MARSHALL UNIVERSITY
HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA 25701

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

April 13, 1967

To Marshall Students:

Attending a university is an opportunity not accorded to everyone. You are fortunate in having the privilege of being a student at Marshall. We are glad that you chose Marshall as your university.

Your life here will have its share of ups and downs, successes and failures, work and play. The academic and social pressures of college life may be too much for some of you. Many problems and many decisions will confront you such as choosing an academic major, deciding upon a career, working out a philosophy of life, and perhaps selecting a lifelong companion.

Another crucial issue with which all young people must deal is the transition from adolescence to adulthood. Because of all the forces that will act upon you during this rapidly changing period of your life, you may have emotional problems from time to time. Older people, too, are subject to the stresses and strains of living. It will be important to find a purpose for living and to develop a philosophy of life that will help you resolve your problems and strengthen your spiritual convictions.

The faculty and staff are here not only to teach you but also to counsel with you. Think of us as your friends and take us into your confidence. We want to help you succeed as a student and as a person.

My best wishes to you!

Cordially yours,

THE HISTORY OF MARSHALL

When you step onto the campus of Marshall University this fall of '67 you will be confronted with the school's interesting past and promising future. Her past began in 1837 when John Holderby purchased one and one half acres of land for $40.00. He requested that the estate always be used for school purposes. 1967-1968 marks the 130th year of the estate as an educational institution.

John Laidley is considered to be the Founder of Marshall University; it was then called Marshall Academy after Laidley's close friend, Chief Justice John Marshall. By an act of the Virginia Assembly in March, 1858, the Academy became Marshall College and was given the authority to confer degrees.

The school was sold because of debts during the Civil War, but a private school was housed at this time because of the terms of the original deed. When the new state of West Virginia was created Marshall was soon revived under State control.

Today, with over 65 acres in the heart of Huntington, Marshall is a multimillion dollar institution, possessing permanent buildings and some temporary structures. Our newest building, the Academic Center, was opened last year. Marshall also provides housing for its married couples in the University Heights apartments. We have 185 acres of land on Route 60 which is now being planned for our campus.

Marshall maintains a Division of Adult Education, a college extension program and off-campus workshops as well as our four colleges, The College of Arts and Sciences, the Teachers' College, the College of Applied Sciences, and the Graduate School. Marshall has two branches which are located in Logan and Williamson.

We are accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the National Council for accrediting of Teaching Teacher Education. The university is approved by the American Association of University women and is a member of the Association of American Colleges and the American Council on Education.

Marshall has grown beyond all expectations and she is still expanding. Her future lies unlimited.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND STANDARDS

SPEAKER POLICY

An essential part of education is the availability of diverse viewpoints as expressed by speakers invited to the campus by responsible student organizations. To be given an opportunity to listen to persons of varied convictions, to give them a respectful hearing, whether or not the listener agrees with them, and to reach an intelligent decision on the evidence at hand are some of the cherished aspects of a democratic society and are experiences to which undergraduates should be exposed. These experiences are a necessary part of free inquiry, the basis of freedom of teaching and learning.

Another basic aspect of teaching is the cultivation of maturity and responsibility among students in the exercise of their rights. Thus, both the institution and its students have a joint responsibility on the matter of speakers to be invited to the campus by student groups.

In order to help student groups formulate policies on the issuance of invitations to prospective speakers the following principles will serve as a guide:

1. Subject to any regulations that may have been laid down in advance as a matter of official institutional policy a speaker or performer may appear on the campus on invitation extended by a duly recognized student organization, whether or not his point of view is congenial to the University.

2. In issuing invitations, student organizations must keep in mind that the sole purpose of such visits is to contribute to the aims of the University as a center of free inquiry and sound learning, and that the prime responsibility for ensuring that this purpose is served rests on the sponsoring organizations.

3. It must be recognized that an institution cannot be wholly disassociated in the public mind from views expressed on its campus. Thus, student organizations must exercise care and prudence in their choice of speakers and accept the consequences of their choice, including disciplinary action which may be defined in the official policy of the institution.

4. Whether the college administration gives a recognized student organization freedom in inviting speakers at its own discretion, or requires such organizations to obtain permission from the appropriate authorities for each individual invitation, it does not thereby signify its approval of the visitor or of his point of view.

5. The invitation to outside speakers must always represent the desire of a recognized student group and not the will of an external organization.

STUDENT CONDUCT

The University assumes that each student is a mature, responsible individual who has entered this institution by voluntary registration for educational advancement. On that assumption, the University expects the student to direct his energy toward the highest scholastic achievement possible.

While attaining these high educational purposes, the University requires that the student maintain a pattern of social behavior in keeping with good taste and high moral standards.

A student who violates rules of the University and standards of good conduct may be reprimanded according to the nature of the offense. Disciplinary action may include: (1) Formal warning — a written warning to the student that his conduct bears improvement. (2) Disciplinary Probation — a written warning to a student responsible for repeated or more serious violations of standards that his conduct bears improvement. A student on Disciplinary Probation may not pledge a fraternity or sorority, or hold a position of leadership (i.e., student organization officer, major committee chairmanship, elective or appointive student government positions, major positions in student publications). A student on Disciplinary Probation is subject to suspension in the event of further misconduct. (3) Suspension — a severance of the student's relationship with the University. He may be readmitted after a stated period of time. (4) Dismissal — a severance of the student's relationship with the University for an indefinite period of time. His return to the University is not guaranteed, but he may petition the Office of Student Affairs for such. (5) Expulsion — a permanent severance of the student's relationship with the University.

The following statement concerning misconduct was adopted by the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee on February 10, 1966:

Students accused of misconduct will be referred to one of the student personnel deans, who will make a preliminary investigation. If the offense is minor, the dean may administer appropriate disciplinary action. If the offense warrants consideration of suspension or expulsion, the student will be given his choice of a hearing before the student personnel deans acting as a body, or before a committee composed of members of the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee chaired by the Dean of Student Affairs. Any decision made by the student personnel deans may be appealed to the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee, in which case the chairman of the Committee will chair the board which hears the appeal.

In any case involving suspension or expulsion, the accused student may hear the testimony against him, speak on his own behalf, present witnesses, and be represented by a student or a member of the faculty as counsel.

Any action of these committees is subject to review by the President of the University.

Student Gatherings

Students who lead or participate in disorderly or unauthorized gatherings will be subject to disciplinary measures.

Name Changes

Students who change their name during the academic year through marriage or any other legal action, are required to report such to the Office of the Registrar, the office of their academic dean, and the Office of Student Affairs within one week.

Change of Address

Students who change their address during the course of a semester are required to report that change to the Office of Student Affairs, the Office of the Registrar, and the office of their academic dean within three days. This is necessary not only to keep student records current but also for contacting students in emergency situations.

Soliciting and Selling

Soliciting and selling of any nature on University property or in University buildings is prohibited except on orders by the Office of Student Affairs. Students are referred to Page 18 of this book for specific regulations regarding soliciting, selling, and donations.

Class Withdrawal Procedures

Students may add and/or drop courses without penalty during the week of late registration, which is the first week of classes. After that time, courses dropped will be recorded as WP or WF on the student's record, depending on whether the student is passing or failing at the time of withdrawal. Courses are dropped in the office of the academic dean of the college in which the student is enrolled. No courses may be dropped during the last six weeks of the semester. The late date to withdraw passing from all courses will be posted in each dean's office. Failure to withdraw from a class through the academic deans is penalized by an FIW (failure because of irregular withdrawal). One FIW automatically places the student on academic probation the following semester.

