DEDICATION

If the building pictured above looks unfamiliar, don't worry about it. It is what the construction now going on between the Library and the Music Building will look like when completed. This building is to be a new Science Hall. It will be the finest and costliest school building in the state of West Virginia. But it is more than just that. It is another step toward a bigger and better Marshall. This building is part of a major expansion program planned for the college. To this new Science Hall and to the Marshall of the future we humbly dedicate this book.

WE'VE COME A LONG WAY

Background and History

The founders of this school could not have given it a more suitable name than that of Marshall, for John Marshall was a man of the highest type. He was strong in character and believed in fighting for right. He stands as an example of courage, perseverance, and self-sacrifice.

The son of Thomas Marshall, John was the eldest of fifteen children. At an early age he showed high intellectual ability and at the age of 24 he had already won recognition as one of the greatest lawyers of his day.

Marshall was elected to the General Assembly of Virginia in 1782. In 1799 he took a seat in the United States House of Representatives, but resigned to accept the appointment of Secretary of State. President Adams appointed him Chief Justice of the Supreme Court on January 31, 1801. Marshall took office on February 4, 1801, thus beginning the reign of our greatest Chief Justice.

That he was our greatest Chief Justice no one denies. His record in that office stands far beyond reproach. His decisions and judgments played a major role in the democratic system we know today. John Marshall was truly one of the great founders of our nation.

The memory of John Marshall should serve as an inspiration to the students of this college, for his service to humanity will never be forgotten.

Two years after John Marshall's death in 1835, citizens of Cabell County gathered at the home of John Laidley one summer afternoon to make arrangements to found a prep school so that the county's young men could be prepared for a better way of living.

On March 13, 1838, the Virginia Assembly passed an "Act to incorporate the Marshall Academy." The original school consisted of one two-story building and had two departments—a primary school and the classical department, which included courses in languages and mathematics.

Students of Marshall Academy were prepared for teaching positions and college work. Success of the institution prompted the Virginia Assembly to extend the academic status of the school to the college level. Thus on March 3, 1858, Marshall College was established.

The first full college faculty was made up of five members. Out of the Civil War the state of West Virginia was born and in 1867 Marshall became the state's first normal school. From this point progress was somewhat slow and it wasn't until 1920 that the State Board of Education gave Marshall power to grant an A. B. degree in education. Three years later the college of Arts and Sciences conferred its first degree, and in August 1938 the first Bachelor of Science Degree was authorized. Bachelor of Engineering Sciences degrees were added in 1940.

Graduate work in six fields was offered in 1938 and in the space of ten years this program has grown into a full graduate school, conferring both Master of Arts and Master of Sciences degrees.

—BUT WE'VE JUST BEGUN TO GROW

Ten-Year Program

Ground was broken last fall for a new $2,000,000 science hall between the James E. Morrow Library and the Music Hall, getting the 10-year expansion and improvement plan for Marshall well under way.

The program is designed to give the college a plant to accommodate an enrollment of 4,000 students—about 1,200 more than at present. The "Greater Marshall" project will cost an estimated $4,000,000.

To facilitate the expansion, the college hopes to acquire new land which, President Stewart H. Smith says, would cost about a half-million dollars. The master landscape plan includes the addition of two city blocks—the block between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets and Fifth and Virginia avenues, and the square bounded by Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets and Fifth and College avenues.

The new ground to the east would be used for an elaborate physical education building to cost about one million dollars. Other construction would include a $1,200,000, three-building dormitory unit and health center. Two of the dorms would be for women and the third, to be built on the new land to the south, would be for men.

The physical education plant is to include a large building, a quarter-mile cinder track, football practice field and other facilities.

Work on the master expansion plan was initiated two years ago by Dr. John D. Williams, then president of the college. Since that time, the legislature has appropriated sufficient funds for the new science hall, but money to finance the construction of other buildings and much of the landscaping program still is to be made available.

Among major changes to be made in the "face-lifting" operation is elimination of the present roadway from Sixteenth street through the southwest campus. A walk leading to Old Main would take its place.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We bid you a friendly welcome to Marshall. If you have come here with a real desire to grow morally, culturally and spiritually, and to prepare yourself to be of greater service to your fellow man, then you are doubly welcome. We want you to understand from the start that the college cannot educate you. You must educate yourself by using the facilities and resources which we provide.

Your college stands for certain principles and believes in sound ideals and values. It stands for a square deal to everyone and holds that each must respect the rights of the other. Your college believes that a sound economy is basic to the American way of life and that such an economy will be restored when everybody is willing to work more, produce more, save more, spend less, loaf less and talk less. At Marshall College we believe that a man shall have but one flag—that of the land in which he lives, and that he must respect that flag and the institutions and the laws of the country that it represents, or get out.

Marshall College is going forward. It is making great progress physically and academically. We expect that you will make a contribution to this progress. We expect that you are going to be an active working member, not content to view from the sidelines what others are doing, but willing to put your shoulder to the wheel and do your share in building a greater Marshall.

Sincerely yours,

STEWART H. SMITH, President.

THE CABINET . . .

Our president has no "vices" (vice-presidents, of course). But he does have a few key people in what is known as his "cabinet" to help him carry out the college's administrative program.

Each college has a dean. (That makes three in all—Arts and Science, Teachers and Graduate.) These fellows are known as "academic" deans. Then each sex has a dean. They are known as the "social" deans. We also have a registrar, whose job, oddly enough, is registering. And we have a comptroller, who takes care of "the book."

And that is the faculty cabinet. But, here they are in person:

Dean of Teachers College.
Potential disseminators of text-book knowledge are in his realm.

John Frank Bartlett, Ph.D.
Dean of Arts and Science College.
Bus. Ad., "pre" courses, engineering, science, and
"LIBERAL" arts, are his domain.

Lillian Helms Buskirk,
M. A.
Dean of the "fair but not so weak" sex.

Lester G. Brailey,
Dean of Men.
Dean of the mighty males.

Arvil E. Harris, Ph.D.
Dean of Graduate School.
He takes care of people who haven't had enough in four years.

Luther E. Bledsoe, M.A.
Registrar.
Records are his business

Fred R. Smith, A.B.
Comptroller.
He has loads of funds
(We hope).

