Working With Your Search Results

Print or E-mail Results
Check the boxes to the left of the specific search result you want to print or e-mail. If you wish to obtain all the results check the "Titles" box at the left then select desired page(s) to print or e-mail your results.

You may also re-sort your data by choosing an option in the drop-down box on the top right of your search results.

Contact Information:

Library Hours:
8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays.

By Appointment Only:
To schedule an appointment (an extended research visit) to the library, call 202.272.8370; email CISHistory.Library@dhs.gov; or write to the address below. All visitors must present a valid form of photo identification to enter through building security.

Location:
USCIS History Office and Library
111 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, 1st Floor
Washington, DC 20529
Telephone: 202.272.8370
Fax: 202.272.8374
Email: CISHistory.Library@dhs.gov

Library Catalog: http://207.67.203.70/U95007Staff/OPAC/
For more information visit www.uscis.gov (click the "About Us" tab. See the link to "USCIS History" at left)

Extended library visits (more than 3 consecutive days) require security checks.
The USCIS History Office and Library collection consists of books, publications, reports, periodicals, microfilm, legal material, law enforcement material, and secondary works by and about the legacy Immigration and Naturalization Service. The collection includes certain documents created by the Service more than a century ago. The collection also includes an extensive vertical file of miscellaneous materials related to various immigration and naturalization topics.

The library’s historical photograph collection depicts agency facilities and operations throughout the country from the 1890’s to the present. To view the historical photograph collection please call to set an appointment.

Getting Started
To search the USCIS library’s online catalog, please go to: http://207.67.203.70/U95007Staff/OPAC/

Simple Search
Type in a word or a phrase to begin a search. Results are displayed in relevancy or title order, depending on the Search Options you select.

1. Type in the term(s) you want to search for: Enter a single word, multiple words, or an exact phrase (a text string with “quotation marks”).

2. Click the “GO” Button or press ENTER to launch the search.

3. Click Start over button to clear all fields and resume your search.

Advanced Search
Advance Search allows you the advantage of combining different categories such as Author AND Title OR Subject, enabling you to search multiple terms simultaneously.

1. Select search option from the list of Word(s), Author, Title, Subject, etc.

2. Type in the term(s) you want to search for: Enter a single word(s), multiple word(s), or a phrase.

3. Select the operator function to use between the search terms entered (AND/OR/NOR).

4. Click the “GO” button or press ENTER to launch the search.

5. Click Start Over to clear all fields and resume your search.

Search Tips:
Click the Show Search Options link to limit your search to specific parameters such as: Display Results (number of records per page); Limit Search (format, location, language, etc.); Find Linked Media (images, sound, etc.); and/or Publication Year.

- Change search method: Match All = to Boolean “and,” Match Any = to Boolean “or.”

Note: The Advanced Search option generates a list of entries arranged in alphabetical order by the selected browse index beginning with the letters you typed in. Every list consists of many pages containing at least 10 entries each.