Student Grievances

Students with grievances against faculty members have open to them the following sequential steps to secure a hearing for their complaint:

1. Discuss the grievance with the faculty member.
2. Discuss the grievance with the chairman of the department.
3. Request an appointment with the Academic Dean, submitting a written brief of all pertinent facts. A copy of this request should be sent to the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

4. If the decision of the Academic Dean is not satisfactory to the student, it may be appealed to the Vice President of Academic Affairs and to the President of the University, who will appoint a committee to investigate the matter.

STUDENT HOUSING

Residence Halls

Consummating an agreement to live in University residence halls constitutes a contract. The stipulations of that contract are: (1) That you reside in your assigned residence hall for the entire academic year; (2) That you abide by the governing rules and standing traditions of your residence hall; (3) That you purchase a meal book for one of the University dining halls; (4) That you will receive no refund of any portion of your room rent because of withdrawal from the University after regular registration day for each semester except for reasons entirely beyond your control.

Living and learning with others is an essential part of any college education. While many lessons are learned in classrooms, many others are learned in group living where each person shares experience, knowledge, and material possessions. In residence hall living, your opportunity to be generous, thoughtful and courteous will be an asset to your mature understanding of others.

Residence halls are supervised by a residence director, a student governing board, and student counselors. You will be expected to abide by all rules and regulations put forth in the residence hall handbook you will receive when you arrive. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action or dismissal from the University.

You will be assigned to the residence hall of your choice if possible. If there are no vacancies in your preferred hall, you will be assigned to a room in another hall. The University reserves the right to make changes in assignments when necessary. Room assignments are made in the order of application regardless of race, creed, or national origin. Should you reject your assignment, your name will be placed at the end of the waiting list for future assignment if space is available.

The following policy was adopted by the West Virginia Board of Education effective September 1, 1966:

Applications for housing will be sent to prospective students outside Cabell County along with the application for admission. The application will be returned without a deposit to the Housing Director, who will assign the student to a specific residence hall and notify the student that the first semester's rent must be paid in full within ten days of this notification. If the student cancels his reservations prior to August 1 (December 15), his payment will be refunded minus a charge of $25. If the student cancels his reservation after August 1 (January 10), $50 will be deducted from his initial payment. Students currently residing in a residence hall must indicate their rooming preference for the following semester no later than March 15 (November 15). The next semester's rent must be paid by July 1 (January 10) or the reservation will not be honored. The entire payment will be refunded if the student is denied admission, declared ineligible to return, or for other reasons entirely beyond the control of the student.

Residence halls are not open during vacation periods. At the close of a semester, students must vacate their residence hall within twenty-four hours following their last examination.

The University cannot be responsible for loss of or damage to the personal property of students who reside in the residence halls. It is suggested that parents determine if home owners insurance covers this item. If not, the parents may desire to have this item covered by insurance. Students are urged to be cautious when considering the welfare of themselves, others and their property.

Students will be held responsible for all damage to their student rooms or to the residence hall property, furniture, or equipment and assessed for same if caused by a willful act of destruction or by lack of responsible judgment.

Fire arms are not permitted in residence halls. Tampering with fire fighting equipment will not be tolerated by the University.

Women's Residence Halls

Each women's residence hall council is composed of the hall officers, all of the counselors, and the residence director as advisor. Weekly meetings are held at 10:00 p.m. on Monday night; emergency meetings are held when the need arises. Among the matters discussed are: disciplinary problems, hall activities, specific questions asked by the girls on the various floors, and other important business. The floor counselors then conduct meetings on the different floors so that each girl knows what is going on. On special occasions, house meetings are held with all residents of the hall in attendance, these are usually for election of officers, parties, and policy information sessions for freshmen and transfer students.

Men's Residence Halls

The men's residence hall council is different in each of the two men's dorms. In Hodges Hall, representatives are elected by the men to serve on the council in addition to the elected officers. In South Hall, the council is made up of the elected officers and the floor counselors. Each group holds bi-weekly meetings and additional meetings are held when necessary.

Floor counselors for both men and women's residence halls are chosen by the residence directors and Office of Student Affairs on the basis of applications which are available in that office in late spring. Since counseling is such a large and time consuming responsibility, it is a paid position for all halls.

Overnight Guests

Overnight guests in residence halls are welcome on nights not preceding school days provided there is available space. Guests are under the same regulations as residents, and any infraction of regulations by guests will be charged to the host or hostess. Charges for student guests per night per person are as follows:

- Guest room—University furnishes linens—$3.09
- Guest-student room—University furnishes linens—$2.06
- Guest-student room—host(ess) furnishes linens—$1.03
- High school students attending conferences, festivals, and science fairs—$1.03.

Special Fees

A. Social Fee. By vote of the residence hall councils, a social fee of $4 per year is assessed each resident. This fee is used for the purchase of newspapers, magazines, intramurals, and parties. The funds are administered by the Residence Director and residence hall council.

B. A deposit of $1.50 will be collected for keys. The deposit will be refunded when the key is returned.

Selection of Returning Students

Students returning to Marshall University's residence halls will be selected on a preferential basis. Criteria for selection will be: (1) Scholarship (academic performance); (2) Citizenship (conduct record); (3) Leadership (contribution to the welfare of all residents); (4) Academic year (freshman, sophomore, junior, senior).

Off Campus Housing

Stark Hall, Jones House, and the Marshall House are dwellings rented entirely to Marshall students. These woman's residences are under supervision in accordance with the University's policy.

A large number of University students live in private homes within the Huntington community. The Housing Director maintains a list of those approved homes whose owners subscribe to and follow the University's policies for off-campus housing. Students negotiate the terms of their rental contracts directly with the homeowner or his representative. It is strongly recommended that all terms of the contract be placed in writing and signed by the concerned parties. The University reserves the right to require any student to move from his place of residence when such is deemed wise for the welfare of the student.

The following regulations apply to approved off-campus housing units. Violations of these regulations may result in the University taking disciplinary measures up to and including dismissal. (1) Men and women students may not reside in the same apartment building. (2) Gambling in any form is prohibited. (3) The possession or use of firearms, other weapons, or fireworks is prohibited. (4) Men and women, except for parents, are not permitted to visit members of the opposite sex in their housing units. (5) While it is obvious that quiet must be kept for the maintenance of good study habits and acceptable living conditions, it is recommended by the University to homeowners and students that: (a) Absolute quiet hours be maintained between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m. Sunday through Thursday. (b) Guests of a social nature should not be permitted after 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday.

Fraternity and Sorority Housing

Fraternities and sororities provide room and board for a number of their active members. Several fraternities and sororities are planning to build or have already built new homes. The board and room charges are established by each individual organization but generally are comparable to those established by the University for its residence halls.

Married Student Housing

The University has 48 housing units, located at University Heights, four miles from the campus, which are rented to married students and their families at rents of $50 per month for a one-room apartment and $60 per month for two-room apartments. Applications may be obtained from the Housing Director. A security deposit of $25 is charged for family dwellings.

STUDENT SOCIAL LIFE

The Office of Student Affairs and the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee, composed of faculty, administrators, and students, are responsible for student organizations, social events, and other student activities. The regulations, policies, and standards governing these matters follow:

I. STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

A. Standards

Standards which have been established for recognized student organizations of Marshall University campus are as follows:

1. To have one or more advisors who are members of the University faculty or staff.*

5. To limit the activities of the group, and insofar as possible those of its individual members, to conduct which is within the limits of city, state, federal, and University regulations.
6. To recognize the president of the group as the administrative head and spokesman. He signs petitions for social events for his group and agrees to the following regulations:
 - a. To clear the date for the event on the social calendar.
 - b. To submit a petition to the Office of Student Affairs at least two weeks prior to the event.
 - c. To close informal and formal Friday and Saturday parties at Midnight. (Any social event on week nights must close at 9:30 p.m.)
 - d. To enforce regulations concerning gambling, possession or use of intoxicating beverages and beer.
 - e. To assume responsibility for the conduct of the party.

