Dearest Len:

I should be flying but if I don't write you now I will have to wait until tomorrow. I'll bet you're already worried because I haven't written sooner.

I had a pretty nice trip coming up here but it was pretty tiresome. We spent our first night in Reno, the second in Washoe, the third in Salt Lake, the fourth in Rock Springs and here the next night. We just have two more weeks to stay and I never hated a place more in my life than I do here. I feel so lonesome and blue and I would give anything in the world if I could see you sugar. I miss you a million times more than I thought I would. I have your picture sitting here on the foot locker that I am writing on and I think that you're the sweetest and prettiest gal I've ever known. I wish it was so that you could come up and stay a few days with me.

It would sure make things a lot easier.

The alt. up here is 5500 feet and it's right out in the plains the temp. is around 40° and there's a 30 mph wind blowing it sure looks like it might snow some.

There are lots of deer up here but the season's closed. I don't know whether I will get to come down there on a Cross Country or not but darling I've just gotta see you before I leave the state.

Well I gotta get down to the flight line

all my love
your "honey"
Chuck
