A class in weaponless self defense will begin for Marshall College men at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, October 5, in the club room at the east end of the Marshall physical education building. The series of classes in self defense tactics, will be instructed by Lawrence J. Frankel, Ironton business man and veteran judo instructor.

The course of instruction is open to all male students at Marshall on a non-credit basis as part of the intramural program. ①

Mr. Frankel has been a Y. M. C. A. instructor in gymnastics and self-defense tactics for 20 years. He has taught the art of self defense to members of the West Virginia State Police and numerous men and women throughout the state during this time.

Frankel, a Brooklyn-born 200 pounder, has developed his teaching methods to include the ability to disarm opponents without regard to comparative weight and size.

Men attending the first session will be shown a movie which Frankel made during the World War II.

Coach Herb Royer has an optimistic outlook for the remainder of the 1955 football season as he reviewed his team's performance in drubbing Morris Harvey 46-7 last Saturday night in Charleston.

There were only two minor injuries in the Morris Harvey tilt. Both George Templin and Len Hellyer received bruised shoulders. However, they are expected to be ready to go when the Herd travels to Kalamazoo, Michigan next week to take on the Broncos of Western Michigan. (5)

Last year the Big Green wromped over the Broncos to the tune of 46-13. However Western Michigan has an improved ball team this year, and Coach Herb Royer is expecting plenty of trouble with them.

Marshall will use the same backfield against Western Michigan that ran so well against the Golden Eagles at Morris Harvey last week. Len Hellyer, who scored three touchdowns last week, will take the right half, Fred Freeman will play left half, Geroge Templin at full back, and Bill Lban at quarterback.

Coach Royer was satisfied with the improvement of the teams defensive play last week, as well as the offensive attack.

An article on "Community Foundations for Educational Leadership" by Dr. Ralph D. Purdy, associate professor of education at Marshall College appears in the October issue of the American School Board Journal.

Dr. Purdy's article is based on a study of educational changes in West Virginia since 1933, including a percentage list of the varying opinions of citizens of 12 different counties in the state on educational practices. (7)

The School Board Journal is a periodical of school administration which features articles, surveys, and opinions by leading educators of the country.

Dr. Purdy's article represents one effort "to extract from a major research project some of the elements that an administrator may find in making a study of the foundations upon which the schools are established, and the setting within which he must seek to function effectively."

The four major points of the article revolve around the citizens of a community and their views on education. The views of the parents of school-age

Coach Herb Royer put his Big Green football team through an offensive scrimmage today as he prepares to meet the Broncos of Western Michigan next Saturday in Kalamazoo. The Green will use the same offense that proved so effective against the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles last Saturday night when Marshall upended their long time foe, 45-7.

Most of the stress in the backfield will be on junior halfback Len Hellyer who picked up a total of 160 yards in ten tries against the Eagles. Hellyer also galloped into the end-zone for three touchdowns in last week's tilt. Although he did not start the Ohio University game two weeks ago, he came back into his old habits, against the Eagles to lead the Thundering Herd ground gainers with an average of sixteen yards per carry. (9)

The Big Green line will again be centered around 255 pound senior tackle Ted D'Alesio, and Co-captains Bob McCollins and Bill Harris.

Coach Royer was pleased with both his offense and defense against Morris Harvey. He said that there was definite proof that the Big Green pass defense has improved in that two M. H. passes were intercepted and a number was battered out of the hands of the intended receivers. "Our offense was well up to par." He added, "All of our backs were running good."

Coach Royer took particular notice of reserve sophomore halfback Eagle Curtis who tallied twice against the Eagles on runs which showed his tremendous speed. Curtis is one of the smallest men on the squad, tipping the scales at 155.

This week the Big Green will be out to repeat last year's 46-13 thumping they handed the Western Michigan Broncos in Huntington. However, the Broncos will be trying the bounce back against Marshall after taking a 35-0 licking from the Falcons of Bowling Green last week.

Homer Ratcliff, son of Mrs. Emma R. Ratcliff of 140 Cassicks Street, Logan, has been selected for a leading role in the Marshall College Theatre's forthcoming production of "The Rainmaker."

Mr. Ratcliff will portray "H. C. Curry," an elderly man with an unattractive daughter who has been raised somewhat as a tomboy. The part offers Mr. Ratcliff an opportunity to "age." He has had previous experience in theatre work in California, Colorado, and at Marshall.

The play will be presented in the College Auditorium in Old Main on November 2, 3, and 4 under the direction of Clayton R. Page, director of the College Theatre.

Mr. Ratcliff is a junior in the college of arts and sciences at Marshall.

Nancy Snodgrass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Snodgrass of 419 Montrose Drive, South Charleston, has been selected as a leading lady in the Marshall College Theatre's forthcoming production, "The Rainmaker."

Miss Snodgrass has been active in theatre work at Marshall since her arrival. She has appeared in "Pursuit of Happiness," "Dear Ruth," and "An Inspector Calls," both as stage manager and student director.

She has also had experience with the University of Florida Players and is now a junior at Marshall.

As "The Rainmaker" has only one female part, Miss Snodgrass is one of three young ladies who are being triple-cast in the role, to be played on three consecutive nights, November 2, 3, and 4 in the Old Main Auditorium at Marshall.

Lewis Yeager, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Yeager of 2518 Liberty Avenue, Parkersburg, has been selected for the title role in the forthcoming Marshall College Theatre production of "The Rainmaker."

Mr. Yeager will portray Bill Starbuck, a romantic dreamer, who purposely changes the lives of the people around him by teaching them to see themselves in a new light.

The play was highly commended by New York critics during its long run there. It is the first play of the Marshall College season, opening on November 2, for three consecutive nights in the Old Main Auditorium of Marshall.

Yeager is a freshman in the college of Arts and Sciences at Marshall.

The Marshall College Thundering Herd football team will be without another man when they travel to Kalamazoo this week for their tilt with the Broncos of Western Michigan. Jim Simpson, reserve sophomore lineman, will be out for several days with a minor brain concussion received in the Morris Harvey tilt last week. 18

Otherwise the team is in good physical condition according to Coach Herb Royer.

In today's practice session Coach Royer ran the freshman team against the varsity in order to work on the Big Green defensive game. Royer was satisfied with the Herd's defensive showing against Morris Harvey, but he feels that there are still some wrinkles that need ironing out before Marshall meets the Broncos next Saturday.

Marshall will be going after their first Mid-American Conference game this week after dropping a 13-6 decision to the Ohio University Bobcats at Fairfield Stadium two weeks ago.

The Marshall College Big Green football team left this morning for Kalamazoo, Michigan where they will try for their first Mid-American Conference victory of the 1955 season. They tangle with the Broncos of Western Michigan College Saturday afternoon.

The Big Green, which now sports a 1-1 record, will try to make it two in a row after downing the Golden Eagles of Morris Harvey in Charleston last week. 33

Len Hellyer will lead the Marshall backfield attack again after his excellent running exhibition against Morris Harvey, where he scored three touchdowns. Co-captains Bill Harris, Marshall's candidate for ALL MAC honors, and Bob Collins will lead the Big Green forward wall.

Marshall downed the Broncos last year by a score of 47-13 in the first meeting of the two schools on the gridiron. This year Coach Royer expects more opposition from the Broncos when the two teams meet this week.

Western Michigan's biggest threat will be in junior halfback Beryl Breed, who has showed tremendous speed and running ability in previous games.

To the Alumni Bulletin

Marshall College enrollment for the fall semester is the highest in the history of the institution, six per cent higher than in 1947 when World War II veterans flocked to the campus in greatest numbers.

Luther E. Bledsoe, Marshall registrar, reported at the end of registration Sept. 24, that 3,707 persons were then enrolled at Marshall for both resident and extension classes. The highest comparable figure before was 3,437 in 1947. 40

Full-time resident students for the current semester total 2,521 as compared with 2,190 one year ago. This is an increase of 15.1 per cent within a 12-month period.

Part-time resident students now enrolled total 801 as compared with 736 in the fall of 1954. This shows a gain of 8.8 per cent.

Mr. Robert H. McKowen
Charleston Bureau
United Press Associations

Dear Mr. McKowen:

In regard to your request concerning Marshall College enrollment figures we enclose the following information:

1. Total student enrollment---3,707
2. Freshman enrollment---901
3. Upper classmen enrollment---2,806
4. Resident enrollment for the current semester shows an increase of 13.5 per cent above that of last fall. Exact figures on out of state students are presently unavailable.
5. Marshall enrollment for the fall semester is the highest in the history of the institution, six per cent higher than in 1947 when World War II veterans flocked to the campus.

6. In regard to the increase Luther E. Bledsoe, Marshall registrar and director of admissions said, "The increase is caused by the fact that more high school graduates are convinced that they need a college education and by the fact that more parents are willing to sacrifice to enable their children to attend college. Another factor is the increased birth rate of the pre-World War II period." If we can be of any further assistance in this matter let us know.

(New Dormitory)

Marshall's new $660,000 freshman women's dormitory was opened this fall, making it possible for the college to house 577 students on the campus.

By opening the new dormitory, Marshall increased its on-campus housing capacity 47 percent.

The four-story structure, as yet unnamed, houses 184 women. College Hall and Laidley Hall together accommodate 218 women and ~~are~~ the one men's dormitory, Hodges Hall, houses 175 students.

The new building was completed during the summer.

It is a modern brick structure, equipped with the latest dormitory furnishings and facilities.

The freshman women's housing unit is located on the east campus, just opposite the college cafeteria on the west side.

From: Joe Maynor, Sports Publicity Director

The Marshall College Thundering Herd, fresh out of a 28-0 victory over the Broncos of Western Michigan last Saturday, will begin preparing for the Miami University Redskins today. The Herd will meet Miami at Fairfield Stadium next Saturday night.

Coach Herb Royer expressed satisfaction in the Herd's showing against the Broncos last week. He said that the defense seems to be shaping up better as the season progresses. "Our starting team showed plenty of strength in both offense and defense," He added, "but the reserves seemed to be a little slow in getting started." (51)

The big attraction again last week was junior half-back Len Hellyer who stomped his feet in pay dirt three times to give him a total of six touchdowns in the past two games. Hellyer, who is now the leading point getter for the Big Green, was somewhat slow in getting started this season, but has now moved up to the most prominate spot in the Marshall backfield.

This week Marshall will have a chance to prove their strength against one of the most powerful teams in the MAC when they tangle with the Redskins. So far this season Miami has defeated Big Ten Northwestern 25-14, Xavier of Cincinnati 13-12, and Toledo 47-0.

Their backfield strength will be built around Tirrell Burton and Tom Troxell, two speedy halfbacks who have been outstanding in the past three encounters.

Marshall's only big advantage against the Redskins, according to Coach Royer, will be that they are playing at home. "We will have to play better ball than we have played all year to beat Miami." He said. "But we can do it if we stay on our toes." (52)

Marshall now has two wins to their credit against one defeat. They have won over Morris Harvey 46-7, and Western Michigan 28-0, and dropped their opener to a powerful Ohio University eleven 13-6.

The Marshall College Big Green football team went through a weekly offensive practice today as they prepare for their October 8 meeting with the powerful Redskins of Miami University at Fairfield Stadium.

This week Marshall will try to upset the Redskins after getting off to a slow start by dropping a 13-6 decision to the Bobcats of Ohio University in their opener. However, the Herd has managed to score a total of 74 points in their last two encounters, while holding their opponents to only 7. Their two victories have been at the expense of Morris Harvey (46-7), and Western Michigan (28-0). (53)

Marshall's biggest scoring punbh is <sup>in</sup> a junior half-back Len Hellyer who has scored six touchdowns in the last two games. Hellyer has showed up well in both running and pass receiving.

Coach Royer has been satisfied with the Big Green's performance in the past two games. He said that his offense and defense both have improved considerably since the Herd fell to Ohio U. three weeks ago.

The Herd's big and powerful line is expected to give the Redskins plenty of trouble this week. Leading the forward wall will be big Ted D'Alesio a 255 pound tackle from Youngs-

Miami, who is undefeated to date, has knocked off such opponents as Big Ten Northwestern, Xavier, and Toledo. They have a tremendous amount of power in both the backfield and in the line.

Last year the Redskins took an easy 46-0 decision over the Big Green. However, this year Coach Royer is expecting to give them a much better game. (54)

"Miami is by far our strongest opponent, Royer said, "but they will not find us as easy this season as they have in the past."

Marshall will be trying for their second Mid-American Conference victory in three starts. They now have a 1-1 record in MAC play, and a 2-1 record in all games played.

(Henry Hull Review--1)

Henry Hull completely satisfied an auditorium overflowing with students and townspeople, with 60 minutes of well-chosen anecdotes and comments at the Marshall College Convocation yesterday.

Recreating the life and times of Mark Twain from boyhood to old age, Mr. Hull interpreted selections of Clemens' most successful works, including "Life on the Mississippi," Roughing It, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog," and many others. 75

The audience was particularly receptive to the stories of Twain's mining and newspaper days, and applauded appreciatively at various highlights of the program.

Mr. Hull's physical resemblance to Twain, with the aid of wig and mustache, is a remarkable contrivance. Wearing the inevitable suit of white, with white shoes and shirt, accentuated by the author's favorite black string tie, he looked as much like Twain as Twain himself.

In fitting so easily into the character of the great American humorist, Mr. Hull gives the present generation an opportunity to see the author as he really was---as much a sentimentalist and moralist as he was a great story-teller.

(Marshall College Enrollment--1)

Despite an 18 per cent increase in female enrollment this year, Marshall College coeds still find themselves outnumbered by the male students at the college.

Final statistics released by the college registrar's office today show that there are 1,852 men enrolled at Marshall compared to a female enrollment of 1,488.

Total enrollment at the college reached 3,340 for the first semester of 1955-56, a 14 per cent increase over last year's total. These figures do not include the 375 students enrolled in Marshall extension classes. (77)

There are 2,519 full time and 821 part time students at Marshall. 1,766 of this number are in the College of Arts and Sciences, which is an increase of 13 per cent over last year's figure.

The Teachers College has an enrollment increase of 15 per cent over last September's total with more than 1,200 students registered.

The total number of freshmen enrolled at Marshall numbers 901 male and female students.

Overall student enrollment at Marshall this fall has set a new all time high record, surpassing the former high peak set in 1947 by veterans returning to the campus.

(Miami University---1)

The once beaten Marshall College Thundering Herd will tangle with highly rated Miami University tonight in one of the Mid-American Conference's main attractions of the week-end. The two teams will meet at Huntington's Fairfield Stadium, for the Herd's second home stand of the season. (80)

Marshall will be playing without the services of reserve quarterback Jack Bryan, who injured his leg in a scrimmage game Thursday. Otherwise the Herd should be in good condition, according to Coach Herb Royer.

Miami will be making their second MAC title defense of the season. Last week they downed Toledo University by a score of 47-0. In addition to their win in Toledo, the Redskins have defeated such opponents as Northwestern University, and Xavier of Cincinnati.

The Marshall-Miami football series began in 1932 when the Redskins defeated the Herd 34-2. They continued their winning ways over Marshall until 1936, when the Herd rallied a 7-0 decision for their first win of the series. Marshall won over the Redskins for the next two years by scores of 41-0 and 21-0.

However, Miami has banged out wins over the Herd in the last three meetings of the two teams. They won the 1948 encounter by a 38-6 score, and in 1953 they downed Marshall 48-6.

Last year Miami took an easy 46-0 win over Marshall in the only game of the season in which the Royermen failed to score at least three touchdowns.

Tonight the Herd will be trying for their second MAC victory against one defeat. Marshall now has a 2-1 overall record, while the Redskins have won three straight without a defeat.

(Homecoming Election---1)

Marshall College Students are at the polls today Oct. 19, selecting four homecoming queen contest finalists out of a field of thirty-two candidates. The four young women who are chosen will compete for the title of "Miss Marshall" in a similar election next week. The students began voting at 8:00 a.m. today at the campus student government office. 84

The voting will narrow the present of thirty-two candidates down to four young women, one from each of the four classes--freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior.

Miss Marshall will be chosen from the four remaining contestants in the final election.

Miss Marshall and her three attendants will reign over homecoming activities for the Marshall College-Bowling Green football game October 29. She will lead the homecoming parade and will be presented during the homecoming dance intermission at Memorial Field House Saturday, October 29.

Trophies will be given to Miss Marshall and to the first and second place winners in the mens and womens divisions of the organizational float contest during the intermission at the dance.

The Marshall College Thundering Herd, now licking it's wounds from the 46-7 defeat handed them by the Miami Redskins last week, will be preparing for an "out of the frying pan into the fire" affair this week when they tangle with Kent State University in Kent, Ohio next Saturday.

Coach Royer has two men on the injured list after last week's game. Len Hellyer, the hard running halfback who is the Herd's leading ground-gainer and point getter, suffered a leg injury in the Miami tilt, and Dick Athey, the speedy right end, received a dislocated shoulder. There is still some question as to whether the two men will be ready for this week's encounter. (88)

Coach Royer gave no excuse for last week's loss. "Miami had a much better team than I had expected" he said, "Their speed, depth and deception were far better than any team we have played this year."

This week Marshall will be trying for their second Conference win in three starts when they clash with the rough and rugged Golden Flashes, who knocked off the Ohio University Bobcats last week.

The two teams have only met on the gridiron only three times, and the Flashes have taken all three of the contest. In 1952 they downed the Herd 26-14 and in 1953 they took a 27-7 decision from the Marshall Men.

Last year's clash proved to be a struggle between two good offensive units. However, the Gold and Blue jumped into an early lead and was never overtaken as they walked off holding the long end of a 41-20 score.

Coach Herb Royer's injury littered football team has been in the middle of serious defense work this week as they prepare to meet the Golden Flashes from Kent State this Saturday afternoon in Kent Ohio.

Marshall now has three men who are not likely to play in the game this week. Len Hellyer, Marshall's leading ground gainer, who has scored seven touchdowns to date, is doubtful to start the Kent State game. Dick Athey, the right end, is also on the doubtful list, and Stan Malecki, a reserve center, is out for the season on an arm injury received in scrimmage yesterday.

Center Jerry Snow and guard Irvin Wilson have received pulled muscles, but are expected to be ready to go by game time.

Coach Royer seemed pleased with the Thundering Herd's offensive work against the Miami University Redskins last week, but he feels that the defense needs some wrinkles ironed out before the Herd will be ready for the flashes.

(Dr. Docherty Convocation---1)

"Do you want to believe in Christ?" was the question raised by Dr. George Docherty at Thursday's Convocation in the Marshall College Auditorium.

Reverend Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church of Washington, D. C., delivered a sermon on the problem of conscious and subconscious denial of the Scripture<sup>5</sup>, in which he pointed out that the ability of man to change for the better lies within his own mind, rather than in the efforts of others to convert him to right.

Using alcoholism as an example, Dr. Docherty hold of a young man lost in the depths of his own degradation. Though he was offered an opportunity to make a better life, not once but many times, he was unable to do so because he lacked the spiritual impetus, the real desire to do better.

Speaking of the shortcomings of intellectualism and scientific reasoning, Dr. Docherty pointed to faculty as well as students, who too often require some proof, some factual data that Jesus Christ exists as depicted in the Bible.

"Science," he said, "believes it must have facts before it can believe, when the one thing science knows is that it doesn't know the facts. More faith is placed in science today than in religion itself."

PARKERSBURG---(Special)---Calling for greater emphasis in schools upon work and less upon self-indulgence, Marshall College President Stewart H. Smith said today that "the price of victory and success in life is hard, accurate, and repetitious and slogging work."

Dr. Smith addressed the West Virginia Classroom Teachers Association, meeting in connection with the regional meeting of the West Virginia Education Association in Parkersburg. (105)

"Today our students can paint landscapes, twirl batons, dance the rhumba--they can do everything but study," said Dr. Smith told the teachers meeting at Parkersburg High School. "I believe that the best way to develop basic virtues in children is to encourage them to do their daily work well... Teach them that drudgery is the price of success."

The Huntington educator asserted that a philosophy of education should ~~NOT~~ undervalue the importance of hard work.

"I believe," he said, "the time has come when we must place a greater emphasis upon the mastering of subject

Dr. Smith called for teachers to strengthen six basic ethical and spiritual values in American life:

The supreme importance of the individual; moral responsibility; respect for the will of the majority; devotion to truth; respect for work; and moral equality.

"Let us remember," said the Marshall College president, "that each boy and girl is a human being capable of almost unlimited growth under sympathetic and wholesome guidance. Let us renew our faith in ourselves, in the power of education, in the integrity and intelligence of our students and in the supreme importance of ethical principles."

Marshall College, who now holds one victory against two defeats in Mid-American play, will leave for Kent, Ohio today to take on the powerful Golden Flashes of Kent State University in a Saturday afternoon tilt.

There will be some changes in the Herd's lineup this week due to two men being out on injuries. Don Adkins, a pint size steam roller, will fill in the halfback slot left open by Len Hellyer, who was injured in last week's game with Miami. Campbell Platt will take Dick Athey's end position. Athey was also injured in the game last week. 107

Adkins is no new comer to the Marshall lineup. He started all of the games last year, and was one of the Big Green's leading ground gainers. This year he started the Ohio U. game, but gave up his position to Len Hellyer. Platt has showed up well this season as a reserve end. He has preformed equally well on both offense and defense.

If last year's game is any indication as to how the two teams will shape up this season, then the fans can look for a battle between two good offensive untis. Last year the Flashes defeated the Thundering Herd by a score of 41-20 in a game that showed two teams with powerful scoring puchehes.

Kent State will be looking for their third victory when they take on Marshall this week. They opened the season by playing a deadlock with the Bowling Green Falcons. Then they dropped their second game to Dayton. They downed Baldwin Wallace the following week, and last week they handed the Ohio University Bobcats their first defeaf of the season.

Marshall will be after their second conference win, after being downed by Miami and Ohio U. Their lone MAC victory came at the expense of the Western Michigan Broncos by a score of 28-0. The Herd now has an even 2-2 record in all games played this season.

Coach Herb Royer will begin preparing his Big Green football forces for the annual homecoming tilt with the Falcons of Bowling Green University this week, after absorbing a 39-6 thumping from Kent State University last Saturday.

Marshall has not won a homecoming game since 1949 when they downed arch rival Ohio U. 14-7. However, the Big Green will be trying to hit the comeback trail against the Falcons this week, after dropping their last two games to Miami and Kent State. (111)

Bowling Green, on the other hand, is reported to have one of the strongest teams in the history of the school. They have won all of their games to date for the exception of one, which was a tie with Kent State in the early part of the season.

One of the Falcons big threats will be Al MAC and Jack Hecker who has taken in a total of 14 passes good for 304 yards and three touchdowns. He also leads the team scoring with 26 points, eight of which are the result of booting extra points.

Coach Royer has expressed a good deal of respect for the Falcons. He said that they were every bit as good as Kent State, and were capable of being better. "We will have to play

The Marshall College freshman football team will get the homecoming festivities off to a start this afternoon when they meet Xavier, of Cincinnati, at St. Clouds Commons. 120

The "Little Green" has had two weeks to recuperate from the 72-0 humiliation they received in Cincinnati against a cross town rival of this week's opponent, Cincinnati University. The Bearkittens, who had defeated the Army Plebs on the week before, litterly ran through the Marshall Yearlings.

"We became unorganized after their first two touché downs." Coach Bill Chambers said. "Our entire team fell apart. But I don't believe that any freshman team is 72 points better than we are."

Marshall started the season with a 14-0 victory over the Cadets of Greenbrier Military Academy in a battle at Huntington. Today they will be playing their last game of the season before the hometown folks, and will be trying to get revenge for their last outing.

Xavier promises to be one of the strongest teams on the Marshall schedule, and Coach Chambers has stated that they will be hard to beat. However, he said that the Marshall Coach Herb Royer put his men through defensive drills today after giving them a one day layoff from practice yesterday. The Big Green is preparing to meet the powerful Falcons of Bowling Green University in their annual homecoming tilt this Saturday.

If Marshall should upset the Falcons this week, it would be their first homecoming win since 1949 when they defeated the Ohio University Bobcats 14-7. However, the going will be tough for the Royermen, since they will be battling the surprise team of the MAC who is undefeated to date under their new coaching staff. (122)

Bowling Green has downed Defiance College, Western Michigan, John Carroll, Baldwin Wallace, and Toledo. Their only blemish is a tie with the rugged Golden Flashes from Kent State, who defeated Marshall last week by a 39-6 decision.

Marshall has met the Falcons only once in the past. Last year the Thundering Herd took a 26-19 decision in a see-saw battle played at Bowling Green.

Coach Royer has announced that Len Hellyer will be ready for action this week. Hellyer dressed for the Kent State game but did not play due to an injured ankle. Dick Athey, the right end, will also be back into the Marshall lineup this week, after a weeks layoff due to a shoulder injury.

"It was the same old trouble last week at Kent State." Coach Royer said, referring to the 39-6 shellacing of a week ago. "Our defense was poor. We held them good on the inside plays, but they picked up long yardage on the outside end runs. Our defense will have to be sharper when we meet Bowling Green."

Marshall will be trying for their second MAC victory of the season against three defeats. Their lone Conference victory came at the expense of Western Michigan. They have dropped games to Ohio U., Miami and Kent State. Bowling Green will be after their fourth MAC victory in five starts.

Coach Herb Royer expressed a certain amount of optimism for his team's chances against Bowling Green University this Saturday, while at the same time he showed plenty of respect for the powerful Falcons' impressive record.

Coach Royer pointed out that the Falcons are undefeated to date, and that they tied Kent State, a team that thumped Marshall last week to the tune of 39-6. (128)

However, things are looking up in the Marshall camp. Dick Athey, who was forced to sit out the Kent State game due to an injury received in the Miami tilt, will be back in action against Bowling Green, and Len Hellyer, Marshall's leading ground gainer and touchdown getter, is also expected to return to the Big Green lineup.

"If we can get the boys to play ball like they did at the beginning of the season when we met Morris Harvey, we will be hard to stop." Coach Royer said. "This is a game we really want to win, and I think my boys will be ready for them."

TIME TO REPORT AT STUDENT UNION LOUNGE: Friday at 8 a. m.

THE FOLLOWING ARE CAMPUS LEADERS WHO WILL BE INTERVIEWED BY

DEAN STURM. A SUGGESTED QUESTION APPEARS AFTER EACH NAME.

EACH INTERVIEW SUBJECT SHOULD BE PREPARED TO ANSWER THE QUESTION

APPEARING AFTER HIS NAME. ANSWERS SHOULD BE BRIEF BUT COMPLETE

COMPLETE ENOUGH FOR WSAZ-TV VIEWERS TO GET A GOOD IDEA

WHAT THE SITUATION IS. IT WOULD BE WISE TO BE THOROUGHLY

FAMILIAR WITH THE SUBJECT ON WHICH YOU ARE TO BE QUESTIONED.

AN "I DON'T KNOW" DOESN'T SOUND VERY GOOD ON TV. IN YOUR

ANSWER, BE CAREFUL THAT YOU MAKE NO UNFAVORABLE REMARK ABOUT

MARSHALL OR ANY OTHER COLLEGE. A FRIENDLY, HAPPY ATMOSPHERE

SHOULD PREVAIL THROUGHOUT THE PROGRAM. YOUR DRESS SHOULD BE

NEAT BUT INFORMAL. THE ONE EXCEPTION IS HUGH BADES, WHO SHOULD WEAR HIS COMPLETE ROTC DRESS OUTFIT.

INTERVIEW SUBJECTS AND SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

1. Maywood Ellifritt, president of the Marshall College student body.

Question: Maywood, what are the main features of Marshall's homecoming celebration? (Be sure to include times and places.)

2. Bill Keesee, editor-in-chief of the Marshall College student newspaper, The Parthenon.

Question: Bill, tell us about the homecoming ~~edition~~ edition of The Parthenon which comes out today.

3. Alvin Arnett, president of the Marshall Interfraternity Council.

Question: Al, homecoming week must be a busy time for fraternities on the Marshall campus. What have the fraternities been doing in preparation for the homecoming celebration?

4. Betty Dickson, president of the Panhellenic Council, representing all Marshall College sororities. 133

Question: Betty, I understand the sororities have been ~~xx~~ busy preparing for homecoming, too. What has been going on at Marshall <sup>dormitory houses</sup> ~~sororities~~ this week?

5. ~~Bettyxx~~ Donna Lawson, president of the dormitory council at Laidley Hall, one of Marshall's three women's dormitories.

Question: Donna, what part will women's dormitory residents take in homecoming activities?

6. Charles Tanner, president of the dormitory council of Hodges Hall, a men's dormitory.

7. Al Wheeler, Marshall's homecoming parade marshal.

Question: Al, I understand a big homecoming parade will pass through Huntington tomorrow. Can you give us an idea what to expect? (Be sure to include beginning time and the line of march.)

8. Hugh Eades, commander of Pershing Rifles, honorary military organization at Marshall College.

Question: Hugh, what part will Marshall's fine looking ROTC unit have in the parade?

9. Bob McCollins, co-captain of Marshall's football team.

Question: The highlight of any Marshall College homecoming is ~~football~~ a football game. With Co-captain Bob McCollins of the Marshall Thundering Herd here, we ought to get a pretty good idea how the contest will go. Bob, who do you think will win that game with Bowling Green at Fairfield Stadium tomorrow afternoon?

10. Charlie Slack, 1955 captain of the Marshall College basketball team.

Question: Charlie, as a basketball player, what do you think of Marshall's chances in the homecoming football game?

11. Louis DeVaughn, editor of the 1956 Chief Justice, Marshall College yearbook.

Question: Lou, I guess your photographers will have a field day getting homecoming pictures for the yearbook. What kind of pictures do you expect to get?

12. Carol Workman, head majorette of the Marshall College band.

Question: I guess one of the most photogenic features of homecoming will be the majorettes. Carol, what kind of show are the majorettes planning for half-time at tomorrow's game?

HUNTINGTON---(MCIS)---The Marshall College Alumni Association and the Marshall Foundation Inc., have announced plans for establishing a full-time development office at Marshall.

A goal of $25,000 for a two-year period has been set, with approximately $10,000 already pledged by 77 individuals and firms.

Bulletins have been issued to Alumni members requesting their aid in the project, with the hope that an organized alumni program will add to the prestige and contribute to the expansion of the college. 136

The program opened during the summer with a dinner for 250 leading businessmen of Huntington, both alumni and non-alumni. President Stewart H. Smith, in his talk before the group, emphasized that this program for the development office to stimulate alumni and supplement appropriated income is the greatest single need at the college.

The program is expected to become self-supporting as it develops. New mailing lists supplied by Marie White, Marshall alumna, encouraged the Alumni Association and the

The Marshall College Big Green is facing unexpected complications this week as they prepare for their annual home-coming game with Bowling Green University. Len Hellyer, the 190 pound speedster, who has been the main spring in the Marshall machine, is not expected to see much action in the game this week.

Hellyer is suffering from an injured knee which he received in the Miami tilt. He was forced to sit out the Kent State game, but was expected to be back in action this week against the Falcons. Up until the Kent State game he led the Mid-American Conference in rushing with 439 yards in 32 tries. He also scored seven touchdowns against Morris Harvey, Western Michigan, and Miami. (139)

However, there is a brighter side to the picture for Coach Royer. Dick Athey, the speedy right end, who has been out standing on defense this year, will be back into the Big Green lineup come Saturday. Athey was also forced to sit out the Kent State game due to a shoulder separation.

Marshall College, beginning the 1955 season under a new coach, is expecting to have one of the best basketball teams in the history of the school. Jule Rivlin, a former all-American at Marshall, will be at the helm this year replacing Cam Henderson, who resigned at the end of the season last year.

The Big Green has three starters back from last year's squad that won 17 and lost only four. Charley Slack, a 6'5 center who led the nation in rebounding last season, will be back at the pivot position. Slack who was picked on Dell Magazine's pre season all-Midwestern team this year, is Marshall's candidate for all-American. Along with Slack are Paul Underwood and Cebe Price, two juniors who have played basketball together since they started to high school. Cebe is the teams high point man averaging 23.6 points per game. He handles the middle man position in the fast break. Paul, who is a dead set shot, works at the guard position. 141

The Big Green has the benefit of a good group of sophomores who lost only one game as freshmen last year. Some of the most outstanding prospects of the group are Hal Greer, Jack Freeman,

JEANNETTE THABET WINS CROWN

Becomes First Freshman To Win 'Miss Marshall' Title

By BILL KEESEE

Eight hundred and twenty students turned out at the polls last Wednesday to elect Jeannette Thabet, Spencer freshman, "Miss Marshall of 1955." M. Thabet received a total of 305 votes and is the first freshman to win the coveted title. She defeated her nearest competitor, Margaret Taylor, Charleston junior, by 21 votes. Two hundred and eighty four votes were cast for Miss Taylor.

Many Festivities Highlight Weekend

The annual Homecoming festivities will begin tomorrow at noon with a parade starting from the campus, going through downtown Huntington, and on to Fairfield Stadium where the Herd will meet Bowling Green of Ohio in the Homecoming game at 2 P. M.

Included in the parade will be floats, representing various fraternities and sororities and other social groups on campus, the Marshall College Band, and bands from Huntington, Huntington East, Douglas, and Vinson High Schools.

ALBIN WHEELER, Huntington junior, will serve as parade marshal. Others appearing in the parade will be Nancy Williams, Hurricane senior, homecoming chairman; Maywood Ellifritt, Greenwood senior; and Bill Seidel, Pittsburgh senior, president and vice-president of the student body respectively.

During halftime ceremonies, Miss Marshall and her attendants will be honored. The floats will parade before the judges and winners will be announced at the dance tomorrow night.

Art Mooney and his 16 piece "Honey Babe" Orchestra will play for the Homecoming Dance at Memorial Field House from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M. During intermission, trophies will be awarded to "Miss Marshall" and her attendants. First and second place winners in the men's and women's division of the float contest will be announced and trophies will be awarded the winners.

ALSO COMPETING for the title of Miss Marshall were Betty England, Alderson senior, and Barbara Snow, Summerlee sophomore. Miss England received 168 votes while Miss Snow polled 63.

Miss Thabet will ride in the Homecoming parade tomorrow with her three attendants, and will reign over the Homecoming festivities tomorrow afternoon. She will be officially crowned at intermission of the Homecoming dance by Maywood Ellifritt, Greenwood senior and president of the student body.

Miss Thabet will receive a trophy, and she and the three attendants will each be presented with a bouquet of flowers. The Queen succeeds Anne Cline, Kopperston senior, who was "Miss Marshall of 1954." Miss Thabet was selected to represent her class in the queen election last week when the four class queens were chosen from 32 women representing social organizations and campus dormitories.

SHE IS a graduate of Spencer High School where she was active in honorary organizations and the band and orchestra.

The Homecoming dance tomorrow is open to all and will be at the Memorial Field House from 9 P. M. until 1 A. M. and will feature Art Mooney, his orchestra and vocalist. The price of tickets is $3.50. The highlight of the dance will be the presentation of the trophies to "Miss Marshall of 1955," and to the first and second place winners of the men's and women's divisions of the organizational float contest.

LIBRARY HOURS

MISS MARSHALL COLLEGE — 1955

Homecoming Here Began 30 Years Ago

By FANNY RUTH ROSS

This year marks the 30th anniversary of Marshall's Homecoming festivities.

It all began way back in 1925 when the Marshall student body conceived the idea that the college, being an institution of higher learning, should recognize its students and alumni by establishing this tradition. And so the plans moved forward.

Thanksgiving Day, November 26, was selected for the Homecoming occasion. The Thundering Herd met Louisville in an exciting pigskin tilt. The Huntington Boy Scout band played during game intermission.

By the next year, more elaborate plans were carried out for the occasion. Marshall played Virginia's Hampden-Sydney. More than 7,500 witnesses turned out to cheer while the rain poured down on the muddy field. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

It was in this year, 1926, that the first Homecoming Dance was held. The dance, sponsored by the Student Council, followed the football game.

No definite program was made to entertain the alumni "in order that they might feel free to take part in anything that they choose", according to the November 26, 1926, issue of The Parthenon.

Marching Band Scheduled For Busy Homecoming Weekend Here

By MARJORIE CAPPELLARI

Smooth, coordinated, seemingly without a second thought to such matters as keeping lines straight and in step, the Marshall College Big Green Marching Band will be appearing at various functions during the Homecoming weekend.

Behind this compact organization, however, are many hours of work dedicated to smoothing the rough edges and molding fifty individuals into a unit which works together.

MASTERMINDING the green and white uniformed musicians is director Thomas O'Connell. The director, who in his college days was a member of the famed University of Michigan marching band, plans each individual show himself. Included in this is arranging the music and mapping out the formations. The former is a job for qualified musicians only. The latter, though it may appear only a matter of getting each rank in the proper place with relation to the others, is really a matter of placing each individual in the correct position to give the formations shape and form.

while the band is going through their maneuvers. One forgotten whistle could easily foul up part of a show.

By no means the least important part of the band is the individual musicians, who are obviously responsible for the entire sound and appearance of the band. Unlike those of the country's larger universities, the Big Green band is not composed entirely of music majors. A large portion of the band members manage to sandwich their rehearsals in between zoology and sociology classes and various other activities, and are playing for the sheer enjoyment of it.

ONLY two practice periods are available during the week to whip up a field show for the coming game. These are on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons for two hours. This means that director O'Connell has little more than three days between one show and the next to make sure that music is ready and marching formations designed.

One of O'Connell's favorite pep talks comes when the band gets a little tired of practicing the show over and over. It is then he tells them, with the voice of ex-

Undergraduates Hope For Future Improvements Here

By ELAINE STROCK

She is particularly interested in having larger swimming facilities in connection with the physical education program. Karlene also thinks a new heating system in Old Main would be an improvement.

Every year when alumni return to take part in homecoming weekend, they see many changes that have taken place in their alma layan's Bobcats and lost, 19-0.

The first "Miss Marshall", or "Miss Victory" as she was then called, was chosen this year. The method of selecting the reigning beauty was very similar to our present procedures. Two women were elected from each class and then a final one was selected by ballot.

Two dances were held this year. The first one was on the eve before the November 24 game. At this first dance "Miss Victory" was crowned. She wore "a gorgeous creation of green and white and a sterling silver crown. She was presented with a gold wrist watch." The second dance followed the Homecoming game.

This year marked the beginning of open house by social organizations for the alumni.

Of course, Marshall students think of present-day Homecoming as a much grander and more gala affair than these first ones. Although many of the traditions these old grads established are followed, many more have been added to the list.

Highlighting today's festivities are football games, dances, "Miss Marshall", parades, floats, open houses, get-togethers, and lots and lots of fun.

But the spirit and morale of the old-timers was just as flowing as are those of the students today. The present day students hope to welcome the old grads back this weekend and to express many heartfelt thanks for getting Homecoming off to this great start.

seen during the week wheeling a wheel-harrow across campus preparing to mark off yard lines on the band's practice field.

When the band gets on the field a large part of the responsibility for a top-notch show shifts from the shoulders of the director to those of the drum major, who this year is Eugene Ramsey, Huntington senior.

THE WHISTLE signals, often scarcely heard by the audience above the strains of music, are depended upon a great deal by the band members. Along with telling them when to stop and go, there are different signals for turning corners, marking time, and during a parade slowing the band down so as not to step on the heels of the unit in front of them.

The drum major's responsible for the continuity of the show

Local Doctor Gives Books To College

Possibly the most gratifying part of being a band director comes at the beginning of the second half of the football game when the show is over and it has been a good one. But that is always superseded by the desire to make next week's just a little better.

Bobcats Have Best Defensive Mark Of Mid-American Conference Teams

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Oct. 13 — In all games for Mid-American Conference teams Bowling Green is tops in offensive yardage with 1,268, followed by Miami with 1,097, but defensively Ohio University shows only 527 yards given up in all games to be defensive leader, two less yards than Bowling Green and 19 less than Marshall. Toledo, with a 919 total offense is third in that department but last in total defense.

In individual rushing Len Hellyer, Marshall, has 252 yards in 18 trips in all games for a 14 yard average to be the leader. Terrill Burton, Miami, has 331 yards in 27 trips for a 12.3

mark, just behind Charles Nidiffer, Western Michigan, who has a 12.8 average in 14 trips for 179 yards. Mike Norica, Kent has an 8.8 average and Larry Kent, Bowling Green, an 8.5 average. Erland Ahlburg, Ohio, one of last year's leaders, has a 5.3 average so far in all games.

Passing has been hot with Mid-American teams with Don McBride, Ohio, the leader with 14 completions in 20 attempts for 70 per cent. Jim Bryan, Bowling Green, is second with 61.7, competing 15 in 24 attempts, while Tom Dimitroff, Miami, is third with 55.5 per cent in all games with 10 completions in 18 attempts.

Pres Bliss, Miami, among receivers, has 5 catches for 128 yards and 3 TDs. Jack Hecker, Bowling Green, leads with 7 catches for 160 yards and 2 TDs. Len Hellyer, Marshall, has 3 catches for 117 yards and 2 TDs. Julius Taormine, Toledo, also has five catches but for only 93 yards and a single TD.

Leading scorers in all games show Len Hellyer, Marshall, first with 36 points on 6 TDs, followed by Terrill Burton, Miami, with 5 for 30 points. Vic DeOrto, Jack Hecker, and Larry Kent, Bowling Green, all have 18 points as does Don Wirtz, Ohio University.

Cincinnati Frosh Entertain Marshall Freshmen Today

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—University of Cincinnati's yearling squad, fresh from a rugged 14-12 win over the strong Army Plebes, go after win number two Friday against the Marshall College freshmen at 3:30 P.M. in the Bearkitten's home opener at Nippert Stadium.

Last Saturday's win, over the highly touted West Point first year men, gave the slumping Cincinnati grid fortunes a shot in the arm. Trailing 12-0 midway in the first quarter, the UC Frosh tallied in the second quarter on a five yard quarterback sneak by Ron Tarquinio of McKee Rocks, Pa., and then went ahead to stay in the third quarter when Tarquinio passed for 30 yards and a TD to halfback John Martin of Wellsville, Ohio. John Hyder, of Altoona, Pa., booted both conversions which proved the margin of victory.

With the Marshall yearlings reported to have the finest freshman squad in recent school history, any let down or over-confidence on the Bearkitten's part could prove disastrous. The future Big Green gridders will enter the contest undefeated, having whitewashed Greenbriar Military Academy 14-0 in their only start to date.

The Marshall freshmen boast a tough forward wall which averages 206 pounds from end to end. The Big Green attack is built around Bob Wagner, a smooth 6-2, 175 pound quarterback and features three fine runners in fullback Sonny Sirianni, and halfbacks Bill Trout and Roy Gaines.

Probable starters:

Marshall Line Rated Aggressive

OXFORD, O., Oct. 13. — Marshall College will oppose Miami's unbeaten Redskins with "the best group of breakaway backs we've seen this year," the Miami scouting report says this week.

Miami risks its perfect record against Marshall Saturday night at Huntington in a game which is the second of five consecutive Mid-American Conference games on the slate of the Redskins, defending champions. Miami opened its title defense with a 47-0 win over Toledo last Saturday following non-conference wins over Northwestern and Xavier.

"This is the best group of breakaway backs we've met this year and the best we've seen at Marshall," Assistant Coach Bruce Beatty reported. "All three of their running backs are the kind who can go all the way—Halfbacks Len Hellyer and Fred Freeman and fullback George Templin. Quarterback Bill Zban, who was not a regular last year, can be compared to Xavier's Norm Zmyslinski—just finding himself and coming along rapidly."