A 50/50 PROPOSITION

You are about to embark on one of the biggest adventures of your life, your college career.

For most of you it is something new and different. You are on your own for the first time. You will meet many experiences that you haven't known before. Some will be pleasant and some may not be easy to take. At any rate we hope things will not be too difficult. This handbook is presented to acquaint you with your school, Marshall College, with the hope that you will quickly become familiar with Marshall and that the information given herein will prove beneficial in smoothing out the rough spots in your orientation to college life.

You will find that college life is made up of many things, some serious and others not so serious. Both are essential to make your stay here worthwhile. At Marshall you are offered an excellent education, lots of fun, all the friends you want, and most important, the opportunity to find the way to a prosperous and happy life. You will be given a lot of help in gaining these goals, but it is a 50-50 proposition—you must do your share.

Just how these things can be obtained is explained on the following pages. Read this book carefully. It will prove highly valuable to you.

As we have said before it won't be easy, but we feel sure you can make it. Stay in there and keep punching. And the best of luck.

Orientation Program

THE FIRST WEEK IS THE HARDEST

You're kinda new around here, aren't you? Well, don't get lost. If you give us half a chance, we'll show you the ropes. At least that's what Freshman Week was intended for.

This first week at good old Marshall will be the roughest. You have to get moved into the dorm. And then there's a get-to-gether the first Sunday evening. The next day all the newcomers assemble in the college auditorium. Instructions as to how to get there are listed elsewhere in this book. But it won't be too hard to find as it's the biggest room in the biggest building on the campus. Take your pick. There'll probably be a lot of other first-year students looking for it too. So team up with some one and maybe you'll find it.

This first assembly (as the deans prefer it to be called) is ultra, top priority and absolutely important. If you don't attend, you might get banished to Siberia. And furthermore you'll miss meeting the folks who run this noble institution.

Most of the business of registering and so forth will be explained at this first assembly. You'll get a guy or gal (preferably referred to as a "man or woman") to guide you and about thirty of your buddies around the campus during the week. This individual will be wearing a green—I said GREEN—guide ribbon. You can't miss it. It looks like all the other green ribbons that the good cloth makers manufacture. So look for it. The dear soul who's wearing it can answer a lot of your questions. He or she will give you the low-down on many things including the location of the nearest emporium of poolology or "soft" drink stand. It's one acquaintance you want to be sure to make.

During the next two days you'll get lectures, placement tests, aptitude tests, psycho tests and a myriad of other tests. And when you think you've had about all there is, there'll be more. But it isn't really hard work. It's fun (we keep saying to ourselves because the faculty is pointing a big gun at us).

And then—at last!!—you get a breather. That is, you can actually stop living and DROP DEAD! (We don't mean it literally). But, if these first few days haven't forced you to give up and go back to the farm, there's a little entertainment in store. Usually it's a dance at the Student Union. And sometimes the various campus groups actually put on a variety show for you.

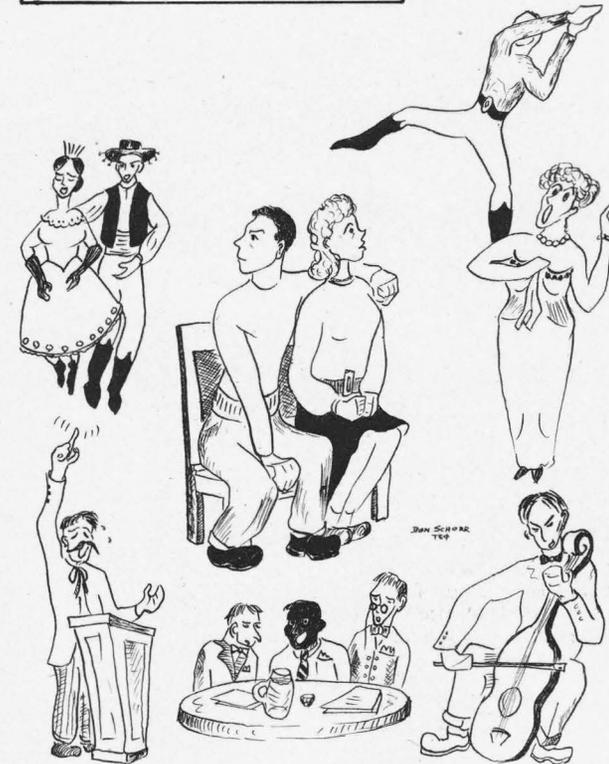

But then, it starts all over. You have to register. And interspersed with the registration will be a few social activities and entertainment features planned by the Student Council to keep you from being too bored.

By registration (see Webster's unabridged) we mean you sign up for classes and pay your tuition and fees. The major part of this is accomplished by filling out a little book with a million pages and blanks. (Your hospitalization plan covers all hand and finger rehabilitation. But it's not hard. And your counselor (assigned to you at the first assembly—we hope) will help you. Most of this—especially the personal details part—can be filled out in advance.

And the best place to do that is in the Union over a coke or at the Corner. Your schedule (see Webster's unabridged again) is worked out in advance. And your counselor will be of invaluable assistance. A trial schedule is usually filled out first. It's the only one on which you can make changes. Otherwise you might need a new registration book for which there is a "slight" charge. Picking your professors is a big problem. But the upperclassmen can steer you right on that. And more than likely you've heard about some of this already from an older brother or sister. All this is supposed to take place in the library (which is the SECOND biggest building on the campus). And it can be done in four SIMPLE steps. (1.) Take your trial schedule and get it initialed by each of the profs you've picked. They usually do this quite cheerfully. (2.) Then take it back to your counselor for approval, who usually tells you you've taken the wrong classes. But you can tell him that he helped you pick them, and you've got him stumped. (3.) The next step is simple: just FILL IN THE BLANKS in the registration book. It shouldn't take more than eight or ten hours unless you've had a head start. And, finally, (4.) take the completed book to the checkers. They will route you to the treasurer's office where you can pay for the education you are about to receive. From him you get a receipt for dad's hard-earned money and a little card which will admit you to a lot of events—including the football games! Of course, you'll have to hang on to your trial schedule too. Otherwise you won't know where to go the first day of classes. AND THAT'S THAT.

