns to the student every cent invested in board, not even making a charge for the cost of fuel or cooking utensils. The charge for rooms is only enough to pay for heat, light and repairs. This policy is pursued in conformity with the State's avowed purpose of providing educational facilities for all of its people as nearly free as possible.

*Checks for fees should be made payable to "Marshall College."

†An additional fee of $10 a semester is charged students from other States except during the summer term, when fees for students from all States are the same.

RULES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

GOVERNING STUDENTS

1. Students are subject to the rules and regulations made by the school for their guidance and government: for any failure to comply with them, a student may be punished, suspended or expelled as provided by the board.

2. Students in attendance at any normal school may, upon request, be transferred by the president of the school at which they are enrolled to any other state school; but no student from a public or state school shall be admitted to a normal school unless he presents a recommendation for admission to said school, and also a statement of the work he has done and his standing—all of which shall be certified by the principal of the school from which he comes.

3. No student shall be permitted to carry more than sixteen semester hours of work, at any time, except by special permission of his Dean. Two laboratory hours shall count as one semester hour.

4. Each regular student shall carry at least twelve semester hours.

5. When a student has received his assignment, he cannot change it except by permission of his Dean.

6. Minimum resident requirements for graduation: For standard normal diploma, at least one year of work, two-thirds of which must be done in actual residence. For the A. B. degree, at least one year's work in residence, one semester of which must be in the senior year. A "year in residence" must represent not less than thirty-six weeks' work in residence, with not less than 24 hours' credit.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING BOARDING

No student is permitted to board or room anywhere except in places approved by the boarding committee, and should any one be found in a place not approved by the committee, he will be notified at once to move, on penalty of being dropped from school.

When a student changes his place of rooming he should notify the secretary and the registrar at once, that they may correct the records.

Young men and young women are not permitted to room in the same house.

All rooming and boarding places for young women must have the approval of the boarding committee.

The advice and approval of the Dean of Women must be had, also, in all matters of importance connected with the boarding and rooming of young women.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING ROOMS, ETC.

Students are not permitted to room at any place in which the proprietors are not willing to conform to rules and regulations prescribed by the College. In case the rules are not observed, students will be required to change their rooming places.

Students who do not reside at home are expected to get permission when leaving the city. This rule is made to protect the student and to make it possible to find him in case any urgent call should come for him. While this rule is not made absolute, it will be considered a breach of good faith and confidence for students not to observe it. The purpose of the rule is reasonable and should appeal to every student and parent. The girls get permission from the Dean of Women.

Students desiring to change their boarding places or their rooms, are required to give notice of such desire and change before it is made. This is a very important requirement and its observance must be strictly adhered to.

STUDENT HOMES

College Hall stands on the elevated central portion of the spacious campus. It is joined to the main building on the west, a wide central hallway on the first floor extending the full length of the two sections. The residence hall contains seven suites and thirty-four rooms, accommodating one hundred thirty-five students. A sewing room and kitchenette are provided for the use of the occupants. A good infirmary is maintained where students who are taken sick are properly cared for.

Champ Clarke Cottage on Third Avenue accommodates twenty-four students.

Everett Hall on Eighteenth Street, a block and a half from the campus, offers accommodations for twenty-four young women.

Besides these halls the Sigma Sigma Sigma, the Theta Sigma Upsilon, Theta Rho, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Pi Kappa Sigma, and the Kappa Theta sororities maintain chapter house—under supervision of the College authorities—which accommodate about fifteen students each.

Young ladies who wish to engage rooms in any of the college halls should do so several weeks in advance of the date when they expect to enter. No rooms are considered engaged until the deposit of two dollars (see Rooms and Room Rent on page 20) has been made.

All correspondence concerning reservations for rooms, whether in the dormitory or in residences, should be addressed to the Dean of Women, Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va.

GOVERNMENT

Beyond the expectation that the life of our students shall conform to the requirements of promptness and fidelity to duty, and show that considerate regard for others which characterizes refined womanhood, we have but few fixed rules.

Our residence halls have a Student House Government Association which, with the direction of the Dean of Women and the House Directors, has the oversight of the students who reside in the halls. The Student Council of this Association enforces such regulations as are considered necessary to good order, good habits and the best educational results for the group.

By a persistent disregard of regulations the student will forfeit her right to the privileges of the hall.

TO PARENTS

We call special attention to the following ruling of the State Board of Education:

"It is hereby ordered that, so long as there is room for them in College Hall, all young women under 21 years of age, who are students at Marshall College, except those who room and board at home, are required to room and take their meals in College Hall; if under 21 years of age, and there is no space to give them room in College Hall, then they shall at least take their meals at College Hall tables so long as there is table room for them, all exceptions to this ruling to be made with the approval of the President and the Dean of Women."

Every parent who appreciates the importance of protecting young girls away from home, in a city, will appreciate this ruling of the state board.

When parents or guardians send their daughters, or wards, here, they must send them subject to our government, for while under our care we must decide what is best, and not they.

When students desire special permission to attend a social function or to remain away from the hall over night, they shall present to the Dean of Women a written request, signed by parent or guardian. Upon receipt of this request, the Dean of Women may grant permission for this special privilege.

Girls who do not have rooms in College Hall are under the same general regulations as the girls in College Hall. They must conform to general rules in force in College Hall; and when they desire to attend social functions of any kind, they must secure permission from the Dean of Women just as if they lived in College Hall. All class parties, whether in the college parlors or elsewhere, must be under the supervision of the class advisor and have the approval of the Dean of Women.

CONVENIENCES

The building is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

Hot and cold water are furnished throughout the building.

There are street car connections with all parts of the city and adjoining towns.

The Bell telephone system is connected with the Hall, and through this, the Western Union and Postal telegraph systems.

ROOMS AND ROOM RENT

The rooms are furnished with single beds, mattresses, closets, dressers, chairs, table, light and heat. The students themselves are required to furnish their own bedding (except the mattress) and towels, and are required to keep their rooms clean and in order. Each student is required, also, to provide herself with her own hot water bottle, soap dish, spoon, two glass tumblers, a small pitcher for drinking water and a napkin ring.

All breakage of whatever kind, whether to furniture or equipment, is paid for by the occupants of the room in which the breakage occurs.

Room rent is $20.00 a semester. Two dollars of this amount is payable when the room is engaged and the balance at the time of registration. The deposit of $2.00 is forfeited if the room is not claimed.

TABLE BOARD

Charges for table board are as follows:

First semester, if paid for the entire semester in advance.....$90 00

Second semester, if paid for the entire semester in advance..... 90.00

Summer term.....$5.00 a week

Should a student prefer to pay his board in installments, he may pay in the following manner: $22.50 upon entrance and $22.50 on the first of each month thereafter until the full amount of $90.00 has been paid.

No reduction is made in table board for short absences (a few days) at the opening or close of a "semester" or "term" or for the Thanksgiving or the Easter recess.

CORRESPONDENCE WORK

As far as her facilities permit, the College offers each year certain courses by correspondence. These are open to high school graduates who for some reason are unable to attend Marshall, or who are unable to enroll in extension classes.

Not more than eight hours of credit may be received during a year, nor may more than two subjects be carried at one time.

The fee is $5.00 per credit hour, payable to Marshall College. The subjects offered vary from year to year. Information will be sent upon request.

EXTENSION CLASSES

Marshall College desires to be of service to those communities in which groups wish to organize themselves into extension classes. The number of such non-resident classes that can be conducted by College instructors is limited by the capacity of the teaching staff to carry on the work.

The minimum size of a class is placed at fifteen registrants, but the number required will depend in part upon the distance the instructor has to travel. The fee is ten dollars per two hour course. For such a course the class is required to meet for sixteen two-hour periods, usually at regular intervals of one week. Students who desire credit for the course are expected to enroll not later than the second class meeting. Outside preparation is required for extension classes just as for residence classes.

REMUNERATIVE OCCUPATIONS

Huntington offers many opportunities for students who wish to support themselves in part during their residence in school. There are nearly always openings for those having experience in stores or offices, in caring for children, or assisting in housework. Professor Lucy E. Prichard is chairman of the Committee on Student Employment. Applications for assistance should be addressed to the committee.

APPOINTMENT COMMITTEE

To assist superintendents throughout the state in securing teachers adapted to their needs, the work of recommendation is placed in the hands of the Appointment Committee. This committee consists of members of the faculty who are in a position to know intimately the work of each student both in Training School teaching and in classroom work. Complete records regarding previous experience of students, the grades for which they are especially prepared, photographs, and detailed statement from the instructors concerning ability and personality are kept on file in the office of the Committee. These records are sent out, upon application, to the superintendents, or can be referred to by them when they visit the College. While a personal interview with the prospective teachers at the school is to be preferred, the committee makes every effort to make discriminating selection of students for positions when so requested.

A like service will be rendered for students of the Arts and Science College.

THE LIBRARY

The library contains a collection of about 18,000 books to which substantial additions are being made from time to time. Those in which readings are assigned are kept "on reserve," and their use is limited to short periods. All other books are free of access to the students. This free use of its books is one of the most important services of the modern library.

In March, 1925, this library was made a government depository, which means that it receives as soon as published most of the United States documents, containing valuable reference material.

The juvenile books are shelved in a separate room near the main library. They are used by the children of the Training School and students preparing to teach in the grades.

More than two hundred periodicals are received regularly, and are placed where everyone can read them. They comprise most of the current magazines of a general nature, such as the "Atlantic," and the "World's Work," and the leading technical magazines relating to various courses offered.

FRESHMAN WEEK

Five hundred or more freshmen are now enrolled by the College each year. To afford this large group of first matriculates a better opportunity for personal counsel with teachers and deans before their decisions with reference to their work are made, Wednesday and Thursday, September 7th and 8th, are set aside as a partial "Freshman Week." Upper classmen will complete their enrollment on Friday and class work will commence Monday morning. Students are urged to be prompt and thorough in making the necessary preliminary arrangements for their work.

The women's dormitories will be open for students Tuesday evening, September 6th.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOANS

Marshall College deems it a privilege to be permitted to assist worthy young people in obtaining a coveted education. Through its friends the College has acquired loan funds which are available to the extent of two or three thousand dollars each year. In fact the College stands ready to say to any earnest healthy boy or girl who has completed his high school course and has a small amount of money to start on that it can show him a way to obtain a full college education. Inquiries from this class of students are welcomed.

Applications for scholarships should be addressed to the Scholarship Committee. They are awarded primarily to students who have proved their ability in the class-room. The following scholarships are available for 1927-28:

Rotary Club Scholarship, value $100.

Northcott Scholarship, value $75.

Northcott Scholarship, value $75.

Woman's Club Loan Scholarship, value $150. To be awarded to a student who could not otherwise attend school.

The Marshall Class of 1889 Loan Scholarship, $100. To be awarded to a young woman who needs it.

Daughters of the American Revolution Loan Scholarship, value $100. To be awarded to some girl who needs it.

American Association of University Women, Huntington Branch, Loan Scholarship, amount varies. To be awarded to a young woman who could not otherwise attend college.

The Current History Club Loan Scholarship. Amount varies. To be awarded to a young woman who could not otherwise attend college.

Junior Department of the Huntington Woman's Club, Loan Scholarship, value $100. For a young woman who needs it.

LUCILE DRUEN MEMORIAL

In honor of their classmate, Lucile Druen, the members of the Home Economics Club of Marshall College of the year 1926 raised a fund of seven hundred twenty-five dollars. This money is to be loaned to worthy students at three per cent interest; and the income is to be used as a gift scholarship to stimulate the interest of high school students of West Virginia in Home Economics.

THE D. B. SMITH MEMORIAL

In honor of her deceased husband, a loyal and devoted friend of Marshall College, Mrs. D. B. Smith, on July 23, 1925, turned over to the College the sum of one thousand dollars, to be known as the "D. B. Smith Memorial." This money is to be invested in perpetuity and the income used by the College in assisting worthy students.

ATHLETICS

Marshall College believes in clean athletics and will not tolerate either dishonesty or professionalism in her sports program. High ideals of sportsmanship shall always be as much of a goal as high score records.