"Zban threw only four passes against Western Michigan last Saturday and completed two, both for touchdowns and both to Hellyer, who is a six-footer near 200 pounds. Hellyer sounds as if he'd be a power back like Eddie Merchant was for us last year; he is strong, but he also is fast with a tricky wiggle."

Beatty described the Big Green line as averaging 208 from end to end and "typically Marshall in being highly aggressive."

"Against Western Michigan," he added, "they seemed to be able to score when they wanted to—on the second play of the game, on the first play of the second half, just like pushing the button."

Meanwhile Miami officials said, John Baker, sophomore end from Lisbon, O., will be out of action for Miami University for probably a month with a fractured hand.

mission, Miss Glenna Hayner of Belle, Miss Sally Barrows of Huntington, Miss Marilyn Rodriguez of Huntington, Miss Irene Pierson of Huntington, Darrell Stinnett of Chesapeake, W. Va., and Robert Krauss of Charleston.

City Fire Fighting Show To Follow Parade Tonight

There will be a time in the old town tonight — but it won't be hot, according to the Huntington Fire Chief John Gallagher.

Chief Gallagher will put members of his department through fire fighting demonstrations in Government Square following a parade down Fourth avenue. The chief said members of the department will show the public how they handle ladders, jump into nets and go through other fire fighting actions.

Bunglers Add Humor

"Things will be kept cool," said the chief, "in spite of the Bungle-ville Fire Department, which will also give a demonstration on how not to fight a fire." The Bungle-ville department has been known to drown their chief, cut their lines and make numerous other mistakes, all of which they'll do tonight to add humor to the serious demonstration.

The parade will begin at 7:30 P. M. at Sixteenth street and Fourth avenue and move down Fourth avenue to Eighth street. It will then move south to Government Square.

Heading the parade in a shiny convertible will be pretty Zephia Gue, 712 Maple Court, a junior at East high school who was chosen "Miss Flame" by the Huntington Junior Chamber of Commerce. "Miss Barboursville Fire Department," Sandee Hatfield, Barboursville high school junior, will also be in the parade.

Bands Will Play

The parade will feature fire equipment from the Huntington, Ceredo-Kenova, Barboursville and Veterans Hospital departments. Bands will include Vinson, Chesapeake, Fairland and Huntington high schools.

Ira Follrod will be parade marshal. Other marching units will include ROTC cadets from Marshall College, the Naval Reserve, Sea Scouts and Boy Scouts. The Marine Corps Reserve will provide an honor color guard.

Program Given By Henry Hull

Well loved selections from the works of Mark Twain were presented here this morning by Henry Hull, noted star of stage and screen.

Mr. Hull's program entitled "A Morning with Mark Twain" was designed to recreate the personality, mannerisms and character of the great American writer. Included in his readings were selections from Tom Sawyer, Huckleberry Finn, Innocents Abroad and other Mark Twain stories.

Mr. Hull said he has been an admirer of Mark Twain for more than 50 years.

Delta Sig Alumnae To Convene

Mrs. Frank Eaton will be hostess at 7:30 P. M. Tuesday at her home, rear 276 Springdale Avenue, for the October meeting of the Huntington alumnae chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority.

Mrs. Eaton will also present a musical program at the meeting. A swap shop sale will be held after the business session. Each member is to bring an article of clothing to the meeting, and the various items will be exchanged at the swap shop.

The hostess for the November 16 meeting will be Mrs. John Sikora, 128 Queen Court. The program for this meeting will be a talk on foods for holidays by Maida Smith.

The December 20 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Swavely, 401 St. Louis Avenue.

A bridge and canasta party is scheduled for January 17 at Langfitt's Tea Room, 415 Tenth Avenue.

The group will hold a Valentine party for their husbands February 14 at the home of Mrs. Don Titus, 204 Chestnut Street.

Mrs. A. M. Foose of the home economics department at Marshall College will speak at the meeting March 20. Mrs. Foose will talk on "Interior Decorating." This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Don Protzman, 115 Queens Court.

The hostess for April 17 will be Mrs. Glen L. Hull, 103 Woodland Drive. The program will be a talk and demonstration on "Flower Arrangements" by Mrs. Leo Storey.

The alumnae group will give a luncheon in May honoring the graduating seniors in the active chapter at Marshall College. The date and place of the luncheon will be announced.

'Two's A Company' Is Al-So Icient

Comedy and drama, and love and imagination sparked last night's opening presentation of the 1955-56 Marshall College Community Forum series, which featured two leading artists of the American stage and screen, Albert Dekker and Edith Atwater. About 700 persons were present in Old Main auditorium.

Mr. Dekker, veteran character actor, and Miss Atwater, took the audience through successive moments of about every emotion known to man. The rollicking comedy of Mark Twain, the spine-chilling characterizations of Edgar Allan Poe, the stark drama of Shakespeare, or the rib-tickling experience of a timid woman with a broken garter trying to open a department store charge account—all were brought to the audience with a realistic quality that only distinguished actors could achieve.

"Two's A Company" was the name of their show, and certainly a larger retinue was not needed. The artists imparted a feeling of oneness with their audience by always speaking to, not "at" their listeners. Amusing interpolations by Mr. Dekker enhanced the program.

Speaking during the major part of the evening from reading desks at either side of the stage, the artists opened with Carl Sandburg's beautiful poem, "Haze." It was vividly presented, the two alternating in the passages.

Mr. Dekker revealed Edgar Allan Poe as his favorite poet, and proceeded to hold the audience spellbound with a dramatic, emotional reading of "Annabel Lee."

Later in the program, he again turned to the progenitor of the mystery story for one of the most effective readings of the evening. Mr. Dekker's ghostly portrayal of the mad murderer in Poe's "Tell-Tale Heart" sent collective shivers down the audiences' spine.

Scenes from "Macbeth" highlighted the program. They were striking in their sincerity — and horror. Here Miss Atwater shone in the grim urging-on of her husband to the murders. Her change to a sadly-deranged mind in the sleep-walking scene was gripping.

After these scenes, the artists again demonstrated their versatility with a relaxing sketch about a mystery-reading woman who analyzes "Macbeth" as a murder-mystery. It's certain that the "Bard" wouldn't have recognized her "who-dunnit" version of his masterpiece, in which Hamlet was introduced as the suspect.

Wonderful bits of character presentation, like Miss Atwater's "The Witch of Coos" spiced the program.

Another of the best received selections was "Adam and Eve's Diary," reflecting the humor of Mark Twain. Miss Atwater reading Eve's thoughts and Mr. Dekker responding from Adam's point of view were richly done.

"Two's A Company," a versatile repertoire presented by two fine artists, is destined to take its place as one of the best Community Forums ever to be presented on the Marshall College campus.

Hellyer Paces MAC Offense And Scoring

(Special to The Advertiser)

KALAMAZOO, Mich.—Bowling Green tops the Mid-American Conference in offensive yardage, statistics released by the MAC news bureau today revealed.

The Beegees have totaled 1268 yards in all games, compared to league-leading Miami's 1097. Defensively, Ohio University shows only 527 yards yielded to its opponents, good for first in that department. The figure is two less than Bowling Green and 19 less than Marshall.

Marshall's Len Hellyer leads the loop in individual rushing, with 252 yards in 18 carries for a remarkable 14-yard per carry average. Western Michigan's Charles Nidiffer is second with 12.8 in 14 trips. Miami's Terrill Burton is third with 12.3 in 27 tries.

Mike Norcia, Kent has an 8.8 average and Larry Kent, Bowling Green, an 8.5 average. Erland Ahlburg, Ohio, one of last year's leaders, has a 5.3 average so far in all games.

Passing has been hot with Mid-American teams with Don McBride, Ohio, the leader with 14 completions in 20 attempts for 70 per cent, Jim Bryan, Bowling Green, is second with 61.7, completing 15 in 24 attempts, while Tom Dimitroff, Miami, is third with 55.5 per cent with 10 completions in 18 attempts.

Among receivers, Pres Bliss, Miami, has 5 catches for 128 yards and 3 TDs. Jack Hecker, Bowling Green, leads with 7 catches for 160 yards and 2 TDs. Hellyer, Marshall, has 3 catches for 117 yards and 2 TDs. Julius Taormine, Toledo, also has five catches but for only 93 yards and a single TD.

Leading scorers in all games show Hellyer first with 36 points on 6 TDs, followed by Terrill Burton, Miami, with 5 for 30 points, Vic DeOrio, Jack Hecker, and Larry Kent, Bowling Green, all have 18 points as does Don Wirtz, Ohio University.

Asa Meadows Heads Marshall Freshmen

By LAVERNE LOGAN

The freshman class of Marshall College elected Asa Meadows, Huntington high school graduate, as president for the year. He received 233 of the 400 votes cast.

His nearest competitor was Roy Graham, East high school graduate. Norris Tennant, Parkersburg, and Alicia Ann Gose were also candidates.

Mary Kate Harris, Huntington, polled the largest number of votes of the students running for senator and becomes vice-president of her class. Next highest in the voting for senator was Alfred Ferguson, Huntington. Dennis White, Seth, and Gary Adams, Huntington, completed the selections of the freshmen to represent them in the Student Senate.

Four Others Run

Other candidates for the senate were: Sandra Potter, Landisburg, Fred Hymes, Richwood, Jacqueline Hines, Huntington, and John Murphy, Clarksburg.

The president of the freshmen class is the son of Mrs. Azel Meadows, 532 12th avenue. He attended Huntington High school, where he was president of the Dramatic Society and also was a member of the Torch Society, a scholastic honorary, and the Inter-Club Council. He was president of his senior class and following his junior year was a delegate to American Legion Boys' State. He is a business administration major at Marshall.

Miss Harris, who graduated from Huntington high school, was a member of the glee club and had roles in both the senior class plays. At her graduation she received the American Legion Citizenship Award and the School Citizenship Award.

One From Richwood

Alfred Ferguson is a graduate of Richwood high school. He was a member of the football team and was president of the Dramatic Club and Hi-Y. He was also a member of the Spanish Club and the Community Living Club.

Dennis White, before his graduation from Sherman high school at Seth, was a member of the football and basketball teams and the Varsity Club. He was one of five seniors who helped organize the Student Council at his high school. He was an honor student during both his junior and senior year.

ASA MEADOWS

Freshman President

Gary Adams, also a graduate of Huntington high school, was a member of the band and orchestra here. He was president of the junior and senior class and a member of the National Honor Society. At his graduation he received the Sons of the American Revolution Award.

Forum Number On

"Two's a Company," will be the program presented tonight at 8:15 in Old Main Auditorium. The presentation is one of the Community Forum series. Albert Dekker and Edith Atwater, will present scenes and sketches from some of the world's greatest literature.

Viewbook Distributed

Distribution of the recently published 1955 Marshall College viewbook to the West Virginia high schools has begun.

More than 1,500 copies of the restyled viewbook will be distributed to high school students throughout the state. This distribution is part of a year-around program conducted by the college to acquaint West Virginia high school students with Marshall College's facilities, fees and requirements.

In addition to more than 90 photographs in black and white and color, this year's viewbook features a two-page centerpiece Romance Map of the college. With the combination of photography and art study the map shows the 25 acre campus in full detail.

Jane Hobson To Rehearse With Schaefer For Concert

Theodore Schaefer, distinguished Washington musician, who will be accompanist for the Jane Hobson benefit concert at the city auditorium next Thursday, will arrive by plane on Tuesday for rehearsal, Miss Arma Newman, president of the Altrusa Club, which is sponsoring the concert, announced today.

Mr. Schaefer has performed in Huntington twice previously when he was accompanist for Mildred Miller and Richard Tucker, presented on the Marshall College Artists series. He is one of Miss Hobson's regular accompanists when she is on tour for her personal concert appearances.

Organist In Capital

Mr. Schaefer is organist and choirmaster of the National Presbyterian Church, the church regularly attended by President Dwight D. Eisenhower when he is in the capital.

His choir has appeared with the National Symphony Orchestra, the National Gallery Orchestra, and the Bach Aria Group of New York. This November the choir will again appear with the Bach Aria group and in January will sing Aaron Copland's Cantic of Freedom with the National Symphony, the composer conducting.

For Hospital Benefit

As an accompanist, Mr. Schaefer has not only appeared with frequency in Washington's galleries of music, but has toured the United States and Canada with singers under Columbia Artists Management, including Vivian Della Chiesa, Jane Hobson, Alice Howland, Mildred Miller, Mac Morgan and Richard Tucker.

As organ recitalist and lecturer, Mr. Schaefer performs before regional and national meetings of the American Guild of Organists of which he is a past dean. His writings appear in several musical magazines.

Tickets for the Jane Hobson concert are being handled by the Kenney Music Co., 930 Third avenue.

Entire net proceeds will help furnish the premature nursery of the new Cabell Huntington Hospital.

Miss Ellen Shepherd

Alpha Chi Omega sorority is being governed this year by Ellen Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shepherd of 807 Lincoln Place. The sorority has a membership of 40 girls.

Miss Shepherd is a senior at Marshall College where she is majoring in chemistry. She is considering doing graduate work after she is graduated from college.

She is a member of Chi Beta Phi, honorary junior and senior women's leadership group and the Pan - Hellenic Council. She is a graduate of Huntington high school.

Herb Admits Marshall Is 'Fired-Up' For Tilt

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Head coach Herb Royer of Marshall College did some frank talking at yesterday's weekly Touchdown Club luncheon meeting about the Big Green's chances against Miami of Ohio here Saturday night.

"We feel if Miami just plays their average game," Royer told a capacity crowd of diners, "and we play our average game, they'll beat us. But, if they let down or get some bad breaks and we, meanwhile, play a bit over our heads, we could beat them."

Royer wasn't hesitant in admitting that his ball club, winner of two out of three so far this season, is fired-up and mentally adjusted to shoot the works against the Redskins.

Boys Anxious

"The last two times we played Miami they beat us badly," he said. "It was 48-0 in 1953 and 46-0 last year. Most of the key players we have this year were regulars as sophomores in last year's game and they got plenty of experience playing the Redskins. They know they made a lot of mistakes in the 1954 game and they are anxious to show the Redskins that they aren't going to be pushovers this time."

Royer said unlike some other coaches in the Mid-American Conference which seek merely to keep the score down when they play Miami — he is going out to win the game. That's the objective — not merely trying to hold the final tally down to a low figure.

Best Team

Miami, defending conference champion, is easily the best team Marshall will play this season. The Redskins started the campaign by pinning a 25-14 defeat on Northwestern of the haughty Big Ten, and right in the Wildcats' own back yard. Then came a 13-12 squeaker over neighboring Xavier of Cincinnati and finally a 47-0 triumph over Toledo. The latter victory was the beginning of Miami's title defense in the MAC.

Yesterday's luncheon was highlighted by the movies of last Saturday's Western Michigan game, won by Marshall, 28-0, it's first in MAC play this season.

MC Lets Down

The movies backed up what Royer said earlier this week. Marshall started strong, scoring on the second play of the game, and then sort of let down—and played about as hard as it had to.

The movies, for the third time this season, cleared up another "mystery" play.

It showed that fullback George Templin was the ball carrier on the first play from scrimmage in which he ran from deep in Marshall territory down to about the Western Michigan 25 yard line. Original reports credited halfback Len Hellyer with the run.

Death Claims Mrs. Brown

Had 10-16-55
Mrs. Mary Eleanore Trenery Brown died Thursday in Cleveland Clinic after an illness of several months. She was the wife of Dr. Jack R. Brown, a member of the faculty of Marshall College.

Mrs. Brown was born October 8 1912, in Milwaukee, Wis., and was the daughter of the late Dr. Matthew John Trenery and Mabel McNichol Trenery. She attended Lawrence College in Appleton, Wisconsin.

Survivors in addition to her husband include two sons, Jonathan Brown and Jeffrey Brown, both at home; a sister, Mrs. Ormal L. Miller of Madison, Wisconsin; and a brother, Rev. Robert M. Trenery of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

FUNERAL services will be held at Johnson Memorial Methodist Church Monday at 2 P. M. Officiating clergymen will be Dr. James T. Browning, pastor of Johnson Memorial Church; Dr. Howard J. Brown, a brother-in-law, who is pastor of the Methodist Church of the Saviour, Cleveland Heights, O.; and the brother, Rev. Robert Trenery, chaplain of Bronson Memorial Hospital in Kalamazoo. Interment will be in Ridgeland Cemetery.

THE BODY is at the Kincaid Mortuary where friends may call after noon today.

Pallbearers are A. E. McCaskle, George Urian, James McCubbin, Wayne Warncke, John Stender and Joseph Lichenstein, all members of the Marshall College faculty.

About Europe

Denmark Visit Recalls Friends In Huntington

By PAGE PITT

COPENHAGEN — This is it. I knew it from the first peek I got of Denmark as our plane came spiraling in from 13,000 feet up in a brittle blue sky. Shimmering there below with sparkling lakes, deep green parks, gracefully patterned streets and gleaming harbor, it looked like a Joe Jablonski watercolor.

PAGE PITT

great-great grandson of the founder of Berlingske Tidende, which is over 200 years old (first edition Thursday, January 3, 1749). He says it's the world's oldest newspaper in continuous operation. Dr. Naeser is devoting his declining years to a revitalized crusade for freedom of the press.

Suspicious Of People In Kremlin

His chief editor, Terkle Terkelson, welcomed us to his editorial offices. He told us about how journalists are trained, about Denmark's Shangri-la social security, the government, and the marvel that is Danish education sparked by the Folk High School system. (Children go to elementary school six days a week—and love it).

Mr. Terkelson, one of Denmark's leading anti-Communist writers, has just returned from Moscow, where he and six other Danish editors had been on an inside-Russia probe of hope. He says the world could have peaceful co-existence if the matter were left to a plebiscite of the Russian people—but he is not so sanguine about the men in the Kremlin. He talked to Prof. Kreuchev, head of Moscow University, who described a new two-year course in journalism for Russian students. Then he visited Pravda, where the editors told him they received a thousand letters a day from readers, many of which were critical and all of which were answered, if not published. Mr. Terkelson credits President Eisenhower's leadership at Geneva with "broadening the Russian smile," but believes—as all editors we have seen—that we must definitely keep our guns loaded. "Nothing," and he emphasizes his conviction, "can be permitted to weaken or relax the Atlantic Pact."

We find Danish food dangerous. You can't stop eating. Danes don't. Conversation is flat without food. Rubberneck buses schedule stops for open-face sandwiches and snacks of Danish pastry.

Everyone Rides Bicycle

We stood on the ramparts of Kronborg Castle, where Shakespeare's "ghost of Hamlet's father" is the topic of speculation. Soldiers at the castle still fire salutes from the old muzzle-loading cannon. They say it is more dangerous now to be behind them than in front of them. As we looked across the two miles of Oresund, we could see the houses of Helsingborg, Sweden—the land whence came the Otto "Swede" Gullickson clan.

The weather has been perfect—best in years, the Danes say. The air is invigoratingly brisk. We keep our homes in Huntington entirely too warm. At Tuborg we thought of George Linsenmeyer, for there we saw a full-size lighthouse—replica of a beer bottle. Bicycles built for two—and even three—are everywhere. A Danish housewife told us, "We take the baby until he is two years old in the front. From two to four, we take him on the back. After that, he peddles his own."

Had lunch at the American embassy with a Findlay, Ohio, boy—Earl A. Dennis, public affairs officer, an associate of Franklin Burdette. He is lyrical about the friendly Danes, the pleasure he is having in working with them, and the mammoth Fourth of July celebration held annually in Jutland.

Visit With The Rosings

K. V. Hansen, retired Danish newsman who has visited Huntington, showed us a beautiful church built exclusively of brick as a memorial to the founder of the Folk High School system—Bishop F. S. Grundtvig. Magnificent in its simplicity, the church has been built by donations to buy a brick or more from Danes all over the world. The front towers of Danish churches always face west, so that the congregations are looking toward "Paradise in the East." We were told that 97 per cent of church membership in the country is Lutheran, the state church.

There are four figures over the entrance to Parliament, where two Eskimos are now seated. The figures depict four phases of Danish life; but we heard a tourist guide describe them to his party as "one who can see but little, another who can hear but little, the third with a headache, and the fourth with a pain in his stomach." And "the little mermaid" in the harbor is exactly like the one on Mary Jane Shoffstall Smythe's ashtray.

Signe Rosing, who — when she visited Huntington — was entertained in the old North Parlor of Marshall College by Virginia and faculty wives friends, says that her trip to West Virginia is the highlight of her life. Had tea with Borge Rosing's father in his beautiful apartment home. This distinguished gentleman of the Old World has just celebrated his 86th birthday. He is as keen about his "children in Huntington" as we are about him.

Dinner And Their Education

Talked to Niels Hasager, proprietor, and Paul Graae, chief editor, of Politiken (a liberal Danish daily newspaper, circulation 148,500). We got into world affairs. I decided I need courses from Conley Dillon and Carl Leiden in world politics.

Superb farewell dinner with K. V. Started at his cozy bachelor apartment. Progressed to the Wevix. Creme de la creme of cafe society. Three orchestras. We wanted and ordered, frikadeller (Danish meat balls) and red cabbage. The maitre d'hotel started a shiver that ran right down his chain of waiters to the head chef. We would please wait in the lounge. Later we were escorted through the huge dining room to an orchestra stage. There, in the center, a table decorated with an American flag was set for three. We ate our frikadeller while about one thousand other diners kibitzed. The management tactfully contributed to our education after dinner. Took us through the kitchens and wine cellars, giving us samples here and there on the souse. We agreed with Dr. S. Roger Tyler, who wrote in K. V.'s guest book after a sojourn in Denmark, "Heaven can wait."

Marshall, Miami Conclude Drills For MAC Battle Here Tomorrow

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

The Marshall College football team was pronounced "as ready as we'll ever be" by head coach Herb Royer today as the Big Green finished preparation for its toughest game of the season here tomorrow night against Miami of Ohio.

The Mid-American Conference contest will begin at 8 P. M. before what is expected to be the biggest crowd of the season.

Though advance ticket sales haven't been tabulated, the Marshall ticket office felt that the attendance would total between 8,000 and 9,000 fans.

Royer, whose club has rebounded smartly from an opening season loss to Ohio by scoring two straight wins, said Marshall is "physically and mentally fit to play the game of its life" against the Redskins who are unbeaten this year and who are conference champions.

"We're going into the game with only one idea in mind — to win," says Royer. "We don't go for this philosophy of playing 'a type of game against Miami to hold the score down. Toledo tried that stunt last week and got walloped (47-0). We're out to win and we hope to play our best game of the season."

The game will be Marshall's third in conference play. The Big Green split with Ohio and Western Michigan, defeating the latter, 28-0 in its two MAC starts so far and knocked off Morris Harvey, 46-7, in a non-conference affair.

Royer said he was planning no lineup changes but will hold off naming his starting eleven until tomorrow.

From Oxford, O., home of Miami, today came reports that the Redskins have been repeatedly warned by their coaching staff that Marshall is far from a push-over — that in the Big Green they'll be facing one of the fastest set of backs they'll be asked to play all season.

Coach Ara Parseghian, who has tabbed Marshall as the MAC "darkhorse" since last spring—said the Redskins are in good shape for the game, which will be their only night game of the campaign.

The only doubtful starter is 200 pound tackle, Co-Captain Dick Mattern, who has been having ankle trouble. Mattern has been okeh in practice sessions so far this week, however.

The Redskins plan to fly tomorrow to Huntington, leaving the Richmond, Ind., airport at 11 A. M., and arriving here at the Tri-State Airport at about 12 noon. They'll be quartered at the Huntington Hotel. They will return home by plane Sunday.

Parseghian said he would announce his starting team tomorrow.

In three starts this year Miami has whipped Northwestern of the Big Ten, Xavier of Cincinnati and Toledo.

Marshall Enrollment 3,340; 354 More Men Than Gals

Here's a bit of news the gals at Marshall College will probably be glad to know.

There are 354 more men students than women this semester. Total male enrollment is 1,852 female, 1,498.

Registration figures released by Luther E. Bledsoe, college registrar and director of admissions, show that total enrollment has reached 3,340 as compared with 2,926 at the same time last year. Of the total, 2,519 are full-time students and 821 part-time.

The freshman class has 901 members, including 815 full-time students. It is eight per cent larger than the first-year class in 1954-55. Over-all enrollment in both the Graduate School and teachers college is up 15 per cent over last year and that in the arts and sciences college is 13 per cent greater.

REDSKINS ROLL TO 46-7 WIN

By FRED BURNS

(Herald-Advertiser Sports Editor)

The Miami Redskins took another big step toward their second straight Mid-American Conference championship last night at Fairfield Stadium when they chalked up an easy 46-7 victory over Marshall's Big Green.

The win left Miami in undisputed possession of first place in the conference as Ohio University was a 20-14 victim of Kent State.

Miami just had too many horses for Marshall and about the only time that the Big Green was in the ball game was in the first quarter when they matched the Redskins' power for their only touchdown.

Miami had taken the opening kickoff and marched it 69 yards in six plays for their first of seven touchdowns. Marshall received the ensuing kickoff and when Dick Athey returned to the 39 they were 61 yards away from a touchdown.

A CROWD of some 8,500, mostly Big Green fans, really cheered as Bill Zban engineered the Big Green to the Miami 33 yard line in five plays. George Templin carried three times and Len Hellyer twice. From the 33 Zban fired a pass to Hellyer who made a circus catch on the 15 and went on over. Zban booted the extra point and the score was tied.

This was two touchdowns, one by each team and there had been only 12 plays from scrimmage. However what hopes Marshall fans had of an upset were soon faded for the powerful Redskins again turned loose their power and fleet footed backs and again they needed only six plays to get their second touchdown. Tirrel Burton scored this second touchdown on a beautiful 45 yard run. The first score for the Redskins had been from 30 yards out with Tom Troxell carrying.

Quarterback Tom Dimitroff converted after both of these touchdowns as he also did after two more scored in the second period.

EVEN AT this point there was faint hope in the hearts of the Marshall fans, especially when Miami kicked off twice out of bounds giving Marshall the ball on the 50. However after one first down the Big Green was stalled on the Miami 27 and the Redskins took over.

FROM HERE they were well on their way for a third score when the period ended.

They had reached the 14 and it took only three plays with Burton going the last one yard around right end.

There was still fight left in the Marshall team for they moved from their 25 after the ensuing kickoff to the Miami ten before the Redskins stiffened and took over. The Big Green completed two seven yard passes in this drive and were aided by penalties of 15 and 5 yards.

On the first play the Redskins shook Tom Troxell loose and he raced 68 yards all the way to the Marshall 22 before Hellyer tripped him up.

The Redskins had a hard time getting this touchdown for they were caught clipping twice and in between they threw two incomplete passes. However, Dimitroff finally caught Pres Bliss in the end zone with a pass and this gave the Redskins a 28-7 half time lead.

Neither team punted during the first half but the Big Green was forced to kick the first time they had the ball and Burton ran it down their throats as he raced it back 75 yards for a touchdown. The only other time Marshall punted it was in the early part of the fourth period and this one was blocked. The second Miami score in the third period came when Marshall tried for 11 yards on fourth down and failed. Miami took over on their 43 and then marched it down with Mike Lanese going the final four yards.

The blocked punt came on the last play of the third period and Miami needed only three plays to score from their 41. Two plays made it to the 35 and from there Dave Thelen went all the way.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14. — The University of Cincinnati freshman football team scored at least two touchdowns in each quarter and broke loose for five in the third period to swamp the Marshall College yearlings, 72-0, this afternoon at Nippert Stadium.

Quarterback Ron Tarquinio completed six passes for 128 yards. The Bearkittens rolled up 318 net yards rushing and 183 passing.

Joe Morrison, quarterback and safety, all but demoralized the outclassed visitors when he took the second-half kickoff on the Cincinnati goal line and negotiated the 100 yards for a TD.

Miami Not Taking Marshall Lightly

In a pre-season poll of coaches in the Mid-American Conference, the Toledo Rockets were selected as the "No. 1 dark horse" in the 1955 football championship race by a majority.

There was one dissenter and his name is Ara Parseghian, commander-in-chief of Miami's massive football forces which invade Fairfield Stadium tomorrow night for a go with Marshall.

Said Parseghian in his poll statement:

"I expect Marshall College to be the dark horse. Yes, Toledo is coming. Bowling Green will be tougher under the natural impetus of a new coaching set-up. But, they'll both be relying heavily on sophomores. Marshall is past that stage. It has been predominantly an upperclassmen club for two years, now, and this is the payoff season of their rebuilding program. Too few people realize how rough Marshall would have been last year with just a little more depth and just one or two more really good men."

Greets With Surprise

Ara's observations were greeted with much surprise around the circuit and the general feeling was he was craftily trying to get some of his opponents to let their guard down a little.

When Marshall dropped its conference opener to Ohio, 13-6, it looked like Ara was doing just that. But, since the Ohio game Marshall has begun to make Parseghian look good and it might make him look even better tomorrow evening if the football takes a few bounces in the Big Green's direction.

Statistics and motion picture films show clearly that against Morris Harvey and Western Michigan, disposed of by 46-7 and 28-0 margins, Marshall is the team folks around here expected it to be this year. It has speed, better depth, and more general game intelligence than in 1954.

Fear Marshall

Now, a team of Miami's caliber, with four good men at every position, can make any team in any league look bad. It could make Marshall look bad. Parseghian doesn't think so and neither do his assistants. They fear Marshall more than any other club in the Mid-American Conference.

Listen to what Parseghian's chief scouting assistant, Bruce Beatty, had to say to the Redskins in his briefing on Monday:

"Marshall has the best group of breakaway backs we'll meet this year," said Beatty. "And, they're the best we've seen at Marshall. All three of their running backs are the kind who can go all the way — halfbacks Len Hellyer and Fred Freeman and fullback George Templin. Quarterback Bill Zban can be compared to Xavier's Norm Zmylsinski — just finding himself and coming along rapidly."

Continuing, Beatty said:

Threw Four Times

"Zban threw only four passes against Western Michigan and completed two, both for touchdowns and both to Hellyer. This Hellyer looks like he'd be a power back like Eddie Merchant was for us last year. He's strong but he's also fast with a tricky hip wiggling running motion. Against Western Michigan Marshall seemed to be able to score when it wanted to — on the second play of the game, on the first play of the second half — just like pushing a button."

Is all of this only so much blarney by the Miami coaches to prevent their club from suffering another let-down as they did against Xavier?

Miami managed a close, 13-12, win over the Musketeers after opening the season by flattening Northwestern of the haughty Big Ten, 25-14, for its second straight ~~over~~ teams in that league — no

Letting Down

"It was clearly a case of letting down," moaned Parseghian. "We mustn't let that happen again."

Poor Toledo found out how much Parseghian meant what he was saying, bowing very humbly, 47-0, last Saturday.

I don't know if Parseghian and Beatty are using psychology to keep Miami "up" for all of its Mid-American opponents. I'm not a psychologist. It must pose a problem for Ara to keep his team sharp after knocking off a Big Ten team.

I do know that everything Parseghian and Beatty have said about Marshall is borne out in the movies of the Morris Harvey and Western Michigan games. Was Marshall simply looking good against a couple of weak teams, you might ask, and does it remain a team which isn't ready to knock over some big ones?

We'll find out tomorrow night.

Educators Will Hear Official Of Publishing Firm

Mrs. Madeline Strony, educational director of the Gregg Publishing Division of the McGraw Hill Book Co., New York, will be guest speaker at the Huntington section of the West Virginia Business Education Association here tomorrow.

Miss Nora Goad, of Charleston, president of the organization, said the program will begin with a luncheon at 12:30 P. M. at the Hotel Prichard. Mrs. Strony will discuss "Personality and Skills as Factors in Employment." Personnel directors and office managers of the area are invited to attend.

Mrs. Strony also will conduct meetings Tuesday in Northcott Hall at Marshall College. At 10 A. M. she will show secretarial training sound films followed by question and answer periods. At 2 P. M. she will speak on "Personality Quotient." A luncheon will be at noon in the college cafeteria.

Mrs. Strony is being brought to Huntington by the West Virginia

Business Education Association for its sectional meeting which is being held in conjunction with the regional meeting of the West Virginia Education Association. She also will be guest speaker at the sectional meeting of another regional WVEA convention in Parkersburg October 20.

Bird Study Club To Hear Appel

The Huntington Bird Club will meet Monday at 8 P. M. in Room 211 of the Marshall College Science Hall.

J. C. Appel, manager of the McClintock Wild Life Station of Point Pleasant, will speak on "The Water Fowl at the Station". A film on waterfowl will be shown, taken at the Gaddy Wild Goose Refuge at Ansonville, N. C.

A comparison of the hawk count made here with reports from other points in the country will be made. Anyone interested in birds is invited to attend.

Marshall Runners Bow To Eagles

MOREHEAD, Ky., Oct. 15. (AP)—Morehead State College's unbeaten cross-country team won its third meet of the season today, over Marshall College, 18-37. Morehead junior Carl Deaton was the winner in the meet. Running was slowed by a drizzling rain. The meet was Marshall's second loss without a win.

Dr. Smith To Address Civic Section

The Civic department of The Woman's Club of Huntington will hold its first luncheon Wednesday at noon at the club house.

The theme for this year is "Is This Our Business?"; dealing with education, Americanism, safety, good government, health and juvenile delinquency.

Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president of Marshall College, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "What Is Our Business?"

Mrs. Otis S. Cavendish will give local current events.

Three Home Economists Join Staff Of Gas Company

Three new home economists have joined United Fuel Gas Company's home service staff. These women will join Mrs. June Sydenstricker in teaching gas appliance customers how to use their appliances correctly.

They are Mrs. Geraldine Cartmill, of 761 Norway avenue; Miss Marlene Dotson, of 1555 Fifth avenue; and Miss Dora Sarandon, 2784 First avenue.

Mrs. Cartmill, wife of William B. Cartmill, worked as a United Fuel home economist in 1952. In 1953 she moved to Covington, Va., with her husband, a diesel oil chemist with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

MRS. CARTMILL is a graduate of Rainelle high school and Marshall College, where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in vocational home economics. She has since taught high school in Covington, and nutrition courses to student nurses in Clifton Forge, Va.

Miss Sarandon was graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in home economics at the University of Cincinnati in June of this year. In school she was president of the Judicial Council, and belonged to the Home Economics Club and Chi Omega sorority.

MISS DOTSON is a graduate of Pennsboro high school and Marshall College. She was graduated in June, 1955, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in vocational home economics. Miss Dotson also attended Glenville State College and Fairmont State College. While in school she belonged to several organizations, including Xi Beta Tau sorority and Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She was president of the Marshall College Home Economics club.

Other duties these new home economists will perform include giving cooking and homemaking demonstrations before clubs, home economics classes, school lunch cooks, and other groups.

Their job is seeing that homemakers get the most satisfactory use from their automatic gas appliances. Any gas customer can phone or write these home economists at United Fuel for answers to questions about cooking, laundry, kitchen planning or any other homemaking problems.

West Indies Calypso Show Here Tonight

These five West Indian natives in picturesque costumes are among the company of 15 which will present a program of Calypso songs and dances on the Community Forum tonight at 8:15 P. M. in the Marshall College auditorium.

The "Caribbiana," colorful West Indian show, will appear on the Marshall College Community Forum at 8:15 P. M. tonight in the college auditorium.

The "Caribbiana," a company of 15 natives from the Caribbean Islands, will present a program of Calypso songs and dances, regarded as the folklore of the West Indies.

It is the policy of the Community Forum to bring one folklore program to Huntington each year, Manager Curtis Baxter explained.

The "Caribbiana" is the second attraction of the season on the Community Forum. Admission will be by season membership only. Season tickets will be available at the door.

Other Community Forum attractions scheduled for the 1955-56 season are:

October 27 — Debate, "United States Foreign Policy," Senator Humphrey (D-Minn) vs. Senator Wiley (R-Wis).

November 7 — "World Affairs Council." Four speakers from England, France, Germany and the United States will cover the top news of the day.

January 23 — Ivy Priest, U. S.

THE MARSHALL COLLEGE Community Forum will present the colorful West Indian Calypso show, "Caribbiana," tomorrow at 8:15 P. M. in the college auditorium. Members of the company are shown here in one of the numbers they will present. This will be the second of 11 forum attractions for the 1955-56 season. Admission will be by season forum membership which will be available at the doors of the auditorium.

West Indian Concert Set For Tomorrow At Marshall

A gay and lively concert of West Indian songs and dances will be presented here tomorrow at 8:15 P. M. in the Marshall College auditorium by the Caribbiana ensemble.

This will be the second of 11 presentations of the Marshall College Community Forum for 1955-56. Admission will be by season forum memberships which are still available. They will be on sale at the doors of the auditorium.

The ensemble is composed of 15 Caribbean singers, dancers and musicians who illustrate in their singing and dancing the life and habits of the West Indian Islands such as Trinidad, Haiti, Barbados, Jamaica, Cuba and Martinique.

The colorful West Indian show is based primarily on the ideas of old time Calypso festivals and reflects its music, beauty and color.

SHOWING their African heritage together with a strong Latin influence, the members of the ensemble demonstrate their wonderful sense of rhythm which dominates their songs and dances within a wide range of emotions.

The program will open with "Linstead Market Scene", including several Haitian songs and dances. In "Caribbean Interlude" will be the songs, "Choucounne" (Haiti), "Gimmie de Ole Boy" (Trinidad), "Bajar Girl" (Barbados), "Better Woman" (Trinidad) and "Voodoo Ritual" (Haiti). Also included will be dances and a drum solo.

"Miscellaneous Caribbiana" will include "Ministre a Zaca" (Haiti), "Castillian Waltz" (Trinidad), "Mountain Son" (Haiti), "Small Islands" (Trinidad), "Ugly Woman" (Trinidad), "Panama'm Trombe" (Haiti). In the finale will be native rhythms of all islands and the songs "Mary Ann" (Trinidad) and "Basay Down" (Trinidad).

Redskins Are Heavy Favorites

By FRED BURNS
Herald-Dispatch Sports Editor

Riding the crest of a three-game winning streak, the powerful Redskins of Miami University will be at Fairfield Stadium tonight hoping to make Marshall College their fourth victim of the 1955 season. Kickoff time tonight is 8 P. M.

Coach Ara Parseghian's Redskins have their eyes on a second straight Mid-American Conference football championship and a victory over Marshall tonight would eliminate the second of five MAC team they face this season.

On the strength of their record Miami will be heavily favored. They opened the season by knocking off Northwestern of the Big Ten, 25-14, nipped Xavier 13-12 and last week trounced Toledo 47-0 for their first conference win. Don't be misled by that Xavier score for the Musketeers have one of their best teams in the history of the school.

Marshall will carry a 2-1 record into tonight's game. The Big Green lost to Ohio University 13-6

TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets for tonight's Marshall-Miami game are still available it was announced last night by Whitey Wilson, Marshall ticket manager.

"There are 1,000 reserved seat tickets and plenty of general admission tickets," Wilson said. They will be on sale today at all downtown agencies until 5 P. M. Ticket windows at Fairfield Stadium will open at 5 P. M. and tickets will be available only at the stadium after that time.

In the season's opener and then trimmed Morris Harvey 46-7 and last week beat Western Michigan 28-0.

Coach Herb Royer has nursed his Big Green along this week and reports from their camp indicate that the Marshall team is ready to give everything tonight. Indications are that they will shoot the works in an effort to upset the powerful Redskins. However the smart boys who make the odds says that a Marshall victory is very unlikely and even if the Big Green fires both barrels it won't be enough to overcome the powerful running of the Miami ground game or the slick passing of Quarterback Tom Dimitroff.

Dimitroff has attempted 18 passes and completed 10 for 241 yards and four touchdowns and only one of his 18 passes has been intercepted.

On the running side Tirrell Burton, who has been clocked at 9.8 in the hundred, is averaging 12.3 yards per carry. He has carried 27 times and picked up 331 yards. Next in line in rushing for the Redskins is Tom Troxell with an 8.8 average and Mike Lanese with 7.0.

Miami is in top condition for today's game as the starters in last week's game with Toledo only played about 15 minutes. Parseghian has termed Marshall the darkhorse of the conference and he has been pointing for this game. However the Redskins are expecting to win and with ease for they have been polishing the second and third quarterbacks this past week.

Earnest Jarvis and Dick Kin-koph got all the attention in a passing drill Tuesday indication that they are expected to be in a lot of action tonight.

The Miami squad will fly into Huntington today at noon and will headquarter at the Huntington Hotel. They will remain in Huntington tonight and fly back tomorrow.

Meanwhile Royer has the Big Green ready. He is planning to go with the same lineup which polished off Western Michigan last week. That will mean that Bill Zban will be at quarter, Fred Freeman and Len Hellyer at halves and George Templin at full. The line will be Jim Barton and Dick Athey at ends, Bill Harris and Ted D'Alesio at tackles, Bob McCollins and Irvin Wilson at guards and Jerry Snow at center.

If the Big Green players need any inspiration they got a little from the College Barber Shop just off the campus. The mar said if you trim Miami I'll trim everyone of the players, meaning there is a free hair cut awaiting the Big Green players if they win.

Miami will go with Dimitroff at quarter, Burton and Troxell at halves, Dean Porter at full. There will be Press Bliss and Bill Mallory at ends, Rudy Schoendorff and Roger Siegel at tackles, Russ Glanti and Tom Mooney at guards and Dick Mattern at center.

Big Green Underdog By 4 TDs

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

If determination means anything, the Marshall College football team will haul off and register the football upset of the year tonight.

That's when it's scheduled to collide with a huge tribe of Miami Redskins in an important Mid-American Conference fixture at Fairfield Stadium.

The kickoff will occur at 8 o'clock before a near capacity crowd of about 10,000 upset-hungry Marshall partisans.

But, the experts figure it will take more than determination for Marshall's young speedsters to wreck the ambitions of Miami for an unbeaten season. They've installed the club from Oxford a four touchdown favorite — based on seasonal performances to date and also on the two most recent meetings of the teams.

Come From Behind

In 1953, right there at Fairfield Stadium, Miami routed the Big Green, 48-6, actually "coming from behind" to do so because of a first play touchdown pass from Johnny Chmara to Jim Swierczek.

Last year Marshall's sophomore-laden crew got another thorough beating, 46-0, on Miami's home grounds. That was the game which turned what had started to be a fine Big Green season into a losing one. Marshall was unbeaten with three straight going into the Miami game and then wound up winning only one more the rest of the season.

This year Miami again presents a team which is the class of the MAC and also one of the best in the country. It started by whipping Northwestern of the Big Ten, 25-14; followed with a close one over a surprising Xavier of Cincinnati team, 13-12, and then launched its conference title defense last Saturday by thrashing Toledo, 47-0.

Third Year

Marshall, in the third year of its rebuilding program under former Big Green great, Herb Royer, lost to Ohio in its conference and seasonal opener, 13-6. But, since then, the team has flashed the form it was supposed to have in the first place — barreling past Morris Harvey, 46-7, and crushing Western Michigan in its second conference start, 28-0.

Tonight's game will be the 11th between the schools in a rivalry which began in 1933 and continued through the old Buckeye Conference days up to the present Mid-American set-up. Miami holds a 7-3 edge and a four game winning streak

The last time Marshall whipped Miami in football, it did so decisively. That was in 1938 when Cam Henderson's powerhouses were dominating the Buckeye and the tally was 41-0. It was also the third straight time Henderson had whipped Miami.

Important Game

Tonight's game is an important one in the conference race. Ohio is currently leading the pack with a 2-0 record followed by Miami at 1-0. Ohio must get by strong Kent today at Athens to assure itself of the lead providing Miami doesn't get an unexpected beating tonight from Marshall.

