THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

By Francis Scott Key

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming,
And the rockets' red glare, bombs bursting in air;
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a Nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto - "In God is our trust;"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a Perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

REPORTS OF STATE OFFICERS

STATE REGENT

Since installation at National Congress on April twenty-fourth your State Regent has attended two National Board of Management meetings in Washington, D. C. and devoted her efforts to organizing this administration of the West Virginia Society DAR. She has appointed chairmen for National State and special committees and appreciates the cooperation of all. In the interim she has visited and spoken at three District Meetings.

She compiled the State Directory for publication and distribution at Jackson's Mill, where she conducted both an executive and Board of Management meetings. She distributed a packet of informative and instructive letters and questionnaires of State Officers and Chairmen, outlining State work.

Your State Regent attended the Third American Heritage Week Camp at Cedar Lakes where she taught classes in American Diplomacy and Historical Documents. I would like, at this time, to thank and commend our new Vice President General, Miss Virginia Johnson, who is serving as Camp Director. Her efficient and time consuming preparations have promoted a smoothly running camp. I would like to thank all others who have helped in any way with camp operation.

It has been a real pleasure to visit several W. Va. DAR Chapters since my installation. Among chapters visited are John Hart, Col. John Evans, Potomac Valley, Ft. Lee, Capt. James Allen, and James Wood. Thank you for your unexcelled hospitality. I would like also to thank Mrs. James Cain and Mrs. Gordon D. Wooton, Co-Chairmen of this State Conference, for their very efficient planning for our comfort and pleasure. I would also like to express my thanks to all who helped make this conference a success. She thanks the thirty-seven chapters who contributed to the October Golden Jubilee Magazine issue, commemorating the Seventy-fifth birthday of The National Society. She is deeply grateful for your support at a time when you were not having meetings.

Your Regent has tried to carry out her responsibilities and uphold the Historical, educational and patriotic aims of the National Society. It is with sincere appreciation of the work of State Officers State Chairmen and members that I greet you on the occasion of your 60th birthday, and the Seventy-fifth birthday of the National Society. May I add that it is my hope that this organization continues to survive, extend their noble purpose and celebrate many more birthdays.

Mrs. Carl C. Galbraith, State Regent

STATE VICE-REGENT

Your State Vice-Regent had the pleasure of representing your State Regent at the Eastern District meeting in Martinsburg. She has also worked with Mrs. Frank Mish on the furnishings for the master bedroom in the General Adam Stephen Memorial—our state project.

I wish to take this opportunity to say "thanks" to the West Virginia Daughters for the confidence you have placed in me and assure you I count it a very real privilege to serve you.

Florence H. Moore (Mrs. C. W.), State Vice-Regent

STATE CHAPLAIN

Each Chapter Chaplain has been asked to send her State Chaplain during each year of this administration, a copy of the devotional that she considers the most effective one presented to her chapter. She is to include the selected passage of scripture, the prayer and an appropriate poem. The State Chaplain will in turn select one of those submitted to her and send it to the Chaplain General. In this way, by the end of three years we should have one hundred and fifty excellently prepared chapter devotionals.

Another important responsibility of the Chapter Chaplain is to promote warm relationships within her Chapter, to erase ruffled feelings, to smooth rough edges and to set an example of understanding in difficult personal relationships. Remember the Master said, "Blessed are the Peacemakers."

Our President General has given us a rich theme—"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, There is Liberty." II Corinthians, 3:17. May we remember to pray daily for one another, for our President General as she guides the affairs of our beloved Society and for our United States, that we may remain "One Nation Under God."

Mabel Williams (Mrs. Ben), State Chaplain

STATE RECORDING SECRETARY

As recording secretary of the West Virginia Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, it is a pleasure to serve under the able guidance of our beloved State Regent, Mrs. Carl Conley Galbraith.

To date, all meetings have been attended and minutes recorded. Arrangements were made for the printing of the programs and proceedings of the 60th annual state conference.

