SCOPE AND CONTENT OF THE COLLECTION

Abstract: Scrapbooks and photographs of Cabell County, West Virginia, family from near Milton; bulk of correspondence dates from the First World War and 1935-1945.

The Lorene Enochs Dunlap Papers was compiled by Mrs. Lorene Enochs Dunlap of Huntington, West Virginia and named for her, though most of the contents of the collection were created by other family members and friends. The collection is organized into three series: Series I: Correspondences, 1917-1945; Series II: Family Related Materials and other Ephemera, 1918-1960; Series III: Scrapbooks and Yearbooks, 1936-1971. Processing of this collection began with Cora Teel, university archivist emireta, and was completed in 2008 by Keith Brown, a graduate assistant in Special Collections. The original organization of the folders was completed by Teel. Keith Brown organized the correspondences in their original order and created the series and the finding aid.

Series I consist of correspondences between Dunlap's parents, from her husband Claude, from her friend Maxine, letters received by her mother, and letters from her children from 1917 to 1945. The letters from her father to her mother primarily deal with his involvement as a supply officer in France during World War I. The other significant set of letters from Maxine Clark is addressed to "Rita" (possibly a nickname for Lorene) and deals with the relationship between the two women.

The contents in Series II are documents collected by Lorene Enochs Dunlap and two of her children's report cards. There are also seven pictures of her and her family from 1918 through 1933. Other various printed materials, such as playbills and stamps, are included in this portion of Series II.

Series III has each baby books¹ for each of the four Dunlap children: Muriel Pamela (1936-1938), Edward (1937-1948), James (1939-1948), and John Claude (1952-1955). Each book contains pictures, birthday cards, locks of hair, and information about the children's first years. Series III also contains John Enoch Jr.'s 1938 National Guard of the U.S.: State of WV, Yearbook. Lorene Enoch Dunlap's Scrapbook/Notebook (1933-1937?): contains newspaper and magazine clippings as well as lists of words and their synonyms, paper dolls, drawings, and cartoons. Bertha Adeline Enochs' Funeral book contains photographs, newspaper clippings, telegrams, and a receipt. Materials contain information about John Jr.'s death during World War II as well as family photographs and family history.