The following rules quoted from the by-laws of the West Virginia Athletic Conference constitute the minima of requirements for students representing Marshall College in inter-school athletic contests:

"Section 1. To participate in intercollegiate contests a student must be regularly enrolled in not less than fourteen semester hours work or its equivalent and each week must make passing grades in at least one-half the work for which enrolled and make a general average of sixty per cent in all his work. To be eligible any semester he must make passing grades in at least one-half the work and a general average of sixty per cent in all the work for which he was enrolled his last preceding semester.

"Sec. 2. Withdrawal from the institution in the course of any semester or term for any cause shall debar from participation in intercollegiate athletics until the work of that semester or term or its equivalent shall have been successfully completed by the student so withdrawing.

"Sec. 3. To be eligible to represent an institution a student must enroll in that school within two weeks after the beginning of the semester or term in which he plays.

"Sec. 4. No student shall represent an institution who has represented another institution offering collegiate work until he has completed a year's residence work in the new institution, except in case of graduation in any course from a junior college or normal school.

"Sec. 5. No student shall play on a college team unless he has completed fifteen units of high school work.

"Sec. 6. No student shall play on a college team for more than four years as a college student.

"Sec. 7. No student holding a degree from another collegiate institution shall be eligible to participate in intercollegiate contests.

"Sec. 8. A student who engages in a contest under an assumed name shall be permanently ineligible.

"Sec. 9. No player who participates with a recognized professional athletic organization during the college year shall be eligible."

ASSEMBLY

A general assembly of faculty and students convenes in the college auditorium each Wednesday morning at 10:00. Ten minutes of the hour are devoted to a devotional exercise and the remainder of the period is given over to addresses, musicals, student programs and the like. This is the one occasion that brings the whole college together. All faculty members and all students are expected to attend this meeting.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The traditions of Marshall College uphold a high standard of personal conduct to which repeating generations of students readily conform. The idea is dominant and the authorities are rarely called upon to deal with the problems that sometimes disturb school life. More recently a system of student government has been developed which not only affords training in the principles of citizenship but renders valuable assistance in the maintenance of right character ideals and helpful work habits. It is an atmosphere in which desirable traits develop naturally and the undesirable find it difficult to survive.

PURPOSE

Teachers College is Marshall College organized for the purpose of preparing teachers. Its curricula are to be regarded as vocational in purpose. Nevertheless, these curricula, like those of the College of Arts and Sciences, consist for the most part of courses in academic subject matter; they differ from those of the College of Arts and Sciences primarily in the respect that they include professional courses for teachers, and that the selection of subject matter courses is made with a view to meeting the needs of teachers.

WHAT STUDENTS REGISTER IN TEACHERS COLLEGE

Those students who desire to qualify for a teacher's certificate, issued by the State Department of Education, on the basis of college credits, register as members of Teachers College. The only exception to this statement is that students of the College of Arts and Sciences may qualify for the provisional high school certificate (good for one year in junior and senior high schools) by electing eight hours in Education.

Any student who has previously earned, or who desires to earn in one semester, credit in Education in excess of eight hours, registers in Teachers College. Any student who has previously earned, or who wishes to earn in one semester, credit in Home Economics in excess of six hours, registers in Teachers College.

For a statement as to the grades of teachers' certificates that may be obtained on the basis of credit earned in Teachers College, see page 38.

Students registered in Teachers College pursue one of the curricula outlined in this section of the catalogue, under the general guidance of the Dean.

†On leave of absence second semester, 1926-1927.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Sixteen units† of credit from a first-class high school are required for entrance. Students will be admitted on presentation of fifteen units, the remaining unit to be made up by doing at least six hours of extra college work before graduation. The sixteen units must include four units of English and one unit of American history; students entering the standard normal course must also present one-half unit of credit in arithmetic and one-half unit in civics. The remaining units should be grouped as follows:

- Three units in one field
- Two units in another field
- Two units in a third field
- Electives.

Students offering only three units of English for entrance may remove this deficiency by taking six hours of college English and literature in addition to the required ten hours in English and literature.

DEGREE AND DIPLOMAS

Teachers College diplomas are of two grades, those awarded at the end of a four-year course of study, and those awarded at the end of a two-year curriculum. The diploma for the four-year course gives to its possessor the A. B. (bachelor of arts) degree. The two-year course leads to the Standard Normal diploma and certificate. These curricula are outlined on pages which follow.

The four-year curriculum is sufficiently flexible to permit the student to select some particular kind of educational activity as a future career, and to prepare especially for it. At the same time, its demands are sufficiently broad to guarantee good general preparation. Early selection of a definite professional plan, and adherence to that plan, are urged upon prospective teachers.

Instead of taking a two-year diploma course, a student in Teachers College may so arrange his work that, at the end of two years, he may be qualified for a special subject certificate.

†FOUR-YEAR CURRICULUM LEADING TO A. B. DEGREE

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

(1) Completion of 128 semester hours of credit above entrance requirements, to include:

A major group of courses as listed below:

Two minor groups of courses as listed below; Education must be one of the minor groups if not made the major subject;

†A secondary unit is the equivalent of nine months' (two semesters') work in any subject of recognized standard educational value, recitations not less than five times a week and not less than fifty minutes in length.

10 hours in English and literature;
 8 hours in mathematics and science;
 2 hours in physical education (101 and 102);
 9 hours in social sciences (economics, history, political science, sociology, certain courses in commerce and geography).

(2) The major and minor groups should be selected as early as possible and reported to the dean. (a) The student who is preparing to teach in high school should select as major subject, and as one of the minors, those subjects which he desires to teach after graduation; in general this minor subject should be so related to the major subject that the two are often taught by the one teacher in high schools; the second minor must be Secondary Education. (b) The student who expects to teach permanently in the elementary schools should make Elementary Education the major subject, and may well make Psychology a minor; in general, students who complete the standard normal course are advised to make Elementary Education the major subject. (c) The student who expects to continue in executive or administrative work in schools should make Educational Administration the major subject; in general, this applies to men and women who desire administrative positions if they have had experience in teaching.

(3) The requirement in English and literature is as follows:

English 101, Freshman English Composition.....	3 hours
English 102, Freshman English Composition, cont.....	3 hours
Literature 101, English Literature, Age of Elizabeth.....	2 hours
Literature 102, English Literature, Age of Wordsworth.....	2 hours

(4) In addition to satisfying the group and subject requirements indicated above, the student will elect courses in sufficient number to bring his credits to the total of 128 hours.

(5) Of the 128 hours presented for graduation at least 48 hours must be in courses in the 300 and 400 series: not more than 40 hours may be presented from the 100 series.

(6) Before graduation the student must have earned as many grade points as hours of credit.

MAJOR AND MINOR COURSE GROUPS

Each department of instruction has indicated to the dean of Teachers College the group of courses which constitutes the best training in subject matter for prospective teachers; the department may indicate not fewer than 20 hours and not more than 40 hours for major preparation. Each department also indicates the group of courses (between the limits of 15 and 20 hours) which would constitute the least possible safe preparation for teaching the subject; this is called a minor.

The student may not depart from the indicated groups without the approval of the dean. Mere accumulation of a certain number of hours of credit will not be accounted proper preparation for teaching; the list of courses must cover the subject matter satisfactorily.

Except as otherwise indicated the courses marked with (*) constitute the minor group of courses in any department.

For those students who have had corresponding courses in high school History 103, 104, 209 and 210 may be omitted.

1. History 103 and 104, General European History (for those who have not had European History in high school).....6 hours
2. History 209, Greek Civilization.....3 hours
- History 210, Roman Institutions.....3 hours
3. Two courses in American History.....6 hours
4. History 205, Social and Industrial History of England...3 hours
- History 206, Social and Industrial History of United States3 hours
5. History 308, Social and Economic History of South.....2 hours
- History 309, Social and Economic History of West.....2 hours
- or 5. History 403 and 404, Modern European History.....6 hours
6. History 310, The Teaching of History in Junior and Senior High Schools.....3 hours

For the minor in History (not less than 15 hours) the student should include:

Two courses in European History.....	6 hours
(History 103 and 104 if the student has not had European History in high school.)
Two courses in American History.....	6 hours

MAJOR AND MINOR IN HOME ECONOMICS

*Home Economics 127, Elementary Clothing.....	3 hours
*Home Economics 128, Clothing.....	3 hours
*Home Economics 202 and 203, Food Selection.....	8 hours
Home Economics 239, Millinery.....	2 hours
*Home Economics 301, Dietetics.....	4 hours
*Home Economics 351, Home Architecture.....	3 hours
*Home Economics 354, Home Decoration.....	2 hours
Home Economics 358, Economics of the Household.....	2 hours
Home Economics 425, Practice House.....	4 hours
Home Economics 490, Teaching Home Economics.....	3 hours

MAJOR AND MINOR IN LATIN

*Latin 110-111, or equivalent in high school Latin.....	8 hours
*Latin 203-204, or equivalent in high school Latin.....	8 hours
*Latin 305-306, or equivalent in high school Latin.....	8 hours
*Latin 307, Cicero: Letters and Essays.....	3 hours or Latin 309, Livy: History.....	3 hours
Latin 308, Horace: Odes and Epodes.....	3 hours or Latin 310, Horace: Satires and Epistles.....	3 hours
*Latin 236, Roman Private Life.....	2 hours or History 210, Roman Civilization.....	3 hours
*Latin 328, Advanced Prose Composition.....	1 hour
*Latin 430, The Teaching of Latin.....	3 hours

All the above courses are advised for one who expects to teach Latin in a high school which offers four years of Latin. The minor in Latin permits an option between Latin 307 and Latin 308.

MAJOR AND MINOR IN MATHEMATICS

*Mathematics 121, Solid Geometry (for those who have not had it in high school).....	4 hours
*Mathematics 122, Trigonometry.....	4 hours
*Mathematics 223, College Algebra.....	4 hours
*Mathematics 224, Analytic Geometry.....	4 hours
Mathematics 325 and 326, Differential and Integral Calculus.....	8 hours

MAJOR AND MINOR IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

PRACTICAL COURSES

*Physical Education 101 and 102, General Course.....	2 hours
*Physical Education 201 and 202, Advanced Practice.....	4 hours
Physical Education 301 and 302, Folk Dancing (Women).....	2 hours
*Physical Education 303 and 304, Natural Dancing (Women).....	2 hours
*Physical Education 305 and 306, Apparatus Work (Men).....	2 hours
Physical Education 401 and 402, Advanced Dancing (Women).....	2 hours

ALLIED COURSES

*Physical Education 221, Health Education.....	2 hours
*Physical Education 223 and 224, Theory and Methods of Physical Education.....	4 hours
*Physical Education 321 and 322, Athletics for Women.....	2 hours
*Physical Education 323 and 324, Athletics for Men.....	2 hours
*Physical Education 325, Playground Administration.....	2 hours
Physical Education 326, History and Principles of Physical Education	2 hours
Physical Education 421, Corrective Gymnastics.....	2 hours
Physical Education 422, Kinesiology.....	2 hours
Physical Education 423, Normal Diagnosis.....	2 hours
Physical Education 424, Anthropometry.....	2 hours

MAJOR IN PHYSICS

*Physics 201 and 203, General Physics Lectures.....	6 hours
*Physics 202 and 204, General Physics Laboratory.....	4 hours
Physics 209, Elements of Mechanics Lectures.....	3 hours
Physics 210, Mechanics Laboratory.....	2 hours
Physics 211, Heat Lectures.....	3 hours
Physics 212, Heat Measurements.....	2 hours
*Physics 300 and 302, Lectures on Electricity and Magnetism.....	4 hours
*Physics 301 and 303, Electrical Measurements.....	4 hours
Physics 304, Light Lectures.....	3 hours
Physics 305, Light Measurements.....	1 hour

MAJOR AND MINOR IN PSYCHOLOGY

*Psychology 101, Elementary Psychology.....	4 hours
or *Psychology 305, General Psychology.....	3 hours
*Psychology 202, Mental Measurements.....	2 hours
Psychology 205, Comparative Psychology.....	2 hours
Psychology 301, Psychological Clinic.....	2 hours
Psychology 302, Social Psychology.....	2 hours
*Psychology 304, Abnormal Psychology.....	2 hours
*Psychology 306, Theory of Intelligence.....	3 hours
*Psychology 307, Adolescent Psychology.....	3 hours
Psychology 308, Experimental Psychology.....	2 hours
*Psychology 312, Genetic Psychology.....	3 hours

