JOHN MARSHALL

"The services of Marshall will always remain as an inspiration to young America as well as to the older generations. He stands, as an example of courage, perseverance, and self-sacrifice. He ranks among the founders of the Nation; he early formed definite habits of thinking which crystallized his character. To these principles he remained adamant. As a lawyer, he knew the drudgery incident to the careful preparation of an argument in court. As a legislator he studied the fundamental principles upon which a democracy must be founded. As a member of Congress he rose to the defense of a President who was carrying out the duties of his office. As an envoy he outwitted the craftiest statesman of France. As Secretary of State he gave the first outlines of a strong foreign policy. As Chief Justice of the Supreme Court he rendered decisions which have influenced and molded the character of the American Nation. John Marshall, born of humble parentage in Virginia, rose to a position of power and prominence equal to that of the presidency . . . His memory will be an inspiration in the years to come to the thousands of students of this University who will take with them into the world the influence of this great American which is still a vital living force in our Nation."

(Above quote from J. F. T. O'Connor from
One Hundred Years of Marshall College.)

Dr. Stewart H. Smith
President of Marshall University

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To our new students:

Welcome to Marshall!

You are about to begin one of the most interesting and challenging periods of your life. Within a few days you will be a university man or woman. A successful college career will unlock many doors of opportunity for you.

As long as I can remember, I have heard the old saying "Opportunity knocks but once," or words to that effect. With this I heartily disagree. From my observations I am convinced that if you have what it takes and the ability to use it, old "opportunity" will be knocking on your door like red-headed woodpeckers on an old elm tree.

At Marshall you will find the administrative staff, the faculty and the students eager to help you get ahead. Each one of us has a stake in the other fellow's attainment of happiness and success. Undoubtedly, you will reap pretty largely as you sow. Your returns in all phases of college activities, scholastic, athletic, social and others, will depend upon the degree to which you invest your time and efforts. You will find that, "the greatest helping hand any individual will ever find is at the end of his own shirt sleeves."

I have the fervent hope that you will make good at Marshall. Above all things, I urge that you establish a reputation for honesty and reliability. Such a reputation will be your greatest asset both in college as well as after graduation.

I congratulate you upon your desire to improve yourself through education. May your years at Marshall be both happy and profitable.

Sincerely yours,
STEWART H. SMITH
President

Miss Nancy Wood
President of the Student Body

Dear Freshman:

It is indeed a pleasure to welcome you to Marshall University on behalf of the upper-classmen. I am sure you who are entering Marshall for the first time, as those of us who have been here, will find your stay enjoyable and rewarding.

Your college career can only be what you make of it; let me encourage you to establish for yourself the major goals which you desire to attain while in college, and keeping these in sight at all times, work diligently toward their fulfillment. One must keep in mind the necessity of a well-rounded program; as it is necessary to maintain a healthy mind and to keep a healthy body, it is likewise necessary, in order to obtain the most from college, to formulate and carry out a diversified program of study.

I am sure there will be many things which will arise during your first few weeks on campus, on which you will desire to seek advice and knowledge, so let me encourage you to stop by the Student Government Office, which is located at the west end of the Student Union, and I or one of the other members of Student Government will be glad to be of any service possible.

If I should not have the opportunity of meeting you this year, let me now wish you a pleasant journey to understanding at Marshall, and a successful fulfillment of your endeavors.

Cordially,
NANCY WOOD
Student Body President

Now that you know the rules, how do you get rid of them? On September 23, at the Marshall University vs. Bowling Green football game, the Freshman football team will meet "selected" upperclassmen in a TUG-OF-WAR. If you win, you are free—no more Freshman Rules, however, if you lose. . . Well, let's hope you win.

Alma Mater

Marshall gracious Alma Mater
 We thy name revere;
 May each noble son and daughter
 Cherish thine honor dear.
 May thy lamp be ever bright,
 Guiding us to truth and light;
 As a beacon o'er dark water
 This is for thee our prayer.

Second verse:

May the years be kind to Marshall
 May she grow in fame;
 May her children fail her never,
 True to her beacon flame.
 May her spirit brave and strong
 Honor right and conquer wrong;
 This the burden of our song,
 Ever her truth proclaim.

"We Are The Sons Of Marshall"

We are the sons of Marshall
 Sons of the great John Marshall
 Year after year we go to Marshall U cheering for the team and gaining knowledge, too.
 Proudly we wear our colors, Love and Loyalty we Share,
 Sure from far and near you'll always hear the wearin' of the green
 For it's the Green and White of Marshall U!

FRESHMAN PLEDGE

FRESHMAN PLEDGE—We, the class of '65, pledge ourselves to uphold the traditions, the high standards, the spirit, and the ideals of Marshall University.

We do also pledge to strive to better ourselves, academically, socially, and spiritually, so that we may carry these high ideals beyond our college days.

The History Of Marshall And Proposed Expansion

1961-1962 marks the 124th year of Marshall University as an educational institution. The original one and one-half-acre sit of Marshall was bought in 1837 for $40 from John Holderby, who made the provision that the estate always be used for school purposes.

John Laidley, friend of Chief Justice John Marshall for whom the college is named, is considered the founder of Marshall University which was first known as Marshall Academy. On March, 1858, by an act of the Virginia Assembly, the Academy became Marshall College, with authority to confer degrees.

During the Civil War the school was sold because of debts, but it housed a private school during this war because of the terms of the original deed. Out of the confusion of the war, the new state of West Virginia was created, and Marshall College was soon revived under State control.

Today Marshall is a multi-million-dollar institution whose campus covers over 26 acres in the heart of Huntington. There are 17 permanent buildings and numerous temporary structures, with the addition of two buildings — the Student Chapel and the new Physical Education and Health Building. Also, the university has available 62 temporary housing units for married students in its Donald Court housing project. (Donald Court is located two miles south of the campus), and the new men's dormitory will be completed soon. Also the additional campus on Route 60 is beginning plans.

Marshall University now maintains four divisions, each under a dean — the College of Arts and Sciences, the Teachers' College, the College of Applied Sciences, and the Graduate School — plus an Evening Program and a director of Adult Education in charge of the college extension program and the off-campus workshops.

We are accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. The university is approved by the American Association of University Women and is a member of the Association of American Colleges and the American Council on Education.

It is impossible to be indifferent to the progress of Marshall during the last 124 years. Even during the preceding 20 years, her expansion has been astonishing. The campus has grown, enrollment has increased, faculty members have come and gone — though some still linger.

You, as a student for the next four years, will see changes even in your short stay here. The new men's dormitory is near completion, and plans are underway for a classroom building, auditorium, women's dormitory, a combination auditorium and gymnasium for the Laboratory School, and a garage and service building. We shall see things come to pass in the next few years.

TRADITIONS

BUST OF JOHN MARSHALL — In front of Old Main stands the Bust of John Marshall, after whom the University is named. Our University was founded on his principles and ideals of Equality, Democracy, and Individual Freedom.

