Sue's News and Views

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

The above lines from a lovely old hymn are especially significant to all of us as we face a bright new year. A year that holds much of promise, hope and challenge. As we face this new year we look backward with the knowledge that in so many ways and in so many places perhaps we did not always keep faith — may this not be so at the close of another.

Mrs. Scott

Nineteen hundred sixty-three gave us many things of joy and of pain. As a people we celebrated one hundred years of progress in our state and as a nation lost a President by an assassin's bullet. In these two contrasts we were made mindful that time is truly the "meeting place of two eternities." Let us then resolve that in that time which is given us we will possess the possibilities of each magic moment.

In the few weeks remaining before Convention there are so many things to be completed. The reports this year will be the major task confronting chairmen and officers as attempts are made to measure our achievements in terms of facts and figures. It is hoped that every club will do a thorough job of accounting so that all department and division chairmen will be able to do likewise. We are anxious to have 100% reporting so that the women of The West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs can receive the honors they merit. We are not hopeful merely for awards but we want others to know of the many many wonderful things our women have done. Each club president should carefully check the Honor Points and be certain that every report has been dispatched to the proper chairman before deadline.

Mrs. Fred Hurt

The Woman's Club of Beckley proudly presents Mrs. Fred Hurt as a candidate for President of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Active in the Federation for many years, she has served in many capacities — in her local Club as President of both Junior and Senior Clubs, and at various times as chairman of all committees.

On the State Executive Board, she is past director of the West Virginia Juniors, Treasurer, Second Vice-President, and is serving her second year as Vice-President.

She has been employed for the past twenty years as Deputy County Clerk of Raleigh County and is secretary to the County Court.

This year, for the second time, she was honored as "Businesswoman of the Year" of Raleigh County.

Active in civic affairs, she is president of the Raleigh County Health Council, Vice President of the Raleigh County Cancer Association, president of the Raleigh County Dental Council, president of Teen Town, member of the Raleigh County Chapter of Red Cross (and serves as chairman of Nurses Aides), member of the board of directors of the United Fund, member of the Scholarship Fund for Woodrow Wilson High School, secretary of the Raleigh County Park Board, past president of the Parent-Teacher's Association of Beckley Junior High School, and she organized the women's League of Voters for Raleigh County.

An active member of the Presbyterian Church, she has served as a Sunday School teacher, a circle leader, and is a member of the Women's Auxiliary.

Elinor has combined a successful career with her duties as a homemaker and mother. Married to Fred Hurt, a businessman, they are the parents of one son, Howard, who is a graduate of Duke University. Residing with them is a niece, Diane St. Clair, whom they have reared since childhood and who is now a senior in Woodrow Wilson High School.

Elinor has proved her ability as a capable leader. She will represent the West Virginia Federation as a dedicated, progressive, and enthusiastic President.

Mrs. Delmas Miller

The Morgantown Woman's Club is proud to present Mrs. Delmas Miller as a candidate for the office of First Vice-President of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Miller began her club work and was elected president of the Junior Womans Club of Moundsville. Through the years she served as president of Moundsville Woman's Club, president of the Northern District, and president of Morgantown Womans Club. She held State Chairmanships of Post-War Planning, Fine Arts, Penny Art Fund, and Adult Education. At the present time she is Second Vice-President of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

In 1953 Mrs. Miller organized Beta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Omicron with the Extension Division of West Virginia University. This program of guided reading courses for club women has become increasingly popular and at the present time includes fourteen areas of interest. In 1957 Mrs. Miller initiated the first Adult Education Institute for club women on the campus of West Virginia University. This has been a summer experience for club women who return year after year for new insights into current issues as well as club programming.

Mrs. Miller has served her church, community, and State in many capacities. As a church member she directed the choir, taught teacher training classes and children's classes, served as an officer in the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and at present is chairman of the Commission on Education. She has spent her life in education. Receiving her A.B. and Master's degrees from West Virginia University she continued her education at Colorado State College and University of Oregon. She has taught in Elementary schools, Junior High Schools, and Senior High Schools. At the present time she is an elementary school principal in Monongalia County and has been elected president of Monongalia County Education Association.

Clubwomen throughout the State know Mrs. Miller as a capable speaker, an enthusiastic worker and a dedicated club woman. If elected she would serve capably and well as First Vice-President.

NEW YEAR

I thank Thee God for New Year's Day —
The chance to turn a clean white sheet
To fold past records all away
So failure marred — so incomplete.
Grant me to make this year of mine
A thing of beauty and of flame,
A poem strong and crystal fine
And at the end to sign my name.