*Exceptions made for alumni and faculty wives if approved by the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee.

7. Failure to meet these prescribed standards or for the infraction of any regulation of the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee and the Office of Student Affairs may be penalized by:
 - a. Denial of use of University facilities.
 - b. Denial of recognition of the group as an organization.

- c. Forfeiture of right to represent in other University organizations (Interfraternity Council, Student Council, Intramurals, etc.).
- d. Forfeiture of right to representation in Student Handbook, or other publications.

B. Recognition of New Groups

A petition for recognition for a new group must include a list of officers and chapter members, a statement of purpose, two copies of the constitution, and an acceptance by the faculty advisor. The faculty advisor and a student officer must appear before the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee when a petition is presented to that Committee. After consideration and investigation, the Committee will accept or reject the petition for recognition.

II. SOCIAL EVENTS

A. Definition

A social function is defined as any dance, party, activity or entertainment sponsored by a University approved student group at which both men and women are present.

B. Approval of Social Events

Social functions are scheduled on the social calendar by the Office of Student Affairs. The following procedure has been established:

1. Clear the date on the social calendar. The calendar for the following school year will be completed prior to May 1st. Dates entered on the calendar may be cancelled but not otherwise changed except by approval of the Office of Student Affairs.
2. A petition to change the date of a social event on the social calendar must be made in writing to the Office of Student Affairs one month prior to the date of the social event. This petition must be accompanied by comprehensive and detailed reasons for making such change. Petitions presented without such accompanying information will not be considered by the Office of Student Affairs.

The Office of Student Affairs will distribute forms on which the organizations will request dates. Permission to hold social events NOT LISTED ON THE SOCIAL CALENDAR WILL BE GIVEN PROVIDED THAT:

 - a. Petition is submitted in accordance with regulations.
 - b. Social event does not conflict with any listed social event.
 - c. Social event is not one of the regularly scheduled social events of the petitioning organization for which listing on the social calendar is required.

No social event may be scheduled on the weekend preceding final examinations.

Traditional functions, such as Homecoming and Life Planning Week, will have priority.

3. File a petition in the Office of Student Affairs, Old Main 121, at least two weeks prior to a function. An organization will be allowed one "late" petition per year. A warning will accompany the first offense. The second late petition will be denied. The petition carries the date, location and hours of the function, budget, the agreement and signature of the President of the Organization, the Social Chairman and the two Faculty Chaperones. Each organization may determine the frequency of its social functions providing that the organization submits the required petition. Each chaperone must file promptly a written report of the function with the Office of Student Affairs.

C. Planning Social Events

1. Hours

Social functions must close at 9:30 p.m. on Monday through Thursday nights and Midnight for informals and formals on Friday, Saturday, or night preceding holidays. No social function may be scheduled on the weekend preceding examinations. Women students living in University residence halls, rooming houses or sorority houses are allowed one hour after the close of an approved party to return to their residence. The Student Conduct and Welfare Committee reserves the right to restrict or extend closing hours as it deems necessary.

2. Location

The Office of Student Affairs and the Committee encourages student organizations to use the Student Union for social functions. It is acceptable, however, to hold any social event in any approved place in Huntington or vicinity. The Student Conduct and Welfare Committee may disapprove a location because of distance, inadequate facilities, fire hazards, use of club room by members while rented to University groups, etc.

3. Budget

Each petition requires a budget.

4. Conduct

Marshall University students are expected to show responsible and courteous conduct individually and collectively with their participation in all functions on or away from the campus. Good standards of dress, ethics, and morals, both during vacation periods and the regular school year, should be the constant mark of a Marshall student.

- a. The officers of each organization, and secondarily, each member of the organization, are responsible for the planning and conduct at all social functions held under the auspices of or through the joint co-operation of a representative group of members of the organization. This responsibility covers such areas as the conduct of members and guests, hospitable and courteous consideration of chaperones as welcome guests, and good taste as expressed in acceptable dress, entertainment, favors, publicity, and decorations.

- b. No social function which has not been approved by the Office of Student Affairs shall be held in a public place concurrently with or following an authorized social function by any student or student group.

Example: Renting a hotel room, tavern or club for such a party while an authorized function is in progress, or after it has been completed.

Any individual student or student group who sponsors, participates in, or in any way is connected with such events will be subject to disciplinary action.

- c. In accordance with State laws, the use of physical punishment of all types for initiation and hazing is prohibited. Responsibility for infractions of this rule lies on the individual and the group alike. See statement on "Hazing".

- d. Women shall not attend parties nor visit fraternity houses unless a University-approved chaperone is present.

- c. "House Party" Regulations.

- (1) A house party shall be limited to Friday or Saturdays only.

- (2) Notice shall be filed with the Office of Student Affairs prior to the event. The notice shall show evidence that the housemother has been consulted and agrees to serve as a chaperone.

- (3) No money shall be expended for music, entertainment or decorations. Refreshments may be served. Alcoholic beverages are absolutely forbidden.

- (4) The organization's treasurer shall have records available to indicate the exact expenses of house parties and shall furnish such records to the Office of Student Affairs if so requested.

- (5) There shall be no late permissions for house parties.

- (6) Permissions for house parties may be cancelled for any group and/or groups by the Office of Student Affairs if the conduct of the members or guests prove a "nuisance" to neighbors of the group; ex., excessive noise.

- (7) The decision as to whether any particular house party is such as to be considered in the nature of an informal is solely in the hands of the Office of Student Affairs.

- f. Parties in Community Park Areas

- (1) All campus organizations or representative groups of students will not be allowed to use any public community park area for a scheduled or un-scheduled party or gathering involving beer or any intoxicating beverage.

- (2) Any organization or group using community park facilities will be held responsible not only for the cleanliness of the area used but for a high standard of social behavior that is in keeping with good taste and high moral standards as outlined by the University.

III. OTHER STUDENT ACTIVITIES

A. The following are regulated by the Office of Student Affairs and the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee:

1. Solicitation, donations, and other contributions of money, merchandise, or service for any student and/or student group is absolutely forbidden until a written explanation of the plan has been submitted to and approved by the President of the University and by the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee. Lotteries and raffles are prohibited by municipal law. The selling of articles on the University campus is regulated by the West Virginia Board of Education as follows:

"All solicitation and selling of products and articles upon property under the jurisdiction of the West Virginia Board of Education is prohibited except by organizations and groups directly connected with the institution and upon written approval of the respective presidents or superintendents."

- a. No more than two permissions for campus selling or solicitation will be granted any organization during one academic year. Campus selling or solicitation refers to the direct approach to one or more individuals with the idea of selling merchandise, services, tickets, or asking for donations.
 - b. Permission for off-campus selling or solicitation may be granted up to a maximum of four permits during one academic year. Pledge classes are considered a part of the active groups. Petitions for any activity for which there is a charged fee may be obtained in the Office of Student Affairs. The completed petition must be filed in the Office of Student Affairs fourteen (14) days prior to the event. Such petitions must be approved by the Office of Student Affairs and the President of Marshall University. Notice of approval or denial of such petition will be forwarded to the organization's mail box located in the corridor directly across from the Office of Student Affairs.
 - c. "Mix" permits at the Student Union will be regulated by the Student Government with final approval by the Manager of the Student Union.
2. Before presenting a beauty contest, skits, or any presentation on the campus by any students other than departmental activities, the script and the program must be approved by the Student Conduct and Welfare Committee.

3. Serenading — Request and approvals for serenading must be approved by the Office of Student Affairs. The regulations for groups who wish to serenade are as follows:
 - a. Requests must be filed with the Office of Student Affairs two days prior to the serenade.