BEECH TREE — The Old Beech Tree, standing for more than 300 years, is symbolic of the tree of life and represents the growth of Marshall Academy into the Marshall University of today. If it could only talk, it could tell many stories from the Civil War until now of the thousands of students that succeeded at Marshall and went on to greater achievements. Many of the initials you see on this tree located in front of Old Main were carved decades ago.

ODK — The ODK Victory Bell, next to the Music Building, is traditionally rung after each victory in the field of sports or knowledge. This tradition has dwindled, but it will be renewed this year to remind all of us that victory is not always won at Fairfield Stadium or the Memorial Field House, but in the every day trials and tribulations of college make the individual stronger in mind, body, and soul.

The ODK Circle located in front of the Union tennis courts is a brick circle enclosed by concrete benches and has a sundial in the middle. This project was presented to the campus by Omicron Delta Kappa.

The ODK Sidewalk located on the campus side of the library is the newest project of Omicron Delta Kappa.

LEADERSHIP CAMP — This is the "meeting of the campus wheels" the weekend prior to Freshman Week. During the weekend, the Student Senate, President and Vice-President of the Student Body, members of commissions, commission coordinators, officers of organizations, members of the faculty and administration, and those students connected with Freshman Week and Homecoming seclude themselves at a near-by camp to plot and plan the coming school year. It's something that most of you will never attend, but for those of you fortunate enough to make the grade, it's an unforgettable and invaluable experience.

FROSH AND UPPERCLASS TUG OF WAR — This "Tug of War" between the freshman football team and a "select" group of upper-classmen symbolizes the quest of the frosh to be accepted. If the freshmen win, off comes your beanie and away with the Freshman Rules. But alas, if you lose, the rules stay into effect two weeks longer. So, lots of luck and may the best team win!

HOMECOMING — One of the biggest weekends is Homecoming, with the Alums returning to campus to renew bonds, observe the changes, and to live it up with the undergrads.

Much planning goes on prior to this weekend to insure its success. A week before Homecoming an election is held to choose class queens and "Miss Marshall". You Freshmen will meet to nominate your lovely gals for Frosh Queen and then choose the best one at the polls. Candidates for the upperclass queens are nominated by the women's social groups and the dorms, and the best ones are selected at the polls, with the senior queen reigning over the weekend's festivities as "Miss Marshall".

A pep rally is always held on the Friday evening of the Homecoming Week End on the intramural field which leads off the big week end. Then judging of the house decorations that the dorms and sororities have slaved over follows.

On Saturday the parade begins about noon, and what a colorful spectacle! The campus beauties representing the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes will ride on a float with "Miss Marshall". The fraternities and other organizations will present floats they have constructed, and the Band, Cheerleaders, Majorettes, and the ROTC will help make it a parade to remember.

Then join with the alums and it's off to the game. This is one game you dress up for, and with the bright fall clothing that will be observed, you will notice many of the gals sporting lovely mums. The Greenbackers and enthusiastic crowd are sure to give us a victory. After the game comes a round of reunions, open houses, and parties. This leaves you just enough time to quickly change into party clothes, and it's off to the Memorial Field House, and you'll dance the night away to a "name" band, with the highlights of the evening being the announcement of the winners of the house decorations and the floats.

Oh! You'll be tired when you finally sink into bed that night, but we bet you'll never forget the fun and excitement of this memorable week end.

LIFE PLANNING WEEK — This is one week set aside during second semester for you, the student, to evaluate yourself, your life, and your future. Speakers are brought in from all parts of the nation to speak to classes, the entire campus, and "fireside" groups (see glossary). This period is set aside for re-examining our ideas about why we're here and where we're going. It serves as an inspiration to many students who find themselves confused as to life's problems. Religion plays a part in this week, of course, but what kind of life would a person have with no religion? Take advantage of this week and what it has to offer; you'll profit tremendously.

UGLY MAN CONTEST — Alpha Phi Omega, men's service honorary, sponsors a contest to find the "ugliest man on the campus". Of course, Marshall has no ugly men, so some must be made. The social organizations, either separately or two combined, select a subject and then produce a photograph by trick photography or make-up of the ugliest human (?) specimen possible. Some of the results put Lon Chaney to shame!

The pictures are then published in the Parthenon and circulated around campus. The climax of the event is a mix in the union at which the student body elects the ugliest picture by paying for a vote. It's a huge success each year, and we all look forward to it. You will too, especially after you've seen some of the pictures. The proceeds from this contest are donated by Alpha Phi Omega to the college intramural program.

GREEK WEEK — The Greeks unite once a year to join in the annual Greek Week. This week includes fireside chats, exchange dinners between sororities and fraternities, and daily shows in front of the Student Union. The Greeks also contribute some gift or service to the campus at this time. A parade of chariots and floats and Greek Week Queen Candidates are usually climaxed by games and contests on the intramural field. The highlight of the week is the Greek Week Dance at which is crowned the Greek Queen and King.

PARENTS' WEEK END — Parents' Week End along with Homecoming is one of the big events of our college year. This is the time the University shows off, and all departments and the student body presents a complete series of entertaining and informative activities from the time parents' week end opens until it closes on Sunday afternoon. Start telling your parents about this now, so that when spring comes around, they will be sure to come. The highlight of this week end is the Mothers' Day Sing.

MOTHERS' DAY SING — This is the big day for the social organizations as well as a day of tribute to our mothers. These organizations work for months prior to the Sing preparing songs. On the day of the Sing, each group participates in the contest with the winning fraternity and sorority receiving a permanent trophy. The dormitories and social organizations always hold open house for you and the public afterwards in order to complete the day's activities.

THE INDIVIDUALS WHO RUN OUR CAMPUS THE UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Every student finds himself in need of seeing one of the university administrators at some time and should know where to find them. The first floor of Old Main houses our administrative personnel, and their office hours are from 8:00 AM to 4:15 PM. Office hours for your individual instructors will vary, so check with them for the office location and office hours.

One of the first men you will come in contact with during Freshman Week is our PRESIDENT, Dr. Stewart H. Smith. Once he has met you, he does not often forget your name or face and always has a smile and a kind word for everyone. It is through the work of such men as our President that Marshall University has grown in size and prestige. His office, Room 108, is always open, and he will be glad to aid you in problems which your advisor or dean cannot solve.

The REGISTRAR, Mr. Luther E. Bledsoe, is your guardian from the time you apply for admission to Marshall until you finally graduate. The services he renders range from Freshman Week, Registration, and transcripts to college catalogs, and caps and gowns. This is the office which takes care of you Veterans. You will find Mr. Bledsoe in Room 106.

Mr. Fred Smith, the COMPTROLLER, handles all your money. He is located in Room 103, and this is where you pay your tuition, room and board, receive loans, and rent hall lockers.

Mr. Paul H. Collins, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT AND DIRECTOR OF ADULT EDUCATION, serves as Administrative Assistant to the President of our University. He is also Director of Adult Education, and in this capacity he initiates, organizes, and administers off-campus and certain campus activities; for example, the extension class program and the college evening program. His office is located in Room 107.

You women will get to know well our DEAN OF WOMEN, Mrs. Lillian Helms Buskirk, before you leave Marshall. Her office is located in Room 109, and she will be glad to offer advice or give you help with any problems you may come up against during your college career.

