THE PROLOGUE

Many long years have flitted by
Since we were children, you and I,
When midst enchanted fields we strayed
Where elves and sprites in rapture played
In woody glades by sparkling streams,
We peeped as they danced in the golden beams,
There were goblins, princes, witches and queens
And Story Book Children not yet in their teens;
How I long as I dream of childhood lore,
I could watch them again as in days of yore.

THE STORY

Once upon a time, in a fair realm of the West, where, in each clear-skied Spring-time, the fairy folk come from the purple mountains to work anew the miracles of sunshine, youth, and love,—a band of happy children played in a forest. As they played they came of a sudden upon a spacious grassy glade, where the tall poplars cast long shadows across the turf, and a magnificent throne, curiously ornamented with rare handiwork, at their feet. While the children gazed upon this sight, lo, another wonder! For out of a thicket sprang the most frolicksome sprite of all sprites, Puck—to greet them and play with them, and he was the merriest playfellow of all.

Hark! The sound of far-off elfin trumpets! The children stopped their play to listen. Nearer and nearer came the Fairy music. The children began to dance for joy. Finger on lips Puck led them into the bushes, whispering that if they would be very, very quiet, so as not to frighten away the elfin band, they would see passing wondrous sights, for this was the one day of all the year when the good folks of Story-land held carnival before the Queen of Fairyland. And as Titania waved her magic wand the Story-Folk of Fairyland appeared:—

1. The Fairies dance.
2. The Toys become alive.
3. The Pied Piper pipes to the Children.
4. Pandora opens her box.
The Troubles appear.
5. Scheherazade and his Forty Thieves.
Also some Village Maidens!
6. The Hesperides, daughters of the West Wind, dance.
7. Peter Pan and his Shadow Make Merry.
8. Snow-White and the Dwarfs come, also the Prince.
9. Hansel and Gretel are lost in the Forest.
10. The Witch lures them on.
11. Fairies lead them to safety.
12. Swordsmen salute the Queen.
13. Everyone rejoices at the return of Spring.

THE EPILOGUE

And thus with fairies, sprites and elves,
Children of man amuse themselves,
And altho years have rolled away
We still delight in fancy's play
For hopes and faith are to the Man
What Fairies are to childhood's clan.
Without such dreams, such hopes, such cheer,
The world would be a cell most drear,
For love and pleasures you will find
Are only creatures of the Mind.

MY FAITH LOOKS UP TO THEE
(Number 176)

My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
Oh, let me from this day
Be wholly thine.

May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As Thou hast died for me,
Oh, may my love to Thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

THE OATH

---

I, about to be graduated from Marshall College, an institution of the State of West Virginia,

ACKNOWLEDGING

My obligation to the beneficent Creator of all men, who has bestowed upon me the blessings of life in a great and prosperous state whose marvelous beauty of mountain, forest, and stream and whose extraordinary riches of natural resources hourly urge me to higher planes of civic duty and reverent thinking;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to the race, which has made me heir to a civilization wrought out by centuries of toil and thought and preserved by the bravery of its heroes, the wisdom of its sages and the faith of its saints;

ACKNOWLEDGING

My debt to this nation and to this Commonwealth, which through guardian organization and through open school doors, have jointly made it possible for me to come into the full riches of my natural and my racial inheritances;

HERE AND NOW PLEDGE

LIFELONG LOYALTY to the shaping ideals of American citizenship:
LIBERTY, bounded by law drawn for the common weal,
EQUALITY, of opportunity for all, and JUSTICE, administered in accord with the dictates of the common will, lawfully expressed.

I HERE AND NOW FURTHER PLEDGE

That in all the years to be granted to me and to the fullness of my allotted strength

I SHALL SERVE

both alone and with my fellows, to the high ends that uncleanness, greed, selfishness and pride shall lesson, that integrity, charity, comradeship and reverence shall increase, that this, my generation, shall pass on to the generations to come after it a happier and nobler civilization.