IV. POLICY REGULATING STUDENT USE OF INTOXICATING BEVERAGES

The faculty and administration of Marshall University recognize fully the rights and responsibilities of its students. These include the privilege and obligation of maintaining high standards of social and personal conduct. While encouraging the students to develop independence, the University embraces the concept that liberty and license are not synonymous, and it therefore accepts the obligation to maintain those rules which will provide for the welfare of the individual and the campus community at large.

The faculty and administration of Marshall University believe that drinking of intoxicating beverages or beer is detrimental to the educational, physical, and financial well-being of the student. Therefore, the University disapproves the use of these beverages by students.

Intoxicating Beverages

1. The consumption or possession of intoxicating beverages or beer by students is not permitted on University property, at University athletic events, or in or on the premises of any supervised student living unit.
2. Drunkenness, the appearance of being under the influence of intoxicating beverages or beer, disorderly conduct, and damage to property as a result of drinking such beverages are prohibited.
3. Members and officers of student organizations are charged with the full responsibility for compliance with all rules governing conduct by persons attending social events sponsored by the host organization. It shall further be the responsibility of the officers and members of that organization to exclude unauthorized and uninvited persons from these events.

4. Marshall University students are subject to all West Virginia state and local codes and laws relating to the possession and consumption of intoxicating beverages or beer. The University, however, is not limited to the requirement of compliance with legal restraints, but may set its own standards above and beyond those provided by law.

HAZING

The Administrative Cabinet of Marshall University officially received the following resolution from the West Virginia Board of Education, January 15, 1959:

"Upon motion duly made, seconded, and carried, the Board approved the following regulation relating to hazing on college campuses and by college enrolled students:

'RESOLVED that hazing in any form is prohibited in the colleges under the jurisdiction of the West Virginia Board of Education. The term hazing, as here used, may be defined as follows: To subject to cruel horseplay; to harass or punish by the imposition of excessively heavy or disagreeable tasks, to frighten, scold, beat or annoy by playing abusive tricks upon an individual.

'The President and faculty of the several colleges under jurisdiction of the Board are hereby authorized and directed to formulate and issue such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this order.'

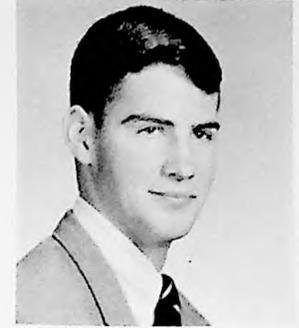

In keeping with this regulation, we demand that all groups refrain from all forms of formal or informal initiations involving physical violence, including interference with the liberty and comfort of others, either with or without their consent, or from encouraging or abetting others in such practices.

All practices utilized in formal or informal campus organizations' pledge training program shall be constructive. The ban on hazing shall include: (1) All forms of hazing, both mental and physical; (2) All scavenger or bottle hunts; (3) All hikes or "hell rides"; (4) Costume dress in public; (5) Indecent or vulgar practices; (6) Throwing in fish pond; (7) Painting or disfiguring fraternity or sorority houses or any other public property; (8) Excessively long or late hours; (9) All laxatives, nauseating food or drink; (10) Electrical devices; (11) All paddling; and (12) All other practices deemed by the University to be abusive.

Violations of the above regulation shall be punishable by suspension of any or all activities of the group, including closing of a fraternity house or revoking of privileges to operate as a fraternity, and/or suspension of the individual or individuals involved at the discretion of the University.

Resolution and Policy Reaffirmed by Administrative Cabinet, February 1, 1962.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BODY

Dear Marshall Students:

As you begin your career as a University student, your future rests in the balance. From these your first days to those final hours in your cap and gown, the campus should be the hub of your college life. The hub has many spokes which can enrich and improve your mind and your life.

The social aspects of your future four years will leave each of you with many fond memories and friendships that you will cherish forever. Danger exists, however, for each of you in that social activities may detract from your studies. Your best guide would be to remember that most activities are good in moderation, but in excess their value is lost.

Your academic life will be rigorous and demanding. You should approach each class with the aim of learning as much as each professor is willing to teach. Rewards lie ahead for you who excel in this most important area of campus life. The Dean's List and invitations to Academic Honorarys are two of the greatest accomplishments you can achieve. All of your other activities revolve around academics — so concentrate on them.

An individual who is fully social or fully academic misses one of the best parts of college. Extracurricular activities provide the best medium of learning outside of the classroom. There are innumerable clubs to which one can belong. There are many fraternities and sororities from which to choose. Student Government provides a place where students can improve themselves, the campus, and the University's stature as an institution of higher learning. Once again, however, let me caution you about overloading yourself with too many clubs and organizations — they can lead to your downfall.

I have tried to give you a glimpse of the joys and pains that you may experience in the coming months. Many of you will encounter problems which will require advice from one more knowledgeable than yourself. Your dorm counselors are often the best source, for this type of difficulty. If these individuals cannot aid you, the Dean of Student Affairs or I will be more than glad to assist you.

The year is ahead of you, try your best and you most surely will succeed.

Sincerely,

MIKE FARRELL
President of the Student Body

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government of Marshall University is the official link between the student body and the administration. Recently, Student Government has been responsible for the creation of a student lobbyist group to visit the West Virginia Legislature, an investigation of the student health center, and improved parking conditions for MU students. This year, the administration is working toward a revised class cut policy, the establishment of a teacher evaluation and course guide program, and a Winter Weekend.

Student Government is divided into three major branches, each with its own duties and make-up. The executive branch is headed by the President of the Student Body and includes Executive Secretary, Business Manager and members of the Cabinet. The legislative branch is headed by the Vice President of the Student Body, who is Speaker of the Senate. The 24 Senators are elected by the students of the various classes. The judicial branch consists of a Chief Justice and three justices appointed from each of the various classes.

Offices in Student Government are broken down into the following: commissioners, coordinators, and committee members. The President selects the commissioners, who must be ratified by the Senate. The President and the commissioners together select the coordinators, who also must be ratified by Senate. The coordinators in turn select their committee members. All positions are acquired by filling out a civil service application which is available at any time in the Student Government Office.

Senate

Each March, elections are held to elect President and Vice President of the Student Body and upperclass senators for the coming year. Freshman elections are held in October. Six Senators are elected from each class, making the complete Senate membership twenty-four. Motions, bills, and resolutions are presented and discussed at each Senate meeting, for all legislation must be voted upon by this body. Strict parliamentary procedure and agenda are observed at these meetings with an informal open-end session, during which anyone may speak or ask questions of Senate and Cabinet, as the last order of business. Anyone is cordially invited to attend Senate meetings, which are regularly held upstairs in the Union every Wednesday night at 6:30. During the year, Senate meetings will occasionally be held in dorms and other places on campus in order that as many interested students as possible can observe Student Government in action.

Cabinet

The President of the Student Body heads the Cabinet. Those present at each weekly meeting are the Vice President, Executive Secretary, Business Manager, Press Secretary and the five Commissioners.

The Cabinet serves in an advisory capacity to all other branches of the Senate. Weekly meetings are held to discuss important legislation to come before Senate and to report on the progress of each commissioner in his field. The Cabinet advisor, who is selected from the faculty or staff, is an ex officio member of the Cabinet.

Academic Affairs Commission includes these committees: Academic Standards, Book of the Semester, Forum, Freshman Activities, Impact and Who's Who. This year's goals include a standard absence policy and increased freshman activities.

Athletic Affairs Commission includes cheerleaders, Greenbackers, All Parent's Day, and transportation. The United Fund Drive is conducted under this commission.

Publications and Public Relations Commission is responsible for the editing and distribution of the Et Cetera, Student Handbook and Student Directory.