Mr. David Kirk, DEAN OF MEN, handles any difficulty the men run into. His office, Room 110, handles loans and scholarships, lost and found, traffic and parking violations, men's housing, fraternities, and counselling. Mailboxes for campus organizations and a campus bulletin board are also found in his office.

Dean J. Frank Bartlett of the COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE is the man to see about your academic problems if your advisor cannot help you. He is the man to see about changing your major or obtaining a credit evaluation. Dean Bartlett's office is found in Room 115.

Dean of the TEACHERS' COLLEGE is Dr. D. Banks Wilburn who serves in the same capacity for those of you in the teaching field as Dean Bartlett does in the fields of arts and sciences. In his office, Room 113, you may get a credit evaluation in the teaching field.

Dr. A. E. McCaskey, Dean of the newly established COLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCES, serves those of you in the fields of applied sciences. Dean McCaskey's new college embraces engineering, the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, the new nursing education department, and the training program for medical technology. His office is located in Room 110.

After receiving your college diploma, and you decide to do graduate work, the man who will handle your affairs is Dr. A. E. Harris, Dean of the GRADUATE SCHOOL. His office is located in Room 111.

ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL AND FACILITIES

HEALTH CLINIC — All full-time students receive the clinic's services free after having paid their health fee during registration. The clinic is located in the new Physical Education Building on 18th Street between Virginia and College Avenues. This office is open from 8 to 12 AM and from 1 to 4:45 PM on week days; and 8 to 12 AM on Saturdays. Dr. Charles H. Hagan, the university physician, is there from 9 to 12 AM, but Mrs. Mary D. Summers, the university nurse, is present at all times during hours to treat you. If you need medicine, a shot, or a physical examination, the clinic will be glad to serve you.

SHAWKEY STUDENT UNION — Mr. Don Morris manages the Shawkey Student Union which is named after one of Marshall's past presidents, Morris P. Shawkey. The Student Union is the center of social activity on campus. On the first floor are found a lunch counter, a lounge, and dance area. Bridge, checkers, and chess facilities are available during the hours of operation which start at 7:30 AM and close at 9:00 PM. Hours on Saturdays are from 7:30 AM to 2:00 PM, and the Union is closed all day Sunday. In the basement are found pool and ping-pong tables (you must furnish your own ping-pong balls which may be bought at the lunch counter). On the second floor are found the office of the college annual staff — The Chief Justice, two conference rooms, and a music room where television and record facilities are available. The Student Government Office is found in the right wing of the Student Union, and we urge you to take an interest in and participate in the campus government.

On each Wednesday night a student mix is held from 7:30 PM until 9:45 PM when women must be in the dorms for the night. Most of the mixes are free, but when sponsored by a group or organization, there is a nominal fee of $.25. Just one word of warning — you do not receive a grade in "unionology", so spend some time on your studies.

BOOKSTORE — The Book Store is located in the basement of Old Main, under the management of Mr. Percy L. Galloway. Here you buy your textbooks, drafting equipment, art supplies, and desk supplies. It is open from 8 to 12 AM and from 1 to 4:15 PM during the school week; and 8 to 12 AM on Saturdays. Checks will be accepted for the purchase of supplies.

POST OFFICE — Located adjacent to the Bookstore and also run by Mr. Galloway, the hours are the same as for the bookstore, and they handle all mail coming in and going out of the university. They don't mail packages, but the book store will if you have the correct postage on them. A subdivision of the downtown post office is located on Third Avenue above 20th Street; it's best to have packages handled there.

PLACEMENT OFFICE — On campus and off campus jobs may be found by inquiring in the Placement Office managed by Mr. Robert P. Alexander. His office is located in Room 114 of Old Main. Hours are from 8 to 4:15. Checking in this office will save you a lot of trouble walking the streets of Huntington looking for employment.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS — Here is found the crew who keep the campus clean and attractive. The office is located in the basement of Old Main and is open from 6 until 4:30. If you need something repaired, want to borrow a tool, or need paint for your room, this is the place to have it taken care of.

DUPLICATING DEPARTMENT — Managed by Mrs. James Bias, the Duplicating Department is located across from the Book Store in the basement of Old Main and is open from 8 to 4:15. If you need some printing done for your dormitory, organization, or committee, this is the department that will handle it for you.

CAFETERIA — Located between Laidley and Hodges Halls at the east end of the campus, they serve breakfast from 7 to 9 AM; lunch from 11 to 1:30 PM; and dinner from 5 until 6:30 PM. Saturday lunch is served from 11 to 12. On Sunday, breakfast is served from 8:30 until 9:30 AM; lunch from 12 to 1PM; no dinner is served on Sunday.

INFORMATION DESK — This office is located across the hall from the Registrar's Office, and there is always someone on duty from 8 to 4:30 to direct you to any place on campus.

INFORMATION SERVICE — Located in Room 112 of Old Main, this office is under the direction of Mr. Frank E. Spear, Information Director, and it handles the publicity, publications, and public relations of Marshall University. Check here if you need anything along this line.

DEVELOPMENT AND ALUMNI AFFAIRS — Located in Room 129 of Old Main, John Sayre directs the affairs of this office which acts as a link between the university, its alumni, and all other interested groups. When you have completed your work here, this will be the office to keep informed of the progress of Marshall, but until that time, this office will be working with you on such activities as Homecoming and Parents' Week End.

SPEECH CLINIC — The Speech Clinic is located in the Science Hall, Room 18. This facility provides special help in correcting speech defects.

RELIGIOUS COUNSELING — This is handled by The Reverend Lander Beal in the Student Chapel. The Reverend Beal is a personable man who can be of great help to you regardless of whether your problems are of a religious nature or not.

PARKING — This will be a daily problem to you car owners. Daytime parking in the university parking lot behind the Science Hall is reserved for the faculty and those cars with special permits issued by the Dean of Men. The lot is open to everyone after school hours. Dorm residents park behind the dorms they live in. Students may park wherever it is legal on the streets, and first come, first served. You may have to park five or six blocks from the campus. If you park on Fifth Avenue, make sure you move your car before three o'clock, or you will find a $5 parking ticket on your windshield. There is no parking on Fifth Avenue between the hours of 3 PM and 6 PM. Limited parking is available in the Engineering Building lot, corner 5th Avenue and 19th Street.

If you violate the above rules concerning parking on the campus, you MUST report to the Dean of Men's Office within 24 hours after the issuance of a ticket. All tickets given by city police concerning parking on the city streets must be handled at the city police station and need not be reported to the Dean of Men's Office. Explanation of campus parking violations: first ticket is a warning; second offense means an appearance before the traffic committee; third offense means an appearance before the Administrative Cabinet and a possible suspension from school.

JAMES E. MORROW LIBRARY — You will become familiar with this building during your next four years at Marshall. There is unlimited reference material available in the library which will be of valuable help to you in your classwork, and a great supplement to your learning in the classroom. Try to spend ample time in the library both to accomplish studying and to broaden your scope of knowledge.

