Hi Sug -

Got your letter on the property. Am real pleased. Now we can sell any amount we want to for any deal we wish, within subdivision laws that is. Or keep it for the kids.

Sounds like you are keeping busy with meetings and things. Hope you got to see Bob Hoover when he was there armed force day, if he made it. I don't blame Scott for being bitter but he shouldn't let it affect him doing his duties. His old bar is another story. Is Mrs Thompson still there, eh? If you show a good attitude then the girls of the Wing will follow suit. You are always smart that way anyhow.

I went to a 335th dinner sat site and they put on a shit that was out of this world. They should have enough material to put on shits for a whole year when we return.

I got a nice long letter from Dotter Sharon and she sounds busy. I would think she could make better money but it's a good for her to work for a living.

13 May.

Am glad the truck is in good shape. you might check with the pontiac people about the smog device and see if taking it off is feasible or would help mileage, probably NOT since it's designed on the car. I find that is.

you might give a little leave some thoughts when I return but then we will be pretty broke for at least 90 days. I may have to whip the wing up for an O.R.I. or conversion to a new airplane. and I would be happy going some where in the fall with the trailer anyway. Maybe up to WVA & Canada for fall hunting you and I might spend a weekend with andy & El. or go to Hamlin & catch up on pussy!! anyway am happy that we are close to spending our days together doing as we wish. me checking you & you raising little things - make mine!
always love
Chet.