Mary Parmesano (Mrs. Vincent, Jr.), State Recording Secretary

Material compiled by our State Regent was mailed to West Virginia Honorary Officers, State Officers, State Chairmen, District Directors and Chapter Regents. Your Corresponding Secretary attended Continental Congress as a delegate from James Wood Chapter, the Northern District Meeting, Jackson's Mill meeting and served at Our American Heritage Week Camp.

It is a real pleasure, as well as a privilege, Madam Regent, to be associated with you and work for the State Society.

Mrs. Anna Allen, State Corresponding Secretary

STATE ORGANIZING SECRETARY

I am pleased to report that during the past year the state welcomed a new chapter in Oceana. Progress has been made toward forming a chapter in Mullens.

The State Regent, Mrs. Galbraith and I journeyed to Wellsburg, Weirton,, New Cumberland and Chester the first of October,, calling on DAR members at large. While there are no definite plans at present, we hope a new chapter will materialize in the Panhandle.

Mrs. Arthur R. Ward, State Organizing Secretary.

REPORTS OF STATE CHAIRMEN OF NATIONAL COMMITTEES

AMERICAN INDIANS COMMITTEE

Twenty-nine chapters reported; 23 chapters returned the questionnaire; 14 chapters had an American Indians program.

Bacone and St. Mary's schools received $243 in financial aid. Of this amount, Elizabeth Ludington Hagans Chapter sent $150 tuition for a student at St. Mary's, and $20 for their music room.

St. Mary's received: jewelry, clothing, and "some" money from one chapter; 1 box of Christmas gifts; 3 boxes of clothing. Bacone College received: one box of clothing; jewelry for the workshop. A chapter sent clothing valued at $125., but did not state to whom it was sent. Five chapters sent stamp books.

A recommended program for your chapter is the one on "Bacone College" from National Headquarters.

Alice P. Comerford (Mrs. Frank G.), State Chairman

AMERICANISM AND MANUALS FOR CITIZENSHIP COMMITTEE

Questionnaire report forms,, a chronological list of dates important in American History, a form for ordering manuals for citizenship and a quiz game form were mailed to all chapters.

Reports have been received from: Anne Bailey, Barboursville, Buford, Colonel Charles Lewis, Captain James Allen, Colonel Andrew Donnally, Fort Lee, John Cooke, John Young, Pack Horse Ford, Princess Aracoma and Ye Towne of Bath Chapters.

Two other chapters reported no committee—because of no new citizens in their area. This misunderstanding prevails pretty generally and we shall try to correct it. All chapters can promote Americanism. All members can learn much by reading the Manual for Citizenship and much can be accomplished by making manuals available to teachers, schools,, libraries and organizations.

Bertha Ballard Solins (Mrs. Samuel) State Chairman

CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Your State Senior President attended Constitution Day dinner and brought greetings from C.A.R. to the joint meeting of General Andrew Lewis Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution and Colonel Andrew Donnally Chapter C.A.R. Attended Virginia State Society Thirty-eighth State Conference. Attended State DAR Conference and brought greetings, also served on the President General's Reception Room Committee, and had the honor of introducing Mrs. Faust, Senior National President, to Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, President General. Brought greetings to Western District meeting in Parkersburg.

Participated in the following: Proclamation picture with the Governor; State patriotic window display; sent letters to all delinquent members, and notified all members past C.A.R. age urging them to join DAR and SAR chapters; held three senior state board meetings; sent forms for reports to senior presidents; arranged for printing and addressed hundreds of invitations to our C.A.R. state meeting in Fairmont.

Our fine representation in the American Heritage Camp speaks for itself.

Mary Ford McNutt (Mrs. Charlie F.), State Senior President

CONSERVATION COMMITTEE

The Conservation Program is one of the most interesting and far reaching of our activities. We all know the urgency of protecting our natural resources (of which West Virginia is so richly blessed) from waste and destruction.

