CONTENT AND SCOPE OF THE COLLECTION

The significant portion of the Irvin Dugan papers consists of original drawings that Mr. Dugan made during his career as the staff artist for the Huntington Publishing Company. The subject matter of the cartoons includes topics of national as well as local and regional interest; some representative subjects are the war bond drive during World War II, election campaigns, Disabled American Veterans, United Fund, and various athletic events.

Also included is correspondence from many service organizations regarding the use of the cartoons for public service advertising; letters from individuals include those from Edward Stettinius, Jr., Rex Stout, and the office of John L. Lewis.

There are also newspaper clippings of the cartoons as well as a small collection of other printed material.

IRVIN DUGAN, 1892-1982

Irvin Dugan was born in Guyandotte, West Virginia on February 8, 1892, the son of James and Lizzie W. Dugan. After receiving his early training in Huntington public schools, he studied at the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts and the New School of Design in Boston. During World War I he worked as a draftsman for the Navy in Portsmouth, Virginia, where he married Anna Berry in 1919. He returned to Huntington to work for an engraving firm, and in 1927 joined the Huntington Publishing Company as staff artist. His work was displayed at the 1939 New York World's Fair and the 1939 Golden Gate Exposition in San Francisco; his work is also part of the permanent collections at the Princeton University Library, the Huntington Library at San Marino, California, and the Albert T. Reid Cartoon Collection at the University of Kansas Journalism Historical Center. Several cartoons were nominated for the Pulitzer Prize.

While in Huntington, he was active in the Highlawn Methodist Church, the Royal Arch Masons, the Knights Templar, and the Shriners.

Upon his retirement from the Huntington Publishing Company in 1957, he moved to Phoenix, Arizona, where he worked for nine years as a retoucher for the Phoenix Gazette. Dugan died in Phoenix on March 17, 1982.
