SPRING REVUE A PAGEANT OF THE SEASONS

Presented by

Women's Physical Education Classes

There is a land, a fairy realm
Composed of Kingdoms four.
That land extends from North to South
From shore to distant shore.
—A land whose Summer skies look down
On fields of amber grain.
A land whose Autumn landscape is
With burning bush aflame.
A land whose wintry winds do bring
To Youth the rosy cheek.
A land whose Springtime brings new life
Which all the world doth seek.

Behold the Empress of that land
Who rules the Kingdoms four.

Her wand extends toward the South
And springtime comes, in green.
Her wand extends toward the North
And Winter white is seen
Toward the East she beckons now
For amber Summer days,
And from the West a purple patch
Comes forth from Autumn's haze.

Her Majesty, the Queen, doth speak.

Queen: My people all—Your Queen is most impatient.
Why should I wait a twelve-month span
To see my Kingdoms four?
I'll see them now from North to South
From shore to distant shore.

The Seasons Appear in Dance Drama

SUMMER

Her arms are filled with flowers

AUTUMN

With hazel nuts and purple grapes

WINTER

Vigor lives therein—and red-cheeked health

SPRING

Too beautiful to be described
Too wonderful to be denied

Queen: In one short hour
We've lived a twelve-month span.
There is not North nor South nor East nor West
Nor seasons anymore,
But all have blended into one great festive day
To be remembered evermore.

O gracious mother hear!
In all thy power, in all thy might,
O gracious mother hear!
We come to thee, we call aloud,
For thy great light!

(TRUMPETS)

First Herald: Hear ye! hear ye; all people!
Alma Mater doth speak.

Alma Mater: Rise my children, thou art worthy.
Graciously I give my blessing,
Round my throne today I bind thee
With the golden chain of service.
With thy brothers linked together
Thou art mine, and mine forever.
In the beauty of the rainbow,
In the shining spears of starlight,
In the silvery beams of moonlight,
In the crimson shafts of dawning,
In the golden rays of sunlight,
In the gleam of lightning flashing,
There doth shine the light of Wisdom,
Light our sacred torch keeps burning.
Light, thyself, thy light of learning!

All hail! Alma Mater,
Thy cherished name we sing.
All hail gracious mother,
To thee our voices ring!
Through glad days yet fleeting,
Through years that are to be,
We laud thee, O Marshall,
Our hearts sing to thee!
Thy walls rise in beauty
Mid shade of vine and tree.
They shelter thy children
And bind them safe to thee.
Thy spirit, O Marshall,
In every heart beats high,
Live on, Alma Mater,
Thy name ne'er shall die.

Benediction.....Dr. T. S. Hamilton

O WORSHIP THE KING

O worship the King, all glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love;
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavillioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

Robert Grant.

THE OATH

I, about to be graduated from Marshall College, an institution of the State of West Virginia,

ACKNOWLEDGING

My obligation to the beneficent Creator of all men, who has bestowed upon me the blessings of life in a great and prosperous state whose marvelous beauty of mountain, forest, and stream and whose extraordinary riches of natural resources hourly urge me to higher planes of civic duty and reverent thinking;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to the race, which has made me heir to a civilization wrought out by centuries of toil and thought and preserved by the bravery of its heroes, the wisdom of its sages and the faith of its saints:

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to this nation and to this Commonwealth, which through guardian organization and through open school doors, have jointly made it possible for me to come into the full riches of my natural and my racial inheritances;

HERE AND NOW PLEDGE

LIFELONG LOYALTY to the shaping ideals of American citizenship:
LIBERTY, bounded by law drawn for the common weal,
EQUALITY, of opportunity for all, and
JUSTICE, administered in accord with the dictates of the common will, lawfully expressed.

I HERE AND NOW FURTHER PLEDGE

That in all the years to be granted to me and to the fullness of my allotted strength

I SHALL SERVE

both alone and with my fellows, to the high ends that uncleanness, greed, selfishness, and pride shall lessen, that integrity, charity, comradeship, and reverence shall increase, that this, my generation, shall pass on to the generations to come after it a happier and nobler civilization.