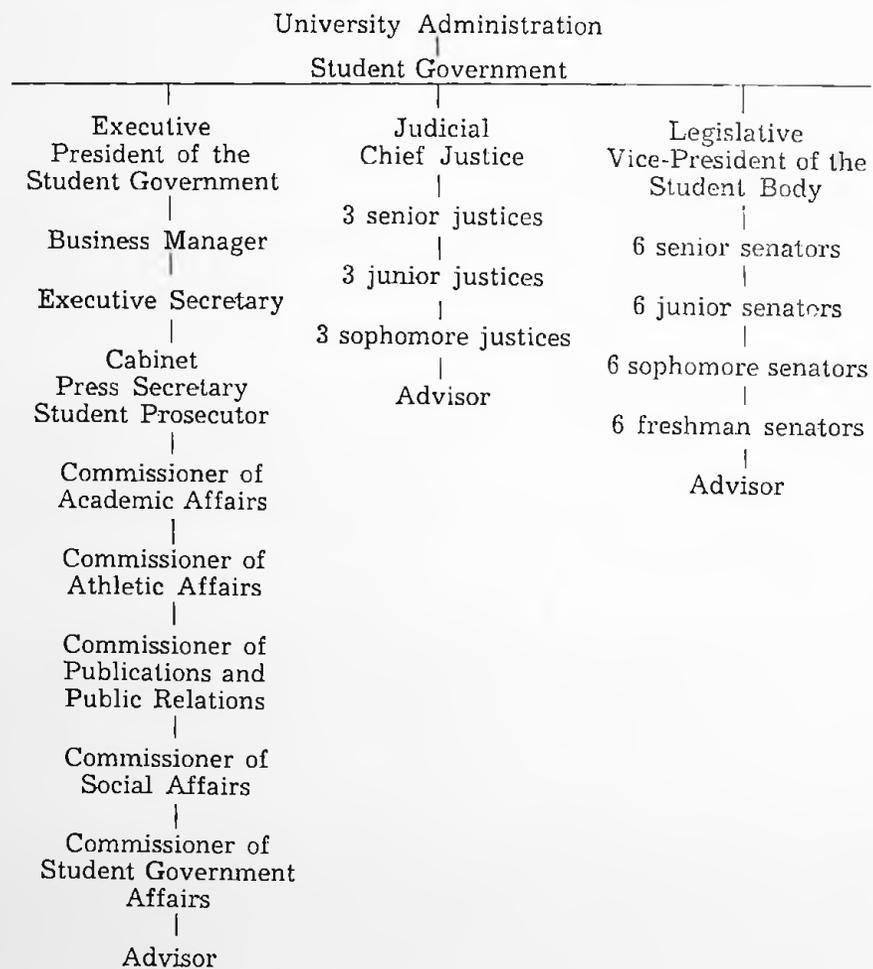

The Social Affairs Commission is responsible for the Artist Series, Homecoming and Parents' Weekend. It also includes the Student Activities Board and Student Conduct and Welfare Board.

Student Government Affairs Commission includes elections, leadership seminar, blood drive, and civil service committees.

Student Court

The Student Court is composed of nine members, three justices from the senior class, three from the junior class, and three from the sophomore class. The court elects one of the senior justices to serve as Chief Justice for the year. The Student Court handles two different types of cases: first, disciplinary problems concerning the student which are referred to the court by the Office of Student Affairs, and second, cases concerning questions in Student Government and lesser organizations. These cases may include disputes between different agencies of the Student Government such as validity of elections and many others. Positions on the court are by appointment by the President of the Student Body on the basis of civil service applications available in the Student Government Office.

Student Government of Marshall University

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

President Jane Miesel

The University Panhellenic Association is the governing body of all members of the eligible sororities on its campus. Three delegates from each chapter of these women's sororities form the Panhellenic Council of which one is the chapter president and one a voting delegate. Rushing rules and regulations are one aspect of Panhellenic operations.

Sorority women on every campus try to make Panhellenic stand for something very worthwhile in the life of that campus. As expressed in the Panhellenic Creed, they are dedicated to uphold good scholarship, high standards of social conduct, and to work in harmony and understanding with each other to further the ideals of all groups.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

President Norbert Ore

The Interfraternity Council is the men's counterpart to Panhellenic. It is made up of two delegates from each men's fraternity chapter on campus. Its purpose is the exchange of experience and the discussion of common problems. It has accomplished much in setting up standards, in securing uniform practices, and in furthering interfraternity comity.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

CHIEF JUSTICE — Presenting a pictorial review of the academic, social, and athletic year plus interesting sidelights is the job of the Marshall University yearbook, the CHIEF JUSTICE. Its editor and business manager are selected by a faculty-student committee and approved by the Student Senate. With such a gigantic job as covering the entire college year, the Chief Justice affords freshmen an excellent opportunity to display their talents and still have fun at the same time. Your copy of the Chief Justice is paid for in your activity fee, so be sure to get it.

THE PARTHENON — Written and edited by students in the Journalism Department, the PARTHENON is published twice weekly during the regular school year and once a week during the summer terms. Plans are being made to publish the paper four times a week this year, if possible. The Parthenon covers everything from club meetings and intramural games to the State Board of Education and varsity athletic contests. Students are invited to contribute letters to the editor. All letters must be personally submitted to one of the Parthenon editors, who will check the students' Marshall identification card and authorize the letter. The paper is distributed each week on Wednesday and Friday in the Union, Science Hall, Old Main, University Cafeteria, and Academic Center. Your activity fee pays for your subscription to the Parthenon.

STUDENT DIRECTORY — This book published by the Student Government contains the name, home address, phone number and local address of students, faculty and administration. It is an invaluable aid to all students.

ET CETERA — The campus literary magazine published in the spring contains poetry, short stories, essays and pictures. Any student may contribute material to be judged for publication in this magazine.

STUDENT FINANCIAL AID

Scholarships, loans, and student employment opportunities are available to students through the Student Financial Aid Office. Such awards are based on academic achievement and/or financial need and are intended to serve as a motivating force for the betterment of the student.

The following is a summary of financial aid available to undergraduates at Marshall University:

1. General scholarships equivalent to tuition and registration fees. These awards are of two types:
 - a. Honors and achievement scholarships based on outstanding scholastic ability and performance. These are available to incoming students as well as to those previously registered at Marshall.
 - b. Performance scholarships based upon exceptional ability and contribution in the performing arts and good promises as a student.
2. Scholarships designated for special areas of study with criteria determined by the donors.
3. Long-term National Defense Education Act loans of up to $1,000 per academic year are available to incoming students as well as to those previously registered at Marshall.
4. Short-term loans of up to $100 for emergency relief.
5. Part-time student employment under the College Work-Study Program. A student who qualifies for the Work-Study Program may be employed by the University or a community organization and paid $1.00 per hour for a total of 15 hours per week during school or up to 40 hours per week when the University is not in session. The per hour rate as of February 1, 1968, will be $1.15.
6. Educational Opportunity Grants available to a limited number of undergraduate students with exceptional financial need who require these grants to attend college. To be eligible, the student must also show academic or creative promise.

Eligible students who are accepted for enrollment on a full-time basis or who are currently enrolled in good standing, may receive Educational Opportunity Grants for each year of their higher education, although the maximum duration of a grant is 4 years.

Grants will range from $200 to $800 a year, and can be no more than one-half of the total assistance given the student. As an academic incentive to students, an additional award of $200 may be given to those students who were in the upper-half of their college class during the preceding academic year.

The amount of financial assistance a student may receive depends upon his need—taking into account his financial resources, those of his parents, and the cost of attending college.

