The Daniel Boone Hotel

A modern community-built hotel costing over a million and a quarter dollars befitting Charleston.

TRULY, in the Daniel Boone, Charleston offers to the traveler West Virginia's most modern hotel. Built by a progressive citizenry of the "Mountain State" at a cost of over a million and a quarter dollars, it is operated by the American Hotels Corporation, which, in affiliation with the United Hotels Company of America, directs the operation of over sixty other modern hotels in the United States and Canada.

The Daniel Boone Hotel is located at Washington and Capitol Streets, where the main auto routes intersect, and is but a short distance from the State Capitol Grounds.

It is an attractive ten-story, fireproof building, containing two hundred and sixty guest rooms. Every room is an outside room, with private bath, beautifully tiled and in most cases having both tub and shower. Two and three room suites are available on each of the eight guest floors. Circulating ice water and radio are a feature of every room.

Convenient sample rooms for the use of commercial travelers are available and unusual convention facilities have already given The Daniel Boone Hotel an outstanding place in this field of service.

In addition to the main restaurant, there is a coffee shoppe, served from the same modern, daylight kitchen, thereby making possible a variety of prices for a uniformly high standard of quality and service.

Sixty modern rooms are available at $2.50 per person per day. No rate is higher than $6.00 single and $8.00 double, per day. Parlor suites, from $12.00 to $15.00 per day.

The management will be glad to welcome you to The Daniel Boone.

ROGER S. CREEL, Manager.
