The Marshall College Big Green return to action this Thursday night after an eleven day lay-off for semester examinations. The Big Green, who have won seven of eleven ballgames this season, will play host to the Western Michigan Broncos.

Marshall will be making its sixth start in Mid-American Conference play, having won three and lost two. The mark is good enough for fourth place in the Conference a short distance behind third place Western Michigan. The Broncos trail only Miami and Toledo. (3)

The visiting Michigan ballclub has been somewhat of a surprise to the Mid-American Conference this season. Coach Joe Hoy entered the season with only one letterman in 6'6 center Ron Jackson. His team suddenly jelled into a title contender and moved in among the leaders. Captain Ron Jackson was moved to forward and he climbed up among the Mid-American scoring leaders.

The Broncos have the height to give Marshall's Charlie Slack rebounding trouble. Slack suffered his worst night of the year, as far as his rebounding is concerned, against Bowling Green a week ago. The tall Bowling Green team ~~XXXX~~ held Slack to 14 rebounds with two husky board clearers that stood ~~XS~~ 6'5 and 6'6. Western Michigan's two top rebounders are built along the same lines. The 6'6 Jackson weighs 225. Center Don Coleman stands 6'5 and weighs 210 .

THE MARSHALL COLLEGE BIG GREEN RETURN TO ACTION THIS WEEK AGAINST THE WESTERN MICHIGAN BRONCOS. CAM HENDERSON'S BIG GREEN ~~XXX~~ HAVE BEEN IDLE FOR THE PAST EIGHT DAYS DUE TO SEMESTER EXAMS. THEIR RETURN TO THE CAGE WARS IS SCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY NIGHT AT MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE.

MARSHALL WILL BE MAKING ITS SIXTH START IN THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE. THEY HAVE WON THREE AND LOST TWO. WESTERN MICHIGAN CURRENTLY RESTS IN THIRD PLACE, ONE NOTCH AHEAD OF MARSHALL. (4)

THE VISITING MICHIGAN BALLCLUB HAS BEEN SOMEWHAT OF A SURPRISE THIS SEASON. COACH JOE HOY STARTED THE SEASON WITH ONLY ONE LETTERMAN. THE LONE LETTERMAN HAPPENED TO BE 6'6 FORWARD RON JACKSON. HOY'S BALLCLUB, BUILT AROUND JACKSON, SINCE HAS MOVED INTO TOP CONTENTION FOR THE CONFERENCE CROWN.

THE BRONCOS HAVE THE HEIGHT TO GIVE MARSHALL'S CHARLIE SLACK REBOUNDING TROUBLE. SLACK SUFFERED HIS WORST NIGHT OF THE YEAR, REBOUND-WISE, AGAINST BOWLING GREEN A WEEK AGO. BOWLING GREEN STOPPED SLACK WITH TWO HUSKY BOARD CLEARERS THAT STOOD 6'6 AND 6'5. WESTERN MICHIGAN'S TWO TOP REBOUNDERS ARE BUILT ALONG THE SAME LINES. THE 6'6 JACKSON WEIGHS 225. CENTER DON COLEMAN STANDS 6'5 AND WEIGHS 210.

IT'LL BE A BATTLE FOR THIRD PLACE IN THE ~~XXXXXX~~ MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE, THURSDAY NIGHT, AT MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE. AND THE TWO SCRAPY BASKETBALL TEAMS THAT WILL BE STRUGGLING FOR THAT POSITION WILL BE MARSHALL AND WESTERN MICHIGAN.

THE MARSHALL BIG GREEN WENT THROUGH A REGULAR WORKOUT THIS MORNING IN PREPARATION. COACH CARL HENDERSON HAS BEEN SENDING HIS BOYS THROUGH THE PACES AT 10:00 AM THIS WEEK. SECOND SEMESTER CLASSES DON'T GET UNDER WAY UNTIL THURSDAY.

THE WESTERN MICHIGAN GAME THURSDAY WOULD BE A BIG ONE FOR THE BIG GREEN TO WIN. A VICTORY WOULD GIVE THEM A FOUR AND TWO MARK IN THE CONFERENCE. THE TEAM TAKES TO THE ROAD LATER IN THE WEEK. THEY GO TO BOWLING GREEN, OHIO, FOR A RETURN ENGAGEMENT WITH BOWLING GREEN THIS SATURDAY. THEY THEN MOVE TO KENT, OHIO, FOR A GAME WITH KENT STATE NEXT MONDAY.

MARSHALL WILL HAVE A CHANCE THIS MONTH TO PROVE THAT THEY ARE NOT "HOMERS". BIG GREEN TEAMS HAVE BEEN NOTORIOUSLY POOR ON ROAD TRIPS IN THE PAST. THEY'VE WON TWO AND DROPPED TWO SO FAR THIS SEASON. BUT THIS WILL BE THE SUPREME TEST. MARSHALL TAKES TO THE ROAD SIX TIMES THIS MONTH.

FRESHMAN COACH CARL YORK SENDS HIS TEAM INTO ACTION THURSDAY IN A PRELIMINARY TO THE WESTERN MICHIGAN GAME. YORK'S FRESHMEN WILL BE BOLSTERED BY THE RETURN OF SOME OF THEIR TEAM MEMBERS WHO WERE INELIGIBLE THE FIRST SEMESTER. THE FROSH HAVE WON SIX OF SEVEN GAMES AND WILL BE PLAYING THE INTERNATIONAL NICKLE COMPANY TEAM.

BOB FRIEDLY, SPORT NEWS EDITOR

February will be a critical month for the Marshall College Big Green, who play Western Michigan for third place in the Mid-American Conference Thursday at Memorial Fieldhouse. Marshall, currently the nation's second highest scoring major college, will be returning to the cage wars after a between semester layoff minus sharpshooting guard Carl York. York contributed 17.3 points per game to the Marshall scoring machine.

Along with the problem of finding a replacement for York, the Big Green must play six games on the road during the month of February. And Marshall has a habit of playing its best ball in the friendly confines of Huntington's Memorial Fieldhouse. Last season, Marshall would have gone through the season unbeaten if they had played as well on the road as they did at home. The Big Green won thirteen without defeat on the home court but lost four out of eleven on the road. So far this season Cam Henderson's fast break machine has rolled over five out of seven opponents at home but has only a two and two record on the road. (9)

The Marshall squad went through a workout at 10 o'clock this morning in preparation for Thursday's game with Western Michigan. The Mid-American Conference opposition that have been coming to town regularly appears to the Huntington fans to be getting tougher with each game. The third place Western Michigan Broncos have an eight point victory over Bowling Green among their accomplishments.

Freshman Coach Carl York sends his team into action Thursday in a preliminary to the game. York's freshmen will be bolstered by the return of eligibility to some of the freshmen's most outstanding candidates. The frosh will be bidding for their seventh win against the INCO team.

MARSHALL COLLEGE COACH CARL HENDERSON HAS APPARENTLY DECIDED TO SHIFT ALL-AROUND IGAN WALT WALOWICZ TO A GUARD SLOT. THE 5'11 WALOWICZ HAS BEEN COPIING OUT AT THE POSITION ALL THIS WEEK. SHIFTING THE IGAN GUARD SHORTER TO GUARD WILL FILL THE VACANCY CREATED BY THE LOSS OF THE GRADUATED CARL ONE.

THE GUARD POSITION IS NOT EXACTLY NEW TO WALOWICZ. HE HELD DOWN THE POST FOR A SHORT TIME WHEN HE WAS A FRESHMAN TWO YEARS AGO.

HENDERSON'S OWN HERBIE MORRIS HAS BEEN IMPROVING IN PRACTICE AS WALT'S REPLACEMENT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE FAST BREAK. COACH HENDERSON EXPERIMENTED WITH MORRIS AS PITCHMAN FOR A SHORT WHILE DURING THE BOILING GREEN GAME TWO WEEKS AGO. MORRIS SCORED 189 POINTS LAST YEAR, WHILE ALTERNATING AT FORWARD WITH DAVE ROBINSON. WHEN ROBINSON WILLED DOWN THE POSITION SOLIDLY THIS YEAR, MORRIS WAS FORCED TO THE BENCH. NOW HE GETS A CHANCE TO ADD HIS "HOT AND COLD" ONE-HAND LUSH SHOT TO THE BIG GREEN SCORING ATTACK AGAIN. WALOWICZ WILL RUN THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE HENDERSON FAST BREAK.

AT ANY RATE, THE BIG GREEN WILL HAVE THEIR HANDS FULL TOMORROW NIGHT. THEY MEET WESTERN MICHIGAN IN A MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE GAME AT MEMORIAL FIELD HOUSE. THE WESTERN MICHIGAN BRONCOS HAVE WON EIGHT OUT OF TWELVE GAMES AND HAVE MOVED INTO SECOND PLACE IN THE CONFERENCE WITH A 3-1 RECORD. THE BRONCOS BEAT BOILING GREEN 85-78 AND KENT STATE 67-53 EARLIER THIS SEASON. MARSHALL ALSO HAS BEATEN BOTH CLUBS.

THE MARSHALL FRESHMAN TEAM WILL SEE PRELIMINARY ACTION TOMORROW NIGHT AGAINST THE INCO TEAM OF THE INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE. THE MARSHALL FROSH WILL NOT ONLY BE SECURING A NEW COACH IN CARL YORK, BUT WILL HAVE THREE FIRST FRESHMAN INVOLVEMENTS AS WELCOME ADDITIONS.

BOB FRIEDLY, SPORT NEWS EDITOR

Marshall College basketball coach Cam Henderson, the dean of West Virginia hardwood mentors, has apparently decided to risk shifting his All-American forward Walt Walowac to a ^{guard} ~~forward~~ spot to fill a vacancy created by the loss of Carl York through mid-year graduation. Henderson's Big Green ace has been the ^{main} ~~big~~ cog in the Marshall fastbreak which has led the team to second place among the nation's highest scoring major colleges.

The guard position will not be entirely new to Walowac. Two years ago, the Logan senior played a handful of games at ~~X~~ guard and was particularly successful with a long one-hand set shot. His scoring average not only failed to suffer but was marked with a slight increase. (11)

Huntington's Herbie Morris has been impressive in practice sessions as Walowac's replacement ~~in~~ in the middle of the fast break. Morris has a fine one hand shot and though he hasn't seen much action this season he has ^{had} considerable experience. Last year Morris shared one of the forward posts with Wheeling junior Dave Robinson ^{and scored} ~~scoring~~ 189 points. Robinson nailed down the position solidly this year and is currently averaging 18.4 points per game.

Cam Henderson's experiment will get a supreme~~X~~ test Thursday night when ~~the~~ ^{holders of} Western Michigan, ~~the~~ ^{second place} in the Mid-American Conference, come to Huntington. The visiting Broncos have won eight out of twelve games.

The Big Green frosh will see action in a preliminary contest sporting a new coach in graduated star Carl York and three new men made eligible this semester.

IT'S MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE BASKETBALL AT MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE TONIGHT. AND THE OUTCOME OF THE GAME WHICH PITS MARSHALL AGAINST WESTERN MICHIGAN AT 8:00 COULD THROW A NEW LIGHT ON THE CONFERENCE RACE. MARSHALL HAS WON THREE AND LOST TWO FOR FOURTH PLACE IN THE STANDINGS. THE VISITING BRONCOS HOLD DOWN THE SECOND SPOT WITH A 3-1 RECORD. TO COMPLICATE MATTERS, MIAMI IS IN BETWEEN THE TWO WITH A FIVE AND TWO MARK.

IF WESTERN MICHIGAN COMES UP WITH A VICTORY TONIGHT THE THREE TOP CONFERENCE SPOTS WILL STILL BE HELD BY TOLEDO, WESTERN MICHIGAN, AND MIAMI. MARSHALL WOULD DROP OUT OF THE RUNNING. 14

ON THE OTHER HAND, IF THE BIG GREEN CAN BEAT THE MICHIGAN CAGERS THE CONFERENCE RACE WILL REALLY GO INTO A SCRAMBLE. MIAMI, WHO DOESN'T PLAY TONIGHT, WILL MOVE INTO SECOND. WESTERN MICHIGAN WILL DROP TWO PLACES TO FOURTH. AND MARSHALL WILL TAKE OVER THE THIRD PLACE. ALL IN ALL, AN UPSET WIN FOR MARSHALL MIGHT HAVE A GREAT EFFECT ON THE FINAL CONFERENCE STANDINGS.

HALL OF FAME COACH CAM HENDERSON WILL BE ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ CONCENTRATING ON HIS BIG EXPERIMENT TONIGHT. "THE OLD MAN" MUST FIND A SATISFACTORY LINEUP FOR HIS TEAM TAKES TO THE ROAD FOR SIX GAMES THIS MONTH. AS OF NOW, HE IS USING ALL-AMERICAN WALT WELOWAC AT A GUARD POSITION AND INSERTING SUBSTITUTE HERBIE MORRIS AS WALT'S REPLACEMENT AS FAST BREAK MIDDLEMAN.

THE MARSHALL COLLEGE BIG GREEN LEFT HUNTINGTON THIS MORNING AT 8:30 TO CONTINUE THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE WARS IN THE CAMP OF THE ENEMY. MARSHALL WON ITS FOURTH CONFERENCE GAME IN SIX STARTS LAST NIGHT. THEY TOPPED WESTERN MICHIGAN 70-61.

THE BIG GREEN WILL REST TONIGHT IN BOWLING GREEN, OHIO. THEN, TOMORROW NIGHT, THEY GO INTO ACTION AGAINST TOUGH BOWLING GREEN UNIVERSITY. MARSHALL BEAT THE FALCONS TWO WEEKS AGO, HERE IN HUNTINGTON. THE OHIO CLUB WILL, HOWEVER, PROBABLY BE THE FAVORITES ON THEIR HOME FLOOR.

