HUNTINGTON LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Dear Friends:

Thank you for your support. League depends upon your contributions for its operation. We appreciate your underwriting this year's activities.

March 28th., we have a panel to discuss the Human Rights Commission; 7:30 P.M. at the Junior League Building. Plan to come!

Please take advantage of our Voter Information about candidates at election time. Follow our activities in the news!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Joseph A. Kowalski
Mrs. Joseph A. Kowalski
Finance Chairman

Congratulations to YOU, the members, who made 1968 a great Finance Drive. Success was achieved by 70% of the members who contributed time, work and money.

An efficient Finance Committee deserves applause. Special thanks to Mr. Paul Willis and Job Corps for printing; and to my husband for his technical assistance and patience.

Mrs. Joseph A. Kowalski
Finance Chairman

BOARD CHANGES

GOVERNOR'S CONFERENCE

An invitation has been extended to mayors, police chiefs, members of Human Rights Commissions and others to attend the 3rd Annual Governor's Conference on Human Relations. The theme of which will be Police-Community Relations. This will be on Tues., March 26, at 9:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., in Charleston at the Civic Center (Little Theatre).

If you wish to make reservations or plans for transportation, call Harmony Phillips, 522-3761. Luncheon will be $3.00.

Mrs. James Deveny resigned from the Board Feb. 11 and Mrs. William Dickinson resigned Feb. 21, to comply with the non-partisan policy for Board members. Mrs. Robert Matthews' and Mrs. Rodney Schroeder's terms of office end April 1. The League will miss the leadership that these women have provided, but hopefully there will be opportunities for them to be on the Board again.

Mrs. James Nelson is now Public Relations chairman and Mrs. Allen Lingenfelter will be Voters Service chairman in the fall.

HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

A meeting will be held on March 28, 7:30 p.m. at the Junior League Community Center, 617 9th Ave. The subject will be the "Human Rights Commission". A panel consisting of Mr. James Gypson, Mr. Andy Houvauras, Mr. E. O. Robertson Jr. (City Council), and Mr. Robert Hinerman (City Council) will answer questions submitted by the League and from the floor.

All League members are urged to attend with their husbands and friends. This should be a lively and informative meeting. Anyone wishing to submit advance questions, call Sue Carlson, 523-5838.

The League has organized a Speaker's Bureau for talks about the Human Rights Commission. All members are encouraged to ask the clubs and churches of which they are members to use these speakers at meetings. If you know of an organization who wishes to have one of these speakers please contact Sue Carlson. League members are also urged to write Letters to the Editor about the ordinance.

DUES ITEM

The membership year for the League of Women Voters begins April 1. Any new member paying after January is credited for the next complete membership year. Checks for dues (\$7.50) are to be made payable to the League of Women Voters and should be sent to the Treasurer, Mrs. Richard Bannon, 2629 $\frac{1}{2}$ 1st Ave. 25702. The payment of dues entitles one to membership not only in your local League, but in your state and national Leagues as well. Each member receives bulletins from the national, state and local levels.

LOCAL STUDY

At the annual meeting the membership voted to continue studying the local program "County Services". The study is at present directed toward youth services. The Continuing Responsibilities are : 1. Continued support of council-manager government 2. Redistriction of precincts and improved election procedures.

NATIONAL BOARD MEMBER TO BE AT STATE COUNCIL

State Council will be in Logan April 5&6. Mrs. Herman Lewis of the National Board will be attending. She is especially knowledgeable about Development of Human Resources. The Huntington delegates will be Mrs. Neil Gibbins, Mrs. Thomas Bauserman, and Mrs. Joseph Kowalski. Observers are urged to attend, too. If anyone is interested in going as an observer contact Helen Gibbins for details.

THANK YOU NOTE

We owe a big "Thanks" to our new member, Connie Carr, for personally conducting us on a tour through all the departments of the West Virginia State Hospital. She also accomplished the almost impossible task of arranging interviews for us with three busy administrators: Dr. Jose Ricard, assistant clinical director; Mr. Thomas Gray, adjunctive therapy director; and Dr. Panoviciu, director of Day Care Center.

MAIL

We have become aware that all mailings are not being completed. If any member is not receiving the State Voter contact Mrs. David Thompson, 2738 Washington Blvd. 25705, phone 522-3792. If any member is not receiving the National Voter, contact Mrs. Richard Bannon, 2629 $\frac{1}{2}$ 1st Ave. 25702, phone 529-4677. If you do not have a membership list dated Nov. 1967, contact Mrs. John D. Austin, 5693 Pea Ridge Rd. 25705, phone 736-6982.