MAJOR AND MINOR IN PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC

*Music 110, Ear Training.....	2 hours
*Music 120, Harmony.....	2 hours
*Music 121, Harmony.....	2 hours
*Music 200, Ear Training.....	2 hours
*Music 201, Ear Training.....	2 hours

Music 205, Counterpoint.....	2 hours
*Music 210, Advanced Harmony.....	2 hours
Music 211, Advanced Harmony.....	2 hours
Music 220, History of Music.....	2 hours
Music 221, History of Music.....	2 hours
*Music 230, Orchestration.....	2 hours
*Music 240, Methods and Material for High School.....	2 hours
*Music 260, Musical Art.....	2 hours
Music 300, Counterpoint.....	2 hours
Music 301, Analysis and Form.....	1 hour
Music 310, Musical Art.....	2 hours
Music 311, Philosophy and Aesthetics of Music.....	1 hour
*Music 320, Orchestration.....	2 hours
Music 330, Music Material.....	2 hours

MAJOR AND MINOR IN SPANISH

Students of Teachers College who are preparing to teach Spanish in high school will find the following courses absolutely essential and basic for either a major or a minor, the rest of the hours necessary to be arranged by conference with the instructor:

I. For students presenting Spanish for entrance:

Spanish 201, Contemporary Literature.....	3 hours
Spanish 202, Modern Literature.....	3 hours

II. For students beginning Spanish in College:

Spanish 101, Beginners Course.....	4 hours
Spanish 102, Intermediate Course.....	4 hours
Spanish 201, Contemporary Literature.....	3 hours
Spanish 202, Modern Literature.....	3 hours

*STANDARD TWO-YEAR CURRICULUM FOR ELEMENTARY TEACHERS

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Completion of 64 semester hours, 32 of which must have been done in Marshall College, 24 hours in actual residence work. The 64 hours must include the following group and course requirements:

Group requirements:

Courses in Education.....	20 hours
At least 6 hours, preferably including practice teaching, must be done in Marshall College.

Courses in academic subjects.....	36 hours
Biology	4 hours
English and literature.....	10 hours
Industrial arts	3 hours
Physical education	2 hours
Public speaking	3 hours
Social sciences.....	4 hours
Other academic courses.....	10 hours
Courses in special subject matter.....	8 hours
Public school methods in art.....	2 hours
Public school methods in music.....	2 hours
Other courses organized especially for elementary teachers, as Biology 101 and 102, Geography 201, Home Eco- nomics 205 and 206, Literature 203..	4 hours

Course requirements:

Education 110, 111, 112, 113, Elementary School Methods.....	8 hours or Education 120, 121, 122, 123, Elementary School Methods.....	8 hours
Education 130, American Schools.....	2 hours
or Education 133, School Hygiene.....	2 hours
Education 200, Educational Psychology.....	4 hours
Education 230, Educational Tests and Measurements.....	2 hours
Education 250 or 251, Practice Teaching.....	4 hours
English 101, Freshman English Composition.....	3 hours
English 102, Freshman English Composition.....	3 hours
Literature 101, English Literature, Age of Elizabeth.....	2 hours
Literature 102, English Literature, Age of Wordsworth.....	2 hours
Art 107 or 108, Public School Methods in Art.....	2 hours
Music 140 or 141, Public School Methods in Music.....	2 hours
Physical Education 101 and 102.....	2 hours

SUGGESTED ARRANGEMENT OF CURRICULUM

The following arrangement of these courses is intended to suggest to students the year and the semester in which each course should be taken:

First Year—First Semester

Education 110 and 111 (grades 1-4) or 112 and 113 (grades 1-4)	4 hours
or Education 120 and 121 (grades 5-8).....	4 hours
Education 130 or Education 133 (may be taken second semester)	2 hours

*The Standard Normal Course is subject to change and will conform to the revised standard normal course which may be approved and announced by the State Board of Education before school opens in the fall of 1927.

English 101	3 hours
or Literature 101	2 hours
Art 107 (grades 1-4) or 108 (grades 5-8).....	2 hours or Music 140 (grades 1-4) or 141 (grades 5-8).....	2 hours
Physical Education 101.....	1 hour
Electives to make a total of 16 hours for the semester.

Second Semester

Education 112 and 113 (grades 1-4) or 110 and 111 (grades 1-4)	4 hours
or Education 122 and 123 (grades 5-8).....	4 hours
Education 133 or Education 130 (if not taken first semester).....	2 hours
English 102.....	3 hours
or Literature 102.....	2 hours
Music 140 (grades 1-4) or 141 (grades 5-8).....	2 hours or Art 107 (grades 1-4) or 108 (grades 5-8).....	2 hours
Physical Education 102.....	1 hour
Electives to make a total of 16 hours for the semester.

Second Year—First Semester

Education 200.....	4 hours or Education 250 (grades 1-4) or 251 (grades 5-8).....	4 hours
Education 230 (may be taken second semester).....	2 hours
Literature 101.....	2 hours
or English 101.....	3 hours
Electives to make a total of 16 hours for the semester.

Second Semester

Education 250 (grades 1-4) or 251 (grades 5-8).....	4 hours
or Education 200	4 hours
Education 230 (if not taken first semester).....	2 hours
Literature 102	2 hours
or English 102	3 hours
Electives to make a total of 16 hours for the semester.

CERTIFICATES

For detailed information concerning requirements for temporary, short normal, standard normal, special, and high school certificates, consult the dean of Teachers College, or the Division of Teacher Training, State Department of Education, Charleston.

TRAINING SCHOOLS

Marshall College maintains on the campus the Marshall Junior High School (seventh, eighth and ninth grades) and the Marshall Elementary School (grades one to six). Each grade of the elementary school is in charge of a critic teacher. The junior high school is conducted on the departmental plan.

The training schools serve the purpose of a laboratory for the Department of Education. Observation and practice teaching are done in the training schools under the direction of the supervisors and critic teachers. To supplement these facilities, arrangements have been made for high school observation and practice teaching in the Huntington city schools.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Sixteen units† of high school work are required for entrance. Students will be admitted on presentation of fifteen units of credit, the remaining unit to be made up within one calendar year from date of admission.

The following groups are required:

- (1) Four units of English.
- (2) Three units in a second field.
- (3) Two units in a third field.
- (4) Two units in a fourth field.
- (5) One unit in American history
- (6) One unit in Mathematics.
- (7) Remaining units elective.

Note: This should include two units in a foreign language. A student entering without a foreign language must take eight hours as elective above the minimum requirement of twelve hours.

Students offering only 3 units of English for entrance may remove this deficiency by taking, without college credit, 6 hours of college English in addition to the required 10 hours of English and Literature, or by taking the work in a first-class high school. Students taking high school work cannot carry a full assignment of college work.

†A secondary unit is the equivalent of nine months' (two semesters') work in any subject of recognized standard educational value, recitations not less than five times a week and not less than fifty minutes in length.

ORGANIZATION

Departments Arranged in Groups

The various departments of the College of Arts and Sciences are divided into three groups:

- Group A: Language and Literature.
English, Latin, French, Spanish, German, Greek, Art and Public Speaking.
- Group B: Natural Science and Mathematics.
Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Geography, Mathematics and Home Economics.
- Group C: Social Sciences, Commerce and Psychology.
History, Political Science, Economics, Sociology, Commerce, Psychology and Philosophy.

By requiring a minimum number of hours from each group it is hoped that over-specialization will be avoided, while by requiring a maximum number of hours in a particular group an opportunity will be given for intensive study in closely related subjects.

THE BACCALAUREATE DEGREE

The degree of Bachelor of Arts (A. B.) is conferred by Marshall College upon students who have completed a four-year course (128 hours) in the College of Arts and Sciences. The term "hour" is used conventionally to signify one recitation a week throughout the semester of eighteen weeks, or an equivalent of that. A lecture or recitation is regularly fifty-five minutes in length, and the outside work of the student is estimated at an average of two hours for each class recitation. In laboratory work each exercise is approximately two hours in length, with outside study to make it as nearly as possible equivalent in its demands to the conventional "hour" defined above.

MINIMA GROUP REQUIREMENTS

Group A: Language and Literature.

1. Six hours must be earned in English 101 and 102. (Freshman English Composition.)
2. Four hours must be earned in Literature 101 and 102. (Age of Elizabeth and age of Wordsworth.)
3. Twenty hours must be earned in foreign languages unless the candidate has offered two units for admission, in which case twelve hours are required. The twenty hours may be taken in one language or be divided between two. Less than a year's work in a foreign language may not be offered for graduation.

Group B: Natural Sciences and Mathematics.

1. Six hours must be earned in Biology.
2. Twelve hours must be earned in the non-biological sciences (Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics, Geography, and Home Economics).

Group C: Social Sciences, Commerce and Psychology.

1. Twelve hours must be earned in the social sciences.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Of the 128 hours required for the degree, at least forty-eight must be offered from some one of the groups given above, and at least twenty-four from a second group. In no one of the groups may more than seventy-two hours be credited toward the degree.

At least forty-four of the 128 hours required for the degree must be earned in courses numbered above 200.

Two hours in Physical Education are required of all freshmen.

Not more than six hours of Art may be offered for the degree (credited under Group A). An exception is made in the case of engineering students, who may elect seven hours of Mechanical Drawing.

Not more than six hours of Home Economics may be elected (credited under Group B).

Not more than eight hours of Education may be elected from the Teachers College (credited under Group C).

The above mentioned courses meet the requirements of the Association of American Medical Colleges on which accredited list we now stand. Candidates for admission to the first year of this pre-medical work must present a certificate of graduation from an accredited high school covering work equivalent to 16 units. This work should include two units of Latin, two units of mathematics, and one unit each of physics, chemistry and biology.

A college certificate is awarded upon the completion of sixty-four hours of work included in the course of this curriculum as listed above in order to meet the minimum requirements of sixty hours for admission to the leading colleges of medicine. Double time is devoted to laboratory periods with an equivalent of credit to single periods in lectures, recitations, etc., as required by pre-medical sciences.

The following pre-medical electives recommended by medical colleges are offered for those who can carry extra credits or for those who would wisely spend a third year in preparation to meet the exactions of the best medical colleges: Chemistry 305 and 401, Psychology 101 and 304, and Biology 201, 202, 300, 301, 303, 305, 306, and 307. Four hours of Botany and four of Zoology will be accepted as eight hours in Biology by most medical colleges. but not 8 hrs of Bot. alone

The ample supplies and modern equipment of the laboratories offer necessary facilities, while an affiliation with the State and private hospitals of the city gives the best opportunity for this preparatory work.

This department endeavors to make such reasonable adjustments as may be necessary to meet individual needs; for example, if a student has had no chemistry in the high school, a general course (Chemistry

Subjects Strongly urg'd
(See
Am. Med.
Assoc.
Pamphlet

Candidates for admission to the Department of Engineering must present a certificate of graduation from an accredited high school with 16 units of credit. This work must include Algebra $1\frac{1}{2}$ units, Plane Geometry 1 unit, Solid Geometry $\frac{1}{2}$ unit, and it should include 1 unit of Physics and 2 units of one foreign language. High school students looking toward the engineering profession are also advised to present credit for trigonometry, mechanical drawing, and shop work, if possible. Deficiencies in algebra and solid geometry may be made up in college. Students offering less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ units of algebra must make up the shortage before entering the class in college algebra (Mathematics 127). When credit in solid geometry is not offered, it must be made up before the beginning of the second year. The department endeavors to make such reasonable adjustments as may be necessary to meet individual needs. See Requirements for admission on page 41.

The modern equipment and ample supplies of the laboratories offer necessary facilities. The courses outlined in the curriculum and those recommended as electives are the equivalents of those given in the large engineering schools during the first two years of their courses. A certificate (not a degree) is given on the completion of the two years of engineering work.

ELECTIVES

The electives chosen are determined by the branch of engineering the student expects to pursue. If the student expects to complete a course in chemical engineering, he may choose as electives Chemistry 301 and 302, 401 and 402. All engineering students must consult the instructors in the department concerning the choice of elective courses.