If Ohio loses to Kent and Miami wins here, the Redskins will take over first place. If Ohio loses and Marshall wins, the MAC race will be tighter than wet rope drying in the sun.

Miami is a team of depth and speed which seldom takes to the air but is effective when it does. Directing it is slick Tom George Dimitroff, a junior from Barberton, O., and making it go are half-backs Tirrel Burton, a senior, and Tom Troxell, a senior, along with junior fullback Dean Porter.

No. 1 Gainer

Burton, a fellow reputed to be able to break 10 seconds in the 100 yard dash while wearing his grid gear, is the No. 1 ground gainer. In 27 trips he's gained 331 yards for a 12.3 average. Troxell has averaged 8.8 in gaining 132 on 15 attempts. Porter, doing heavy duty, has picked up 71 yards in 18 tries for a 3.9 average.

The No. 2 ground gainer on the club is a young sophomore whippet named Mike Lanese. Lanese has a 7.0 average for 144 yards and 20 carries. For a sub, he's been very busy.

Dimitroff seldom does any running — carrying only ten times for 20 yards. But, Tom George does a lot of other things, like faking the defense dizzy and firing key passes. He's hurled 18 times this season, hit on five, for a fat 241 yards and four touchdowns.

Scoring Leader

Burton is the scoring leader with six touchdowns and 30 points followed by junior end Pres Bliss. Bliss has scored three times, all of them on aerials.

But, Marshall, the underdog, will have the No. 1 offensive man in the conference tonight. He's junior halfback Len Hellyer who has 252 yards in 18 carries and six touchdowns. His rushing average is 14.0.

In Bill Zban at quarterback Marshall has a good field general and a clutch passer. Bill threw only four against Western Michigan but two of them paid off with scores.

Rose Accepts Arizona Post

The Rev. W. Z. Rose, former Huntington resident, has accepted the pastorate of the Fifth Street Baptist Church in Tempe, Ariz.

He is a graduate of Huntington High School and attended Marshall College. Mr. Rose received his A. B. degree from Bob Jones University and his Th.M. degree from the Bible Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, Tex.

Mr. Rose was at one time pastor of the Huntington Gospel Tabernacle and a leader in the Youth For Christ movement here. Mr. Rose taught school at Hurricane and has held several pastorates in the Charleston area.

The 91st annual convention of the West Virginia Education Association opens here tomorrow at 10 A. M. with a general session at Memorial Field House. The meeting will continue through Tuesday afternoon.

Huntington will be host to one of four regional meetings which will have as their theme, "Good Schools are Good Business."

The other regional sessions will be at Parkersburg, October 20-21; at Martinsburg, October 24-25 and at Clarksburg, October 27-28.

The WVEA follows a plan of alternating one general convention with regional meetings the next year. Huntington also will be host to the 1956 general convention next fall.

The meeting here tomorrow and Tuesday has a potential attendance of 8,500 teachers from 19 southeastern West Virginia counties.

MRS. LUCILLE Armstrong of Charleston, president of the association, will preside at the opening session which will be preceded by a musical prelude at 9:45 A. M. presented by the Huntington East High school orchestra under the direction of Leland S. Arnold.

Principal speakers at this session will be Phares E. Reeder of Charleston, WVEA executive secretary, and Philip Lovejoy, educator, world traveler and executive. Mr. Reeder's subject will be "Shape of Things to Come". Mr. Lovejoy, who was general secretary of Rotary International for (Turn to page 12, Col. 3, Sec. 1)

The visitors will be welcomed to Huntington by Olin C. Nutter, superintendent of Cabell county schools and general convention chairman. Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president of Marshall College, and Renick E. Wilkinson, superintendent of Wayne county schools, are assistant chairmen.

PLATFORM guests at the opening session will be County Education Association presidents, county public information directors, and WVEA college contact representatives.

The two other general sessions will be at the city auditorium. At 7:30 P. M. Monday the main speaker will be Orio Brees, former New York legislator, humorist and philosopher. His subject will be "Grist for the Grin Mill."

The program will include several other features, among them an in memoriam service presented by Mrs. Hite Compton, the president's message, and presentation of the retired teacher and the future teacher of the year.

Platform guests will include WVEA officers and past presidents, WVEA committee chairmen, presidents of statewide affiliates, presidents or chairmen of subject matter and sectional organizations.

THE CONCLUDING general session at 1:30 P. M. Tuesday will be highlighted by an address by Mrs. Bithia J. Whitney, educator, counselor and lecturer, on the subject, "Children Are Everybody's Business." Also at this session W. W. Trent, state superintendent of free schools, will present recommendations of the recent West Virginia Conference on Education. These recommendations will be presented later at the White House Conference on Education in Washington, D. C.

Monday afternoon there will be WVEA workshops and subject matter sectional group meetings throughout the city. Some will begin with luncheons. Others will get under way at 2 P. M.

The six WVEA workshops will deal with these topics: "Understanding School Finance Problems and Practices", "The Status and Security of the Teacher", "How to Do the Job of Teaching Better", "Current Issues in the Field of Instruction", "What's on Your Mind?", and "Special Problems in Grades 7 to 9."

Section meetings will deal with art, attendance, business education, the classics, English, guidance, health, physical education and recreation; home economics, library work, mathematics, modern language, music, science, social studies, speech, student councils, vocational education, and vocational rehabilitation.

SIXTEEN or more breakfasts, luncheons and dinners have been scheduled by various groups during the two day convention.

WVEA affiliate groups will meet Tuesday morning. The West Virginia Classroom Teachers will convene at 10:30 A. M. at Huntington high school with Elizabeth Anne Meek, president, presiding. Speakers will include Dr. Marshall Buckalew, vice-president, Morris Harvey College, and Miss Meek.

A joint meeting of other affiliates will be held at Huntington East high school. The principal speaker will be Dr. Miriam L. Goldberg whose theme will be "Identification and Instruction of Talented Youth in Public Schools."

Affiliate groups meeting jointly will include the West Virginia Association of School Superintendents, Secondary Principals and Elementary Principals.

The Cabell County CTA will be host at a coffee hour Tuesday at 9 A. M. at Huntington high. All classroom teachers are invited. A dutch treat luncheon for county and state CTA officers will be held Tuesday at 12:30 P. M. at the Hotel Frederick.

team, drew resounding applause along the parade route.

Despite chilly evenings during the five-day festival, Board of Trade officials today said this second annual festival had attracted far more persons than anticipated.

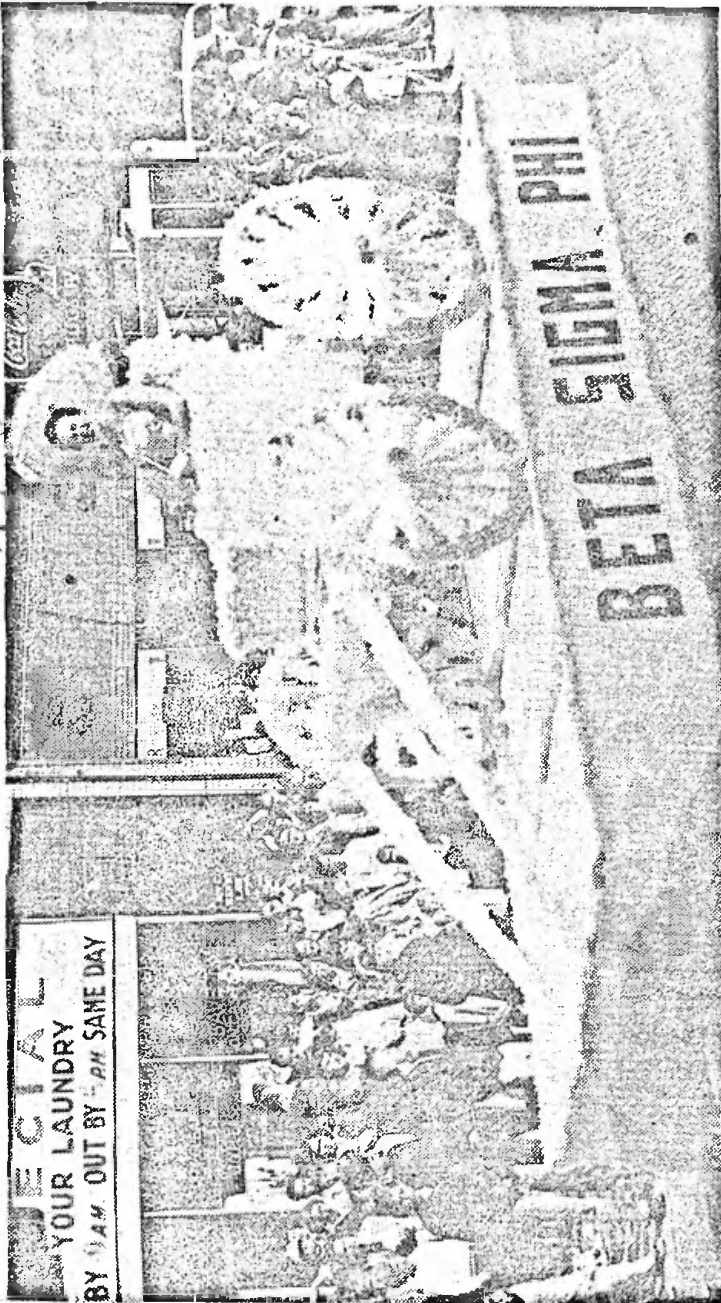

The festival is the successor to Ironton's once widely-famed Apple Show which started a run of several years in 1914.

Members of the Board of Trade, directed by A. G. Spriggs, IBI president, and E. B. Adams, IBI secretary, worked for several weeks preparing the festival.

Several new features were added to this year's program. Most interesting of these new events was a Thursday afternoon water show on the Ohio River and a shooting match today with entrants firing ancient muzzle loaders.

Ironton Festival Ends Today

IRONTON, Oct. 15. (Special)—From up and down and across the Ohio River and from rolling hills to the north, thousands of visitors started streaming into this festival city early this morning.

When the colorful parade of the second annual Festival of the Hills started winding through the downtown business section at 9:30 A. M., sidewalks, upper story windows and rooftops were clogged with spectators.

As the hour-long parade faded into the dispersal zone, the festival crowd mushroomed into the several downtown blocks filled with exhibit tents and the concessions and rides of a big carnival.

IN THE AFTERNOON, the Ironton High School stadium was jammed for a beautifully staged Musical Jamboree. Bands and choruses from a dozen high schools offered a variety musical program before the climactic presentation of 10 courts of beauty, festival queens and their attendants from all Ironton and Lawrence County high schools.

The festival closes Sunday with two program features. At 1 P. M. in the stadium, St. Joseph High School gridders square off against invaders from Charleston Catholic High School. At 5:30 P. M. in the stadium, the festival will be concluded with a Youth Service program under the direction of Clare Huey.

In the morning parade today, judges selected these seven floats for $50 awards made by the Ironton Board of Trade, sponsor of the festival: Windsor Grange, Junior Woman's Club, Deering Grange, St. Joseph School, Deering 4-H Club, Beta Sigma Phi and Scot-town 4-H Club.

Breakfast For Teachers

Members of the Childhood Education Association attending the West Virginia Education Association meeting here will be entertained at a breakfast at 8 A. M. today at the Hotel Fredrick.

Dr. Margaret Hampel of the Marshall College faculty is local and state president of the Childhood Education Association, and will preside at the breakfast.

Miss Hudson Will Attend Ceremony

Miss Rosalie Hudson a member of Gamma Beta chapter of Alpha Xi Delta sorority of Marshall College, will leave Friday by Eastern Airlines plane for Johnson City, Tenn., for a special sorority ceremony.

She will participate in the pledging ceremony of a new chapter Gamma Theta of Alpha Xi Delta, at East Tennessee State Teachers College at Johnson City.

Miss Shirley Sakoria, a member of the Marshall chapter has been at the Tennessee institution for the past few weeks organizing the chapter.

Miss Hudson will sing a group of solo numbers at the pledging ceremony.

Dr. Julius Lieberman, head of the Marshall College German department, looks over one of the first copies of a new two-volume, seven-language dictionary for which he served as editorial consultant last year. The book is entitled "Britannica World Language Dictionary" and is the first of its kind. It contains simplified rules of grammar, pronunciation keys, and the translation of more than 5,000 words in English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Swedish and Yiddish. Dr. Lieberman aided in the compilation of the German section of the publication.

Three Marshall College graduates who were commissioned through ROTC upon graduation August 28 have been called to active Army duty, it was announced by Colonel William E. Grubbs, chief of West Virginia Military District. They are Second Lieutenants Edward D. Pratt of Wayne, Harold D. Bradshaw of Holden and Ralph W. Raikes of Point Pleasant. All commissioned in Ordnance, they reported to the student detachment at the Ordnance School at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., for temporary duty pending further assignment. Another Army Reservist, Sergeant Woodrow A. Fry, Jr., of Stillner, volunteered for two years of active duty and reported to the 3432d Service Unit Reception Station at Ft. Jackson, S. C.

Frank Gatski Makes It 100 In Row When Browns Play Green Bay Sunday

CLEVELAND, Ohio Oct. 17 —Among the most durable of professional football players, according to the National Football League's record book, are two men who played the unglamorous position of center for the New York Giants and Chicago Bears.

Mel Hein toiled 15 long years for the Giants, only one season short of the league record for longevity held by the Washington Redskins' Sammy Baugh, while Clyde (Bulldog) Turner put in 13 seasons with the Bears. Approaching their feats of durability is another center, Frank Gatski of the Cleveland Browns.

Gatski is only one of five Browns spending their tenth season in professional football, but he is unique in one respect. Whereas Otto Graham, Dante Lavelli, Lou Groza and Dub Jones all have had varying degrees of inactivity, the 240 pound Gatski has played through 99 consecutive games without relief on offense.

He will make it 100 in a row when the Browns meet the Green Bay Packers in their home game Sunday afternoon at Cleveland Stadium.

Although Gatski joined the Browns in their inaugural year of 1946, he did not inherit the center position until Mike Scarry retired to enter coaching in 1948. Since then the Browns have known no other center.

Gatski carries the philosophical attitude into his work, one acquired the first day he reported for football practice at Marshall College in West Virginia 15 years ago. Cam Henderson was the Marshall coach and like all coaches Cam delivered an opening-day message to his squad.

"Never forget one thing ol' Cam told us," Gatski recalls. "He told us to make the most of the gifts we have and be happy."

Gatski's gifts happen to be a powerful, massive body which makes him ideally equipped for the rugged duties of offensive center in professional football. In the words of Coach Paul Brown, Gatski is "split high" (meaning he has long legs, making it unnecessary for the quarterback to crouch while awaiting the snap of the ball) and the weight he carries makes him a hard man to move.

"You never have to worry much about the man in front of Gatski smashing through and messing up a play before it gets started," Otto Graham, the man behind Gatski most of the time, remarks.

Although now 33, Gatski still

gives no thought to retirement.

"But when I have to hang 'em up, I won't cry about it," Frank says. "I'll do like ol' Cam mentioned. I'll make the most of it and be happy. I can always hunt and fish."

Hunting and fishing, it happens, are Gatski's pastimes away from football. What's more, he does his hunting with a bow and arrow, Frank being in the archery business as well as football. He and his brother operate an archery supply store in his home town, Grant Town, West Virginia.

Archery is a popular sport in West Virginia, Gatski explained. There are five field courses in his surrounding territory and the state has six weeks of deer hunting for archers.

"I like to hunt with bow and arrow because it is safer," Gatski says. "You have to be as close as 20 yards to your target before firing and there isn't much chance of being hit by a stray arrow as there would be by a rifle shot. Then, too, it isn't as expensive. You can keep using those arrows over and over."

Gatski, who was born and raised in the coal-mining area of West Virginia, used to spend his off-seasons shoveling coal until he opened his present business. Back home in Grant Town, he lives with his wife and four children.

3 Important MAC Tests Scheduled For Saturday

By ERNIE SALVATORE
Advertiser Sports Editor

Three important Mid - American Conference games, every one of which has a direct bearing on first place, will be played next Saturday. Only last place and winless Western Michigan has non - conference action, entertaining Washington University of St. Louis at Kalamazoo.

In the conference headliner first place and defending champion Miami (2-0-0) meets the invading fourth-place Ohio University Bobcats (2-1-0) at Oxford.

In another important one Marshall (1-2-0), now in fifth place, travels to Kent, O., for a clash with the strong Kent Golden Flashes (1-0-1), tied for second place with unbeaten Bowling Green — a team which didn't figure much in pre-season ratings. Bowling Green (1-0-1) entertains sixth place Toledo (1-2-0).

Miami, one of the strongest teams ever developed in the conference, can all but clinch its second straight championship by turning back Ohio's bid. On the other hand, a win by Ohio plus victories by Kent and Bowling Green — would put the latter two in a first place tie; and move Ohio into a second place tie with Miami.

The possibility also exists for Bowling Green to be the undisputed conference leader by Saturday night. If the Falcons get past Toledo while Kent loses to Marshall and Miami to Ohio, the top rung will be theirs.

These are only a few of the possibilities. Many more exist.

Miami, unbeaten with four victories overall, took over first by thrashing the Big Green here Saturday night before 8,500 fans at Fairfield Stadium, 46-7.

Ohio, which had been leading the loop, was knocked to fourth place by Kent, 20-14, while Toledo picked up its first league win, 6-0, over weak Western Michigan. Bowling Green took care of non - member Baldwin-Wallace, 34-14.

Baldwin - Wallace has now lost two straight to Mid-American teams — losing 32-2 to Kent earlier in the season.

Looking ahead, Miami will still have games with Kent and Bowling Green after its encounter with Ohio and could conceivably encounter trouble.

But, the general consensus around the conference is that the Redskins are too tough for their own league. This became apparent September 24 when Miami whipped Northwestern of the Big Ten, 25-14. Last year, Miami knocked over Indiana, 6-0, also of the Big Ten.

The Redskins only play five MAC games this year, the minimum. Besides Northwestern it has defeated Xavier, 13-12, the team which will close Marshall's season here November 19, in non-league play. Remaining non-league forces are neighborhood rivals Dayton and Cincinnati.

If Miami can get through the season unbeaten it might wind up with a major bowl bid — the 'Gator in Jacksonville, Fla., perhaps, or the Sun Bowl, in El Paso, Texas.

'Caribbiana' Provides Noel Entertainment

By JAMES R. HAWORTH

Scenes from the West Indies spiritedly presented by a group of native singers and dancers, constituted novel and interesting entertainment for a Marshall College Forum audience last night in the college auditorium. The house was packed for the performance.

The presentation, under the name of "Caribbiana," comprised native songs and dances from Jamaica, Haiti, the Barbadoes and Trinidad; some sorrowful, some gay and all reflecting the daily life of the plain people of the Caribbean.

Bright and colorful costumes, and an ingratiating naivete in individual performances of the songs and dances made the program one of the exceptional interest and charm, which might have been heightened by addition of instrumentation. Accompaniments were by a piano and drum. The drummer, Robert Sanders, was featured in a solo performance that demonstrated remarkable dexterity and rhythmic patterns, along with achievement of extraordinary variations in dynamics and tone color.

Next Forum attraction will be U. S. Senators H. H. Humphrey and Alexander Wiley in a discussion of American foreign policy October 27.

Students Usher For Jane Hobson Benefit Concert

The Music Educators Club of Marshall College will furnish ushers for the Jane Hobson hospital benefit concert on Thursday at 8:15 P. M. at the city auditorium, Archie Snyder, vice-president of the organization, announced today.

Among those participating will be Barbara Flinn, Dorothy Cole, Mary Lou Farriss, Donita Bentley, Rosalie Hudson, Sue Ratcliffe, Mary Brumfield, Mary Richardson, Jennie Crookshanks, Barbara Kingsbury, Rosalie Cottrill, Carolyn Harvey, Marilyn Winters, Jim Pate and Archie Snyder.

Reserved seat tickets are available at the Kenney Music Co., 930 Third avenue. Entire net proceeds of the concert will go to the premature nursery of the Cobell - Huntington Hospital.

Washington Minister To Speak Here

Dr. George MacPherson Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church of Washington, D. C., often called the "Church of the Presidents" will speak at a convocation on Thursday at 11 A. M. in the Marshall College auditorium.

Dr. Docherty has been pastor of the Washington church since 1950, succeeding the late Peter Marshall, immortalized for his Christian charity in the book "A Man Called Peter."

Dr. Docherty was born in Glasgow and educated at Glasgow University where he received his A. B. and M. A. degrees. He was minister of Sandyhills Church of Scotland from 1939 to 1944. In 1949 he was appointed exchange preacher between Great Britain and the United States under the National Council of Churches of Christ.

Since joining the famed "Church of the Presidents" Dr. Docherty has had several sermons published in the Congressional Record, and has served as lecturer and preacher at conferences throughout the eastern United States.

He now broadcasts regularly on television under the auspices of the Washington Federation of Churches. He received his D. D. degree from Temple University in 1950.

State Press Group Meets Next Week

Newspaper men and women from all over the state will convene here next week at the conference and annual business meeting of the West Virginia Press Association.

Registration for the three-day meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 27. The Marshall College - Bowling Green University football game on Saturday afternoon, October 29, will conclude the session.

Woodyard Heads Grap

Henry C. Woodyard, publisher of the Spencer Times Record, is president of the association.

While a reception and party is listed on the program for Thursday evening, business and clinic sessions will not get under way until Friday morning. A procession of experts in various fields of the newspaper business will present programs throughout the day.

William L. Ryan, foreign affairs analyst for the Associated Press in New York City and an expert on Russia, will address the main convention banquet Friday evening. Friday afternoon will be devoted to workshops and clinics for the individual sections making up the press association.

The concluding business session is scheduled Saturday morning with election of officers and executive committee members and transaction of other Association business.

Dr. Smith To Give Talk At Meeting

Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president of Marshall College will address the first meeting of the Civic department of the Woman's Club of Huntington tomorrow noon at a luncheon meeting to be held at the club house.

Dr. Smith's subject will be "What Is Our Business". The department's theme this year is "Is This Our Business" dealing with education, Americanism, safety, good government, health and juvenile delinquency.

Current events will be given by Mrs. Otis Cavendish. The committee in charge of the luncheon includes Mrs. William Holmes Brown, chairman; Mrs. Harry L. Flowers, co-chairman and Mrs. J. B. Bowden, Mrs. Leland Bunch, Mrs. S. E. Cobble, Mrs. Bernard Derwacter, Mrs. Dorin C. Dowdy, Mrs. T. H. Eiselstein C. A. Hamill, Mrs. O. M. Hayden, Kenneth Heyl, Mrs. Okey Keadle, Mrs. P. H. Mabe, Mrs. Azel Meadows, Mrs. P. C. Morrison, Mrs. Herbert Neunauser, Mrs. V. L. Raney, Mrs. James C. Reilly, Mrs. Eugene Ruffier, Mrs. Clyde Slater and Miss Hope E. Downey.

Noted Clergyman To Lecture

The third Marshall College convocation of the year will feature Dr. George Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, in a lecture tomorrow at 11 A. M. in the college auditorium.

The men of the First Presbyterian Church will give a luncheon honoring Dr. Docherty at noon tomorrow at the Governor Cabell Hotel. Luncheon reservations may be made at the church office, 1015 Fifth Avenue.

Dr. Docherty, successor to the late Peter Marshall, immortalized for his indomitable spirit in the book and movie "A Man Called Peter," was born in Glasgow, Scotland. He was educated at the Glasgow University where he received his A. B. and M. A. degrees.

Since becoming pastor of the famous "Church of the Presidents" in Washington in 1950, Dr. Docherty has had several of his sermons published in the Congressional Record.

When I read of the terrific floods in the storm areas of Connecticut I began thinking of all the folks I know who are living in Darien, Norwalk, Stamford, and other towns affected by the rains and floods.

I first thought of Ann De Noon former Huntingtonian and retired Marshall College instructor who lives at Wilson Point, South Norwalk on Long Island Sound. I understand from friends though that she lives on a high point so I don't imagine her home is in any immediate danger.

Among key individuals participating in the West Virginia Education Association regional convention here are these at a "family luncheon" yesterday at the Hotel Frederick. From left, seated, are Elizabeth Anne Meek of Wheeling, state Classroom Teachers Association president; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Armstrong of Charleston (the latter state WVEA president); Mrs. Thelma Smith, Cabell County Education Association president; Phyllis Brown, exchange teacher from England, teaching in Raleigh County; Zena Torrence, exchange teacher from Wales, teach-

By HARRY FLESHER
While the regional convention of the West Virginia Education

Association which opened here yesterday and closes today is not, in the strictest sense, a business session, the subject of the WVEA fight for increased teacher salaries is one which comes up in virtually every gathering of the teachers.

The economic plight of the teacher in West Virginia and of the levying bodies which support the schools—the county school boards—is, in the view of the professional people here, a matter of grave concern to every business man and every community leader in the state.

The WVEA remembers the fight in a regular session of ing in Kanawha County; standing, Dr. Conley H. Dillon of Marshall College, Dr. James B. Shrewsbury, Jr., of Concord College, Kanawha County School Superintendent Virgil Flinn; L. K. Lovenstein of Charleston, immediate past WVEA president; Mrs. Nan T. Davis of Huntington, NEA director for West Virginia; Dr. Walter Snyder of Nitro, president of the state Secondary Principals organization; Dr. H. H. Ferrell of West Virginia State College and Cabell School Superintendent Olin C. Nutter, general arrangements chairman for the convention.

the Legislature this year and in a later session to provide state aid for increased salaries. The WVEA is laying ground work for a battle in the 1956 "short" session of the Legislature next January for affirmative action on higher salaries. The question of whether the constitution limits the "short" session in even years to budget matters or whether the teacher salary boosts may be acted on during the term is an important one. Executive Secretary Phares E. Reeder of the WVEA, in a message to the teachers delivered last night, pointed out that the legislative leaders pleaded earlier this year that the teachers salary question will come up in the "short" session.

The question of teacher salaries is tied to the entire program of the WVEA at this time, along with the matter of improved professional qualifications.

At a "family luncheon" yesterday at the Hotel Frederick attended by top WVEA officials and county presidents of education associations in the 19 counties which sent delegates to the regional conference, the subject was brought up repeatedly.

From Pocahontas County came the message that the budget there provides only for eight and one-half months of school in 1955-56, that voters recently rejected by a 4-1 margin a proposal for a special levy for school support.

From McDowell County came word that special three-year levies are devoted in a large measure to providing a $25 per month salary boost over the state minimum salary, that business men in the county are speaking in terms of devoting a larger share of the levy to salaries with the possibility the county "edge" over the state minimum will be $50 a month. Many are speaking in terms of a $100 "edge" from the special levy, it was reported.

Mason County reported a business men's voluntary movement to improve the lot of school teachers.

Many of the county organizations are planning to publish in newspapers lists of teachers who have left their counties to seek better salaries in other states.

Mrs. Lucille Armstrong of Charleston, WVEA president, told the teachers in her address at Memorial Field House that teachers must "forget their disappointments" and realize that "public support" of education is at an all-time high so far as community interest is concerned.

WVEA, it was pointed out, is in the midst of a campaign to raise from among its membership a total of $150,000 to be used in construction of a $5,000,000 National Education Association headquarters building in Washington.

The contributors are those who obtain life memberships in WVEA—the contribution in each case being $150.

Cabell County School Superintendent Olin C. Nutter is general chairman for the convention here.

Special mention was made at yesterday's group sessions of a series of "town meeting" sessions on school problems sponsored by the Cabell County Board of Education earlier this year.

Fraternity Plans Party

The annual hobo party of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity at Marshall College will be held from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M. Friday at the Police Recreation Center. Chaperones will be Dr. and Mrs. Donald C. Martin, Sergeant George Tope and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Steele.

Mack McClung is president of the fraternity, and Cecil Schulze social chairman, is in charge of the arrangements for the party.

Marshall Group To Attend Three-Day Religious Meet

More than 40 Marshall College students and faculty members will leave Huntington Friday for a three-day religious retreat at Bluestone Conference Center near Hinton.

According to the Rev. Lander Beal, campus religious counselor and SCA adviser, the group will leave the campus between 3 and 4 P. M. Friday, and will return to Huntington Sunday evening.

The general topic of the retreat will be "Focusing God in Our Lives." Speakers for the event will talk on the subjects: "Unreal Gods," "Making Your Religion Real," "Life's Basic Principles" and "My Vocation As A Christian Student."

Speakers will be the Rev. John Cooney, Marshall pre-ministerial student; the Rev. Fred B. Wayne, Hinton; the Rev. William Peters, Alderson; and the Rev. Lander Beal.

The group will be accompanied by George B. Corrie, associate professor of economics, Mrs. Corrie and Rogers McAvoy, assistant director of admissions.

The conference center is located on Bluestone Lake near Hinton and has boating, fishing and hiking facilities.

Music And Sports At Marshall Making Progress Back In 1901-2

By JAMES R. HAWORTH

Maria Ware Adams dropped in with nine issues of The Parthenon, Marshall College student publication, for 1902 to 1905, and we lost no time in getting into them. In the November 1, 1901 issue, Miss Maynie Ware, her sister, was introduced as a member of the faculty as teacher of oratory and physical culture. It was her second year in the position since she went to the college as a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory in Boston.

The music department was growing, the Parthenon said, with Miss Flora Hayes as teacher of piano and organ, G. B. Able as teacher of violin, and Miss Louise Fay as voice teacher. Miss Fay now is Mrs. C. E. Haworth. On her the Parthenon said, "She brings to bear upon her work not only New England energy, life, spirit and culture, but New England thoroughness in training in her department."

The athletic department was thriving also. The issue of May, 1902, told of Marshall victories over Morris Harvey College by a score of 32 to 3, over Proctorville by 25 to 4, over a Huntington team 13 to 4, and over an all-star aggregation selected by an otherwise unidentified Mr. Bias for the express purpose of beating Marshall. The score of that game was 19 to 18 in the college team's favor. Boyd Chambers was one of two Marshall pitchers. He and a player named Keller alternated at second base.

Other Marshall victories were by scores of 14 to 4 over Central City, and over an East End team by 16 to 4.

The issue of November, 1905, tells of a dramatic football victory by Marshall over Ohio University by a score of 8 to 5. Marshall scored a touchdown when Callaway went over the goal line after 7:46 minutes of play. Sharp kicked goal and the score was 8 to 0. How Ohio scored is related in piquant language:

"Marshall kicked to Ohio. Ohio fought their way to the middle field. Ohio's offense seemed stronger than ever. Marshall's defense showed up well. Ohio lost the ball several times. Marshall made some gains but not at will as in the first half.

"Punts were resorted to. Uncertainty and speculation as to the outcome increased, but finally Ohio fought their way within Marshall's five-yard line. Marshall held them once; Marshall held them twice; then there was a bare foot to gain. Ohio feigned a right end run and plunged their right halfback into Marshall's line with enough impetus to have shattered a wall. The touchdown was made. Would they kick the goal? Would they tie the score? The silence was painful. The try at goal failed. Score, Marshall 6 Ohio 5.

"There was nine minutes to play. Wells received the ball on his goal line and then commenced some spectacular gains by Wells, Callaway, Ruckman and Sharp. It seemed that Marshall might score again when a fumble lost the ball to Ohio. Ohio tried in every way to gain, but failed. The game ended with the ball in Ohio's territory."

L. J. Corbly, president of the college, was editor in chief of the Parthenon, and associate editors were Frances Callaway, Ethel Waddell, Nannie Marsh, Eva Fling, Boyce Fitzgerald, J. A. Fitzgerald and A. H. Jordan.

A special issue, undated, but, according to internal evidence, probably published in 1902, gives some interesting statistics about the college. These will be looked into here tomorrow.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

The Advertiser reported on October 18, 1905, that Henry H. Rogers and a party of high Standard Oil Co. officials had arrived here in two special cars on the B. & O. railroad from Pittsburgh to inspect the Milton oil and gas field.

The post office at Rockwood, O., was robbed of $87.34 in cash and an unknown amount of stamps. Sam Dock Smith, described as "the Wayne county detective", was a visitor in Huntington.

Vote Today Cuts College Queen Field

All but four of the 32 homecoming queen candidates competing for the title of "Miss Marshall" will be eliminated today when the Marshall College student body goes to the polls.

The students will nominate one each from the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes. Miss Marshall will be chosen from the four finalists next week.

Miss Marshall and her three attendants will reign over homecoming activities for the Marshall College-Bowling Green University football game Saturday, October 29. She will lead a parade and will be presented during intermission at a dance at Memorial Field House Saturday night.

Trophies will be given Miss Marshall and the first and second place winners in the men's and women's divisions of the organizational float contest during the intermission at the dance. Approximately twenty floats, representing twenty campus are expected to be in the parade.

Dr. Harper Gives Monument Report

10-2-55
Dr. Charles P. Harper, professor of political science at Marshall College participated in the proceedings of the annual meeting of the West Virginia Historical Society, at Buckhannon. Yesterday Dr. Harper, past president of the Society, and chairman of the committee on the development of Harpers Ferry National Monument and the committee on the establishment of Blennerhassett National Monument, reported on the progress made in these two historical areas.

Among those attending from Huntington besides Dr. Harper were Colonel and Mrs. Lawrence J. Ferguson.

DAR To Hear Dr. Harper

Dr. Charles P. Harper, professor of political science at Marshall College, will be the guest speaker at the first meeting Buford chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday at 2 P. M. in the chapter house in Ritter Park.

Dr. Harper will speak on "The Americanization of Aliens", a subject on which he is well qualified to speak, since he is director of the Marshall College Americanization program for the training of aliens in West Virginia for citizenship examinations. He has been in charge of the program since its inauguration in 1947.

Dr. Harper has represented the governor and the state and college at the last six National Citizenship Conferences held in New York and Washington. His program has been publicized in the quarterly publication of the Immigration and Naturalization Service and recommended to

Royer Disappointed In Marshall Eleven; Hints Possible Shakeup

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Marshall College football coach Herb Royer, admitting deep disappointment in his club for the first time this season, gave the Big Green a day off from practice today.

"It might do them good," said the downcast coach, peering out of an office window at a heavy rain. "The way they've been going recently, it can't do them any harm."

Last Saturday Marshall took its second trouncing in a row from Mid-American Conference competition, succumbing meekly to Kent State, 39-6. The week before, Marshall was blasted by defending champion Miami, 36-7.

In the conference, Marshall is now tied for sixth with a 1-3 record and overall has won two out of five. Coming up here next Saturday is a Homecoming contest with the MAC surprise of the year — Bowling Green.

The Falcons, winless in six league games last year, have won four games this season and tied one and is tied with Kent for second place in the conference at 2-0-1.

"They're a real, fired-up ball club," said Royer. "But, we're due to play ourselves a ball game and maybe we can do it for the old grads here Saturday."

Royer described Marshall's performance against Kent as "sophomoric."

"It was just like the Miami game," he said. "We defended for the most part except for long runs. And, we moved the ball very well and then would make some bad mistakes. I can excuse mistakes the first few times, but not when they are repeated over and over again."

The statistics for the game bear Royer out. Marshall rolled up 21 first downs to only 11 for Kent and yet managed to score but once while the Flashes tallied on runs of 85 yards by Mike Norcia, 42 by Jim Whitley, and pass-runs of 30 yards by Vince De Oreo and 43 yards by Red Redlin.

Asked if the poor showing by Marshall would result in a general shake-up of personnel, Royer said:

"Well, I'm going to talk that over with my assistants. It's a little late in the season to do anything drastic but we may make a few changes. We know that our line is very slow compared to the powers in the conference yet our first string replacements, who are faster, don't have the necessary experience. So, we're sort of caught in the middle there."

Royer said the absence of regular right end Dick Athey and right halfback Len Hellyer hurt Marshall on offense against Kent. Hellyer is the No. 1 offensive man on the Big Green and one of the leading scorers in the MAC.

Len, who was idled by a leg injury sustained in the Miami game, and Athey, out with a shoulder separation suffered against the Redskins, will both be ready for Bowling Green.

But, joining the Big Green hospital list is former East high star, No. 2 right halfback and sophomore, Cagle Curtis — a youngster who has been playing very well. Curtis suffered a dislocated elbow against Kent and is out for the season. Reserve center Stan Malecki went out for the season with a similar injury last week.

"Those are rare injuries," Royer observed, "and here we've been hit with two of them in one week."

About Town

Hardin Colfax

Randy Marrs says the Marshall College Alumni Association will have a cocktail party and meeting at 5 P. M. in the ballroom at Hotel Frederick October 29, which is homecoming day at the college. The homecoming dance will be that evening at Memorial Field House . . . Expected to be seen there are Pete Wilson, Bill Blevins, Charley Brooks, Dave Foard, Keith Taylor and other.

Cecil Schulze; Bill Plyhon, Charley Johnson, Mac McClung, Pete Valentine and Don Wilburn all looked like true hobos Friday night at the Lambda Chi Alpha hobo party. All were wearing frock coats with carnations and sophisticated head dress . . . It was a great party . . .

Glad to see George Reger back in town after a tour of Army duty. George says he is going to be working with his grandfather, Henry Reger and his dad, James Reger down at the Reger Funeral Home. George is a fine boy, and can he ever play the vibraphone. George and Colfax were college chums . . .

Ruth Nasser, a reader, asked poor old Colfax, "If an American airliner were to crash on the Canadian border and half of the wreckage was found on the American side and half on the Canadian side, where would the survivors be buried?" We were real smart and replied, "in the ground." "Nope," snapped Mrs. Nasser, "You don't bury survivors."

Mrs. Thelma Stout and her daughter, Lib, drove to Steubenville, O. this past week end to visit their son and brother, Harry, his wife and little daughter. . . Marion Johnson, former Huntington resident, now of Dayton, O., was in town for the week end to help her sister, Mrs. Ruth Blair, celebrate her birthday. . . Belated greetings, Ruth! . . .

One of the nicest and friendliest fellas Colfax knows is Don Childers, teller at the Huntington Trust and Savings Bank. . . Jimmie Cox has been transferred from Camp Gordon, Ga., to the Pentagon in Washington, D. C. . . Bob Hodge Jr., attended the West Virginia University - Penn State game Saturday at Morgantown. . . Among others attending the game was Janet Crooks, woman's page editor of The Advertiser. . . Janet's home is in Morgantown. . . She's a WVU grad. . .

Marshall Frosh Tackle Muskies Freshmen Friday

Marshall College's football yearlings, 1-1 on the season, will be on review for the last time Friday before the home folks, when they engage Xavier's freshmen at St. Clouds Commons. Despite absorbing a 72-0 drubbing from Cincinnati two weeks ago, Coach Bill Chambers has hopes for his athletes to come through with a fine performance.

The Little Green started the season fine enough by topping Greenbrier Military School, 14-0.

Scouts report that the Muskies have a strong squad. But, should Marshall recover from their last outing, they may present a problem to Xavier.

After this one, the Little Green will close their season with a contest against Ohio U next week at Athens.

Iron Man: Otto Graham played his 130th consecutive game—Every one the Cleveland Browns have started — Sunday against the Green Bay Packers. But don't forget the guy who gives Graham the ball, Frank (Gunner) Gatski, who was taught his football A-B-C's by Crafty Sam Bender, son of Marshall College. Gatski the 24-pound center, the former star for the Thundering Herd, has played 100 straight football games without relief at the center station. The 33-year-old West Virginian has been with the Browns since the club was organized in 1946. Aside from the fact that Frank is a bow-and-arrow archery guy, he has few other bad habits.

College Forum Is Postponed

The scheduled appearance tomorrow night of Senators H. H. Humphrey, Minnesota Democrat, and Alexander Wiley, Wisconsin Republican, as an attraction of the Marshall College Community Forum has been postponed because of the inability of Senator Humphrey to come to Huntington at this time.

Professor Curtis Baxter, forum manager, said yesterday a new date for their appearance will be announced.

Participating in the program at the Fellowship luncheon of the YWCA Friday noon were Mrs. Ed Compton, chairman of the United Nations committee for the League of Women Voters, who spoke on "The United Nations," and Mr. Leo Imperi, left, soloist and Mr. William Davidson, right, accompanist. Mr. Imperi and Mr. Davidson are members of the Marshall College music department. The program was arranged by Mrs. Sterling Hamlet, chairman of public affairs committee and Mrs. Walker Long, chairman of the YWCA music committee.

Pick College Queen Today

Marshall College students will go to the polls today to select one of four young women to reign as "Miss Marshall" for the 1955 college Homecoming festivities.

The four final queen candidates were chosen from 32 coeds in a general campus election last week. The four candidates are Jeannette Thabit, Spencer freshman; Barbara Snow, Summersville sophomore; Margaret Ann Taylor, Charleston junior, and Betty Ruth England, Alderson senior.

Miss Marshall and her three attendants will reign over homecoming activities for the Marshall College-Bowling Green University football game Saturday. She will lead the parade and will be presented during the intermission at the homecoming dance at Memorial Field House Saturday evening. Trophies will be given Miss Marshall and the first and second place winners of the men's and women's divisions of an organizational float contest during the intermission at the dance.

Hellyer And Athey Rejoin Big Green

Marshall's homecoming hopes were bolstered today by the announcement that halfback Len Hellyer and right end Dick Athey would be back in the starting lineup against Bowling Green Saturday.

Should the Big Green upset the Falcons, it would be its first homecoming win since 1949 when it downed Ohio University 14-7.

Bowling Green, tabbed the "surprise" team of the Mid-American Conference, is undefeated to date and has one tie, a 6-6 deadlock with Kent State.

Hellyer, of Logan, Marshall's leading ground gainer, was out last week with a leg injury, and Athey, of New Haven, with a shoulder separation.

Coach Herb Royer again is stressing defense in this week's practice, saying "it was the same old trouble last week," referring to the 39-6 loss to Kent State.

Two To Address Church Gathering

Dr. J. T. Richardson, head of the Marshall College sociology department, and the Rev. J. M. Bemiss, regional director of Christian education for the Presbyterian Church, U. S. will speak at a public dinner meeting at the Central Christian Church tomorrow night. They will discuss the meaning and the implications of Christian education in this day of shifting and growing population and of rapidly changing values.

This is the Disciples of Christ "Year of Christian Education" and the purpose of the dinner meeting is to acquaint the congregation with needs and plans for Christian education in the Central Church and in other Christian churches.

The pot-luck dinner will begin at 6 P. M. A nursery will be provided for children to four years, and a special program for children through the sixth grade.

Bliss Chaffield is beginning another year of scouting. Bliss has been a Boy Scout and leader for many years — and a good one too . . . Ed Dillon says the new Scout leaders roundtable will be a real success. Good luck to Ed and the leaders . . .

Johnny Earls, Johnny Woods, Jimmy Adams, Ernie Fox and Thurston Nicely make up a wonderful traffic detail. All are good looking men and very courteous . . . Now we know what football coaches do to settle their nerves before a big game. Johnny Cox and Claude Miller of HHS took in a movie just prior to the Pony Express-Logan game . . . Al (Orpheum Theatre) Cross had some very interesting tales to tell about his recent vacation. Wish old Colfax could have been along. . . . Al's trip was all the more interesting because George Brooks (Little Bear) went along, too.

Next time Huntington East's football team runs into a club like St. Albans, Coach Jim Cain might send out an SOS to Section 34 of Fairfield Stadium. Sitting up there Saturday night we saw Tommy Thompson, George Thompson, Alvin Foster, Gene Coleman and Ogden Thomas, all of whom were better than good footballers at East a few years back . . . Every time Colfax sees big Roger Wood, he wonders how Roger ever got to be his "little brother" in Kappa Alpha at Marshall. That guy's huge! . . .