BOWLING GREEN'S AL BIANCHI (BEE AWN'KEY) IS CREEPING SLOWLY UP ON MARSHALL'S WALOWAC IN THE MID-AMERICAN SCORING RACE. THIS WILL BE A CHANCE FOR THE TWO TO RENEW THEIR POINT-PRODUCING DUEL. BIANCHI OUTSCORED WALOWAC 26 TO 21 IN THEIR ONLY OTHER MEETING.

CHARLIE SLACK, THE NATION'S SECOND RANKING REBOUNDER, WILL PUT HIS NATIONAL STANDING IN JEOPARDY TOMORROW AGAINST THE FALCONS. BOWLING GREEN'S BIG DUO OF YACKEY AND GERBER HELD HIM TO FOURTEEN REBOUNDS IN THEIR LAST MEETING. THIS WAS HIS LOWEST TOTAL OF THE SEASON.

MARSHALL PLAYS KENT STATE MONDAY NIGHT BEFORE COMING BACK TO HUNTINGTON. THEY BEAT KENT 102-78 AT MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE LAST MONTH. THIS IS ONE THAT MARSHALL CAN'T LOSE. KENT STATE IS USING TEN PLAYERS THAT HAVE BEEN DECLARED INELIGIBLE BY CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER DAVE REECE. SO, ALL CONFERENCE GAMES PLAYED BY KENT RESULT IN FORFEITURES. The Marshall College Big Green play their first Mid-American Conference games away from the friendly atmosphere of the home floor this weekend ~~NAM~~ as they try to better their 4-2 Conference record and maintain their hold on second place. The Marshall squad left at 8:30 this morning by automobiles for Bowling Green, Ohio, where they meet Bowling Green's tough Falcons tomorrow night. They then head for Kent State to play the Flashes on Monday.

Marshall beat both Bowling Green and Kent State at the Memorial Fieldhouse but are expected to have considerable trouble with the two schools away from home. Bowling Green gave undefeated Western Kentucky all they could handle for three quarters a few days ago before losing by twelve points. (27)

Bowling Green's Al Bianchi is creeping slowly up on Marshall's Walowac in the Mid-American scoring race. This will be a chance for the two to renew their point-producing duel. Bianchi outscored Walowac 26 to 21 in their only other meeting.

Charlie Slack, the nation's second ranking rebounder, will put his national standing in jeopardy tomorrow against the Falcons. Bowling Green's Big duo of Yackey and Gerber held him to fourteen rebounds in their last meeting. This was his lowest total of the season.

The Kent State game is one that Marshall can't lose no matter what the score is. Kent is using ten players declared ineligible by Conference Commissioner Dave Reece, and as a result, all of their conference games result in forfeitures. At least, they do as far as Mid-American standings are concerned.

New Electronic Organ Purchased By College

By DOROTHY BUZEK

A new concert model Wurlitzer electronic organ has been purchased by Marshall College and is being installed in the college auditorium, it was announced today by Dr. C. Lawrence Kingsbury, head of the college music department.

The new organ, largest one made by the Wurlitzer Co., replaces a much smaller one which has been in use at the college since 1941 and now has been moved to a studio in the college music building where it will be used for student practice.

Dr. Kingsbury also announced today that organ instruction for regular Marshall College students is being added to the college curriculum this semester for the first time. He explained that there has been a demand for organ instruction for some time and acquisition of the new concert model for the auditorium makes it possible to use the old, smaller one for private instruction to be given by Mrs. Eugenia McMullen, assistant professor of music.

The new instrument is a two manual organ to be equipped with three large speakers. Two of the speakers have already been installed and the third one is expected to arrive soon.

This organ, Dr. Kingsbury said, is much more modern than the old one and will better fulfill the auditorium needs for convocations and recitals.

After the final dedication of the new instrument, there will be a series of recitals planned so that the public may have opportunity to hear it played, the head of the music department said. He added that the date of dedication ceremonies has not been set because installation of the organ cannot be completed until the third speaker is received.

This same type organ is in use in many leading institutions throughout the country and will be used at Northwestern University for the World Council of Churches meeting there this year.

RIDGELEY, W. Va. (AP)—Bonnie Jean Wolford, 8-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wolford of RFD 1, Ridgeley, suffocated when she became wedged between the mattress and the railing of her crib.

Dr. Robert Brown of Fort Ashley, called by the parents after they found their daughter Wednesday afternoon, issued a certificate stating "accidental death by smothering."

Mrs. Wolford said her husband was outside burning trash when she placed the baby in the crib while she went to the landlord's house nearby to pay the rent.

When she returned, she found the baby and called the doctor.

(Marshall fire safety peak---1)

(Huntington, W. Va. — (Specie) —)

(Marshall College buildings have reached an all-time peak in the extent of their ~~present~~ protection against fire, college officials said yesterday after receiving the latest report from the fire marshal's office.

"The report is the most favorable that we have had yet," said Dr. Stewart H. Smith, Marshall president. "And most of the new recommendations it embodies either have been completed or are in the process of being carried out."

The safety peak has been achieved after an expenditure of more than $200,000 over a six-year period. A major part of that sum has been spent to make Old Main, Marshall administration building, safer than it has ever been before.

At the request of the state board of education, C. A. Raper, state fire marshal, assigned two members of his staff to make a complete reinspection of the Marshall College physical plant. The inspectors were Wayne C. Williams and John M. Thompson, both assistant fire marshals.

They examined all campus facilities January 20, and gave a report which Dr. Smith term anf "most encouraging."

FALCONS RIP MARSHALL, 100 TO 70

GERBER IS HIGH MAN WITH 38

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio, Feb. 6 (AP) — A red hot Bowling Green team, leading by at least 14 points after the first quarter, swamped Marshall 100-70 tonight in a Mid-American Conference basketball game here.

Jim Gerber, Bowling Green's 6 foot, 6 inch center, scored 38 points, double his average, and poured in 18 points in the last period. Al Bianchi, Bowling Green forward, scored 26 points before he fouled out early in the fourth quarter.

Walt Walowac of Marshall, leading scorer in the conference, was held to 23 points.

It was Bowling Green's fifth win in eight conference games, and Marshall's third loss in seven conference games.

GERBER'S TOTAL was a new individual high for the Falcons this season and was also his own high output.

The Falcons thus reversed a 91-87 defeat pinned on them by the Big Green in Huntington two weeks ago but at that time the West Virginians had a slick running guard named Carl York in the lineup. York's absence was a big factor tonight. He has graduated.

Bowling Green ripped Marshall's zone defense apart in the first period with 31 points and it was strictly a breeze from there.

BY WINNING, the Falcons moved into a second place 5-3 MAC tie with defending champion Miami which lost to Toledo 65-57. The Rockets are now 7-1 and lead by two games.

Marshall slipped from third o fourth with 4-3 while Ohio tied Western Michigan for fifth by beating the skidding Broncos, 67-59, at Athens. Ohio is 4-4, Western Michigan 3-3. The Broncos were in second place at the start of the week but lost to Marshall Thursday and now Ohio.

Frederick A. Fitch, Jr., associate professor of physical education at Marshall College, has been appointed by Governor William C. Marland as state representative to a White House Conference on Highway Safety in Washington D. C. on February 17, 18 and 19. The purpose of this conference, called by President Eisenhower, is to develop nation-wide support, at the community level, for proven methods of improving street and highway safety. (53)

Fitch has been assigned to the public officials conference group. He will meet with other representatives in the Departmental Auditorium lobby in Constitution Hall at 8:30 A.M. February 17, where he will be given his credentials to participate in the group sessions.

Delegates to the conference were appointed by governors of all the states, at the request of President Eisenhower. These delegates will represent agriculture, business, labor, women, public officials, media of public information and organizations (service, religion and fraternal).

Members of the conference will translate knowledge of accident preventions, collected by safety organizations, into results by means of continued public support.

*Studies in School Administration---1)

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.---(Special)---A social experiment that may bring immediate improvements to three county school systems and point the way for improving schools throughout West Virginia is being carried on by county and state agencies with the cooperation of Marshall College.

The experiment involves county studies in educational administration in Greenbrier, Mercer and Marion counties. (54)

The aim of each study is to determine what the people think the county educational program is and what they want it to be, what the school personnel think the program is, what it is and what it should be in the light of the best accepted philosophy of education.

Findings in each county will be publicized along with a definite plan for cooperative effort to build the type of educational program found to be needed.

A direct result of the experiment is expected to be a better understanding between school personnel and the public.

The West Virginia studies are co-sponsored by the West Virginia Cooperative Program in Educational Administration and by the West Virginia Association of School Superintendents. Assistance is given by the central staff of the Southern States Cooperative Program in Educational Administration.

The project in each county has been undertaken with the approval of both the county school superintendent and the board of education.

(Studies in School Administration---2)

Studies to improve schools also are being undertaken on the county level in other states. All are part of an extensive national movement to build school systems that better meet the needs of the areas they serve. The Kellogg Foundation has allotted $3,500,000 to be used to finance state and county projects designed to improve the preparation programs for school administrators.

Eight institutions of higher learning in the United States have been selected to aid in the projects. They include Teachers College of Columbia University, Harvard University, Ohio State University, University of Chicago, University of Oregon, Stanford University, the University of Texas and George Peabody College. (55)

Each institution has an opportunity to develop its own program. The West Virginia project has been under the guidance of George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee.

Marshall College has had a leading part in the movement from the beginning. A member of the Marshall faculty, Dr. Ralph D. Purdy, associate professor of education, has been assigned to the project for about 18 months. He is state coordinator for the experiment and secretary of the state advisory committee which has been formed to further the program in West Virginia. Dr. Purdy also is directing the studies in Greenbrier and Mercer counties through graduate extension classes.

The state advisory committee includes representatives of higher education, the state department of education and the professional associations of school administrators.

(Studies in School Administration---3)

C. H. Archer of Princeton is chairman of the committee, Robert Baldwin of the West Virginia University faculty is vice chairman.

This committee initiated the studies in West Virginia. It will decide later this year whether to extend the experiment to include other counties of the state. The investigations in Greenbrier, Mercer and Marion counties have been undertaken as pilot studies.

The Greenbrier and Mercer county projects are carried on through Marshall College graduate extension classes which give residence credit toward advanced degrees. As an outgrowth of Marshall's classes, a similar arrangement with West Virginia University has been worked out in Marion county. (56)

Each program involves the entire school administrative staff as well as community leaders in each county.

The extension classes are organized so as to enable persons concerned to discuss their problems freely and to attack them directly. Those admitted to the classes include interested administrators, prospective administrators identified by the county administrative staff and invited to take part, teachers and administrators working on either master's or doctor's degrees. Any other interested person is admitted if recommended by the school superintendent of the county in which the classes are conducted.

In each class, small groups are formed to exchange ideas and to suggest problems needing attention. Those considered most important are assigned to groups for special investigation and study. The work involves numerous meetings and personal interviews.

America's aid to its friends abroad has stalled communism in Western Europe and defeated it in Greece, Dr. Conley H. Dillon, head of the Marshall College department of political science, told the international studies group of the Woman's club at a meeting yesterday . (Wednesday)

The educator said European and British economies have been restored so that they now can stand on their own feet unless new emergencies develop.

"But," Dr. Dillon added, "they will need more markets for their goods which will mean lowering tariffs and removing other trade restrictions."

He said America's aid in the form of grants and loans has amounted to more than $1.7 billion dollars.

Workshop Scheduled At College Saturday

Plans have been completed for a workshop to be held here Saturday at Marshall College under sponsorship of the Cabell County Classroom Teachers Association and the Marshall College Phi chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education society.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Homa Gans, professor of education at Columbia University, N. Y., who will discuss "How to Help the Child Who Stands Alone" at the opening session at 9:30 A. M. in the college science hall.

Dr. Gans will be introduced by Dean D. Banks Wilburn of the teachers college at Marshall. The Rev. Joseph A. Garshaw, president of the Huntington Ministerial Association, will give the invocation and music will be presented by Miss Elinor Copenhaver, music teacher at Barboursville high school.

A coffee hour will follow. It will be given by the Future Teachers of America Club at Marshall under the direction of Walter Felty.

After the coffee hour there will be a panel discussion on "How Huntington Helps the Child Who Stands Alone." The moderator will be Mrs. Mae Houston. Participants will include Miss Peggy Whitley who will discuss "Youth Building Clubs of the Area"; Robert E. Stephens, health and physical education director for Cabell county schools, who will speak on "The Program for the Exceptional Child in Cabell county;" Mike Lewis, manager of Memorial Field House, who will discuss the recreation program, and Lee Roy Hamilton, who will discuss child welfare in the delinquency areas.

The panel presentation will be followed by a luncheon in the Marshall cafeteria at which time Dr. Gans will summarize the conference and point out additional ways in which this community might help children.

The day's program will close with a tea in the North Parlor of Old Main with chairman of the various committees of the Classroom Teachers Association serving as hostesses.