The following electives are available: Mathematics 435; Physics 300 and 301, 302 and 303, 209 and 210, 211 and 212; Chemistry 203, 204, 301 and 302, 401, 402; Mathematics 202; Geology 210; Economics 241 and 242; Commerce 206, 207, 210 and 320.

The elective courses numbered in the three hundreds and four hundreds are for those engineering students who are members of the junior and senior classes.

This department is open to all students who have met the regular college entrance requirements. It is strongly recommended that the 16 units prescribed for entrance include 2 units of Latin and 2 units in social sciences, in addition to the required American History.

The special curriculum prescribed and advised for the pre-law student has two purposes in view:

The first purpose is to meet the entrance requirements of any of the standard law schools, and with additional courses given in the junior and senior years, to meet the four-year requirements of other law schools.

The second purpose is to give the student the most necessary preliminary knowledge of new words and phrases, of old terms with prescribed and limited meaning, and of such new methods of study as will enable him to undertake the technical study of the law with a greater degree of intelligence and understanding.

The department also aims to give the student a foundation for a broad cultural background for his study and a thorough introduction to the current problems of the law as a social institution. To meet this purpose carefully selected courses in history, sociology, psychology, political science, and economics are either prescribed or advised.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Courses intended primarily for freshmen are numbered from 100 to 199; such courses are open to sophomores unless departmental description of any course expressly excludes sophomores; not open to juniors and seniors. Courses intended primarily for sophomores are numbered from 200 to 299; such courses are open to freshmen and juniors unless departmental description of any course expressly excludes freshmen or juniors; not open to seniors. Courses intended primarily for juniors and seniors are numbered from 300 to 399; such courses are open to sophomores unless departmental description of any course expressly excludes sophomores; not open to freshmen. Courses intended primarily for seniors are numbered from 400 to 499; such courses are not open to freshmen, sophomores or juniors. Exceptions to the statement that a course is "not open" to certain students may be made by the dean, after authorization by head of the department concerned when, in the dean's judgment, admission to the course is of vital importance to the student's general plan.

ART

101. Free Hand Drawing. Three hours.

One recitation period per week, four hours laboratory.

Elements of free hand drawing as applied to nature and geometric forms, involving linear and aerial perspective.

102. Free Hand Drawing. Three hours.

One recitation period per week, four hours laboratory. Advanced work.

105 and 106. Design. Three hours, two semesters.

Two recitation periods a week, two hours laboratory.

Theory of design, applied and structural, with applications. Theory of color, color harmony and application of color.

107. Public School Art (Grades 1-4). Two hours.

Drawing, color, design, and methods for teaching the arts.

Prerequisite: One semester of Drawing.

108. Public School Art (Grades 5-8). Two hours.

Methods of teaching all branches of Public School Art.

Prerequisite: One semester of Drawing.

110. Mechanical Drawing. Two hours.

Three two-hour periods weekly.

Care and use of drawing instruments, lettering, mechanical perspective, machine sketching, etc.

111. Mechanical Drawing. Two hours.
Three two-hour periods weekly.
A continuation of Art 110. Orthographic projections, practical problems using working drawings, machine design, etc.
Prerequisite: Art 110.
203. Art Correlation. Two hours.
One recitation period a week, two hours laboratory. A teachers' course, correlating all school subjects.
Prerequisite: One semester of Drawing.
208. Descriptive Geometry. Three hours.
Problems in the point, line and plane and intersections.
Prerequisites: Art 110 and Mathematics 121.
- 210 and 211. Design. Four hours, two semesters.
Appreciative and analytical study of pictorial and decorative art. Constructive and decorative problems in suitable materials.
212. Art Appreciation. Two hours.
Parallel reading.
215. Structural Design. Three hours.
The application of Design to constructed forms, involving form, proportion, and shape. Decorative and structural lines.
- 303 and 304. Interior Decoration. Four hours, two semesters.
House planning, color schemes, study of furniture, materials, etc.
Prerequisites: Art 105, 106, 110, and 111.
350. Design. Three hours.
Two recitations, two hours laboratory a week.
Still life and landscape composition. Technique of water color. Architectural rendering.
Prerequisites: Art 101 and 102.
351. Design. Three hours.
Two recitations and two hours laboratory a week.
Still life and landscape composition and sketching. Technique of water color.
Prerequisites: Art 101, 102 and 105.
- 355 and 356. Design. Four hours, two semesters.
Two recitations and four hours laboratory a week.
Still life, figure and landscape rendering in various mediums. Technique of oil.
Prerequisites: Art 101, 102, 110 and 111.

401. History of Art and Architecture. Two hours.
Parallel reading.

BIBLE

201. The Hebrew People. Two hours.
Outline studies of the history of the Hebrew people. Narrative books of the Old Testament, Genesis to Esther.
202. New Testament History. Two hours.
Outline studies in the Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles.
301. The Hebrew Prophets. Two hours.
Outline studies of the outstanding prophets, their times and messages.
302. The Pauline Epistles. Two hours.
Outline studies.

BIOLOGY

- 101 and 102. Nature Study. Two hours, two semesters.
A general course covering in abbreviated form the field of Biology as presented under courses, 104, 205 and 206; first semester largely botanical, second largely zoological, both including discussions of living material collected by students.
103. Plant Nutrition. Four hours, first semester.
A study of seeds and seedlings, followed by work on the nutritive organs of seed plants as to morphology, physiology and ecology. Open to first and second year students.
104. Systematic Botany. Four hours, second semester.
A systematic study of both spore and seed plants, with much stress on plant ecology, as related to general taxonomy and phylogeny.
201. Comparative Anatomy. Three hours.
A morphological study of vertebrated animals with emphasis on the comparison of gross structures of the different types. This is a companion course with that of minute comparative anatomy (histology).
202. General Bacteriology. Three hours, first semester.
A very general study of bacteria, together with that of molds and yeasts, and is presented with the view of meeting the needs for subsequent studies in domestic science, sanitation and medicine.
203. Entomology. Three hours.
A general study of insect life. It is the intention of this course to give the essential facts concerning the taxonomy, life history and anatomy of insects, also to make intensive studies of the destructive insects of the local fauna.

205. Invertebrate Zoology. Four hours.

A systematic study of the lowest forms of animal life; a course dealing with morphology, physiology and ecology. General Biology, or its equivalent, a prerequisite.

206. Vertebrate Zoology. Four hours.

A taxonomic study of the higher forms of animal life; a course dealing especially with the structure, functions and life relations as determined by dissection and observation of fish, frog and all types of vertebrates.

Prerequisite: General Biology.

300. Histology. Three hours.

This course is a study of minute comparative anatomy and includes a careful employment of laboratory technique through the most approved and modern methods of making permanently stained slides of tissue from vertebrates.

Prerequisite: Biology 201.

301. Embryology. Three hours.

The work of this course embraces studies of pre- and post-embryonic life, particularly of vertebrate animals. For the most part, the laboratory work is devoted to consecutive observations of chick embryos in process of incubation.

Prerequisite: General Zoology.

302. Plant Reproduction. Three hours.

Studies of the flower and fruit of the higher seed plants (Angiosperms).

Much attention is paid to study of wild flowers taken from the local flora.

Prerequisite: General Botany.

303. Advanced Bacteriology. Three hours.

A specific study of the different groups of bacteria. A very detailed investigation of the pathogenic forms of bacteria and of following out other advanced studies of bacteria and related microorganisms.

Prerequisite: Biology 202.

304. Tri-State Flora. Two hours.

This course aims to train the student to identify and classify the plants of the local flora. Lectures on plant taxonomy and individual field work for preparation of a special herbarium.

305. Human Anatomy. Three hours.

This course consists of morphological studies of the human body and is intended largely as preparatory work for advanced studies in medicine, hygiene, physical education (Kinesiology) and other kindred subjects.

306. Human Physiology. Three hours.

The work of this course is confined to the studies of the human body in relation to its nutritive functions as determined through the text and laboratory experimentation on vertebrate animals.

Prerequisite: Biology 305.

307. Genetics. Three hours.

A general introductory course in studies in Heredity, Evolution and Eugenics. Presented as a cultural and preparatory course for those wishing to pursue teaching, home making, practice of medicine and other related vocations.

Prerequisite: General Biology.

The commodious laboratories are well furnished and equipped with all the supplies and apparatus necessary for carrying out experiments and other laboratory work.

The above courses are made out with the view of furnishing a good content for teaching Biology in high schools. They are also intended for those who wish to specialize in medicine, domestic science, physiological chemistry, or any of the related biological sciences, as well as for those who only want to pursue work merely along cultural lines.

Courses 103, 104, 201, 202, 300, 301, 303, 305, 306, and 307 may be employed as highly recommended for premedical students. (See Pre-Medical Curriculum for required work which should be taken first.)

In all the three hour courses two lectures and one laboratory a week are usually given; in all four hour courses two lectures and two laboratories are given, the laboratories being double periods. Biology 104 and 206 may be taken before Biology 103 and 205.

CHEMISTRY

101 and 102. General Chemistry. Four hours, two semesters.

Two lecture periods a week, covering the theory of general chemistry.

Two laboratory periods of two hours each and one hour of recitation.

Prerequisite: Algebra.

103. General Chemistry. Five hours.

Three lecture periods and four hours laboratory a week, covering the theory of general chemistry, the non-metals and methods of detection of acid-forming radicals. Designed for students in medicine.

Prerequisite: Algebra.

104. Elementary Analytical Chemistry. Five hours.

Three lecture periods and four hours laboratory a week, covering the simpler principles of qualitative and quantitative analysis, practice in balancing of reactions and stoichiometry.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 103 or Chemistry 201.

201. Advanced General Chemistry. Four hours.

Two lecture periods and four hours of laboratory, problems and demonstrations. Covers fully the theory of general chemistry and the non-metals. Arranged for students in engineering.

Prerequisites: Algebra and high school Chemistry.

202. Advanced General Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis. Four hours.

Two lecture periods a week and four hours of laboratory. Covers the metals, the theory of analysis, oxidation and reduction reactions, and ionization. Knowns and unknowns. Normal and standard solutions. Arranged for students in engineering.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 201.

203. Qualitative Analysis. Five hours.

Two lecture periods a week, covering the theory of qualitative analysis. Two laboratory periods of three hours each.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 102.

204. Quantitative Analysis. Five hours.

Volumetric and gravimetric analysis. The class room work includes chemical calculations. This course familiarizes the student with typical analyses and lays the foundation for all further analytical work. Special emphasis is placed on applications to industrial science.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 203.

301. Organic Chemistry. Four hours.

Two lecture periods a week, covering the paraffin series and derivatives. Two laboratory periods of two hours each.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 203.

302. Organic Chemistry. Four hours.

Two lecture periods a week, covering the unsaturated carbon compounds and the benzene series, and their derivatives. Two laboratory periods of two hours each.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 301.

303. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Four hours.

Complete analysis of limestones, gypsum and other mineral products, clays and soils.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 204.

304. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Four hours.

Analysis of foods, drugs, coal, iron and steel, waters, etc. Credit will be given more than once if work is not duplicated.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 204.

305. Physiological Chemistry. Five hours.

A practical course. Domestic Science students, those who expect to study medicine, and those who contemplate becoming trained nurses will find this course fundamental. The subject of essential foods and dietetics, digestion and metabolism, the blood and the urine are studied. The laboratory work supplements all subject matter presented in the lectures.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 301.

310. Pandemic Chemistry. Four hours.

This course covers the salient features of the various branches of chemistry. It is designed for those who want to obtain a bird's-eye view of chemistry and know its importance to everyday life.

Four lecture periods a week. No laboratory work. No prerequisite.

401. Physical Chemistry. Five hours.

This course deals with such topics as the gas laws, kinetic theory, phase rule, theory of electrolytic dissociation, etc. The laboratory work embraces molecular weight determinations by vapor density, freezing, and boiling point methods, study of solutions, solubility, conductivity, etc.

Prerequisites: Physics 207 and 208, Chemistry 204 and 302, Mathematics 123E or 223.

