Typographical Union

Number 533

1116 Ninth Street

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

The business manager of the Huntington Publishing Co., WALKER LONG, has earned for himself, and is eligible to wear, a crown designating him a would-be union buster. "For as he thinketh in his heart so is he." He qualified himself by his quick use of the slave-labor Taft-Hartley Law to wreck relations between his company and the Huntington Typographical Union. He has infested his plant with RATS AND SCABS! REMEMBER—IF ORGANIZED LABOR IS BEATEN, WHAT CHANCE HAS THE UNORGANIZED?

Union Printers are LOCKED OUT of the Huntington Publishing Company. This company imposed UNFAIR WORKING CONDITIONS on the Huntington Typographical Union by posting conditions of employment which it knew in advance the Huntington Typographical Union could not and would not work under. In so doing the Union Printers were LOCKED OUT. Union could not honor conditions without taking first step toward self-destruction. The Herald-Dispatch, The Advertiser, The Herald-Advertiser are SCAB-made papers. DON'T BUY THEM — EVERY NICKEL THAT YOU SPEND FOR ONE OF THESE SCAB PAPERS CONTRIBUTES TO THE SUPPORT OF A SCAB!
