CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION

There will be a special League of Women Voters of West Virginia conference in Charleston on October 9 to discuss revision of the State Constitution. At the luncheon meeting on September 26, Miss Mary Lyon Sutton, local board member in charge of this item, will announce arrangements and guest speakers and will talk briefly on the background of the State Constitution and why its revision now is so important to you, to Huntington, to West Virginia. Come and find out what is going to happen in Charleston and how you can be an interested and educated participant in this conference.
