Darling:

It is raining pretty hard outside tonight but I am sitting in my Nissan hut, pretty warm too. I haven't flown for the last two or three days because the weather has been so bad. That is the reason that I won't get home by X-mas. Darling you go ahead and have a good time and don't worry about me. This is my fourth X-mas that I have spent in the army and now you have I getton to go home I always stayed on the base so this X-mas if I see a Jerry I will get him for a present for you. I have 10 destroyed & 3 damaged for you now. and I'm only half through.

Don Bachay came back from the States tonight so that makes five of us all Guys still with the squadron but I'm the only one that has not been home. But honey I got all the confidence in the world. Just having you to come home to would make a fellow eat all the shells that the Junes can throw at you. See your beautiful Darling I'm sitting here looking at that picture with you on the tennis court in your white shorts & socks & a sweater. I think it's a slut one isn't it. And Aug! Gee Rist! What a sweater girl you would make. Darling I reckon I'm a heel but I don't even know when your birthday is or when you were born. I reckon ya know honey we should lead a fast life when I was with you

But when a fellow falls in love - well - he just falls all the way in and he don't remember any thing except that he has the most beautiful girl in the world and she is so sweet he just worships her. It all adds up that I love you more than anyone & I'll protect it soon. and soon.

all my love
- Chuck -

I'll meet you & - meet me in my dreams - say so go to bed early so I won't catch you fully dressed.
Don't get mad honey because I'm just a dumb nut about you.