— Marie Barton

The above poem is my New Years greeting to each of you. So good to hear from many of you during the recent weeks. Our wishes that every one in our Federation family had a nice Holiday Season. Many thanks to each and every one for your fine cooperation during 1963.

As we begin this New Year we have many busy days ahead. Clubs will soon prepare the full report of activities to be mailed to the various State Chairmen. Please be prompt as each state Chairman must compile a complete report and mail to her General Federation Chairman. There are dead lines to be met. This year we close one administration and begin another. We want to tell the full story and it can only be done by each club making a full and detailed report.

This January issue gives the candidates who have announced for the various state offices. The Chairman and members of the Nominating Committee have done a fine job in presenting this slate. Convention time is fast approaching. Begin making plans now to attend. Write direct to The Greenbrier Hotel, White Sulphur Springs for your reservation. Come with an open mind to learn all you can.

Be sure to get acquainted with each candidate. Get their thinking on Federation Activities. We must have State officers who are dedicated Clubwomen. They must be capable; prompt in answering requests and meeting dead line. They must know the program and projects and what the Federation means. They must be informed and continue to stay informed, willing to work over time for the state Federation. Delegates take time to carefully study each candidate's qualifications, observe then during convention and vote for the one most qualified for the office. Don't let your roommate influence you. Make up your own mind.

Congratulations to all new officers elected in the eight districts. May every success be yours as you serve your Districts as their leaders. Members of each district give your new officers full cooperation.

We are delighted to know Mrs. N. S. Orkney of Webster Springs attended the International Conference in Munich, Germany this summer. She recently gave a most interesting report of it to her club. Perhaps she could be persuaded to visit other clubs and tell of her interesting trip.

Weirton Woman's Club and the Junior Department did a superb job of promoting West Virginia during the centennial by selling the book "A Banner in The Hills" and the note paper featuring color scenes of our state during the summer months when most clubs were recessed.

Our sympathy to the Mutual Improvement Club of Ronceverte upon the death of one of its outstanding members — Mrs. Mabel Henkle.

The Southeastern Council meets in Jekyll Island, January 27-29. The Georgia clubwomen with the Council President are planning a fine program. An ideal place for a winter vacation so we hope to see many of you there.

Junior Director's Message

Dear Juniors:

Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years have come and gone, I hope for each of you the holiday season was filled with warmth and blessings. This is always a joyous time of year for the Springer family and this year's celebrations were no exception.

Mrs. Springer

With the passing of the old year and the coming of the new, it is again time to direct our thoughts towards reporting our club activities for the club year. I am indeed sorry but it was necessary to change our due date for reporting to February 15th. This was made necessary when General Federation put a March 1st deadline on state reports. So you can see the February 15th report date is needed to give our State Department Chairmen ample time to compile their reports. Please remember to include ALL your activities for in this way only is your club judged on an equal level with other clubs. Every year after we give the awards at state convention, we hear the question "Why didn't we receive the award." Possibly, because you did not report in detail and the chairman had no real basis to judge your activities.

Speaking of convention, we might mention the time is drawing near. The Clarksburg Juniors are going all out to make this the "best one yet." Plans have been in the making since early September. At this date many plans are already completed. I do hope you will attend. Remember this is election year. This always adds to an interesting meeting. The March issue will introduce our candidates for state office. The Stonewall Jackson Hotel in Clarksburg is convention headquarters. If you are unable to get a reservation there, try the Waldo or Gore Hotels. Both are within a block of the Stonewall Jackson. Both can offer good accommodations. I'll be looking for you come May 1st in Clarksburg.

And with report drawing near, it might be wise to check over our Honor Points to see if everything that is required has been complied with. Has your club sold their ad (or ads) for the Clubwoman? If not, I hope that you will do so today. As you know this magazine is supported mainly through the advertisements. This is our responsibility. I know the Juniors want to do their part in making it possible to continue the publication of this magazine each year. Perhaps your club would like to purchase a space rather than to sell an ad. If so, fine but let's be 100% in the state this year in supporting the sale of advertisements for the Clubwoman Magazine.

A substantial number of West Virginia Farm boys and girls will get an early start in the dairy industry as a result of a project undertaken by the West Virginia Juniors. Mrs. Harold Springer, Jr. Director and Mrs. H. Gordon Flynn, president of Clarksburg Club view some of the calves for the 4-H project.