FOR FRIDAY, SPORT NEWS FROM

MARSHALL COLLEGE COACH C W HENDERSON WILL CONTINUE TO JUGLE HIS LINEUP IN PRACTICE THIS WEEK. HENDERSON'S BIG GREEN RETURNED, YESTERDAY FROM THEIR FIRST MID-WESTERN CONFERENCE ROAD TRIP. AND IT IS APPARENT THAT HE COULDN'T FIND AN ANSWER TO HIS LINEUP PROBLEMS ON THE ROAD. THE BIG GREEN TOOK TWO STUNNING DEFEATS, ONE BY BOWLING GREEN AND THE OTHER BY KENT STATE. ONLY A MONTH AGO, MARSHALL BEAT BOTH OF THOSE CLUBS. SINCE THEN, THE SQUAD HAS BEEN WEASELED THROUGH THE LOSS OF GUARDS CARL YORK AND RAY FRATER. YORK GRADUATED AT MID-YEAR AND FRATER WAS RULED INELIGIBLE SCHOLASTICALLY. (61)

HENDERSON'S WORRIES ARE JUST BEGINNING. MARSHALL GOES ON AN EVEN TOUGHER WEEKEND ROAD TRIP THIS SATURDAY. THEY'VE GOT A SECOND MEETING WITH THE CONFERENCE LEADERS AT TOLEDO, SATURDAY NIGHT. THEN THEY CONTINUE ON TO KALAMAZOO, MICHIGAN, FOR A SECOND TUSCLE WITH WESTERN MICHIGAN. MARSHALL LEFT TO TOLEDO AT NOON AND LEFT WESTERN MICHIGAN.

IN MARSHALL'S TWO ROAD LOSSES, HENDERSON TRIED ABOUT EVERY COMBINATION THAT WAS POSSIBLE WITH HIS NINE MEN. NONE SEEMED TO BE TOO SUCCESSFUL. GUARD BOB BRADLEY DROPPED IN FOUR POINTS LATE IN THE KENT STATE GAME AND MAY POSSIBLY SEE MORE ACTION. ANOTHER POSSIBILITY IS LEMIE BURNS, WHO WAS A REGULAR CENTER AT MARSHALL TWO YEARS AGO. BURNS HAS BEEN WORKING THIS YEAR, BUT AVE AND TODAY FOR PRACTICE. HE DEMONSTRATED THE 6'2 REBOUND ACE AT GUARD FOR A TRYOUT.

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

FOR FRIENDLY, SPORT REFS EDITOR

Cochman Henderson's Marshall Big Green go on an even tougher weekend road trip, this Saturday, after meeting two stunning Mid-American Conference defeats this past weekend. The Big Green lost to Bowling Green 100-70 and Kent State 67-61 after beating both of the two teams only a month ago.

Henderson is still thirsting for a replacement for graduated guard Carl York. "The old man" tried almost every combination possible with his nine men while on the road.

Leis Burns, who was a regular center with the Big Green two years ago, reports for practice today and Henderson immediately gave the 6'2 rebound ace a try at a guard spot. Burns, however, has been holding down a job since he left the Marshall squad last year, and has not had much practice except for a city independent team.

Charleston senior Bob Irday, who entered the Kent State game late in the contest last Monday night and promptly dunked two field goals may get a chance to see more action at a guard spot.

The Marshall season record now stands at eight and six. Their Conference record is 5-3 since the Kent State game is a forfeit loss for Kent State in Conference standings. Kent State has been using tan players declared ineligible by Conference Commissioner Dave Reese for participation in high school alumni games.

BOB FRIEDLY, SPORT NEWS EDITOR

The Marshall College Big Green will leave by plane Saturday morning on another two game road trip which they hope will not be as costly as the one last week. Marshall was knocked pretty much out of contention for the Mid-American Conference crown by two stunning defeats at the hands of Bowling Green and Kent State. This week they take on Toledo University, the Conference leaders, at Toledo, and Western Michigan, at Kalamazoo.

An upset win by Marshall over Toledo Saturday night could really throw a monkey wrench into Toledo's championship plans. The Mid-American leaders are ahead of Bowling Green by only one game. Toledo has three contests remaining in Conference play and Bowling Green has four. One loss for Toledo and four wins by Bowling Green would give the second place Falcons the crown. Bowling Green has been playing strong enough recently to walk off with those four victories without surprising too many people. (64

Marshall coach Cam Henderson, in a typical pessimistic gesture, holds little hope for a Big Green upset of the powerful Toledoans. In Huntington a month ago, Toledo beat the Big Green 76-69 doing a fine defensive job against Marshall's potent attack. Walt Walowac, Marshall Helms-All-American forward, managed to score only 16 points. A great deal of the defensive credit for stopping Walowac must go to Rocket captain John Pazdzior. The 6'1 Toledo guard had unusual success in blocking Walowac's shots in mid-air.

MARSHALL COLLEGE SENDS BOTH THEIR FRESHMAN AND VARSITY GOLF TEAMS INTO ACTION AWAY FROM HOME THIS WEEKEND. THE FRESHMAN LEAVE TOMORROW FOR MONTGOMERY AND A GAME WITH THE WEST VIRGINIA TECH FROST. THEN, SATURDAY, THEY GO TO LOGAN TO BAT LE THE VPI FRESHMEN.

THE BIG GREEN VARSITY WILL LEAVE BY PLANE SATURDAY MORNING FOR TOLEDO AND A GAME WITH THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE LEADING ROCKETS. THEY CONTINUE ON TO KALAMAZOO, MICHIGAN, ON SUNDAY. THE ROAD TRIP ENDS MONDAY NIGHT WHEN THE BIG GREEN BATTLE WESTERN MICHIGAN.

TOLEDO IS APPARENTLY WELL ON ITS WAY TO THE CONFERENCE CHAMP. THE ROCKETS HAVE THREE CONFERENCE GAMES REMAINING. MARSHALL, KENT STATE, AND OHIO UNIVERSITY. TOLEDO LEADS BOWLING GREEN BY ONLY ONE GAME BUT NEEDS ONLY TO BEAT MARSHALL AND OHIO TO WALK OFF WITH THE LABELS. KENT STATE DOES NOT FIGURE BECAUSE OF THE INELIGIBILITY RULING ON TEN OF THEIR PLAYERS. TOLEDO PLAYS BOTH MARSHALL AND OHIO UNIVERSITY ON THE ROCKET'S HOME FLOOR. (66)

AN U.S. SET WIN BY MARSHALL SATURDAY NIGHT COULD REALLY THROW A MONKEY WRENCH INTO TOLEDO'S PLANS HOWEVER. SECOND PLACE BOWLING GREEN PLAYS ONE MORE GAME THAN THE LEAGUE LEADERS. THIS WOULD MEAN THAT IF BOWLING GREEN WON EACH OF THEIR FOUR REMAINING GAMES AND TOLEDO LOST, BOWLING GREEN WOULD BE THE CONFERENCE WINNER BY A FEW PERCENTAGE POINTS.

SCORING
MARSHALL'S WALT WALONAC WHOSE AVERAGE HAS FALLEN OFF TO 23.5 WILL BE UP AGAINST THE STOUT TOLEDO DEFENSE ONCE AGAIN SATURDAY NIGHT. TOLEDO HELD WALONAC TO 16 POINTS IN AN EARLIER MEETING, THANKS MAINLY TO THE DEFENSIVE WORK OF CAPTAIN JOHN PALAZION. THE TOLEDO GUARD HAD AN UNUSUAL SUCCESS AT FLOCKING WALONAC'S SHOTS IN MID-AIR.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- February 12, 1954

Although Marshall College Coach Cam Henderson firmly states that there is "not a chance", the Marshall Big Green could throw a monkey wrench into Toledo University's Mid-American Conference championship plans with an upset win this Saturday. Marshall took two thumpings on the road last weekend and are virtually "out" of a chance at the crown themselves. Now, the Hendersonmen would like to step into the role of a spoiler against the Conference leading Ohioans.

Toledo beat Marshall 76-69 in mid-January at Huntington's Memorial Field House. Coach Jerry Bush's Toledo Rockets thus became only the second team in two years to beat Marshall on the Big Green home floor. Last year Marshall was unbeaten in thirteen games at the spacious Memorial Field House. They were whipped earlier this season by Miami in two overtimes.

Toledo has three more Mid-American games to play including the Marshall scrap, before they can lay claim to the Mid-American crown and an automatic berth in the NCAA playoffs. The Rockets now bear a 7-2 mark. Bowling Green, coming on fast after a slow season start, is close behind with a 6-3 record with four games left. In other words, a win by Marshall or Ohio Univ. over Toledo (providing Bowling Green wins their four remaining games) would sew up the MAC championship for Bowling Green by a slim percentage. (67)

Marshall Coach Cam Henderson couldn't find the right lineup during the Big Green road trip last week, so he'll keep on searching right up until Saturday night. In the Kent State and Bowling Green losses he tried about every combination that was possible for his nine man squad. Henderson has been plagued with lineup problems ever since guard Carl York graduated at mid-year and 6'6" guard Ray Frazier was ruled scholastically ineligible.

Helms All-American Walt Walowac has been shifted back and forth from guard to forward and the strain has begun to show on his point average, which has dropped to 23.5. Big Charlie Slack, the nation's second ranking rebounder, still holds firm at center, however. The other positions have seen several different combinations.

The top team in the Mid-American Conference, Toledo University, is the Marshall Big Green opponent tomorrow night. The high flying Rockets will play host to Marshall at Toledo.

Cass Henderson's Big Green will be making a bid for their ninth win. They've failed twice in a row, now, to nail down that ninth victory. The Big Green have lost six, one of them to Toledo 76-69 here in Huntington.

It'll be a crucial game for Toledo. An upset win by the Marshall eagles could knock them out of their first conference championship. The Mid-American leading Rockets aren't taking the Big Green lightly either. They remember the first Marshall--Toledo meeting this year. The Rockets had to rally from a 61-61 tie late in the game to beat Marshall. A publicity release out of Toledo today stated that Marshall definitely could not be "considered a pushover." 68

Marshall's Walt Walowac, down to fourth place in conference scoring, will once again meet up with Toledo's Phil Martin. Martin is now in third place, one-tenth of a point ahead of Walowac. Martin outscored Walowac 34 to 16 when the two scoring aces last met.

The Big Green starting lineup for the trip is still as uncertain as it ever was. Henderson has been experimenting throughout the week with various combinations. It appears now, however, that he will go back to the starting five of: Morris and Robinson at the forwards, Slack at center, and Walowac and Crum at guards.

THE TOP TEAM IN THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE, TOLEDO UNIVERSITY, IS THE MARSHALL BIG GREEN OPPONENT TOMORROW NIGHT. THE HIGH FLYING ROCKETS WILL PLAY HOST TO MARSHALL AT TOLEDO.

CAM HENDERSON'S BIG GREEN WILL BE MAKING A BID FOR THEIR NINTH WIN. THEY'VE FAILED TWICE IN A ROW, NOW, TO NAIL DOWN THAT NINTH VICTORY. THE BIG GREEN HAVE LOST SIX, ONE OF THEM TO TOLEDO 76-69 HERE IN HUNTINGTON.

IT'LL BE A CRUCIAL GAME FOR TOLEDO. AN UPSET WIN BY THE MARSHALL CAGERS COULD KNOCK THEM OUT OF THEIR FIRST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP. THE MID-AMERICAN LEADING ROCKETS AREN'T TAKING THE BIG GREEN LIGHTLY EITHER. THEY REMEMBER THE FIRST MARSHALL--TOLEDO MEETING THIS YEAR. THE ROCKETS HAD TO RALLY FROM A 61-61 TIE LATE IN THE GAME TO BEAT MARSHALL. A PUBLICITY RELEASE OUT OF TOLEDO TODAY STATED THAT MARSHALL DEFINITELY COULD NOT BE "CONSIDERED A PUSHTOVER."

MARSHALL'S WALT WALOWAC, DOWN TO FOURTH PLACE IN CONFERENCE SCORING, WILL ONCE AGAIN MEET UP WITH TOLEDO'S PHIL MARTIN. MARTIN IS NOW IN THIRD PLACE, ONE-TENTH OF A POINT AHEAD OF WALOWAC. MARTIN OUTSCORED WALOWAC 34 TO 16 WHEN THE TWO SCORING ACES LAST MET.

THE BIG GREEN STARTING LINEUP FOR THE TRIP IS STILL AS UNCERTAIN AS IT EVER WAS. HENDERSON HAS BEEN EXPERIMENTING THROUGHOUT THE WEEK WITH VARIOUS COMBINATIONS. IT APPEARS NOW, HOWEVER, THAT HE WILL GO BACK TO THE STARTING FIVE OF: MORRIS AND ROBINSON AT THE FORWARDS, SLACK AT CENTER, AND WALOWAC AND CRUM AT GUARDS.

AFTER THE TOLEDO GAME, MARSHALL TRAVELS ON TO KALAMAZOO WHERE THEY WILL MEET WESTERN MICHIGAN MONDAY NIGHT.

The Marshall freshman team, strengthened by three players who were ineligible because of grades during the first semester, takes to the road this weekend to play the West Virginia Tech frosh at Montgomery and the V.P.I. freshmen at Logan. The "Little Green" have won seven out of eight games this year. Coach Carl York, who took over the reins this semester after graduating from Marshall at mid-year, will be making his second start of the season. He substituted freely for a 98-52 win in the Marshall-Western Michigan preliminary a week ago.

York's probable starters on the two-day trip will be guards Paul Underwood of South Charleston and Skip Burton of Chesapeake, Ohio, 6'4" center Bob Ashley of Middleport, Ohio, and forwards Cebe Price of South Charleston and Joe Hunnicutt of Princeton.

The Marshall freshmen will be out to repeat their 75-72 win over West Virginia Tech on Friday night. Saturday they will be meeting the V.P.I. frosh for the first time.

Speaker Is Noted In Wide Sociology Field

Dr. Margaret Mead, associate curator of ethnology and director of research in contemporary cultures of the American Museum of Natural History, New York, will speak on the Forum series tonight at 8:15 P. M. in the auditorium. She will speak on the subject, "From the South Seas to Modern America."

THE NOTED anthropologist is internationally known as a student of primitive and contemporary cultures. Her studies of primitive societies have given her keen insight into contemporary life and her comparative approach has brought illumination into the darkness of many involved problems of the day.