402. Electro-Chemistry. Five hours.

Special attention is given to the applications of electricity in the metallurgical and chemical manufacturing industries.

Prerequisites: Physics 300 and 301, Chemistry 401, Mathematics 224.

403. Problems in High School Science. Two hours.

A practical symposium dealing with the problems that confront teachers of junior and senior high school science courses. Demonstrations of typical laboratory exercises accompany lectures and discussions.

COMMERCE

101. Principles of Shorthand. Four hours.

Class meets daily with two hours as laboratory.

An introductory course. Principles and forms of Gregg Shorthand thoroughly mastered. One hour daily at the typewriter is required with this course.

102. Dictation. Three hours.

Two recitation periods and two hours laboratory a week.

Continuation of shorthand, the taking of dictation of business letters, reporting lectures and the transcription of same. One hour daily at the typewriter.

111. Principles of Accounting. Three hours.

Two recitation periods and two hours laboratory a week.

The principles of double entry in all books of original entry, the ledger, trial balance and financial statements are thoroughly worked out, both in theory and practice sets.

112. Principles of Accounting. Three hours.

Two recitation periods and two hours laboratory a week.

The principles worked out in 111 are now applied in Partnership and Corporation Accounting. A much more intensive study is made of the Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Statement. The principles of Depreciation, Operating and Administrative expenses are introduced.

200. Commercial Correspondence. Three hours.

Elements of clear-cut and forceful English as used in modern business letters. The study and writing of adjustment, credit, sales, application, and other standard business letters are distinctly emphasized.

201. Secretarial Training. Two hours.

A study and training in the principles of secretarial efficiency; acquirement of skill in the performance of office duties, filing, indexing, accuracy of forms, and the understanding of matters of record and despatch. Designed for stenographers and private secretaries.

206. Law of Contracts. Two hours.

Fundamental and guiding principles of contract law as applied to general business transactions; construction and performance of contracts; breach, damages, remedies. West Virginia Code and case material used in connection.

207. Law of Property. Two hours.

Personal and real property; title and transfer; deeds, mortgages, wills. West Virginia Code, case material and reference reading widely used in the course.

210. Essentials in Money and Banking. Three hours.

Two recitation periods and two hours laboratory a week.

Fundamental principles in thrift, saving, investment and sound business. A brief history and survey of money, its kinds, uses and development; also of banks and banking, with special emphasis on our present Federal Reserve system.

230. Personal Efficiency. Two hours.

An intensive study of the principles, training and practices that build for greater personal output, both mentally and manually.

231. Salesmanship. Two hours.

A study of fundamental principles underlying successful selling; the problems, processes and technique involved. Analysis of the selling process, the psychology of selling, a study of the customer, his needs and wants and how to meet them.

234. Investments. Two hours.

The fundamental principles of thrift, saving and the investment of funds in safe and productive securities and fields of business. Budgetary studies and financial competence. Especially designed for teachers in both personal and teaching problems, but adaptable to business fields as well.

235. Psychology in Business Relations. Two hours.

An application of the principles of psychology in the various activities of business; a study of the psychology of the consumer and the part played by psychology in problems of marketing, advertising, selling, and especially in employment, scientifically determined tests of proven value. Designed primarily for men of business, though the principles are distinctly applicable in the professions.

240. Principles of Marketing. Three hours.

How to conduct market surveys, statistical information, new fields and how to reach them, increasing the demands in results and data gained, graphing and putting in usable and commercial form.

300. History of Commerce. Two hours.

Survey of world commerce, tracing its development from the earliest history through the Levantine, Venetian and Feudal periods into the modern methods of expansive international trade.

301. Office Management. Two hours.

Theory and methods in the management of the modern office. Personal qualities, statistics and their uses, devices for the measurement of output, filing systems, organization of sales and purchase departments, stenographic and clerical efficiency.

311. Accounting, Theory and Practice. Three hours.

Two recitation periods and two hours laboratory a week.

Development of the theory and practice of accounting as required in modern manufacture and sale, and as used by public accountants. Offered for those preparing for C. P. A. work, or the teacher wishing to take the A. B. in Commerce.

312. Accounting, Theory and Practice. Three hours.

Two recitation periods and two hours laboratory a week.

Continuation of 311 with special emphasis upon elements in, and methods of computing, depreciation; intensive study and analysis of the Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Statement for factories, large business houses, and corporations doing a very extensive business.

320. Business Administration. Three hours.

A study of managerial and administrative problems as met in modern industrial production and commercial pursuits. Plant location, markets, conditions of economic production, problems of personnel in group control, administrative proficiency.

326. Methods of Teaching Shorthand and Bookkeeping. Two hours.

A course for teachers in commercial subjects, or students preparing to teach them. Organization of subject matter, principles of presentation, testing and measuring results.

Prerequisites: Commerce 101, 102, 111 and 112.

330. Advertising. Three hours.

A study of the psychology, science and art of successful advertising. How to get results, proof that results are being obtained, and the conservation and extension of them.

400. Corporation Finance. Three hours.

Brief survey of the history and development of the modern corporation, its organization as adapted to modern business, and modes and ways and means of financing corporations. A study of special forms and books, records and reports, used by corporations, and some of the technical accounting problems involved.

411. Cost Accounting. Three hours.

Manufacturing, the principles of production, the many costs that enter into it, proper allocation and distribution of the each and several cost items, the making of clear and proper exhibits and schedules, and arranging them in understandable and scientific form in relation to the balance sheet and profit and loss statement. The most involved forms of the profit and loss statement are worked out.

412. C. P. A. Problems. Two hours.

Standard problems that have been given in past years in C. P. A. examinations, arranged in text book form, are taken up, worked out, and the principles involved are thoroughly discussed.

ECONOMICS101. Introductory Course. Two hours.

See political Science 101.

102. Introductory Course. Two hours.

See Political Science 102.

These courses are prerequisite to or may be taken with Economics 241 and 242.

241. Principles of Economics. Three hours.

This course deals with the principles and problems of economic effort and organization in their relation to the production, distribution, and consumption of wealth. Emphasis is given to the relation of economic effort and organization to social, political, and ethical problems.

Prerequisite: Economics 101 and 102.

242. Principles of Economics. Three hours.

A continuation of course 241.

246. Labor Problems. Three hours.

This course deals with the relation of labor to industry, to organized capital, and to government. Trade unionism is considered as a functional development. Strikes, lockouts, and injunctions receive attention. Not open to freshmen.

311. The Problem of Poverty. Three hours.
See Sociology 311.

314. Co-operative Methods. Two hours.

This course is a study of the history and methods of the modern co-operative movement in Europe, Japan and the United States. Types of co-operative credit societies, distributive societies, and consumers' societies will be given consideration. The course aims to give the student a practical knowledge that will be of value in dairy, fruit, and general agricultural communities.

317. The Trust Problem. Three hours.

This course gives the history and nature of the modern trust movement; and discusses the reasons for the formation of trusts, and their social and economic consequences. Trust legislation and decisions of the courts are considered. Not open to freshmen.

320. Public Finance. Three hours.

This course deals with the expenditures of government and the various devices in use, and proposed, for meeting governmental financial needs. Among the subjects considered are the following: Kinds of taxes, fees, and rates; brief history and comparison of tax systems; personal and property tax; excess profits tax. Public debt, credit, methods of financial administration, and the public financial problems resulting from the World War are studied. Not open to freshmen.

EDUCATION

110. Elementary School Methods: Reading and Literature in Primary Grades (1-4). Two hours.

Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 250. Either semester.

111. Elementary School Methods: Constructive Activities in Primary Grades (1-4). Two hours.

Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 250. Either semester.

112. Elementary School Methods: Number Work and Language in Primary Grades (1-4). Two hours.

Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 250. Either semester.

113. Elementary School Methods: Science in Primary Grades (1-4). Two hours.

Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 250. Either semester.

115. The Kindergarten: General Aspects. Two hours.

Consideration of purpose and curriculum of the kindergarten, and of its relation to first grade.

116. Kindergarten-Primary Games. Two hours. Summer term.

120. Elementary School Methods: Reading and Literature (Grades 5-8). Two hours.

Should be taken with Education 121. May precede or follow Education 122 and 123. Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 251. First semester.

121. Elementary School Methods: Language and Related Activities (Grades 5-8). Two hours.

Should be taken with Education 120. May precede or follow Education 122 and 123. Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 251. First semester.

122. Elementary School Methods: Arithmetic and Related Activities (Grades 5-8). Two hours.

Should be taken with Education 123. May precede or follow Education 120 and 121. Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 251. Second semester.

123. Elementary School Methods: Social Science (history and geography) and Elementary Science (Grades 5-8). Two hours.

Should be taken with Education 122. May precede or follow Education 120 and 121. Two recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Prerequisite to Education 251. Second semester.

130. American Schools. Two hours.

An elementary course on school administration. Starts from a reading of West Virginia school law. Then traces the development of the ideas embodied in present day American schools. Either semester.

132. Rural School Management. Two hours.

A study of the organization of program and routine in the rural school. Management of time of pupils, direction of play, care of school property, relation of teacher to community, etc.

133. School hygiene. Two hours.

A course dealing with the best methods of detecting the physical defects of school children and of preventing the spread of disease. Emphasis is placed on the formation of hygienic habits and the needs of sanitary living conditions in school and home. Either semester.

200. Educational Psychology. Four hours.

The purpose of this course is the study of mental phenomena. It deals with the original nature of man, the psychology of learning, individual differences and their causes. Either semester.

202. Psychology 202 is accepted as a course in Education.

212. Extra-Curricular Activities. Two hours.

The various supplemental agencies which are found in the rural community: parent-teachers association, country life conference, public school day, pupils' reading circle, Four-H Club, the school paper, the Sunday School and others.

213. Rural Education. Two hours.

This course is for the purpose of taking into account various views as to the purpose of the rural school.

214. Rural School Practices. Two hours.

The practices which yield highest results in the rural school differ quite largely from those used in the urban school. The point of departure, the experience of the pupils and the different environment make teaching a different process in each type of community.

215. Comparative Rural Education. Two hours.

This course offers the student an opportunity to contrast the rural education found in his home state with that prevailing in the other states of the Union and in foreign countries.

Prerequisite: Education 213.

230. Educational Tests and Measurements. Two hours.

Purpose is to give prospective teacher a knowledge of current methods of measuring achievement in elementary school subjects. Not open to freshmen without teaching experience. Either semester.

250. Practice Teaching in Grades 1-4. Four hours.

Teaching done under supervision of instructor in Department of Education. Not open to freshmen. Either semester.

Prerequisite: Education 110, 111, 112, 113.

251. Practice Teaching in Grades 5-8. Four hours.

Teaching done under supervision of instructor in Department of Education. Not open to freshmen. Either semester.

Prerequisite: Education 120, 121, 122, 123.

300. Psychology of High School Subjects. Three hours.

Study of subjects taught in high school from psychological point of view; the mental processes involved in the several subjects; principles of selection of subject matter. Juniors and seniors only. First semester.

310. Principles of Teaching in High School. Four hours.

General methods of teaching in high school and procedure in planning lessons. Three recitations and five hours of observation per week. Following courses are recommended as preparation: Education 200, Education 230, Psychology 202. Either semester.

Prerequisite: 80 hours of college credit. Must precede Education 450.

315. History of Education. Three hours.

Study of the educational ideas and practices of the past with comparison between old-time and modern situations. Presupposes some acquaintance with European history. Not recommended to students who have had Education 130. Second semester.

321. Supervision of Instruction in Rural Schools. Three hours.

The field is comparatively new, and this course not only emphasizes the value of this type of supervision, but also defines it. This course is primarily for those expecting to become district supervisors. Open to juniors and seniors.

322. Rural School Administration. Two hours.

This course has for its purpose the training of men and women for administration positions in rural education: county superintendents, principals, members of board of education. Open to juniors and seniors.

323. District and County Surveys. Three hours.

A course for juniors and seniors who want to know how to approach a new field of work as superintendent, supervisor or teacher in a large system.

331. Management and Supervision of a Graded School. Three hours.

The problems that confront the principal in trying to increase the efficiency of the school. A study of how the principal may work most advantageously to unify and supplement the work of the teachers.

Summer term.