Our good friend Brayton (Brady) Armes has finished 25 years of service with Owens-Illinois here, and will be given a gold watch at a service awards banquet November 7. Congratulations, Brady . . . ## London Philharmonia Plays Three Major Works Monday

Three symphonic works will be presented by the London Philharmonia Orchestra in a concert Monday at 8:30 P. M. at the Keith-Albee Theater as a feature of the Marshall College Artists Series.

Herbert Von Karajan will conduct the organization in Symphony No. 39 in E Flat Major by Mozart, Variations on a Theme by Haydn, Opus 56, Brahms, and Symphony No. 5 in E Flat Major by Sibelius.

The London Philharmonia is the youngest major orchestra in Europe, but has been described as "by general consent the best in England." It was organized in 1945 by Walter Legge.

The orchestra played in Washington last Sunday to open its U. S. tour, which will last a month. This week it presents four concerts in Carnegie Hall in New York.

The 105 artists with their 8,000 pounds of luggage traveled by air from London to New York.

Sorority Alumnae To Meet Tonight

The Alpha Sigma Alpha alumnae will meet at the sorority house, 1657 Fifth avenue, tomorrow at 8 P. M. Mrs. Joe Dial, president will preside at the business session.

Jamie Johnston a student at Marshall College will show slides of his recent trip to Mexico and California. He is president of the junior class this year.

Mrs. Everett Wollum and Mrs. E. D. Cyrus will be the hostesses.

Announcement of the appearance here of the June Taylor dancers, November 8 at the Keith-Albee theatre as a Marshall College Artist Series extra, brought to my mind a former dancer in this troupe. She is Mrs. Phil Gray, formerly Peggy Ford, daughter of Josephine Ford, of the Ford School of the Dance and Bill Ford.

Peggy traveled with this troupe all over the country for four years and she was one of the best. That was before her marriage and before the troupe became famous on Jackie Gleason's TV show over CBS.

Josephine Ford tells me she is looking forward to seeing June Taylor, if she comes here with her dancers.

Alumnae Will Meet

The alumnae chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority at Marshall College will meet at 8 P. M. tonight at the sorority house, 1657 Fifth Avenue. Mrs. Joe Dial will preside.

Jamie Johnston will show slides of his trip to California and Mexico. Hostesses will be Mrs. Everett Wollum and Mrs. C. V. Cyrus.

Touchdowners Dine Tomorrow

The Marshall Touchdown Club will meet for the fifth time this season tomorrow for another luncheon session at the Hotel Prichard.

Films of last week's Marshall-Kent State game, won by Kent, 39-6, will be shown with head coach Herb Royer providing the commentary.

The luncheon will begin at 12 noon with the public urged to attend.

Honorary To Install

Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics honorary at Marshall College, will hold installation services at 2:30 P. M. Sunday in Northcott Hall. The alumnae chapter will entertain the actives with a tea following the ceremony.

MARSHALL COLLEGE students will hold a panel discussion in connection with United Nations Week, which opens today. The panel will be broadcast over WSAZ-TV Friday under sponsorship of the International Relations club at the college. Each member represents one of the United Nations members. Specific issues before the U. N. will be discussed. In the group are Jackie Schulze, Janny Ruth Ross, Robert Scaub, Arvel Trent, A. J. ## NOMA Hears Miami Dean

Dr. William E. Smith, dean of the graduate school of Miami University, Oxford, O., will address the "Management Night" dinner meeting of the Huntington Chapter, National Office Management Association, at 6:30 P. M. Tuesday at the Hotel Prichard, it is announced by B. W. Lovins, the chapter's program chairman. Dr. Smith's subject will be "Trends in Transition."

Members will have as their guests a number of management executives from Huntington area industries, and any other management people who may be interested are invited to be present, Mr. Lovins said. Reservations may be made by calling Miss Jeanne Owen at Marshall College, telephone 33411.

Dr. Smith, who spoke before the Office Management Association here in February, 1952, is a professor of history in the Miami graduate school, and is an authority on many aspects of the mid-western region of the United States.

He is the editor and publisher of a number of historical books, and is listed, among others, in the "Who's Who Among North American Authors," and the "World's Who's Who." He has been a lecturer on "Contemporary American Problems in Relation to World Affairs" at the University of Cincinnati since 1932. He was chosen as speaker of the year and au-

Mr. Hoback resides at 809 Fourth street.

MC Runners Top W. Va. Wesleyan

Marshall College's cross-country team defeated West Virginia Wesleyan yesterday, 24-34, on the Ritter Park course.

Although Wesleyan's Dan Weeks finished first, Marshall had six men finishing in the first eight to win. Weeks' ran the distance in 22 minutes, 21.2 seconds. Marshall's John Maybury was second at 22:48.

Results: Weeks, (W), Maybury (M), Jay Frazier (W), Fred Pyles (M), Bill Bales (M), Jim Smith (M), Dave McLane (M), Steve Bias (M), B. Hoffman (W), B. Printz (W), J. McLean (W), R. Wiseman (W), J. Tissot (W).

KENT BIG GREEN OFFENSE BOTTLED

KENT, Ohio, Oct. 22 (AP)—Kent State, getting two touchdowns within 34 seconds in the first period, overwhelmed Marshall 39-6 today in a Mid-American Conference football game.

It was Kent's third straight victory against one defeat and a tie. Marshall now has a 2-3 record.

Marshall, scoring in the final period, was able to get only as far as Kent's 44 in the first quarter. Kent's 37 in the second and Kent's 45 in the third.

Statistically, the contest was closer than the score indicated with the Big Green gaining 21 first downs to Kent's 11. Kent gained only 14 more yards rushing than the Big Green's 230 and had an even smaller edge in passing yardage with 115 yards gained to Marshall's 103.

Marshall got started on its futile final period score when it received

Zban's next pass, to Ray Dunlap, was good for 46 yards and the touchdown.

Jim Whitley was the big gun in the Kent offensive, scoring two touchdowns.

Kent barreled down the field after taking the opening kickoff and scored when Brian Burke hurled a 30-yard pass to Jim De Oreo. A Marshall fumble gave Kent possession of the ball almost immediately and Whitley made

TRANSPORTATION

Teams housed at the Marshall College Dorm will be able to park their cars at the rear of the dorm. Free bus transportation for these teams while competing will be furnished by Marshall College if the coach desires. He may make arrangements with Mr. Tom Bolyard, Supt. of Buildings and Grounds at Marshall College, or with this office.

Bus transportation from the hotels to the field house will be available on a continued basis throughout the playing times at the tournament. There are several parking lots and garages near the various hotels for coaches or school officials who wish to park their cars during the tournament.

Arrangements are being made to transport the press officials who wish, to the Field House and return. For those press and radio men and officials of the tournament who wish to drive to the Field House there will be parking space to the rear of the Field House. Admittance to this lot will be by pass only. Please secure yours at the time you get your badges.

The early scoring by Kent discouraged Marshall, however, and the Big Green's defenses tightened up and held the Golden Flashes scoreless for the remainder of the half.

Kent's power began to tell as the game got under way in the second half and Marshall's lack of reserve depth began to take its toll.

The loss of junior Len Hellyer, who sat the game out due to a leg injury, was compensated for by sophomore Ray Dunlap, who replaced starter Don Adkins midway in the fray and gained 71 yards in six carries, one of them the 46-yard pass-run play which gave the Big Green their lone tally.

KENT BIG GREEN OFFENSE BOTTLED

KENT, Ohio, Oct. 22 (AP)—Kent State, getting two touchdowns within 34 seconds in the first period, overwhelmed Marshall 39-6 today in a Mid-American Conference football game.

It was Kent's third straight victory against one defeat and a tie. Marshall now has a 2-3 record.

Marshall, scoring in the final period, was able to get only as far as Kent's 44 in the first quarter, Kent's 37 in the second and Kent's 45 in the third.

Statistically, the contest was closer than the score indicated with the Big Green gaining 21 first downs to Kent's 11. Kent gained only 14 more yards rushing than the Big Green's 230 and had an even smaller edge in passing yardage with 115 yards gained to Marshall's 103.

Marshall got started on its futile final period score when it received

Zban's next pass, to Ray Dunlap, was good for 46 yards and the touchdown.

Jim Whitley was the big gun in the Kent offensive, scoring two touchdowns.

Kent barreled down the field after taking the opening kickoff and scored when Brian Burke hurled a 30-yard pass to Jim De Oreo. A Marshall fumble gave Kent possession of the ball almost immediately and Whitley made

It was Miami's fifth straight victory without a defeat and Ohio U. now has a 3-2 mark. Smith's run came after the Bobcats had held the heavily favored Miami team scoreless in the first quarter and had penetrated to Miami's 20 as the quarter ended. Then Smith picked off a Bobcat fumble in mid-air and went all the way behind a wall of blockers. AFTER THAT IT was no contest. The Redskins picked up two more touchdowns in that quarter with Dave Thelen and Mike Lane setting them from inside the five-yard line.

Marshall To Meet Kent State Today In Mid-American Conference Contest

Marshall College's football squad is scheduled to go up against Kent State this afternoon at 2 P. M. in a Mid-American Conference game which the Golden Flashes must win to stay in second place in the loop.

The Big Green, a 21-point underdog, can get back in the running for the MAC marbles with an upset win, which statistics show them capable of pulling.

The big fly in Coach Herb Royer's ointment is the fact that his top ground gainer, junior Len Hellyer, will be out of the game due to some pulled ligaments in his leg. Also on the injured list is another regular starter end Dick Athey.

Coach Royer said he plans to replace Hellyer with junior Don Adkins, sophomore Ray Dunlop or senior Dyke Six. Junior end Campbell Platt will take over Athey's post. The rest of the starting lineup will be the same unit which faced Miami of Ohio last Saturday.

Both teams will go into the contest with identical 2-1-1 season records but Kent boasts a better MAC mark of 1-0-1 as compared with Marshall's 1-2 slate.

Their one common foe to date has been Ohio University, which clipped the Big Green, 13-6, and went on to drop a decision to the Golden Flashes, 20-14.

The Big Green departed Huntington by bus yesterday at 8 A. M. and arrived at Kent, in time for a light workout in Kent Stadium, at 4:30 P. M. They stayed in the Portage Hotel at Akron last night.

After today's game, the Big Green will travel to Columbus where they will lay over at Neal House before returning to Huntington Sunday.

Alumni Give Homecoming Party Oct. 29

As part of the over all Marshall College Homecoming Day festivities, Marshall Alumni Association will have an after-game alumni party at the Hotel Frederick next Saturday.

The social get-together will begin at 5 P. M. after the Marshall College-Bowling Green University football game, according to Mrs. Mary Tipton Peters, arrangements committee chairman. All Marshall alumni are invited.

PARADE AT NOON

The party will be part of the general Homecoming Day activity which begins Saturday morning. The program will get under way officially when the annual homecoming parade steps off at noon.

Floats and floral arrangements of approximately 20 campus fraternities, sororities, and independent organizations will highlight the march to Fairfield Stadium.

Five bands, including the Marshall College marching unit, will provide music. Band participating will be from Huntington East High School, Huntington Central High School, Douglass High School and Vinson High School, according to Albin Wheeler, parade marshal.

DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT

The parade will be led by the campus queen, "Miss Marshall" and her three attendants. The queen and her attendants will be chosen by the student body. Candidates are Betty Ruth England, Alderson senior; Margaret Taylor, Charleston junior; Barbara Snow, Summersville sophomore; and Jeanette Thabet, Spencer freshman.

Miss Marshall will reign over the game. A homecoming dance at Memorial Field House from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M. and will feature Art Mooney and his orchestra.

Trophies will be given Miss Marshall and the first and second place winners of the men's and women's division of the float contest at the dance.

Good Must Come From Within, Dr. Docherty Tells Students

"Do you want to believe in Christ?" was the question raised by Dr. George Docherty at a convocation yesterday in the Marshall College Auditorium.

Dr. Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, delivered a sermon on the problem of conscious and subconscious denial of the Scriptures, in which he pointed out that the ability of man to change for the better lies within his own mind; rather than in the efforts of others to convert him to right.

Using alcoholism as an example, Dr. Docherty told of a young man lost in the depths of his own degradation. Though he was offered an opportunity to make a better life, not once but many times, he was unable to do so because he lacked the spiritual impetus, the real desire to do better.

Speaking of the shortcomings of intellectualism and scientific reasoning, Dr. Docherty pointed to faculty as well as students, who too often require some proof, some factual data that Jesus Christ exists as depicted in the Bible.

"Science," he said, "believes it must have facts before it can believe, when the one thing science knows is that it doesn't know the facts. More faith is placed in science today than in religion itself."

In closing, Dr. Docherty called upon members of the audience to live a single, not a double life, with a singleness of purpose.

State Press Group To Meet

Representatives of more than 100 West Virginia daily and weekly papers and trade publications will gather in Huntington next week end for the fall convention of the West Virginia Press Association.

Opening Thursday with committee meetings, and a reception that night, the meeting will continue with a 13-hour schedule of business and social activities for the newsmen and their wives, and wind up with the Marshall-Bowling Green (Ohio) homecoming football game Saturday.

The high point of the convention will be the Friday banquet, at which two selections to the West Virginia Journalism Hall of Fame will be announced, and William L. Ryan news analyst, will speak.

RYAN is an expert on Russian affairs.

The West Virginia Motor Truck Association will be host to the convention at a Friday breakfast.

The Hall of Fame nominees include:

Franklin William Rose, British-born editor and publisher of the Piedmont Herald for 32 years until his death in 1919.

Nathaniel P. Willis, who established at Shepherdstown in 179 the first newspaper within what is now West Virginia, the Potomac Guardian and Berkeley Advertiser;

Former Gov. John J. Cornwell, for many years editor and publisher of the Hampshire Review at Romney, and Hugh Ike Shott, former U. S. Senator and publisher of the Bluefield daily newspapers until his death in 1953.

For the ladies, the convention program includes a Friday tour of the Blenko Glass Plant, manufacturer of internationally-marketed stained glass.

Henry C. Woodyard, of Spencer is president of the Press Association.

The 32 Marshall College coeds who are candidates for "Miss Marshall of 1955" are mighty pretty gals. I know only one or two so I am judging from their photographs appearing in this weeks Parthenon.

I would have to select five girls for the title. However, the most beautiful girl pictured in the school newspaper is Dianne Wilson. The five I would select are Dianne Wilson, Jo Ann Walters (who was my assistant for several months), Donna June Davis, Joyce Lickliter, and Ruth Elaine Hoff. All the girls are quite attractive.

Drudgery Is Price Of Success, Marshall Prexy Tells Teachers

(Special To The Advertiser)

PARKERSBURG — Calling for greater emphasis in schools on work and less on self-indulgence, Marshall College President Stewart H. Smith said today that "the price of victory and success in life is hard, accurate, repetitious and slogging work."

Dr. Smith addressed the West Virginia Classroom Teachers Association, meeting in connection with the regional meeting of the West Virginia Education Association in Parkersburg.

Today our students can paint landscapes, twirl batons, dance the rhumba — they can do everything but study," Dr. Smith told the group at Parkersburg high school. "I believe the best way to develop basic virtues in children is to encourage them to do their daily work well. Teach them that drudgery is the price of success."

The Huntington educator asserted that a philosophy of education should not undervalue the importance of hard work.

"I believe," he said, "the time has come when we must place a greater emphasis upon the mastering of subject matter."

Dr. Smith called for teachers to strengthen six basic ethical and spiritual values in American life: The supreme importance of the individual, moral responsibility, respect for the will of the majority, devotion to truth, respect for work and moral equality.

"Let us remember," the Marshall president urged, "that each boy and girl is a human being capable of almost unlimited growth under sympathetic and wholesome guidance. Let us renew our faith in ourselves, in the power of education, in the integrity and intelligence of our students and in the supreme importance of ethical principles."

Dr. Smith's address on "What a Teacher Needs!" was a highlight of today's morning session of WVEA and affiliated organizations.

J. F. Moses Buys Pontiac Agency

J. F. Moses of Ashland announced today that he has acquired the Huntington Pontiac auto franchise formerly held by the late Willie Green.

Mr. Moses, a Huntington native who moved to Ashland from Welch last May, took over operation of the local Pontiac agency this week. He said he plans to continue with the present staff of employees.

They included Harold Reese, who has been with the company 14 years, as general sales manager; William Sizer, service manager; Raymond Coleman, parts manager; Burl Lykins, used car manager; and 16 others.

The agency will remain at 435 Fourth avenue, Mr. Moses said.

He did not disclose the purchase price.

Mr. Moses was graduated from Marshall College in 1940 and moved to Welch in 1946. He operated the Ford agency there for nine years.

He is a member of the Ashland Rotary club, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is married to the former Sue Harris of Welch and has two sons, aged eight and six and a daughter, aged one.

Committee Is Working Hard For Marshall's Homecoming

By LAVERNE LOGAN

Members of the homecoming committee have been busy since school began making preparations for this year's homecoming October 29. Some of the duties of the committee are to engage an orchestra for the homecoming dance and supervise drawings for positions of floats in the parade. They are also in charge of the trophies for the winning floats.

Retreat To Begin

The Student Christian Association's annual retreat will be at Bluestone Conference Center near Hinton, W. Va., Friday through Sunday, October 21-23. The general topic of the retreat is "Focusing God In Our Lives."

The Bluestone Conference Center is located on Bluestone Lake and has boating and fishing facilities. Students can also participate in hiking and other outdoor sports.

Pineville Man Chosen

Kenneth Litton, Pineville senior, was elected Chief Justice of the Student Court. The new Chief Justice defeated Larry Hite, Huntington senior. Litton is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon social fraternity and The Robe, men's honorary.

Charles Le Sueur, South Charleston senior and president of Tau Kappa Epsilon has been appointed adviser to the grand national president of the fraternity.

Scholarship Fund

The class of 1919 has established the Alex Booth Memorial Scholarship Fund. This fund will be administered by the College Scholarship Committee. The scholarship is open to any junior who displays both ability and a need for assistance. In the event no junior qualifies the committee will use its own discretion as to how the $1,000 fund will be used.

Cavaliers Pledge 19

The Cavalier Club, men's independent social organization, pledged nineteen new members the first semester.

The new pledges are: Bill Miller, Buffalo; Bob Cloe and Kenneth Lilly, Beaver; John Warner, Paul Burford and John Robinson of Charleston; Richard Harmon, Gene Crum and Don McNew of Ripley;

Marshall Eleven Leaves Today For Kent Contest

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

The Marshall College football team left Huntington at 8 o'clock this morning aboard a special bus bound for Kent, O.

Tomorrow, it'll clash with Kent State University in the Golden Flash's Homecoming game. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 o'clock in this battle of Mid-American Conference teams.

The Big Green's itinerary for the trip includes a work in the Kent Stadium at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. After that the team will bus into Akron and the Portage Hotel where it will be quartered.

After the game tomorrow, the squad will travel to Columbus and lay over at the Neal House before returning to Huntington Sunday.

Kent will be Marshall's fifth opponent of the season and third in the conference. In three conference starts to date, Marshall has whipped Western Michigan, 28-0, and lost to Ohio, 13-6, and Miami of Ohio, 46-7.

In a non-conference start the locals easily got by Morris Harvey, 46-7.

Kent has a 2-1-1 record to date, getting victories over Baldwin-Wallace, 33-2, and Ohio, 20-14, while tying Bowling Green, 6-6, and losing to Dayton, 26-13. In conference play the Flashes are tied with second with Bowling Green at 1-0-1.

Coach Trevor J. Rees' team must get by Marshall tomorrow to stay in second place by the time it faces powerful Miami one week from Saturday. Miami, on Saturday, tangles with Ohio while Bowling Green and Toledo meet.

Just before leaving this morning, head coach Herb Royer said that junior Campbell Platt will replace the injured Dick Athey at an end post, and either junior Don Adkins, sophomore Ray Dunlap or senior Dyke Six would be at right halfback in place of the injured Len Hellyer.

The loss of Hellyer, who pulled some ligaments against Miami last week, is a severe blow to the Marshall attack. The Logan junior is the No. 1 scorer with seven touchdowns, and ground gainer with better than 400 yards, on the Big Green team.

Otherwise Marshall will open against Kent with its regular starting eleven.

Though Kent has a slightly better record and more depth, Marshall is superior to the Flashes in almost every major team department statistically.

In the four games each has played to date, Marshall has 52 first downs to 53; completed 11 out of 30 passes for 231 yards and three touchdowns to 13 out of 40 for 198 yards and one touchdown; picked up 1,220 yards on total offense with only 212 plays, compared to 1,085 for Kent on 222 plays; averaged 5.7 yards per play to 4.8 for the Flashes.

Marshall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
J. M. Ford of Charleston.

Basketball honors are coming early this season to center Charlie Slack of Marshall . . . He has been named to the pre-season All-Midwest team selected by 1,000 experts throughout the country for a Dell Publications' magazine which is titled, "Basketball," (what else?) . . . Slack earned his honor by winning the national rebounding championship with a fine 25.6 per game mark . . . He also had a 19.4 scoring average in helping the Big Green to an 18-3 record . . . Charlie was 30th in the nation in shooting with his 47.5 percentage . . . With Charlie on the All-Midwest quintet are such stars as Bill Logan of Iowa, Dave Piontek of Xavier, Ron Kramer of Michigan and Paul Judson of Illinois . . . In the same issue, Rod Hundley of West Virginia was named to the first team pre-season All American . . . Named as outstanding stars in the mid-west were Marshall's "Gold Dust" twins from South Charleston — forward Cebe Price and guard Paul Underwood . . .

Since Kent State is Marshall's next football opponent, let's dig into The Parthenon's files and see what the Marshall student newspaper says about how Kent got its "Golden Flashes" handle:

"A fire had something of an indirect effect on the naming of Kent State the "Golden Flashes," says The Parthenon. "Before the 1920's all Kent State athletic teams had been known as the Silver Foxes. The name was derived from former President McGilvrey's silver fox farm which he ran in conjunction with his duties at the university.

"Later, the silver fox farm burned . . . and with it went the silver fox nickname. A contest was held in the early 1920's among the members of the student body to gain a new name. 'Golden Flashes' was the winner . . ."

The 72-0 defeat pinned on the Marshall Frosh last week by Cincinnati University's first year men isn't as bad as it sounds when you investigate the case . . . Two-thirds of the Cincinnati squad is composed of service returnees, and all of them were in their 20's . . . It was a case of men against boys that made the game a shambles . . . Marshall's freshmen players are just that — freshmen, in age, physical strength, etc. . . . Knowing this, why bother sacrificing our excellent first year material each year by sending it into the Cincinnati meat-chopper for freshman contests? . . . The first string Cincinnati yearling squad, according to reports, is good enough right now to defeat most teams in the Mid-American Conference . . . Incidentally, the Bearcats will gladly return to the MAC, which it quit several years ago, to go "big time." . . .

Skeets Throckmorton, a likeable young fellow, has assumed the statistical duties for Marshall athletic teams . . . Meanwhile, the Marshall athletic publicity service continues to be the worst in the Mid-American Conference . . . The reason: no dough . . . The story about Frank Gatski, Marshall's gift to the Cleveland Browns, made all major wire services last week . . . E. E. Ritter, the gentleman sportsman, has returned from a tour of regional harness tracks . . . E. E. is one fellow who really enjoys himself . . . Against Marshall last Saturday Miami's right halfback, Tom Troxell, personally gained 172 yards rushing in nine carries for 11.4 average . . . Toledo, a future Mid-American opponent for the Big Green, has played before 46,900 fans in five games . . . Largest road game attendance was the 13,200 turnout at Detroit for the Detroit U. encounter . . . Biggest home crowd: 9,500 for the Eastern Kentucky date . . .

Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League, is a genius when it comes to getting himself out of tight spots, even though his girth is quite large (an understatement).

At a weekly sports luncheon in Philadelphia this week, Bell was asked the following question by sportscaster Bosh Pritchard, a former Philadelphia Eagle halfback:

"Suppose we're trying for the extra point and the ball, after it's kicked, bursts in the air, half of it going over the crossbar and half of it under. What happens?"

"You're out $17.50," replied the commish. Adm 10-2-05

Germans Work Hard To Make Comeback

Adm By PAGE PITT 10-21-55

WESTERN GERMANY — Grim, grateful, grimy. We landed in Hamburg, moved to Frankfurt, and then to Mainz. Found the people grim with a dogged determination to come back. In Hamburg they are grateful — billions of Marshall plan dollars are building a shiny new city. Grimy with the rubble of bombed buildings in Frankfurt and Mainz.

to journalism.

In Hamburg we met Herr Hans Von Der Dekken, deputy chief editor of Welt Am Sonntag, largest weekly newspaper in Germany. It is part of the Axel Springer chain. Herr Springer controls more newspapers, including big dailies, than any other man in Western Germany. Herr Von Der Dekken told us about how journalists were trained before the war, but said that now most newspapers in Western Germany are being run by old newsmen who left Berlin and the Russian controlled Eastern Germany for freedom.

Huntington Hamburgers Better

Had hamburgers in Hamburg, frankfurters in Frankfurt—but they are not as good as you can get at Wiggins, Brackman's or the Orange Bowl. Looked in vain for metzwurst, bratwurst, or any good German sausage. Should have listened to geographer Bob Britton when he told me that countries in the throes of economic recovery generally export their best products and keep the poorer grade for home consumption. Bob and his colleague at Marshall, Leslie Davis, have been drinking specially imported English tea for years.

Colonel Bill O'Neal and wife Jane met us at the Rhein-Main airport. Colonel O'Neal started the ROTC at Marshall College. They hadn't seen anyone from Huntington since Dr. and Mrs. Joe Ricketts visited them in The Hague early this year. They put us up in their luxurious Mainz apartment, where sons Douglas and Bill showered us with questions about their friends on Rosalind and Pea Ridge roads. The colonel has been moved up from The Hague to Mainz as deputy commander of the largest U. S. Army ordnance maintenance depot in Europe.

Twenty-three hundred workers and looking for more. They rehabilitate all the equipment the Army uses from wrist watches to heavy tanks and the atomic cannon. Jane O'Neal is playing an antique foot-pedal organ, which she calls a "harmonium." Is sorry she can't find enough sheet music over here. The O'Neals introduced us to Westphalia ham, but we all agreed that we would settle for a slice of good old West Virginia ham cured and smoked by R. F. Steiner or K. C. Waldo — if we didn't have to side in the perennial Steiner-Waldo smokehouse feud.

There are still blocks and blocks of gutted buildings desolate in gaunt, skeleton relief against the sky, sunlight glaring through jagged holes.

The first German university student I met knew textbook English and wanted to talk. He wanted to know if I was a "Professor of Finance." Asked me please to explain where so much American money comes from. He asked if we didn't spend lots of money to come into the war to destroy Germany, and now are spending "maybe more" in putting back what we tore down. He said, with awe in his voice, "We here in Hamburg have received more than twelve billion Marshall dollars." I changed the subject

Gutenberg Bible On Display

Frankfurt on Main newsmen are fireballs in writing stories. They get in as many facts as Dorothy Buzek. Some are complacently casual in gathering news. If a story isn't in their "line" or doesn't strike their fancy, they shrug it off with "Oh, well. Somebody else in the office will pick it up." They insist that Frankfurt is not on the "mane," but on the "mine." Tilt-ing their steins, they admonish: "You can have your state of Maine and your Main Street, but we have our 'Mine' (Main)." They talk of the fine reputation of Prof. Karl d'Ester, of Munich, who lead the way in teaching journalism in German universities.

Mainz, in a broad sweep of the beautiful Rhine valley, has preserved intact that shrine of printers, the Johannes Gutenberg museum. Gutenberg printed his first Bible five centuries ago this year. He finished the job in the fall of 1455. The museum was evacuated during the bombing of Mainz and Dr. Helmut Presser, curator, told us that not one of the treasures had been damaged. An original Gutenberg Bible is displayed under glass, behind locked and guarded doors. They printed a page for us, using replicas of Gutenberg's original movable type and equipment.

Dr. Presser said that of the 200 Bibles of the first edition, Gutenberg printed 30 on parchment, using the skins of 10,000 calves. He exhausted all of his and his father's money on the project. An attendant explained that Gutenberg required not one fatted calf, but thousands of them. "He left Mainz for a time to escape a breach of promise suit."

Castles Overlook Rhine Valley

Later copies of Gutenberg Bibles are also on display. The museum is in a block-long building, with everything catalogued in German. Translators are available. While we were there three sizable groups of touring Germans were escorted through.

Up and down stream from Mainz the Rhine River narrows. The hillsides on either hand are covered with vineyards. Many of the higher hills are topped with centuries-old Teutonic castles, seemingly still on guard.

Informed folks are cheering the reality of the German comeback. "There is no miracle of prosperity here. It is a miracle of grueling work." Daylight to dark, and then flood lights. There is a bit of edginess at times towards Americans. One of our consulate officers told us at dinner that he was going out the next day to dig a bucket of worms. Committees of German citizens were complaining that the terrific noise and vibration from U. S. Air Force jets flying over the countryside was killing the earthworms, which would ruin the soil. The official's answer was a bucket of live, wiggly worms, which he dug himself, a committee watching.

Off for Switzerland—Zurich, Bern, and Geneva—via Swissair.

Marshall, Kent Start Altered Lineups Today

(Special To The Advertiser)

KENT, Ohio. — Kent State University football coach Trevor Rees plans two changes in his starting lineup here today when the Golden Flashes (2-1-1) play Homecoming host to Marshall College (2-2) in a Mid-American Conference contest. The kickoff is 2 o'clock.

One change will have Brian Burke, sophomore from Cleveland, starting at quarterback on the No. 1 unit. Bob Simmac of Barberton, previous number one signal caller, will pilot the No. 2 unit which Rees plans to substitute in alternate quarters.

Switches West

In the other change, Rees has switched 170-pound Mel West, also from Cleveland, to the starting fullback position in place of hometown boy Bill Blair, who will work with the second unit.

Marshall will also present a slightly altered lineup, due to injuries, however. Regular right halfback Len Hellyer, one of the conference's leading offensive men, has a pulled leg muscle and will be replaced by either junior Don Adkins, sophomore Ray Dunlap or senior Dyke Six. Campbell Plati, a junior from New Jersey, will be the starting right end in place of junior Dick Athey who has a shoulder separation.

Today's game is a very important one for both squads. Kent, which has a 1-0-1 MAC record, must win to either stay in second place or move into the conference lead. Leading Miami (2-0), which belted this same Marshall team last week, 46-7, in the Big Green's home town of Huntington, W. Va., has a date with fourth place Ohio. If the Redskins defeat the Bobcats as expected, Kent, by beating Marshall, will remain close enough to Miami for their upcoming game next week — a game which could decide the MAC championship.

Third In Series

A victory by Marshall today plus a Miami win would give Kent's title hopes a severe setback.

Today's game is the third in the series between Kent and Marshall and the invading Big Green has yet to take one from the Flashes.

The series began in 1952 with Kent winning, 26-14. In 1953, the Flashes won, 27-7, and repeated last year, 41-20, in Huntington. But, that was a closer game than the score indicates. Marshall scored three times in the second half after finishing the first three touchdowns behind.

Sparking the Kent attack this year has been senior fullback Mike Norcia, a gentleman weigh-of 166 yards on 31 carries and fullback George Templin with 182 yards in 31 carries.

In non-conference games this year Kent has beaten Baldwin-Wallace, 33-2, and bowed to Dayton, 26-13. In conference play the Flashes were tied by surprising Bowling Green, 6-6, and then whipped Ohio last week, 20-14.

Marshall has defeated Morris Harvey, 46-7, outside of the MAC, and beaten Western Michigan for its only league win, 28-0. The Big Green bowed to Ohio, 13-6, the only common foe the teams have played, and to Miami, 46-7.

Hellyer Leading Green

Junior halfback Len Hellyer

continued to be the individual offensive leader for the Marshall College football team, statistics released today by the athletic office disclosed.

Hellyer, who will probably miss Saturday's road game against Kent because of a leg injury, is the No. 1 man in rushing, pass receiving, total offense, punt returns and scoring.

Has 10.9 Average

The Logan boy has carried the ball 39 times for 436 net yards and a 11.2 average. He has caught seven of Quarterback Bill Zban's aerials for 213 yards and three touchdowns and on five punt returns has rolled up 33 yards for an 11.0 mark. Len has scored seven times for 42 points.

Zban is all by himself in the aerial department. The Youngstown Yoeman has tossed 29 passes, completing 11 for a net of 231 yards and three scores. Bill is also the No. 2 scorer, kicking seven extra points.

Second to Hellyer in rushing is junior halfback George Templin who has covered 181 yards in 31 carries for 5.8. Halfback Fred Freeman, the deceptive left halfback, has gotten 166 net yards on 31 carries for 5.3.

As a team Marshall has run 182 rushing plays for 989 net yards and on total offense has accumulated 1,220 yards in four games on 212 plays. The team has tallied 13 touchdowns and nine extra points for 87 overall points.

In its four starts to date, Marshall has proved to be an excellent road team, whipping Morris Harvey, 46-7, and Western Michigan, 28-0, in two away games. The Big Green has yet to win here, losing to Ohio, 13-6, and to Miami, 46-7.

year Mike has carried the ball 27 times for 225 yards and an 8.4 average.

While Norcia is a big threat up through the tackles, Kent's outside threat is Blair. Blair has 189 yards in 28 carries, an average of 6.7 per try.

Fifth Best

Sparking the Marshall club, which has a very speedy backfield, today will be junior quarterback Bill Zban from Youngstown, fifth best passer in the league. Zban has tossed 29 times, completing 11 for 231 yards. But, three of his 11 tosses have been good for touchdowns — second best touchdown passing mark in the MAC.

With Hellyer out, Marshall's most dangerous ball carriers are expected to be left-halfback Fred Freeman who has picked up a net

Wringing Out The Monday Wash

Putting one little word after another and, whatever became of Eddie Goyette, the Connecticut Yankee, who played a lot of football halfback for the Marshall College Thundering Herd? . . . Chic and charming Gloria Brothers, Huntington High senior, is president-elect of the Pony Express Tennis Club for 1956 . . . Add look-a-likes: Bob Carr and Beverly Barton, two of my No. 1 favorite commentators . . . Don Osborne, former star baseball pitcher at Marshall College, is president of the Lincoln National Bank, in Hamlin . . . The $64 Question Mark is, how come Coach Jim Cain's Huntington East Highlanders racked up 14 first downs to only 8 for St. Albans, yet the Red Devils grabbed the brass ring, 60-19? Woe is me . . . 'Big Bill' Dumbaugh, 6'5 and 245 pounds, looks more and more like an All-State center every time he starts . . . Ernie Chatten and Ellis Johnson, two All-Time football greats for the Ashland Tomcats, are now in politics. . .

Zelma L. Davis, who retired as coach of the Douglass Wildcats after 40 yrs., has never been trapped into naming the best player he ever coached, but he still has that gleam in his eye for Floyd Meadows, halfback de luxe . . . Huntington is talking about: Bob Moss, late of the Highlanders, who racked up two TD's as the WVU Mountaineers knocked off Penn State 21-7 . . . And look at what mighty Maryland did to Syracuse, coached by Floyd Schwartzwalder, who was captain and All-State guard of the Huntington Pony Express in 1928 . . . Bowling in Huntington is getting to be more and more a woman's world. The Owenette's team has a 19-2 season record, making them the "winningest team" in the "WE WILL" City . . . What bothers me is that Fullback Tom Perdue, who is harder to stop than an African buffalo, only carried the ball t-w-i-l-e (once for 7-yards and once for 20-yards) for Vinson when the Tigers bowed to Ironton 13-6, Huh? . . . Roger Nichols Huntington's "Mr. Tennis", may move bag & baggage to other fields next year . . . My warm friend Gerald Forgey has turned football expert. He was only pigskin critic who predicted South Point would snap Coal Grove's winning spree at 20 in a row. The Pointers "dood it" 32-19 . . . Jeff Biederman 10-year-old Cammack student, still has two more years to play in Huntington's Little League Baseball. By that time they'll be calling young Biederman "another" Mickey Mantle . . . Coach Ray McCoy's Little Pony Express tee off against the Ashland B team here today and the Barboursville Little Pirates here Thursday. Both games at St. Cloud Commons . . .

Dave Blackwood, Milton Postmaster, is a reformed duck-pin bowler . . . Randy Marrs is beating the drums for the Marshall-Bowling Green, homecoming game Satt'y., at Fairfield Stadium, featuring an alumni party, the contest at the Hotel Frederick . . . If all the tape and bandages that Dr. Harlan A. Stiles uses in aiding injured football players, were laid end-to-end, you could start counting your blessings . . . When Boyd Johnson (Pony Express) caught a TD pass from "Lefty" Majher against Logan, he almost fell in Harry Day's lap in the bandstand . . . Remember the old days when $64,000 was a lot of money?

The honeymoon is over for Russ Parsons. Charleston Stonewall Jackson lost their 7th game in a row when they bowed to East Bank. . . Shed a tear, too, for Herb Royer. Marshall's Thundering Herd has had 85 points scored against them in their last two outings. . . Tommy Tweel accounted for 14 points (two touchdowns and two extra ringers) as the Huntington Pony Express trimmed the Logan Wildcats 28-12. That's what makes a wildcat wild. . . Homer McCoy (not the old man), star wingman at Enslow, has broken his big toe. . . Dale Boyd, former All-State halfback at Vinson, saw action for the Duke Blue Devils against Ohio State and Pitt, one a winner, one a loser. . . Sammy Harlow (Heez Lewis' young son) has already started Little League Baseball practice. . . My congratulations to Robert P. Holman and the Douglass Wildcats Booster Club, who made "Chief" Davis realize there really IS a Santa Claus . . . The Point Pleasant Big Blacks have lost two games by 1 point, Ashland, 7-6, and Nitro, 13-12. One point still pays off on the scoreboard, whether by land, sea or toe Fred Trainor, a do-everything quarterback for the Pony Express, looks sharper with every start . . . No towel-ringing from John J. Cox. His young son had 12 candles on his birthday cake on Columbus Day in Milton. . . Strobel Fulwiler and Chester Thomas report excellent fishing at Bluestone Dam. . . It will be no part of a Halloween "Trick or Treat" when the Huntington Pony Express tangles with Barboursville Friday night at King Field. . . Both teams are hotter than a cat on a "Hot Tin Roof".

Students At College Offered Jobs In 1902

Huntington offered decided advantages to young men and women who wished to obtain employment to help pay their expenses while attending Marshall College, according to a special edition of the Parthenon, student publication, in 1902.

Nine copies of Parthenons from that period were brought here a few days ago by Maria Ware Adams, whose sister, Miss Maynie Ware, had saved them from the time she was on the faculty as instructor in oratory and physical culture.

"At this time," the special 1902 issue of The Parthenon said, "there are 21 young men and women paying all or part of their expenses at this school by working evenings, mornings, noons or Saturdays, Friday afternoons, or some or all of these times. Some earn $3 to $5 per month, others from $5 to $8, and a few as much as $12 or $13."

The article urged business men and others to offer jobs to the students who, it said, "come from distant homes of thrift, honesty, purity and yet limited means, to obtain an education."

A $5-a-month job would help some. Board cost as little as $9 a month, the writer of the article said, or up to $12 a month in a private home. Books cost $2 or $3 for 10 months second hand or up to $5 new. The cost of laundry for the 10-month year was $5 to $10 for gentlemen and $10 to $12 for ladies. School fees for West Virginians amounted to $6 and to out-of-state students, $24 a year.

"Without boast or semblance of self-praise — for that is farthest from our motive—," the Parthenon said, "the very atmosphere about the college is such that evil-doing lagging and recklessness are almost impossible. The spirit that pervades the student body is one of very great respect for authority, reverence for things sacred and consideration for the comforts and rights of others."

The paper lists the 24 members of the faculty, and gives the list of subjects taught as mathematics, spelling and pronunciation, English grammar, rhetoric, literature, history, drawing, Latin, Greek, German, French, civil government physics, psychology, logic and ethics.

The copies of the Parthenon are filled with improving articles on many topics, along with personal items of news about students and faculty. Picked at random are these paragraphs about former students.

"C. W. Kerr, '01, who is located at present with the Huntington Tumbler Co., is still active in the Virginian Literary Society. Tom Hoffman represents his sheaf for the garner."

"Mr. F. T. Cavendish, who took the business course in 1900-1901, and is now employed by Biggs-Watts & Co., shows his appreciation by sending his brother to us this year, Mr. L. Cavendish."

There are some items whose meaning is hidden now, but, no doubt, no puzzle to readers at the college in 1901:

RIVLIN AND M

14 Players To Report On Tuesday

By FRED BURNS

Herald - Dispatch Sports Editor

The round ball boys at Marshall College are getting anxious and they only have one more week to wait. But at that they are not half as fidgety as Jules Rivlin, the new Big Green cage coach who is waiting to start his first season as successor to the retired veteran Cam Henderson.

Under rules of the Mid-American Conference and the NCAA practice cannot start until Nov. 1, next Tuesday but Coach Rivlin will have his squad out in full uniforms next Monday and the photographers will be on hand to do some picture snapping.

"We open December 3," Rivlin said, "and that just gives us one month to get ready. So we'll get the preliminaries out of the way Monday. We'll fit the boys in their new uniforms, get all equipment issued and while they are all dressed up we will have pictures taken ... we will need every minute when we start practice Tuesday."

There will be a squad of 14 players on hand for the opening practice session. Seven of them will be from last season's varsity and six from last year's freshman team. The other will be Freddie Simpson from Ashland, a slick little dribble and middle man from Ashland's Holy Family, who played freshman ball at Marshall, then hurt a knee in a summer accident and remained out of school last year.

Topping the varsity seven who return are Charlie Slack, the nation's top rebounder last season, Cebe Price and Paul Underwood, the sophomore sensations of last season. Others are Bob Ashley, Jerry Pierson, Joe Hunnicutt and Sonny Parkins. Lost from last year's varsity are Frank Crum, Dave Robinson, Ray Frazier and Lewis Burns.

Coming up from last season's freshman team are Jack Freeman, Dave Kirk, Hal Greer, John Mayfield, Dave Dingess and Dick Blake. It remains to be seen how Simpson will react after the injury to his knee but in high school and with the frosh he was a slick ball handler and a heavy scorer.

JULES RIVLIN

Anxious To Get Going

However the six from last year's freshman group and pretty tough had established the best freshman record in the history of the school. The trio of Slack, Price and Underwood would be pretty safe bets to pick up where they left off last year but if Riv can find some one among the upcoming sophomores who could beat them out he surely would be happy.

But the first thing he will be looking for is a forward and a guard to take the place of Dave Robinson and Frank Crum. Whether these two replacements will come from last year's varsity reserves or the sophomore group remains to be seen. Freeman, Kirk and Greer were the top scorers last season and got most of the attention. If they can fit into the pattern Rivlin will use with his varsity the two replacements might be filled by them. However Mayfield who is 6-6, stands a good chance because of his height. Then too, all of the fans around here well remember the work of Blake at Huntington East and Dingess at Logan. Both of these are slick guards and both are capable of turning in more than their share of the scoring.

It looks like there will be a merry battle for those two open varsity berths and of course that is just the way Riv wants it. And of course if any of the sophomores could dislodge either of the Slack-Price-Underwood combine then that would be something.

Meanwhile Rivlin has issued an open call to any freshmen who would like to try out for the frosh team and so far Freshman Coach Mike Josephs has had 20 answer the call. The freshman will not report to Coach Josephs until next Wednesday at which time he will have a practice schedule worked out for them.