It is encouraging to know more than half the chapters have had a program on conservation. Most of the programs were on water pollution—dwindling supplies—effect of these on wild life and the human race. Many chapters had conservationists as speakers, as well as forest rangers.

The slogan this year is "Save the Redwoods." All chapters are asked to cooperate with the White House Program on conserving our nations natural beauty and educating youth in conservation. Planting is also being stressed.

Virginia B. Kable (Mrs. J. Emory), State Chairman

DAR MAGAZINE COMMITTEE

Twenty-one chapters have reported with 231 continuing subscriptions and 40 new subscriptions.

With the national society running the new magazine subscription contest during the month of October, we have eight new subscriptions to count towards that, and hopefully, before the month is out, this number will raise considerably.

Mrs. Charles I. Rhodes, State Chairman

DAR MAGAZINE ADVERTISING COMMITTEE

Thirty-seven chapters sent ten dollars each to the State Treasurer for the October Jubilee edition of the DAR National magazine. Twenty dollars of this had to be returned because the magazine had gone to print before it arrived. A total of $350.00 was sent to the National Magazine.

DAR MUSEUM COMMITTEE

The Anne Bailey Chapter sent twenty-five dollars to the "Friends of the Museum."

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS

I wish to express deep appreciation for the time and effort many members of our West Virginia Chapters are expending in preparing the work of our Committee.

Mrs. Irvin C. Brown, our National Chairman, has expressed her appreciation with sincere gratitude. "What our dedicated members have done all through the years is astounding. I sometimes look over the genealogical records which have been turned in from the various states with a sense of humility. The hours and effort expended could not be counted. Likewise, the persons these unpublished records have helped is countless."

The Genealogical Forms and Index Cards have been reported complete by these Chapters: Charleston, Colonel Morgan-Morgan, Daniel Davisson, Elizabeth Ludington Hagans, Kanawha Valley, and Spencer Roane. Other Chapters are completing their records by adding the accompanying Index Cards. Several Chapters have indicated plans for finishing their records during the coming winter. Others are planning to contribute bound volumes to the DAR Library.

Irene E. Eib, State Chairman

JUNIOR AMERICAN CITIZENS COMMITTEE

West Virginia has 9 active J.A.C. Chapters, Princess Aracoma, Colonel Charles Lewis, Elizabeth Ludington Hagans, Buford, Barboursville, Blennerhassett, Mondongachate., James Wood and Mannington, who have organized 360 clubs, with a total membership of 10,312. We received two national awards: First prize for the largest percentage gain in clubs, and second prize for the largest percentage gain in members. We had 5 national contest winners and 15 state award winners.

There were 33 contest participants from Blennerhassett, Princess Aracoma and Mondongachate chapters, and all three had national winners, meriting cash awards. Certificates and ribbons were awarded the state winners and citations were given to all who participated.

At least 4 Thatcher awards were reported to me and 2 J.A.C. flags were given to clubs.

There was 100 per cent participation in the American Heritage Camp. Miss Virginia Johnson displayed a huge poster of snapshots taken at camp in the JAC Conference room in Washington—well received.

Your JAC Chairman represented West Virginia in Washington, and entertained the JAC Chairman, Mrs. Campbell, and the Contest Chairman, Mrs. Tompkins, by inviting them to the West Virginia tea. We are all pleased with the progress that West Virginia has made with the Junior American Citizens Committee.

Isobel Bush (Mrs. A. F.), State Chairman

JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Seven chapters reported.

Five chapters sent the information requested, necessary for the publication of a Directory of the Junior membership in West Virginia.

Eight chapters contributed a total of $57.75 to the Helen Pouch Memorial Scholarship fund.

Eighteen chapters increased their Junior Membership; 30 of the 98 new members admitted were junior age.