7. Guaranteed Loans. Under this program a student may borrow from a bank or other financial institution. A graduate student may borrow as much as $1,500 a year; an undergraduate, as much as $1,000.

A student from a family with an adjusted income of less than $15,000 a year pays no interest while he is in an eligible college, university, or technical school. Repayment of principal and interest begins when the student has ceased his course of study. At that time the Federal Government pays approximately one-half the interest and the student the remainder. A student from a family with an adjusted income higher than $15,000 a year pays the entire interest on the loan, but he may borrow under the Guaranteed Loan Program at 6 per cent simple interest.

The major objective of this program is to make loan insurance available to any college student who wants to borrow.

HEALTH SERVICE

All full-time students receive the health service free after they have paid their health fee during registration. The clinic is located in the basement of Gullickson Hall. Office hours are from 9-12 A.M. and 1-4 P.M. on weekdays, and 9-12 A.M. on Saturdays. If you need a shot, medicine, or a physical examination, the clinic will be glad to help you.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Like most students of Marshall, you will soon become acquainted with this building. There is unlimited reference material available in the library which will be of value to you in your classwork and a great supplement to your learning in the classroom. Try to spend more time in the library, both to accomplish studying and to broaden your scope of knowledge. Library hours are not definite at this time, but they will be posted at the library and announced in the Parthenon. Whenever you may need assistance, ask the librarians on duty for help; they will be glad to assist you.

RELIGIOUS COUNSELING

Another place open to students for consultation on all phases of life is the Campus Christian Center. The staff of ministers meet many students seeking counsel.

PLACEMENT OFFICE

Another helpful department at Marshall is the Placement Office managed by Mr. Robert P. Alexander. The Placement Office services students seeking part-time employment, graduating seniors through comprehensive campus interviews in business, industry, Federal agencies, and teacher placement. All the services of the Placement Office are also available to the alumni of the University. Through competent vocational guidance the counseling the graduates of Marshall University are able to secure personalized service that is of the greatest value in starting their vocational careers. Office hours are from 8-4:30 P.M.

FOOD SERVICES

The University provides a complete food service for its resident students, serving twenty meals per week. The operation of this program is under the supervision of the Director of Food Service. Meals are served in the Main Dining Hall and South Hall Dining Hall.

The South Hall Dining Hall does not serve the Friday evening through Sunday noon meals. Students assigned to the South Hall Dining Hall will have their meals at the Main Dining Hall during this period. All students residing in residence halls are required to purchase a meal book. Meal books are also available to students not living in residence halls. Meal books are personal property and are not transferrable. A meal book is to be used only by the person to whom it was issued. Nonresident students and guests wishing to have occasional meals in the dining halls may pay for them on a cash basis.

Board costs $234 each semester plus $7.02 consumer's tax. The board bill may be paid in full at the time of registration or in two equal installments each semester. The first installment is due and payable on the day of registration; the second installment is due on the first day of the second half of the semester. The meal book price may be increased to cover increasing costs.

Meal books are not valid during the vacation periods. If it is necessary for a student to remain on campus during such periods, he may obtain meals at regular prices if the Dining Hall remains open.

Students may receive a refund for board if they are absent from the campus for a period greater than a week due to illness or a University-approved trip. Students who wish to leave the University are entitled to a prorated refund.

Student organizations are entitled to certain catering services from the University Food Service Department. Those wishing to make such arrangements may contact the Director of Food Service.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

If you need something repaired, want to borrow a tool, or need paint for your room, this is the place to go. The office is located at 20th Street and Virginia Avenue, and it is open from 7:30 to 4:30. These are the people who keep our campus so clean and attractive all during the year.

PARKING

The problem of where to park will hound you car owners as you hunt for a place when you bring your car to school. Daytime parking at the University is reserved for the students and faculty and those cars with special permits issued by the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. Residence hall residents park behind their halls after school hours. Students may park whenever it is legal on the streets. There is no parking on Fifth Avenue between the hours of 3 P.M. and 6 P.M. Make sure that you move your car before three on Fifth Avenue or you will find yourself with a $5 parking ticket. Parking is available in the lots on the corners of Fifth Avenue and 19th Street and 19th Street and Virginia Avenue. Permits may be secured from the Building and Grounds Office.

Parking is not permitted in the fire lane extending from the Student Union—College Avenue to 16th Street. It is also banned in the circle outside Old Main, in service driveways, grassed areas and other points on the campus where signs indicating no parking have been placed. Students may stop for not more than five minutes on drives to receive or discharge passengers. Only faculty members may stop outside the Bookstore for five minutes on drive to receive or discharge passengers. Immediate towing is in effect at all times in above areas. Immediate towing is also in effect for cars not having stickers in designated lots.

A traffic citation issued for a vehicle owned or operated by a faculty member or student directs him to report to the office of Student Affairs within twenty-four hours of the time of issuance.

Failure to report within the specified period may result in disciplinary action.

Penalties for traffic violations:

1. First Violation: Report to the Office of Student Affairs and immediate towing as perviously explained.
2. Additional Violations: Possible disciplinary action.
3. Vehicles with one or more parking violations are subject to towing from campus at the owner's expense.

LET'S BE ACADEMIC

"Rule on class attendance may change, but it is a well-accepted fact of academic life that the surest way to fail a course is to cease to attend class. Even one class absence breaks the continuity of the course and diminishes the interest, the drive, and the effectiveness of the teaching situation.

The hours spent in class are, in reality, a relatively small part of the week. They are, on the other hand, by far the most important segment of time in the academic scheme of things. No student desires to be accused of saying, "I have come to get your product, which is education; now give me the least you can."

It is not fair to say that everyone who attends every class will pass all his courses. It is fair to say that the student who does not go to class has placed himself under unnecessary and detrimental handicaps."

—J. Stewart Allen, former Vice President of Academic Affairs

Even though you study hard there may be some class which will seem impossible to you. Perhaps all you need is a little help. Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary, offers a tutoring service to freshmen for a small fee. Information about this service can be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs Office.

The big academic aim is the Dean's List. This is for the students each semester making a 3.0 average or better. Work for this goal or whatever goal you have set for yourself. Remember, your objective here is to learn, but the responsibility lies with you.

THE SUMMIT CAMPUS CHRISTIAN CENTER

Looking for lively entertainment, stimulating conversation and a relaxing atmosphere? You'll find it at the Summit Coffee House in the Campus Christian Center.

Anyone in the University community is welcome at the Summit, which is open from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturday. The scene is informal, so wear casual clothes—bermudas or slacks, if you like. At 9 and 11 p.m., the Summit presents programs led by students, faculty, and guests. Entertainment may vary from art interpretation to poetry, prose and play readings to interpretive dance or to music—show tunes, jazz, classical, opera or folk tunes.

After an enjoyable Saturday evening at the Summit, many students like to attend the enriching Sunday morning worship services in the Campus Christian Center. The Center is an interdenominational cooperating group sponsored by nine denominations: Baptist, Christian, Church of God, Episcopal, Evangelical United Brethren, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian and Roman Catholic. The Center's staff consists of the Rev. Hardin (Corky) King, the Rev. William R. Villers, and the Rev. George Sublette. A Roman Catholic priest is presently being selected to join the Center's staff. These campus pastors have offices in the Christian Center and invite you to discuss personal problems with them there. The Rev. William Galbreath, associate pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, comes to the Center one day a week.

The campus pastors stress that the Christian Center is open to dialogue. Persons of any faith, or of none, are invited to use its facilities.

Sunday morning activities at the Christian Center begin with the Encounter Series. Students, faculty, guest leaders and campus pastors will discuss such challenging topics as the responsibility of freedom, the ethics of mercy killings, primitive religion compared to modern religion, and social problems such as attitudes toward sex. Campus worship services in the chapel are at 11 a.m. each week. These are led by campus pastors and visiting theologians.