Now, all you have to do is amuse yourself until classes start. You can be sharp and ask your profs what books they'll use in the classes and start buying your texts at the bookstore (if you can get in). Or, you can just loaf and drum up a few acquaintances, or attend the various social functions planned in your honor. The preceding four or five days were the roughest. They saw you get started in Marshall College. And we know you won't be sorry.

ARTIST SERIES
COMMUNITY FORUM
SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES

WE'RE JUST FULL OF CULTURE

Cultural Activities:

The tops in cultural activities is centered around the Marshall College Community Forum and Artist's Series arranged by Mr. Curtis Baxter. The programs include speakers, actors, musicians and persons outstanding in their field. Admission to the programs is by activity card for students.

The Forum presentations are held in the College Auditorium, the Artist's Series programs are in the Keith-Albee theater downtown, a matinee performance is given only for students.

Cornelia Otis Skinner returns to the campus for the first Forum on October 19, Miss Skinner is nationally known for original character sketches. Other outstanding personages on the Forum are: John Mason Brown, drama critic; Morris Fishbein, editor of "Journal of the American Medical Association"; Carl Van Doren, author, and Archibald MacLeish, distinguished statesman, diplomat and poet.

The Artist's Series list Fred Waring and his Orchestra, Lauritz Melchior, Metropolitan opera star and the Ballet Theater and other top musical attractions.

There are several other cultural groups for your entertainment on the campus. They are:

College Theatre:

The College Theatre under the direction of Clayton R. Page of the speech department presents several great productions each year. This is the answer to hopeful thespians. Any student is able to try for a role or stage job, from curtain pullers to heavy dramatic roles. Active participation in stage work may lead to membership in Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic society.

College Assemblies:

Every Thursday morning at 9 A. M. during the school year an assembly program is held in the auditorium. The first will be the welcome address of President Stewart H. Smith and continue through the year to the Awards Assembly in the spring. Outside speakers are brought in at various times and this year Mr. Curtis Baxter has arranged for twelve outstanding programs which include singers, dancers, musicians and others. The Student Council also sponsors four programs a year such as pep rallies and recognition awards.

Religious Life:

The city of Huntington has a great number of churches of all denominations and students are always welcome to attend. The religious life on the campus is centered in the various organizations such as the Baptist Student Federation, Lutheran Student Association, Hillel and Newman Club. In February the college will sponsor its first "Life Planning Week," at this time able speakers representing all faiths will be on the campus and carry on a round table forum. All problems pertaining to religion and life will be discussed and participation is welcomed.

Art:

Whether or not one is an art enthusiast, a trip to the art department is an enjoyable excursion. Professor Joseph Jablonski, head of the department, announces that this year there will be several exhibitions of America's foremost artists. In addition to this, each Spring there is an exhibit of works by the students of art. Sculpture, oils and water colors, together with free-hand in charcoal and other mediums make the principle portions of this exhibition of Marshall College's artistic talent.

Madrigal Club:

The mixed chorus of the Madrigal Club is one of the groups that has made Marshall known throughout the area. Last year the chorus made several appearances in the Tri-State which were very well received. The Madrigal Club is directed by Dr. Harry Mueller, head of the music department. Two concerts are given for the student body, the Christmas concert and the Spring concert. Any aspiring singer may try for a spot in this group.

Band:

Every one is proud of the "Big Green" band which will make its Fall debut in new uniforms. This is the first year for the nattily attired musicians to show at football games the recently purchased uniforms. Musicians are welcomed to play in the band which is under the direction of Earl D. Workman. The band plays for pep rallies, athletic events and for concerts downtown.

THE WEARERS OF THE GREEN ATHLETICS

Varsity Sports

Coach Cam Henderson's Marshall football and basketball warriors are known far and wide for their fine achievements. We at Marshall are proud of our athletic records and it is rightly so. Coach Henderson is known as "Crafty Cam" and for good reason. He has a knack of making great ball teams out of small squads of unknown boys.

His pigskin elevens rank with the best of schools the size of Marshall. This season great things are expected from the gridgers, as only a handful of last Fall's squad, which dropped only two decisions in 11 starts, won't be back. The fine record compiled by last year's team won them a bid to the New Year's Day Tangerine Bowl tilt at Orlando, Fla., where they played a great game before falling to undefeated Catawba, 7 to 0.

The "Thundering Herd" eleven this season will be co-captained by shifty wingback Chuck Fieldson and Claude Miller, an outstanding guard. Others heavily counted upon include Don Gibson, veteran end and blocking back, and fullback Marvin Wetzel, who was the third highest point-maker in the nation a year ago.

Whether last year's record will be equaled remains to be seen, but it won't be easy. Athletic Director Luther Poling has lined up one of the toughest schedules ever faced by a Marshall team, the biggest contest being against Vanderbilt University at Knoxville, Tenn., on..... Other tough foes include Miami, (Ohio), Xavier, Dayton, Canisius and Murray.

Marshall's feats on the basketball court have brought fame to the school. Coach Henderson's "Big Green" teams have compiled a record as fine as any small school in the nation. Marshall uses the fast break to perfection and has a razzle-dazzle passing system that can't be beat.

After getting off to a slow start, last year's Big Green team came through with another great year. They dropped six of the first eight games, but then caught on fire and won the Los Angeles Invitational Tournament. They defeated West Texas, University of Idaho and Syracuse University to grab the title. After that, they were hard to stop and ended up with a season record of 22 wins against 10 defeats.

The Big Green went to Kansas City for the NAIB tournament, which they had won the year before, and provided lots of thrills for the fans before bowing out to San Jose State (Calif.) in an overtime thriller in the second round.

Only one man from last year's team will be missing this time. Andy Tonkovich, one of Marshall's greats has graduated, but big things can be expected of the 1948-49 five. Three veteran campaigners, Bill Toothman, Gene James and Bob Wright will lead the way this season. Toothman and James, along with Tonkovich, won honorable mention on the Associated Press' All-American team last season.

Three other varsity sports, baseball, track and tennis, were revived after a war time layoff last Spring, and they did pretty well considering it was their first year.

The baseball team lost some tough decisions in the beginning of the season, but they ended strong and finished third in the West Virginia Conference race. Since practically the entire squad will be back, great things are expected this year.