Library hours during the school week are from 8 AM to 9:30 PM; and 8 AM to 5 PM on Saturdays. If you are unable to find the material you desire, ask the person on duty at the desk, and they will be able to offer you assistance.

The journalism department is located in the basement of the library, and it is here that the school newspaper, the PARTHENON, is published.

PSYCHOLOGICAL CLINIC — The Psychological Clinic, Room M307, is open to full-time students for consultation on scholastic, vocational, social, and personal problems. Students are invited to make use of the clinic.

CLOTHES AND MANNERS TO FIT THE OCCASION FOR WOMEN ONLY

Here's what you've been wondering about all summer: what to wear and when. Since Marshall is a friendly and informal place, the same clothes you wore in high school will suffice as proper attire here. The same skirts and sweaters you wore in high school with bobby socks and loafers, flats, or tennis shoes are traditional for class. You'll find blouses of any style and color will be especially convenient because they're easy to wash in the dorm, once you catch on!

In the dorm, plan to get plenty of wear out of your bermudas; slacks are standard library equipment. But do remember to always look neat regardless of your attire. Bermudas and peggers are right in style in the spring and fall, and shorts are acceptable on the tennis courts.

CLOTHES AND MANNERS TO FIT THE OCCASION FOR MEN ONLY

For dating, a matched skirt and sweater with heels and earrings are good for Saturday night movies and also for the Community Forums. Ball games call for the same with a date; but if you're temporarily dateless, wear hobby socks or flats. Our gals go in a casual skirt and sweater to week-day basketball games, but add heels for the week-end games. Skirts and sweaters are also fine for the Wednesday night mix.

For Artist Series and "special dates", you'll need a party or dressy wool dress. Teas and receptions usually call for hat and gloves as does church. You'll find that a good basic suit, possibly a walking suit, is invaluable. Floor-length formals are not the rule at formal dances, but they are nice if available; however, a ballerina-length formal with or without short gloves will do. Informal dances call for cocktail dresses or costumes. Speaking of costume dances, old costumes will do fine, but be sure to keep them in good taste. For the most importance dance of all — Homecoming — be sure to wear a cocktail dress.

Indispensable on Marshall's campus is a raincoat and umbrella. Boots are handy too when the sidewalks are covered during the annual monsoon season each spring. Also, Huntington has cold winters, so you'll need a heavy winter coat, a carcoat, gloves, and scarves. During the spring, blazers are very popular.

As for beauty and make-up, look natural — please! There is no substitute for natural beauty, just ask the University men. Hair styles are casual with versatility the key.

You're a smart shopper if you buy outfits which mix and match well. You'll find that you don't need as much as you probably expected. Huntington has quite a few dress shops which carry stylish yet reasonable clothes. So save some of your clothes allowance to spend here.

As far as etiquette is concerned, just remember "always be a lady". You know to be polite and show respect for your elders and persons of authority; you know to thank your date for a wonderful time and to be attentive to him while on a date; and you know to be considerate of your room mate and others around you. So relax and have a good time, but always remember that whatever you do in public is seen by someone else. Here is a tip to you girls who plan to rush: sororities are very interested in your neat appearance and polite personality.

"Casual and comfortable" are the keywords for attire of Marshall men. A neat sports shirt and khakis or cords will do for class, also crew neck sweaters and dress pants. Wash and wear fabrics are economical and a good substitute for the jeans you wore in high school. Suits and ties are worn by some to class, but it's entirely up to you. But remember guys, to get a date you'll be in competition, and your appearance at all times is important.

Loafers are good for the feet, but don't forget neat dress shoes for "special dates". You'll have plenty of opportunity to wear those tennis shoes, too. Wear a suit and tie on dates, for movies, and ball games. Dress accordingly to what your date is wearing is a good rule to follow.

Formal clothes are nice to have, but are not necessary. There will be plenty from whom you can borrow them in a dorm or frat house once you meet the guys. A tux is usually worn to a winter formal (a dark suit will do), and a white dinner jacket is traditional at a spring formal.

Trench coats and water repellent gabardines are popular as well as necessary during the rainy season. Most of our men also carry absolutely huge black umbrellas (which serve as an introduction to that beautiful coed standing in the rain). A heavy topcoat and jacket are necessary for winter. Hats are up to you, they are fine for dress wear, cold football games, or in a windy convertible.

Your old high school sweat shirt and pants are fine for sports when it's cold; tennis shoes, swimming trunks, and T-shirts are fine for "doing what comes athletically". You'll be able to wear those bermudas and beachcombers too.

Impressing girls by doing crazy things like you did in high school just won't work here; you're in college now, so act accordingly. Our gals like gentlemen, they appreciate it when you open a door for them, or take their arm when crossing a street. Help them put on their wraps, and compliment them on that dress which was worn especially for you. Don't leave your date alone while you greet a group of fellows. Be considerate of the female professors too. Just be yourself with a little added polish, and you'll get along swell, be it a professor, a date, a fraternity you're rushing, or another guy.

GET ACQUAINTED WITH CULTURE

In your well-rounded program at Marshall University, don't forget the cultural activities offered. Although you may have neglected culture in high school, it can be very enjoyable. It is as much a part of your education as the development of your mind and personality. Marshall offers one of the best cultural programs in the country and you have already paid for it, so Take Advantage of it.

With the purchase of your student activity card, you buy your way to numerous professional performances of national and international reputation, including symphony orchestras, operas, Broadway plays, ballets, and big name concerts. These ARTIST SERIES are held downtown at the Keith-Albee Theatre. This year's program will include: "The Music Man", American Ballet Theatre, "Pirates of Penzance", Bach Aria Group with Eileen Farrell and Jan Peerce, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and Dancers of Ball.

The COMMUNITY FORUMS are held in Old Main Auditorium and feature internationally known lecturers on literature, science, travel, current affairs, and other interesting topics. Coming this year will be: Agnes Moorehead in the comedy "A Phoenix Too Frequent", Thomas Mitchell, Sir Leslie Munro, Curtis Nagel, Vance Packard, Michael Mac Liammoir in the one man show of the life of Oscar Wilde, Edgar Snow, Sloan Wilson, Don Shaw, and Thayer Soule.

CONVOCATIONS are held in Old Main Auditorium at least once a month at 11:00 AM on Thursdays. These programs are numerous and varied.

The ARTISTS SERIES, FORUMS, and CONVOCATIONS are the "big three", but don't overlook University Theatre. Half the fun is the development of your own special talents, you know. If you participated in high school plays or have a suppressed desire to be on the stage, look into University Theatre. Tryouts are open to the entire student body regardless of experience. Normally four full-length plays and several studio and experimental dramas are produced each year. So try out for one; you may discover acting is your hidden talent.

Art lovers, the Huntington Galleries is for you. Located on Eighth Street Road, you'll find various exhibits offered during the year as well as the standard exhibits such as the gun and silver collections. You'll also find exhibitions on the first floor of our own library at various time during the year. If you're really interested in art, take a class in it. You'll be surprised what you learn.

For music lovers, there are all types of music albums available for your use in the Student Union lounge on the second floor. Just see Don Morris, Student Union Manager, make your selection of music, check these selections out, and relax. There's also a television set in the second floor lounge for your enjoyment.