At the 74th Continental Congress, NSDAR, seven juniors served as pages; juniors prepared the decorations for the annual dinner of the junior membership and donated twin dolls in honor of Miss Virginia B. Johnson to the Junior Bazaar. Your State Chairman was selected to represent West Virginia as a candidate in the "1965 Outstanding Junior Member—Miss or Mrs.", national contest.

Three juniors presently serve as State Chairmen.

Four Juniors were senior counselors at the third annual session of 'Our American Heritage Week'. Proceeds from the bazaar held at the 59th annual state conference sent 14 C.A.R. girls to the session of camp.

Beryl M. Amos (Mrs. Curt E.), State Chairman

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

The Membership Committee has two main goals: to maintain and develop the prestige of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution; to increase membership in order to expand the influence of this Society. Now, as never before, we need a large group of patriotic and informed women working for a common cause.

Be sure that you are among those counted to increase membership in your chapter. Your chairman sent out a questionnaire to each Chapter regarding membership and was highly gratified to have almost 100 per cent response. Unfortunately a few Chapters gave only the name of their membership chairman and failed to give a list of gains and losses. For this reason the figures which have been compiled are not complete. These figures show a loss of 57 members by death or transfer and a gain of 74 members.

In her remarks following installation ceremonies at the 74th Continental Congress, Mrs. William Henry Sullivan said that her goal for the next three years is to increase DAR membership to 200,000.

Your Chairman would like to hear from you each time there is a change in your membership. By working together toward this goal, there is nothing we cannot accomplish.

Mary S. Gillie (Mrs. Percy), State Chairman

NATIONAL DEFENSE

"The price of Liberty is eternal vigilance."

Your state chairmen, district vice-chairmen and chapter chairmen, jealous of our freedom, are watchful and alert to preserve the freedom still secured to us by our Constitution.

There were 50 complete Defense programs in the 32 chapters reporting. 79 Good Citizenship medals were presented to students in junior and senior high schools over the state.

The following are some of the outstanding efforts accomplished for Defense: store window displays; display of defense literature at each meeting; co-operative effort with Chambers of Commerce, the American Legion and Boy Scouts in various patriotic projects; letters to members of Congress expressing opinions on certain bills; a program on the role of the National Guard in Defense; report on an article written by Dr. Walter Judd; book reviews; assembly programs in the schools; an address by John Noble sponsored by a chapter, in one of our cities.

Several chapters gave monetary help to send girls to the American Heritage camp, through the efforts of the National Defense chapter chairman.

Together let us strive to stimulate patriotism at all levels, first by being well informed ourselves so that we can actually defend FREEDOM, both morally and spiritually.

Kathryn M. Kraybill (Mrs. D. B.), State Chairman

REPORTS OF STATE CHAIRMEN OF SPECIAL NATIONAL COMMITTEES

CONSTITUTION WEEK

What wonderful response we have had from the Chapter Chairmen of Constitution Week. From the thirty-six chapters reporting, exactly 493,942 points have been earned.

It would be difficult to estimate the true value of the patriotic activities of these committee chairmen as the various communities in our State emphasized the observance of Constitution Week. How many children were made aware, for the first time, of the rich heritage that is theirs simply because they were born in this country? How many adults took time to pause for a moment of reflection on the benefits that are ours as American citizens?

It is good that we have this designated week so that at least once a year we might pay humble tribute to those of our forefathers whose vision and wisdom enabled them to compose this noble and courageous document—THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Mrs. Evan M. Cyrus, State Chairman

INSIGNIA

The use of the formal Insignia of our society has an important place in the overall pattern of our DAR work on Chapter, State and National levels. This beautiful emblem stands for everything that we stand for, and its appearance in connection with DAR events and activities adds emphasis and significance to all that we do.

The dignity of and the respect for the DAR insignia prohibits its being worn in a bar or cocktail lounge. It should not be used on match boxes, playing cards or other articles designed purely for commercial purpose. The use of the insignia of the National Society is limited to programs, stationery, books or other publications of use to the Society.

Always guard the insignia against falling into the hands of second hand merchants.