The tennis team finished the year with four wins and as many losses, which was very good considering the calibre of competition they faced.

The track and field squad failed to win a meet, but they were greatly hindered by practice conditions. Even at that they produced some steady point-makers. With a year of experience behind them, the tracksters are bound to do better this Spring.

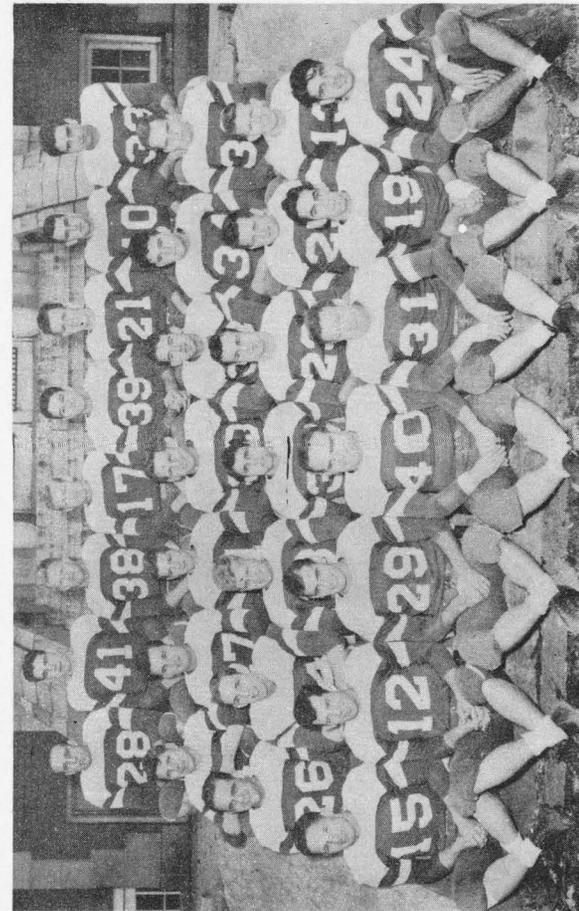

YOU TOO CAN BE AN ATHLETE

Intramural Athletics

Ya' like to participate in sports? You'll get all you want at Marshall, for the school has as complete an intramural program as any college we've heard of. And there is something for everyone, no matter what their taste may be.

The men's intramural program, directed by capable Professor Otto "Swede" Gullickson, includes just about every sport that could possibly be arranged—touch football, basketball, softball, swimming, tennis, volley ball, hand ball, ping pong, badminton, and scores of minor sports on down to checkers and bridge.

You might think that with so much going on that things might be apt to become a bit confusing, but actually the program is run off very smoothly. Mr. Gullickson, with the aid of the Intramural Board, headed by Charles Kautz, does a great job with a really difficult task.

The girls get their chance, too. Although their activities don't range quite so widely as do the mens, there is plenty for the athletically inclined lassie to do. The Woman's Athletic Association keeps things running on an even keel, and does a grand job of it.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM

KEEP UP WITH THE LATEST GOSSIP PUBLICATIONS

You can't tell the players without a scorecard. Neither can you know the score around Marshall unless you keep hep to the latest scoop in our campus publications. Our bi-weekly newspaper is called the Parthenon. It is written, edited and managed by students in the journalism department. It is really their laboratory course. Sports news, election news, fraternity news, society, and the whole array of campus features are routine items for the Parthenon staff. It is free (you pay for it in your fees) and you just pick up a copy off a convenient stand as you pass through Old Main or the Union. If you want to congratulate or throttle the editor, just go to the basement of the Library and ask for Elmer Todd. He is on duty 23½ hours a day—some days.

We had a mighty nice year book in '48 and are looking forward to even bigger things in '49. With a reminiscing eye toward John Marshall the year-book carries the name "The Chief Justice." This book isn't free and you'll be beating off salesmen (until you can produce a receipt as evidence that you have succumbed) starting in the Fall—so you need no ballyhoo about the virtues of the book here.

There are numerous other papers and bulletins that emanate from interest groups who are enthusiastic about their phase of the campus scene and are proud to tell others. The IFC News, an inter-fraternity bi-weekly newsletter was well done by Bill Hussian last year. Some very favorable comment followed each issue of The Hall, a publication of Hodges Hall edited last year by Earl Kirker and this year by Heik Davitian. At election time and on other special occasions great reams of promises and accusations emanate from campus political parties (usually the Greeks and Independents) and interested by-standers.

Taking it all into consideration—you may be asked, from time to time—(by a prof) to read a dull textbook. But if you don't have enough to read at their suggestion—you'll still find plenty of high grade literature around.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Freshmen:

A hearty welcome is extended to you and a wish that your stay at Marshall be a pleasant one. There are many opportunities available for you to participate in the activities on the campus; by taking advantage of these your college life will be more full and complete. As your spirit grows, the spirit of the college increases, and your full cooperation is needed to make Marshall grow.

Carl R. Fisher

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

The Student Council

The Student Council serves as the student government during the regular school year with the main purpose of carrying out policies for the betterment of the student body and of the college.

The student body president, (who is also the council president) class presidents, and representatives from the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes compose the council. The constitution of the student body serves as a guide for decisions and commitments. An election, which is conducted by the election board made up of hold-over council members and faculty members appointed by the president of the college, is held each Spring for the Student Council which will serve the following year.

Many traditional campus activities are sponsored by the Student Council such as the Homecoming Festivities, Sadie Hawkins Day and the Spring Carnival. The council also selects the editor in chief and business manager for the yearbook, "Chief Justice," and it is responsible for its publication.

During the year many informal functions are held by the council for the student body among which are the Wednesday night mixes in the Greenhouse, pep rallies and dances for the visiting athletic teams.

The regular meetings of the Student Council are held each Monday evening throughout the school year and they are always open for any student wishing to attend. This year, Lester G. Brailey, dean of men, is the faculty adviser for the council.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL HAS AGREED ON SIX FRESHMEN RULES FOR 1948-49

1. Wear freshmen caps. (This rule is optional for veterans).
2. Wear name plates.
3. Attend all pep rallies and student assemblies.
4. Speak to all students.
5. Do not cut campus.
6. Sit in "M" block at all football games.