During the week, the Christian Center is the scene of various study, discussion and social groups. The church library provides a quiet atmosphere for studying. Throughout the year various denominational groups will present a challenging series of foreign films. Under the direction of the Rev. Sublette, a deputation team travels to local churches to participate in various church activities.

If you like to sing, join the Center's choir. On Saturday morning you might like to work for the Proctor project, which is open to all students for work with local underprivileged children.

Several special events are held throughout the year. In November, all Marshall students may attend the statewide Ecumenical Retreat at Camp Caesar. Various student conferences and seminars will be held this year, such as the University Christian Movement, December 27 through January 1, 1968. The Center sponsors several weekend retreats and picnics during the year.

During the summer orientation sessions, the Center will be open at announced hours for students, parents, and friends to meet the campus pastors and to enjoy the lounge facilities. Ordinarily, at the end of Freshman Week, the Incoming Students Dinner is held. This is a complimentary banquet for freshmen and transfer students to enable them to meet one another and to learn of the Campus Christian Center and its program.

NEARBY CHURCHES

Just because you are away from home, you must not neglect your spiritual life. No matter what your church preference might be, Huntington can accommodate you. In fact, it has sometimes been called "the city of churches" and you will soon realize why. There are over one hundred and fifty churches and one will suit you.

Following is a list of churches that most of our students attend. The entire list of churches can be found in the yellow pages of the telephone directory. You can always find someone on campus who will go with you, so don't worry about being by yourself. Many churches are within walking distance and most of the outlying churches will be glad to furnish transportation if you are interested in attending their services.

CULTURAL PROGRAMS

Now that you are a university student, you have the choice of accepting or rejecting the various cultural programs offered on Marshall University's campus. We hope you will take advantage of the entertainment made possible by your student activity card.

At least once each month convocations are held in Old Main Auditorium on Thursdays at 11:00 a.m. These programs range in variety from art lectures to jazz sessions.

This year on campus several types of forums will be held. Some will be exclusively for students, while the Community Forums will be for all interested people of the community. The forums are usually held in the evening.

The Marshall Artist Series are held downtown at the Keith-Albee Theater at various times during the year. These are professional performances of national and international fame. Some of the featured attractions of last year's Artist Series were Johnny Mathis and Roger Williams.

DON'T FORGET . . .

Students must have reserved seat tickets for all Artist Series programs. Activity cards will not admit students to the theatre. Reserved seat tickets may be obtained free upon presentation of activity cards to Mrs. E. Norval Carter, on the first floor corridor of Old Main one week prior to each program. (Reserved seat tickets are not transferable to nonstudents.) Reserved seat tickets may be obtained only at the University for the Student Artist Series. Students who have reserved seat tickets will be excused from evening classes at 8 p.m.

The Student Artist Series and the Community Artists Series are both held at the Keith-Albee Theater at 8:30 p.m. The Community Forum and Convocations are presented in the Old Main Auditorium. The Forums are at 8 p.m. and Convocations are at 11 a.m. Students may enter the Community Forums upon presentation of their activity cards, while convocations are opened to everyone.

Besides attending the convocations, Forums and Artists Series, save time for the University Theatre, too. Don't underestimate your own talents—maybe you will be the next leading lady or man. Normally there are four full-length plays produced each year. Tryouts are open to the entire student body regardless of experience, so give yourself a chance—you might discover just how talented you really are!

If art is of interest to you, you will be glad to learn of the Huntington Art Galleries. Various special exhibits are offered during the year in addition to the standard exhibits. Why not take an art class if you're really interested in it? You'd be surprised at what you can learn.

Music lovers will find all types of record albums offered on the second floor lounge of the Student Union. If you wish to check any out, see Mr. Don Morris, Student Union Manager.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

UNIVERSITY THEATER — For thirty-nine years the University Theater has given training in dramatic skills and techniques and has helped students to develop such qualities as poise, initiative, self-reliance, confidence and cooperativeness. It encourages appreciation of dramatic literature and keeps alive the plays which have made dramatic history.

The theater presents three plays each year. All students are eligible for parts or for work as directors, stage hands, committee members, etc. If you are a student interested in dramatics, you should try out for University Theater.

RADIO — All students are invited to participate in the Marshall University Radio Station (WMUL). The station broadcasts seven days a week on 88.1 megacycles on the FM band. A variety of programs provide popular, classical and jazz music, sports, weather and news of campus activities.

A CAPELLA CHOIR — The A Capella Choir is a mixed choir open to all students and offering credit to all participants. This is an especially good training ground for freshmen in choral work, for from this group freshmen may advance to the Men's Concert Choir or the Symphonic Choir. Contact Dr. Paul Balshaw for more information.

SYMPHONIC CHOIR — The Symphonic Choir is a mixed choir whose members are chosen by audition in open competition from the entire student body.

CHORAL UNION — The Choral Union is composed of all interested students who want to participate. This group presents such productions as the "Messiah" and "Requiem." Credit is given for participation.

MEN'S CONCERT CHOIR — The Men's Concert Choir is open to all male students.

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY BAND — One of the university's most active organizations, the marching band is organized at the beginning of school. It performs at all home football games and at one out-of-state game. After football season, the marching band, with a few minor changes, becomes the symphonic band. The symphonic band performs each year at commencement and Parents Weekend.

Professor Howard Bell is the director of both the marching and the symphonic bands. Mr. Thomas O'Connell and Dr. Eddie V. Bass are associate directors.

Membership is open to all students with previous instrumental experience. No auditions are required for either band. Rehearsal is held each Tuesday and Thursday from 2-4 p.m. Credit of one hour per semester is given to all participants.

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY DEBATE TEAM — Debating at Marshall is an intercollegiate activity. It offers one a chance to gain recognition both for himself and for his school. Debating is an invaluable opportunity for all students—especially those in law, political science or economics—to develop their ability to think and speak effectively under pressure.

Marshall teams enter several intercollegiate debate tournaments each year. Individual speakers also compete in oratorical and extemporaneous contests, discussions and after-dinner speaking. The State Intercollegiate Tournament and the National or Regional Pi Kappa Delta Tournament conclude each year's debate season. Outstanding debaters may gain membership in Pi Kappa Delta national debate fraternity.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS

The ROTC consists of men who are divided into six different companies. The group has regular drill every Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. A Second Lieutenant's commission awaits the student who participates in the ROTC for four years and supplements his experience with summer boot camp. The group acts as an organization, taking part in Homecoming and the annual blood drive. Student military leadership is developed through the battle group program. Student leaders are chosen to head each company on the basis of academic ability, military skill, extra-curricular activities, and work in summer camp.

The Pershing Rifles is an honored group open only to freshmen and sophomores. The purpose of the organization is to develop a highly skilled drill team and to promote brotherhood among the members of the ROTC unit.

A new two-year program now extends the advantages of ROTC to juniors who have not participated in the ROTC program during their first two years. A basic six-week summer training period after the sophomore year takes the place of the Basic Course required of students in the traditional four-year program.

The ROTC unit publishes its own newspaper. This publication is called SHAVETAIL.

SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS

A fraternity is a group of men or women joined together in common bond who have pledged themselves to the pursuit of the highest standards of achievement and conduct. The best fraternities manifest a commitment to those standards in their daily operations.

A fraternity is closely associated with and considered an integral part of the University community. The principles and objectives of a fraternity complement the expressed aims of institutions of higher education. Membership gives rise to an inter-personal growth, engenders a spirit of co-operation, and develops a sense of responsibility.

Whether or not to join a fraternity is a decision that each individual must make for himself. The value of association with any group is as beneficial as the individual himself chooses to make it.