You'll find rooms of pianos and musical instruments if you investigate the music building. You'll also meet people who share your common interest in music. Why not join the marching or concert bands, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic or men's concert choirs. As we suggested in art, why not take a music class, if only for sheer enjoyment.

Investigate the upstairs of the library: there is found a multitude of books from which you can glean knowledge which will aid your cultural development. It's fun to acquire a little culture, and it doesn't hurt at all. Culture is not something to be avoided, so try some.

LET'S GET ACADEMIC

If you are to achieve your purpose at Marshall University, you must learn how to study now. Studying is a term representing various activities, and thus there are various methods of study. There is no recipe or surefire solution to passing your next four years at Marshall. What works best for you may flunk your roommate. No two individuals can study exactly alike. The best policy is to formulate your own pattern. However, we'll try to let you in on a few of our time-tested procedures.

Buy your books early. Then read the preface and introduction before going to class the first time. DON'T be afraid to ask questions this or ANY other day. DON'T be afraid of the professor. He is sincerely interested in your abilities, so get acquainted and show an interest in the course.

Note-taking is a necessity at college and quite different from high school. Our professors move fast; they have to in order to cover all the material in one short semester. Take notes in ink on standard size paper; then you can read them at exam time. Keep them organized, dated, and in a notebook so you won't lose half a semester's work if you drop a book sometime.

You can usually detect possible test questions by the emphasis put on certain points in lecture. MARK IT IN RED OR STAR IT. Speaking of exams, find out what type your professor will give: essay or objective. Knowing what to study makes your studying easier. You may also have "pop quizzes" so be prepared each day. Many students recommend a short review period and a good night's sleep before a test. If this plan works for you—congratulations! If not, join the rest of us and burn the midnight oil. However, you cannot be expected to cram millions of facts into your head if you have not heard them before or read the chapters. Exams are one of the few ways that professors have to measure your progress.

For each hour in class, two out-of-class hours of preparation are recommended. Some classes may not require this while in others, you will have to devote far more time. Always have assignments ready to turn in and have chapters read before class.

Marshall is small enough to afford a close student-professor relationship, so take advantage of it. You won't get ribbed as you probably were in high school for getting to know your professor. We like our "profs"; we get to know them. If you're timid when it comes to asking questions in class or if you need special help, make an appointment to see your professor.

Unfortunately, final exams are a necessary evil. We hate 'em, but we take 'em. A final can be a complete review or merely cover the segment since the last test. After you're through that first final week, you're one of the gang. Finals will be tough. They can raise or lower a grade, so study, but don't PANIC when this week rolls around. It is best to begin studying early and to get plenty of sleep.

Your big academic aim is the Dean's list. This is for the students each semester making a 3.0 average or better. Work for it!