Her numerous expeditions, beginning in 1925-26, have taken her to Samoa, the Manus Tribe in Admiralty Island, New Guinea, Bali, Iatmul and Australia.

Dr. Mead is a graduate of Barnard College and received her M.A. degree and Ph. D. from Columbia University. She holds honorary degrees from Wilson College, Rutgers University and Elmira College and has been the recipient of the National Achievement Award, Women Geographer's Medal and the Avon Award.

SHE IS THE author of many scientific monographs and papers and is widely known as the author of "Coming of Age in Samoa," "Growing Up in New Guinea," "Sex and Temperament in Three Primitive Societies," "The Changing Culture of an Indian Tribe," "Keep Your Powder Dry," "Soviet Attitudes Toward Authority," and other books.

She has just recently returned from an expedition to the Admiralty Islands Territory of Papua and New Guinea where she did a restudy of the village which she first studied in 1928 and described in "Growing Up in New Guinea" published in 1930. The children whose pictures are published in that book now are the "elders" of the village, for these energetic people live very short lives.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.---(Special)---More than $600,000 will be saved for other educational needs as the result of a recent study of educational radio operational costs, according to Raymond D. Cheydleur, director of educational broadcasting for Marshall College, who conducted the research. (76)

This conservative estimate of money to be saved by colleges and universities during the next ten years from licensing fees to the Federal Communications Commission is the result of many months of research.

Two years ago college administrators asked the routine question of what it would cost to maintain an educational station. "We quickly discovered that there wasn't any answer," said Cheydleur. "It was known that the schools were pouring millions into educational television in order that educators could make use of this new 'tool', but nothing was really known about educational radio operational costs."

A routine check with the U. S. Office of Education started a systematic check of all existing educational stations. Some answers were complete, but many of them called for further detailed questioning. No uniformity appeared to exist.

(Educational Radio Study---2)

At last a simple classification system was devised and the results were tabulated. But the next problem was that of printing the one hundred page book. No publisher would ever handle a study of this nature, and funds for printing it here on the campus were non-existent. "But by talking to one person here and another there, enough assistance was obtained from the various cooperative departments and services to print the study," Cheydleur remarked.

Copies were then furnished to various administrators and a few were sent out to other directors. Nothing was heard for about four weeks.

Requests then began to pour in for copies of "A Financial Analysis of Fifty-four Education Stations," from college presidents, public school officials, and administrators from every section of the country. Correspondence was received from as far as Japan.

But its real importance was not learned until last Monday when the executive director of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters telephoned from Illinois and wanted enough copies for the association's attorneys in Washington.

Recently the government has planned to tax all AM, FM and TV stations. Total fees for a new station would cost about $1300, with a renewal fee every three years at $325.

The N.A.E.B. attorneys plan to base their case on the findings in the recently completed study. "If the Federal Communications Commission sees the point of view of the educators, it will result in a saving to tax payers throughout the country, and will mean that school budgets already breaking at the seams, will find it a bit easier to provide other necessities," Cheydleur said.

What started out to be a simple question grew to be a study of national importance. The total cost is hard to measure, perhaps about $200. The savings to tax payers and administrators are probably closer to the million dollar mark than that of the conservative estimate given. The research, which began as dull work, has brought further national recognition to Marshall College.

Walowac Stars In Late Rally

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 15. —Marshall Captain Walt Walowac scored 16 points in a wild fourth quarter here tonight to spark his Marshall Big Green to a 90-88 victory over Western Michigan, snapping a three-game Big Green losing streak and giving it undisputed possession of fourth place in the Mid-American Conference.

Walowac's 16 points in the final period gave him a total of 34 for the game, and high scoring honors for the contest. Dave Robinson was second for Marshall with 18, and Charley Slack had 15. Ron Jackson led Western Michigan with 22 markers.

Before a capacity crowd of 2,800 fans, the Big Green fought off the effects of two Bronco rallies and put on a big comeback of its own in the final period. Trailing by eight points, Marshall came to life with six minutes to go, and went on to win.

With the score 79-74 in the Broncos' favor, Walowac got started. He made it 79-76 with a fielder, and added another seconds later to pull Marshall up to 83-78, after two free throws by the Broncos. After Jackson and Norval Burgett gave Western an 84-78 advantage, Walowac hit for two fielders and a foul shot, and then passed off to Herbie Morris for two points and an 85-84 lead.

Western's Fred Corbin put his team back in front with two foul shots, but Walowac hit for another fielder and a free throw, and then Bob Bradley made a foul goal to give Marshall an 89-86 lead. Nowinski made two for the Broncos to pull within one point, but Morris added a foul goal to end the game's scoring.

The victory pulled Marshall up into fourth place in the conference and dropped Western Michigan to sixth. Marshall's next game will be Saturday night at Huntington against Morris Harvey, and its next conference game will be a February 23 game with third-place Miami at Miami.

The Big Green opened up fast, moving out from a 1-0 deficit to take a 10-2 lead, with Walowac and Dave Robinson doing most of the scoring. The Broncos, trailing by eight, then caught fire and collected 14 straight points before Marshall could score.

Walowac finally broke the spell with a jumping one-hander, but Jerry Nowinski of Western Michigan got three quick baskets to shoot his team out to a 24-18 lead at the end of the first quarter.

In the early minutes of the second quarter, Western's Ron Jackson gave his team a 28-23 advantage, but then the Big Green got started. Walowac hit for two, Lowe got a foul shot, and Robinson got a basket to tie it up at 28-all.

The score was tied twice again, with Western taking a 35-34 lead on a tap-in by Fred Corbin. Slack then tapped one in to give the Big Green a 36-35 lead, Walowac added a foul shot, and Slack made it 39-35 on a pass from Bob Lowe.

Western got a foul shot, and Walowac, Bob Bradley, and Walowac again made it 42-38 with three foul shots. Western's Bivens sunk one to make it 42-40, and Marshall's Frank Crum took a pass from Walowac to lay in the final two points of the quarter, giving Marshall a 44-40 halftime lead.

TOLEDO TRAMPLES MARSHALL, 92-74

WALT ENDS SLUMP WITH 33 POINTS

TOLEDO, Feb. 13. (AP) — The University of Toledo moved closer to a Mid-American Conference basketball title by defeating Marshall College 92 to 74 here tonight. The Rockets can claim the crown by winning at Kent State Tuesday and then taking Ohio U at Toledo Friday.

Charlie Slack and Walt Walowac of Marshall put on great individual performances, Walowac scoring 33 points — many on long sets, and slack scoring 22 points, mostly on tip-ins.

Toledo had little trouble solving Marshall's zone defense, and broke it easily. It was pressed to hold the Big Green's fast break but managed to do so and to mold the lead throughout the game.

The Rockets hit 36 of 69 fielders for 52 per cent, while Marshall hit 27 of 74.

The Marshall Big Green return home from a four game road stand, Saturday night, to play traditional rival Morris Harvey. It will be the first time in eight games that Marshall has met a non-member of the Mid-American Conference. Marshall's season record is now 9-7. Their Conference mark stands at five and five.

The Big Green shape up better now than they have at any time since the loss of Carl York. York graduated ^{after} ~~XXXXXX~~ the first semester while averaging 17.3 points per game. The return of Walt Walowac to his 1952-53 form has been the big factor. Walowac poured in 67 points against league leading Toledo and Western Michigan. His shooting percentage from the floor was a sizzling 44 per cent for the two games. Last season, he had an average of better than 39 per cent for twenty-four games. He had, up until the weekend roadtrip, been shooting only about thirty per cent this year. (99)

Charleston senior Bob Bradley played surprisingly well at guard on the trip. Bradley had been almost unnoticed on the squad until the Kent State game a week ago. He got into the lineup late in the Kent game and promptly set about to prove himself. Two quick baskets convinced Coach Cam Henderson that he deserved a tryout. Henderson started Bradley at the right guard spot the very next game. Bradley shared the position with Bob Lowe during this past weekend road trip.

Morris Harvey, Saturday night, will once again be gunning for their first win over a Cam Henderson coached team. The Golden Eagles lost earlier this year to Marshall, 86-80, at Charleston

Cheydleur Named To Six-Man National Research Committee

2-17-54
By JULIA SADD

Raymond Cheydleur, Director of Educational Broadcasting, has been appointed to a six man national research committee. The appointment was made by Graydon Ausmus, Director of Radio at the University of Alabama and President of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters.

LAST YEAR the National Association of Educational Broadcasters received funds amounting to $270,000 from the Ford Foundation for the development of various educational broadcasting projects and seminars.

"Three basic projects will be undertaken this year, I understand," Cheydleur said. "The first deals with a long time program of research as a guide to future work. The second project will handle the problem of evaluating the work of the NAEB network. The third will deal with problems of how the association may help other schools and their administrators in developing new education stations."

CHEYDLEUR added that there are now 120 educational stations on the air and by September 1, of this year another seventy-six institutions will have added their own educational television facilities and should be in operation about the same date.

"The real problem here is not that of trying to prove to the Board of Education that educational broadcasting is a valuable but inexpensive 'tool.' because educators have used it for more than thirty years, but in trying to find competent and well trained teachers to handle the hundreds of new positions now available," he said.

Cheydleur commented, "What makes it difficult is the fact that commercial stations need more and more trained personnel and are calling upon college and university staffs. The resulting shortage is a serious administrative problem."

(Altizer Says Acting is Disease)

"Acting is an incurable disease that never leaves your system," says Jane Altizer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Altizer of Ruffner Avenue, who is ~~is~~ speech and drama student at Marshall College.

Janie's first theatre experience came when she appeared in "Goodbye My Fancy" with the Kanawha Players. This was during her senior year at Charleston High School. An apprentice scholarship to the Allenberry Playhouse in Boiling Springs, Pennsylvania came after this.

Here she had parts in eight plays, including "Kiss and Tell," "The Heiress," "Charlie's Aunt," "Ah, Wilderness" and "Petrified Forest."

"This was the test to see if the theatre was really what I wanted," Janie said.

Following this summer at Allenberry, Janie enrolled in Marshall College. Since that time she has appeared in five college theatre productions. Last year she had parts in "Dream Girl" and "Where The Cross Is made," a freshman play.

Now in her sophomore year, she has appeared in "Lo and Behold" and "Summer and Smoke." She had the co-lead in the latter.

(Altizer Says Acting is Disease---2)

Four offers from summer stock companies were offered to Janie last summer, and she decided to accept the apprenticeship from Pocono Playhouse in Mountainhome, Pennsylvania.

There, she had the opportunity of working with and observing such stars as Billie Burke, Sir Cedric Hardwick, Lilly Darvas, Mary Astor and Peggy Ann Gardner.

"At Pocono different top stars acted with each show, Janie said." When Claire Luce came there to appear in "Edwina Black" we renewed acquaintance, since we had met the previous winter when we both appeared with the Huntington Community Players in "Personal Appearance."

The closing show at Pocono was "Mr. Roberts" starring Richard Arlen. Janie was offered the only female part in the production, but declined since it was time to begin her second year at Marshall College.

"I know now that I will continue acting," she said. "I had doubts about going to New York and making the rounds trying to get in a play as some of my friends say it's pretty rough going, but I've decided that it is what I want to do."

Marshall Generals Spring Upset On Ft. Gay, 59-51

Marshall high school's Generals avenged an 18-point early season defeat by Ft. Gay last night, with a 59 to 51 triumph at Ft. Gay.

Marshall's victory was the fifth of the season for the Generals, with Mike Rist's 19 points topping the winners' efforts. Maryland was high for Ft. Gay with 18 tallies.

Ft. Gay held a 15-12 lead at the end of the first period, but the Generals came back in the second quarter to outscore Ft. Gay for a 28-24 halftime advantage. The Generals kept up the pace in the third period and fought on even terms with Ft. Gay in the finale.

Friday night, Marshall plays at Hurricane.

College Hopes It Will Do Better When Next Fire Drill Is Staged

The staff and student body of Marshall College hope they'll do better the next time a fire drill is staged on the campus.

Lieutenant Rush W. Bloss of the Huntington Fire Prevention Bureau termed a recent daytime fire drill while classes were in session as "almost ridiculous" and said "the teachers were as slow as the students in evacuating the buildings." The only group that responded to the alarm sensibly and evacuated the quarters within a minute was the ROTC unit, according to the lieutenant.

"Then," he continued, "came the fire drill at 1 A. M. for the women students in the dormitories. Some of the women responded, others had to be called from their rooms by knocking on the doors. Alarm bell which could be heard out in the street failed, according to some of the women, to waken them."

There was advance notice of the daytime drill but none for the 1 A. M. drill.

Lieutenant Bloss said the number of alarmbells will be increased in the dormitories and additional drills will be staged.

Frederick A. Fitch, associate professor of physical education, who heads the college safety committee, was out of town today, but other college officials said that Mr. Fitch and his committee will cooperate with the Fire Prevention Bureau in efforts to impress both students and faculty with the importance of responding quickly to the alarm.

"Next time," Lieutenant Bloss said, "we may use smoke-making devices to increase the realism of the drills; but it seems ridiculous to have to force self-protection on college students."

While deploring the poor showing in the fire drills, the Fire Prevention Bureau pointed out that the college administration has shown full cooperation with fire prevention officials, including the state fire marshal's staff. A recent inspection of the buildings showed, according to the fire marshal, that the college administration had corrected most of the conditions complained of in earlier reports.

The Marshall College Big Green return to Memorial Fieldhouse tomorrow night against non-conference competition after four consecutive games on the road. The Big Green meet their Charleston arch-rival, Morris Harvey, in a return engagement. Marshall topped the Golden Eagles 85-80 earlier at Charleston.

Marshall will be shooting for its tenth win in seventeen starts this season against Eddie King's Eagles. The match will be the first non-Mid-American start for ~~Marshall~~ Marshall since January 12 when they met Morris Harvey at Charleston. They dropped four of seven Conference games played since that time.

