INDIVIDUAL SENATORS RESOLUTION

SR-95-96-66 (IS)

In 1991 the Faculty Senate passed and President Gould approved a parking policy which provides:

"On days when classes are not in session (weekends, holidays, and intersession periods), any person may park in any University parking lot (including metered parking)."

Exceptions are provided for handicapped parking spaces, athletic parking areas on game days, and regular registration periods.

Recently, the Parking Office, via telephone message sent through the Faculty Senate, announced that parking regulations were being enforced because "Session A" had begun. However, "Session A" is simply another name for what was formerly called Intersession. In fact, it is identified as Session A (Intersession) on the Summer Schedule of Classes.

Therefore, the Faculty Senate urges (1) that the Parking Office abide by the published policy and (2) if policy changes are thought to be desirable that proposals be presented to the Faculty Senate through appropriate channels.
