My dearest:

I'm awfully tired from my trip, but I must write to you before I can even think about going to sleep. While I was unpacking my things, I took out your picture and was about to open it when I saw a faint scuddle on the back of it. I looked at it again and I almost felt like crying again... I was so awfully lonesome for you, Chuck.

Yes, my darling, I'll wait for you until you come back. You know that I will. You know too that I will always love you... so much that it hurts... just like it hurts this very moment. You are all of my happiness now, too, so be a good pilot for me, Son, and hurry home to your Sug. Good nite, darling