Marshall is in ninth place in national offense figures, according to this weeks NCAA statistics, but have the none too dubious distinction of having a ^{poorer} ~~higher~~ defensive mark than they have offensive. The Big Green are scoring at the rate of 81.6 points a game but the opposition is scoring at the rate of 82.2.

Walt Walowac is almost a sure bet to go over the 400 point in scoring tomorrow night. Walowac needs only three points to reach that figure in this his senior year. Walowac is only five games away from the termination of his career. (108)

Marshall's greatest scorer also seems a sure bet to finish his college career with an overall twenty point average. Walowac has appeared in ~~Marshall~~ ninety games since he made the Big Green varsity four years ago. The Logan senior has dumped in 1831 points since that time. This constitutes a per game average of 20.3.

Walowac was seventh man on the Marshall squad as a freshman. He managed, however, to score 157 points playing in all but two games. His average as a freshman was only 6.5 but he made up most of the difference last year with a sensational 29.1. As a sophomore he broke the Marshall season scoring record with 579 points. Included in this scoring total was two 40 point performances and a big 36 against Wake Forest. During the past two years Walowac has scored in double figures forty straight times.

MARSHALL COLLEGE FORWARD WALT WALOWAC IS ALMOST A SURE BET TO GO OVER THE 400 POINT MARK IN SCORING, TOMORROW NIGHT AT MEMORI L FIELDHOUSE. THE 5'11 WEARS ALL-AMERICAN NEEDS ONLY THREE POINTS TO REACH THE MARK. THE MARSHALL OPPONENT TOMORROW IS MORRIS HARVEY. THE BIG GREEN HAVE AN EARLIER 86-80 WIN OVER MORRIS HARVEY AT CHARLESTON.

FOR MOST PLAYERS A TWENTY POINT SEASON AVERAGE IS QUITE A FEAT. FOR MANY, A TWENTY POINT GAME IS EVEN A RARITY. BUT FOR WALOWAC, WHO IS THE GREATEST SCORER IN MARSHALL BASKETBALL HISTORY, AN AVERAGE OF TWENTY POINTS PER GAME OVER THE ENTIRE SPAN OF HIS COLLEGE CAREER SEEMS LIKE A SURE THING. WALOWAC HAS APPEARED IN NINETY GAMES SINCE HE MADE THE BIG GREEN VARSITY FOUR YEARS AGO. THE LOGAN SENIOR HAS DROPPED IN 1831 POINTS DURING THAT TIME. THIS CONSTITUTES A PER GAME AVERAGE OF 20.3.

WALOWAC WAS SEVENTH MAN ON THE MARSHALL SQUAD AS A FRESHMAN. HE MANAGED, HOWEVER, TO SCORE 157 POINTS PLAYING IN ALL BUT TWO GAMES. HIS AVERAGE AS A FRESHMAN WAS ONLY 6.5 BUT HE MADE UP MOST OF THE DIFFERENCE LAST YEAR WITH A SENSATIONAL 29.1. AS A SENIOR HE BROKE THE MARSHALL SEASON SCORING RECORD WITH 579 POINTS. INCLUDED IN THIS SCORING TOTAL WAS TWO 40 POINT PERFORMANCES AND A BIG 36 AGAINST WAKE FOREST AS MARSHALL KNOCKED OFF THE DRAGONS 76-68. DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS THE SPEEDY WALOWAC HAS GONE THROUGH FORTY STRAIGHT GAMES NEVER FAILING TO SCORE IN DOUBLE FIGURES.

MARSHALL WILL BE SEEKING ITS TENTH WIN IN SEVENTEEN GAMES AGAINST MORRIS HARVEY. THE BIG GREEN WILL BE VENTURING OUT OF THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE RANKS FOR THE FIRST TIME IN SEVEN GAMES. GAME TIME IS SCHEDULED FOR 8:00 TOMORROW NIGHT.

INCIDENTALLY, SCORING STATISTICS ARE SORT OF EMBARRASSING TO THE BIG GREEN.

ALTHOUGH ~~KNOW~~ NINTH NATIONALLY IN OFFENSIVE FIGURES, THE BIG GREEN HAVE BEEN OUTSCORED THEIR OPPONENTS. THE OFFENSE AVERAGE IS 81.6 POINTS PER GAME. DEFENSIVELY, MARSHALL HAS YIELDED POINTS AT THE RATE OF 82.2 A GAME.

THE MARSHALL FRESHMEN SQUAD IS LOOKING FOR REVENGE TOMORROW NIGHT. THE "LITTLE GREEN" HAVE A RETURN ENGAGEMENT SCHEDULED WITH THE MORRIS HARVEY JUNIOR VARSITY AT 6:15. EARLIER THIS WEEK THE SAME TWO TEAMS MET AT CHAPMANVILLE. THE MARSHALL FROSH WERE HANDLED THEIR SECOND LOSS OF THE SEASON.XX

Enrollment Hits 2,382 At Marshall

By DOROTHY BUZEK

Resident enrollment at Marshall College for the second semester of the 1953-54 term totals 2,382 students, James H. Herring, director of the college Information Service, said today in releasing figures compiled in the office of Luther E. Bledsoe, registrar and director of admissions.

The total includes both full-time and part-time students, but only those attending classes on the campus, Mr. Herring explained. Students taking extension courses are not included.

Men outnumber women by 210, there being 1,296 men enrolled as compared with 1,086 women.

There are 1,650 full-time and 723 part-time students. Those enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences number 1,173; those in the Teachers College, 882 and those in the Graduate School, 327.

The breakdown by classes is as follows: freshmen, 862; sophomore, 474; junior, 367; senior,

(Con. on Page 4, in Col. 2)

435; graduates, 327 and special, 97.

The total registration for this semester represents a drop of 249 from the first semester of this year when enrollment totaled 2,631.

However, Mr. Herring explained, enrollment is generally higher the first semester than it is the second part of the school year.

The peak of post World War II enrollment at Marshall was reached in the first semester of the 1947-48 year when there were 3,439 students enrolled.

Mr. Herring said a number of factors affect the drop off in second semester enrollment. For one thing, he pointed out, the number of new students entering the college at the beginning of the second term is usually not large enough to offset the number who complete their work at the end of the first semester.

The number of new students coming in at mid-year is much smaller than it was in former years because almost all high schools have discontinued mid-year graduations and very few high school graduates enter college at the start of the second semester. Also affecting the decrease is the fact that many war veterans attending college under the GI bill have completed their work.

The other organizations are another student group, the United High School Yearbook Association, and an organization of teachers, the Journalism Teachers Association of West Virginia.

This will be the 16th annual convention of the teachers' group and the third annual meeting of the yearbook association.

About 250 young people from 170 West Virginia public high schools and 5 Catholic high schools are expected to attend sessions of the press group.

Features of the program, planned jointly by the three organizations, will include speeches by President Stewart H. Smith of Marshall college, members of the college faculty and leaders in the fields of newspaper and yearbook production.

Professor Pitt said the meeting will enable high school editors to solve many problems that confront them in producing publications.

Marshall Student Journalist

Who is the ugliest man at Marshall College? Students on campus will have the chance to decide by voting in the Ugly Man contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national scouting fraternity.

Letters have been sent by the fraternity to each social organization and dormitory unit on the campus entitling them to submit one entry to the contest. They may select any full time student or faculty member to run as their candidate.

The rules permit each organization to submit a 5 x 7 portrait photograph of their candidate which will be placed in the Student Union. Candidates may use props, mustaches, false teeth, ears and eyebrows, lighting and scenery to create the desired effect, but cannot use a mask, which will cover the face. Each organization may advertise and publicize the candidate.

THE CONTEST opens March 1 and closes March 5. Each vote will cost a penny, with no limit to the amount of votes per person. Voting will take place in the Student Union from 8:30 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. daily and from 8 to 9:30 P. M. on Wednesday, March 3. Pictures of all the candidates will be mounted on a large plywood plaque and placed in the Student Union. A jar will be put beside each picture to hold the votes.

"The Ugly Man Contest is one of the most popular projects of Alpha Phi Omega from coast to coast," according to Bayard Green, professor of zoology and advisor of the organization. The fraternities sponsor these contests to obtain money for some benevolent cause. The money raised on Marshall campus will be used to help buy uniforms for the College band.

A seven - member committee along with their advisor Dr. Green, have made plans for the contest. Members working on the committee are Roy Stein, Ashland junior, chairman; Jim Baylor, Huntington sophomore, and Dave Dunlap, Huntington freshman, Finance and prices; Jim Holmes, Huntington sophomore, Albin Wheeler, Huntington freshman and Charles Stott Huntington junior, publicity.

ON WEDNESDAY night, March 3, the fraternity will sponsor an Ugly Man's Contest Dance in the Student Union, with the music department furnishing the music. The candidates will be introduced at the dance and should be dressed in their costumes. The tabulation of the contest to that point will be announced.

Applications from eight organizations have already been received by the committee. John Walker, Barboursville junior, transfer from Georgia Tech., who will run for the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and Pi Kappa Sigma sorority, received second place in an Ugly Man's Contest on Georgia Tech campus sponsored by the Alpha Phi Omega chapter there.

A large trophy will be awarded to the organization sponsoring the winner of the contest. The individual winner will receive a silver key entitled the "Ugly Man Contest Key."

BIG GREEN RIPS EAGLES, 101 TO 92

DAD SEES ROBINSON SCORE 28

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Marshall College's basketball team kept Coach Cam Henderson's record against Morris Harvey intact last night with a brilliant 101-92 victory at the field house.

A Henderson-coached basketball team has never been beaten by the Golden Eagles, a fact which appeared to be on shaky ground a few times during last night's game.

The win was the tenth in 17 for Marshall while Morris Harvey's record dropped to 12-11.

PACING THE Big Green was Dave Robinson who collected 28 points, including the final pair in the last two seconds of play which pushed the locals into the century zone for the third time this season.

Robinson turned in an excellent performance, hitting on 13 out of 19 shots for a fat 63 per cent average. He couldn't have picked a better night to play such a game because his father, Hymie Robinson, of Wheeling, was a spectator. It was the first time Mr. Robinson had seen his son perform for the Big Green.

CHARLIE SLACK and Captain Walt Walowac were also big guns in the Marshall attack, each getting 25 points. Walowac, who played an alert floor game, hit on 11 out of 33 shots for a good 33 per cent mark. He also set up countless scoring thrusts and whipped the pass into Robinson which broke 100 points.

Slack coupled his shooting mark of 10 out of 27 for 37 per cent, with his usual stalwart rebounding. The big, 6-5 center, nabbed 30 rebounds off the boards, well above his 22 per-game average.

Every player who got into the game for Marshall scored. Bob Bradley and Bob Lowe got ten and nine respectively while Frank Crum and Herbie Morris chipped in with foul shots for three and one respectively.

SCORING HONORS for the night went to the Eagles' Dave Rosen who played a scintillating game. He probably would have gone well over the 30 mark if he hadn't committed five personals.

Four other Eagles hit double figures — Cap Smith getting 18, mostly on spectacular one-handed pitches from the foul circle; Bob Maxwell 14, and Tom Jarrell and Mario Palumbo ten each.

The game was a fast one with Morris Harvey displaying plenty of speed — almost as much as Marshall. But, in the clutch, which came in the final minute, it was Marshall which had the staying power as it switched suddenly from a freeze into a shooting game which paid off.

A few minutes after the game the Morris Harvey players chose two Marshall players for their all-opponent team, Slack and Walowac. Rounding out the team were Bevo Francis of Rio Grande, Jack Tennant of Glenville, and Carl Hartman of Alderson-Broadbent.

Both teams failed to protect substantial leads during the first two periods. In the first quarter, Morris Harvey had a six point, 11-5 advantage over the Big Green with 5:18 left and hiked (Please Turn To Page 28)

'Hearing With The Eyes' Rewarding Study, Local Teacher Finds

By PAT COOPER

"We live in a hearing world," the use of group amplification and individual hearing aids, the latter being used by Mrs. Rogers, secretary and teacher of exceptional children at Oley elementary school, stated. "When we begin to learn as film strips, pictures, and various objects to encourage the child's vital importance that the child's recognition of the word and image vocabulary. Abstract words, such as prepositions, are the hardest to teach. Naturally, it is not possible to get in all the work that a normal child can learn, but the main thing is to give the exceptional child the feeling that he, too, is able to achieve success in his work, and that he has a place in young society."

When Mary Frances Page, new teacher, left Marshall College in 1929, after two years of the education in teaching, little did she realize that some day she would return to get her degree and begin work in the field of "special education."

There are three main steps in teaching the exceptional child, she pointed out in an interview yesterday. First, the teacher tries to talk and to think. As she stated,

"Anything a child actually sees, he seldom forgets."

She went on to say:

"The child must be taught regular classroom work in addition to special education. It is very important to build a strong basic vocabulary. Abstract words, such as prepositions, are the hardest to teach. Naturally, it is not possible to get in all the work that a normal child can learn, but the main thing is to give the exceptional child the feeling that he, too, is able to achieve success in his work, and that he has a place in young society."

All the boys in Mrs. Rogers' class are regular members of the YMCA, and this, according to Mrs. Rogers, is a great aid in building their sense of accomplishment, and feeling of belonging.

A native of Huntington, Mrs. Rogers attended Marshall College following her graduation from Huntington high school in 1925. After two years in teacher's college, she gave up the idea of getting her degree at that time to accept a teaching position at Mercer elementary school in Charleston. She left Huntington in 1927, and taught primary work for the next ten years.

RETURNING to Huntington during the summer months to be with her family and to take summer courses at Marshall, she met John B. "Ram" Rogers, of Richwood, West Virginia, who was also attending Marshall. They were married in 1935 in Huntington.