Those who answered the call so far are:

William R. Allen, 5-11, Moundsville; Charles Blankenship, 5-11, Kenova; Leo Byrd, 6-1, Huntington; Bob Cole, 6-3, Beaver, W. Va.; Gene Cunningham, 6-0, Huntington; Mike Fabish, 6-1, Warwood; Bob Ferguson, 6-4, Kenova; Dick Hall, 6-4½, Clarksburg Washington - Irving; Robert Hart, 6-0, Clarksburg Washington - Irving; Jerry Hayner, 6-1, Huntington Vinson; David Maynard, 5-11, Ft. Gay; Linden Meade, 6-1, Chapmanville; Bud Newbrough, 6-0, Weirton; Robert Pullins, 6-2½, Nitro; Bill deSilva, Jr., 6-1, Marshall high; Guy Storm, 6-0, Crescent City, Ill.; Bruce Williams, 5-11, South Charleston; J. D. Wolford, 6-2, Huntington; Paul Wolodkin, 5-11, Warwood; Jack Fields, 6-2, Kenova.

Michigan Third, Mounties Eighth

By DR. ALLEN N. SMITH

Maryland's football team, still riding high as the nation's No. 1 football eleven in the Smith Touchdown Tendency System of Ratings, is challenged from a new quarter this week.

Michigan, runner-up last week, gives way to Oklahoma as the streaking Sooners, off their 44-6 romp over Kansas, zoom from fifth to 2nd. Oklahoma ran its best-in-the-nation winning streak to 23 games by this victory. The Wolverines are a close-up 3rd. Michigan State's rousing 21-7 win over previously unbeaten and unscored - on Notre Dame, shoots the spectacular Spartans from tenth all the way to 4th. This defeat send Notre Dame from fourth to 6th. U. C. L. A. falls two notches to 5th.

Biggest jump in the ratings is registered by Navy. The Midshipmen again exhibited a remarkable touchdown tendency, this time with a 34-14 win over Penn. State, to leap from nowhere into 7th place.

West Virginia continues to rise, gaining the 8th rung this week by virtue of its 39-13 romp over William and Mary. Duke's classy treatment of Ohio State hoists the Blue Devils from twelfth to 9th.

Georgia Tech, sixth a week ago, skitters all the way to 10th after its 14-12 loss to Auburn. Texas Christian, 19-16 loser to Texas A. & M., tumbles to 11th, barely edging Southern California.

The Trojans, pushed out of the select list a week ago after losing to Washington, come rocketing back to 12th place, after soundly defeating highly-rated Wisconsin.

Missing from last week's top twelve are Army and Wisconsin. Mimal (O.) continues to pace the Mid-American Conference with four victories, two of them loop contests. The Redskins are one of the nation's few remaining unbeaten elevens.

Ranking second is Kent State, while Ohio University is third. Marshall holds down fourth and Toledo and Western Michigan follow.

Prelaz Credited With Saving Life Of Marshall's Dyke Six

Coach Herb Royer has credited Marshall College Trainer Ed Prelaz with saving the life of Halfback Dyke Six, injured in the Marshall football game with Kent State at Kent, Ohio, last Saturday.

The 165-pound Six, struck on the face, swallowed his tongue, locked his jaws and was suffocating.

Fast action by Prelaz saved his life, said Royer.

ED PRELAZ
Saves Gridder's Life

Prelaz inserted an oral screw, drove it between Six's jaws, opening them, got the tongue back into position, and Six regained consciousness.

An oral screw is a plastic device resembling an oversized corkscrew, regarded as a "must" piece of equipment for trainers in rough sports.

Some 15,000 homecoming fans in the Kent stands had no knowledge of the near-tragedy.

Motion pictures of the incident showed the play had stopped, and Six was standing just out of bounds and looking in another direction when he was belted with a forearm block by Luke Owens, 235-pound Kent tackle.

Prelaz, himself, narrowly escaped death in 1951 when he played fullback for the Big Green. He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage in a game with Morris Harvey which was not discovered for three days.

He made a complete recovery, but was told he never again could engage in contact sports.

Asked about the Dyke Six incident, he said:

"I just did my job. I just put that screw in Dyke's teeth, said a prayer and applied the pressure. It worked fine."

BG Coach Is Fearing Marshall

10-28-55
BOWLING GREEN, Ohio, Oct. 27. — This may be a slim week in Mid-American Conference competition with only two games on tap but Bowling Green Coach Doyt Perry calls it the most important week in the Falcons' season to date.

The undefeated Falcons travel to Marshall for its second straight MAC tilt, and Perry is the first one to admit that his second place Falcons have their work cut out for them.

Perry said, "We have feared this Marshall team from the beginning of the season and now they even loom bigger." Perry substantiated this by pointing out that despite losing to Kent State last week the Big Green had 21 first downs to Kent's 11. Kent only out-gained the West Virginia eleven by 26 yards, which shows that Coach Herb Royer's boys can move the ball well.

On top of that they ran up this yardage with their star halfback Len Hellyer on the sidelines. Hellyer, a service returnee, was the top ground gainer in the Mid-American before the Kent tilt with 439 yards in 32 tries. The 190-pounder tallied six touchdowns in the victories over Western Michigan and Morris Harvey.

Meanwhile, Perry, quite happy that his Falcons showed so well in the 39-0 win over Toledo before a record homecoming crowd, was busy shaping up both his offense and defense for this week.

The Falcons still maintain the top defensive record in the state and the conference with only allowing 20 points across their goal in six tests. The Brown and Orange haven't been exactly slouches in scoring either, averaging 30 points a game.

Against Toledo, the Falcons used their fine passing attack only eight times but connected three times for 80 yards. Perry may call upon his quarterbacks Jim Bryan and Don Nehlen for more aerial showing since it has been very effective when used extensively.

Carlos Jackson, the lithe half-back speedster, had his top day of the year last week when he reeled off 134 yards to climb into second place in team rushing standings. Only chunky Vic DeOrto, the team high scorer with six touchdowns, heads the Fostoria veteran.

BG came out of the Toledo tilt with no injuries and should have all personnel in top shape for the trip.

Marshall High Glee Club To Give Fantasy Nov. 11, 12

The Marshall High School Glee Club will present its fourth production, Rhythm Rendezvous in the Marshall College auditorium at 8 P. M. Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12. Tickets may be purchased from Glee Club members and at the door.

RHYTHM RENDEZVOUS is a fantasy of song and dance in rhythm. The production presents Latin American rhythm, waltz rhythms and modern rhythms. Dancers of the waltz and Latin American Samba are being trained by Joe Reese of the Arthur Murray Studios. The ballet, solo and duo dancers are being trained by Mrs. Betty Sue Ridinger of the Ridinger School of the Dance. Instrumental scores for the Latin American Rhythms, and Waltz Rhythms have been a project of the student teachers in music and the orchestration class of Marshall College. The score, original melodies and modern rhythmic interpretation of Modern Rhythm is the work of Pete Donathan, a Marshall College student teacher from Huntington.

The production was planned and written by students from the Glee Club. Planning groups include: Eleanor Boylin, chairman; Act I: Judith Bunn, Suzanne Jambé, Jon Sheets, Mary Lee Galloway; Act II: Joe Shafer, Nancy Curtis Martha Stump, Peter McGehee, and Alan Gibson; Act III: Moray Peoples, Tom Hanlin, Susan Daugherty, Judy Apple, Judy Brown, and Tom Hanlin.

Dance: Phyllis Paul and Susan Burdick; tickets: Jane Hutchison set construction and stage manager: Bill Gayle posters: JoAnne Wilburn programs: Mary Janice Miller.

Training of glee club and ensembles is under the direction of the Marshall College student teachers in music and Miss Miriam P. Gelvin.

Ebenezer Plans Panel Discussion

A panel discussion on the topic "Should Red China Be Admitted to the United Nations" will be held at the Ebenezer Methodist Church, 1647 Eighth Avenue, tomorrow at 7 P. M.

Participating in the discussion will be Dr. H. G. Toole, head of the History Department at Marshall College; Sheriff H. D. Humphreys; Professors Jones and Simpson from Douglass High School; H. D. Hazelwood; and Mrs. Elsie Duckworth.

The service will be in charge of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the church committee on Social and Economic Activities. Mrs. Roberta Ferguson will preside, Miss Elizabeth Johnston will read the Scripture, and Mrs. C. R. Walters will offer prayer.

The Rev. J. R. Washington, pastor of the church, will preach at 11 A. M. on "The Tragedy of Gahazi."

Kappa Omicron Phi Plans Service

The active chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi will have an initiation service at 2:30 P. M. today in Northcott Hall of Marshall College.

The Alumnae chapter will entertain the actives with a tea following the ceremony.

JUNE TAYLOR DANCERS

Taylor Dancers Feature Lavish Production Numbers

Jackie Gleason's world famous June Taylor precision dancers will be in Huntington Tuesday, November 8, as the main attraction of a variety show to be presented at 8:30 P. M. at the Keith-Albee Theatre.

The revue is sponsored by the Marshall College Artists Series, but is not included on any regular series, Curtis Baxter, manager, said.

The box office opens tomorrow at the Becker Music Store, 1040 Fourth avenue.

FEATURED in the show along with the popular dancers will be Jay Marshall as master of ceremonies; Hal McIntyre and his orchestra with Jeanne McManus and the Mac-in-Tots; Elsa and Waldo, hilarious dance satirists, and Peter Gladk, dance specialist of television fame.

Described as "a whirling eye-filling delight," the June Taylor Dancers will include many of the lavish production numbers well known to millions of television viewers.

June Taylor recently was honored by being presented the "Emmy" award as the best choreographer on television. Last year the precision - perfect Radio City Rockettes were instructed to study the June Taylor numbers all season long.

THE 16 lovelies who make up the dance group were selected from an audition of more than 600 girls from all parts of the country.

Elsa and Waldo, specialty artists, began their work in Spain as classical dancers. After appearing in many movies, they changed to comedy dancing. They have appeared at Radio City Music Hall in New York as well as command performances in England.

Peter Gladke has appeared on television on "Cavalcade of Stars" and has toured with Ballet Theatre.

One of today's brightest stars on the musical horizon of popular bands is Hal McIntyre. When the MGM recording company was formed, his was one of the first name bands approached with a long term contract.

Marshall College alumni are looking forward to the party to be held at the Hotel Frederick tomorrow following the Marshall-Bowling Green University football game at Fairfield Stadium.

"After game" parties, such as this one, have become a regular feature of Marshall College's annual homecoming celebration. It provides an opportunity for old grads to get together, talk about the game and reminisce about the "good old days" when they were in college.

It's also a chance for the new grads to get to know each other better and to get acquainted with the old - timers.

Marshall Underdog As Usual

74-10-29-55
By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Marshall College's Big Green football team, hit by injuries and two stinging defeats, will attempt to show a big Homecoming crowd this afternoon that it has the stuff to come back.

The locals, now sporting an unimpressive 2-3 record, face the surprise team of the Mid-American Conference, the Bowling Green Falcons, at Fairfield Stadium in what should be a corking good battle.

Kickoff time is 2 o'clock and close to 10,000 are expected to be on hand for a look at their alma mammy's 1955 edition. Whether or not the Big Green can make the Falcons holler "mammy" is another thing.

Underdog Again

The betting boys don't think so, having installed Bowling Green a 14 point favorite — which means Marshall is entering its third straight game playing the underdog's role.

And, this has come about for two reasons:

To begin with, Marshall has lost to Miami of Ohio, 46-7, and Kent State, 39-6, in its last outings — both of them conference games.

In the second place, Bowling Green has knocked off five opponents, played a 6-6 tie with Kent, and has lost to no one in six games. Last year the Falcons were winless in the MAC but this season already are tied with Kent for second with 2-0-1 in the league.

Good Defensively

Actually, the Falcons could emerge from today's game tied for first with Kent—because the Flashes are playing defending champion Miami at Kent. If the Flashes can beat Miami, which has won three out of three MAC contests, and Falcons do the expected and win here, they'll both be 3-0-1 in the MAC — good for the lead.

Another imposing factor which the oddsmakers and point spreaders have been eyeing is Bowling Green's defensive showing. The Falcons, while 18th in the nation on offense, have only permitted their opponents an average of 150 yards a game in six starts. And, they've only allowed 20 points. The Falcons are leading the conference on offense and are second on defense — which indicates a well balanced club.

On offense, Coach Doyt Perry's team has rolled up 2,193 yards to only 875. Marshall is third offensively with 1,553 yards but this is a mis-leading figure. The Big Green has moved the ball well all year — except when it reaches scoring territory. Then the attack has been bogging down.

Top Form

Against Morris Harvey in a non-conference game, Marshall flashed its best form in getting a 46-7 win and in crushing Western Michigan, 28-0, gave rise to speculation that this was going to be a great year. Then along came Miami and Kent and all that has changed.

Pacing the Falcons this year is little Vic De Orlo, a diminutive Canton, O., sophomore. Vic is the No. 5 offensive man in the MAC and No. 1 on the Falcons with 312 yards in 62 carries for a 5.0 average.

Another spark is veteran quarterback Jim Bryan, No. 1 MAC passer with 28 completions in 41 tries for 527 yards and five touchdowns. One of his favorite targets is Jack Hecker, leading MAC pass catcher last year who is again in the No. 1 MAC spot. Jack has nailed 15 aerals for 315 yards and three touchdowns. Thus, Bowling Green has the best aerial combo in the circuit.

Hellyer Improved

But, there's a brighter-side for the Big Green. No. 1 offensive back Len Hellyer, who missed last week's Kent game because of a bad leg, has been listed as a probable participant today. He may start but if he doesn't, he'll see some action.

Also, returning to action will be regular right end Dick Athey, also out of the Kent game with a shoulder separation. Getting into action for the first time today will be Phil Fisher, a sophomore guard-end who has been idled with a broken ankle.

Fisher will be a starter at left end in place of slower Jim Barton.

Gloomy Day Likely For Homecoming

74-10-29-55
The outlook for Marshall College's homecoming parade appeared pretty gloomy late this morning.

Showers, which had been expected earlier, didn't start until about 9 A.M. and the weatherman said there was a possibility they would continue until noon when the parade of floats was scheduled to move.

He said it even appeared there might be some showers during the Marshall - Bowling Green game this afternoon at Fairfield Stadium, but these will probably be light and scattered.

Will Turn Colder

The maximum temperature for the day — about 66 degrees—was expected to occur this morning, with the weather getting colder this afternoon. Readings in the 50s were expected.

The Weather Bureau had expected colder weather to set in today with the maximum not getting above 54. However, the cold air will be reaching the area. Consequently, the minimum tonight will be around 42, instead of the 28 predicted yesterday. The maximum tomorrow will be about 52.

For Monday the weatherman foresees a low of 30 and high of 50.

The maximum here yesterday was 79; the minimum this morning, 52.

AL PREUSS

Chemists Hear Al Preuss

The November meeting of the Central Ohio Valley Section of the American Chemical Society will be held at Marshall College Thursday.

The dinner meeting will be held in the College cafeteria at 7 P. M. and will be followed by the business session and an address by Al Preuss at 8 P. M. in the Science Hall auditorium. Mr. Preuss' subject, "Ion Exchange Resins and Their Applications", will include a description of ion exchange materials, their fundamental physical and chemical properties, and some of their important and unique applications.

Mr. Preuss attended Michigan State College and later entered the University of Wisconsin where he received a B. S. degree in 1949 and a Ph. D. degree in 1952. He was a teaching assistant from 1947-1951 and held a U. S. Rubber Fellowship in 1952. His thesis was entitled "Separation of Rhenium from Molybdenum by Ion Exchange."

Mr. Preuss has been associated with the Rohm and Haas Company since 1952 where he is at present the Group Leader of the Ion Exchange Applications Laboratory. His fields of activity include the recovery of uranium from low grade ores by ion exchange and by oil soluble amines under contract with the Raw Materials Division, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Marshall Freshmen Defeat Favored Xavier Frosh, 20-19

A determined Marshall freshman eleven, shaking off the woes of their last defeat, gained their biggest victory of the season when they trimmed Xavier's highly regarded frosh 20-19 at St. Cloud Commons yesterday afternoon. Making the win an impressive one was the fact that the Little Green twice fought back from '3 point deficits to acquire the deserved triumph.

The Xavier squad sped to two touchdowns in the first period to put Marshall in the hole from the offset, 13-0. However, the Little Green retaliated in the second quarter for their first TD when Fullback Sunny Sirianni ploughed across from the one yard marker, as the visitors enjoyed a 13-6 halftime advantage.

Continuing to find the Marshall goal line, the Muskies pushed across their final touchdown of the afternoon in the opening minutes of the third period. It was here that the Marshall defense stiffened and the offense began to jell. The same Sirianni capped off a Little Green drive by bulling over from the two. End Kayo Marcum, a local product, booted the first of his two most important conversions of the season to leave the victors within striking distance, 19-13 as the third stanza ended.

The win conscious local squad began driving toward the Muskie goal in the final quarter, with Halfback Bill Trout finding pay dirt from five yards out. Marcum then dropped back from his end position and booted the game winning point for the 20-19 triumph.

XAVIER	13	0	6	0-19

Table Tennis Matches Today

The Marshall College table tennis team will take on one of the national powers in that sport when it takes on the Bobcats of Ohio University at 2 P. M. today at the Marshall gymnasium.

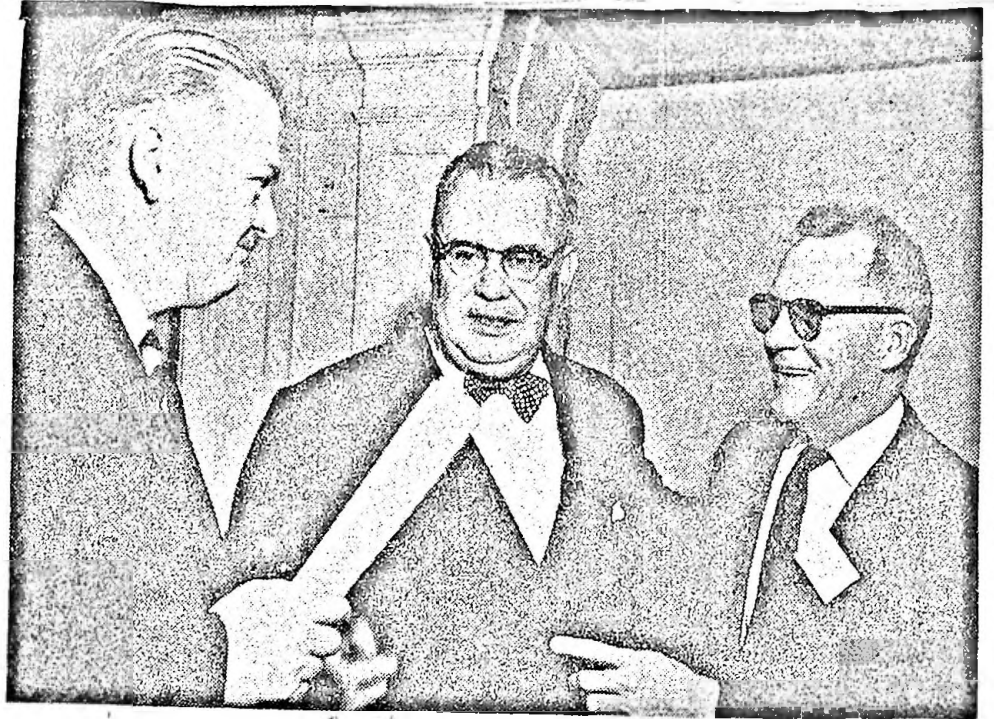

The Ohio University team is expected to be one of the top contenders for the national intercollegiate table tennis championship later this year.

The Marshall team is made up of Bill Tweel, Charles (Dubby) Morris, Don Weaver, Bill Seidel and Dave Wagner.

Five singles matches and two doubles matches will be played with the winner being decided on a best four-out-of-seven basis.

The public is invited to attend the matches. There will be no admission.

Meet Ends Here Today

The annual meeting of the West Virginia Press Association closed here today with members attending the Marshall College-Bowling Green football game at Fairfield Stadium.

This morning the group was taken on a conducted tour of the Marshall campus.

Last night at a banquet at the Hotel Prichard the association heard William L. Ryan of New York, Associated Press expert on Russia, warn against putting much stock in the Soviet's recent friendly attitude.

Reminding his listeners that Stalin himself once said there is no more dangerous enemy than an agreeable bear, Mr. Ryan declared:

"We must stack up Soviet words against professed philosophy and the history of Moscow's international relations. No matter how attractive the dream of peace might be, we have to guard constantly against being trapped by our own wishful thinking."

Offensive Doing Well

The speaker proceeded to stack up "Soviet words against Soviet philosophy and deeds in an attempt to arrive at some plausible explanation of the why and wherefore of this new grin offensive."

He said that in the three months since the Summit meetings at Geneva, Moscow has done well with that offensive, "but the grins look more and more like a thin veneer as the Soviet leadership firmly reasserts its belief in Leninism and Leninist techniques for peacemeal world revolution."

Mr. Ryan quoted Soviet Communist boss Nikita Khrushchev: "If anyone expects that behind our smiles we doubt the teachings of Marxism-Leninism, those who wait for that can wait until Easter falls on Tuesday."

The Associated Press expert declared that:

"No matter what happens at the Geneva foreign ministers' conference, we can never be sure that the second most powerful nation in the world, heading a bloc of almost a billion people, really wants lasting peace, or really ever will feel itself secure while a single capitalist state exists in the world."

Must Give Up Leninism

"We can believe in the possibility of peaceful coexistence — and this means coexistence without political aggression as well as military — only when some Soviet regime some day repudiates Leninism, Stalinism and all the trappings of those doctrines. That seems a long way off."

Mr. Ryan declared that "the jockeying over the atomic prohibition proposals may seem a bit obscure, but it is just another clue among many to the Soviet policy of sowing discord."

"In some respects this makes the situation today — new look or no new look — look more dangerous than at any time since the cold war began. The look of peace is only a surface look."

Two Are Honored

At the banquet last night two new members were announced for the West Virginia Journalism Hall of Fame. The selections, by previous vote of the membership, were former Governor John J. Cornwell and Nathaniel P. Willis.

Romney attorney John C. Anes eulogized Cornwell, who for many years was editor and publisher of the Hampshire Review. The eulogy for Willis was delivered by Dr. P. I. Reed of Morgantown, head of the department of journalism at West Virginia University. Willis established at Shepherdstown in 1790 the Potomac Guardian and Berkeley Advertiser, the first newspaper to be published within what now is West Virginia.

Excitement, No Sleep, Mark Rushing Season

RUSHING SEASON on any campus is a time of continued excitement, suppressed worry and no sleep. And Marshall College is no exception.

ACTIVE MEMBERS of sorority chapters don't sleep. They sit up night after night, listing names and writing invitations. And after the first parties, there are hours of debate in order to pare down their lists of available girls to the number they may invite to the next party. Once the list is completed, out they rush into the night to leave at the doors of the lucky ones the invitations.

RUSHEES DON'T sleep. They visit one another to discuss the parties, and to debate the clothes to be worn to the next ones. Or they lie awake listening for sounds at the mailbox, and hoping they'll get a bid from their favorite sorority.

SOME, LIKE Lenore Greenlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otho Greenlee, are rushed by several sororities, and have to make a choice between one to which other members of their family have belonged and another in which they may have close friends.

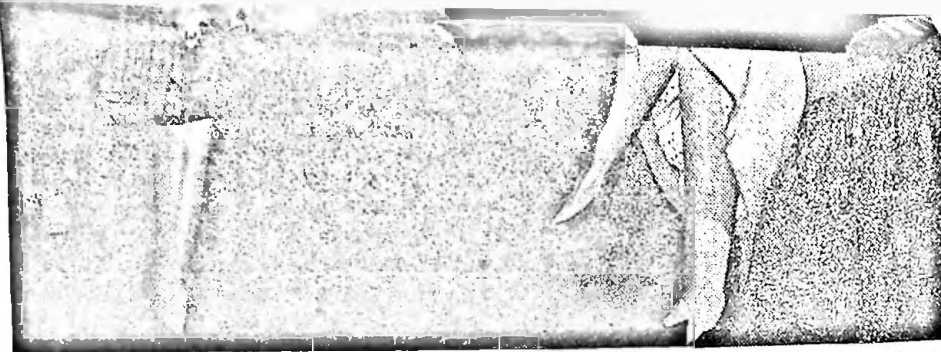

BECAUSE EACH sorority is limited to a strict quota of new members, and so many attractive freshmen enroll each year at the college, sending out the final bids is a painful process for any sorority. And the end of the season, like the end of any period of suspense, is a relief to all.

(Staff Photos)

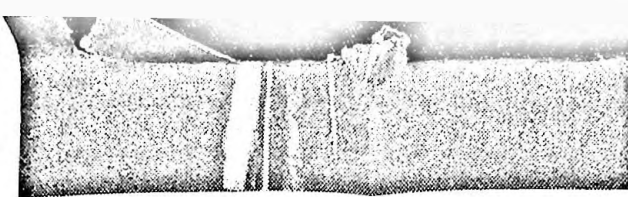

SLEEPLESS NIGHT is rewarded when in early morning hours, right, Lenore finds in her mailbox coveted bids to final parties.

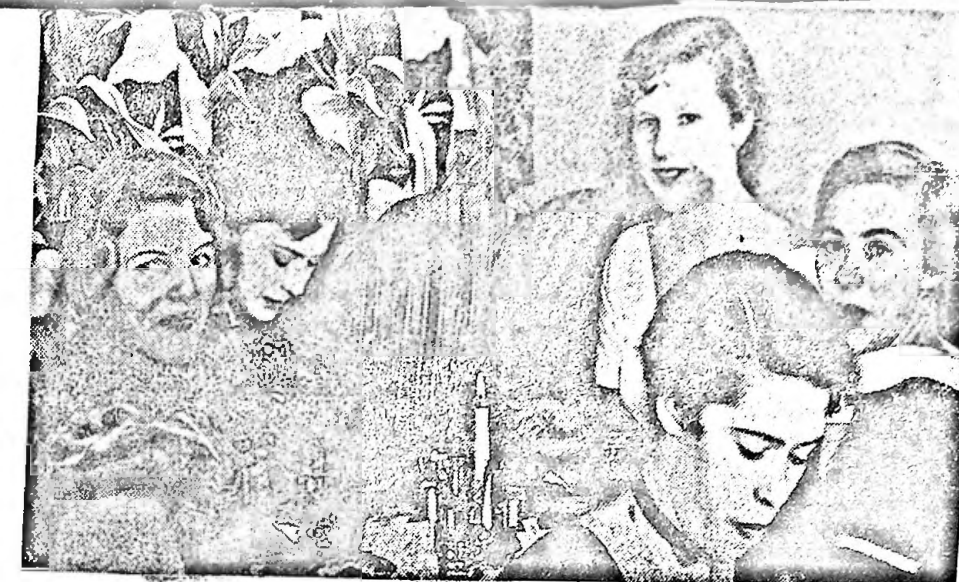

WHICH DRESS WOULD YOU WEAR? The question of the day for most rushees is asked by Lenore Greenlee of her two friends, Brooke Hayes and Kathleen Dudderar. When they aren't jittering over whether or not they will be invited to the next party, the problem of what to wear is topmost on the rushees' minds.

Music will be furnished by the pupils of James Rathburn, band director of Huntington high school. A clarinet quartet will be played by Fred Cummings, Stanley Slave, John Burke and John Morrison.

The students of Mrs. Clayton Page will give readings:

A story by Snellia Marsh, Sally Moberly, and Harriet Fishback;

A choral reading number by Becky Moss, Carolyn Jackson, Carol Getrost and Janet Meinser;

A Thanksgiving story, by Lucy Wallen;

An improvised dramatization

By WALT LEONHART
"That's a tremendously improved ball club out there."

Those were the first words of Marshall freshman coach Bill Chambers in referring to his team's 20-19 victory over a rugged Xavier eleven yesterday at St. Cloud Commons.

"Our offense and defense are both greatly improved I don't know what happened two weeks ago down at Cincinnati but we seem to have everything pretty well ironed out now."

Coach Chambers was referring to his team's 72-0 defeat by the hard hitting Cincinnati freshman team.

"I was very pleased today by the work of the middle of our line on defense and I thought our running attack was also very sharp."

Coach Bob Finnell of Xavier was not pleased with the work of her charges. He said:

"We looked lousey out there today, our defense especially. Our offense didn't look too bad because we had three touchdowns called back on penalties. And, I will admit I was not satisfied with the work of some of the officials on certain plays. Marshall had a good ball club out there and capitalized on most of our mistakes. We made several mental errors along with fumbling when it seemed to hurt us most."

Xavier scored on the opening kickoff on a 75 yard run by Terry Meyer and again in the first quarter on a five yard burst by Faus Coyle to lead, 13-0.

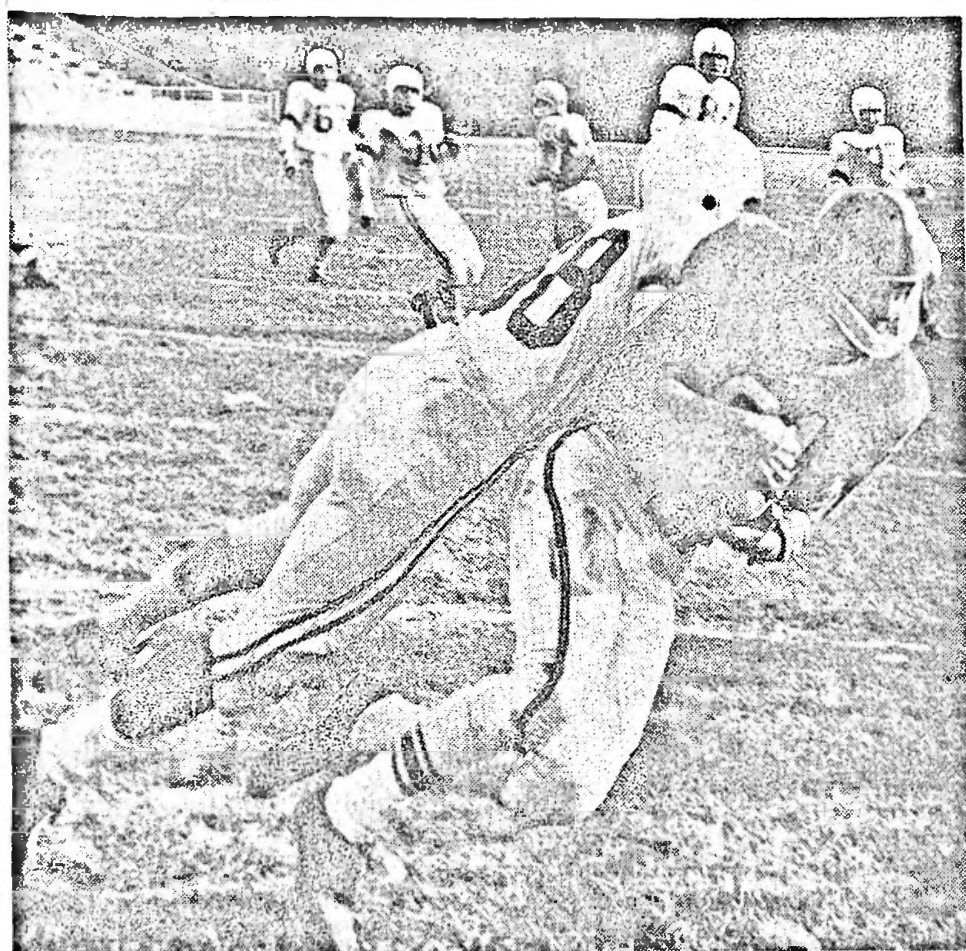

Marshall scored in the second period on a two yard slant by Sonny Sirianni and went ahead 14-13, in the third on a one yard plunge by Sirianni. Kayo Marcus converted.

Xavier retaliated with a 60 yard pass play in third with Meyer's catch at the receiving end. The winning touchdown came in the final quarter when Marshall drove to the Muskie five yard line with half back Bill Trout taking it over from there. Marcus then booted the winning conversion.

which turned the tide. Bryan is a better than fair passer and the catching of Hecker was sensational but to be expected when you know how he came upon such ability.

He is 6-2½, runs with long strides, has springs for legs and his timing is almost perfect. On top of that he is a brother of Norb Hecker of the professional Washington Redskins, and Norb spent the past Summer teaching his brother and Tom Kisselle the art of catching passes. Yesterday Bryan threw 22 passes, completed 17 and had one intercepted. Hecker caught ten for 166 yards, Kisselle caught two for 45 yards and Ed Janeway caught five for a net of 23 yards. One caught by Janeway actually lost six yards.

Hecker's favorite is a button hook, the one used so successfully by the pros. Marshall's defenders were playing him a little deep and it was almost sure yardage every time they threw to him. Of the ten passes he caught all were for ten yards or over but none for long yardage. Only one was longer than 22 yards.

MARSHALL missed on two good scoring chances and also stopped the Falcons twice inside the five.

Harris recovered a fumble by Jackson on the BG 43 in the second period and a Zban pass to Dyke Six went to the 21. However Marshall could only get to the 16 and a fourth down pass missed.

Then after Bowling Green took their 27-26 lead with six minutes to go Marshall was forced to punt but a Falcon touched the ball up on the BG 43 and Wilson covered for Marshall. Hellyer and Freeman combined for a first down to the 33 when there were two minutes to go. Freeman raced 13 to the 20 and Hellyer and Templin moved it to the 17. It was third down and seven when Zban's pass was intercepted on the goal line by De Orto with only 25 seconds to go.

Two of the four penalties called during the game came after this. On the first play Marshall was off side and on the final play at the final gun Bowling Green was off side. There were only two other penalties during the game, both for off side and both against Bowling Green.

B. GREEN	7	7	0	13-27
MARSHALL	13	0	13	0-26

Bowling Green scoring — Touchdowns: Hecker (11, pass from Bryan); Jackson (65, intercepted pass); De Orto (5, run); Bryan (1, plunge). Conversions: Knierim 2, Hecker.

Marshall scoring — Touchdowns: Freeman (1, plunge); Harris (10, blocked kick and run); Hellyer 2 (3, plunge; 11, run). Conversion: Zban 2.

FALCONS RALLY TO POST WIN

Hadley 10-30-55
By FRED BURNS

Jack Hecker, a long striding, sticky-fingered end, for Bowling Green, caught ten of Jim Bryan's passes for 166 yards and then added insult to injury by booting the extra point which gave the Falcons a 27-26 victory over Marshall College yesterday afternoon at Fairfield Stadium.

It left the Falcons undefeated in Mid-American Conference play and provided the only blur on an otherwise successful homecoming celebration by the Big Green fans.

Bowling Green is now in full possession of second place in the conference standings. Miami defeated Kent State yesterday 19-7 with the Redskins holding first place with four wins and no losses.

IN SECOND place is Bowling Green with three wins, no losses and one tie and Kent drops to third, 2-1-1. Marshall is sixth with a 1-4 conference record.

The winning Falcons completed 17 of 22 passes, which was the real difference but they also had to come from behind with two touchdowns in the final period and convert the extra point after the last one to gain their victory.

THE FALCONS, rated a two-touchdown favorite, had to fight their way from behind twice.

The fired-up charges of Coach Herb Royer also came from behind twice and were leading 26-20 with 11 minutes to play. However, they couldn't contain the Falcons, who used the sensational pass catching of Hecker and the running of Carlos Jackson and Vic DeOrto to drive 81 yards for their final touchdown, which set up the winning extra point.

But even in defeat the Marshall homecoming fans thrilled at the Big Green's power drive for 74 yards and a touchdown; the combination of Co-captains Bob McCollins and Bill Harris teaming up to block a Bee Gee punt and turn it into a touchdown, and Len Hellyer's 90-yard run to set up another touchdown and the alertness of Irv Wilson covering a Falcon fumble which set up the fourth Marshall score.

IF ANY THING short of victory in a homecoming game is worthy of praise, plenty of it should be heaped on the entire Marshall team and especially the co-captains, McCollins and Harris. It was this pair which gave the Big Green the spark they needed to play the Falcons such a close game. McCollins blocked the only Bowling Green punt of the game and Harris scooped it up to race ten yards for Marshall's second touchdown. This put the Big Green in front 13-7 and tipped off the Falcons that they were in for a merry afternoon.

Bowling Green used only eight plays to march the opening kickoff back for the first score. But the Big Green with George Templin and Fred Freeman supplying the driving power, took the ensuing kickoff and marched 74 yards for a touchdown. This left the score tied at 7-7. The Big Green line forced the Bowling Green punt on the visitors' 32 and this is where McCollins charged through to block the kick. Harris and several others took after the bounding ball and Harris scooped it up on the ten and kept on going.

This gave Marshall a 13-7 lead after the first period and it was late in the second period before the Falcons could get on top. Jackson intercepted a Marshall pass on the Bowling Green 35 and raced it back 65 yards for a touchdown. This gave Bowling Green a 14-13 halftime edge.

THE FALCONS were sent to for another "sure" touchdown as they drove the second half kickoff to the Marshall three. But the Big Green line charged through and dropped Jim Bryan for a loss back on the 15. It was fourth down and Bryan passed to Hecker who caught it on the one but was knocked out of bounds by Hellyer.

Marshall took over and this is where Hellyer broke through for his thrilling 90-yard run which led to Marshall's third touchdown. The quick-opener play broke Hellyer through the Falcon line and after he dodged one linebacker he slipped through the fingers of another and was streaking down the sideline. Jackson, a 10-second track man, was after him and slowly closed the gap, finally catching the Big Green ace on the nine. Hellyer could not use all of his speed for he was playing under the handicap of an injured leg muscle.

From the nine it took Marshall three plays to score with Hellyer going over from the three.

WHAT LOOKED like the ball game for Marshall came after the next kickoff when on the first play Bowling Green fumbled and Irv Wilson covered for Marshall on the BG 29. Four plays moved it to the 11 and Hellyer covered that in one run to put Marshall on top 26-14.

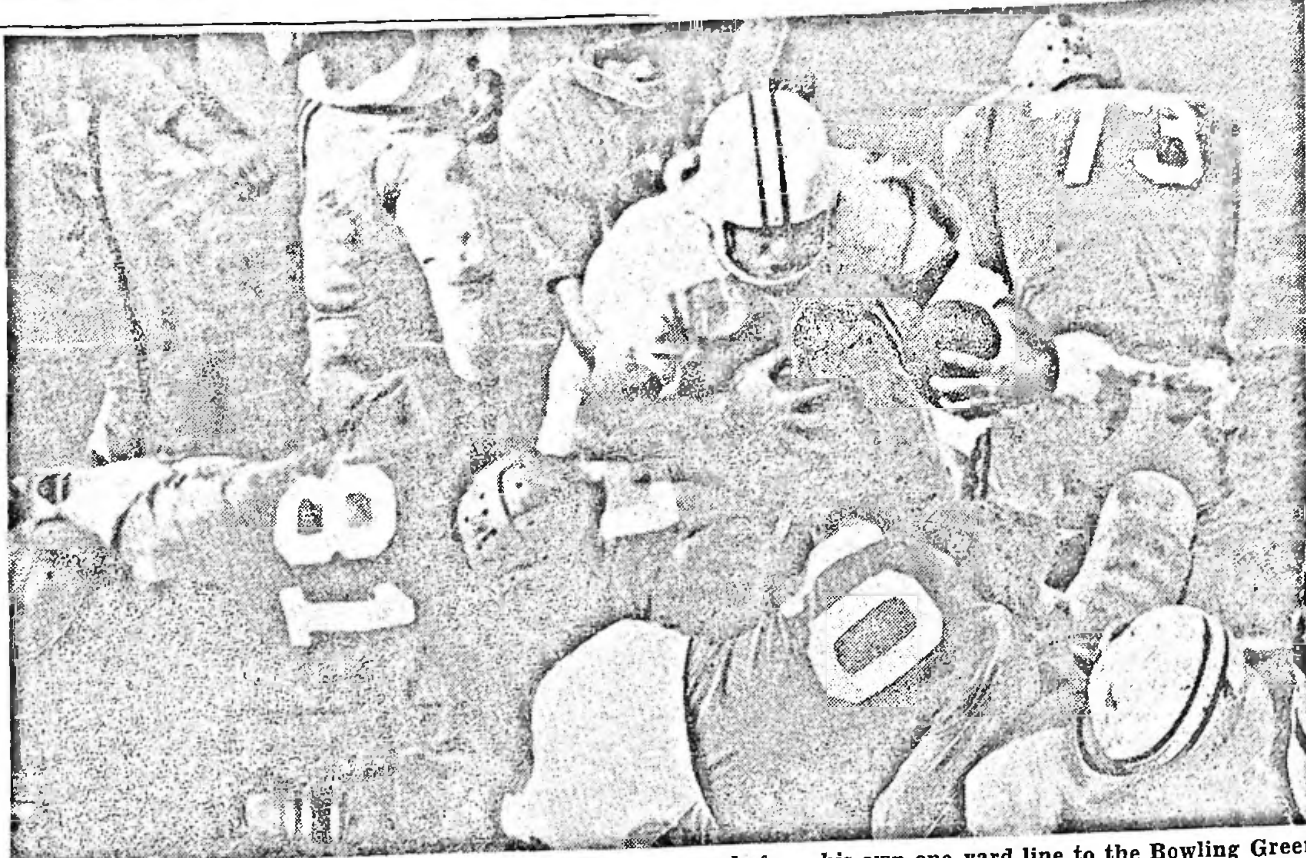

However, the Falcons, had stuff to come back and were well on their way to a score when the third period ended. They reached the Marshall 19 and from there needed only three plays in the fourth period to send DeOrto over from the five. A missed conversion here left them just six points behind.

Marshall's offense couldn't gain a first down after the kickoff and the Big Green punted out on the Bee-Gee 19. Jackson broke loose for 30 yards to move to mid-field and with the Big Green fighting it took ten plays from mid-field before the Falcons reached the one, from where Bryan sneaked over. This tied the score at 26-26 and Hecker, as if he had not damaged Marshall enough with his pass catching, booted the conversion for the winning extra point.

WHILE HECKER'S final conversion was needed for the Falcon victory it was actually the aerial game of Bowling Green

MARSHALL TAKES LEAD ON HELLYER'S SCORE — Things looked bright for the Big Green of Marshall College yesterday after this third quarter touchdown by Right Halfback Len Hellyer. The Logan junior's three - yard thrust gave the Big Green a 19-14 lead over Bowling Green University. The extra point made it 20-14, but Bowling Green rallied to win 27-26. Hellyer had set up this touchdown by romping 90 yards from his own one-yard line to the Bowling Green nine. After two more plays carried the ball to the three, Hellyer lugged it over. Shown on the bottom of the heap are three Bowling Green defenders whose efforts to stop Hellyer's momentum were all in vain—End Jack Hecker (81), Quarterback Don Nehler (10) and Right Tackle Kenneth Russell (73).

Parade At Noon Tomorrow Begins Marshall College Homecoming

Marshall College's 1955 homecoming celebration will begin officially at noon tomorrow when the annual parade steps off down Fourth avenue.

The parade, one of the highlights of the day's festivities, will form in Government Square at 11 A. M. It will move north on Eighth Street to Fourth avenue at noon, and proceed east to Sixteenth street and south on Sixteenth street to Charleston avenue and Fairfield Stadium.

In addition to more than 20 floats and floral arrangements from campus fraternities, sororities and independent organizations, the parade will feature five marching bands from the Huntington area.

Bands participating will be from Marshall College, Huntington East high school, Huntington high, Douglass high and Vinson.