The above rules will be enforced by the Student Court and Phi Eta Sigma, freshmen honor society.

HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE

That new law permitting more "displaced persons" to enter the country has no connection with all the talk about "Greeks" on our campus. Actually that's just the title offered to describe the members of the eight fraternities and seven sororities on our campus. (Their names are listed below.)

The "Greeks" are social groups, most of which are connected with a national organization. Keep your eyes open for the announcement of rush season which starts shortly after school opens.

The "Independents" is the social and political organization which restricts itself to non-Greeks. At election time they furnish the opposition (sometimes too much) for the Greeks. (They lost last year.) This group also has its parties and entertainments but usually on a smaller scale.

As you get around the campus you will hear the best and worst about groups. Our advice is to use the "scientific approach"—investigate each group carefully and then hook up with the one that will do you the most good. But—for goodness sake—hook on to one of them.

STAY ON THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW

The President is the last word as far as rules and regulations on the campus are concerned. However, he depends a great deal on the councils and committees to help him set policies and in many cases allows exceptions. One of these councils is the Student Council which arranges for traditional events, makes up fantastic doodads like "Freshman Rules," and all sorts of stuff.

Another council that you read about from Prexy Kirker may enter the picture, yes, the College Council. That is an all-faculty-administration board which says "aye" or "nay" on petitions for exceptions to graduation requirements, has a final vote on recognition of student organizations and shows an indisposition to use its authority to change a grade once it has been recorded by the professor.

The Student Activities Committee is about half students and half faculty. They are the killjoys who require dances to close at the appointed hour, require chaperones at social events, demand that your organizations have an adviser, etc. They just hunt up things to make life difficult for the students. Before the first week is over you will be presented with a booklet about the size of this one which you really should read. It contains the last word in standards for student activities. Seriously, the committee knows it can't make rules that will make you either good or bad. You have to do that all on your own.

It does try to get you to suppress your ornery moods and express your more gracious inspirations. Keep the booklet and—if you wonder what's best—look inside and you'll find it, I'll bet.

THE VETS HAVE RULES, TOO

All veterans who are going to school under the GI Bill of Rights must meet the standards of the Veterans Administration. You vets will probably need advice on such matters as how long can you stay around or why your check is two weeks overdue. Well, you haven't so far to go to gain this information. We have an office right here on the campus. It is room 212, Music building. Go when the need arises; they'll be glad to help you. That's what it is there for.

There are certain rules that veterans must follow. One is that he cannot attend school and draw unemployment compensation. So don't try it. Also, since the government is paying your way, it expects you to attend classes. The VA gets a report on absences and too many cuts may lead to trouble. To draw full compensation a student must carry at least 12 hours. Remember the VA is your boss and it expects you to follow regulations. Keep in close contact with the officials, follow their advice, and you will get along fine.

FOR THOSE WHO EXCEL—

In addition to the social organizations on the campus, there are 8 honor societies of which only one is open to freshmen. Phi Eta Sigma organized last year is open to freshmen who have made a 2.5 average or better during their first semester in college. If you see a Joe boy who is humped over from the weight of his key chain—well—he probably has been honored by one or more of them.

The Beta Lambda circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, was formed to recognize leadership, and to bring together faculty and student leaders to increase mutual understanding and interest. ODK is open to juniors and seniors, and candidates must have maintained at least a 1.5 average for the two semesters preceding the initiation, they must have shown leadership in at least two fields of activity and must be approved by the circle.

Chi Beta Phi is open to both men and women who have at least 20 semester hours of "B" or better in natural sciences and in mathematics. This is the largest honorary organization on the campus in number of members.

D-Rho D-Theta, whose name is based on a common formula used by engineers, has as its purpose the recognition of outstanding engineering students and the fostering of scholarship. For eligibility, a student must fulfill certain requirements in that field and must have a general average of 2.00 or higher.

Kappa Delta Pi is an honorary society in education with chapters in 131 institutions, the local chapter, the 21st, was established in 1923.

The newest honorary organization on the campus is Sigma Delta Pi, a national Spanish honor fraternity. It was organized this year to foster interest in Spanish and to reward special attainments and interests. A member must have to his credit three years of Spanish with an average of "B" or better.

Students interested in dramatics have a chance to make Alpha Psi Omega, an honorary fraternity formed in 1925 by Professor E. Turner Stump of Marshall and Dr. Paul E. Opp of Fairmont State College to promote college dramatics. The Beta chapter is at Marshall. To be eligible, a student must have acted in at least three plays, and must have done work in at least two other fields of play production. Both men and women are eligible.

Recently installed on the campus is Psi Chi, national psychological honor society. Membership is open to those who have 12 hours of psychology of 2.00 average and who are in the top half of their class academically.

THE PAST LIVES AGAIN

Some of our best traditions are just stories that are passed down from one Marshall generation to the next. You won't believe them the first time you hear them. But, by the time you get to be a senior and are telling them yourself, you'll be convinced of the truth of every last detail.

We do have some good showy traditional events. In the Fall it is Sadie Hawkins' Day and Homecoming. The former is a Li'l Abner-Daisy Mae shindig that varies from year to year in makeup but is always an orgy of fun followed by a semi-formal (that means the fellows don't wear shoes) dance. No loyal Marshall student can ever remember a Homecoming when we lost the big football game, or when there weren't a couple thousand or so of the world's most beautiful women at the dance on that night. Actually it is a pageant of beautiful and original floats and decorations, a bangup football game (this year we play John Carroll) and a semi-formal dance open to all with one of the better bands.

One of our nicest social events last year was the Junior-Senior Prom, held last year in May, with Dreamland's open air pavilion as a setting and Bobby Sherwood's orchestra. The Seniors had an evening that will long linger in their memories. Actually it is primarily for juniors and seniors but you don't have to be too apt at the art of hocus-pocus to lay hands on a pair of ducats.

Life Planning Week was mentioned earlier, a week where the emphasis is on the religious aspects of the college student's life. To make this a success, the University Christian Mission and other religious groups are bringing scientists, political leaders, sociologists and youth leaders to the campus to lead group discussions on life planning during this, one of our great school weeks. You'll find the week of February 13-18 set aside on the calendar.

