Resolution to Oppose HB 2393, Disqualification of Public Retirement Plan Benefits

Whereas, state contributions to pension plans and annuities are part of the earned benefits due to employees in exchange for their labor;

Whereas, pensions and annuities build over time to secure an employee's livelihood in retirement;

Whereas, Loss of earned retirement benefits for a misdemeanor creates an undue burden, resulting in poverty and the need to work in old age;

Be it resolved, that the Faculty Senate of Marshall University opposes disqualifying public retirement plan benefits for misdemeanors conducted while a person is an employee of the state.

We so resolve.