FRATERNITIES

Nine national social fraternities have established chapters at Marshall. A fraternity is a group of men who join together to further their social and educational development.

Most Marshall fraternities have their own chapter houses. The members are responsible for financing their house, providing meals, scheduling social activities, and participating in the numerous University and Inter-fraternity events which are scheduled each year. Each fraternity establishes high standards of conduct and attainment for its members. Each fraternity, through its president, is responsible to the Dean of Student Affairs.

The fraternities at Marshall have organized the Inter-Fraternity Council (IFC) to promote the interests of the Greek-letter organizations. The IFC represents the fraternity system to University officials and sponsors a number of activities for all fraternity men. In addition, the IFC Judicial Board serves to settle charges of violations of IFC or University regulations by fraternities.

Any Marshall student may participate in the formal program of fraternity membership selection, known as "Rush". Organized by the IFC, Rush Week is usually held shortly after the beginning of each semester. Upon payment of a small rush fee, any new student may visit the smokers and open house events held by each fraternity during Rush Week. At the end of the week, every fraternity submits to an IFC representative a list of the students to whom it desires to extend membership. Each student who has participated in the formal rush program picks up the bids which he has received at the Science Hall Auditorium on the last day of Rush Week. Provided he continues to meet IFC standards, he is then initiated into full active membership in the fraternity whose bid he has accepted.

SORORITIES

The seven sororities at Marshall University are all chapters of national organizations. They are governed locally by the Panhellenic Council which is composed of elected representatives of each sorority. Both nationally and locally, the groups express their belief that a ". . . sorority is a social experience based on the fundamental right of a free people to form voluntary organizations. Sorority membership is a social experience arrived at by mutual choice and selection. Sorority membership is by invitation."

At the beginning of each semester a period of time is designated for "Rush". This rushing is organized to allow both the interested students and the sorority members an opportunity to become better acquainted and to make the selection of friends with whom they want such close association. Although the groups of rushees tend to select each other because their interests are similiar, an emphasis is placed upon high values and standards in friendships, in leadership opportunities, and in scholastic achievement. Each group encourages its members to participate in other campus organizations, to contribute their services to community projects, and to serve the University.

BASKETBALL

This is the fifth year that Coach Ellis Johnson will be with us leading our varsity team. Coach Johnson has been very busy this year with recruiting and the NATIONAL INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT.

Last season is the first time since the 58-59 season that we had a winning season. (20-8) Bob Redd, 2nd all MAC team and George Stone, who really pleased the crowd at Madison Square Garden, and won honorable mention in the Associated Press Polls, will be back along with Jim Davidson, a tremendous ball handler, Dan D'Antoni, and 6'9" Bob Allen.

Marshall came in fourth place by beating Villanova and Nebraska in the NIT. With the whole starting team back, Coach Johnson expects to have an even better season this year.

GOLF

Coach "Buddy" Graham expects to have an even better record this year than last, with only senior Pete Donald leaving the team from last year. The team, with four juniors and at least four up and coming sophomores will compete with all the MAC teams plus numerous other schools.

Look for juniors Jeff Billie and Brecht Peoples to shine in the golf spotlight this spring.

BASEBALL

The Thundering Herd's outlook looks bright for the season with the team racking up a winning season last year. With juniors like Jim Fantuzzo and John Mazur, and some good sophomore prospects, Coach Cook looks for a winning spring.

Seniors leaving who will be missed are Carl Nelson (All MAC Team) and Charlie Yonkers.

WRESTLING

On the college level, wrestling has become one of the fastest growing sports. Coach Edward Prelaz is confident of an improved season this year with many veterans returning.

TENNIS

Tennis is one of the most popular sports on campus. Our varsity competes with many conference and non-conference teams, none of these teams easy. The team is coached by Craig Wolverton. All freshmen who are interested in this sport, please try out.

TRACK AND FIELD

After two winning seasons in a row The Thundering Herd is confident of holding onto another winning season this year. Men like Doug Stewart and Harold Johnson next years prospects look good.

INTRAMURALS

The intramural sports program at Marshall University is designed to fulfill the needs for supervised competitive sports of all male students. The student may participate in those activities as dictated by his interest and ability and time.

UNION SPORTS

This year will be the fifth for the Union Sports Program. The program is under the direction of Don Morris, director of the Student Union. The Union sports consists of about twenty popular passtimes: table tennis, villiarss, bridge, chess, checkers and many other table games. The competitions will be posted in the union.

CHEERLEADERS

The Thundering Herd Cheerleading squad went to the NIT with the team and cheered them on to two victories. It is the job of the cheerleaders to keep the spirits up of the crowd in a losing situation and to add to the excitement of a winning situation.

Tryouts for freshmen interested in cheering on a freshman squad will be held late in October. Requirements are simple, one must have an overall average of 2.0, single, attend practices and be interested. Freshmen with tumbling ability are welcome on the squad also.

GREENBACKERS

The "Greenbackers" is a campus organization which performs card stunts at the home football games. They are under the direction of the Robe, mens leadership honorary. Each Robe member serves as a row captain. In the fall, they plan to perform at least 2 card stunts a game. Tickets may be obtained from any Robe member.

T.H.E. GROUP

T.H.E. Group or The Thundering Herd Excitement Group, was created by a group of students who are interested in the spirit at Marshall's games. The group has three members from each fraternity and can be recognized by their black top hats and their Chamberlin umbrellas. They assist the cheerleaders and stage stunts preceding the games and at half time.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

One of Marshall's most unforgettable and enjoyable weekends is HOMECOMING. It promises to be a weekend that will leave your head swimming from all the excitement. Many of our alumni return to the campus to renew bonds, to observe the changes, and to live it up with us, the undergraduates.

A week prior to Homecoming, an election is held to choose class queens and "Miss Marshall." All full-time women with an overall "C" average are eligible to run for queen in her respective class. The girls must secure a petition from the Student Government office. Marshall's best are chosen at the polls with the senior queen reigning over the festivities as "Miss Marshall." This years "Miss Marshall" was Miss Jan Jenkin, a Huntington senior.

On Friday of the big weekend at the intramural field, our pep rally is held. On Saturday the House decorations of the dorms and sororities are judged. That afternoon, the colorful parade, starting at noon travels through downtown Huntington. The elected campus beauties ride on a float built by one of the fraternities. The other fraternities are in competition with their float entries. The Band, Majorettes, Cheerleaders, and ROTC also join in to put on the parade.

Next, it's off to the game. Everyone dresses up for Homecoming. The Greenbackers and an enthusiastic crowd will be all the support for a victory that any team could desire. After the game, there's a dance at the Memorial Field House where you can dance to the music of a "name" band.

The Greek fraternities and sororities unite to provide entertainment in antics and contests in their annual GREEK WEEK. On a Saturday afternoon at the intramural field, the Greeks compete in games for a trophy. The highlight of the week is the Greek Week Dance at which the Greek women and men of the year are presented. This week is held to promote better relations among th Greeks.

The highlight of first semester is PARENT'S WEEKEND. On November 17th and 18th our parents are invited to visit the campus and participate in the series of entertaining and informative activities presented by the departments and the student body.

As a tribute to our mothers the Greek organizations provide music entertainment and this is called MOTHER'S DAY SING. Each fraternity and sorority spends months preparing a song for their group to sing. This has become a friendly rivalry to determine which one sings the best. The winners carry off permanent trophies. The dormitories and Greeks hold open house for the public afterwards.

LEADERSHIP CAMP is a weekend retreat for the student senate, president and vice-president of the student body, members of the administration and officers of campus organizations.

The BLOOD DRIVE takes place twice a year, usually October and May. All students over 18 are eligible to participate but until you are 21 your parents must sign a permission slip available in the Student Government office.