Only the trickiest broken field runners escape being dragged into the voting booths for the Spring campus elections. The announcement of the results of the voting is one of the highlights of the ANNUAL AWARDS ASSEMBLY held during the third week of April. Other features of this event, which is sponsored and organized by Omicron Delta Kappa, are the issuance of awards to deserving candidates who have reached places of recognition during the school year. Numerous academic awards are bestowed by civic organizations. The athletic director and coaches present varsity awards. The intramural winners are recognized. And so on and so on. We just want you to get the idea that it is really a gala event not to be by-passed for a coke at the Union.

MAKE THE CITY YOUR CAMPUS

For you who have a few hours spare time and wish to look the town over, Huntington has everything to offer from air transportation to horesback riding.

Huntington's "Broadway" is about seven blocks down Fourth Avenue, west of Old Main. There are five movie theaters located there, with several more scattered over different sections of the town.

City buses will take you to almost any part of town, and there are also two efficient cab companies here, if you can afford to use them. Cars can be rented for the week-end excursion or just to drive around town in. Cincinnati, Lexington, and Columbus are a few hours drive from here if you're looking for more excitement.

For you who have the time and money for expensive night clubbing, across the bridge in Ohio offers some of the best entertainment to be found in most places much larger than this.

Huntington has almost every fraternal and civic organization in existence to offer you. They offer everyone a chance to make friends and enjoy the comforts of a lodge or clubhouse.

Two private golf clubs garnish our fair city. To get in, you'll have to find a member and go out as his guest. Bowling alleys are plentiful and there are several riding academies listed in the phone book.

Some of the most beautiful churches in the state are located here in Huntington. They're always well-filled but still are happy to welcome you into their group.

As for shopping, Huntington can offer you almost any number of specialty shops and department stores. They're all located in the same area as the main theaters.

To find your way around, just remember: the avenues run east to west and are numbered beginning at the river. The streets run north to south and are numbered in both directions from First Street, which is fifteen blocks west of the campus.

There isn't much else. Huntington has about all the facilities that a town of 80,000 should have. Four radio stations are included in this with two of them FM.

For more information—it's more fun finding out for yourself—just read the daily papers, of which there are two; one morning and the other afternoon. The Parthenon, our school paper, comes out at noon on Wednesdays and Fridays so scan it for any later news.

ALMA MATER

Marshall, gracious Alma Mater

We thy name revere;

May each noble son and daughter

Cherish thine honor dear.

May thy lamp be ever bright,

Guiding us to truth and light;

As a beacon o'er dark water

This is for thee our prayer.

May the years be kind to Marshall

May she grow in fame;

May her children fail her never,

True to her beacon flame.

May her spirit brave and strong

Honor right and conquer wrong;

This the burden of our song,

Ever her truth proclaim.

SONS OF MARSHALL

Marching 'along we sing a song
 Of a very famous man;
 They named our college for him because
 That's the kind of a man he was.
 Revolution to constitution,
 His rise to fame began;
 He was the third Chief Justice
 And a true American.

CHORUS: We are the Sons of Marshall;
 Sons of the great John Marshall.
 Year after year we go to Marshall College
 Cheering for the team
 And gaining lots of knowledge.
 Proudly we wear our colors,
 Love and loyalty to pledge.
 Sure from far and near you'll always hear "the Wearin' of the Green".
 But it's the Green and White of Marshall College.

MARSHALL FIGHT SONG

Fight, fight, fight, for the Green and White
 Fight, fight, fight, with all your might;
 Hold 'em, hold 'em, hold 'em.
 And we will celebrate tonight.
 M A R S H A double L
 We're for you, you know darn well,
 The eyes of Marshall are upon you
 Fight for the Green and White.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT BODY OF MARSHALL COLLEGE

Huntington, West Virginia

Preamble

We, the regularly enrolled students of Marshall College, comprising the Student Body of Marshall College, in order to encourage cooperation in the work of student government, to uphold the highest standard of honor and integrity in all matters of personal conduct, to strengthen cordial relations between faculty and students, to enact and enforce laws according to the grant of powers listed herein, to provide for the adequate and effective expression of the opinion of the Student Body in all matters of general college interest, do hereby ordain and establish this constitution for student government at Marshall College.

ARTICLE I—LEGISLATIVE

Section 1. All executive and legislative powers herein granted shall be under the direction of the President of the Student Body and the several members of the Student Council, elected as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. The several members of the Student Council shall be:

(a) Three representatives, to serve for a term of one year, elected by and from the first semester Freshmen as hereinafter provided in Article I, Section 3, Sections (a) and (e).

(b) Four representatives, one to serve for a term of two years and three for a term of one year, elected by and from the outgoing Freshman Class to serve during their Sophomore year.

(c) Three representatives, two to serve for a term of two years and one for a term of one year, elected by and from the Sophomore Class to serve during their Junior year, thereby making a total of three holdover members and a total of four members to serve during their Junior year.

(d) Three representatives, each to serve for a term of one year, elected from and by the Junior Class to serve during their Senior year.

(e) The four class presidents will serve as members of the Council a term of one year elected from their respective classes.

Sec. 3. Representatives to the Student Council shall be elected as follows:

(a) In order to run for any Student Council office, a student shall submit an application, at least two weeks prior to election day, to his respective social dean, who will investigate the qualifications which are as follows:

(1) He must be a bona fide student.

(2) He must, at the time of filing an application, be a member of the outgoing class preceding the class he is to represent. If these requirements are met and approved, the student's name will be submitted to the Election Board to be placed on the ballot.

(b) The Election Board shall consist of the holdover members of the Student Council, a faculty member appointed by the President of the College, who shall be chairman of the Board, and the President of the Student Body, as an ex-officio member with a vote only in case of tie.

(c) The Election Board shall submit the list of qualified nominees to the incumbent Student Body president one week prior to the election day, at which time the president will call a special student assembly where the qualified candidates shall be announced to the Student Body. The election board shall conduct the election and shall appoint two students from each class and a faculty member for each class to supervise the election. Each candidate shall be entitled to one challenge within the voting place and is to meet with the election board at the time the ballots are counted. Each class shall have a separate voting place.