Following her marriage, Mrs. Rogers gave up teaching to travel with her husband, who was then with General Motors. In the summer of 1950, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and John Page Rogers, their teenage son, returned to make their permanent home in Huntington, where Rogers is now with West Virginia Steel. Young John is now a sophomore at Huntington high school.

Mrs. Rogers' mother urged her to again attend Marshall to obtain her degree in teaching, but it was not until the fall of 1951, following the death of Mrs. Page, that she enrolled. She did not take the full course, but the basic course which included audio-visual aid, and learning the problems of the exceptional child. She studied under George Harbold, who obtained her aid in the college speech clinic the second semester. "It was George Harbold who started me in the field of special education," said Mrs. Rogers.

While working and learning at the speech clinic, Mrs. Rogers noticed how much harder it was for the child with a defect to learn, and how important it was that he have special attention and training to prepare him for normal life. She decided to continue her training in the special education field.

June, 1952, she began her graduate study under Dr. Eldin K. Jerome, visiting instructor at Marshall from West Virginia University. Meanwhile, Harold left to obtain his doctorate in speech at Ohio State University.

While taking the introductory course in speech problems, and studying the child with defective hearing, under Dr. Jerome, Mrs. Rogers gained valuable experience in hearing testing, and the problems of the defective child. In her class she had actual experiences with testing various cases in defective hearing with the audiometer.

In the fall of 1952 the Cabell County Board of Education employed Mrs. Rogers to open a class for the hard-of-hearing children, at Oley elementary as part of the county's special education program. The school was open to any child in Cabell county who needed special education. A civic organization of Huntington had been carrying on screening for a hearing loss. Each child was given a complete audio-metric test at the college, by Mrs. Rogers, who secured testing facilities in the speech clinic. Out of approximately 40 children, 12 were selected. The class was started in the fall of 1952.

Following the first year of teaching those exceptional children, Mrs. Rogers felt as though she needed additional education. She wished to complete her work in public school testing and get training in visual communication. In the summer of 1953, the Junior League of Huntington gave her a scholarship to attend the school of special education at Syracuse University in New York. There she had the opportunity to study under Dr. Louis DiCarlo in the field of audiology. She worked with exceptional children and gained experience in handling their particular problems, and took courses in visual communication and advanced public school testing. She completed her public school testing and is now a qualified audiometrist.

Mrs. Rogers plans to complete work toward her master's degree at Marshall in the field of education with a major in the atypical child. Following the completion of her masters in the near future, she hopes to return to Syracuse University to take work in hearing aid evaluation and audio training.

Mrs. Rogers believes that there is a great need of public education in the recognition of the possibilities of the exceptional child, and that teachers in the specialized field are in growing demand. The exceptional child must not only be aided and trained to overcome his handicap, but must also be taught normal class activities, so that he may some day be ready to enter a normal school and continue his life as a normal person. If these defects are discovered and treated in the early stages, the less possibility there is of that child becoming retarded, and the possibility of him becoming a normal, useful citizen in great.

"The greatest satisfaction I find in my work is in the feeling that I am doing something constructive to aid these exceptional children, and that I am helping them become happy, well-adjusted people," said Mrs. Rogers.

Former Marshall Student Gives Voice Recital

Mrs. Marion D. Garrison, a former Marshall College student and native of Ohio, was presented in a voice recital last Sunday by the division of fine arts at McNeese State College, Lake Charles, La.

Mrs. Garrison, a contralto, is a pupil of Miss Florence F. Evans, assistant professor of music at McNeese and a former resident of Jackson, O. Her recital was given in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of bachelor of music education.

She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James D. Brock of Portsmouth, and is a graduate of Portsmouth high school. She taught the elementary grades there from 1919 to 1928.

WHILE AT McNeese, she has participated in the McNeese chorus, the Messiah Chorus, and in the chorus of various operas, including "The Merry Widow" and "Pirates of Penzance." She is a member of Delta Epsilon music fraternity at the college. She is active in the college's affiliate of the National Music Educators association, the Louisiana Music Educators association, and the Future Teachers association.

Prior to entering McNeese, she attended Marshall, Ohio University at Athens, O., and Washington University in St. Louis.

She is a former member of the Levington Chorus in Lake Charles and the St. Louis, Mo. Grand opera association chorus, and is now a member of the Lake Charles Community Concert association.

Life Planning Week Begins At College

Dr. Prentiss L. Pemberton of Newton Center, Mass., speaking at vesper services yesterday at Marshall College, told the students that one may have serious doubts about certain religious concepts without being irreligious.

He challenged the students to examine their doubts and find answers to their questions as a means of developing a stronger faith.

Dr. Pemberton spoke at the first of a series of programs, the sum total of which has been designated Life Planning Week at Marshall College, made possible by cooperative efforts of a college committee and the ministers of Huntington.

Last night at the Shawkey Student Union the students participated in a hymn sing.

Visiting speakers participating in the Life Planning Week at the college include Dr. Pemberton, who is a member of the faculty of Andover Newton Theological School; Thomas O. Armstrong, assistant to the president of Dumas Steel Corp. of Carnegie, Pa.; the Rev. Raymond Neilson of Morgantown, and Rabbi Theodore Levy of Huntington's Ohev Sholom Temple.

The program will continue through Thursday.

Today there will be classroom appointments, a "skeptic's hour" in the North Parlor of Old Main, and a question and answer period. Tonight at 7 P. M. there will be a panel of all speakers in the Science Hall auditorium. Fraternity and sorority groups will have "bull sessions" at 9 P. M.

In Defeat

OXFORD, Ohio, Feb. 23. — Marshall College's Big Green came here tonight to try to dislodge the Miami Redskins from third place in the Mid-American Conference, and failed despite a 38-point scoring effort by Walt Walowac as the fast-finishing Redskins rallied to win, 84 to 72. The loss dropped Marshall to fifth place in the conference behind idle Western Michigan, and sewed third place up for the Redskins.

Marshall's season record dropped to 10-8 with the loss, and its conference mark dipped below the .500 mark to 5-6. Miami's conference record is now 7-5. The game was Miami's last conference game of the season.

A fast finish by the taller Miami team won the game after scrappy Marshall had taken a slim lead by coming back from a 10 point deficit. Trailing by 10 points shortly after halftime, Walowac sparked a rally that carried Marshall to a 71-70 lead late in the final period.

Then the lanky Redskins started their rally. They stormed to a 77-71 lead before Bob Lowe broke the spell with a foul goal that turned out to be Marshall's last point. Miami then took over again and won going away.

Marshall has two more conference games remaining along with one non-conference game at Memorial Field House in Huntington Saturday night against Indiana State. The Big Green moves over to Athens, Ohio, Thursday night for a contest with Ohio University's sixth place Bobcats, and then will play host to Western Reserve next Tuesday in the season's final game.

Walowac's 38 points were but one short of tying the Miami Field House record. He had his 38 with five and one-half minutes to go, but couldn't score from then on out, as Miami's attack smothered the Marshall rally.

The lead changed hands in the contest 14 times, and was a near-replay of the 107-100 double-overtime game that Miami won at Huntington earlier in the season until the Redskins broke it open in the last five minutes.

The taller Miami five out-rebounded Marshall, 65 to 52 in the contest. Forward Tom Bryant and guard Bob Doll led the balanced Redskin scoring with 21 each, while pesky little Darrell Hedric had 14 points. All of Miami's starters hit double figures in the scoring column.

Walowac got the Big Green off to a quick lead with two field goals on his favorite one - hand jump shot, but Bob Doll tied it up for Miami 4-4 with a pair of long set shots. Ed Gunderson gave the Redskins a one-point lead with a foul shot, but Walowac tied it again with a foul goal, and gave Marshall a 7-6 lead with a field goal after Dick Klitch had made a foul shot for Miami.

Dave Robinson then made Marshall's spread three points with a fielder on a nice pass by Bob Bradley. Darrell Hedric scored two for Miami to make it 9-8, with Marshall leading, but Charley Slack got a bucket for the Big Green and made it 11-8.

Miami's Doll then gave his team a 12-11 lead and the Redskins marched on to a 22-19 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Pint - sized Hedric of Miami and Marshall's Robinson then started a scoring battle of their own to start the second quarter. Through the first half of the period the two aces collected eight points each, keeping the teams even, and Charley Slack tied it for Marshall with a field goal and a foul at 34-all.

Bryant made a field goal to give Miami a two point lead, but Bob Lowe popped in a set shot to tie it back up for Marshall. Then, with less than a minute to go, the Redskins unleashed a withering attack that rolled up eight quick points on two baskets by Bryant, and one each by Jack Rogers and Ed Gunderson. Miami held an eight-point, 44-36 margin at half-time.

Life Planning Week Continues

Human Relations In Business And Industry Topic At College Event

Human relations in business and industry were discussed by Thomas O. Armstrong of the Dumas Steel Corp., Carnegie, Pa., at a convocation this morning in the Marshall College auditorium.

Mr. Armstrong is one of several speakers here for the annual observance of Life Planning Week at the college. The observance began Sunday and will continue through Thursday.

Mr. Armstrong spoke on a similar theme last night when he participated in a panel discussion with other guest leaders in the Science Hall auditorium.

"We are beginning to learn," he declared, "that there is a human as well as a technical element in industrial relations. Instead of a committee on collective bargaining we ought to have a committee on how to live together. A person may be getting more outside his working situation than in it."

"Some great things have been done in industry in the last 10 years. Now we need to adjust to industry."

Other panel speakers were Dr. Prentiss L. Pemberton of the Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, Mass.; the Rev. Raymond Neilson of the First Baptist Church, Morgantown, W. Va. and Rabbi Theodore Levy of Ohav Shalom Temple here.

Dr. Pemberton, speaking on the subject of what needs to be done by responsible citizens, pointed out that "men want to be together to strengthen basic security. We must see whether security interests and security rights are getting into a conflict in a heterogeneous situation. As responsible citizens we must see only one basis for security — a moral and spiritual common field of interest."

Mr. Neilson, considering "What Needs to be Done?" from the church point of view, said "It is the duty of every churchman to admit that there is no problem of business or industry that is not also a problem of the church. Motives are the real problems of the church. All our social needs parallel each other."

"Jesus said that name calling is the greatest sin. The need of the church is to find a moral equivalent for bigotry."

Rabbi Levy, who discussed the subject as it related to educated men and women, stated that "Education is a slow and painful process, but it is effective in solving the world's problems. There is a risk in the educated man's being a liberal today."

"If you take any point of view that all men are created equal, you are in danger of being labeled communistic."

A question and answer period followed the talks and later in the evening "bull sessions" were held for several fraternity and sorority groups. Similar sessions will be held tonight at 9 o'clock for other Greek letter organizations.

At 7 o'clock tonight in the Greenhouse on the campus Dr. Pemberton will speak at a seminar on the subject, "Why Should I Do Anything?"

Tomorrow from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M. there will be classroom appointments and at 7 P. M. Rabbi Levy will speak on "How Much Can One Person Do?" at a seminar in the Greenhouse. Bill sessions will follow at 9:45 P. M. in the campus dormitories, Laidley, Hodges and College Hall.

Roscoe Drummond, noted columnist of the New York Herald Tribune, will speak on "The State of the World" before the Marshall college Community Forum at Marshall's main auditorium Monday (March 1) at 8:15 p. m.

Mr. Drummond returns to the United States and the lecture platform after two years as director of information of the European Marshall Plan headquarters in Paris. This position brought Mr. Drummond into the middle of the cold war on the psychological front.

He was responsible for directing an important segment of the American government's psychological propaganda offensive in 17 countries and his work took him into every country west of the Iron Curtain.

With the advantage of having sat in on many high policy meetings of American diplomats, Mr. Drummond is able to bring to the lecture platform an intimate and authentic eye-witness account of the world struggle for freedom.

Women's Dorm: 1-1-1-1

By Julia A. Sadd
Marshall Student Journalist

Marshall College new women's dormitory which will be located between the Laboratory School and the Music Hall, on the east campus, will house 184 girls in double rooms and each room will be the same size, according to Lillian Buskirk, dean of women.

Final plans and specifications for the dormitory will be presented to the board of education, when they meet on March 3 and 4, according to President Stewart H. Smith.

He said that if the board of education approves and accepts them, then, the board of public works will be asked to release the appropriated funds, which are $325,000. Should the board of public works release these funds, bids for construction will be requested. A sixty day period is required for advertising for and submitting bids.

President Smith said that the lowest bid will be accepted. He added that revenue bonds will be sent to supplement the appropriated funds. The approximate amount for the dormitory is estimated at $650,000.

Women's Dorm: 2-2-2-2

After the low bid is accepted, the board of education will advertise for the sale of revenue bonds which requires an additional thirty day period.

According to Dean Buskirk, the new dormitory will house 184 girls in double rooms and each room will be the same size.

She said that the room of the housemother and matron will be sectioned off by doors from the students quarters. The guest rooms are located to the left and right of the main entrance on the first floor. The kitchenette is also on the first floor and will be used by the students for parties, snacks, and openings.

A "typical" room will consist of a sectioned wall in each room, composed of closets, bookshelves, chest of drawers, mirror and storage space. The only necessary furniture needed would be a desk, chair and a bed. She said that this will provide for more space.

The basement of the building will be used for storage of trunks and the boiler room will also be situated there.

Buskirk said that the architecture of the dormitory is modern in some respect, but blends in with the designs of the other buildings on campus.

NOTE TO EDITOR: The following article by a member of the Marshall College faculty appears in the January edition of The I and N Reporter, a publication of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, ~~at the Department of Justice~~ Washington 25, D. C. The writer is Dr. Charles F. Harper, professor of political science and director of the college's Americanization Program. For the last five years he has been selected by the governor of West Virginia to represent the state at the national conference on citizenship and, at the last two, has also represented Marshall College.