The parade will be led by "Miss Marshall" and her three attendants. The queen and attendants were chosen by the college student body in a general campus election this week. "Miss Marshall" will be announced prior to the parade.

Candidates for the title of Miss Marshall were Betty Ruth England, Alderson senior; Margaret Ann Taylor, Charleston junior; Barbara Snow, Summersville sophomore and Jeannette Thabit, Spencer freshman.

"Miss Marshall" and her three attendants will reign over the Marshall College - Bowling Green University football game at 2 P. M.

She will be presented during the intermission of the homecoming dance at Memorial Field House tomorrow evening.

As part of the overall homecoming day festivities, the Marshall College Alumni Association will have an after-game party at the Hotel Frederick. The social get-together will begin at 5 P. M. All Marshall alumni are invited. Mrs. Mary Tipton Peters is in charge of arrangements.

The dance at Memorial Field House will feature Art Mooney and his orchestra. It will be from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M.

Bad News For Green; Hellyer Still Hobbled

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

The Marshall College Big Green football team got some bad news today on the eve of its Homecoming game here tomorrow against undefeated, once-tied Bowling Green.

Len Hellyer, Marshall's No. 1 offensive back, has been announced as a doubtful starter or participant in the important Mid-American Conference game.

Head coach Herb Royer said that Hellyer's bad leg, injured in the 46-7 Miami defeat two weeks ago, has not fully healed and that the junior from Logan, may have to be sidelined. Lightnin' Len was absent from last week's Kent State contest, also lost by Marshall, 39-6.

On the brighter side, regular right end, junior Dick Athey, will be ready to go after one week's idleness. Athey suffered a slight shoulder separation against Miami and also missed the Kent contest.

However, his shoulder is now fully healed and he'll be available.

Meanwhile, a 35-man Bowling Green

Hardin Colfax

Here's a good one. Gene (IBM) Lowe had his car all fixed for winter and now he's planning a two-weeks vacation in Miami, Fla. . . . Sure was a nice party that Sally and Chud Plymale threw the other night. The food was really good. Hope Mr. and Mrs. Colfax can get situated soon and have the next one . . .

The next time you see Detective Sergeant Charles Goodpaster get him to sing that song about Morehead, Ky., for you. Burl Ives couldn't do better . . . Don't miss the big Halloween party Monday night at Main and "B" streets, Ceredo. The big event, including games, contests and prizes for everyone, is being sponsored by the Ceredo Volunteer Fire Department . . .

Sure wish my friend and neighbor, John Brewer, a speedy recovery from his recent mishap. John was hunting last week when he was accidentally shot in the face and head . . . Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod and Earl and Gladys Hale are steady readers of this column. Earl is the No. 1 barber on West Twelfth street and Adams avenue . . . John (Perch) Hall has the best power lawn mower in this area. Colfax tried it out the other day on his lawn and it went through grass knee high. Yes, you're right, I put it off as long as I could . . .

With a few pounds off of him, Bill Toothman looks like he still could play some pretty good basketball for Marshall College. Saw him down at "Big Friendly" the other day . . . Wonder if they could get the gates open at Fairfield Stadium without Harold Willey and Dr. Lloyd Beck? They might, but the place wouldn't be the same . . .

BIG GREEN UN

Fisher And Hess Draw Starting Jobs In Line, Hellyer To See Action

The old grads will come home to Marshall College today in hopes of watching the Big Green snap a two-game losing streak and come through with a win over Bowling Green State University at Fairfield Stadium in a Mid-American Conference contest.

Game time has been set at 2 P. M. with the usual Homecoming Day festivities scheduled.

Marshall will be a decided underdog since Bowling Green leads them in all departments statistically and is in a tie with Kent State University for second place in the MAC while the Big Green is tied with Toledo University for fifth.

Coach Herb Royer has had his charges going over their mistakes in last weekend's 39-6 loss to Kent State with painstaking care and says he is satisfied with the way they have been performing.

"We've gone over our mistakes, which were mainly mental lapses," said Coach Royer, "and I feel that the boys will go out there tomorrow and play a fine game."

In going over his starting lineup, Coach Royer listed two sophomore linemen for their first starting roles this season.

Phil Fisher, a converted guard from Beckley who has been out most of this season with a broken leg, will replace senior end Jim Barton. Also gaining a starting role will be guard Herb Hess from Lumberport. He will replace Junior Irv Wilson in the lineup.

Coach Royer said that his backs have looked "plenty sharp" in drills this week. He added that all of them will be ready for service, although junior halfback Len Hellyer is still having a slight amount of trouble with a pulled ligament, which kept him out of the Kent game.

"Len worked out with the squad in scrimmage the past week but he was a little slower than usual," Coach Royer said. "I plan to use him against Bowling Green but I don't plan to start him since we have some backs who have a bit more speed. But he's sure to see action."

"And speaking of speed," Coach Royer continued, "end Dick Athey will be back in action after spending the Kent State game on the sidelines due to a shoulder separation."

With today's game tabbed a "must" for the Falcons, Coach Royer added that he expects them to go "all out" against Marshall since Bowling Green needs the win in order to stay in the running for a possible MAC title.

Bowling Green, the surprise of the loop this season after having a winless record in the MAC last year, has a 2-0-1 record to date.

Marshall has a 2-3 slate going into today's game and a 1-3 MAC mark.

Probable starting lineups:

B. GREEN	POS.	MARSHALL
Kisselle	LE	Fisher
Koch	LT	Harris
Murnen	LG	McCollins
Peek	C	Snow
Stanzalie	RG	Hess
Russell	RT	D'Alesio

Remember 1930 'Grin Offensive', Ryan Warns

(See Page One Story)

Speaking at a banquet at the Hotel Prichard last night, Associated Press News Analyst William L. Ryan declared the "grin" offensive of the Russian high command is pure deceit.

The banquet highlighted a full day of activity for more than 100 editors, publishers, trade representatives and their wives.

Mr. Ryan said the "grin offensive" is not new among Russian schemers.

"This is a duplicate," he said, "of one launched in the 30's when International Communism exulted that 'the peaceful policy of the Soviet Union' not only won important successes but led to a tendency of the capitalist world to establish peaceful relations with the Soviet Union."

Ryan quoted Soviet Communist Boss Nikita Khrushchev:

"If anyone expects that behind our smiles we doubt the teachings of Marxism-Leninism, those who wait for that can wait until Easter falls on Tuesday."

He also quoted from Leninist teachings:

"As long as we have not conquered the whole world, as long as we are weaker than the capitalist world, we must know how to take advantage of the contradictions existing among the imperialists."

Ryan cited as examples of this teaching:

Use of the threat of a rearmament to scare France;

Eagerness of the Soviet bloc to arm Egypt and other countries of the Arab bloc to stir fears in the Middle East.

The foreign news analyst spoke pessimistically of the chances for success of the foreign ministers conference at Geneva.

The agenda has been limited by the Soviets, he said, but still left are the major issues of German unification, European security and disarmament.

"The Soviet Union insists that a system of security for Europe be set up, including both East and West, and then unification can be discussed by the two sides of Germany themselves. This implies recognition of Communist East Germany as a sovereign state, but neither West Germany nor the western allies can countenance that. The West says reunification of Germany should come first. Obviously there is deadlock here."

Ryan predicted that the Soviet Union will make a "big" grand stand play on disarmament and place the U. S. in the worst light possible, a maneuver intended to split the United States from its allies. But they don't believe in disarmament for a second."

The West Virginia Motor Truck Assn. was host to the convention at a breakfast opening the day's activities, and the U. S. Brewers Foundation was host at a luncheon, at which William I. Truby of Atlanta, southern director for the association was speaker.

Truby urged the editors and publishers to safeguard "their right to advertise legitimate products." He referred to efforts in Georgia to limit the size of small loan company ads, and in West Virginia of the attempted similar limitation of funeral home advertising.

"Free enterprise," he said "cannot exist in an atmosphere that permits censorship of the advertising of legitimate products."

Those attending the convention will be guests of Marshall College for sessions today, and the homecoming football game with Bowling Green, Ohio, State University.

Alumni Return For Festivities

20 - Float Parade At Noon Highlights College Homecoming Program Today

Dis (Additional Picture on Page 11) 10-24-35

Marshall College celebrates another homecoming today with freshman reigning as queen of the festivities for what is apparently the first time in the many years that a "Miss Marshall" has been chosen.

She is brunette Jeanette Thabet of Spencer, chosen in a campus election Wednesday. Her attendants will be Betty England, Alde son senior; Margaret Taylor, Charleston junior, and Barbara Snow, Summersville sophomore.

They will ride in places of honor in a parade that will form in Government Square and move at noon. The route will be north to Fourth Avenue, east to Sixteenth Street and south to Fairfield Stadium, where Marshall meets Bowling Green University in the homecoming football game at 2 P. M.

Out-of-town alumni began arriving yesterday for the round of activities that will include open house events by several campus organizations, a post-game party to be given by the Marshall College Alumni Association at the Hotel Frederick at 5 P. M. and a dance at Memorial Field House tonight.

The parade will include a score of organization floats. Awards for the winners and second place entries of men's and women's organizations will be presented at the dance, at which Miss Thabet will be crowned.

The Weather Bureau said showers were expected this morning, but that clearing weather is in prospect for this afternoon.

Miss Tamara Orr 10-28-55 (243)

Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority is being capably managed this year by its new president Tamara Orr of Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Orr, 1550 Rugby road. Her family came here to live two years ago from Morgantown.

Miss Orr is a member of the junior class at Marshall College. She is vice president of Pi Kappa Delta, national speech honorary sorority and Phi Alpha Theta, national history honorary sorority. She is majoring in education and speech and is planning to teach after her graduation.

She attended schools in Morgantown and is a graduate of the high school there. Last year she was social chairman and co-chairman of the home coming float for her sorority.

Twenty coeds were pledged to this sorority last week following several attractive rush parties. The Alpha Sigma Alpha chapter house is located at 1637 Fifth avenue.

Chilled Homecomers See Herd Almost Win

A shivering crowd of students and homecoming alumni yesterday watched Marshall College come close to winning the game against Bowling Green, but slip at the last minute into a 27-26 defeat.

Chill winds, lowering clouds and a falling thermometer threatened to put more gloom into the annual homecoming festivities.

But none of the prophesied showers materialized, and a wintry sun came out for the colorful half-time festivities, when Miss Jeannette Thabet was crowned Miss Marshall College, and the gay floats — each prophesying victory — were driven around the stadium and judged.

Following the game, the Marshall Alumni Association entertained with a cocktail party and buffet at the Hotel Frederick.

Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity took first place honors for the second consecutive year in the annual homecoming float contest.

Censoring Of Ads Is Attacked

Protect Rights, Press Is Urged

William I. Truby of the U. S. Brewers Foundation today congratulated West Virginia publishers on the fact that newspapers rank at the top in advertising media but warned, "your problem is not alone to keep on top but to protest your right to advertise legitimate products."

Truby, southern district in Atlanta, Ga., spoke to the West Virginia Press Association on "Advertising and Public Relations" at a luncheon given by the West Virginia division of the Foundation.

"I speak not alone of movements to restrict or prohibit alcoholic beverage advertising but like trends in other fields," Mr. Truby said. "As in Georgia where small loan companies recently were limited to newspaper advertisements not exceeding 16 square inches in size, and here in your own state where efforts were made to restrict funeral home advertising."

"I believe that the editors of our country not only oppose these un-American proposals from the standpoint of freedom of the press, but also because they feel that free enterprise, the very foundation of America's greatness, cannot exist in an atmosphere that permits censorship of the advertising of a legitimate product."

Other speakers this morning included President Henry C. Woodyard of Spencer, who gave his annual report; J. Winton Lemen of the Eastbank Kodak Co., Rochester, N. Y., who spoke at a photography clinic, and J. G. Terry of Wolf & Co. of Chicago, who discussed business office operations.

The speaker at a dinner tonight at the hotel will be William L. Ryan of the Associated Press, an expert on Soviet Russia.

This afternoon was to be devoted to workshops and clinics. Speakers were to include Francis P. Fisher, secretary manager of the WVPA; Allen Byrne of the Barbour Publishing Co. of Philippi, Neal Gordon of Metro Associated Services of New York, Mr. Terry, G. H. Keenan of the Parkersburg Sentinel, W. E. Chilton III of the Charleston Gazette and Robert Boaz of WCHS-TV Charleston.

Herbert von Karajan, internationally famous conductor of the London Philharmonia Orchestra, acknowledges the applause of the audience in a European theater, when the orchestra was on a continental tour. Now on a tour of the United States, the orchestra will appear in concert tonight at 8:30 P. M. at the Keith-Albee Theater.

Philharmonia Of London To Appear Here Tonight

Coming to Huntington from city tour of this country and gave Washington, D. C., where it presented its second concert in the nation's Capital in its current American tour, the Philharmonia Orchestra of London will appear in concert at 8:30 P. M. tonight at the Keith-Albee Theater.

The orchestra is appearing here under the auspices of the Marshall College Artists Series. The curtain will rise promptly at 8:30 o'clock, Artists Series Manager Curtis Baxter reminded patrons. Season single admission tickets are available at the Becker Music Store, 1040 Fourth Avenue.

The 100-member London Orchestra is under the direction of Herbert von Karajan, internationally known as one of the world's most dynamic conductors. It is on a 10-city tour of this country and gave three concerts at Carnegie Hall in New York City. Following its first concert in Washington, Day Thorpe, music critic for the Washington Evening Star, commented, "Amazing is the word for the London Orchestra." The New York Journal American hailed it as "the world's greatest orchestra."

The next event on the Artists Series will be "Tea and Symphathy," the Playwrights' Broadway hit, which will be presented December 12.

Marshall In Non-Loop Game With Youngstown

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Marshall's football team gets a welcomed breather from the Mid-American Conference next Saturday night when it hosts Youngstown College at Fairfield Stadium.

And, while head coach Herb Royer isn't taking the Penguins lightly, he hopes the game will enable the Big Green to right itself for its final conference start the following week against Toledo.

Last Saturday, Marshall lost its third game in a row and fourth of the season, bowing by a whisker to the unbeaten Bowling Green Falcons, 27-26, in a thrilling Homecoming game here before 7,500 fans.

The defeat dropped Marshall to sixth place in the conference with a 1-4-0 showing and it also made the Big Green's seasonal record, 2-4. With only three games left to play, Marshall still has an outside chance to make the season a winning one, though its final foe, Xavier of Cincinnati, has suddenly blossomed into a national powerhouse under new head coach Mickey Connolly.

In the last three weeks Marshall has lost to Miami of Ohio, Kent State and Bowling Green in the conference. The Falcons in beating Marshall took second place in the MAC with a 3-0-1 record.

Of the Bowling Green game, Royer was obviously discouraged. His team blew a two touchdown lead in the second half and then failed to go all the way on its final desperation drive when a pass was intercepted on the goal line with about 40 seconds to play.

"We got every possible break a team could get," he said, "and yet we couldn't win."

Besides not cashing in on some breaks Marshall was powerless against the aerial attack of the Falcons as engineered by Quarterback Jack Bryan. He completed 17 out of 22 passes, ten of them to end Jack Hecker, for 236 yards and one touchdown.

"Our pass defense was playing too deep and Bryan was completing them short," said Royer. "Despite our warnings, our defensive backs failed to adjust themselves to this and continued to play deep."

The Marshall coach, still valiantly trying to weld Marshall into a football power, was happy with the showing of his ailing No. 1 offensive star, right half-back Len Hellyer. The Logan junior, still slowed a bit by a bad leg, blossomed into a great player against the Falcons — getting two touchdowns, ripping off a scintillating 90 yard run and making three key pass defense saves. He was more of a stickout on the field than either Bryan or Hecker—the aerial champions of the conference.

Another player Royer was pleased with was Co - Captain Bill Harris. The Falcons scouted Harris as only a fair player — but Harris helped block a kick and scored a touchdown as a result of it — and also recovered an important fumble.

Coach Doyt Perry of the Falcons made an astute observation when he said:

"Marshall has been playing the tough end of the conference and we haven't. If they're a losing team and can play that kind of ball — then we're in four trouble when we play Miami and Ohio."

He said he wasn't surprised by Marshall's aggressiveness.

"Marshall has a good club. It's been getting tough breaks for a couple of years. One of these days — it will begin to get a few good ones."

Marie Wilson of London, a violinist with the London Philharmonia Orchestra appearing at the Keith-Albee tonight on the Marshall College Artist series, has quite a few West Virginia relatives.

In the audience tonight there will be her cousins from Oak Hill, Glen Jean, Hinton and Scarbo. Her late uncle George Scott came over here many years ago and was a mine foreman at Scarbo. His wife the former Jennie Wilson was a sister of Marie Wilson's father. Their children are the cousins headed this way for tonight's performance and to see their cousin from overseas.

Big Green Prepares For WM

Marshall 'Finds' Self Against MH

Advertiser Sports Editor

Marshall's resurgent Big Green football team, its season's record squared, began work today for its second Mid-American Conference assignment of the season next Saturday against Western Michigan at Kalamazoo.

Marshall, which "found" itself Saturday night in thrashing Morris Harvey, 46-7, at Charleston, has a 1-1 season's mark. If it can get by the Broncos, Marshall will also even its conference record at 1-1.

Head coach Herb Royer today praised his ball club for its showing against the Golden Eagles. He said it was a complete turnabout from the brand of ball played in the season's opener against Ohio University which tripped the Big Green, 13-6.

"Our boys seemed a lot more eager and more determined this time," Royer observed. "They knew the chips were down and they played harder. Our blocking was very much improved over the Ohio game and our tackling was more vicious. Now, we hope that we can keep the boys at that pitch for Western Michigan."

Royer wasn't taking the Broncos lightly. Though they have two defeats and a tie for three starts, including a bad beating from Bowling Green (35-0) in a conference game, the Broncos have always been known as slow starters.

"Last year they got off to a slow start," said Royer, "and we beat them here pretty easily (47-13). But, by the time the season had ended they gave Ohio and Kent State some tough ball games—beating Kent in the bargain."

Royer plans to go over scouting reports of the Bowling Green Western Michigan game today. Marshall plays Bowling Green here later this season.

The squad came through the Morris Harvey game in good physical shape. Fullback George Templin, who took a firmer grip on the No. 1 fullback post with another fine running performance, has a bruised shoulder but the Ohio native is expected to be more than ready for the Broncos.

Against Morris Harvey, Marshall started a slightly revamped backfield which had Templin at fullback in place of Dyke Six and Len Hellyer at right half, in place of Don Adkins.

This move worked so well that Marshall scored seven times and it only had the ball ten times all night.

Hellyer blossomed beautifully as a right half, getting back the regular's job he held before going into the service two years ago. He scored three touchdowns on runs of seven, six and 52 yards.

The rest of the scoring was handled by No. 1 left halfback Fred Freeman on a five yard buck, Adkins on a 20 yard run, and Cagle Curtis, the young sophomore from Huntington East who flashed excellent potential in getting his first game experience. Curtis got two scores—one on a swift 24 yard run, the other on a buck.

Marshall scored in every period in winning its 23rd game from Morris Harvey in the 49 year series. The Eagles have won four with two ties.

Price Of Food High In Belgian Cities

By PAGE PITT

BRUSSELS — This is the capital of what the Flemish call "the heart of Europe" — Belgium. Newspaper editors say that this "most densely populated country" on the Continent is prospering from the grass roots. Vacant city flats are begging for tenants. Food prices are higher than in the United States. The farmer never had it so good. People are leaving the city for the country. Industrial workers say they need more money to buy dear food. They are striking. The economists say, freely translated, "Here we go again."

On the campus of the University of Brussels the man who knows how deep is the ocean and how high is the sky, Prof. August Picard, is prominent. One savant describes Brussels with its statue of the naughty little boy (Manneken Pis) as "the beautiful city guarded by trees." But not too well guarded. "We were occupied four years of the first war and four years of the second war." The old story is still about that a German officer, during the last occupation, stopped a school boy on the street and asked him, "What languages do you learn in school?" "Flemish, French and English," he answered. "What? No German?" "No, sir. You see, you come but every 25 years and when you are here we have to shut up."

Waterloo Painting Is Popular

The cycloramic painting of the Battle of Waterloo, opened in 1914, on the edge of the battlefield a few kilometers from the city, is thronged daily by tourists. Few are attracted to the battlefields of World Wars One and Two.

Asked several second-hand book dealers to help me find the child's story which I think was entitled, "A Dog of Flanders." I remember my mother used to read it to me along with "Water Babies" and "The Little Lame Prince." It was about a noble dog who helped his hard-working master pull a cart. No one here seems to have ever heard of it.

We wore out one interpreter talking with editors. Le Soir, Brussels' largest paper, serves the French-speaking Belgians. Most of the staff, university graduates. Marcel Linz, international politics editor, told me he has his Doctor's degree. Het Laatste Nieuws is an independent paper written for the Flemish people and circulated both in Brussels and Antwerp. Editor Marcel Stijas is vice president of the International Federation of Journalists. Asked me to tell him how reporters are born in America. La Nation Belge is a Catholic paper. Editor Paul Neuray was "pleased to point with great gratification" to his paper's "enthusiastic support of the Atlantic Pact."

Fate Of World Up To Scientists

Albert Housiaux, general director of Le Peuple, says: "The destiny of humanity is now more in the hands of the scientists than of the statesmen. The atomic and hydrogen bombs make our political and military strategies of the past passe. The Pyrenees, the Rhine, the Atlantic are gone as barriers. Our world has shrunk. It is now a very little place. We must all live together on it." Le Peuple is the official newspaper of the Belgium Socialist party, now in power.

Many newsmen asked me, "How are you coming along with desegregation in America?"

Brussels street signs are in two languages — Flemish and French. Many of the people speak pleasingly understandable English. Americans are popular. The folks we've talked with are volubly appreciative of sustained United States support. They squirmed about, proud — they said — to reciprocate a little for the wonderful hospitality Americans always show Belgians.

Squeezed in some sightseeing. Were about to be taken on a tour to visit an eighteenth century hotel. Found we were living in one.

... Off for Holland — Rotterdam, The Hague, Amsterdam — via KLM (Royal Dutch Airline) ...

Big Green Favored Over Broncs Today

(Special to The Advertiser)
KALAMAZOO, Mich.—A heavily favored Marshall College football team from Huntington, W. Va., met winless Western Michigan here today in the second Mid-American Conference start of the season for both teams.
Marshall, which mauled the Broncs in Huntington last year, was figured to do about the same today as the Big Green sought its second win of the season in three starts and first in the MAC.

The lineups:

Some experts tabbed Marshall as high as five touchdowns better than Western Michigan which has only a tie against Great Lakes Naval Station and two straight defeats to show so far this season. But, the consensus among most was that Marshall was probably two to three touchdowns better. Western Michigan was without mentally and physically ready for

Royer Says Green 'Up' For Game

Dis 10-8-55
TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 7. — The Marshall College football squad stopped here today en route to Kalamazoo, Mich., where tomorrow night they will tangle with the Western Michigan Broncos in a Mid-American Conference game. The team went through a light workout late this afternoon and will move on to Kalamazoo tomorrow morning.

The squad of 36 players seemed in high spirits after their drills and Coach Herb Royer said they seem to be "up" for the game, their second MAC contest. The Big Green was beaten, 13-6, by Ohio University in their first conference outing.

They followed the loss with a 46-7 victory over Morris Harvey, a traditional foe, last week. The loss at the hands of the Bobcats was largely attributed by fans and coaches alike to "pre-game jitters" and inexperience.

The Broncos have tied one game and lost two this season, absorbing a 35-0 walloping at the hands of Bowling Green in a MAC game last week.

The Big Green and the Broncos have met only once before on the gridiron. In that game last year Marshall won, 47-13.

The Big Green has only one player, reserve lineman Jim Simpson, on the "doubtful" list, Coach Royer declaring his team was in excellent physical shape as well as in high spirits.

Coach Royer, in listing his probable starting lineup, gave the same one which opened the game against Morris Harvey last week, but added that he has others slated to see plenty of action.

In the backfield, Bill Zban was listed at quarterback with Fred Freeman and Len Hellyer at halfbacks and George Templin at fullback.

Coach Royer listed Jim Barton and Dick Athey at ends, co-captain Bill Harris and Ted D'Alesio at tackles, co-captain Bob McCollins and Irv Wilson at guards and Jerry Snow at center to complete his starting unit.

Slated for active reserve roles are halfback Cagle Curtis and Don Adkins, fullback Dyke Six and quarterback John Wells, ends Dick Bryan and Campbell Platt, tackles Randy Scott and Bob Loudermilk, guards Joe Clay and Herb Hess and centers Charlie Tanner and Stan Malecki.

ONE OF THE REDSKINS — Here is one of the Miami Redskins who will be seen in action Saturday night at Fairfield Stadium when Marshall meets Miami in a Mid-American Conference game. He is Don "Teddy Bear" Smith a 220 pound junior tackle.. from Akron. Dis 10-11-55

ALBERT DEKKER and Edith Atwater will combine their talents in a unique program entitled "Two's a Company" here Thursday at 8:15 P. M. in the Marshall College auditorium. This will be the first of 11 presentations of the college Community Forum Series for 1955-56. Both Miss Atwater and Mr. Dekker have starred in stage and screen productions. Admission Thursday night will be by season forum membership only, available at the downtown box office at the Becker Music Store, 1040 Fourth avenue.

Former Teacher Takes Life

A finding of apparent suicide graduate, and formerly taught school at Chapmanville, and later in Virginia. She had been living in Huntington since 1937, and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include one son, Robert E. Gregg of Huntington; the mother, Mrs. A. J. Kelly of Huntington; two sisters, Mrs. W. R. Paul of Dayton, O., and Mrs. G. W. Scheerer of Highland, Calif., and two brothers, Franklin C. Kelly of California and James T. Kelly of Charleston.

Scenes From Literature To Be Interpreted Thursday

The Marshall College Community Forum will open its 1955-56 season Thursday by presenting Edith Atwater and Albert Dekker in a unique program entitled "Two's a Company."

Miss Atwater and Mr. Dekker, two versatile personalities of the stage and screen, will appear at 8:15 P. M. in the Marshall College auditorium. Admission will be by season membership only. These will continue on sale tomorrow at the downtown box office at the Becker Music Store, 1040 Fourth avenue.

The presentation by Miss Atwater and Mr. Dekker is one of two additions to the forum program to replace numbers which have been cancelled.

The Dublin Players, who have scored big hits in previous appearances here, will return on May 14 to present Oscar Wilde's "An Ideal Husband."

THE SCHEDULED programs which have been cancelled include an appearance by King Peter of Yugoslavia, who will be unable to make an American tour because of illness in his family, and a program by Helen Gahagan Douglas and Melvyn Douglas which had been set for October 13. Mr. Douglas replaced Paul Muni in the play, "Inherit the Wind" on Broadway.

This necessitated cancellation of the program planned by him and his wife.

During the course of the program they will present here Thursday, Miss Atwater and Mr. Dekker each play many parts with such variety and change of mood and pace that the audience gets the feeling of a stage peopled with many characters. The program consists of scenes and sketches of love and imagination chosen from the world's best literature.

Edith Atwater, a tall titian-haired young woman will be remembered for her high comedy style in "Time Out for Ginger"; her warmth and sympathy in "State of the Union"; her buoyant charm and beauty as Maggie Cutler in "The Man Who Came to Dinner"; and her cruelty and strength as Goneril, the hated daughter of "King Lear".

Albert Dekker is known to millions of picture goers and a great television audience for his many brilliant performances, including "Dr. Cyclops", "Death of a Salesman", "Once Upon a Honeymoon", and "Strange Cargo." "East of Eden."

Together they provide an exciting and laugh-provoking, yet thoughtful and inspiring evening.

Other numbers on the forum series include "Caribbiana", a program of Caribbean folk lore October 17; a debate on U. S. foreign policy by U. S. Senators H. H. Humphrey and Alexander Wiley on October 27; the famous "World Affairs Council", November 7; William Shirer, foreign affairs expert, December 1, and Ivy Baker Priest, U. S. treasurer, January 23.

Four evenings of arm chair travel through all color motion pictures will be presented. They include the showing of films by Yew Char on Hawaii, December 5; William Harris on Mexico, December 16; Hal Linker on Pakistan, February 3 and Curtis Nagel on the river Rhine, April 23.

FRATERNITY TO GIVE OPEN HOUSE: It's a new fraternity house, complete with remodeling, for the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity at Marshall College. The redecoration at the new house, located at 1402 Fifth Avenue, was done entirely by the fraternity members, and they are quite proud of their heretofore unknown talents with hammers, saws and the like.

An open house has been planned for tomorrow afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30 P. M. to initiate the fraternity house to visitors, and vice versa. Charles LeSueur is president of the fraternity, and has extended an invitation to everyone who wishes to attend the open house.

Teachers Make Final Plans For State Meet

H-adv 10-9-54
Huntington will spread its welcome mat next week for teachers from 19 counties who will be here for a regional convention of the West Virginia Education Association.

Potential attendance at the meeting October 17 and 18 is 8,500 teachers. Local educators have estimated that at least 6,000 will be here for the convention which opens with a general session at 10 A. M. Monday at Memorial Field House.

At 2 P. M. subject matter and section groups will meet. Some will begin with luncheon sessions which will carry over into the afternoon.

The second general session will be on Monday at 7:30 P. M. at the city auditorium where the third and final general session will also be held the following day at 1:30 P. M.

At 10 A. M. on Tuesday, October 18, affiliate groups of the WVEA will meet. These include the Classroom Teachers, Elementary Principals, Secondary Principals, superintendents and Association of Higher Education.

Counties represented here will include Boone, Cabell, Clay, Fayette, Greenbrier, Kanawha, Lincoln, Mason, Mercer, Mingo, Monroe, McDowell, Nicholas, Putnam, Raleigh, Summers, Wayne and Wyoming.

General chairman for the convention here is Olin C. Nutter, superintendent of Cabell county schools. President Stewart H. Smith of Marshall College and Renick E. Wilkinson, superintendent of schools in Wayne county, are assistant chairmen.

Co-chairmen of the housing committee are W. J. Boyd and W. C. Garrett. L. D. Chambers heads the general information committee. H. C. Lantz and Myron Drummond are co-chairmen of registration and Kermit D. Yeater is in charge of transportation.

Other chairmen include advertising, M. O. Brumfield, William Trospier and Mrs. Nan T. Davis; art exhibits, Miss Lillian Wolfe and Miss Lucy Lewis; breakfast, luncheons and dinners, Mrs. Margaret Phillips; civic clubs, John Lea Jr.; commercial exhibits, J. F. DeYoung and Angello Orsillo; educational exhibits, Mrs. Bernice Sullivan and Mrs. Mary T. Barrett.

Schwartz; music, Mrs. Lureata Martin and Leland Arnold; publicity, Miss Sweetland Oxley; street signs and markers, G. F. Moran and T. C. McDermott; WVEA and NEA exhibits, Miss Rachael Wilson and Miss Myra E. Fairfax, and ushers, O. C. Greenlee and Jack Chap-public schools of the county the man.

There will be no classes in the public schools of the county the two days the convention is in progress.

HENRY HULL, star of the American theatre, will appear on the Marshall College Convocation program Thursday at 11 A. M.

Henry Hull, Theatre Star Here Oct. 13

H-Adv 10-9-54
Henry Hull, distinguished star of the American theatre, will present "A Morning with Mark Twain" at the convocation Thursday at 11 A. M. in the Marshall College Auditorium.

The program is designed to recreate the personality, mannerisms and character of the first of the truly great American writers. Mr. Hull will include reading and comments from Tom Sawyer, Huckleberry Finn, The Innocents Abroad, The Innocents at Home, Roughing It, and other well-known stories by Mark Twain.

Tobacco Road, The Cat and the Canary, The trial of Joan of Arc, and Mr. Roberts are just a few of the 200 Broadway plays Henry Hull has appeared in since his start in theatre four decades ago. Mr. Hull has also made appearances in movies and on television and radio programs.

"The theatre has been very good to me," says the quick-witted and cultured dramatic star. "I can't imagine myself engaged in anything else with the possible exception of talking about it."

Ex-Marshall Dean Attends College Meet

10-9-54
Dr. Harry B. Heflin, former dean of the Teachers College at Marshall, will be one of several West Virginia college presidents to participate in the sixth Allegheny Regional Conference on liberal arts education on the Salem College campus Sunday and Monday.

Dr. Heflin, now president of Glenville State College, will serve as chairman of the Monday afternoon discussion group, which will consider the topic, "Liberal Arts in the Professions."

While at Marshall, Heflin served first as director of the Bureau for Educational Research and Services before becoming dean. He was named Glenville president in 1947.

During its two-day meeting, the conference will consider many phases of liberal arts education. Delegates from Marshall and many other colleges throughout West Virginia and neighboring states will hear important guest speakers and in discussion groups will tackle many segments of the liberal arts programs in modern colleges.

John Creighton To Give Faculty Recital Oct. 12

Professor John W. Creighton, tenor, will present a faculty recital Wednesday in Old Main Auditorium, Marshall College at 8:15 P. M. It was announced by Dr. C. L. Kingsbury, head of the music department.

Mr. Creighton is well known in Huntington musical circles. Mrs. Mary Shep Mann will be his accompanist. The program is as follows:

Where'er you walk From Semele ..... Handel
If with all your hearts .....
From Elijah ..... Mendelssohn
Preach me not your musty rules

Hospital Picks Nursing Chief

Announcement of the appointment of a director of nursing service for the Cabell-Huntington Hospital and of hospital plans to cooperate with Marshall College in a four-year course leading to a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing was made yesterday by Hospital Administrator Daniel Brown.

Mrs. Annie Wagner, former assistant director of Monteflor Hospital in Pittsburgh, who received her B. S. in nursing education and her master's degree in education from the University of Pittsburgh, was named to the nursing director's post. Mrs. Wagner on November 1 will begin interviewing nurses for staff posts. The interviews will be held at the hospital if administrative offices are completed by that time. Interviews have not been set for other positions.

Mr. Brown emphasized that the college course will depend upon approval of the State Board of Education and that the program probably would not start until next September.

Marshall Student Hurt In Wreck

A 19-year-old Marshall College freshman was injured last night in a head-on collision between two cars on State Route 10 north of West Hamlin.

Under treatment at St. Mary's Hospital for a broken leg and possible other injuries was Barbara Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davidson of Branchland.

Officials of the McGhee Funeral Home at West Hamlin who brought Miss Davidson to Huntington said she was a passenger in a car driven by Johnny Lake, about 25, of Huntington. Lake's car collided head-on with a car bearing Ohio license plates. Driver of the car was not immediately known.

Three Leading Ladies Cast In College Play

"Triple casting" will give three Marshall College drama students the opportunity to be leading ladies in the College Theatre's coming production. Nancy Snodgrass of South Charleston, Fay Murray of Milton and Anita Shahan of Grafton will play the role of Lizzie Currin in "The Rainmaker" on succeeding nights during the November 2-4 run of the play. The role was created on Broadway by Geraldine Page.

The six remaining characters are all male roles.

They will be interpreted by Dave Humphreys and John Charles Barbour, both of Huntington, John C. Ray of Kenova, Lewis Yeager of Parkersburg, Homer Ratcliff of Logan and Pete Williams of Columbus, Ohio.

The romantic comedy, which enjoyed critical acclaim during its New York run last season, concerns the transformation of plain and lonely Lizzie into a beautiful woman in love by the sympathy and understanding of the rainmaker who is hired to end the drought at the family ranch.

"The Rainmaker," first in the annual play series of the College Theatre, will be presented in Old Main Auditorium under direction of Clayton R. Page, associate professor of speech.

Marshall Coed Hurt In Crash On Route 10

Barbara Davidson, 19, of Branchland, a Marshall College student, was under treatment last night at St. Mary's Hospital for a thigh fracture.

State police at Hamlin said the young woman was injured when a car in which she was a passenger and a second vehicle were involved in a collision Saturday night north of West Hamlin on State Route 10.

John Lake, a laboratory technician at Huntington Orthopedic Hospital, was the driver of the car in which Miss Davidson was riding. Police identified the driver of the second car as Kerry Adkins of East Lynn.

Adkins has posted bond before a Lincoln County magistrate for appearance on a reckless driving charge, police said.

Mr. Lake suffered minor injuries but did not require hospitalization.

Marshall in Good Shape For Western Michigan

(Special to The Advertiser)

TOLEDO, O. — The Marshall College football team will leave here early tomorrow morning for Kalamazoo, Mich., where the Big Green from Huntington, W. Va., makes its second Mid-American Conference start of the season against Western Michigan.

The Marshall travelling party of 36 players, four coaches, a student manager, and athletic director Bob Morris, arrived here yesterday and went through a light drill at a local field.

Head coach Herb Royer, with only reserve sophomore lineman Jim Simpson definitely out of tomorrow's game, planned more of the same today. He said his team, which has split two games so far, is in excellent physical and mental shape.

"We're not taking this game lightly," said Royer. "Although Western Michigan has yet to win a game, they're always tough on their home field."

The Big Green has been rated anywhere from a three to four touchdown favorite over the Broncs who have only one tie and two losses to show for their efforts so far. One of the losses was a 35-0 MAC shellacking at the hands of Bowling Green last week.

In two games this year Marshall lost to Ohio, 13-6, in an MAC affair, but followed with an impressive 46-7 triumph over their state rival, Morris Harvey last week.

Morris Harvey, which plays several Mid-American teams each year, is always regarded as tough in conference circles. Marshall was expected to win but not by such a large score.

Marshall College's 1955 football team is blessed with two fine fullbacks this season, 6-0 180 pound junior George Templin (top) from Martins Ferry, O., and 5-10 165 pound senior Dyke Six from Chester, W. Va. Both will see action against Western Michigan tomorrow at Kalamazoo.

The final tally had Toledo University coaches here mumbling to themselves.

Toledo, like Marshall, is a member of the MAC and plays the Big Green here in mid-November.

Marshall and Western Michigan have met only once. That was last year in Huntington and the Big Green prevailed, 47-13.

Except for Simpson, the Marshall team is in good shape. Royer said he will make no starting lineup changes from the one which opened against Morris Harvey.

This means that Jim Barton and Dick Athey will start at the ends, co-captain Bill Harris and Ted D'Alesio at tackles, co-captain Bob McCollins and Irv Wilson at guards and Jerry Snow at center.

His opening backfield will have Bill Zban at quarterback, Fred Freeman and Len Hellyer at the halves and George Templin at fullback.

Slated to see plenty of action are ends Dick Byran and Campbell Platt, tackles Randy Scott and Bob Loudermilk, guards Joe Clay and Herb Hess and centers Charlie Tanner and Stan Malecki.

Reserve backs who will get some action are halfbacks Cagle Curtis and Don Adkins, fullback Dyke Six and No. 2 quarterback Johnny Wells.

Besides Royer, other coaches making the trip are line coach Sam Clagg, end coach Dan Wickline, and backfield coach Ed Prelaz.

267 Daughters Of 1812 To Hear Heath

The First West Virginia Chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, will meet Saturday at 2 P. M. at the home of Mrs. John W. Taylor, 2557 Third avenue, with Mrs. Frank E. Bradford, co-hostess.

The ritual will be conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. W. H. Daniel. The pledge to the flag will be led by Mrs. W. D. Fontaine and the American Creed by Mrs. Guy Newcomer.

Dr. Herschel Heath of the Marshall College History Department will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "Implications of The Geneva Conference."

Rush Parties Set By Sororities

Several rush parties will be given today and the remainder of this week by the Marshall College sororities. Formal rushing was opened Sunday afternoon with the Pan - Hellenic tea at the Student Union on the campus.

Parties today will include an open house by Delta Sigma Epsilon from 6 until 8 P. M. and Sigma Sigma Sigma from 8 until 10 P. M. Tomorrow Alpha Chi Omega will hold open house from 6 until 8 P. M. and Alpha Sigma Alpha from 8 until 10 P. M.

The two sororities entertaining Friday will be Alpha Sigma Tau from 6 until 8 P. M. and Alpha Xi Delta from 8 until 10 P. M. Pi Kappa Sigma sorority will entertain Saturday from 6 until 8 P. M.

Candidates Are Named

Candidates for Homecoming

Queen of the freshman class at Marshall College have been nominated, it was announced by Mary Ponek, queens chairman.

The candidates are Mary Ann Thompson of Charleston, Cecile Simon of Prenter, Jane Lee Porter of Lynchburg, Va., Jeannette Thabet of Spencer, Lois Richey of Weirton, Mary Barron of Elkins, Peggy Tolley of Mullins, Marie Wilson of Charleston, Sue Stephenson of Ridgeview, and Mary Annese Bartram of Kenova.

Dr. Hoback's Father Passes

G. H. A. (Harry) Kunst of Grafton, widely known attorney and father of Dr. Florence Hoback, Huntington physician, died last night at Grafton.

Mr. Kunst was a member of the now defunct West Virginia Court of Claims. He was a player on the first football team sponsored by West Virginia University.

Also surviving is the widow, Mrs. Mary Conway Kunst.

Dr. Hoback and her husband, Dr. John H. Hoback, of the Marshall College faculty, were to leave today for Grafton.

Miami Coach Glad MC Won; Halts Cockiness

OXFORD, O. — Miami's Coach Ara Parseghian, who's prone to face his problems so earnestly he's not overly quick to acknowledge his blessings, was willing to recognize at least five reasons for joy today.

The casual fan surveying Parseghian's unbeaten Redskins, whose earlier victims included Northwestern and the Xavier team which devoured Cincinnati Saturday, might run the count into the hundreds. But here's what counts most for Ara:

1. His Redskins' crisp 47-0 win over Toledo, marking a neat start to the Mid-American Conference title defense in which Miami is engaged for five consecutive weeks.

2. The Redskins' recovery of the "hungry initiative" which Parseghian insists "was lacking when we squeaked past Xavier, no matter what that 37-0 win over Cincinnati indicates about Xavier's 1955 strength".

No Injuries

3. Complete absence of any injuries of consequence in the Toledo game — Dick Mattern, center and co-captain who had sprained an ankle against Xavier, was held out entirely although he could have played if needed; he should be in top shape again this week.

4. Opportunity to give a mple seasoning to the 33 other players who saw action; Ara used his second eleven nearly half of each of the first two periods, yanked his starters for good after 58 seconds of the third period, had everybody in action by the start of the fourth.

5. A second nice, fat victory by the next opponent, Marshall, to hold over the Redskins as safeguard against new complacency.

Marshall, which had lost only a one-touchdown decision to respected Ohio University in its opener, slapped Western Michigan 28-0 Saturday after having beaten Morris Harvey by a wider margin the previous week. He even had a good one-man threat to hold before the Redskins in the person of Len Hellyer, sophomore halfback who against Western

Jamerson Finds Solution: Quits

MOREHEAD, Ky. (INS)—Coach Wilbur (Shorty) Jamerson of Morehead State College, whose football teams have lost 27 straight games in two and a half seasons, has decided to do something about the situation. He quit.

Michigan ran for a 38-yard touchdown and made passes from Bill Zban good for additional touchdown plays covering 37 and 61 yards.

Implications

The Redskins' win over Toledo introduced intriguing prestige implications. Toledo had to its credit a 12-7 win over Detroit, which the next week chalked up a 41-0 win over Wichita, which Saturday downed Oklahoma A & M 14-7.