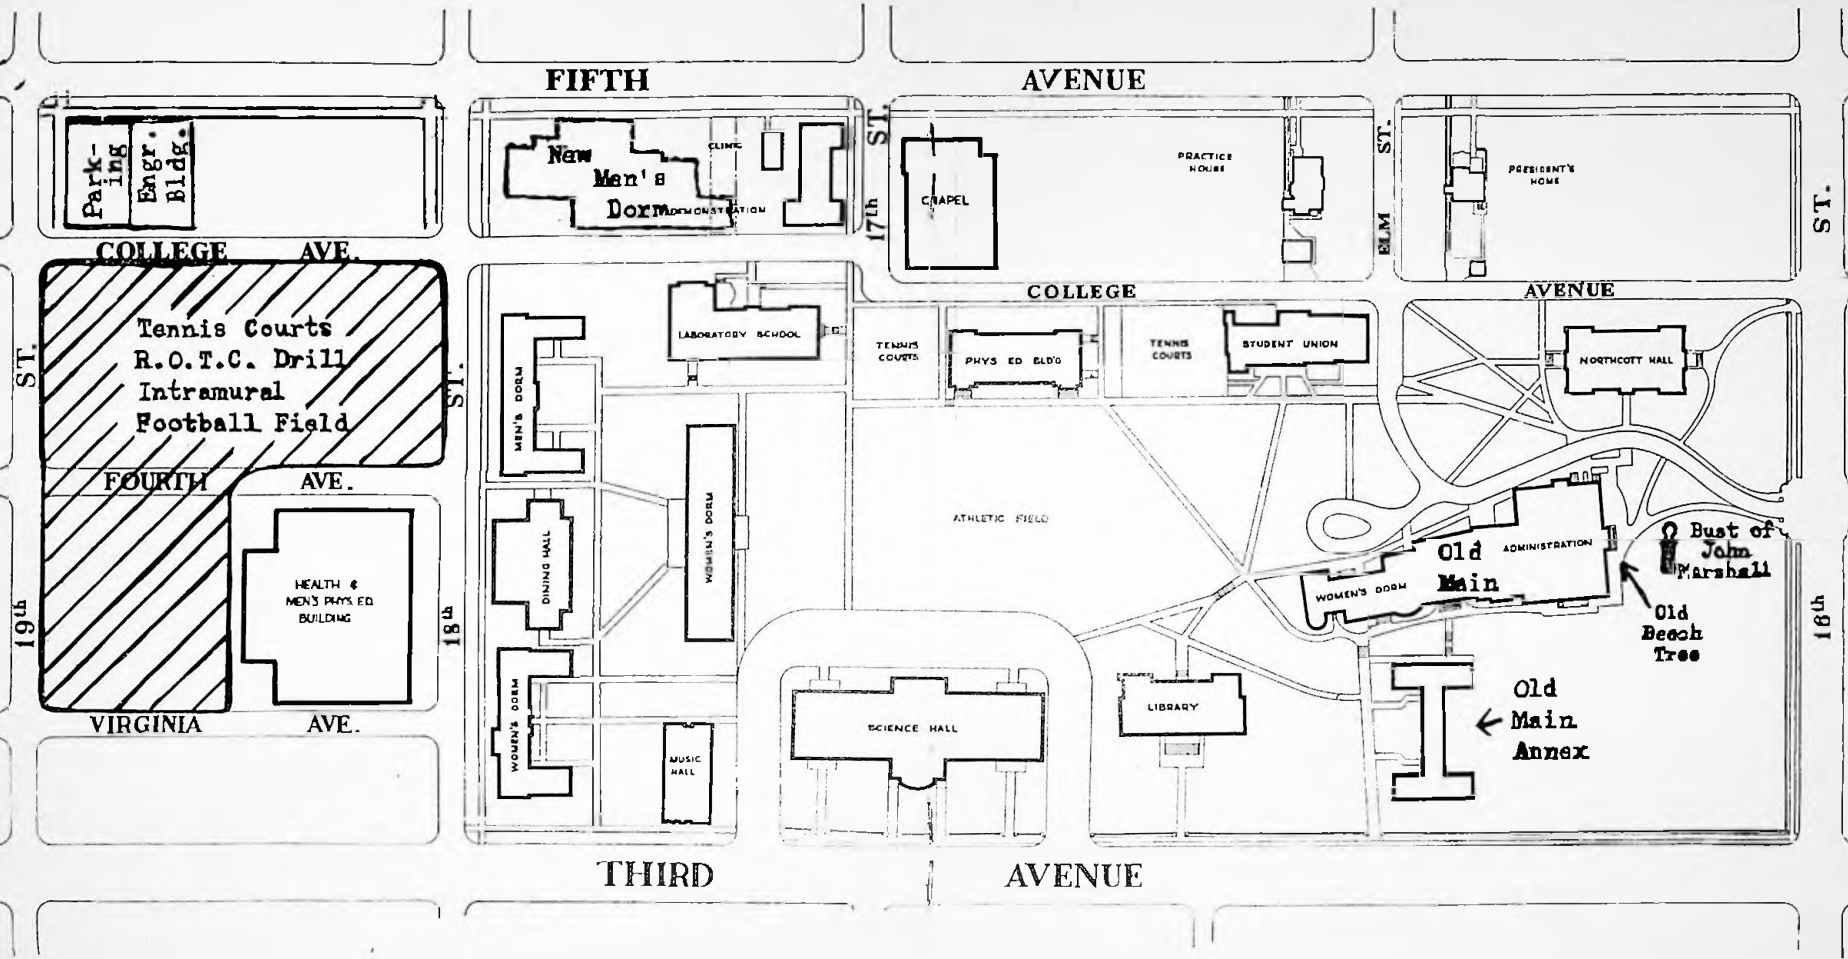

We don't advise cutting class. However, if you find it necessary to miss class, be sure you know the policy of your professor before doing so, or you may get a grade cut. When you're sick, call your dean's office, and they will contact your professor. However, this does not automatically excuse you from class. Upon returning to class, be sure to explain why you were absent, and then you will be responsible for making up the work you missed. You may find it necessary to crawl to class for some professors, so do it without question. If you miss a class because of a school activity such as inter-collegiate sports, debates, choir trips, etc., the department head will notify your instructors.

Along the line of class etiquette, call a professor by his correct title. The faculty directory tells you whether it is Mister, Doctor, Professor, Mrs., or Miss. They have worked long years earning their titles, so call them by the correct one. You had better get used to the idea of being called Mister or Miss yourself; this isn't high school. An instructor also appreciates a student who is on time.

A final word, remember your first and primary aim in coming to Marshall is TO OBTAIN AN EDUCATION—aside from you "husband-hunting" females. But remember, girls, Marshall men like their women to have brains as well as beauty.

At college, learning is no longer "candy-coated". The responsibility now lies upon you.

ENTERTAINMENT

Believe it or not, you'll find you have some leisure time. To fill it, try the wide range of entertainment which is concentrated within the tri-state area. Entertainment will naturally differ with the individual, but here are some suggestions on how to use your leisure time in our city.

Fourth Avenue is the main street of the city. On this street about seven blocks from the campus is located the theatre area. Three theatres are located in this section. They offer special student rates if you take your ID card. There are also several drive-in theatres in Huntington or the surrounding area.

The city maintains Ritter Park and several other lesser parks with their recreational facilities. In Huntington is also found Dreamland and the Olympic Pool, superior recreational sites. If the tennis courts on campus are filled, try the ones in Ritter Park. Camden Park also offers many fun-filled amusements.

Huntington offers horseback riding, golf, swimming, hiking, bowling, car rentals, airplane rides, and boating facilities. Miniature golf is one of our most popular recreations.

The YMCA and YWCA are sources of varied activities. Classes in swimming, first aid, handiwork, and lounging facilities are available to students. Neophyte artists can find direction for their talents in classes at the Huntington Galleries, the only one of its kind in the state.

Nationally known entertainers often visit Huntington. All you need to do is read the ads in the newspapers to find out when they are to appear.

Students are always welcomed as helpers with such activities as the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, and related youth groups.

If show business is your calling, you'll find collegians have an opportunity to try their talents in front of the footlights of the Community Players, located at the Abbot Theatre, which is on west Fourteenth street.

Just so you won't get lost, remember that the avenues run east and west and are numbered beginning at the river. The streets run north and south and are numbered in both directions from First Street, which is located fifteen blocks west of the campus. Buses make regular runs, and taxis are always available.

NEARBY CHURCHES

No matter what your church preference might be, Huntington can accommodate you. In fact, it has been called "the city of churches," and you will soon realize why. There are nearly fifty churches and one will suit you.

Following is a list of churches that most of our students attend. The entire list of churches can be found in the yellow section of the telephone directory. You can always find someone on campus who will go with you, so don't worry about being by yourself. Many churches are within walking distance, and most of the outlying churches will be glad to furnish transportation if you're interested in attending their services.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Marshall is not surpassed by any college or university in the United States in its sponsorship of extracurricular activities, both cultural and social.

Each student has an ample opportunity to participate in various activities. Almost every academic department has a club or honorary in its field. It is in such organizations that the student becomes better acquainted with the faculty and with his fellow students.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE—Dramatics is an all-university activity. It gives not only experience in dramatic arts, but gives the student such needed qualities as self-assurance, initiative and cooperativeness.

Students are admitted to the four University Theatre productions given each year by presentation of their student activity cards.

Tryouts for next season's first play will begin in September. Freshmen are eligible for parts and urged to try out.

Beginning its 35th season, the University Theatre is supervised by Professor Clayton Page. Alpha Psi Omega is the top honor that a drama student can attain.

CHORAL UNION—The Choral Union is composed of members of all the choirs in the Music Department, united in order to present major productions such as the "Messiah" and the "Requiem."

A CAPELLA CHOIR—This is the training ground for freshmen interested in participating in choral work. From this group freshmen advance to the Men's Concert or Symphonic Choir.

SYMPHONIC CHOIR—This group is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior women.

MEN'S CONCERT CHOIR—This choir is the male touring group for upperclassmen.

DEBATE TEAM—Marshall has an active forensic division, participating in many intercollegiate speech meets. Outstanding debaters may gain membership in Pi Kappa Delta, national debate fraternity. Professor Ben W. Hope is the director of the debate activities.

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY BAND—Under the direction of Mr. Thomas O'Connell, the Marshall University Band performs at home football and basketball games. On occasions, the marching band becomes the concert band and plays for many university programs. Freshman men and women students are eligible to participate in the band.

RADIO—For students interested in radio production, Marshall has ample facilities in WMUL.

Director of the university radio and television facilities is Mr. Stephen Buell, Assistant Professor of Speech.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government is an integral part of college life here at Marshall University. For it is the means that enables all students to have a voice in all facets of our college life. Our Student Government consists of three branches: The EXECUTIVE, The LEGISLATIVE, and The JUDICIAL. We are very proud of this fine organization which is patterned closely from that of our federal government.

The EXECUTIVE portion of the government is directed by the President of the Student Body. Under the President serving in executive capacity are the STUDENT EXECUTIVE CABINET Secretaries and the COMMISSIONS. The Student Cabinet acts as an advisory group to the President and its members include the Secretaries of: Academic Affairs, Athletic Affairs, Publications and Public Relations, Social Affairs, and Student Government Affairs, and The Executive Secretary, the Business Manager, and the Vice President of the Student Body. The commission heads, better known as Coordinators, serve over the various Student Government Commissions. These coordinators, five cabinet secretaries, the Business Manager, and the Executive Secretary are all appointed by the Student Body President and are subject to the approval of the Student Senate.