332. Administration and Supervision of a School System. Three hours.

A study of the problems that confront the superintendent in looking after the common interests of several schools. The problems of unifying efforts, of looking after equipment, or improving instruction, of selecting teachers, etc.

333. Junior High School. Two hours.

The occasions that gave rise to the junior high school, its organization and curricula, cost, efficiency and other elements of the present situation. Intended for junior and senior high school teachers. First semester.

334. High School Administration. Three hours.

A study of the development of the high school, its organization and present-day problems. The course does not deal with methods of teaching in high school, but rather with institutional management. Open to juniors and seniors only. Second semester.

400. The Psychology of Reading and Language. Three hours.

Development of language as a social institution, with special attention to history and psychology of written language. Nature of the reading process is studied, and most important recent investigations of reading as a school subject are reviewed. Open to seniors and graduates. First semester 1927-28.

401. The Psychology of Number and Abstraction. Two hours.

Development of number in the history of the race, and parallel development in the life of the individual. Nature of the number idea and of the mental process of abstraction with practical application to the problems of organizing mathematics courses of the elementary school. Special attention to recent investigations of arithmetic as a school subject. Seniors and graduates. Second semester 1927-28.

410. The Project Method. Two hours.

An advanced and critical discussion of the project. Presupposes some familiarity with the project as a practical tool in school work. Open to seniors, graduate students and thoroughly experienced teachers. Second semester 1928-29.

411. Seminar in Education. Three hours.

Content is variable from time to time. Class takes up study of some major problems of education, and each student makes a close study of some particular phase of the problem. Extensive reading and reports as basis of informal discussions. Seniors and graduate students. First semester 1927-28.

430. Educational Measurements. Advanced Course. Two hours.

An advanced course for those who have had Education 230 or equivalent. More theoretical than Education 230, going more extensively into the principles of test construction. First semester 1928-29.

450. Practice Teaching in High School. Four hours.

Must be preceded by Education 310. Open to seniors only. May be taken either semester. Required for high school teacher's certificate. Supervised by instructors of Department of Education.

ENGLISH

101. Freshman English Composition (Required). Three hours.

English 101 and 102 constitute a two-semester course in prose writing, consisting of a review of usage and the study of the principles of structure and style. The course includes exercises in collecting and ordering material, and instruction in the use of libraries. It aims, by systematic study and drill, to establish the practice of correct and satisfactory expression. All exercises and themes are subjected to detailed criticism.

One hour a week in recitation and four hours a week in laboratory.

Prerequisite: Four units of high school English.

Note: At the end of three weeks in English 101 students who, on account of insufficient knowledge of inflection and syntax, are not qualified to continue the course successfully are placed in English E. Any student who, at any time, in English 101 or 102, shows marked deficiency in elementary matters may be transferred to English E for such time as may be necessary to make up the deficiency. If at any time later in his college course a student is reported deficient or careless in English composition, he may be required to take additional work in this subject.

102. Freshman English Composition (Required). Three hours.

A continuation of English 101.

Prerequisite: English 101.

E. English Inflection and Syntax. No college credit.

A study of usage in inflection and syntax. A student once assigned to this course must have a passing grade in it before he resumes English 101.

222. Advanced Composition. Three hours.

Systematic exercises in writing, chiefly expository. Primarily for sophomores.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102.

225. News Reporting. Three hours.

One hour recitation and four hours laboratory each week. Fundamentals of reporting, news gathering and news writing. Particular attention is given to types of news stories suitable for high school and college papers and to reportorial management.

302. Newspaper Building. Two hours.

One hour recitation (staff meeting) and two hours laboratory work (on student publications) each week. The course includes analyses of practical problems in newspaper building. Open to staff members of student publications only.

311. Chaucer. Three hours.

Elementary grammar of Middle English; The Prologue to the Canterbury Tales; The Knightes Tale; The Nonnes Preestes Tale.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102, English 322 being recommended.

315. Shakespeare. Two hours.

A critical study of King Lear and King Henry the Fourth, Part I.

Prerequisites: English 101 and 102 and Literature 101 and 102.

316. Shakespeare. Two hours.

A critical study of Macbeth and The Tempest.

Prerequisites: English 101 and 102 and Literature 101 and 102.

321. Old English. Three hours.

The elements of old English; an introduction to the literature of the Old English period.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102.

322. Middle English. Three hours.

Language developments; selections representative of developments in Middle English literature.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102, English 321 being recommended.

323. The Informal Essay. Two hours.

Reading and study of typical familiar essays to observe technique and theme. Some practice in writing essays.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102.

326. News Reporting and News Editing. Three hours.

One hour recitation and four hours laboratory each week. Advanced reporting, interviewing and copy reading. Particular attention is given to editing and editorial policies of high school and college papers.

327. The American Short Story. Three hours.

Reading and study of typical short stories to observe the technical methods of American short story writers and the themes embodied in magazine fiction. One technically acceptable short story written by each student.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102.

421. Modern English. Two hours.

A general view of the content and the content margin considered appropriate as equipment for teachers of high school English, including a brief account of the development of the language.

Prerequisite: English 101 and 102, English 321 and 322 being recommended.

FRENCH121. First Year French. Four hours.

Essentials of grammar, phonetics, reading, text-book, quizzes, recitations. Primarily for freshmen.

122. First Year French. Four hours.

Continuation of French 121.

223. Modern French Literature. Four hours.

Prerequisite: French 122 or two units of high school French.

224. Modern French Literature. Four hours.

Continuation of French 223.

Prerequisite: French 223.

319. Conversation and Composition. Two hours.

Prerequisite: French 224 or three units high school French.

320. Conversation and Composition. Two hours.

Continuation of French 319.

325. General Outline of French Literature. Three hours.

Readings and reports. Lectures in French.

Prerequisite: French 224 or 226 or 3 units of high school French.

326. General Outline of French Literature. Three hours.

Continuation of French 325.

355. Social and Literary Aspects of the 17th Century. Two hours.
France at the time of Louis XIV. No knowledge of French required.
421. Teacher's Course. Two hours.
Phonetics, grammar review, methods of teaching.
Prerequisite: French 320 or 326.
423. The Classical School. Three hours.
Prerequisite: French 326 or four units of high school French.
424. The Classical School. Three hours.
Continuation of French 423.
427. The Nineteenth Century Drama. Three hours.
Prerequisite: French 326 or four units of high school French.
428. The Nineteenth Century Drama. Three hours.
Continuation of French 427.
431. Poetry of the Nineteenth Century. Two hours.
Prerequisite: French 326.
432. Poetry of the Nineteenth Century. Two hours.
Continuation of French 431.

GEOGRAPHY

100. Elements of Geography. Five hours.

A study of the relations between man and his natural environment. This course develops an understanding of the several elements of the natural environment, such as climate, land forms, salts, minerals, surface and underground waters, native vegetation, and shows the most important adjustments man has made to these elements.

105. Economic Geography. Three hours.

This course is a study of the larger human adjustments of the world and includes a study of the leading products of the farm, forest, factory, the range, the mine, the sea, trade routes and trade centers. A study of geographic adjustments throughout the world as a preparation for regional study courses.

Prerequisite: Geography 100.

109. Advanced Physiography. Four hours.

A study of the surface features of the earth with special reference to their origin and significance, the agencies producing these features, and the physiographic changes in progress. The physiographic regions of the United States and of West Virginia are particularly emphasized. Occasional field trips. A study of topographic maps and common rocks and rock forming materials.

203. Professional Geography. Three hours.

Required as a preparation for teaching. A study of methods and most desirable materials to be used in teaching modern geography; the application of the problem and projects method to teaching geography. Instruction in the use of globes, maps and other necessary material. Survey of state course of study.

Prerequisite: Geography 100 or Geography 105.

205. North America. Five hours.

This course includes a study of the major geographic regions of North America from the viewpoint of their relation to the national environment. The assets for industries in the various regions of the continent are emphasized.

Prerequisite: Geography 105.

206. Economic Geography of West Virginia. Two hours.

Every teacher of West Virginia should have an opportunity to study the industrial development of the state as controlled by geographic influences. Current geography in relation to trade and industrial conditions is emphasized. Open to teachers, especially of the normal course, and others.

Prerequisite: Geography 100 or 105.

210. General Geology. Four hours.

A course designed to present the general principles and processes of the science. A general survey of physical and historical geology. Laboratory work on mineral specimens with attention to economic formation in West Virginia. Field work.

301. Geography of Europe. Three hours.

A study of the continents, location, natural regions, physical elements and other natural resources. A detailed study of the influence of natural resources in the recent economic and political relations with special emphasis on the four leading countries.

Prerequisite: Geography 205.

309. Geography of Latin America. Three hours.

This course includes a study of the West Indies, Central America and South America. The present and future prospects of these countries as related to natural resources and the various aspects of the natural environment. Special attention is given to the importance of the countries to the United States and other world powers.

Prerequisite: Geography 205.

401. Historical Geography of United States. Three hours.

A study of the relations between the natural conditions and resources of the country and its settlement and development; important adjustments made by expanding population to the varied environments; the evolution produced by the relations of the environments of the people in certain areas of the country.

Prerequisite: Geography 205.

405. Political Geography. Three hours.

This course includes a general survey of political geography. A study of the relation between political activity and the natural environment with special significance of the environment to political conditions. Current political issues as they are related to human adjustments to the natural environment.

Prerequisites: Geography 100, 105; and Political Science.

GERMAN

101. Beginners' Course. Four hours.

Pronunciation, grammar, reading, dictation, speaking and writing.

102. Beginners' Course. Four hours.

Reading, dictation, and elementary composition.

Prerequisite: German 101 or one unit high school German.

201. Modern Authors and Composition. Four hours.

Readings selected from the German novel and the short story of the nineteenth century. Practice in reading German print and script as an exercise in pronunciation. Grammar.

Prerequisites: German 101 and 102 or two units of high school German.

202. Classical Authors and Composition.

Reading of the more pretentious classics, with emphasis on the German idiom. Conversation and composition based on advanced grammar.

Prerequisites: German 201 or three units of high school German.

Prerequisite: German 102 or equivalent.

301 and 302. Advanced Classics and Composition. Three hours, two semesters.

Readings varied; composition and conversation strongly emphasized.

Prerequisite: German 102.

GREEK

201 and 202. Beginners' Course. Five hours, two semesters.

Beginners' book with some reading from the Iliad.

301 and 302. Selections from Homer. Three hours, two semesters.

Prerequisites: Greek 201 and 202.

HOME ECONOMICS127. Textiles and Clothing. Three hours.

Development of textile industry from primitive times to the present; study of the important fibers and materials made from them; practice in working with cotton and linen garments.

128. Textiles and Clothing. Three hours.

Continuation of Home Economics 127. Demonstrations and laboratory work in methods of drafting, cutting, fitting and making of garments from individual designs. Adaptation of the commercial pattern.

150. Home Nursing and First Aid. Two hours.

Review of fundamentals of physiology, sanitation and bacteriology. Care of sick under home conditions. First aid and emergency work.

202. Food, Selection and Preparation. Four hours.

The nature and uses of foods, their chemical composition, changes effected by heat, cold or fermentation; principles of selection; processes of manufacture; combination.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 103.

203. Economic Uses of Food. Four hours.

Continuation of Course 202. Economic uses of food, marketing, fuels, preservation, meals.

Prerequisite: Home Economics 202. Advisable to enter bacteriology.

205. Nutrition and Health Training in the Elementary Schools. Two hours.

This course is intended primarily for Standard Normal students and does not count as credit on a Home Economics major.

206. Nutrition and Health. Two hours.

Continuation of Home Economics 205.

239. Millinery. Two hours.

Hat construction, decoration, renovation, and selection.

240. History of Costume. Two hours.

Development of modern costume from historic sources.

301. Dietetics. Four hours.

Diet, the relation of food to health, influence of age, sex and occupation on the diet; factors involved in the construction of dietaries.

Prerequisite: Home Economics 202 and 203. Parallel: Organic Chemistry.

303. Child Care. Two hours.

A study of the care of the infant and the pre-school child.

Prerequisites: Psychology 201 and Education 133.