THE ARTICLE FOLLOWS:

The Marshall College Americanization Program

By Charles F. Harper

The Marshall College Americanization Program to prepare aliens in West Virginia for their final citizenship examinations was inaugurated in 1947. It was organized by Dean J. Frank Bartlett of the College of Arts and Sciences and the author, in cooperation with the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the Department of Justice. The initial quota of students set at fifty was raised to one hundred in 1948 and to one hundred and fifty in 1949, and the current enrollment, now one hundred and seventy-five, has been running over the quota for the past two years.

The program, now in its seventh year, has a total enrollment of five hundred and thirty-five, and increase of ninety-two over that of last year. Of this number, two hundred and seventy-five have completed their work and have received their citizenship papers or are ready for their final naturalization examinations.

The program, the only one of its kind in West Virginia, has students in forty-nine of the fifty-five counties of the State. Forty-three of the students, most of them "war-brides" and husbands of Service women, are living temporarily in localities throughout the United States.

The aliens, whose ages range from 17 to 80 years, have come from fifty-seven foreign countries, the largest numbers from Germany with 87; Italy, 63; England, 44; Poland, 32; Greece, 25; Hungary, 28; and Canada, 23. Most of the recent immigrants are "war-brides" and "displaced person." Recent "war-brides" include twenty-one from Japan and two from Korea. There are also two male "war-brides." Several of the students had been in the United States only one or two months when they registered, while others have been here from forty-five to fifty years.

MARSHALL COLLEGE INFORMATION SERVICE---2-25-54

The immigrants are engaged in seventy occupations. Housekeeping, with 292, and coal mining, with 50, predominate. Other occupations include farmers, physicians, nurses, priests, an architect, a librarian, a peddler, and ten who list no occupation. Their education ranges from no formal education for twelve of the students to from one to six years of college for sixty-four of them. Two hundred and twenty-one others have had from one to four years high school study and the remainder of them one or more years of elementary training. One hundred and fifteen stated they could not write English, sixty-five could not read it, and forty-two could not read it, and forty-two could not speak it when they enrolled in the Americanization Program.

West Virginia aliens interested in the program are referred to the Director by the Baltimore, Columbus, Detroit, and Pittsburg regional offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, or they may apply themselves. Two hundred and sixteen referrals were received during the past year.

The training consists of two correspondence or "home-study" courses, one in English and Government for those who cannot read or write English or have difficulty with the language; and an advanced course, "Our Constitution and Government", for aliens having little or no difficulty with the English language. The courses emphasize the American philosophy of government and teach the immigrants good citizenship in addition to helping them prepare for their naturalization examinations.

The text books are prepared and furnished by the Immigration and Naturalization Service and follow the best educational methods and procedures. The student's rate of progress depends upon his knowledge of the English language, his attainment in elementary high school, and college, and the amount of time spent in preparing the lessons. During the past year, one student completed the advanced course within a week while another finished it in ten days. Several others have finished their courses in six weeks while others have taken over two years to complete both courses. The average student should finish the first course in six months or a year and both courses within a year and a half. Each student prepares his lessons under the supervision of a "helper" who may be the husband or wife, a close relative, an employer, a minister, a teacher, or a friend.

MARSHALL WILL BE BACK AT THE MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE TOMORROW NIGHT TO BEGIN A TWO GAME HOME STAND WHICH WILL CLOSE OUT THE 1953-54 SEASON. MARSHALL PLAYS HOST TO INDIANA STATE OF TERRE HAUTE, TOMORROW AT EIGHT. A MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE GAME ON TUESDAY AGAINST WESTERN RESERVE COMPLETES THE BIG GREEN'S FIRST MID-AMERICAN SEASON.

THE MEETING OF MARSHALL AND INDIANA STATE BRINGS TOGETHER TWO COACHES WHO HAVE CAPTURED NATIONAL SMALL COLLEGE CHAMPIONSHIPS DURING THE PAST SEVEN YEARS. CAM HENDERSON OF MARSHALL WON THE CROWN WITH HIS 1947 BIG GREEN TEAM. COACH JOHN L. LONGFELLOW OF INDIANA STATE LED HIS SYCAMORES TO THE NAIB CHAMPIONSHIP THREE YEARS AGO. THE VETERAN INDIANA COACH FINISHED THIRD NATIONALLY WITH HIS SQUAD ONLY LAST YEAR.

INDIANA STATE LOST SEVEN KEY MEN FROM LAST YEAR'S TEAM WHICH WON 23 AND LOST 8. THEY CAME UP WITH A TEAM, HOWEVER, THAT WON FIVE OUT OF THEIR FIRST SIX GAMES XX XXX XX IN THE INDIANA COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE THIS YEAR. SINCE THAT TIME THE SYCAMORES HAVE FALTERED SOMEWHAT. THEY CURRENTLY HAVE A RECORD OF NINE WINS AND TWELVE LOSSES.

MARSHALL WILL HAVE TOX WIN AT LEAST ONE OF THE FINAL TWO GAMES IF CAM HENDERSON EXPECTS TO HAVE HIS EIGHTEENTH STRAIGHT WINNING SEASON. THE BIG GREEN RECORD IS NOW TEN AND NINE. HENDERSON'S TEAMS ARE ALMOST UNBEATABLE ON THE HOME FLOOR, HOWEVER. MARSHALL HAS WON TWENTY OUT OF THE LAST TWENTY-TWO GAMES PLAYED AT MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE. ONLY TOLEDO BY SEVEN POINTS, AND MIAMI IN DOUBLET-OVERTIME HAVE BEATEN THE BIG GREEN AT HOME, DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS.

THE MARSHALL FRESHMAN WILL BE ON THE REFOUND IN A 6:15 PRELIMINARY. PRICE, UNDERWOOD, ASHLEY, AND COMPANY WERE BEATEN SOUNDLY THURSDAY NIGHT BY THE OHIO UNIVERSITY FROSH. IT WAS THE FOURTH LOSS IN SIXTEEN GAMES FOR THE "LITTLE GREEN."

The Marshall College Big Green will make an "all out" effort to keep above the ~~XXXX XXXXXX~~ .500 mark tomorrow night when they lay their 10-9 record on the line against Indiana State. ~~XX NXXX XX~~ ~~ZXX ZXXXX~~ The visiting Sycamores will be the next to the last opponent for the Big Green this season. Marshall closes out its first year in the Mid-American Conference next Tuesday against Western Reserve, also here in Huntington.

The Marshall--Indiana State clash will bring together two coaches who have won national fame among small colleges during the past few years. Both have guided teams to NAIB championships. Marshall's Cam Henderson captured the national small college title in 1947. Coach John L. Longfellow of State ~~XXXX~~ led his 1950 team to the winners circle after the ~~XXXX~~ NAIB tournament. His Indiana State team of last year won 23 out of 31 games and finished third in the tournament.

This year's team has proved itself a dark horse contender in the Indiana Collegiate Conference even though seven key men are lost from last year's ~~XXXXX~~ squad.

Marshall will have to win at least one of the final two games if Cam Henderson expects to preserve his eighteenth ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ straight winning season. Odds favor the preservation of the streak. Marshall has been almost unbeatable on the home floor. In the last two years, Marshall has won twenty out of twenty-two games played at Memorial Fieldhouse. Only Toledo and Miami have victories over the Big Green here. Toledo was a winner by seven points and Miami won by the same margin in two overtimes.

The freshmen (12-4) play the Nitro Independents at 6:15.

A contest to select a line drawing of some Marshall college scene for the cover of the 1954-55 edition of the Marshall student directory was launched yesterday by the college Home Economics club, publishers of the directory.

Each drawing submitted should be something which represents Marshall college to every student. Entries will be judged on the basis of neatness and originality.

Full time students at the college are eligible to enter. The contest will begin March 15 and end April 15.

Judges will be Joseph S. Jablonski, professor of art; Arthur S. Carpenter, assistant professor of art, and Mrs. A. M. Moose, assistant professor of home economics.

Students wishing to take part in the contest should submit their names to Jablonski.

The Home Economics club has offered a $10 prize for the best drawing.

Each drawing should be 3½ by 5½ inches and should be done on white unlined paper in India ink.

MARSHALL AND INDIANA

Green Out To Avoid Losing Year

By GEORGE RORER

Marshall College's Big Green, striving to keep from being the first Cam Henderson-coached Marshall team to dip below the .500 mark in the won-lost column, tangles with Indiana State's tall, young Sycamores tonight at 8 P. M. at Memorial Field House, with one victory necessary to assure the Big Green of a winning season.

With the Marshall record now at 10-9, the Big Green must win one of its two remaining games to turn in a winning season, and Captain Walt Walowac and company will be out to see that this isn't the year that their Helms Hall of Fame coach sees his record marred.

The fast-breaking Marshall team will find a team on the floor with it tonight that likes to run. The boys from Terre Haute, Indiana, the nation's basketball hotbed, have a height advantage over Marshall, and use a very similar attack to that of the Big Green.

Coached by John L. Longfellow, Indiana State is having one of its worst seasons in recent history with an 11-13 record. Last year the Sycamores won 23 games and lost eight, finishing third in the NAIA tournament at Kansas City. Several of the Sycamores' outstanding stars have gone, however, and Coach Longfellow has built this year's record with a starting lineup featuring three freshmen and two juniors.

LEE TOP SCORER

The Sycamores are led in scoring by 6-4 Negro freshman forward Joe Lee of South Bend, Indiana, who has posted a 14.5 average in his first year at State.

The Sycamores' forecourt combination is completed by 6-3 freshman forward Jack Wiltrout, and 6-6 freshman center Jim Gangloff. Wiltrout was a member of the South Bend Central High School squad that won the Indiana state championship last season.

At guard, State has six-foot Jim Cox, who, although he is a junior, will be playing his last game tonight. Cox, according to a Terre Haute Star sports writer, intends to get married soon after the season ends and quit basketball. The other guard is 5-10 Forrest Dunnuck, who has worked his way up to the starting lineup from a reserve position.

In posting their 11-13 record, the Sycamores have met some tough competition, splitting a pair of games with Butler and losing two to Valparaiso. Their forte seems to be grabbing a quick first half lead, and keeping it all the way for their victories. In their losses they have faded badly in the last half, dropping their second decision to Valparaiso in this manner after gaining a wide lead.

Marshall, bucking Miami University for third place in the Mid-American Conference at the beginning of the week, now finds itself in a fifth place tie with Ohio University as a result of similar last half scoring lapses.

Marshall had a 71-70 lead on Miami with five and one half minutes of the last quarter left to play, and lost earlier this week, 84 to 72. Thursday night at Athens, Ohio, Ohio University took advantage of a "cool" shooting period by Marshall to overcome a 51-50 third quarter deficit and down the Big Green, 81 to 63.

SLACK 'BEARS DOWN'

Indiana State's tall forecourt trio will have its work cut out for it tonight, with Marshall's 6-5 Charley Slack bearing down in an effort to hang on to his second place position among the nation's rebounders. Trailing only Connecticut's Art Quimby, Slack leads Associated Press All-American Tom Gola of LaSalle in the rebounding race.

Marshall forward-guard Walt Walowac should also provide the Sycamores with a few interesting moments in trying to maintain his all-games scoring pace of 25.5 points per contest. The 5-10 sharpshooter has used his deadly one-hand jump shot to pull him back into the Mid-American Conference scoring leadership, and tonight's game will be the next to last in the college career of Walowac, the highest scorer in Marshall history.

After a mid-season scoring slump, Walowac has come back in the last five games to score 33, 34, 25, 38 and 27 points, respectively, and is trying to get his average back among the nation's top ten scorers.

Coach Henderson will probably stick with the same lineup for Marshall that opened against Ohio University Thursday night. That includes Walowac and Dave Robinson at forwards, Slack at center, and Bob Bradley and Frank Crum at guards.

Coach Carl York's Marshall freshman team opens the festivities at 6:15 P. M. in a contest with the Nitro Independents. The Marshall yearlings' record is now 12-4.

'Week' Ends At Marshall

Religious faith gives the answers to many of life's questions and problems, the Rev. Raymond Neilson, Baptist clergyman of Morgantown, W. Va., told Marshall College students this morning at the closing convocation of Life Planning Week which had been in progress on the campus since Sunday. Mr. Neilson spoke on the college auditorium on the theme of the observance, "What On Earth Are You Doing?"

"Because of different individual life experiences, we all have many problems and different attitudes toward them," Mr. Neilson pointed out. "But it is good we have problems. It is problems that make us want to look further and desire to solve things. They give us a chance to grow."

The speaker discussed some of the problems which face young people coming to college as they face new responsibilities for which they do not feel qualified and feel that some of their old ideas seem inadequate for the new things they face.

In speaking of the solution to the problems which beset college students, Mr. Neilson urged them to make sure that their counselor "has good sense" when they seek help in solving issues and to "bring with you some standards by which to judge things."

The religious emphasis week included vesper services, classroom talks by visiting clergymen, convocations, seminars and "bull sessions" on religious topics each evening in sorority and fraternity houses and dormitories.

Vinson And Fort Gay Top Marshall, Crum In Tourney

Vinson's Section 28 Class B tournament favorites roared back in the last half to eliminate defending champion Marshall, 77 to 51, and Fort Gay dumped Crum, 47 to 39, in semi-final games last night at Wayne, earning the right to meet each other in the finals Saturday night.

Marshall and Crum, last night's losers, meet at 7 P. M. Saturday in a consolation game, with the championship tussle scheduled to follow immediately.

The tournament champion advances to the Region Seven tournament at Hamlin.