The irony is that the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau agency which tabulates team and individual grid statistics for the nation's newspapers and wire services, steadfastly refuses to include Dayton, Xavier and any Mid-American Conference members, including Miami, on its list of approximately 100 "major colleges". The NCAB insists that it is guided by an advisory committee representing the Football Writers of America and that its "only fair standard" is whether half of a team's opponents are to be found on the list which was set up as "major" some years ago. Of the four neighborhood rivals in Southwestern Ohio, Cincinnati has had border-line sanction as a major for some eight years despite the "drawback" of having the prestige of its schedule dragged down by Miami, Dayton and Xavier from the "small-college list".

The Redskins Saturday small-colleged their way to a reined-in 47-0 margin by literally demanding five of their seven scoring opportunities. Three of those times Miami gained possession when Toledo fumbled on vicious tackles (all six of Toledo's fumbles were contact fumbles); twice Miami went goalward after pass interceptions, and the other two scoring thrusts followed a Toledo kickoff and a Toledo punt.

David Thelen, above, of East Canton, Ohio, will start at fullback for Miami University Saturday night when the unbeaten Redskins clash with Marshall College at Fairfield Stadium at 8 P. M. Miami has won three straight, downing Northwestern, Xavier and Toledo.

Films To Show Secretary Work

A series of meetings will be conducted by Mrs. Madeline Strony, educational director of the Gregg Publishing Co., next Tuesday in Northcott Hall at Marshall College. Her visit is being sponsored by the business education division of the West Virginia Education Association.

All interested students are invited to participate in the meetings.

At 10 A. M. Mrs. Strony will show secretarial training sound-strip films including the "first job, getting the job, job growth, cooperation, attitudes and adjusting to the job." A question and discussion period will follow.

At noon luncheon will be served in the cafeteria. Reservations must be made by tomorrow.

"Personality Quotient," a discussion on how to develop desirable personality traits, will follow at 2 P. M.

Actor At Marshall Tomorrow

Henry Hull, distinguished star of stage and screen, will appear on a convocation program in the Marshall College Auditorium tomorrow at 11 A. M.

His "Morning with Mark Twain" is designed to recreate the personality, mannerisms, and character of the great American author.

Included in Mr. Hull's readings will be selections from Tom Sawyer, Huckleberry Finn, Innocents Abroad, Innocents at Home, Roughing It, and other stories by the illustrious Samuel Clemens.

Henry Hull has appeared in scores of plays and films, and is particularly remembered for his stage performances in "Tobacco Road," "The Man Who Came Back," "Grand Hotel" and "The Cat and the Canary."

He has appeared on the screen in "Jesse James," "The Great Waltz," "Fountainhead," "Great Expectations," "Fighter Command" and many others.

Marshall Polishes Offense In Preparation For Miami

The Marshall College Big Green football team went through an offensive practice yesterday as they prepare for their Saturday night meeting with the powerful Redskins of Miami University at Fairfield Stadium.

This week Marshall will try to upset the Redskins after getting off to a slow start by dropping a 13-6 decision to the Bobcats of Ohio University in their opener. However, the Herd has managed to score a total of 74 points in their last two encounters, while holding their opponents to only 7. Their two victories have been at the expense of Morris Harvey (46-7), and Western Michigan (28-0).

Marshall's biggest scoring punch is a junior halfback Len Hellyer who has scored six touchdowns in the last two games. Hellyer has showed up well in both running and pass receiving.

Coach Royer has been satisfied with the Big Green's performance in the past two games. He said that his offense and defense both have improved considerably since the Herd fell to Ohio U. three weeks ago.

Miami, undefeated to date, has knocked off such opponents as Big Ten Northwestern, Xavier, and Toledo. They have a tremendous amount of power in both the backfield and in the line.

Last year the Redskins took an easy 46-0 decision over the Big Green.

"Miami is by far our strongest opponent," Royer said, "but they will not find us as easy this season as they have in the past."

Marshall will be trying for their second Mid-American Conference victory in three starts. They now have a 1-1 record in MAC play, and a 2-1 record in all games played.

Creighton Presents Recital Tonight

Professor John W. Creighton, Mrs. Mary Shep Mann will be the tenor, of the Marshall College music faculty, will present a recital in the college auditorium tonight at 8:15 P. M., it was announced yesterday by Dr. C. L. Kingsbury, head of the music department.

The program will include early Italian and modern French selections, numbers by Hugo Wolf, and selections from contemporary American music. The recital is open to the public.

Schaefer Will Be Pianist For Miss Hobson

Theodore Schaefer, who twice has accompanied singers who have appeared on the Marshall College Artists Series, will be the pianist for the Jane Hobson benefit concert to be given at the Huntington City Auditorium October 20 at 8:15 P. M. This announcement was made by Miss Arma Newman, president of the Altrusa Club which is sponsoring the concert.

Mr. Schaefer has just returned to Washington from New York State and Ontario from a concert tour with Mildred Miller, whom he accompanied at the piano. He played for Miss Miller when she sang in Huntington a few seasons ago, and also for Richard Tucker.

Theodore Schaefer's activity in the American musical scene is extensive. As organist and choirmaster of National Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., he has moulded a choral organization which not only musically enhances the worship services of his church, but stimulates the musical life of the nations Capital with an annual series of choral vesper services singular in content.

His choir has also appeared with the National Symphony Orchestra, the National Gallery Orchestra, and the Bach Aria Group of New York. This November, the choir will again appear with the Bach Aria Group and in January will sing Aaron Copland's Canticale of Freedom with the National Symphony, the composer conducting.

As an accompanist, Mr. Schaefer has not only appeared with frequency in Washington's galleries of music, but has toured the United States and Canada with singers under Columbia Artists Management, including Vivian Della Chiesa, Jane Hobson, Alice Howland, Mildred Miller, Mac Morgan and Richard Tucker.

As organ recitalist and lecturer, Mr. Schaefer performs before regional and national meetings of the American Guild of Organists of which he is a past dean. His writings appear in several musical magazines. Throughout all his musical endeavor constant encouragement is given to the contemporary composer.

The choral vesper series at National Presbyterian Church has introduced to Washington works from such men as Copland, Bach, Britten, Cheston, Ginastera, Dello Joio, Poulenc and Vaughan Williams.

THEODORE SCHAEFER
Welcome Back!

The first performance in this country of the Missa Brevis by Zoltan Kodaly was sung by this choir on January 26, 1947, with the composer conducting. Buxtehude, Bach and Handel, their contemporaries and successors are included in the choir's repertoire as well.

Recordings of the choir include works of Buxtehude, Handel, Kodaly, Vaughan Williams and Britten. This fall a new recording, A Christmas Candlelight Service will be released under the Melotosh Label.

Entire net proceeds of the Jane Hobson concert will be used to help furnish the premature nursery of the new Cabell-Huntington General Hospital, scheduled open in January.

Tickets for the concert are on sale at the Kenney Music Co., 9 Third Avenue. Members of the Cabell-Huntington Hospital Auxiliary are assisting the Altrusa Club in ticket sales.

On Forum Opener

Albert Dekker, star of the screen, stage and television, will appear in the Marshall College auditorium tonight at 8:15 P. M. with Edith Atwater in the first attraction of the new season of the Marshall College Community Forum. Their presentation, "Two's A Company," will include several dramatic scenes and sketches. Miss Atwater's latest appearance on Broadway was with Melvyn Douglas in "Time Out For Ginger."

Smith Rates Terrapins First, WVU Eleventh

By DR. ALLEN N. SMITH

Unbeaten Maryland retains the top ranking among the nation's college football teams in the Smith Touchdown Tendency System of Ratings, but loses some of its lead to two hotly pursuing powerhouses, Michigan and UCLA.

Coach Jim Tatum's Terrapins, who rank Wake Forest, 28-7, lead the nation for the second straight week.

Power-packed Michigan is a close second, after overwhelming Army, 26-2. Third place is retained by UCLA, which handed Oregon State a 38-0 setback.

Chopping down Miami (Fla.), 14-0, for its third successive shutout, Notre Dame graduates one rung to 4th. Oklahoma's surging Sooners continue to rise, gaining strength off their 20-0 win over Texas. The Sooners, seventh a week ago, are a solid 5th.

Georgia Tech, 7-0 victor over stubborn Louisiana State, clings to 6th. Army falls three places to 7th. Texas Christian earns the 8th rung by blanking Alabama, 21-0.

Wisconsin hops from tenth to 9th, following its 9-0 win over Purdue.

Michigan State, which cut loose with everything to belt Stanford into submission, 38-14, leaps into the select list for the first time this season. The Spartans are ranked No. 10.

West Virginia's 47-12 massacre of Virginia Military lands the Mountaineers in the 11th spot.

Duke didn't rate in the top twelve last week, but the Blue Devils' stock shot upward after a convincing 47-7 romp over William and Mary. However, Duke must now face Ohio State, Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech and Navy on successive Saturdays.

Evicted from the top dozen as a result of these maneuverings were Southern California and Miami (Fla.).

In the Mid-American Conference, Miami of Ohio, unbeaten in three starts and with Big Ten Northwestern among its victims, is ranked first ahead of Ohio. Marshall is third followed by Bowling Green, Kent State, Toledo and Western Michigan in that order.

Marshall Begins Work For Toughest Opponent

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Marshall College's rejuvenated Big Green football team began work today for what shapes up as its biggest game of the season next Saturday night at Fairfield Stadium.

That's when the Miami of Ohio juggernaut, which has swept past three straight opponents, comes to town and a big crowd is expected to be on hand to watch them.

Shortly after arriving back in town yesterday afternoon with his club, head coach Herb Royer said:

"We sincerely feel that we can make a ball game out of it with Miami. When we played there last year (won by Miami, 46-0) we made a lot of mistakes and were very disorganized. However, the boys seem determined to atone for those mistakes as much as possible Saturday. There's no doubt that Miami is not only the toughest team we play this year but is one of the toughest in the country and the toughest in the Mid-American Conference."

Royer was rather satisfied with the way Marshall knocked off Western Michigan, 28-0, at Kalamazoo Saturday. But, if not completely satisfied he was certainly understanding.

"Considering the long trip, they played well," Herb said. "But, the boys didn't show too much zip. After we scored on the second play of the game, the boys seemed to play just hard enough to win."

The victory was the second in three starts for Marshall and evened its MAC record at 1-1.

Royer was pleased with the continued improvement of quarterback Bill Zban's passing and with the Big Green's pass defense. Zban threw four times and connected on two of them, both touchdowns and both caught by halfback Len Hellyer. The first covered 37 yards, the second 63 yards.

The Broncos tried 19 passes but only six of them were completed — none for big yardage.

Hellyer, besides catching the two touchdown passes, scored another on a 39 yard sprint. Halfback Fred Freeman got the first score on the second play of the game with a 20 yard burst.

Marshall's overall attack also continued to improve. The Big Green got 11 first downs, 229 yards on the ground and 100 through the air.

Western Michigan never got past the Marshall 30 yard line.

Miami Coach Tabs Marshall As Darkhorse Of Conference

OXFORD, O., Oct. 12 — This is the week Miami's Coach Ara Parseghina wants to be proven wrong.

Last spring, when signs of ambition and improvement were coming out of Toledo, many observers considered University of Toledo to be the new unexpected threat of the 1955 Mid-American Conference football campaign. Parseghian dissented.

"I expect Marshall College to be the darkhorse," he insisted.

"Yes, Toledo is coming. Bowling Green will be tougher under the natural impetus of a new coaching setup. But they'll both be relying mighty heavily on sophomores. Marshall is past that stage. It has been predominantly an underclassman club for two years now, and this is the payoff season of their building program. Too few people realize how rough Marshall would have been last year with just a little more depth and just one or two more really good men."

Marshall, whom the Redskins meet at Huntington next Saturday night, has been rolling well enough so far to bear out Parseghian's prediction. It lost its opener to an experienced Ohio University club by a single touchdown and has romped past Morris Harvey and Western Michigan in its next two games.

The Redskins were in good shape today as they made preparation for the Marshall game, second of the five Mid-American games they play in five straight weeks. No injuries of consequence were suffered when they opened the five-game title defense with a 47-0 win over Toledo here last Saturday, using 44 men.

Marshall-Miami, Kent-Ohio Tilts Top MAC Fare

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Miami vs. Marshall, Kent State vs. Ohio.

Those two games hold the spotlight in Mid-American Conference activity next Saturday and the results could well scramble the tough loop like a couple of eggs on a breakfast table.

The powerful Redskins from Oxford, O., winner of three straight, invade Huntington Saturday night seeking its second conference victory. It will encounter a fired-up Marshall eleven before an expected crowd of close to 10,000 at Fairfield Stadium.

Two Straight

Marshall, which bowed to Ohio, 13-6, in its home opener, has won two straight road games since that unfortunate occasion — crushing state rival Morris Harvey, 46-7, at Charleston, and following with a resounding 28-0 conquest of Western Michigan at Kalamazoo last Saturday.

The victory over the Broncos gave Marshall a 2-1 overall record and a 1-1 mark in the conference. His offense straightened out and his backs flashing the kind of speed his attack has needed all along, head coach Herb Royer made this statement about the Miami assignment:

"We feel that we can give them a ball game. We made a lot of mistakes when we lost to them last year (46-0) at Oxford and we were completely disorganized. We think we can do better than that this year."

Four Deep

Miami began the season by flattening Northwestern of the Big Ten, 25-14, to make it two in a row over Western Conference teams in two years. Next was a squeaker with Xavier, 13-12, and then Saturday, Coach Ara Parseghian's four-deep legions squashed Toledo, 47-0, in its first start in the MAC.

Miami must win Saturday to keep pace with MAC - leading Ohio which plays powerful, rebounding Kent State. Kent has been rated the No. 2 team in pre-season conference polls and after getting off to a sluggish start, bowled over Baldwin - Wallace, 33-2, in a non-league affair Friday.

Ohio has won three in a row and two of them in the MAC. The Bobcats must get by Kent to keep that lead and if they should fall, will drop to second place, providing Miami defeats Marshall. Kent has only a 6-6 tie with that very surprising Bowling Green team in the conference so far. Its other games have been against non-conference opposition.

Disappointing Record

A third conference game Saturday sends Western Michigan and Toledo, both winless in the league at 0-2-0 against each other at Toledo. The Broncos, of course, bowed to Marshall last week and the Rockets were ripped by Miami.

However, on a seasonal basis, Western Michigan has yet to win, owning a disappointing 0-3-1 record while the Rockets have done better — racking up a 2-2 showing.

Bowling Green, meanwhile, continues to feed on non-conference fare Saturday when it plays Baldwin - Wallace at Berea, O., a school which schedules a lot of MAC competition. The Falcons have a tie with Kent and a win over Western Michigan in its league starts and have knocked off two straight non-conference foes.

After Saturday, however, Bowling Green will launch its conference half of the schedule in earnest — playing Marshall here, Miami, and Ohio on successive week ends.

Forum Opens At Marshall On Thursday

The Marshall College Community Forum will open its 1955-56 season tomorrow by presenting Albert Dekker and Edith Atwater in a program entitled "Two's a Company."

The two distinguished stars will present scenes and sketches from the works of authors and playwrights ranging from Shakespeare to James Thurber.

The program will begin at 8:15 P. M. in the college auditorium. Admission will be by season forum membership only. This is the first of 11 programs of the 1955-56 season.

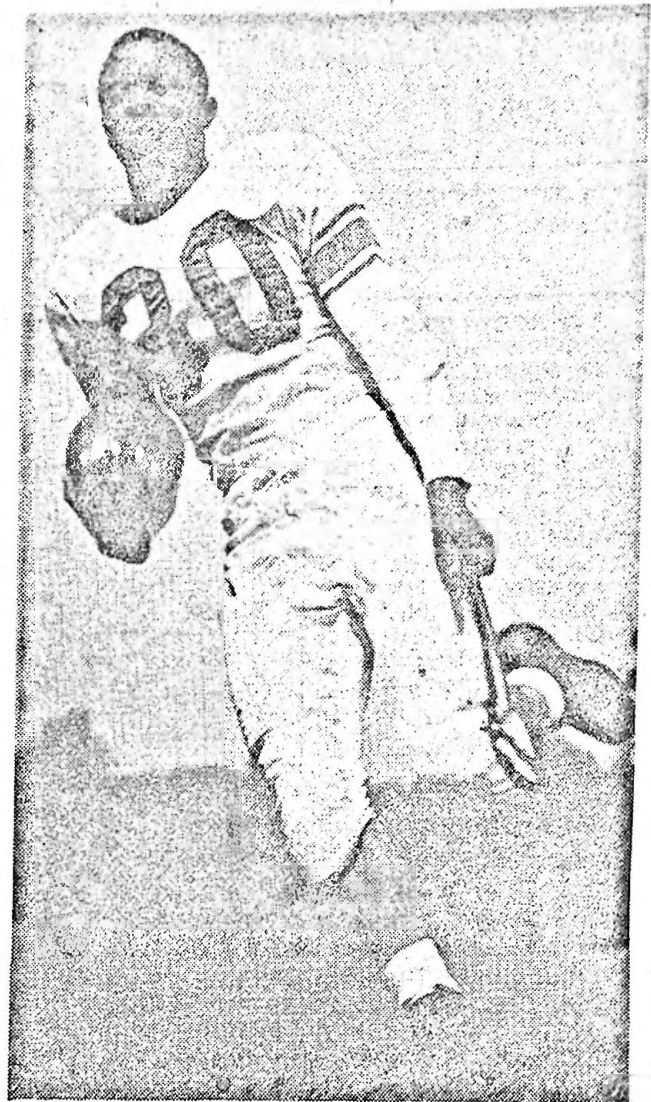

Miss Atwater and Mr. Dekker will present scenes and sketches from "Haze" by Carl Sandburg, "The Witch of Coos" by Robert Frost, "The Bayou Fido" by Albert Dekker, "Wanted: Dead or Alive" by Corey Ford; "A Man at Sea" by James Thurber, selections from "Richard III" by Shakespeare, selections from Elizabeth Barrett Browning, "Tell Tale Heart" by Edgar Allen Poe, "A Desert Flare" by Ronald Alexander, "Fancies and Good-nights" by John Collier and "Time Out for Ginger" by Roger Alexander.

STAR REDSKIN HALFBACK — Tirrel "The Turtle" Burton (above) a 9.9 dash man will be at left half Saturday night for Miami University when the Redskins invade Fairfield Stadium for their Mid-American Conference meeting with Marshall's Big Green. Burton, a senior, was co-leader in scoring for Miami last year and scored the first touchdown last week when the Redskins routed Toledo 47-0. Miami is undefeated in three games and opened by whipping Northwestern 25-14.

Has Been Spark In Three Wins

OXFORD, Ohio, Oct. 12—There's a phenomenon a-building at Miami.

A lightning-fast 160-pound half-back, Tirrel Burton, is racking up early-season yardage in a fashion which threatens to eclipse the records of a fine series of Miami University left halfbacks.

Burton, a 25-year-old ex-paratrooper, has been clocked at 9.8 in the 100, high-jumped 6 feet 4 inches and placed in the finals of the NCAA and National AAU low hurdles. He has come into his own as a halfback in his senior season after two years as a spot runner. It's partly because Miami has shifted to a more wide-open game, partly because he's using his blockers more effectively, partly because so far he has ducked early-season leg injuries which slowed him previously.

He has sparked the unbeaten Redskins to victories over Northwestern, Xavier and Toledo with electrifying breakouts plus steady short-gain performance for a three-game average of 12.3 yards a try unmatched by anything else in Miami's statistical records. Miami invades Marshall College next Saturday night for its second Mid-American Conference game.

In only 27 times in three games, he has netted 331 yards. These include touchdown jaunts of 59 and 9 yards against Northwestern, 73 against Xavier and 23 and 49 against Toledo, when he played only 15 minutes. They don't include a nullified 77-yard run or a 46-yard punt return.

Johnny Pont, present Miami freshman coach, only Miami player honored by jersey retirement, had 340 yards and a 7.7-yard average for 44 trips after three games of his sophomore and best year, 1949. Other comparisons after three games: Pont 12 for 100 in 1950, 35 for 262 in 1951; Jim (Boxcar) Bailey, 21 for 104 in 1950, 29 for 181 in 1951; Tom Pagna, 37 for 245 in 1952, 39 for 299 in 1953.

And the second-highest ground gainer for the Redskins is Burton's sophomore alternate, Mike Larese, with 144 yards for 20 trips in two games. Other top Miami gainers are Tom Troxell, right halfback, 132 for 15 trips; Dean Porter, fullback, and his alternate, Nap Reid, 71 for 18 and 30 for 10, respectively.

1.—The object of Herald-Dispatch Grid Guess Contest is to select the winners of 20 college and high school football games to be played on Friday and Saturday.

2.—The games are listed on the contest coupon published in The Herald-Dispatch, which is ready to be filled out. Place an "X" mark in the box beside the team you forecast will win. If you wish to forecast a tie game then place the "X" mark in the column under the word "Tie" at the extreme right. Leave a blank space in the boxes of the teams you predict will lose. You need not use the contest coupon published in The Herald-Dispatch for your convenience. You may duplicate it in any way you wish, providing it is legible. It will be helpful to the judges in tabulating the forecasts if such duplicates approximate the size of the published coupon. There also will be made available through the Promotion Department each week at the office of the Huntington Publishing Co., free of charge, printed entry coupons for your convenience.

3.—You may enter as many as five coupons each week, switching results around on games you aren't sure about. No contestant may win more than one prize in any one week. The coupon will be published each day

Monday through Thursday. All entries must be received by The Herald-Dispatch by noon Friday. Posting entries at that time is not sufficient. They must be at The Herald-Dispatch at that time. Winner will be announced the following Friday.

4.—Any one person who gets all the games right will receive $50. If more than one person gets all the games right, they will divide $100 equally among them.

In case no one gets all the games correctly, then the person who gets the highest number correct will win $25. If more than one person ties for the prize, they will divide $50 equally among them.

5.—In case of postponement of any game, then the game will be automatically eliminated from the contest.

6.—The contest is open to all excellent employees of The Huntington Publishing Company and their families.

7.—Trim the coupon neatly at the borders.

8.—This is NOT a "score guessing" contest. It is a game of skill which challenges your knowledge of local and national football teams and their records. You only predict the winners; to indicate the score is incorrect. The decision of the judges shall be final in all instances.

Marshall, WVU Home Tilts Feature Busy College Card

By The Associated Press

Marshall's Big Green, fighting its way up into the Mid-American Conference elite, will find out in next Saturday night's scrap with Miami just how far it has progressed along the rebuilding road.

The night contest in Huntington will follow West Virginia University's afternoon Homecoming tussle with William and Mary on a nine-game week-end card for state collegiate football teams beginning with two contests Thursday.

Morris Harvey (0-3) faces another major assignment at Youngstown in a night contest, and Salem (0-3) entertains West Virginia Wesleyan (also 0-3) in an afternoon Homecoming game Thursday.

Conference Affair

The Wesleyan - Salem contest also will be a State Collegiate Conference affair, the first of four this week end. Wesleyan is 0-2 in the conference, and Salem is 0-3.

Additional state conference activity Saturday, with loop and over-all records in parenthesis in that order:

Concord (2-1 and 2-2) at Fairmont (3-1 and 3-1); Potomac State (3-1 and 3-1) at Shepherd (2-0 and 3-0) in the latter's Homecoming game; and Glenville (0-4 and 0-4) at Davis and Elkins (0-3 and 0-3) in a battle of the winless.

West Virginia Tech, 3-1 against all foes, entertains Findlay, Ohio, at Montgomery Saturday night in a non-league game. Bluefield State (2-2) plays host to Fayetteville, N. C., Teachers, also Saturday.

Heavy Favorite

West Virginia heads into the William and Mary game a heavy favorite after handily winning its first three starts, including Saturday's 47-12 rout of Virginia Military Institute at Bluefield.

William and Mary is 0-3 after a 7-0 loss to Navy, a 14-7 defeat at the hands of Virginia Tech and Saturday's 47-7 lacing from Duke.

Marshall, now 2-1 altogether and 1-1 in the Mid-American, continued to pick up steam with Saturday's 28-0 league victory over Western Michigan, but in Miami will face the tough little circuit's four-star powerhouse.

The Redskins, 6-0 conqueror of Marshall a year ago, have upended the Big Ten's Northwestern, 25-14; rugged Xavier, 13-12, and Toledo, 47-0. If Marshall is "up," however, with its group of fine backs, Saturday night's contest could be one of 1955's best in state circles.

Decided Underdog

Morris Harvey will be a decided underdog at Youngstown, loser only to Ohio University by a 6-0 score this year. The Penguins have trampled Great Lakes Naval Station, 25-0, and West Chester, Pa., Teachers, 39-6.

West Virginia had trouble getting started against VMI, but Jack Rabbits' 90-yard punt return late in the opening period finally set the big Mountaineer machine

M. C. Forum Event Is Off

A Marshall College Community Forum attraction scheduled for tomorrow night has been postponed, it was announced today by Curtis Baxter, forum manager.

Mr. Baxter said Senator H. H. Humphrey, Democrat of Minnesota, who was to take part in the program, is unable to come to Huntington at this time. Senator Humphrey and Senator Alexander Wiley, Republican of Wisconsin, were scheduled to present a debate.

A new date for their appearance will be announced later.

Marshall Alumni Parties Slated For Saturday

Marshall College alumni football fans attending Saturday's homecoming game with Bowling Green will have more than just the grid action in store for them this week end.

All alumni, their wives or dates, are invited to drop in on the Marshall Stag Club Saturday between 11 A. M. and 1 P. M. And for that after-game celebration, the Marshall Alumni Association will again have an open house and buffet at the Hotel Frederick.

More than 700 attended the latter in 1954 and more are expected this year.

... Now if Marshall can just cap it off with a victory ...

Zban Will Be Radio Guest

Freddie Lee White, a Marshall College radio journalism major, will interview Bill Zban, Big Green quarterback, on radio station WSAZ tomorrow at 6:15 P. M.

White will discuss the Kent State and Miami games, and the coming game with Bowling Green. He will also present the Big Green's chances for their first homecoming win since 1949.

Later in the program Zban will discuss the player point of view of the games. He will describe the game as seen by the quarterback.

Members Of Press Gather Today For State Meeting

The West Virginia Press Association will open its three-day fall business meeting here today at the Hotel Prichard, with President Henry C. Woodyard of Spencer presiding.

Principal speakers will be William L. Ryan, of New York, Associated Press expert on Russia; William I. Truby of Atlanta, J. G. Terry of Chicago, representative of Wolf & Co., and J. Winton Lemen, representing the Eastman Kodak Co.

The delegates, representing the daily and weekly newspapers, will begin registering this afternoon. There will be an executive committee meeting and meetings of standing committees today. A reception and will be held at 8:30 P. M. tonight.

The delegates will attend a breakfast tomorrow at which the West Virginia Motor Truck Association will be host.

Mr. Ryan will speak at a banquet tomorrow evening. Mr. Lemen will conduct a photographic clinic tomorrow, and Mr. Terry will conduct section meetings for daily and weekly papers. Mr. Truby will speak on advertising and publicity.

On Saturday morning there will be conducted tours of Marshall College.

Delegates will be guests at the Marshall College - Bowling Green football game at Fairfield Stadium Saturday afternoon.

29 Pledged To Fraternity

Royer Working Daily On Big Green Defense

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Heavy doses of defensive work are being administered to the Marshall College football team this week by head coach Herb Royer and his aides.

In the past two games the Big Green's defenses have been shredded like wheat stalks by powerhouses Miami and Kent — fellow Mid-American Conference members.

The Redskins, defending champions who will collide with Kent in the top conference game of the season Saturday, ripped Marshall with a 46-7 victory. Kent followed last week with a 39-6 shellacking.

In both cases, Marshall was hit with a series of long runs. The defense gave ground grudgingly for most of the two games but on at least six occasions the opposition was able to strike pay dirt from far out.

With a Homecoming game coming up here Saturday against unbeaten and once tied Bowling Green, tied with Kent for second place in the MAC, Royer has been moving his men around like a chess strategist trying to weld the defensive patterns more tightly.

Against Miami and Kent Marshall gave up 671 yards on the ground and 167 in the air for an overall total of 838 yards and 13 touchdowns. Those figures represent the poorest defensive showing by Marshall since Royer took over three years ago.

Royer is also puzzled by his sputtering offense — an offense which averaged better than 300 yards a game and three touchdowns a game last season. Against Miami and Kent the Big Green amassed 35 first downs, but only 394 yards on the ground and 178 in the air for an overall total of 572. All this has produced but two touchdowns.

It's Royer's observation — and an accurate one — that the Marshall attack has not been able to sustain itself sufficiently. It can get a short series of first downs but then bogs down.

With the return of his No. 1 offensive back, Len Hellyer, and No. 1 right end, Dick Athey, to action, however, he has hopes that the club will find itself and begin clicking as it did against Western Michigan and Morris Harvey. Those two teams were walloped by 28-0 and 46-7 scores respectively.

The rest of the team is in good physical condition. Of course, on the sidelines for the season are three important men — sophomore guard and Phil Fisher, No. 3 center Stan Malecki, and No. 2 left half-back Cagle Curtis.

Fisher was lost before the season started with a broken ankle, Malecki went out ten days ago with a dislocated elbow and Curtis with the same injury last Saturday.

Daugherty Ends Judge Advocate School Course

(Special to The Advertiser)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — First Lieutenant David H. Daugherty, 439 Twelfth avenue, Huntington, W. Va., has completed a course at the Judge Advocate General's School here. He was a member of the 21st graduating class.

Lieutenant Daugherty received his A. B. Degree from Marshall College and is a graduate of the University of Michigan law school.

Graduates of the school will go to judge advocate assignments throughout the Army, where they assist in the administration of military justice and in other military legal work.

Little Green, Xavier Frosh To Meet Friday

The Marshall College freshman football team will get the homecoming festivities off to a start Friday afternoon when it meets Xavier of Cincinnati at St. Clouds Commons.

The "Little Green" has had two weeks to recuperate from the 72-0 humiliation it received in Cincinnati against a cross town rival of this week's opponent, Cincinnati University. The Bearkittens, who had defeated the Army Plebs on the week before, litterly ran through the Marshall Yearlings.

"We became unorganized after their first two touchdowns," Coach Bill Chambers said. "Our entire team fell apart. But I don't believe that any freshman team is 72 points better than we are."

Marshall started the season with a 14-0 victory over the Cadets of Greenbrier Military Academy in a battle at Huntington. Today they will be playing their last game of the season before the hometown folks and will be trying to get revenge for their last outing.

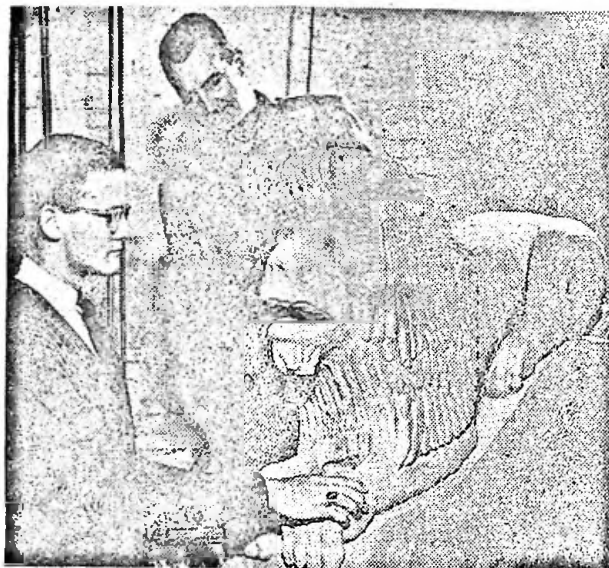

Xavier's frosh promises to be one of the strongest teams on the Marshall schedule, and Coach Chambers has stated that they will be hard to beat. However, he said that the Marshall Yearlings are capable of winning "if they are playing on their toes."

Next week the Little Green will travel to Ohio University for their last game of the season against the Bobkittens.

What Goes On Here Beale Home Supplies Lions For Fraternity

Larry Hite, member, and Harry McCollm Jr., alumnus of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, examine one of a pair of stone lions that will adorn the chapter house at 1402 Fifth avenue.

Alpha Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at Marshall College needed a lion — a stone lion, that is — for the front yard of their handsome new frat house at 1401 Fifth avenue.

Jack Theurer, son of Huntington's mayor, is president of the chapter.

The fraternity lads started scouring Huntington and the countryside for lions and found not one but two.

They were embellishments of the home of the late John M. Beale at 102 Main street, Guyandotte, now occupied by Mrs. A. B. Morrison. The house is a large and comfortable one at the foot of Main street just across from the McGinnis place. Not many people have seen its stone lions for a number of years because it now is somewhat remote from general traffic.

Matt Dugan said the Beale house was built in the late 1890's, and that would make the two lions about 56 or 58 years old now.

He said they were carved from limestone by Lark Bias, an old-time mason and stonecutter, who could turn his hand to monument work on request. Irvin Dugan, Matt's brother, who also was consulted, said the lions were well carved and that the art work was by no means inferior.

"I watched Mr. Bias install and put the finishing touches to the lions at Mr. Beale's home when I was a very small toddler," Mr. Dugan commented.

Students Choose 'Miss Marshall' In Voting Today

Ad- 10-26-55
Marshall College students were going to the polls today to select "Miss Marshall" who will reign at the 1955 college homecoming festivities Saturday.

The four finalists being voted on today were chosen from 32 coeds in a general campus election last week. They are Jeanette Thabit, Spencer freshman; Barbara Snow, Summersville sophomore; Margaret Ann Taylor, Charleston junior, and Betty Ruth England, Alderson senior.

Miss Marshall and her three attendants will reign over homecoming activities for the Marshall - Bowling Green University football game Saturday. She will lead the parade and will be presented during intermission at the homecoming dance at Memorial Field House Saturday evening.

Trophies will be presented Miss Marshall and the first and second place winners of the men's and women's divisions of an organizational float contest at the dance intermission.

College Draft Test Deadline Near

College students wishing to take the Selective Service Qualification Test to be given at Marshall College on November 17 should apply immediately for permission to take the test, Luther E. Bledsoe, Marshall College registrar, said yesterday.

Any student now doing satisfactory work on a full-time load of courses may apply if he has never taken the test before. Application forms may be picked up at any Selective Service Board office.

TAU KAPPA OPEN HOUSE

The active members and pledges of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will hold open house for all alumni, parents and friends at the chapter house, 1402 Fifth Avenue, Saturday, immediately after the Marshall College homecoming football game.

16 States, Five Foreign Countries Represented In College Enrollment

Enrollments for the current semester at Marshall College represent 46 counties of West Virginia, sixteen states, and five foreign countries.

Austria, Colombia, Costa Rica, Greece and Korea are each represented by one student, while the states of Ohio and Kentucky have over 95 students each attending Marshall.

Students from other states include those from Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Texas and the District of Columbia.

Of the 55 West Virginia counties, only Berkeley, Gilmer, Hampshire, Hardy, Jefferson, Pendleton, Preston, Ritchie and Tucker are not represented.

Other counties represented, in order of number of students, are Mingo (80), Raleigh (3), Lincoln (71), Mason (71), McDowell (57), Boone (50), Fayette (42), Greenbrier (41), Putnam (38), Wyoming (33), Mercer (24), Wood (23), Harrison (22), Jackson (20), Marshall (20), Roane (20), Nicholas (19), Ohio (15), Monroe (11), Clay (9), Braxton (7).

Pleasants (7), Pocahontas (7), Randolph (7), Wetzel (7), Summers (5), Brooke (4), Marion (4), Taylor (4), Webster (3), Wirt (3), Doddridge (2), Lewis (2), Tyler (2), Upshur (2), and one each from Barbour, Calhoun, Grant, Mineral, Monongalia, and Morgan counties.

Of the states represented, Pennsylvania and Virginia follow the Ohio and Kentucky enrollments with six and seven students, respectively.

New York and Florida have five, followed by New Jersey with three, and Illinois, Maryland, and North Carolina with two each. The remainder, including the District of Columbia, have one student at Marshall.

Royer Trying To 'Build Fire' Under His Marshall Gridders

After losing their last two games Coach Herb Royer is trying to "build a fire" under his Marshall College football team as he gets them ready for the Big Green homecoming Saturday against Bowling Green. It will be a Mid-American Conference game and the Big Green record in conference play is 1-3.

"If we can get the boys to play ball like they did at the beginning of the season, we will be hard to stop," Royer said.

Royer was looking toward Saturday and the homecoming encounter with unbeaten Mid-American Conference foe Bowling Green State University of Ohio.

"This is a game we really want to win, and I think my boys will be ready for them," he added.

The Big Green started the season with a loss, then scored two impressive wins over Morris Harvey and Western Michigan. In two succeeding games, with Miami of Ohio and Kent State, the offense sputtered and the defense fell apart.

Royer hopes, however, that the club will start clicking again, especially with the return from the injured list of two first stringers, halfback Len Hellyer and right end Dick Athey.

Physically, the rest of the squad is in good condition with exception of No. 3 center Stan Malecki of So. Plainfield, N. J., and second string left halfback Cagle Curtis of Huntington, both lost for the season through injuries. End Phil Fisher of Beckley suffered an ankle fracture and was lost for the year before the first game.

Stags To Honor Marshall Alumni

An open house for Marshall College alumni will be staged by the Marshall Stags at the Huntington Hotel Saturday from 11 A. M. until 1 P. M., it was announced last night at Johnny Angelo, Stags president.

"Nothing formal has been planned," Angelo said, "we just the boys to get together before the Marshall homecoming game. There will be refreshments and all alumni with their wives or girl friends are invited."

Foster Heads Junior Class At East High

By CAROL REYNOLDS

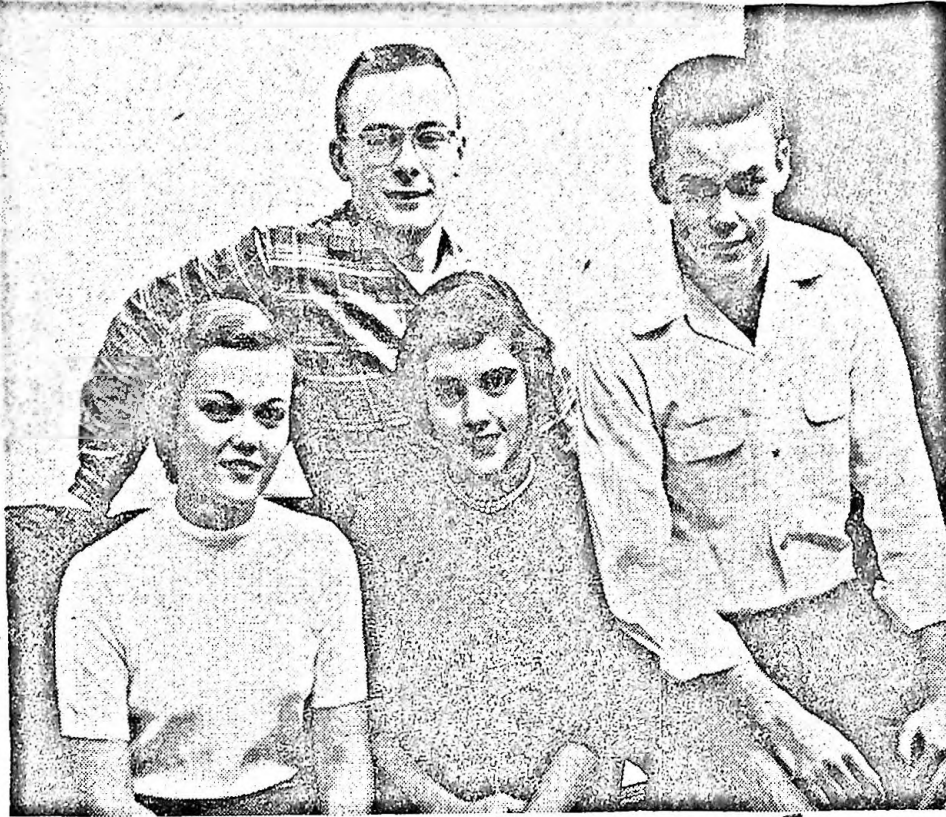

New junior class officers of Huntington East high school have been elected. They are James Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Foster, 3308 Woodland drive; James Pack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Pack, 2730 Fifth avenue; Judy Boso, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Boso, 112 Harrison court; and Dorothy Coats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Coats, 2869 Roseneath road.

Parade At Noon Saturday Opens Marshall College's Homecoming

By LAVERNE LOGAN

Marshall College homecoming activities will begin with a parade at noon Saturday. Approximately 20 campus fraternities, sororities and other campus organizations will enter floats. Five area bands including Marshall's unit will provide the music. The high school bands include Huntington Vinson, Huntington high, Huntington East and Douglass.

Leading the parade will be "Miss Marshall" and her attendants. Candidates for "Miss Marshall" are: Betty Ruth England, senior queen; Margaret Ann Taylor, junior queen; Barbara Snow, sophomore queen and Jeannette Thabet, freshman queen. Parade marshal will be Albin Wheeler, Huntington junior. Lieutenant Colonel Carter of the Marshall College ROTC will be honorary parade marshal.

The parade will form at Government Square and proceed to Fourth Avenue, move east to Sixteenth street, then to Charleston avenue and to the Stadium. Floats will be judged and viewed at 1:20 P. M., before the game and not at halftime as in previous years. The Marshall band will maneuver at halftime.

Art Mooney and his orchestra will play for the Homecoming Dance, from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M. at the Memorial Field House. "Miss Marshall" will be crowned and trophies will be awarded at intermission. Trophies will go to the winning floats in both the men and women's divisions. First and second place trophies will be awarded in both divisions.

Tickets are on sale in the Student Government office and at several business establishments in Huntington. Tickets are $3.50 per couple.

Will Choose Speakers

Speakers to represent the college in the Morris Harvey Inter-collegiate Forensic Meet at Morris Harvey will be chosen in a campus contest of extemporaneous speeches, oratories, impromptu speeches, and various other types.

Participants in the meet will thereby become eligible for membership in Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity.

Cavalettes Pledge 12

Judie Gruber, Huntington sophomore; Gail Hesson, Huntington sophomore; and Nina Jean Lane, Huntington, freshman;

Pledge officers are: president, Nina Lane; vice-president, Gail Hesson; secretary, Wilma Lockhart; and treasurer, Rosalie Cottrill.

Fund Sought For Office Of College Development

10-28-55
The Marshall College Alumni Association and the Marshall Foundation Inc., have announced plans for establishing a full-time development office at Marshall.

A goal of $25,000 for a two-year period has been set, with approximately $10,000 already pledged by 77 individuals and firms.

Bulletins have been issued to alumni requesting their aid in the project, with the hope that an organized alumni program will add to the prestige and contribute to the expansion of the college.

The program opened during the summer with a dinner for 250 leading businessmen of Huntington, both alumni and non-alumni. President Stewart H. Smith, in his talk before the group, emphasized that the program for the development office to stimulate alumni interest and supplement appropriated income is the greatest single need at the college.

The program is expected to become self-supporting as it develops. New mailing lists supplied by Marie White, Marshall alumna, encouraged the Alumni Association and the Marshall Foundation Inc. appoint co-chairmen and organize a campaign for funds. The program was suggested by a recommendation made in the Marts and Lundy Survey of Marshall College.

Homecoming At Marshall To Be Cool

10-28-55
It looks like Marshall College will have a chilly homecoming day tomorrow.

The weatherman says there will be some showers and thunderstorms tonight and early tomorrow. The remainder of Saturday will be cloudy, windy and turning colder. The maximum reading of about 54 degrees is expected to occur sometime in the morning.

The weatherman said he didn't think the rain would mar the big homecoming parade since the showers are expected early. He admitted, however, that the young ladies riding on the floats might find it a bit cool if the mercury doesn't go any higher than anticipated.