The LEGISLATIVE branch of Student Government is the STUDENT SENATE. This is the elected branch. This fall you will go to the polls and elect Four Regular Senators, one Alternate Senator, and a Freshman Class President to voice your opinion in the Student Senate. In the springtime General Elections are held each year to elect upperclass representatives to the Senate, our lawmaking body. The Student Senate meets each Wednesday night at 6:30 P.M. in the Student Government Office, and anyone may attend the meeting to watch his representatives in action. If you think you might be interested in "throwing your hat in the ring" during Frosh Elections, try to attend a Senate meeting. The Vice President of the Student Body serves as the Speaker of the Senate, the Senate's presiding officer.

The JUDICIAL branch of our government consists of eight Student Court Justices and the chairman of the court who is the Chief Justice. The President of the Student Body appoints the court members and the Chief Justice, and the Student Senate must approve these appointments.

Active in many campus activities, Student Government sponsors the following: Homecoming, Life Planning Week, Parents' Weekend, Leadership Camp, the Greenbackers, Student Elections, Freshman Activities, and the Blood Drives. These are only a few, as the scope of Student Government, as you may see by consulting the chart of student government, is very great.

Incoming freshmen can take an active part in student government activities. Freshman elections will be held just a few weeks after the opening of school and you will be given a chance to elect six representatives from your class to the Senate. However, this is by no means the only way you may enter into the activities of your college government. There are many commissions which are formed during the first few months of school, so just drop in the Student Government Office, and fill out an application. Commission coordinators always consult the file of appointments in selecting their commissions.

RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS

The general objective of the Military Science course at Marshall is to produce junior officers who by their education, training, and inherent qualities are suitable for continued development as officers in the United States Army.

Making up six companies, the 250-man battle group takes part in such campus activities as Homecoming and the annual blood drives. The battle group also drills each Tuesday at 11:00 A.M. as part of the regular ROTC program.

The student that completes the four year Military Science curriculum and attends the summer training camp at Fort Knox receives a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army. ROTC leaders are chosen to head each company on the basis of academic ability, military skill, extra-curricular activities, and work in the summer camp.

WESTMINISTER FELLOWSHIP — This is the Presbyterian student group and meets each Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

CHIEF JUSTICE — Presenting a pictorial review of the academic, social, and athletic year plus interesting sidelights is the job of the Marshall University yearbook, the CHIEF JUSTICE. Its editor and business manager are selected by a Faculty-Student Committee and approved by the Student Senate. With such a gigantic job as covering the entire college year, the Chief Justice affords freshmen an excellent opportunity to display their talents and still have fun at the same time. Your copy of the Chief Justice is paid for in your activity fee, so be sure to get it.

THE PARTHENON — Written and edited by students in the Journalism Department, the PARTHENON is published twice weekly during the regular school year and once a week during the summer terms. The Parthenon covers everything from club meetings and intramural games to the State Board of Education and varsity athletic contests. It is distributed each week on Wednesday and Friday in the Union, Science Hall, Old Main, and University Cafeteria. Your activity fee also pays for your subscription to the Parthenon.

ET CETERA — This is the campus literary magazine published in the spring by the Et Cetera Commission of Student Government. It contains poetry, short stories, and essays. Any student may contribute material to be judged for publication in this magazine.

STUDENT DIRECTORY — This book is published by the Marshall University Student Government contains the name, home address, phone number, and local address of students, faculty, and administration members. It is an invaluable aid to all students.

SHAVETAIL — This is published by the R.O.T.C. students.

A LOOK AT SPORTS

Marshall University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and of the Mid-American Conference. Included in the Mid-American Conference are: Bowling Green University, Kent State University, Marshall University, Miami University, Ohio University, Toledo University and Western Michigan University. Marshall plays a full schedule of competition with all conference schools in basketball, football, baseball and golf. We compete with some of the conference schools in tennis, wrestling, track and cross country.

The Marshall athletic program is broad enough to afford opportunity for all those to participate in some sport who are really interested in doing so. You will find that the competition which you will meet in participating in Marshall athletics is among the very best. The University offers a freshman program in practically all sports. Freshmen are not eligible to compete in the varsity sports program, so a fine program has been planned to initiate the freshmen into the Marshall athletic program.

We urge all of you who have any athletic ability in a particular sport to try out for that sport. Don't fail to try out for the team just because you have not been offered a scholarship or the coach has not invited you personally to come out.

FOOTBALL — Marshall's football program is still in the rebuilding stages and has come a long way since Coach Charlie Snyder took over two years ago. Last year's team looked better than any Marshall team in a number of years. We have one of the toughest schedules this year that the school has ever had. You will have an opportunity to see last years Southern Conference Champion, VMI; Mid-American Conference and Small College College Champion in the U. S., Ohio University. These are just two of the fine teams you will see the Big Green meet at Fairfield Stadium.

We have many fine attractions planned for this year's football games to make your evenings and afternoons more enjoyable. We will have a Fireworks Show, High School Band Night, Parents Night and the usual wonderful Homecoming. We need your support for all of our games and especially our home games. Lets get behind our Coaches and players and really show them that you are backing them and you want to see them win. If you really get behind the Big Green and get the Good Old Marshall spirit you will have four of the best years of your life right here on the Marshall campus.

All our home games are played at Fairfield Stadium. We have five home games this year. We have three games away from home that are within easy driving distance. We have away games at Cincinnati against Xavier University, at Louisville against the University of Louisville and at Ashland, Ky., against Eastern Kentucky. Our marching band will make most of the away trips, so let's all plan to make as many of the trips as possible. It really helps the team to see some home town folks in the stands.

BASKETBALL — We are anticipating a much better season this year than we had last season here at Marshall in basketball. You will see some of the best basketball here that you can find anywhere in the country. We play each team in the Mid-American Conference twice plus many of the country's leading teams to fill out our 24-game schedule.

Huntington is a basketball town and Marshall is a basketball school. The fans pack the Memorial Field House to cheer our team to victory. We hope you will be one of those fans. If you cannot participate in this fine sport, come out and help cheer the team to victory.

BASEBALL — With Coach Alvis Brown at the helm, Marshall University has built up one of the finest baseball programs in the area. The Big Green finished sixth in the tough Mid-American conference this year. We play each conference team a double-header each year. In addition to the conference schedule, the team plays some twelve games outside the conference including a trip into the Southlands during the Easter vacation.

Baseball is on the rise at Marshall, and we hope if you have any talent in this field, that you will choose to try out for the team.

WRESTLING — Coach Ed Prelaz has in four short years built the wrestling program at Marshall into one of our finest sports programs. The Big Green wrestlers of last year won four of ten matches.

The team competes with many of the Conference teams plus some of the better teams in this area outside the conference. Much student enthusiasm has been shown in the wrestling here at Marshall. The matches are held in the Men's Health and Physical Education Building and afford much excitement and entertainment.