Remember to send you Dimes for Liberty. These funds are to be used for the building of a Museum of Immigration in the base of the Statue of Liberty. Let every Junior Clubwoman in West Virginia honor our ancestors by supporting this project!

Of course. I must remind you, we should still support our National Junior Projects of CARE, HOPE, SALK INSTITUTE AND STAMPS FOR THE WOUNDED. Your response to date has been wonderful, so keep up the good work. Our Dental Health

The project originated in Harrison County and has since spread across the state with various Junior Women's Clubs participating. The original program was launched when the Junior Council voted to loan $1,000 to the state 4-H for this project, to provide calves to interested youths whose parents could not purchase them one. The Harrison County Agricultural Agent, Vernon Tacey, worked closely with the Juniors in starting the program and with the $1,000 state loan, and a $300 loan from the Clarksburg Juniors, the project was underway.

Approximately 15 Junior Clubs in the state have loaned funds for the purchase of additional calves on a local level. These calves will be cared for by the 4-H members, shown in county and state dairy shows and sold in a county sale as bred heifers when approximately 2 years old. The boy or girl will then return to the clubs the original purchase cost of the calf. The additional profit from the sale of the calves will prove beneficial to the 4-H'ers in furthering his, or her, college education.

The purpose of the program is to give rural youth the experience of growing, fitting and showing a calf and to teach them the responsibilities and value of money and its uses.

Project has also been growing by leaps and bounds and when the reports are tallied I know you will be surprised at how much you have accomplished state-wide. The Teachers Manual was indeed a most vital part of this project. We are continuing to receive compliments on our 4-H Calf program. You will find an article and picture in this issue on it.

Let me remind you again this year the West Virginia Federation Convention will be held in March at the Greenbrier Hotel. This issue will include highlights on the program and speaker. I do hope we will have, again this year, a fine delegation of the Junior Membership. I will be there, as will your Associate Director, June Coffee, and several other state and district officers, I want to extend to all of you an invitation to join us for a wonderful experience.

Of course, if you can't come to the Greenbrier, do come to our Junlor Convention in Clarksburg. I am looking forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely, Audrey Springer

MRS. CORE

Guild.

She has been active in youth work over the state for a number of years, having been honored on two occasions for her work with youth.

Mrs. Core was a delegate to the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth, Washington, D. C. and has also served as secretary to State White House Conference Council on Children and Youth since its organization.

Mrs. Core is listed in Who Who's of the First Edition of American Women.

Mrs. Core is a happy combination of Wife, Church-Woman, Civic Worker, Clubwoman, and Career Woman.

Her husband is an associate professor of Education at Marshall University.

The Woman's Club of Beverly Hills highly recommends this personable and talented member as one who will make an outstanding contribution as an officer in the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

MRS. KLEIN

because of their love for their adopted state and home community.

Aside from Mrs. Klein's devoted service to her woman's club activities during the past twelve years where she has served on many committees, she is a member of the Dunbar Library Board, active in the Woman's Society of Christian Service of her church, the order of Eastern Star, along with many other community activities.

These reported highlights of the services and interest of Mrs. Klein reflects only a glimpse of the real capabilities and personality of Martha. The Pioneer Woman's Club is proud not only to present but to recommend Mrs. Paul R. Klein for the office of Treasurer of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs. Her words to her own club reflect the true Martha Klein: "Regardless of the outcome of my candidacy I want the Pioneer Club to know I am deeply grateful for their support and faith in my ability. Should I be successful I shall make every effort to carry on the fine traditions of the club that have been established by previous leaders."

Attention Delegates to State Convention

The following is of the utmost importance to all who are planning to attend the 58th Annual Convention of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs at the Greenbrier, March 12-14, 1964.

This is from a letter from Mr. W. D. Walker, Reservation Manager at The Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

"Once again it is our pleasure to have the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs convene at The Greenbrier, March 12-14, 1964. A block of rooms has been reserved, based on previous information and attendance records.

In fairness to others desiring accommodations, we find it necessary to automatically release the unused portion of your room block thirty days prior to the official meeting date. Without a guarantee, remaining space is placed on a first come first served basis. We shall, however, continue to accept requests from your members as long as rooms in your block of space are available.

Daily American Plan rates for March, 1964 are $44 double, for two persons sharing a twin-bedded room, $24 single or $34 for single occupancy of a double room. Parlors are $20, $25, and $30 per day in addition to the bedroom rate."