327. Dress Design. Three hours.

Study of dress from artistic, historic, economic and hygienic stand-points. Application of principles of design to silhouette, proportion, line and color.

Prerequisites: Home Economics 127 and 128, Art 101.

328. Designing and Advanced Dressmaking. Three hours.

Continuation of Home Economics 327. Application of unity, proportion, line and color to dress design. Laboratory work in the construction of typical garments from individual designs.

351. Home Architecture and Sanitation. Three hours.

Situation, surrounding and construction of the house, heating, lighting, ventilating, water supply and drainage. Making skeleton plans. Furnishings from a sanitary, economic and artistic standpoint.

Prerequisite: Free-hand Drawing.

354. Home Decoration. Two hours.

Theory of color and its application in home decoration; furnishings from a sanitary and artistic standpoint.

Prerequisite: Free-hand Drawing.

356. Home Decoration. One hour.

Two-hour laboratory course; supplementary to Home Economics 354.

358. Economics of the Household. Two hours.

The theory and practice of budgeting, and the study of the economics of the household.

401. Food and Nutrition. Four hours.

Physiological, chemical and bacteriological problems of food and nutrition.

Prerequisite: Home Economics 301.

403. Cafeteria Management. Five hours.

Organization and equipment of cafeterias and lunchrooms. Practice in food preparation and serving of food in quantity.

404. Diet in Disease. Two hours.

Applications of dietetic principles to problems in diet in disease.

Prerequisite: Home Economics 301.

425. Practice House and Experimental Cookery. Four hours.

Prerequisites: Home Economics 202, 203, 301, 302 and 358.

441. Costume Design. Three hours.

A study of the principles of design as applied to dress. Laboratory periods devoted to working out problems in proportion, line, color harmony, and in design, emphasizing originality and individuality in the planning of clothing. No clothing construction work.

490. Teaching Home Economics. Three hours.

Theory and methods of teaching Home Economics in junior and senior high schools. Must parallel Education 450.

LATIN111. Beginner's Course. Four hours.*112. Intermediate Course. Four hours.

Latin 111 and 112 are intended primarily for those whose interest is in English or the modern languages; also for those preparing for the study of law or medicine.

Prerequisites: Latin 111 or one year high school Latin.

203. Cicero: Selected Orations. Four hours.
Prerequisites: Latin 111 and 112 or two years high school Latin.
204. Selections from Cicero, or equivalent. Four hours.
Prerequisites: Latin 111 and 112 or two and one-half units high school Latin.
236. Roman Life. Two hours.
Illustrated by lantern slides and photographs. No knowledge of Latin required.
- 305 and 306. Vergil's Aeneid, I-VI. Selections from Ovid. Four hours.
Prerequisite: Three units of high school Latin.
307. Cicero: Selections from his Letters. Three hours.
Prerequisite: Four units high school Latin.
308. Horace: Odes and Epodes. Three hours.
Horace as an exponent of his age.
Prerequisite: Four units high school Latin.
309. Livy: Selections from Books I, XXI, XXII. Three hours.
Prerequisite: Four units high school Latin.
310. Horace: Satires and Epistles. Three hours.
Horace the man, the satirist and philosopher.
311. Studies from Augustan Poetry. Three hours.
Selection from the Augustan poets.
328. Advanced Prose Composition. One hour.
401. Juvenal, Martial and Pliny. Three hours.
The social life at Rome at the close of the first century.
402. Vergil's Aeneid, Books VI-XII. Three hours.
A study of the poem as a whole with careful reading of the last six books.
Prerequisites: One year college Latin or four units high school Latin.
403. The Roman Stage. Three hours.
Selected comedies of Plautus and Terence.
430. The Teaching of Latin. Three hours.

LITERATURE

101. English Literature. Required. Two hours.
The age of Elizabeth and a study of the temper of the 17th century.

102. English Literature. Required. Two hours.
The age of Wordsworth, principally devoted to a study of Tintern Abbey, Ode on Immortality, and to Shelley's Adonais.
201. American Literature. Two hours.
A study of the chief American poets.
202. American Literature. Two hours.
A study of the chief American prose writers.
203. Child Literature. Two hours.
Principles of selection; a reading course; illustrative studies in the treatment of selected pieces.
204. British Poetry of the Nineteenth Century. Three hours.
A study of a considerable body of poetry representative of the work of the chief British poets from Wordsworth to Swinburne.
Prerequisite: Literature 101 and 102.
205. The Development of the Novel. Two hours.
The development, technique, and significance of the novel. Illustrative matter taken from selected novels.
300. English Literature. Two hours.
The age of Queen Anne and a study of the return to romanticism.
301. Shakespeare. Two hours.
A study of Othello, Hamlet, As You Like It, and parts of Macbeth and Julius Caesar.
Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.
302. The Elizabethan Dramatists. Two hours.
A study of representative dramas selected from Marlowe, Jonson, Beaumont and Fletcher, Massinger, and Webster.
Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.
303. Wordsworth and Shelley. Two hours.
A study of the Prelude and Prometheus Unbound.
Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.
305. Tennyson. Two hours.
A study of the poetry of Tennyson.
Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.
306. Browning. Two hours.
A study of the poetry of Browning.
Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.

307. Eighteenth Century English Prose. Three hours.

A study of the English prose from Defoe to Boswell with special reference to the literary tendencies, the critical doctrines, and the social ideas of the period. Lectures, class discussion, and investigation of special topics.

Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.

308. English Poetry: 1660-1798. Three hours.

A study of literary tendencies in English poetry from Dryden to the publication of the Lyrical Ballads. Lectures, class discussion, and fortnightly reports.

Prerequisites: Literature 101 and 102.

309. The Pre-Raphaelite Poets. Two hours.

A study of the poetry of Swinburne, Morris and Rossetti: For juniors and seniors.

Prerequisite: Literature 102 and 305 or 306.

310. Milton. Three hours.

A study of his poetry, with special attention to Paradise Lost.

311. Carlyle. Three hours.

Special attention will be given to Sartor Resartus; also a study of some typical essays and his political economy.

400. Sonnets. Two hours.

Songs and sonnets of the Elizabethan Age. For seniors and graduate students.

Prerequisites: Literature 101, 301 and 302.

401. The Teaching of Literature. Two hours.

Principles for the selection of literature for high school pupils; illustrative studies in the treatment of selected pieces.

Prerequisites: Literature 101, 102, 201 and 202.

MATHEMATICS

120. Algebra. Four hours.

For students presenting only one unit of entrance algebra. The topics of elementary algebra in addition to the work of advanced algebra.

121. Solid Geometry. Four hours.

Open to students not offering the subject for entrance. This course is especially valuable to teachers of arithmetic.

Prerequisite: Plane Geometry one unit.

122. Trigonometry. Four hours.

Solution of triangles; formulae; use of logarithms.

Prerequisite: Algebra one unit and Geometry one unit.

126. Trigonometry. Three hours.

This course is for engineering students who meet all entrance requirements for engineers and do not need review in elementary algebra. Given in connection with Mathematics 127 in the first semester of the freshman year.

Prerequisite: Algebra one and one-half units, Plane Geometry one unit, Solid Geometry one-half unit.

127. College Algebra. Three hours.

A course for engineering students who meet all entrance requirements and do not need review in elementary algebra. Given in connection with Mathematics 126 in the first semester of the freshman year.

Prerequisites: Algebra one and one-half units, Plane Geometry one unit, Solid Geometry one-half unit.

201. Plane Surveying. Three hours.

Methods of using the compass, transit, tape and level in making plane surveys are explained by lectures and field exercises. Work in both drawing room and field.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 126 and Art 110.

202. Advanced Surveying. Three hours.

A continuation of course 201. City, topographic and mine surveys, precise measurements and earth work.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 201.

223. College Algebra. Four hours.

Logarithms, graphs, series, theory of equations, determinants, etc.

Prerequisite: Algebra one and one-half units.

224. Analytical Geometry. Four hours.

Coordination of algebra and geometry. The relations of equations and loci, the straight line and conic sections. Attention to plotting and to numerical problems.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 122 and 223.

315. Differential Calculus. Three hours.

This course is for students who take engineering, and attendance at one hour of conference is required in addition to the three hours.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 224.

316. Integral Calculus. Three hours.

This course is for students who take engineering, and attendance at one hour of conference is required in addition to the three hours.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 315 or 325.

325. Differential Calculus. Four hours.

Theory of limits, differentiation, application of the derivative in geometry, rates maxima and minima, series, expansion of functions.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 224.

326. Integral Calculus. Four hours.
Methods of integration, summation as applied to measurements of arcs, areas and volumes.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 325.
351. Teaching Mathematics. Two hours.
Content with methods of presentation.
Prerequisite: Twelve hours of college mathematics.
355. History of Mathematics. Three hours.
Prerequisite: Twelve hours of college mathematics.
431. Theory of Equations. Four hours.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 325.
435. Differential Equations. Four hours.
Prerequisites: Mathematics 325 and 326.
441. Theory of Numbers. Three hours.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 331.

PHILOSOPHY

301. History of Ancient and Medieval Philosophy. Three hours, first semester.

The course studies the origin and development of the fundamental problems of philosophy among the Greeks, and the form which these problems assume in, and the solutions which were provided by, the medieval schools.

Prerequisite: Psychology 101 or 305.

302. History of Modern Philosophy. Three hours, second semester.

Continues Philosophy 301 and is a study of the same problems in the broader and deeper significance which they have come to have under the influence of the growth of the physical and biological sciences in the modern era.

Prerequisite: Psychology 101 or 305.

311. Ethics. Three hours.

A study of the problems of human conduct and their ethical significance from the anthropological standpoint and as related to social conditions and progress. The course is intended especially to meet the needs of students of the social sciences and those preparing for the professions.

Prerequisite: Psychology 101 or 305.

316. Introduction to Philosophy. Three hours.

A general view of the whole field of philosophy with some consideration of the persistent problems and the various types of philosophical thought. Generally offered in the summer term.

PHYSICS

102. Household Physics. Four hours.

This course is arranged primarily for Home Economics students, and consists of lectures, demonstrations and recitations. There is no laboratory work; this part of the course is taught by means of the demonstrations.

Prerequisites: A knowledge of the fundamentals of high school algebra and geometry. High school physics will be found of value, but is not required.

201. General Physics. Three hours, first semester.

Mechanics and heat are studied. This course is arranged primarily for pre-medical students, and for those who have had little or no preparation in mathematics beyond that mentioned as prerequisite.

Prerequisites: One year each of algebra and geometry.

202. General Physics Laboratory. Two hours, first semester.

This course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 201. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisites. One year each of algebra and geometry.

203. General Physics. Three hours, second semester.

Electricity, sound and light are studied. This course is a continuation of Physics 201.

Prerequisites: Physics 201 and 202, or their equivalents.

204. General Physics Laboratory. Two hours, second semester.

This course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 203. It is a continuation of Physics 202. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisites: Physics 201 and 202, or their equivalents.

205. General Physics. Three hours, first semester.

Mechanics and heat are studied. This course is arranged primarily for engineering students, and for those who have had at least plane trigonometry.

Prerequisite: Plane trigonometry.

206. General Physics Laboratory. Two hours, first semester.

This course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 205. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisite: Plane trigonometry.

207. General Physics. Three hours, second semester.

Electricity, sound, and light are studied. This course is a continuation of Physics 205.

Prerequisites: Physics 205 and 206, or their equivalents.

208. General Physics Laboratory. Two hours, second semester.

This course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 207. It is a continuation of Physics 206. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisites: Physics 205 and 206, or their equivalents.

209. Elements of Mechanics. Three hours, first semester.

The course involves principles of both statics and dynamics with the solution of many practical problems.

Prerequisite: Plane trigonometry and college algebra.

210. Mechanics Laboratory. Two hours, first semester.

This course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 209. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisite: Plane trigonometry and college algebra.

211. Heat. Three hours, second semester.

The course deals with heat as energy and the processes and effects involved in the production, distribution and utilization of this energy. Many practical problems are solved.

Prerequisites: Physics 205 and 206, or 201 and 202, or 209 and 210, or their equivalents.

212. Heat Measurements. Two hours, second semester.

This course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 211. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisites: Physics 205 and 206, or 201 and 202, or 209 and 210, or their equivalents.