Coach Prelaz welcomes anyone to try out for the squad. If your weight is from 125 pounds to over 200 pounds, there is a place on the squad for you.

TRACK AND FIELD — Last season saw our track program begin to develop. Much more interest was shown than in past seasons. A better schedule is planned for the future. This is a sport that has many opportunities for those of you who cannot participate in the other sports. If you have any ability in this field at all, you are urged to try out for the team. There will be plenty of opportunity for the freshmen.

Our home meets are held at Fairfield Stadium. The team is under the able guidance of Charlie Kautz.

TENNIS — Tennis is definitely one of the growing sports on the Marshall campus. This season the team will be coached by Richard Klitch, tennis pro at the Guyana Country Club. We are looking forward to a fine season for the squad. You freshmen grab a racket and try out for the team.

Our home matches are played on the campus courts.

GOLF — Golf has been a winning sport at Marshall for the past few years. It has been under the able direction of Larry Snyder. The team plays a fine schedule against real fine competition.

If you have any golfing ability at all, you are urged to try out for the team. Our home matches and practices are held at the beautiful Guyana Country Club.

CROSS COUNTRY — Cross country is a rugged sport. We are trying to build a good cross country program here at Marshall. We are getting a better schedule each year and seem to have more interest each year. The team will be coached this year by Charlie Kautz. Any of you who think you can run four miles are invited to try out for the team. The home matches start at Fairfield Stadium and run through Ritter Park and back to the Stadium.

Cheering our teams on to victory are the following:

The 75-piece BAND is "beautifully" led by our line of seven MAJORETTES and one head majorette. These girls are chosen for the honor in the spring of each year by a series of practices and try-outs. If any of you gals are interested, look forward to next spring and brush up on your marching, twirling, and smiling; that's the basis on which you are chosen.

Our CHEERLEADERS are an outstanding crew of gals. The six regular, one head, and three alternates are also chosen in the spring. Practices and tryouts are held in the spring for upperclassmen. Don't you guys feel slighted, because you can be a cheerleader too; all you have to do is try out the same as your female partners do. And don't you freshmen feel left out, for in the early autumn, tryouts and practices are held to choose a freshman cheering squad.

The "GREENBACKERS", the Flash Card Section at our home football games, was organized three years ago. It has greatly improved the spirit and enthusiasm with 400 members exhibiting a colorful background for the fans during the half-time and before the game. This year you will have the opportunity to join since the section has enlarged to 900, half being Frosh. The Greenbackers landed the franchise for the 50 yard line seats, and those will be served for members only. During Frosh Week, the Steering Committee will register you in front of the Student Government Office for membership.

12. COKE PARTY: The "get-acquainted" party given for rushees by the sororities.
13. CRAMMING: The painful result for those who forget to study "day by day."
14. CULTURE: It's not a disease, but a well-rounded student has it.
15. DEAN'S LIST: The entire list of students who earn a 3.0 or above during a semester.
16. DORM: Your home away from home for the next four years.
17. EIGHT O'CLOCK: Classes resulting from the theory that "The early bird gets the worm."
18. FISH POND: Of historical interest as Fraternity and Sorority pin-mates were at one time dunked into the Fish Pond in Ritter Park. The custom is still often observed.
19. FINAL EXAMS: Farewell parties sponsored by class professors at the end of each semester.
20. FIRE-SIDE CHATS: Informal talks among campus groups during Life Planning Week and Greek Week.

21. FIW: Falling Irregular Withdrawal—this puts you on Academic Probation. If you want to drop a class, drop it through your respective College Dean. This is the Dean's "Pet Peeve."
22. FROSH WEEK: The first week of school dedicated to helping you freshmen become acquainted with Marshall.
23. FLUNK: Fail a course. You've had it, friend.
24. GREEKS: Anyone who is affiliated with a sorority or fraternity with Greek names.
25. HOLIDAY: Vacations at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.
26. HOMECOMING: The week end designated for the return of the ALUMS and also a "Student Remaining" week end.
27. I. D. CARDS: You can pick these up during Frosh Week, and you must present them at all intercollegiate sports, cultural programs, the Library, and for voting.
28. IPC: Inter-Fraternity Council.
29. LATES: Upperclassmen get 11:00 permission on Wednesday nights several times a semester.
30. LEADERSHIP CAMP: A meeting of the campus leaders prior to school to plan the coming year.
31. LOCKERS: 12 books at a time can become mighty heavy, so go to Room 101 in Old Main, for lockers are issued there for Old Main or the Science Hall; it's one dollar per lock, but you get your money back when you return it.
32. LOST AND FOUND: The Dean of Women and Dean of Men handle this problem.
33. MIX: The Wednesday night dances in the Union.
34. NINETEEN HOURS: This load must be approved by your Academic Dean except for Engineering students.
35. OFFICE HOURS: 8:00 until 4:15 for all administrative personnel.
36. OUT-OF-STATE: Those who come here from other states and haven't figured out a way to escape out-of-state tuition yet.
37. PAN-HEL: Pan-Hellenic Association.

38. PROBATION: When students don't make their required grades, they are limited to a 12-hour load.
39. REGISTRATION FATIGUE: After standing in six different lines, and then signing your life away, you, too, will understand Registration Fatigue.
40. ROAD-MAP EYES: The result of an all night siege with the midnight oil!
41. RUSH: A period where sororities and rushes, and fraternities and rushees get acquainted. The sororities and fraternities finally issue bids to rushees to become affiliated with the organization.
42. RUSHEES: If you are rushing a fraternity or sorority, you are a RUSHEE.
43. SACK TIME: That longed for break meaning "sleep-time."
44. SCHOLARSHIPS: These are administered at the Dean of Men's Office, Old Main 110.
45. SEMESTER LOAD: Average 16 hours, be careful, Frosh . . . don't bite off more than you can chew.
46. SHIEP'S SKIN: The diploma of our Alma Mater.
47. SMOKER: The get-acquainted gatherings for you guys; these are sponsored by the campus frats.
48. SPAGHETTI NIGHT: Saturday night meal in the cafeteria.
49. STUDENT ACTIVITIES CARD: Refer to I. D. Card.
50. SUITCASE: Something to be used only during Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and the semester break.
51. SUITCASER: Refers to someone who goes home every week end and misses out on all campus fun.
52. SNAP: A course which requires little or no work. We have such a thing?
53. THUSE: Before each home football game is a pep rally and bonfire on the intramural field.
54. TGIF: "Thank God It's Friday" parties.
55. TOWN STUDENT: One fortunate enough to live in Huntington—but they miss out on all the fun of living in the dorm.

56. TRANSCRIPTS: When transferring to another college or university, the Registrar's Office will make out the first one free, but the rest will be $1.00.
57. TRANSFER: Comes here from another school.
58. TUTORING SYSTEM: Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma tutor women and men respectively at $1.00 an hour. Take advantage of this if you need it.
59. UNIONOLOGY: Be careful, don't spend too much time on this course. Most freshmen decide to major in it but soon change their minds.
60. VETERANS: All information concerning veterans is in the Registrar's Office.