Tomorrow night the temperature is expected to drop to 28. That's four degrees below freezing, but one degree warmer than the 27 recorded here last Monday night. The maximum Sunday will be around 48, according to the forecast.

Meanwhile, today was another mild day in Huntington. The temperature was climbing toward a predicted 80, one degree warmer than yesterday's balmy 79. The minimum this morning was 38, a sharp fall of 41 degrees from yesterday afternoon's high. The minimum tonight is expected to be about 46.

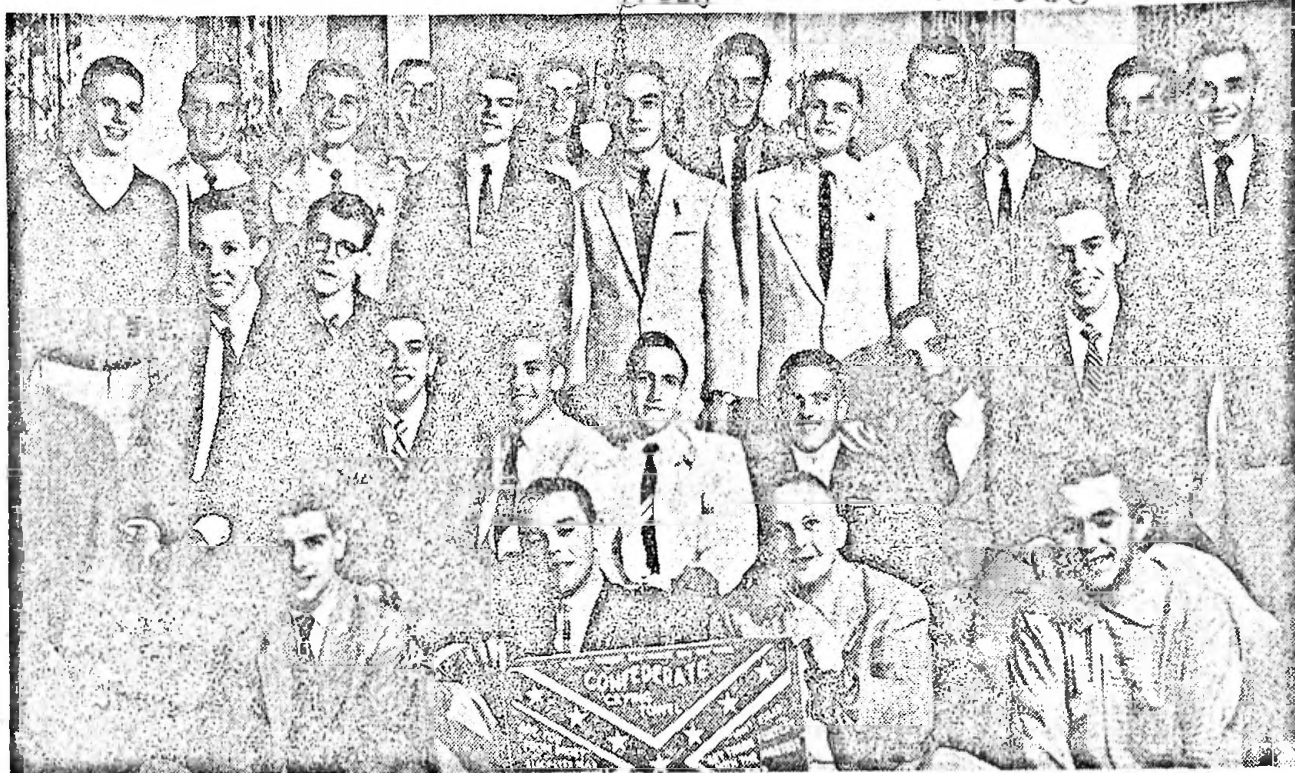

The colder weather of the week end will be followed by somewhat warmer Monday and Tuesday, but Wednesday it will turn colder again.

The showers or thunderstorms tonight, early tomorrow and again about Tuesday will, total one-half to one inch of precipitation.

Hymes Elected Frat President

Tau Kappa Epsilon social fraternity at Marshall College recently elected Fred Hymes as president. Other officers elected are as follows:

Charles Ricketts, vice-president; Hager Patton, secretary; Gary Duffield, treasurer, and Tom Walker, Inter-Fraternity Council representative.

Freshman Chosen 'Miss Marshall'

Jeannette Thabet, Spencer freshman, has been elected "Miss Marshall" to reign over the college's homecoming festivities here tomorrow.

Miss Thabet was elected by 21 votes over her nearest opponent in an election held earlier this week. Results of the voting were announced today.

The queen's attendants will be Betty Ruth England, Alderson senior; Margaret Ann Taylor, Charleston junior and Barbara Snow, Summersville sophomore.

First Lieutenant David H. Daugherty, 439 Twelfth Avenue, recently completed a course at the Judge Advocate General's School in Charlottesville, Virginia. He was awarded his A. B. degree by Marshall College and is a graduate of the University of Michigan law school.

UNDER THE DIRECTION of the internationally famous conductor, Herbert Von Karajan, the Philharmonia Orchestra of London, England will appear in concert here tomorrow at 8:30 P. M. at the Keith-Albee Theatre. The orchestra, youngest of the great orchestras of Europe, is appearing in 18 cities on its first tour of the United States. In New York recently it was described by one critic as "the world's greatest orchestra." Season memberships in the Artists Series and single admission tickets for the concert here will be on sale tomorrow at the Becker Music Store, 1040 Fourth avenue. This is the second of six stellar attractions booked by the Artists Series in celebration of its 20th anniversary

Philharmonia To Play Here Tomorrow

11-24-54 10-30-54
The Philharmonia of London, which has become one of the world's greatest orchestras in the short span of 10 years, will appear in concert here tomorrow under the auspices of the Marshall College Artists Series.

The program will begin at 8:30 P. M. at the Keith-Albee Theatre, and will include Mozart's Symphony No. 39, E-flat major, Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Haydn and Sibelius' Symphony No. 5 in E-flat major.

The 100-member orchestra is making its first American tour under the direction of Herbert Von Karajan, internationally famous as one of the world's most dynamic conductors.

THE PHILHARMONIA will visit 18 cities on its tour, and will come here direct from three concerts at Carnegie Hall in New York. After its first New York program the New York Journal American lauded the Philharmonia as "the world's greatest orchestra." In Philadelphia a music critic reported after a performance that "the prolonged ovation that rang through the audience at intermis-

Marshall's Big Green Faces Morris Harvey Tonight In Charleston

The World Series and some of the big collegiate football games will hold the center of interest today but in the "world" which surrounds Marshall College and Morris Harvey College, there is nothing as important as the clash between the Big Green and the Golden Eagles tonight at Charleston at Laidley Field. The fireworks get under way at 8 P. M.

And none of the interest will be taken away just because neither has won any games so far this season. Marshall opened last week losing 13-6 to Ohio University and Coach Eddie King's Eagles have dropped their first two, 14-7 to Middle Tennessee and 13-6 to University of Tampa last week.

And again this year as it has been most of the time down through the 28-game series which started back in 1906, Marshall will have a little edge in ability and reserve strength but the Eagles will be full of fight and determination and a desire to knock off the Big Green.

That just about evens things up and to be truthful the Eagles are just a little better this year than they have been. Their first two losses both by one - touchdown margins, were to pretty tough teams and in the one last week against Tampa, a break decided it.

Coach Herb Royer's Big Green didn't shine too much last week in their opener against Ohio University and a couple of breaks which went against them decided that one too. However, Royer was pleased with the work of George Templin and Len Hellyer in the Ohio game and this pair has earned a starting berth tonight against Morris Harvey.

Templin will start at fullback and Hellyer will start at right half. The rest of the Marshall lineup is expected to be the same with Bill Zban' at quarter and Fred Freeman at left half. The line will find Jim Barton and Richard Athey at ends, Bill Harris and Ted D'Aleiso at tackles, Bob McCollins and Irvin Wilson at guards and Jerry Snow at center.

Don Adkins who started at right half last week and Dyke Six, the fullback, are not out of the picture but are sure to see plenty of action tonight. Raymon Dunlap also looked good in a substitute back role last week and may be called upon tonight as will Campbell Platt at end.

King has announced that his starting lineup will be the same as it was last week and that would be Pug Lowery and Jim Stec at ends, George Carter and John Edwards at tackles, Bill Courtz and Bill Chandler at guards and Bob "Red" Hill at center. The backfield will be Paul Rice at quarterback, Ray Jones and Joe Roman at halves and Eddie Coffman at fullback.

Edwards at tackle will be the only freshman starter in the Morris Harvey lineup. Bob Maxwell, the Eagles regular veteran quarterback is sidelined with an injury and has only played some eight to ten minutes in the first two Eagle games. Whether he will see action tonight remains to be seen.

In the Marshall - Morris Harvey series which dates back to 1906, Marshall has won 22, Morris Harvey has won four and two have been ties.

Morris Harvey won in 1913, 1920, 1942 and as recent as 1952 when the score was 14-13. In 1953 it was 14-14 and last season Marshall won 25-14. Morris Harvey has scored 14 points against Marshall in each of the last three games and in the other 25 games only once did the Eagles score more than one touchdown. That was 1920 when the Eagles won 47-0.

Marshall Frosh Triumphs Over Greenbrier 14-0

Marshall College's freshman football squad sloshed at a 14-0 win over Greenbrier Military School yesterday at St. Cloud Commons in a contest which was largely a punting duel.

The Little Green scored in the second quarter after a sustained drive which carried them from their own 35 to the Greenbrier 17 where quarterback Bob Wagner hit end Howard Taylor with a touchdown pass. Kayo Marcum's kick was good and the Little Green had a 7-0 lead at half-time.

Quarterback Howard Barrett set up the final Marshall TD in the third period when he intercepted a Cadet pass on his own 43. Marshall worked the ball up to the Greenbrier 14 and on a fourth down and six-to-go situation, fullback Sonny Sirriani pulled his way over. Marcum's score stood at 14-0 after a scoreless fourth period.

Turning in outstanding performances for the Little Green on the line was Bob Gardner, Dave Stull, Walter West, Larry Van Reenan, Richard Hawkins and Charles Curry. Roy Goins, also shone in the backfield during his second period half stint.

W. W. Trent, superintendent of state schools, and Governor Maryland also will attend.

ORAL W. REED.

Kenova Jet Pilot Dies In Accident

Captain Oral W. Reed, USMC, a jet pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reed of 1716 Poplar street, Kenova, was killed yesterday in a plane crash near Atsugi, Japan.

A Defense Department telegram informed the Reeds of the death of their son, but gave no details of the crash.

Captain Reed was stationed at Atsugi. He graduated from Ceredo-Kenova high school in 1946, and from Marshall College. He had been in the Marine Corps about four years.

Additional survivors include three half-brothers, James E. and Otis Collins of Huntington, and Allen Reed of Nashville, Tenn., and three half-sisters, Mrs. Inez Taylor of New Cumberland, Pa., Mrs. Lucille Brown of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Christine Richardson of Hampton, Va.

Two ROTC commissioned officers of Huntington have been called to extended active Army duty. They are Second Lieutenants Eugene Caudill of 1675 Washington Boulevard, and John L. Chadwick of 2836 Collis Avenue. Lieutenant Caudill was commissioned upon graduation last May from the University of Kentucky. He has reported to the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga., for temporary duty pending further assignment. Lieutenant Chadwick was commissioned last May on graduation from Marshall College. He has been temporarily assigned to the Ordnance School at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

High Schools To Receive View Books

Distribution of the recently published 1955 Marshall College Viewbook to the high schools of West Virginia will begin Monday according to Paul H. Collins, Viewbook editor and director of adult education at Marshall.

More than 15,000 copies of the restyled viewbook will be distributed to high school students throughout the state. This distribution is part of a year round program conducted by Marshall College and other state institutions of higher learning to acquaint West Virginia's high school students with state wide college facilities, fees, and requirements.

In addition to more than 90 photographs in black and white and color, this year's Marshall Viewbook features a two page centerpiece Romance Map of the college. The map presents the various campus offices, departments, clubs, dormitories, and student meeting spots to the viewer in art form superimposed upon an aerial color photograph of the college. The combination photograph and art study shows the 25 acre campus in full detail.

FOLLOWING a two page introduction to the city of Huntington and the college, the viewbook ranges through the many academic and social phases of student life at Marshall. The different sections illustrate the educational, cultural, and moral opportunities for self betterment that college life offers the high school graduate.

Five pages of the new viewbook are devoted to extra-curricular activities at the college. By means of photograph and the printed word the college athletic program, Student Union activities, and various highlights of the campus social program are illustrated.

Work on the publication began in the spring of 1955 and was completed recently.

Members of the viewbook editorial committee are: Luther Bledsoe, college registrar, and director of admissions; James H. Her-ring, director of the college Information Service and journalism faculty member; C. Lawrence Kingsbury, professor of music and head of the college music department; Veta Lee Smith, college secretary; and Mr. Collins.

Mr. Waggoner attended Huntington public schools and Marshall College. He spent two years in the Army and has had a great deal of experience with the Community Players and in summer stock.

Principals Plan Dinner Parley

Harold Adm. 10-2-55
 The Cabell County Elementary Principals Association will hold its first dinner meeting of the year Wednesday at 5:30 P. M. at Barboursville Elementary school. Orville Powers is host principal.

The guest speaker will be Dean D. Banks Wilburn of the Teachers College at Marshall. His subject will be "Our American Task — Education."

John Lea, principal of Gallaher school, is president of the association.

Descendant Of Marshall Misses Rites At College

By DOROTHY BUZEK

Mrs. C. B. Scott of 257 Gallaher street is mighty sorry she had to miss the John Marshall celebration here yesterday.

Mrs. Scott is a great-granddaughter of the famed U. S. Supreme Court Chief Justice for whom Marshall College was named.

She has been over in Fauquier county, Va. participating in an observance there commemorating the 200th anniversary of the birth of the chief justice. She said she returned home late Wednesday night and was so weary from her trip that she was unable to attend the program at the college yesterday morning.

Mrs. Scott, the former Isabelle Marshall of Marshall, Va., says she visits her old home in Virginia at least once a year. She especially wanted to go this time because she knew she would see relatives she hadn't seen for years. She did too. There were between 400 and 500 persons who came to visit John Marshall's old home and to visit seven other Marshall family homes in the vicinity. There was a luncheon attended by some 300 persons at the church the chief justice attended when he was at home.

Mrs. Scott has a brother who lives in Fauquier county. Their father was Edward Carrington Marshall.

4 Librarians To Take Part In State Meet

Harold Adm. 10-2-55
 Four local librarians will be on the various programs of the West Virginia Library Association which meets in Fairmont, next week end. Omar A. Bacon, head librarians of the Huntington Public Library is president of the Association and will preside at all general meetings. Mrs. Margaret Bobbitt of the Marshall College Library staff is secretary. John Bennett, administrative assistant of the Huntington Public Library and Mrs. Sue Alexander of the Barboursville Branch will both appear on the program of the Public Library Section.

The highlight of the program include a talk by Dr. Louis Shores, Dean of the Florida State University Library School. Dr. Shores is an outstanding figure in the library profession and has made many contributions to library science and progress. He was director of the George Peabody Library School from 1934-1946. He is author and joint author of numerous books and papers. He was editor of Compton's Picture Encyclopedia from 1935-42, and associate editor of the new Collier's Encyclopedia since 1946.

Miss Ruth Tarbox of the World Book Encyclopedia will speak on phases of library work with children and young people on Saturday morning. She is a specialist in problems of reading guidance and has a wide experience in school libraries and children's department of the public library.

The Association business includes reports on a project to index the West Virginia periodicals, the formation of a scholarship fund to encourage West Virginia librarians to attend workshops and schools, a plan to affiliate the school librarian with the other librarians of the state, and a revision of the Association's constitution.

Approximately 150 librarians and library trustees from various parts of the state will attend, including a number of librarians from Marshall College, the Huntington Public Library, and the Cabell County schools.

Big Green Trounces Eagles 46-7

HELLYER TURNS IN 3 SCORES

CHARLESTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Marshall College crushed its traditional rival, Morris Harvey, beneath a 46-7 avalanche tonight as Len Hellyer broke loose for three touchdowns—one on a 52-yard dash.

It was Marshall's 23rd victory as against four losses and two ties in the long series. Tonight's margin was Marshall's largest over the Golden Eagles since the Big Green won by a 59-6 count in 1929.

Herb Royer's powerhouse lost little time getting started tonight, and simply kept rolling. Morris Harvey's lone touchdown came on a one-yard plunge by Paul Skidmore on the final quarter's first play.

Hellyer ran seven yards for the first Marshall score in the opening period, then bolted six yards for the second early in the second quarter.

Cagle Curtis then took over the Big Green scoring burden for the remainder of the first half, scooting 24 yards for one touchdown and going two yards for another as the Big Green left the field at intermission in front 26-0.

The fourth Marshall score was set up by a pass interference ruling against Morris Harvey on the Golden Eagles' 2 with one second remaining in the first half.

HELLYER'S 52-yard scoring dash came early in the third period, with Fred Freeman going five yards for another six-pointer in the same quarter. Don Adkins' 20-yard run brought the final Marshall touchdown in the last period.

Hellyer was all but unstoppable all evening, helping set up his first touchdown with a 36-yard run to the Morris Harvey seven. Marshall, loser to Ohio University last week in its opener, picked up a net 249 yards from rushing in the first half alone.

The loss was Morris Harvey's third straight this season. The Golden Eagles' best effort aside from its touchdown drive came when they piled up four first downs in marching from their own 10 to the Marshall 27 early in the first quarter.

The Big Green had the ball on offense a total of ten times and scored on seven of them.

Smith Picks Michigan, Marshall And Mounties

By DR. ALLEN N. SMITH
Mighty Michigan, itching for a little revenge, entertains Army's Black Knights of the Hudson this Saturday in college football's game of the week.

The Wolverines, currently ranked No. 2 in the Smith Touchdown Tendency System of Ratings, remember the 26-7 beating Army pinned on them last year. The System foresees a 7-point triumph for the Wolverines over the fourth-ranked Cadets.

In other high-voltaged inter-sectional clashes, it's Notre Dame over Miami (Fla.) by 13, Michigan State by 7 over Stanford, Texas Christian by 20 over Alabama and Rice by 7 over Clemson. Texas A. & M. should hurdle Nebraska by 14.

In a battle of national giants at Dallas, Oklahoma, No. 7 in the System, rates one touchdown superior to the Texans.

Six Mid-American Conference teams will see action, with league-leading Ohio idle. In conference games pre-season favorite Miami of Ohio figures to rout Toledo by 26 points and Marshall, back on the winning track, should handle Western Michigan by 33. In non-conference games, the System sees Bowling Green over John Carroll by 18 and Kent State the winner over Baldwin-Wallace by 27.

A bruising battle is shaping up in the Big Ten where Ohio State tangles with Illinois. The Buckeyes figure to rebound from last week's loss to Stanford, with a 7-point win over the Illini. Iowa gets a bare 1-point edge over Indiana. Wisconsin should capture its fray with Purdue by one touchdown, while Minnesota is decisioning Northwestern by 14.

Looking southward, Georgia Tech invades the lair of the Louisiana State Tigers and is rated a 10-point favorite.

In other Southern stadia, Duke is a 21-point favorite over William and Mary, Georgia is the choice over North Carolina by 7, and Maryland is a 27-point selection over Wake Forest. Mississippi appears in for a 13-point win over Vanderbilt, while Mississippi State is outclassing Tulane by 7 and Auburn is dominating Kentucky by 8. And, West Virginia's mighty Mountaineers should wallop Virginia Military Institute by 33 points.

Baylor is calculated to down Arkansas by 7 and Southern Methodist is slated for a 3-touchdown win over Missouri.

Invading the East, Harvard should defeat Cornell by 6 while Navy is annexing a one-touchdown triumph over Pittsburgh. Other Eastern contests favor Princeton over Pennsylvania by 7, Yale to subdue Columbia by 6, and Syracuse to gain a 19-point triumph over Boston University.

U. C. L. A. should romp over Oregon State by 27, while Washington State is bowing to California by 20. Southern California is given a 20-point advantage over Washington.

10-6-55
Motion pictures of the Marshall-Morris Harvey game at yesterday's Touchdown Club luncheon showed, quite emphatically, that the Big Green Express has started to roll as it did in 1954 . . . Gone was the uncertainty and stumbling so evident here in the Ohio game . . . Instead, Marshall flashed speed, tremendous speed, bone-jarring tackling and sharp, intelligent blocking . . . The films disclosed that in Len Hellyer and Cagle Curtis Marshall has two backs who can turn on the gas and pull away when they get the jump on defenders . . . Herb Royer's big problem right now is keeping the entire ball club at the proper pitch for the Western Michigan game Saturday at Kalamazoo . . . Oh, yes, the films finally cleared up that "mysterious" sixth touchdown against Morris Harvey . . . Fullback Dyke Six was the man who got it . . . Better late than never, Dyke . . .

Ethel Johnson, Negro girl wrestler who appeared on last Monday's weekly show at Radio Center, gave the following explanation for her turning to the mat game recently:

"I've always wanted to do something where I could move around a lot, I thought it would be dancing and studied tremendously for this but when I saw a couple of girl wrestlers on television one night, I quickly changed my mind."

Apparently Ethel likes hard knocks along with moving around. She's a good showman, though, and when she comes to town again you might drop around and watch her perform.

Bobby Moss is continuing with his effective ball carrying for West Virginia University. The former Huntington East star is the No. 2 ground-gainer after two games — lugging the leather 12 times for 85 yards and a 7.1 average while scoring three touchdowns. Bobby has also caught three of Freddie Wyant's passes for 139 yards, one of them leading to a score, and has returned two punts 11 yards for a 5.5 mark.

Gary Bunn, the ex-Barboursville Pirate, isn't doing badly, either. He's caught four aerials for the Mountaineers, good for 65 yards and one touchdown.

Meanwhile, down South Carolina way, another ex-Pirate, Bobby Barrett, has been having trouble with injuries. Nevertheless, the big fullback has carried the ball 11 times for the Gamecocks for 45 yards and a respectable 4.1 average.

Gary Watson, now in the Army, plans to enter Marshall College after his discharge. Gary, a stickout football star with Greenbrier Military School, will have to put in one year of residence here, though, since he matriculated to Virginia after graduating from prep school. Coach Herb Royer, of Marshall, is quite tickled over Gary's plans. Incidentally, Gary's bunk-mate is a lad from Brockton, Mass., whose name is Lou Marchegiano. Lou, a minor league baseball player, has a somewhat successful brother named Rocky Marclano.

Al (Orpheum) Cross was a visitor to New York for the Yankee-Dodger World Series . . . Sent back the loveliest cards . . . One Dodger fan who's happy is Bill (Lucky Bill) Tucker over at Egnor's tonorial emporium . . . He's taken more than his share of lumps down through the years as a Brooklyn aficionado . . . Now, it looks, he can make some payments with interest . . . Thank you for the kind words about The Advertiser's sports finals covering each game of the Series, including photos and box scores . . . We wanted you to have the story in this newspaper the same day it happened —and because it was still daylight saving time in New York compared to our standard time, we had our first chance to fulfill the wish . . . That extra hour was all we needed . . . Toledo University is spending $173,000 on improvements in its field house . . . Which, I might add, is about time . . . Our own Memorial Field House, where Marshall plays its home basketball games, is the fanciest stop on the Mid-American Conference circuit . . . Grady Wallace and Bob McCoy, who started for Pikeville Junior College's fine basketball team last year, have enrolled at South Carolina and will be eligible for varsity competition, under Southern Conference rules, next fall . . . Wallace, who stands 6-6, scored 1,086 points last season and averaged 32.9 points per game . . . McCoy, 6-0 guard, scored 703 points for a 21.3 average . . . Their Pikeville coach, Walter Hambrick, who piloted them to 27 wins in 32 starts, has also gone to South Carolina as physical education instructor and assistant basketball coach . . . Wallace, McCoy and Hambrick will join Woody Preston, Benny Fannin, Sol Richardson, Sam Smith and Russ Porter, all ex-Pikeville College lads who enrolled at South Carolina the previous season. I wonder why they all pick South Carolina? . . . Though having defeated Northwestern of the Big Ten, 25-14, and Xavier, 13-12, Miami of Ohio's football team has controlled the ball less than 40 per cent of the time . . .

Marshall, WVU, East, HHS Will Win, Says Grid Expert

Herald & Express By TOM STIMMEL
Associated Press Sports Writer 10-755

Yes, we'd like to try the $64,000 question. You see, we socked out an .800 percentage in 60 times at bat last week, disregarding foul balls, to bring our season average to a more respectable .718.

Sure, we know the rules. All we have to do is get 'em all right this week it says here. Wait till we get in the pressure chamber:

West Virginia over VMI — the upset in Bluefield was last week.

Marshall over Western Michigan — a happy hunting trip up north.

Tech over West Liberty — a tough State Conference duel.

Breckley over Oak Hill — even though Oak Hill leads the Class AA pack.

Wheeling over Wheeling Linsly — a tough intra-city test.

Fairmont West over Clarksburg Victory — another close one to the Polar Bears.

Charleston over East Bank — blood in the eyes of the Mountain Lions.

South Charleston over Stonewall Jackson — good time to end a 10-year famine.

Back to colleges; Bethany over D. and E., Potomac State over Salem, Fairmont over Wesleyan, Concord over Bluefield, Shepherd over Bridgewater, Central State over W. Va. State, and Bluefield State over Winston-Salem.

How will those still undefeated do this week? We don't know, but—

St. Albans over Logan — for No. 5; Morgantown over Weston — it seems; Elkins over Clarksburg Roosevelt-Wilson — no ties either fellows; Big Creek of War over Gary — some trouble but not too much; Weirton over Wellsville, Ohio — don't let us down now.

Ripley over Elizabeth — the Wirt Countians can't fool us twice; Webster Springs over Burnsville; Keyser over Allegheny; West Milford to roll over Gassaway; Follansbee over Benwood Union, and Rainelle over Lookout.

Turning to other thoughts: Parkersburg over Clarksburg Washington Irving — at least it seems it's about time; Grantsville over Walton; Point Pleasant over Wahama — a tough one to come back on; St. Mary's over Harrisville; Ravenswood over Pennsboro.

Montgomery over Belle Dupont, Clay over Clendenin, Fayetteville over Ansted, Nitro over Dunbar, Elkview over Winfield, Gauley Bridge over Richwood, Hurricane over Griffithsville, Foca over Milton, and — oh my — Charleston Catholic over Spencer.

Up North:

Grafton over Buckhannon, in that crazy, mixed up football country; Shinnston over Fairmont East, because Shinnston can score more; Bellaire, Ohio, over Moundsville, the Big Reds, are rough; Triadelphia over Wellsburg; Warwood over Chester, for the Vikings' first; Mannington over Farmington, a close one.

Morgantown University over Romney, although both need the victory; New Martinsville over Middlebourne; Parsons over West Union; Barrackville over Clay-Battelle; Cameron over Hundred, and Paden City over New Cumberland, despite its troubles last week.

More:

Barboursville over Wayne, Huntington over Williamson, Huntington East over Summersville, Guyan Valley over Hamlin, Ce-redo-Kenova over Huntington Vinson.

Hinton over Princeton as the Bobcats rebound, Trap Hill over Shady Spring, Stoco over Marsh Fork, Mount Hope over Mullens, Pineville over Man, Oceana over Van, Marlinton over White Sulphur Springs, Meadow Bridge over Crichton, and Alderson, seeking blood, over Ronceverte.

Guest speaker will be W. H. Blenko, Jr., of Milton, who will address the group on handmade glass ware.

Mrs. Donald Martin is chairman of the tea committee for the afternoon. Mrs. George G. Urian is her co-chairman.

Other members of the tea committee are Mrs. George Corrie, Mrs. C. E. Haworth, Mrs. John Creighton, Mrs. John H. Hoback, Mrs. Leslie Davis and Mrs. G. W. Howgate.

'Rainmaker' To Be Given At Marshall

By LAVERNE LOGAN

"Rainmaker" has been chosen for the first College Theatre production of the season. It will be presented November 2-4 in Old Main auditorium.

Three women will take the same leading roll as Lizzie Curry. A different leading lady will be seen each night of the production.

The part will be taken by Fay Murray, Milton sophomore; Anita Shahan, Grafton freshman, and Nancy Snodgrass, South Charleston junior.

Completing the cast are Lewis Yeager, Parkersburg freshman who will take the part of Bill Starbuck, "The Rainmaker," a loud, braggart and glib con-man who promises the family much needed rain; Homer Ratcliff, Logan junior, as H. C. Curry; Pete Williamson, Columbus, I., junior, as Noah Curry; Dave Humphreys, Huntington senior, as Jim Curry; John C. Ray, Kenova senior, as "File," and John Charles Barbour, Huntington junior, as Sheriff Thomas.

The "Rainmaker," a romantic comedy, was highly commended by such critics as William Hawkins of the New York World Telegram and Sun, and Brooks Atkinson of the New York Times. The production is under the direction of Clayton R. Page, associate professor of speech.

Unitarian Lectures To Begin Sunday

Dr. H. C. Darlington, professor of science at Marshall College will address the Unitarian Fellowship of Huntington Sunday at 7:30 P. M. at the Hotel Prichard in the first meeting of the season. He will speak on "The Modern Concept of the Universe Compared With the Ancient Ideas Which Prevailed When the World's Great Religions Were Developing."

Dr. Darlington's lecture will be the first of a year's studies developing the question "What Religion Will Meet the Needs of This Modern Scientific Age?"

There will be six lectures in those fields of science which have a bearing on religious beliefs, seven lectures dealing with the origin and evolution of religion and the world's great religions, and also lectures on modern ideas of religions. All persons who are interested in these problems, regardless of race, color, nationality, or religious beliefs, are invited to join in the year's study, Dr. Darlington said.

Meetings will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 P. M. on the first and third Sundays of each month at the Hotel Prichard.

Meadows Heads Marshall Frosh

10-6-55
Freshman class elections were held yesterday on the Marshall College campus.

Elected president of the class was Asa Meadows, son of Mrs. Azel Meadows of Huntington. Meadows is a 1955 graduate of Huntington East high school where he was president of the senior class. He was a delegate to West Virginia Boys State at Jackson's Mill last summer.

Other officers are Mary Kate Harris of Huntington, vice-president; Alfred Ferguson of Huntington, senator; Dennis White of Peytona (Boone county), senator, and Gary Adams of Huntington, senator.

ARC Chapter Officers Review Year's Work

groups, standing, H. H. Carnahan, vice-chairman; John G. Berthold, national vice-chairman; J. George Bender, honorary chapter chairman; Pryce M. Haynes, chapter chairman, and Dr. B. H. Adams, director of the Huntington Regional Red Cross Blood Center. (Staff Photo).

All Officers Of Red Cross Are Reelected

All officers of the Huntington-Cabell County chapter of the American Red Cross were re-elected at the annual meeting last night at the chapter house, 724 Tenth Avenue.

The officers are Pryce M. Haynes, chairman; Harry H. Carnahan, vice - chairman; H. T. Diehl, treasurer, and Mrs. Frances Calley, secretary.

Eight directors, constituting one-third of the board membership, were named to three year terms. They are Mr. Carnahan, Dr. Arthur E. Beckett, Dr. Francis A. Scott, James Moore, Mrs. John E. Graham, Dr. Stewart H. Smith, S. J. Fishman, and R. O. Robertson.

The membership acted on the directors. The full board then met and reelected officers.

Mrs. T. E. Holderby is executive director of the chapter.

Honor Students To Be Guests On Tour

Two honor students from Marshall College and from each of the local high schools will participate in the "Rail - Industry Tour" scheduled for Tuesday, according to an announcement made yesterday by Ralph W. Brafford, chairman of the youth activities for the Railroad Community Committee of the Huntington Area.

Mr. Brafford said "the students, all seniors, will have an opportunity to observe first hand the rail and industrial facilities of the metropolis in which they live, and in which they soon may be employed."

The students will have a chance to rub shoulders with some of the businessmen, industrialists and civic leaders of the Tri - State Area.

Schools sending honor students, besides Marshall College, include Huntington High, East High, Barboursville, Milton, Marshall College High, St. Joseph's, Vinson and Ceredo - Kenova.

The tour which is being co-sponsored by the Railroad Community Committee, Huntington Chamber of Commerce, Ashland Board of Trade and Ceredo - Kenova Chamber of Commerce, will start promptly at 9 A. M. at the Chesapeake & Ohio passenger station and will terminate at the same point at approximately 4:05 P. M. Complimentary box lunches will be served enroute.

Marshall Frosh Elect Meadows

Asa Meadows of Huntington was elected president of the freshman class at Marshall College Wednesday, receiving 233 out of 376 votes cast. Mary Kate Harris of Huntington, who received the most senatorial votes, was elected vice-president. Other senators elected were Dennis White of Seth and Alfred Ferguson and Gary Adams of Huntington.

State Press Group Will Hear Ryan

William L. Ryan, Associated Press specialist on Russia, will address the main convention banquet of the West Virginia Press Association at its annual meeting and conference here October 27-29, it was announced today by Henry C. Woodyard, association president and publisher of the Spencer Times-Record.

The fall session of the press will get under way with registration during the afternoon of Thursday, October 27, and meetings of various committees. A reception and party is scheduled at night with the business and conference sessions to get under way early the next morning.

Foresaw Upheavals

Ryan, a veteran of several years on the foreign desk of the A. P. in New York, is a native of New York City. He attended New York University and Columbia University. An ardent student of Russian language, history and current events, he is credited with predicting most of the upheavals that have taken place within the Kremlin in the past several years.

He named Georgi Malenkov as the logical successor to Stalin two years before the premier died. Ryan will speak at the Friday evening banquet concluding a full day's schedule which opens with a business meeting at the breakfast table. William I. Truby of Atlanta, Ga., will speak on advertising and public relations at the Friday luncheon. Experts in various fields will speak during the Friday morning and afternoon sessions.

The Saturday morning sessions, including the final business meeting and election of officers, will be held at Marshall College and will be followed by luncheon in the college cafeteria. The Marshall College football game that afternoon will be the final event of the program.

Bev Barton, a Marshall student, will serve as master of ceremonies. Frank Cipolat, Marshall music major, will play several accordion selections.

Miami Opens MAC Title Defense; Marshall, Western Michigan Play

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Advertiser Sports Editor

Powerful Miami of Ohio begins defense of its Mid-American Conference championship Saturday at Oxford where it meets the upcoming Toledo Rockets.

Only one other conference game is listed, that being Marshall's engagement against Western Michigan at Kalamazoo. But, two other conference members have non-league opposition. Baldwin-Wallace faces Kent State at Kent Friday night and John Carroll tests a surprisingly strong Bowling Green eleven at Bowling Green Saturday.

Ohio, which has won three straight games, including conference victories over Marshall and Toledo, gets a week off.

Miami, again rated as the No. 1 team in the MAC in pre-season polls, has knocked off a pair of non-conference members. The first was Northwestern of the Big Ten, which the Redskins subdued, 25-14. But last week against neighboring Xavier of Cincinnati, Miami, suffering an obvious mental letdown, managed only a 13-12 victory—thanks to poor point kicking by the Musketeers.

Miami's opponent, Toledo, has one win, a loss and a tie to show for its first three games, but the loss was to Ohio Saturday night, 40-13. It wasn't the loss to the Bobcats which surprised everyone—but the size of the score. In previous games Toledo tied Eastern Kentucky, 6-6, and belted over the Titans of Detroit University, a strong mid-western independent, 12-7.

Marshall rebounded smartly against traditional state rival Morris Harvey in Charleston Saturday, 46-7, faces a Western Michigan team which has yet to win a ball game. The Broncos victimized here in 1954, 47-13, were regarded as a "dark horse" in this year's conference race on the strength of a strong finish last season.

But, Western Michigan, after opening with a 13-13 tie against Great Lakes Naval Training Station, followed with a loss to Central Michigan, 27-12, and another to Bowling Green in a league game 35-0 this past week end.

Marshall, of course, flashed the form its followers knew it had in beating Morris Harvey. Against Ohio the previous week, the Big Green lost, 13-6, to a team it probably could have handled easily had it been able to get a "shakedown" game under its belt. Morris Harvey provided just that for Marshall.

Kent State, which plays Baldwin Wallace in a non-conference tussle, has been finding the early going rough. The Golden Flashes, second place finishers in '54 with a 4-1 record, were touted as Miami's most serious opposition this year.

Yet, in two starts, Kent was held to a 6-6 tie by Bowling Green in an MAC contest, and then lost to Hugh Devore's tough Dayton Flyers, 26-13, last week.

Bowling Green has been the real surprise of the season. The Falcons finished last in 1954 with six straight conference defeats. But, so far this year, they have routed Defiance, 40-0, in a non-league game, and held Kent to a 6-6 tie and crushed Western Michigan, 35-0, in MAC assignments. They don't expect much trouble from non-conference team John Carroll this week, either.

As it stands now, Ohio has the best record of the seven conference members. The Bobcats are unbeaten in three starts and hold the league lead with two straight. Bowling Green is next with 1-0-1 and after that come Marshall, Western Michigan and Toledo—all with 0-0-1 records.

FRIDAY: Baldwin Wallace at Kent.
Saturday: Marshall at Western Michigan; Toledo at Miami; John Carroll at Bowling Green, Ohio. 10:15

Royer Polishes Marshall Offense In Preping For Western Michigan

Coach Herb Royer put his Big Green football team through an offensive scrimmage today as he prepares to meet the Broncos of Western Michigan next Saturday in Kalamazoo. The Green will use the same offense that proved so effective against the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles last Saturday night when Marshall upended their long time foe, 46-7.

Most of the stress in the backfield will be on junior half-back Len Hellyer who picked up a total of 160 yards in ten tries against the Eagles. Hellyer also galloped into the end-zone for three touchdowns in last week's tilt. Although he did not start the Ohio University game two weeks ago, he came back into his old habits against the Eagles to lead the Thundering Herd gainers with an average of sixteen yards per carry.

The Big Green line will again be centered around 255 pound senior tackle Ted D'Alesio, and Co-captains Bob McCollins and Bill Harris.

Coach Royer was pleased with both his offence and defense against Morris Harvey. He said that there was definite proof that the Big Green pass defense has improved in that two M. H. passes were intercepted and a number was batted out of the hands of the intended receivers. "Our offense was well up to par." He added, "all of our backs were running good."

Coach Royer took particular

notice of reserve sophomore half-back Cagle Curtis who tallied twice against the Eagles on runs which showed his tremendous speed. Curtis is one of the smallest men on the squad, tipping the scale at 155.

This week the Big Green will be out to repeat last year's 46-1 thumping they handed the Western Michigan Broncos in Huntington. However, the Broncos will be trying to bounce back against Marshall after taking 35-0 licking from the Falcons at Bowling Green last week.

Hellyer Tops Marshall Offensive Department

By ERNIE SALVATORE

Len Hellyer, the speedy Logan junior, has taken the lead in two individual offensive departments, statistics of the Marshall College football team released by the athletic office show.

Hellyer, who returned to the Big Green this season after a two year tour in the Army, is the top ground gainer with 163 yards in 13 carries and is also the leading scorer with three touchdowns for 18 points.

Second to Hellyer in both departments is junior fullback George Templin of Martins Ferry, O. George a bruising, versatile ball player, has carried 18 times, high for the club, and gained 101 yards. He has one touchdown and one extra point for a total of seven.

He also has shouldered most of the punting duties, booting the ball four times for a total of 133 yards.

The Marshall statistics did not include average-per-try totals.

Other top ball carriers, according to the figures, are junior left halfback Fred Freeman of Proctorville, who led the team in rushing last season; junior halfback Don Adkins of Charleston, the 1954 team scoring champion; and sophomore halfback Cagle Curtis, the former Huntington East speed merchant.

Freeman has carried 15 times for a net gain of 88, Adkins has carried 12 times for 82 yards and Curtis seven times for 76 yards. Young Cagle has the best average-per-carry — something better than 10 yards a crack.

A total of seven men have broken into the team scoring column. Besides Hellyer and Templin, others with single touchdowns to their credit are Freeman, Adkins, Curtis, and sophomore halfback Ray Dunlap. Original reports had Curtis scoring twice against Morris Harvey last week and it wasn't until today's statistics were released that it was discovered Dunlap got the other. Why the athletic office kept silent on this hasn't been explained.

On a team basis Marshall has split two games, losing its Mid-American Conference and seasonal opener here to Ohio, 13-6, but bouncing back strongly against traditional state rival Morris Harvey last week, 46-7.

The Big Green in two games has rolled up 472 yards rushing, 48 yards passing.

At the second weekly luncheon meeting of the Touchdown Club today at the Hotel Prichard movies of the Marshall-Morris Harvey game were to be shown, supported by head coach Herb Royer's commentaries.

Saturday, Marshall makes its third start of the season and second in conference play when it invades Kalamazoo, Mich., for a game against Western Michigan, a team which has yet to win in three starts.

Touchdowners To See Films Of Marshall Victory

Movies of Marshall's 46-7 victory over Morris Harvey in Charleston last Saturday night will be the feature of tomorrow's second Touchdown Club luncheon meeting of the season.

It will be held, as usual, at the Hotel Prichard, starting at 12 noon. Head coach Herb Royer will again supply the commentary on the films.

Another feature of the meeting will be scouting reports of Western Michigan, Marshall's opponent next Saturday at Kalamazoo. Marshall scouts saw the Broncs lose to Bowling Green, another MAC member and future Marshall foe, 35-0.

A one year-scholarship to Marshall College awarded by the Huntington Advertising Club was presented to Miss Evon Mickels at a recent weekly luncheon meeting of the club at the Hotel Frederick. Miss Mickels, a Charleston freshman, is the first to receive the scholarship in advertising recently established by the

Principals To Hear Wilburn

Dean D. Banks Wilburn of the Teachers College at Marshall College will be guest speaker at the first meeting of the Cabell County Elementary Principals Association this school year Wednesday.

There will be a dinner at 5:30 P. M. at Barboursville elementary school. Orville Powers is host principal. Dean Wilburn's subject will be "Our American Task — Education."

John Lea Jr., principal of Galaher elementary school, is president of the association.

AP's Soviet Expert To Speak

Principal speaker for the West Virginia Press Association's annual meeting here October 27-29 will be William L. Ryan, Associated Press authority on Russia. President Henry C. Woodyard of Spencer said Mr. Ryan would speak at a banquet session on October 28. On Saturday, the association will elect new officers, tober 28. Mr. Ryan, an ardent student of Russian language, history and current events, is credited with predicting most of the upheavals that have taken place within the Kremlin in the past several years. William I. Truby of Atlanta, will speak on advertising and public relations at a luncheon meeting October 28. On Saturday, the association will elect new officers, attend a luncheon at Marshall College and witness a Marshall College football game in the afternoon.

Judo Class Opens Tomorrow

A class in weaponless self defense will begin for Marshall College men at 7:30 P. M. tomorrow in the club room at the east end of the Marshall physical education building.

The series of classes in self-defense tactics will be instructed by Lawrence J. Frankel, Ironton business man and veteran judo instructor.

The course is open to all male students on a non-credit basis as part of the intramural program. Mr. Frankel has been a YMCA instructor in gymnastics and self-defense tactics for 20 years. He has taught the art of self-defense to members of the West Virginia state police and numerous men and women throughout the state during this time.

Mr. Frankel, a Brooklyn-born 200-pounder, has developed his methods to include the ability to disarm opponents without regard to comparative weight and size.