300. Electricity and Magnetism. Two hours, first semester.

The course involves the theory and practical applications of electricity and magnetism. Many practical problems are solved.

Prerequisites: Physics 207 and 208, or 203 and 204, or 211 and 212, or their equivalents.

301. Electrical Measurements. Two hours, first semester.

This laboratory course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 300. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisites: Physics 207 and 208, or 203 and 204, or 211 and 212, or their equivalents.

302. Electricity and Magnetism. Two hours, second semester.

The theory and practical applications of electricity and magnetism, including both direct and alternating current machinery. This course is a continuation of Physics 300. Many practical problems are solved.

Prerequisites: Physics 300 and 301, or their equivalents.

303. Electrical Measurements. Two hours, second semester.

This laboratory course accompanies and is required of all students who take Physics 302. It is a continuation of Physics 301. There are two laboratory periods per week.

Prerequisites: Physics 300 and 301, or their equivalents.

304. Light. Three hours.

This course is arranged primarily for students in medicine, biology, and chemistry.

Prerequisites: Physics 207 and 208, or 203 and 204 and Trigonometry, or 302 and 303, or their equivalents.

305. Light Laboratory. One hour.

This course accompanies, and is required of all students who take Physics 304. There is one laboratory period per week.

Prerequisites: Physics 207 and 208, or 203 and 204 and Trigonometry, or 302 and 303, or their equivalents.

306. Mechanics (Statics). Three hours.

Prerequisites: Differential calculus and registration in integral calculus.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

AIMS

A. Student Growth and Development.

1. To contribute to health, organic vigor, and good physical habits.
2. To provide an incentive and an opportunity for every student to secure physical activity as a balance to the sedentary demands of college life.
3. To conserve the social and moral values of games and sports and to secure to every student the fullest opportunity for their practice.

B. Training of Teachers.

1. To give preparation to prospective teachers in the theoretical and practical phases of physical education in the public schools.
2. To prepare prospective teachers in physical education in the teaching and supervision of physical education in the elementary grades and junior and senior high schools.

C. Extension.

To promote a more effective organization of play and administration of physical education throughout the State of West Virginia.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Physical Education is required of all freshmen students throughout the college year, three periods a week.

Students entering with adequate training in Physical Education may be assigned to advanced courses.

Each student upon entering college receives a medical and physical examination. Any student unable to take regular practical work will be given corrective exercise adapted to the individual needs.

All students asking to be excused from Physical Education will be referred to the College Physician. On his recommendation, these students will be enrolled for remedial and corrective work.

A special gymnasium uniform is required. This should be secured after arrival at the college.

SWIMMING

Swimming is a part of the required freshman work. It is the aim of the Physical Education department that each student entering Marshall College learn to swim.

Small sections for non-swimmers will be arranged so that each student receives individual attention.

Classes in life saving will be arranged for those capable, with the aim of becoming American Red Cross Life Savers.

Hours for open-pool for those who wish extra practice in swimming will be arranged.

FOR WOMEN

101 and 102. General Course. One hour, first and second semesters.

Three hours a week required of all freshmen. The course includes marching tactics, natural gymnastics, corrective gymnastics, games, folk dancing, and swimming. Students are graded on the basis of attendance, effort, and knowledge of the work given.

201 and 202. Advanced Practice. Two hours, first and second semesters.

Four hours a week. Advanced work in gymnastics, apparatus work, games, folk dancing, and swimming. Methods of teaching the various types of activity. Practice teaching by members of the class.

301 and 302. Folk Dancing. One hour, first and second semesters.

Two hours a week throughout the year. The emphasis of the work in this course is primarily on folk dancing, aiming to interpret the spirit of national folk-lore, both in Europe and America.

303 and 304. Natural Dancing. One hour, first and second semesters.

Two hours a week throughout the year. This course aims to present types of dancing based on free and natural movements. Special costume is required.

321 and 322. Athletics for Women. One hour, first and second semesters.

This course deals with the essentials in theory and practice of soccer, volley ball, basket ball, hockey, indoor baseball, tennis, track and field sports, and swimming. Instruction in coaching is given.

FOR MEN

101 and 102. General Course. One hour, first and second semesters. Three hours a week required of all freshmen. This course includes marching, calisthenics, apparatus work, games, and swimming.

201 and 202. Advanced Practice. Two hours, first and second semesters.

Four hours a week. This course is a continuation of 101 and 102, and includes marching, light apparatus, heavy apparatus, games, and swimming, with instruction and practice in leadership.

MUSIC SCHOOL

MILDRED MACGEORGE, Director

This department offers instruction in the following subjects:

1. Piano.
2. Harmony.
3. History of Music.
4. Ear Training.
5. Theory of Music.

PIANO

In piano three courses of study are offered, one leading to a teacher's certificate at the completion of the work of the junior year, and a second one leading to a diploma at the completion of the senior year. A post-graduate course is offered for those who wish to become especially proficient. Strict adherence to a fixed list of studies is not required. The needs of the individual student are considered and the studies varied accordingly, but in each class studies selected must be worked up to the tempo indicated by the metronome mark. Another course based on the Progressive Series of Piano Lessons will be given to those who desire to take it. This course, which includes Theory of Music, Harmony, History of Music, Piano Playing, and Interpretation, is edited by such men as Godowsky, Josef Hofmann, and Edgar Stillman Kelly.

For the sake of convenience the courses are divided into four years, but it should be understood that it does not necessarily follow that a student will complete the work in this length of time. As a matter of fact, it often takes considerably longer.

No student can register for credit who cannot acceptably do the work involved in Piano 201. To ascertain this a practical examination involving major and minor scales played with the accent of four, major arpeggios, and one composition of the degree of difficulty of Grade IV will be given, for example, Grieg's Dance Caprice, Schubert's Allegro Moderato in F, and Godard's Au Matin.

Two hours practice daily with two half-hour lessons a week required in Piano 201 and 202.

Three hours practice daily with two half-hour lessons a week required in Piano 301, 302, 401, 402.

Students registered for credit will be graded in the same way as are college students in general. The classification of a student is based on actual efficiency, not on the amount of time devoted to any grade.

Preparatory Years

Technical exercises. All major and minor scales. All triad arpeggios. Studies by Le Couppey, Burgmuller, Heller, Clementi's Sonatinas. Sonatas by Haydn. Miscellaneous compositions.

Sophomore Year

201. First Semester. One hour.

Technical exercises. All scales in similar and contrary motion. Major scales in tenths, sixths and thirds at tempo of M. M. 112, four notes in one beat. Six major and minor triad arpeggios at tempo of M. M. 112. Bach's Two Part Inventions. Sonatas by Haydn and Mozart. Miscellaneous compositions.

202. Second Semester. One hour.

Technical exercises. All major and minor scales in tenths, sixths and thirds at tempo of M. M. 120. Six more major and minor triad arpeggios at tempo of M. M. 120. Octavo exercises. Bach's Two and Three Part Inventions. The easier sonatas of Beethoven. Miscellaneous compositions.

Junior Year

301. First Semester. One hour.

Technical exercises. Major and minor scales with tenths, sixths and thirds at tempo of M. M. 132. All diminished seventh arpeggios and half of the dominant seventh arpeggios. Tempo of M. M. 132. Kullack's Octave Studies. Studies by Cramer. Sonatas by Weber and Beethoven. Compositions by Chopin, Schumann, Mendelssohn, etc.

302. Second Semester. One hour.

Technical exercises. All major and minor scales in tenths, sixths and thirds in contrary motion. Major and minor scales in similar motion at tempo of M. M. 136. All dominant seventh arpeggios at tempo of M. M. 136. Kullack's Octave studies. Studies by Jensen and Haberier. Sonatas by Beethoven. Chopin's Nocturnes, Waltzes and Polonaises. Bach's Well Tempered Clavichord.

Senior Year

401. First Semester. One hour.

Technical exercises. Major and minor scales in tenths, sixths and thirds at tempo of M. M. 144. Major and minor scales in double thirds. Arpeggios with passing notes. Octave studies. Studies by Kessler, Henselt, Foote, MacDowell, Concertos by Weber, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Schytte, etc.

402. Second Semester. One hour.

Technical exercises. All major and minor scales in tenths, sixths and thirds at tempo of M. M. 154. All major and minor scales in double thirds. Studies by Chopin and Debussy. Concertos by Beethoven, Schumann, Liszt, etc.

Graduate Year

Advanced technical exercises. Scales in double sixths. The greater sonatas of Beethoven. Bach's Chromatic Fantasia and Fugue. Studies by Chopin and Liszt. Chopin's Ballads, Scherzos and Polonaises. Concertos by Schumann, Liszt, Rubinstein, Brahms, etc.

HARMONY

The course in Harmony covers two years. The work of the first year covers the first 116 pages of Carolyn A. Alchin's "Applied Harmony," together with practical work at the piano. See Public School Music Courses.

First Year. Intervals, scales, harmonization of melodies with triads, dominant seventh and dominant ninth chords and their inversions, suspensions and other bytones, using the tonic, dominant, subtonic, subdominant and supertonic harmonies. Transposition of cadences.

Second Year. Harmonization of more difficult melodies introducing the submediant and mediant harmonies and chromatic chords. Modulation in various ways.

HISTORY OF MUSIC

Work in History of Music and Appreciation is begun at the opening of the fourth year and is required throughout the junior and senior years as a part of the course. The class recites twice a week during the junior year and once a week during the senior year.

The first year's work is a general survey of music and musicians from the ancient days up to and including modern times.

The second year's work deals in detail with the most important biographies of composers and the analysis of special forms of composition.

Text-book: Hamilton's Outlines of Music History. Also supplementary reading from the many valuable reference books in the library is required.

THEORY OF MUSIC

Theory of music, including such subjects as Scale Building, Time Values, Meter, Phrases, Phrasing, Form, etc., will be given in class lessons, or, where that is not practicable, at the individual lesson.

MUSIC REQUIREMENTS

All music students except those in the Preparatory Year are required to take one semester in Elementary Theory.

One semester's work in Ear Training and Public School Music 312 (Preparatory Harmony) are required before entering any class in Harmony. This work must be taken not later than the Sophomore music year. No student may graduate in piano without having first completed a high school course.

Elementary work in Harmony and in History of Music is required as a part of the work of the Sophomore Music year.

Candidates for Teachers' Certificates in Piano must complete the work of the first four years, together with one year's work in Harmony and one year's work in History of Music. They must be able to read music accurately at sight in reference to fingering, time, notes, phrasing, and expression. They must also be able to play at least one given piece studied without the aid of the instructor.

They must also give a recital from memory, with the assistance of one other musician.

Candidates for Diplomas must complete the work of the five years, and must take advanced work in Harmony, Theory and History of Music. They are also required to give in public, entirely from memory, a recital consisting of only the best standard piano selections as well as one composition studied without the aid of the instructor.

Sample programme for a Senior Recital:

Sonata, Op. 28..... Beethoven

Dance of the Elves..... Sapellnikoff
La Campanella..... Liszt

NOTES

Fees: All fees are payable in advance per semester or term, according to when the student enters.

No deductions are made for absences except in cases of illness lasting more than three weeks when a rebate of three-fourths the fee for the time lost will be granted. Students enrolling at any time previous to the third week of any semester will be charged the full fee for that semester. Students enrolling thereafter will be charged a proportionate amount of the full fee.

All students must secure registration cards from the Registrar's office before presenting themselves for enrollment in the School of Music. Teachers are not permitted to give instruction until receipt for payment of fees is presented.

Individual instruction in instrumental or vocal music may be taken by students not otherwise connected with the college.

Equipment: A new two-story brick building has this year been added to the equipment of the School of Music. It contains a well-lighted recital hall having a seating capacity of about two hundred people, and eight commodious rooms, three of which have been converted into attractive studios and the remainder into practice rooms. There are eight upright pianos, one Parlor Grand Steinway (a recent acquisition) and one clavier.

Recitals: Five faculty recitals, open to the public without charge, are given within the year, each recital being rendered by some one member of the music faculty.

Student recitals, also open to the general public, are held at frequent intervals during the college year. All music students are required to attend both the faculty and the student recitals.