(d) The election shall be held by secret ballot from 9 to 4 the third Wednesday in April in the following manner: Each voter shall have a ballot and may cast one vote for as many candidates as there are positions to be filled from his class. The ballot shall carry such information as the election board may deem advisable and necessary to the proper marking of the ballot. In all cases all names of candidates shall be listed alphabetically. In the counting of the votes the candidates (or those candidates) who shall receive a greater number of votes than any other candidate for the position (or positions) to be filled, shall be elected. The ballot shall in no way indicate party affiliation.

(e) Election for first semester Freshmen matriculating in the fall shall be held from 10 till 2 one week after the announcement of the nominees by the election board and in the manner stipulated above—Article I, Section 2 (a) and Article I, Section 3 (a).

(f) The voter shall present his name to the faculty member appointed under the provision of Article I, Section 3 (c). The faculty members shall have at the polling place a list of qualified students. If the prospective voter's name as presented by him appears on the list and if he is able to give such information as may be demanded by the faculty adviser (information which must prove identical with that on the voting list) to prove his identity in that which he claims to be (the decision resting with the Election Board) he shall be permitted to vote. Seniors graduating before the following September (as listed by the academic deans), post-graduates, and students not regularly enrolled shall not be allowed to vote for any candidate for student office.

(g) The Election Board shall count the votes immediately after the election. All protests shall be filed with the Student Court for consideration. The ballots and any other election records shall be preserved for a period of six months by the chairman of the Board.

(h) Any member of the Student Council or any officer of the Student Body with the exception of the Student Body President and vice-president may be removed from office upon a decision of the Student Court. Charges may be preferred by any member of the Student Body. The charges shall have been brought two weeks prior to the date of the decision and each member of the court shall have been notified of the nature of the meeting in writing at least one week prior to the date of the meeting. The member or officer against whom charges have been preferred must be notified in writing at least one week prior to the hearing of the case in court. Any Student Council member having three consecutive unexcused absences may be removed from office by a 2/3 vote of the council. All officers of the council, with the exception of the President, Vice-President, and Business Manager, may be removed from office by a 2/3 vote of the council.

(i) If the office of the President be vacated, the Vice-president shall succeed to that office, becoming President, with all the powers and duties invested in that office.

(j) A holdover member may not run for office until the last year of his present office.

Sec. 4. The first regular meeting of the Student Council shall be held within one week following the inauguration of the Student President. At this meeting, the council shall designate the time and place of its meetings. The Student Council shall meet not less than once every two weeks following the initial meeting, except during vacation. Two-thirds of the Student Council members shall constitute a quorum at regular or special meetings.

Sec. 5. The Student Council shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To conduct four assemblies during the college year.

(b) To elect the editor-in-chief and business manager of the college year book.

(c) To arrange for the publication and free distribution of a handbook containing the constitution of Student Government, traditions, and rules of Marshall College, and such other material as may seem advisable, unless an official handbook is published by college authority.

(d) To present awards in the name of the Student Body at an awards assembly, to be held within three days after the Spring election.

(e) To conduct social affairs in the name of the Student Body in accordance with provisions of Article IV.

(f) To engage an legitimate enterprise for the purpose of gaining revenue for the maintenance of the Student Government and to provide for the general welfare of the Student Body.

(g) A special meeting shall be called by the President of the Student Body upon the request of five members of the Student Council.

(h) To report to the Student Court all cases of ethical delinquency referred to in Article III, Section 1(a).

(i) The council may at any time ask an explanation of the policies of college publications if said policies seem contrary to the best interests of the college and may recommend removal of staff members.

(j) The Student Council and representatives of the Student Body shall have the powers, subject to the approval of the administration and the State Board of Education, to enact rules and regulations in all matters of student activity not strictly academic, and shall have further powers to enact such rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this constitution.

(k) When vacancies occur in the representation of the council, such vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the President of the class in which the vacancies occur within 2 weeks after the vacancy occurs. Such action is to be subject to ratification by the Student Council by a 2/3 vote.

(l) The Student Council shall have the power to make and control such Freshman rules as may be approved by the College Council.

ARTICLE II—EXECUTIVE

Section 1. The nominees for President of the Student Body must be academic juniors and may signify their acceptance by issuing a public statement to be printed in the Parthenon. The President of the Student Body, during the academic year of his tenure of office, must be an academic Senior. He must submit his name and qualifications as set forth in Article I, Section 3.

Sec. 2. There shall be an inauguration held during the awards assembly. The incoming President shall take the oath of office, administered by the outgoing President as follows:

"I do hereby affirm that I will execute the duties of the office of President of the Student Body to the best of my ability and will protect, preserve, and uphold the constitution of the Student Body of Marshall College.

Sec. 3. To remove the President of the Student Body, a petition signed by twenty-five per cent of the Student Body shall be submitted to the Student Court. At the discretion of the court a new election may be called at which the President may stand for re-election. If the Student Court does not consider there are grounds for calling a new election, any further action to remove the Student President shall require a petition signed by fifty per cent of the Student Body.

Sec. 4. The President of the Student Body shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) Preside over all Student Council meetings when he deems it advisable or as stated in Article I, Section 5 (g). He shall vote in the council only in case of a tie.

(b) The President shall appoint all student members of college committees with ratification by 3/4 of the members of the Student Council.

(c) The Student President shall act for and represent the Student Body on all official occasions, within the limitations of this constitution.

(d) The President of the Student Body shall have the powers and duties of executing the acts of the Student Council and the provisions of this constitution. Failure to perform these functions constitute grounds for dismissal.

Section 5.

(a) There shall be a Vice-President of the Student Body who shall have the same qualifications as those of the Student President. He shall assume the powers and duties of the Student President in the absence of or at the time request of that officer. He may be removed from the office of Vice-President by the same means by which the Student president may be removed. In the event of his removal, ineligibility, or resignation, the vacancy shall be filled by the Student Council by a 3/4 majority. The Vice-President of the Student Body shall have a seat in the Student Council.

(b) The President and the Vice-President shall be chosen as follows:

That candidate for Student President who shall receive a plurality of all the votes cast for that office shall become President of the Student Body; the candidate receiving the second highest number of votes shall become Vice-President.

