PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE . . .

Preparation for the upcoming annual meeting is going well. I want to thank all of you who submitted programs. We have an excellent selection that covers a broad variety of topics. As is often the case, the only problem may be in deciding which of so many good sessions to attend.

I am excited by several of the opportunities that we have for you. Friday evening will be a "tad" different from our traditional format. We are planning a program of barbecue and bluegrass (a Georgia tradition). Our keynote speaker will be Eliot Wigginton from "Foxfire." He always seems to have new and innovative projects that challenge and inspire us all. Dress will be casual, and you should be prepared for a good time to be had by all. Saturday night you will be able to hear one of Appalachia's finest musicians, Norman Blake. He and his band will present a concert. He is a traditional flat-picker who plays haunting ballads and "smokin'" guitar and mandolin instrumentals.

Please remember that space in Unicoi Lodge is limited. There will be additional rooms available in nearby Helen, but make your reservations early if you wish to be in the lodge.

Let me call your attention to the enclosed ballot. As our association grows, we will want to consider both experience and "new blood" as we select officers. Your vote counts. If you wish to be considered for a future leadership position, please be sure to contact one of the officers. We are sometimes not aware of some good folks who are willing to help.