In last night's first game Marshall High's Generals, winners of only six of their regular season's games, and one tournament contest, opened up with a fast-breaking attack and rocked Vinson back on its heels by taking a 20-17 first quarter lead. The Tigers, however, came thundering back in the second quarter to take a three-point lead at half-time.

With Keith Ross, one of the area's top scorers, leading the way, Vinson then began to gradually pull away. The Tigers widened the margin to eight points at the end of the third quarter, and then poured it on in the fourth, outscoring the fading Generals, 27 to 9.

Ross led the Tigers in the scoring column with 24 points, followed by substitute guard Jerry Hayner, who had 15, and Homer Williams with 12. Bill de Silva led the Generals from his center position with 18 points, while Dave Daugherty put in 15 for Marshall.

In the second semi-final contest, Crum made a fight of it before bowing to the Fort Gay Vikings in a contest that was close all the way. Fort Gay led by five at the end of the first quarter and widened its margin to seven at the end of the half. In the third quarter the margin jumped to 10 points, but Crum made it eight with a fourth quarter rally.

Larry Wellman had 23 to pace the Fort Gay attack, while C. Copley was Crum's leading scorer with 11. Lester added 10 to the loser's total.

Big Green, Indiana State

Invaders Like To Use Fast Break

Marshall College's basketball team enters the final stages of its 1953-54 season tonight at the field house when it plays an old rival, Indiana State.

Neither the Big Green nor the Sycamores have been enjoying particularly successful seasons. Marshall takes a 10-9 mark into the contest while the Hoosiers have an 11-13 record.

Marshall was hit by personnel losses in mid-season. Indiana State lost a raft of front line players from last year's fine 23-8 team which took third in the NAIA at Kansas City.

After tonight's game, Marshall ends its season Tuesday by entertaining Western Reserve in a Mid-American Conference game which could give the Big Green fourth place in the MAC — and which may wrap up the league scoring championship for Captain Walt Walowac, the highest scoring performer in the college's history.

Tonight's game is the last of the season for Indiana State which first met Marshall in its own Mid-West Tournament at Terre Haute in 1946-47, a tournament won by the great Big Green team that year.

The two teams both like to run — but there's a usual difference between them. Indiana State has a lot of height, Marshall only has 6-5 center Charlie Slack classified among the "big men", though he's one of the best. Slack is the leading MAC rebounder and second in the country.

The Sycamores have three big freshmen in their starting lineup — 6-6 center Jim Gangloff, 6-4 forward Joe Lee, and 6-3 forward Jack Wilson. Jim Cox and Forrest Dunnock, 6-0 and 5-10 respectively, are the guards.

Marshall will probably start 5-11 Walowac and 6-1 Dave Robinson, who is leading MAC in shooting accuracy with .473, at the forwards; Slack at center; and 6-0 Frank Crum and 6-1 Bob Lowe at the guards. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The Marshall freshmen and the Nitro Independents will play the preliminary starting at 6:30 o'clock.

BOBCATS TURN BACK

BIG GREEN, 81-63

173

Marshall Fades In Stretch

ATHENS, Ohio, Feb. 25. — Ohio University's Bobcats played slow "possession" basketball for three quarters here tonight, and then hit Marshall College with an overwhelming 31-point final quarter attack that broke the game wide open and gave Ohio an 81-63 victory, moving the Bobcats into a fifth place tie with Marshall in the Mid-American Conference.

Marshall led, 51 to 50, at the end of the third quarter, but Ohio's Lou Sawchik and Larry Morrison began to hit and scored 10 points before Marshall's Charley Slack dropped in a foul shot. That made the score 60 to 52 in Ohio's favor, and that was the last time that Marshall was in the game.

The Big Green only got 12 points in the final quarter, almost matching the 10 they got Tuesday night when Miami University dropped them from third place in the conference with a fourth quarter rally.

Marshall has only one conference game remaining, while tonight's contest was the last league game of the year for the Bobcats. A Marshall victory over Western Reserve next Tuesday, coupled with a Western Michigan loss to Bowling Green in their game next week, would give the Big Green fourth place in the conference in its first season as a full-fledged member.

High-scoring Walt Walowac, despite a last quarter slump, dropped in 27 points to continue in hot pursuit of Al Bianchi of Bowling Green for scoring honors in the conference for the season. Both have only one more contest remaining in which to raise their averages.

Lou Sawchik, 6-4 Bobcat center was the Ohioans' high scorer, making 22 points, while Morrison had 15 and Bob Strawser 12. Dave Robinson was second high for Marshall with 17, while Slack had 10, and a great number of the Marshall rebounds.

Marshall's next game is Saturday night at Huntington's Memorial Field House against Indiana State. Tonight's loss made the Big Green record 10-9, and made Coach Cam Henderson's first losing season at Marshall a possibility.

The Bobcats hit 30 of 78 shots from the floor while Marshall only made 23 of 81. Ohio out rebounded the Big Green, 56 to 47, with the tall Bobcat forecourt trio of Sawchik, Garrison and Betts holding Marshall's Slack, the nation's second ranked rebounder, well in control.

Walowac opened the game's scoring with a foul goal, but 6-4 Ohio sophomore Dick Garrison tied it up seconds later. Then a game of "possession" basketball started, in contrast to the first meeting of the two teams this season.

The score was tied at 3-3 and 5-5, and then Walowac sent Marshall out front at 9-6 with two quick fielders while Ohio's Lou Sawchik was making a foul goal. Larry Morrison made it 9-8 with a fielder for Ohio, and then Dave Robinson and Charley Slack dropped in field goals to make it 13-8 for Marshall. Jim Betts made a foul shot to make the score at the end of the first quarter, 13-9 in Marshall's favor.

The Big Green ran it up to 17-9, and then led 19-10 early in the second period, but Ohio came back late in the quarter, sewing up Walowac and neutralizing Marshall's scoring punch. The Bobcats caught and passed Marshall at 24-23, and moved out to a 28-23 lead before Walowac broke the spell with a field goal and a foul shot. The half ended with Ohio in front, 32 to 28.

After the intermission, Ohio increased its lead to 34-28 on a shot by Dick Murphy. After Dave Robinson got a foul for the Big Green, the Bobcats' Morrison got a fielder and made it 36-29 for Ohio.

Walowac then paced a Marshall rally with his shooting and nifty behind-the-back passes, bringing the Big Green up to a 41-40 deficit. He then passed to Frank Crum for a two-pointer that put Marshall ahead 42-41.

The teams stayed neck-and-neck with Marshall pulling out to a three point margin at one time, and the quarter ended with Marshall ahead, 51 to 50.

Dormitory Plans Near Final Stage

By JULIA A. SADD

Marshall Student Journalist

Marshall College new women's dormitory which will be located between the Laboratory School and the Music Hall, on the east campus, will house 184 girls in double rooms and each room will be the same size, according to Lillian Buskirk, dean of women.

Final plans and specifications for the dormitory will be presented to the board of education, when they meet March 3 and 4, according to president, Stewart H. Smith.

He said that if the board of education approves and accepts them, the board of public works will be asked to release the appropriated funds, $325,000. Should the board of public works release these funds, bids for construction will be requested. A 60-day period is required for advertising for and submitting bids.

PRESIDENT Smith said that the lowest bid will be accepted. He added that revenue bonds will be sent to supplement the appropriated funds. The approximate amount for the dormitory is estimated at $650,000.

After the low bid is accepted, the board of education will advertise for the sale of revenue bonds which requires an additional thirty day period.

According to Dean Buskirk, the new dormitory will house 184 girls in double rooms and each room will be the same size.

She said the room of the house-mother and matron will be sectioned off by doors from the students quarters. The guest rooms are located to the left and right of the main entrance on the first floor. The kitchenette is also on the first floor and will be used by the students for parties, snacks, and openings.

A "TYPICAL" room will consist of a sectioned wall in each room, composed of closets, bookshelves, chest of drawers, mirror and storage space. The only necessary furniture needed would be a desk, chair and a bed. She said that this will provide for more space.

The basement of the building will be used for storage of trunks and the boiler room will also be situated there.

Dean Buskirk said that the architecture of the dormitory is modern in some respect, but blends in with the designs of the other buildings on campus.

Dr. Dillon To Address Chesapeake Woman's Club

By MRS. O. D. HUTCHISON

CHESAPEAKE, Ohio, Feb. 27.

(Special to The Herald - Advertiser) — The Chesapeake Woman's club will have a guest day tea at the Community House next Saturday afternoon. Mrs. R. L. Hamilton will have the devotional, roll call will be answered with "Current Events". Dr. Conley Dillon of Marshall College will speak on United Nations Activities.

Science Fair To Be

A meeting of the Southwestern section of the West Virginia Academy of Science and a science fair will be held at Marshall College March 26, Dr. A. W. Scholl, Academy publicity chairman, announced last week.

The meeting will be on the theme, "Improving High School Curriculum For Science Majors."

and the science fair will feature the work of students interested in the sciences, with prizes offered in the fields of physical and biological sciences.

Principal speakers at the afternoon session will be Harold G. Holton, research director of Ashland Oil and Refining company, and James Ford, East Bank high school science teacher. Mr. Holton will discuss what industry needs in the way of trained scientists, and Mr. Ford will present the high school science teachers' ideas of the science training now offered.

THE AFTERNOON meeting will be from 4 to 6 P. M., and will be preceded by a coffee hour from 3 to 4 P. M.

Dr. R. H. Crist of the Carbide and Carbon Chemical company's research laboratory in South Charleston will speak at a dinner meeting which begins at 6:30

P. M. in the college cafeteria. His subject will be, "Improvement of Public School Science Teaching Through Industrial Cooperation."

Carbide and Carbon employees each summer to acquaint them with the operations of the plant.

Any student enrolled in a public, private, or parochial high school in any of the eight counties represented in the Southwestern section of the Academy of Science may enter projects in the science fair. First place winners in each division will receive expense-paid trips to the State Science Fair at Philippi, W. Va., April 22-24, to enter their projects.

EXHIBITS may be entered in botany, zoology, physiology, agriculture, forestry, public health, biological conservation, astronomy, chemistry, geology, physics, engineering, mathematics, and conservation of land and minerals.

Judging will be between 1 and 2 P. M., and will be on the basis of creativeness, scientific thought, thoroughness, skill, clarity, and dramatic value. Following the judging, the fair will be open to the public, and award winners will be announced at the dinner meeting.

Dr. E. L. Plymale of Marshall College is fair chairman, and entry blanks may be obtained from him. Other members of the fair committee are Dr. Raymond Janssen and Dr. N. Bayard Green. Dr. Ralph Edeburn is in charge of the dinner arrangements, Donald Cox is program chairman, and in charge of awards are Dr. Donald C. Martin, Howard Mills, and Dr. Scholl.

The eight counties represented in the Southwestern section are Cabell, Wayne, Mingo, Logan, Boone, Lincoln, Putnam, and Mason.

GREEN TOPS

INDIANA STATE

ROBINSON NETS 28, WALT 27

By GEORGE RORRER

Marshall College's Big Green, flashing their best form since the graduation of regular guard Carl York at the end of the first semester, turned on a blistering second half attack and melted Indiana State's fading Sycamores, 96 to 81 last night at Memorial Field House.

With forward Dave Robinson pouring in nine consecutive points in one stretch of the third quarter, and leading the Big Green in scoring with 28 points, Marshall held the Indiana team to only three field goals in the third quarter and staved off a slight rally to win.

Walt Walowac, Marshall captain who was averaging 25.6 points per game before the contest, dropped in 27 points, most of them in the second half. Charley Slack, the nation's second ranked rebounder, pulled in 30 rebounds before fouling out midway in the fourth quarter.

Indiana State was sparked by a six-foot jump-shot artist, Jack Wiltrout, and 6-4 Negro freshman center, Joe Lee. Wiltrout hit on numerous occasions from the foul circle on a shot very similar to Walowac's favorite, and made 22 points. Lee matched Walowac's 27, scoring from all angles.

The tall, wiry Lee was very sharp on his shooting from near the goal, and with a little more weight, would have made Slack live much harder under the goal last night. As it was, Lee led State's rebounders with nine.

Walowac, Bob Bradley, Bob Lowe and Herbie Morris will be seen in their final college game Tuesday night in Marshall's next contest, a Mid-American Conference clash with Western Reserve.

Indiana State wound up its regular season in last night's game with an 11-14 record. The Sycamores play the winner of last night's Anderson College-Manchester College game Tuesday night at Indianapolis, Indiana, in an NAIA district play-off contest.

Marshall Coach Cam Henderson tried a new combination to start the game, with Walowac and Robinson at forwards, Slack at center, and Herbie Morris and Jerry Gillen at guards.

Morris and Gillen, however, were derrickd quickly in favor of Frank Crum and Bob Lowe. Lowe, who can only practice with the team on week - ends because of his job, played an excellent floor game and got 14 points, his highest total of the season. Crum dropped in a long (Please Turn To Page 30) set shot immediately after entering the game, and got his share of the defensive rebounds afterward.

Slack, in grabbing his 30 rebounds, picked up some on his production against Ohio University earlier last week. Slack only got 10 rebounds in that contest, his lowest total of the season. He was tremendous under both backboards last night, and got a loud ovation when he fouled out in the fourth quarter.

Marshall outshot the Sycamores, dropping in 50 per cent of its shots, while Indiana State only hit 38.5 per cent. The long scoreless period in the third quarter ruined State's average.

Indiana State's Jim Cox opened the scoring after making a neat steal of the ball in the Sycamore's foul lane, but Walowac tied it up at 2-2 for Marshall with a pair of foul shots. Marshall's Dave Robinson and Jack Wiltrout of State then exchanged fielders, and Walowac put in another foul, giving Marshall a 7-5 lead.

The score was tied three times in all in the close first quarter, with Marshall opening up a three point lead.