The insignia of deceased or resigned members may be disposed of in several ways. It may be buried with the member. The name and number may be erased and re-engraved with another name and number of a member of our society. Another name and number of a member may be engraved beneath the original name and number. It may be willed to the chapter or to the National Society

I would like to urge all members to have and wear a pin, and suggest that each chapter present their retiring Regent with a pin. She has earned it.

Mrs. A. D. Cooke, State Chairman

WEST VIRGINIA DAR NEWS

The W. VA. DAR NEWS is a quarterly publication, the cost of which is met by a state assessment of 13c and a subscription price of three years for $1.00. Although the costs of both printing and postage have advanced appreciably since these amounts were set, the News has remained solvent due to careful contracting and editing. Unfortunately the present budget does not allow the State Organization to underwrite the cost of making cuts. The Distribution and Circulation Committee has conducted an energetic and rewarding subscription campaign; however, 300 more subscriptions are needed to give West Virginia Daughters effective photographic coverage.

AMERICAN HERITAGE WEEK CAMP

One hundred sixty campers and their 35 counselors, junior and senior, filled the third annual Our American Heritage Week Camp to capacity. You did a splendid job of selecting outstanding girls and many chapters did a fine job of meeting the date for camp applications.

The appreciation of the State Organization should be directed to Mrs. Carl C. Galbraith, State Regent, Mrs. Anna Allen, Mrs. Dwight P. Cruikshank and Miss Joan Adams, who taught every camper in their morning classes. Mrs. Frank Comerford, Miss Mary Leonard, Mrs.

Charles Rhodes, Miss Sue Oiler, Miss Janie Bush, Miss Carolyn Cruikshank, Miss Mary Carolyn Ross and Miss Judy Humphries completed the roster of capable senior counselors supervising afternoon activity classes and generally lending a helpful hand to the program. Mrs. J. Stuart Ervin served as camp treasurer.

The evening speakers included Mr. Edward Hunter, THE authority on brainwashing; Dr. Aldred Wallace, pastor of Johnson Memorial Church of this city; Mr. Jim Comstock, editor of the West Virginia Hillbilly; Mr. Charles Hopkins, an authority on the lives of the Presidents and Mr. John Noble who saw years of slavery under communism.

With a balance of $465.42 the camp is solvent although not wealthy! The treasurer's report is appended.

With a total sent to me of 12-8 column inches of newsprint including 81 pictures the camp has become a major source of excellent DAR public relations.

I trust that through the lives and minds of our campers we have had a significant impact for the United States—a Constitutional Republic.

Miss Calamine has been accepted at Potomac State College of West Virginia University and will major in Home Economics.

The Potomac Valley Chapter of Keyser sponsored this year's award. Six very fine young women made application for this scholarship, and the judges were the District Directors.

GENERAL ADAM STEPHEN MEMORIAL

As chairman of the General Adam Stephen Memorial project it gives me great pleasure to tell you that the major furnishings for the master bedroom have been secured and are on display at "Boydville" in Martinsburg. These pieces consist of a Sheraton Rock Maple Fieldbed; a cherry chest of drawers; an inlaid, bow-front shaving case; a bedside candle-stand, with drawer; a walnut "necessary chair"; a mahogany Chippendale sidechair; a walnut Queen Anne table and a handsome crewel work bedspread.

While the committee is most grateful for this furniture, we are still looking for a blanket chest to be placed at the foot of the bed; a high chest (chest on chest, or on frame) or a highboy. We would also like to have candlesticks for the mantel, a fairly tall pewter or brass candlestick for stand by the bed. A handsome fishnet canopy for the bed is a "must". Also handloomed linen sheets and bolster or pillow cases, featherbed, bolster or pillows. Any other small items suitable for a man's room. A medical book or two of the 18th century would be acceptable.

At this time the bids are out and actual restoration is expected to move forward very soon.

Florence H. Moore (Mrs. C. W.), State Chairman