(c) In case of removal, ineligibility, or resignation of the President and Vice-President, the Senior Class president shall act as president pro tempore; the president and vice-president shall be replaced by a 3/4 vote of the members of the Student Council.

Section 6.

(a) The Student Council shall choose from its membership a Treasurer, Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary and other officers deemed necessary.

Sec. 7. The powers and duties of these Council officers shall be as follows:

(a) The Treasurer of the Student Body shall be in general charge of all collections and disbursements of the finances of the Student Body, said collections and disbursements to be authorized by the Business Manager. He shall on the first Monday of each calendar month present a detailed statement of income, expenditure, and balance to the Parthenon to be published within that week. He shall preserve a record of all financial transactions and hand this record on to his successor together with all documents, etc., pertaining to this record. The council may at any time call for an audit of his account, said audit to be done by the Council in session, or by the Auditing Committee of the Student Body. Four weeks before the end of his tenure of office, the Treasurer shall present his record to the College Auditing Committee.

(b) The Recording Secretary of the Student Council shall write and preserve all records of all Student Council meetings. At the end of the Recording Secretary's tenure of office, he shall deliver all his records to the President elect, which in turn shall be entrusted to the duly elected Recording Secretary. A copy of the minutes of each council meeting shall be filed within 48 hours in the office of the President of the College.

(c) The Corresponding Secretary shall carry on such correspondence as the Council may deem necessary and shall preserve a carbon copy of each item of such correspondence.

(d) There shall also be a Business Manager of the Student Council, who shall have the duties and powers of negotiating all contracts, conducting all financial transactions, and managing and directing all financial enterprises in which the Council may engage, subject to the authority and direction of the Student Council itself. The Business Manager, who may or may not be a member of the Council, shall be elected by the Student Council by a vote in which not more than two dissenting votes are cast. If the Council fails to choose a Business Manager by the date of the Freshman election, the Student Court shall, by a minimum majority of five to two, select a Business Manager from a list of four names submitted by the Student Council by a vote in which not more than two votes are cast against any of the four names. During any period in which the offices of Business Manager is vacant, the duties of Business Manager shall be performed by the Council acting as a body. The Business Manager may be removed from office by the recommendation of the Student Council by a 2/3 vote, such removal to become effective upon a decision of the Student Court confirming either recommendation. The Business Manager shall be required to submit detailed quarterly reports of his official activities to the Auditing Committee of the Student Body, which committee may at any time demand from him a special financial report concerning any of his transactions or negotiations which they may specify. He shall preserve a record of all his transactions for his tenure of office, and hand over all these records, together with all documents pertaining thereto, to his successor.

(e) The Council shall have the power of impeachment by a 2/3 vote. The vote of the members elected thereto and it shall provide by enactment, a procedure for the trial and removal from office of the President and Vice President.

(f) To remove the President and Vice President of the Student Body, a petition signed by 25 per cent of the Student Body shall be submitted to the Student Court. At the discretion of the court, a new election may be called at which the President and/or Vice President may stand for reelection. If the Student Court does not consider that, there are grounds for calling a new election, any further action to remove the Student President shall require a petition signed by 50 per cent of the Student Body.

Sec. 8. In the removal of any officer of the Student Body, just cause must be shown by the body with which final responsibility for removal rests.

Sec. 9. Election for all class presidents, except as noted above, shall be held at the same time, and in the same manner that the Student Council representatives are elected. Each class shall also elect a vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer, which officers shall be elected at the first class meeting called by the newlyelected class president within one month of acceptance of office. All class officers must be academic members of that class during their tenure of office. In the event of a vacancy in the office of a class president the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the Student Council by a 2/3 vote.

ARTICLE III—JUDICIAL

Section 1. There shall be a Student Court composed of three faculty members appointed by the President of the College and four students appointed by the President of the Student Body and confirmed by a three-fourths majority of the Student Council. Of these student members, all of whom shall be academic Juniors or Seniors, one shall be a fraternity man, one a sorority woman. The Court shall meet within a week after its appointment and shall select its own officers. At this first meeting the Court shall designate the time and place of its meeting. The powers and duties of the Student Court are as follows:

(a) To consider cases of dishonesty, breaches of social etiquette, infringements of college traditions, and all matters contrary to the best interests of the college.

(b) The court shall have final judgment as to the constitutionality of all acts of the Student Council and its officers, and as to the interpretation of this constitution.

(c) To render decisions and pass sentences concerning all matters before it.

(d) The Student Court shall have the power of rendering advisory decisions on the constitutionality of any act or prospective act, either of the Council or of any officer, when requested by any member of the Student Body.

Sec. 2. All faculty members and all students are privileged also to prefer charges, submit reports, or request decisions or opinions before the Student Court concerning any matter within its jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. The Court, shall, as individuals, take the juror's oath of secrecy. No records except the final decisions of the Student Court shall be recorded and preserved.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of each student to report to the Court any violation of the regulations of Student Government or of the College Administration.

Sec. 5. Final appeal of all matters except those which concern constitutionality of the acts of student government in which the invasion of the scope of authority of the college administration is in no way involved may be made to the President of the College.

ARTICLE IV—SOCIAL ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

There shall be a Social Activities Committee composed of five students appointed by the President of the Student Body and confirmed by a 3/4 vote of the Student Council to work in conjunction with the faculty committee only if invited to do so by the latter committee or by the college administration.

ARTICLE V—AMENDMENTS AND BY-LAWS

Section 1. Amendments may be initiated either by the Student Council or by a petition signed by ten per cent of the members of the Student Body.

Sec. 2. Amendments to this constitution shall become valid and integral parts of this constitution through ratification by 2/3 majority of those students voting in an election called for that purpose. Ratification shall not be valid unless at least ten per cent of the members of the Student Body vote in the election.

Sec. 3. An amendment must be initiated at least two weeks before action can be taken on it. The proposed amendment shall be published verbatim on the college bulletin board or advertised in the college newspaper (or both) at least ten days before a vote can be taken.

Sec. 4. By-laws and rules of the Council may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the council, provided the matter has been stated in writing at a previous meeting. By-laws and rules may be passed by a unanimous vote without having been previously submitted.
