FINANCE DRIVE

Our dues do not cover all the costs of the League's projects; therefore, annually we send letters to people in the community asking them for contributions. Virginia Hensley takes care of this mailing. We always appreciate donations from our members, too. Checks may be made out to the LWV Huntington Area, or if the donor wishes the donation to be tax deductible, it must be made out to the LWV Education Fund. Donations are to be sent to our treasurer, Ann Speer, 706 Ridgewood Rd., Huntington, WV 25701.

DUES

Reminder - It is important to pay dues to the League when you receive your dues notices. We are obligated to pay per member payments to both the national and state levels of the League. Send your dues to Ann Speer, 706 Ridgewood Rd. Huntington, WV 25701

National LWV goals for the biennium

At the LWV '98 Convention, delegates voted to continue Making Democracy Work (MDW) as the League's Issue for Emphasis for the 1998-2000 biennium. The MDW campaign is aimed at reinvigorating American democracy and engaging more citizens in shaping better communities and a better country.

Goals include: building CIVIC PARTICIPATION, the centerpiece of which will be a grassroots activist training program to provide members and citizens with the skills needed to organize around an issue of concern; increasing VOTER PARTICIPATION by emphasizing targeted, results-oriented GetOutTheVote campaigns that reach out to groups traditionally underrepresented at the polls; achieving meaningful federal CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM and promoting reform efforts at the state level; enhancing CIVIC EDUCATION by making use of new communications technologies and providing the training and information members need to involve citizens in public policy debate; enhancing the DIVERSITY OF REPRESENTATION among elected and appointed officials; and supporting FULL VOTING REPRESENTATION for the District of Columbia.

The LWV is a nonpartisan political organization that encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in government and influences public policy through education and advocacy. Membership in the League is open to women and men of voting age. Annual dues, not tax deductible, are $35 individual, $50 for two in one household.

To join, send your check to : Ann Speer, Treasurer, 706 Ridgewood Road, Huntington, WV 25701
